The First Wahi

Forms of Wahi

- True Dreams
- Jibreel AS inspiring it into the Prophet ﷺ's heart
- Jibreel AS visiting him in human form
- Ringing bells
- Jibreel AS in his true form
- Directly from Allah, behind a veil

Wahi through Dreams

- The first unofficial form of wahi the Prophet got was dreams. He would see things in dreams and they would come true perfectly.
- "Nothing remains of prophethood except glad tidings in the form of true dreams" it's a sign of prophethood.
- 1/46th of prophethood is true dreams. Why? For 6 months he only had dreams while he was a prophet for 40 years. The fraction is accurate to the actual amount of time.

Dreams in Islam

- True dreams: People who have true dreams at night are people who have pure tongues during the day (hence why children often have true dreams)
- Good dreams: shouldn't be shared except with someone who loves you a lot or someone who is very intelligent. Normally take longer to come through: this allows you to enjoy it for longer.
- Bad dreams: should not be shared. If you wake up in the night, make wudhu, recite, etc. Typically take place immediately, and that's a mercy from Allah (so as to prevent us from overthinking)
- Neutral dreams are often from the nafs, or from subconscious thoughts
- Dreams are suspended, and they do not have meaning until they are interpreted.
- Angels have an influence on people.

Sources of Dreams

1. From the nafs
2. from Allah
3. from angels

4. from shaytan
5. from thoughts
6. from surroundings

Divine Signs of Prophethood

- Nature's Greetings: The Prophet would hear stones, trees, and mountains giving salam to him as the Prophet.
- Angels Presence: he would hear the angels whispering, see their light.
- Seeking Isolation: would go to Cave Hira for seclusion for meditation and reflection. Aisha RA used the word yatahanna (avoiding sin) to describe this part of his life. She narrated this story as heard from the Prophet.
- Why the Cave of Hira? He could see the Kaaba from there. He could avoid idolatry. He could ponder and think.

The First Wahi

Dates Covered: 9/24, 9/25

The Hadith Narrating Official Wahi

A'isha, the wife of the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), reported:

The first (form) with which the revelation to the Messenger of Allah was the true vision in sleep. And he did not see any vision but it came like the bright gleam of dawn.

Thenceforth solitude became dear to him and he used to seclude himself in the cave of Hira', where he would engage in tahannuth (and that is a worship for a number of nights) before returning to his family and getting provisions again for this purpose. He would then return to Khadija and take provisions for a like period, till Truth came upon him while he was in the cave of Hira'.

There came to him the angel and said: Recite, to which he replied: I am not lettered. He took hold of me [the Apostle said] and pressed me, till I was hard pressed; thereafter he let me off and said: Recite. I said: I am not lettered.

He then again took hold of me and pressed me for the second time till I was hard pressed and then let me off and said: Recite, to which I replied: I am not lettered.

He took hold of me and pressed me for the third time, till I was hard pressed and then let me go and said: Recite in the name of your Lord Who created, created man from a clot of blood. Recite. And your most bountiful Lord is He Who taught the use of pen, taught man what he knew not.

Then the Prophet returned therewith, his heart was trembling, and he went to Khadija and said: Wrap me up, wrap me up! So they wrapped him till the fear had left him. He then said to Khadija: O Khadija! What has happened to me? and he informed her of the happening, saying: I fear for myself.

She replied: It can't be. Be happy. I swear by Allah that He shall never humiliate you. By Allah, you join ties of relationship, you speak the truth, you bear people's burden, you help the destitute, you entertain guests, and you help against the vicissitudes which affect people.

Khadija then took him to Waraqa b. Naufal (her paternal uncle). And he was the man who had embraced Christianity in the Days of Ignorance (i. e. before Islam) and he used to write books in Arabic and, therefore, wrote Injil in Arabic as God willed that he should write.

He was very old and had become blind Khadija said to him: O uncle! listen to the son of your brother. Waraqa b. Naufal said: O my nephew! What did you see?

The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), then, informed him what he had seen, and Waraqa said to him: It is namus that God sent down to Musa. Would that I were then (during your prophetic career) a young man. Would that I might be alive when your people would expel you!

The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said: Will they drive me out? Waraqa said: Yes. Never came a man with a like of what you have brought but met hostilities. If I see your day I shall help you wholeheartedly.

Commentary on the Hadith

- Khadidja RA's Response: Khadidja RA's response to the Prophet was perfect. She provided him physical and verbal comfort, she reacted calmly, and she took him to the right person.
- Language Insights: How did Hebrew (Ibrani) get its name? Ibrahim AS crossed the Euphrates river, and Allah made him forget Syriac and learn Hebrew instead.
- Explaining Waraqa's Statement:
 - Meaning of "Namus": means a secret communicator (but in a positive way)
 - Comparison to Musa: Why did Waraqa say Musa instead of Isa? Because the Prophet has more in common with Musa.
 - Warning of Resistance: Why did Waraqa tell him he would be resisted and how does that apply to us? Even the Prophet knew he would face resistance and rejection, even though his society cared more about him than ours care for us.
 - Waraqa's Special Status: The Prophet saw in a dream that Waraqa was wearing white clothes and was glowing in his grave.
- Wisdom of Squeezing
 - To alert the Prophet ﷺ
 - To show divine strength/create a physical impression
 - To prepare him for the burden of revelation

Scholarly Insight

- Multiple Narrations of the Hadith
 - This version of the hadith is from Sahih Muslim.
 - This hadith also appears in a few chapters from Sahih Bukhari.
- Imam Zuhri as a Narrator: Bukhari uses the narration from Imam Zuhri in his chapter about Dream Interpretation.
 - Imam Zuhri (a student of the tabi'een, never met a sahabi) "I heard that the Prophet used to climb mountains and consider jumping off".
 - Misconception: Many people used this to say even the Prophet has suicidal thoughts.
 - Lack of awareness: Some people might see that this is in Bukhari and think it's not worth questioning.

- Clarification: Sahih Bukhari does not have weak hadith, rather Bukhari communicates his awareness of the existence of this narration by putting it in an irrelevant chapter.
- Imam Bukhari's Hadith Structure: Why is this detail added in the chapter about dreams and not in the first chapter it appears in?
 - Scholarly Writing: The scholars made these books for scholars, they write in a very cryptic way.
 - Bukhari's Writing Style: When he doesn't agree with the validity of the hadith, he will bring the detail in a different and irrelevant chapter.
 - He will use the strongest narration in the relevant chapter and include the others to show that he knows they exist.
- Dispelling Misconceptions: Imam Zuhri commonly would say "I heard", weakening his chain, especially in this hadith in which he alludes to the Prophet being suicidal. Imam Bukhari is putting it in his book the way that he did in order to show his opinion. Commentators on Bukhari say that he shows his opinion through his organization.

Significance of the First Wahi

- Pause in Wahi After the First Revelation: There is a pause in wahi in the beginning. This was to let it settle in for the Prophet.
- Most significant Event in History: There is nothing more significant in the history of human kind than the Prophet receiving wahi. This was Allah shifting the direction of humanity for the remainder of time.
- Command of "Iqra": The fact that the Prophets first command was read, and that he needed to have knowledge to read is a powerful reminder to us. Sheikh explains the grammar nuance: not just "read" but "with close connection to the name of Allah"
- Story: Sheikh spent some time with a scholar in Gaza.
 - When he explained that he teaches students in America, he was told to pass on this message.
 - Insight on the Command Iqra: When we process iqra (when we analyze and observe) do it through the lens of bismi rabbika
 - Explanation: Do not process anything in the world without the lens of Allah.
 - Bismi rabbik: knowledge is not valuable unless it's through the right lens. People have done many horrible things with their knowledge. It has to be rooted in the right values.

- The Significance of Pursuing Knowledge: Islam has always been rooted in knowledge and learning. The first word of the religion was “read”
- Difference from Other Religions: Many other religions don’t permit learning; islam is the opposite. It encourages thinking, it encourages asking questions. We do not fear that learning will make a person “wake up”
- Humility: Allah created us from a clot of blood.

Revelation of Mudathir and Muzammil

The Revelation

Jabir b. 'Abdullah al-Ansari who was one of the Companions of the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) reported:

"The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) told about the intermission of revelation and narrated: While I was walking I heard a voice from the sky, and raising my head I saw the angel who had come to me in Hira', sitting on a Throne between heaven and earth I was terror-stricken on that account and came back (to my family) and said: Wrap me up, wrap me up! So they wrapped me up, and the Blessed and Most Exalted Allah sent down: "You who are shrouded, arise and deliver warning, your Lord magnify, your clothes cleanse, and defilement shun," and "defilement" means idols; and then the revelation was followed continuously." [Sahih Muslim 161a]

The first sections of each surah were revealed.

- Muzammir and Mudathir are synonyms, they both mean being wrapped with cloth.
- The Prophet is getting his command of being a messenger.

Surah Al Mudatthir (74)

List of Commands

- Warn the people (74:2)
- Praise Allah (74:3)
- Clean yourself (physically and spiritually) (74:4)
- Keep away from filth (74:5)
- Do not hold favors over others (74:6)
- Have sabr (74:7)

Observation - Wrapped in Cloth

- "Wrapped in your cloak" (74:1) directly acknowledges how the Prophet told Khadidja RA to wrap him, and he sat wrapped.

- Real Life Story: Sheikh tells the story of an actual scholar who received a letter from an old lady. In it she thanked him for dispelling the image of scholars being poor and unclean. Sheikh mentions that this scholar is very well presented and well groomed.

Command to Cleanse

- Starting Prophethood on the Right Foot: the first thing that changes when a person enters a new environment is their uniform. Hence, why the Prophet is being told cleanse yourself (74:4)
- Significance of Clothing: It is one of the first ways that people are occupied and oppressed.
 - Algerian Resistance: There was a Sheikh named Ibn Badees. Ibn Badees single-handedly helped resist the mental colonization of the French by helping the Algerians hold on to their Islamic identity.
 - Mental Colonization: There are various forms of colonization. There is the literal kind, and there is the mental kind. The more common of the two is the mental kind.
 - Metrics of Modern Society: The metrics of modern society are very difficult to undo. That is why building an Islamic identity in children is so important.
- Keeping away from filth: the best of people from the beginning of humanity have always been the pure people. Sheikh gives the example of how purity brings respect. People will not listen at first, but consistency speaks.

Command to not Hold Favors

- Do not do a favour expecting more 'in return' (74:6)
- Taamnun in ayah 6: it's a command not to hold things over people's heads or that you are doing others a favor. The ayah translation on the website does not do justice.

Command to Have Sabr

- "Have sabr in your Lord's cause." (74:7)
- The Meaning of Sabr: Originally, it meant imprisonment.
 - Now means cactus fruit (the original of which was actually bitter)
 - Ibn Al Qayyim has a text about patience and gratitude. Udadatus Sabireen Wa iddatu Shakireen. He compares sabr to swallowing something extremely bitter without any change in your facial expression.

- Sabr then can mean to tolerate.

Role Model Example: MAR knows so many people who he could take advantage of. But he has never left people except that he gave them something to do. He uses his respect and accolades to motivate people to take responsibility.

Surah Al-Muzzammil (73)

List of Commands

- Night prayer (majority of the night)
- Quran recitation
- Overall value of night worship

Command to Pray at Night

- “Pray at night except for a small portion” (73:2-3)
 - The first 10 ayat command an extreme level of ibadah
 - Emphasis on internal and unseen deeds over external actions.
 - Reason: The only way to counter nifaq (hypocrisy) is through these private deeds, hence why it’s commanded early.
- Revelation Context of The Surahs Later Ayat
 - Last ayah of the surah: Ibn ‘Abbas says it was revealed 10 years after the first ayat
 - Revealed due to the Prophet ﷺ praying until his feet swelled.

Command to Recite Qur’an

- “Recite the Qur’an in a measured, well-paced manner (tarteel)” (73:4)
 - رَتِّلْ (rattil) comes from رَتَدَ (rattada) meaning “teeth,” referring to well-spaced or orderly.
- “We will place upon you a heavy word.” (73:5)
 - Allah acknowledges the weight and responsibility of the message.
 - The Qur’an is a heavy speech (spiritually, emotionally, and mission-wise)

Value of Night Worship

- “Indeed, worship in the night is more impactful and suitable for recitation” (73:6)

- نَاشِئَة (nashi'ah) meaning to grow, rise.
- Meaning: The ibadah done at night is more impactful and sincere.
- The work of da'wah continues day and night. No time boundaries.
- Concept of Work–Life Balance: Sheikh mentions: work–life balance looks different for those in da'wah or 'ilm.
 - Ibn Muthqiha (?) On the day of his son's janazah, he was about to leave the courtyard, then turned back; spent his whole life there pursuing knowledge.
 - Many scholars would forget to eat or sleep due to their focus on 'ilm.
 - People who are relied on don't have time to relax.
- Modern Parallels and Lessons
 - Example: MII students - those learning should study with urgency and responsibility.
 - "Learn as if all your teachers were going to be in a plane crash tomorrow."
 - Salahuddin Ayyubi felt the burden of Al-Aqsa at age 5, believing no one else would do it.
 - Lesson: Approach the deen with urgency and desperation – as if you are the only one carrying it.
 - When you care enough, your body changes.
 - Example: MAW, barely slept in 5–6 years since starting Miftaah.
 - Dedication reshapes your life.
- تَبَتَّل (tabattal): to cut off, used here as cutting off all distractions for Allah.
 - Example: Imam al-Ghazali wrote about 'alaaq – things that tie a person down.
 - Those with fewer attachments (e.g., doctors able to go on Gaza missions) can serve more freely.
 - Lesson: You can't wait for the perfect environment to study or serve. Things that will naturally happen (eating, sleeping, etc.) don't need to be overplanned. Don't waste mental energy on what's already guaranteed.
- Summary: The early command of da'wah was intense, demanding total devotion, sacrifice, and detachment from comfort.

The First Converts

The First Converts

Dates Covered: 10/30

Quote from Imam Abu Hanifa: "Amongst the free men it was Abu Bakr. Amongst the women it was Khadijah. The first slave to embrace Islam was Zaid ibn Haritha whilst Ali was the first child to come into the fold of Islam."

Khadidja RA

- The First Muslim: It is undebated that she was the first muslim.
- The First to Pray Salah: there are early narrations of the Prophet and Khadidja RA praying together.
- A Role Granted By Allah: There is divine wisdom in Khadidja RA being the wife of the Prophet in the beginnings of his messengerhood. Not only was she an emotional support to the Prophet but she was also a physical support to the early ummah with her patience, wealth, etc.
- Her Sacrifice: Many people would reject the message in her same position (with several young children in the house, fear of being persecuted, etc). It required a lot of sacrifice to do what she did.
- Enduring the Chaos of Revelation: Her biggest virtue is that she endured the chaos of revelation.
- Dispelling Misconceptions: People try to paint Khadidja RA as a rich business woman who was taking advantage of the Prophet. Her sacrifices and struggles dispel that idea.
 - Rather her use of her money for Allah is virtuous, and we should feel offended when people try to insult her.
- Hadith about Her Place in Jannah: Abu Huraira reported:
"The Angel Gabriel came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and he said, "O Messenger of Allah, here is Khadijah coming to you with a dish of stew, food, and drink. When she arrives before you, greet her with peace on behalf of her Lord and myself. Give her glad tidings of a palace in Paradise made of reeds, wherein there will be no turbulence, nor fatigue."
Sahih Al Bukhari 3820

Waraqah

- Wearing White Clothes: A'isha RA narrated: The Prophet was questioned about Waraqa. Khadija RA said to him, "He believed in you, but died before you appeared as a prophet." The Prophet then responded "I was shown him in a dream wearing white clothes, and if he had been one of the inhabitants of hell he would have been wearing different clothing." Masabih 4623

Abu Bakr As-Siddiq (Real Name Abdullah ibn Uthman)

- Suggested Story About His Conversion: There are suggestions that Abu Bakr RA came to the Prophet asking about his denunciation of idols and that was how he converted.
 - Sheikh mentions that there are issues with this narrative, as the Prophet was not preaching publicly
- Conversion through Proximity/Close Relationship: The Prophet and Abu Bakr were best friends since childhood with the Prophet being 2 years older than Abu Bakr. It is more likely that they just shared conversations leading to Abu Bakr RA's conversion.
- Timing of their Deaths: Sheikh mentions that the Prophet and Abu Bakr both died 63 years old, with Abu Bakr being caliph in his last 2 years of life after the Prophet's death.
- Debated to be the Third Muslim: While he may have been the next to convert, more preference is given to members of the household of the Prophet like Zaid and Ali.

Zaid ibn Haritha

- Freed Slave Status: Zaid was under the guardianship of the Prophet not as a slave anymore but as a freed slave.
 - He was around 30 yrs old at the time but still considered a part of the Prophet's household and an adopted son. It is plausible to consider him the second or third person to become muslim due to his proximity.

Children of the Household

- Ali ibn Abi Talib: 7-8 yrs old at revelation, and the first cousin of the Prophet through Abu Talib. Likely to have been the second or third person to become muslim also due to his proximity.
- The Prophets Daughters: similarly to Zaid and Ali, they are believed to have been introduced to islam all at the same time.

Year 2: Quiet Call

Year 2: Quiet Call

Key Events:

Conversion of Uthman

Conversion of Arqam

Conversion of Abu Dharr

Abu Bakr's Converts (Core)

Abu Bakr's Converts (Core)

Dates Covered: 10/1

Context

- Dawah Structure and Social Climate: The Prophet and Abu Bakr RA focused on giving dawah to significant individuals (those with tribal leverage, useful skills, wealth etc.) While Quraish was minutely aware of it, they did not give it much importance.
- Misconceptions About the Sahaba: Sometimes we paint the image that the sahaba were poor and struggling. Only 10-15 of them were actually poor. The remainder are wealthy, respected, etc. and were put through difficult situations due to being muslim.
- All Sahaba are Converts: Every single sahabi is a convert, by the nature of dawah.
 - Reminder: Umar RA said he fears a time where people will be born muslim and unappreciative.

Uthman ibn Affan

- Age at Conversion and Death: 5-6 years younger than the Prophet. About 35 when he became muslim, and in his 80's when he died.
- Soothsayings from his Aunt: Some narrations mention that his aunt was a soothsayer. Soothsayers would speak in poems and rhymes, and there was a time Uthman RA's aunt told him that the Prophet ﷺ had come with truth and that he should follow him.
- The Prophet's Dawah: Soon after the Prophet gave him dawah and he converted with Abu Bakr RA.
- Insights about His Character: He was naturally inclined to fitra (ex: he had strong haya)

Uthman ibn Madhun

- Incident with the Poet: There was a famous poet, whose poetry was one of the 7 displayed on the Ka'aba
 - In an incident in which this poet was reciting, he claimed that "Everything other than Allah is null and void, and all good things will come to an end"

- Uthman stopped the poet and said “The first part is true but the second part is not, the rewards of Jannah do not end”
- Uthman ibn Madhun was then beaten by the crowd of people nearby.
- He went blind in one eye from this incident.
- One of the First Sahaba to Die: The Prophet famously placed a rock near his grave to mark the spot. Whenever his family would pass away, he would instruct the sahaba to “bury them with their predecessor.”

Az Zubair ibn Awwam

- Age: Ranging from 8-16 yo.
- Close Friends: Ali RA and Talha RA due to closeness in age.
- Abuse from Relatives: He was harmed a lot by his relatives
- Nephew of Khadija RA: His father Awwam was Khadija RA’s biological brother.
- Cousin of the Prophet: His mother Safiyya was the paternal aunt of the Prophet.
- Reputation as a Warrior: he is famous among sahaba for being a warrior.
 - He even named all his children after other warriors among the sahaba
- Famous for His Toughness: He narrates himself that Safiyya and his uncles would tie him to a pole and beat him. Onlookers would ask why, and Safiyya would respond that she was doing it to “make him tough.”

Abd Al-Rahman ibn Awf

- Age: In his 30s.
- Story with the Elderly Scholar: When Abd Al Rahman was traveling in Yemen, he would greet an elderly man who was a scholar of Ahlul Kitab (The Books). The man, blind and old, would ask him the same thing every time he came from Mecca: Did anybody oppose the religion of Mecca yet? The man would always predict the coming of a Prophet that would oppose idolatry and change Mecca.
- His Response to the Prophets Dawah: When the Prophet and Abu Bakr came to him with the message, he was already somewhat warmed up to it.

Abu Ubaidah bin Al Jarrah

- Minimal Notes: No long narrations. More details available in Riyadh Al Salihin notes
- Uhud Member: Participated in the battle of Uhud.
- 10 Promised Jannah: He is among the 10 narrated by the Prophet to have been promised jannah.

Sa'd ibn Abi Waqqas

- Quote About his Position as An Early Muslim
 - Context: There were points in the Khilafa of Umar RA where Sa'd was given government positions. A notable one was when he was placed in charge of Kufa, Iraq. The place was notorious for having people that were unsatisfied with all of their leaders.
 - In response to them he said "I swear by Allah, among 7 muslims I was the first muslim to shoot an arrow in the path of Allah"
- Participant of Several Battles: his virtues will be discussed more in the battles of Badr and Uhud.

Utba bin Ghazwan

- Quote about His Position as An Early Muslim
 - Context: When the muslims built Busra in Iraq (in the time of Umar RA's caliphate) he became its Amir (leader)
 - In an address to their people he said: "I saw myself to be the 7th out of 7 muslims (he only knew of 7 other muslims at the time) and there were moments of our lives where we had nothing but leaves on the trees to eat, to the point where our lips were cracked. And I tore cloth and ripped it in half, and I wore half and Sa'd bin Malik wore the other half. That was how we were 30 years ago and now there is not a single person from that group alive except that we are all governors of lands. I ask Allah to protect me in that I am honored in the eyes of the people, but in the eyes of Allah I am small and insignificant. And there is not a single prophet that came to this earth except that their following turned into a kingdom."
- The Prophets Prediction: Safinah reported: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "The Caliphate after me will last for thirty years, then there will be kingship." Sa'id said to Safinah, "Count the Caliphates of Abu Bakr, Umar, and Uthman?" Then, Safinah said, "You must count the Caliphate of Ali." Sa'id said, "We found them to total thirty years."

Talha ibn Ubaydallah

- Age: 13 yrs old.
- Context: Talha narrates that around the time he had met a monk who, knowing he was from Mecca, questioned him about a man named Ahmed.
- Conversion: Soon after returning to Mecca he met with Abu Bakr (who was from the same tribe; Banu Taym) and converted
- The Name Al-Qarinan: Abu Bakr and Talha came to have the nickname Al-Qarinan (meaning tied together). When their tribe became aware of their conversion they tied them to each other in an attempt to dissuade them from islam.

Saeed Ibn Zayd

- Son of a Hanif: The son of Zayd bin Amr (a hanif from the days of Jahilliya)
- Brother In Law of Umar: Married to Fatim bint Al Khattab (the sister of Umar RA)
- Role in the Conversion of Umar: He is present in the house when Umar RA becomes muslim.

Khalid Ibn Saeed

- The Dream: Khalid ibn Sa'id found himself on the edge of a fire, about to be pushed into it by his father. The Prophet ﷺ then appeared, grabbing him by the waist belt and pulling him away. After waking up, Khalid shared his dream with Abu Bakr RA.
- Narration of the Prophet: after Khalid Ibn Saeed accepted Islam there are narrations:

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "O Khalid, I am calling you to the worship of Allah alone, Who has no partner – and I forbid you from the worship of idols that can neither hear nor see, nor bring harm nor benefit." Khalid then said: "And who calls me to this?" The Prophet ﷺ replied: "I call you to testify that there is no god but Allah, and that I am the Messenger of Allah." Khalid said: "I testify that there is no god but Allah and that you are the Messenger of Allah." The Prophet ﷺ then said: "Praise be to Allah Who has guided you, O Khalid."

- Prophet's Comments: The Quraish later became offended by the Prophet's condescension towards idol worship.

Abu Salama

- Marriage: He is the husband of Umm Salama
- Death: died in the Battle of Uhud.

Arqam Ibn Abi Arqam

- Owner of the First Gathering Spot: His house was the first Dar Al Arqam (gathering house).
 - Did not exist in this phase of Seerah yet.

Other Notable Converts

CONTINUED: 10/1 AND 10/2

First of the Female Converts

The exact first female convert (after Khadidja RA) is debated.

1. Umm Ayman (debated to be first)
2. Umm Al Fadhil (the wife of Abbas, the Prophet's uncle) (debated to be first)
3. Asma bint Abi Bakr (Abu Bakr RA's daughter)
4. Fatim Ibn Al Khattab (the wife of Saeed Ibn Zaid and sister of Umar RA)

Abdullah Ibn Masoud

Narration: Abdullah ibn Masud was a young shepherd working for Uqbah ibn Abi Muayt. One day, the Prophet ﷺ passed by him along with Abu Bakr. The Prophet said, "O boy, do you have any milk that you can give us to drink?" Ibn Masud replied, "I cannot, for I am entrusted with these animals and they are not mine."

- Uqbah Ibn Abi Muayt is one of their worst enemies. He is later executed in the Battle of Badr.
- This occurred after some tension had already built between the muslims and kuffar of Mecca. The muslims were already in hiding.

The Prophet then said, "Do you have a goat that has never been mated?" He said, "Yes." So he brought such a goat. The Prophet held the goat, placed his hand over its udder, and invoked the name of Allah. Instantly, milk began to flow from it. He called for a vessel, milked it, and both he and Abu Bakr drank – then Ibn Masud also drank.

- The Prophet ﷺ has produced many similar miracles, in which animals are affected by his touch or food becomes abundant.

When they finished, the Prophet said to the udder, "Shrink back," and it returned to its previous state. Ibn Masud, amazed, said, "O Messenger of Allah, teach me some of what you say." The Prophet smiled and said, "You are a smart and intelligent young man."

- One of the wisdoms of the Prophet ﷺ is that he knows how to build up personalities. Ibn Masoud is a young teenager in this interaction and having his intelligence be recognized and praised is a source of motivation.
 - In this first meeting, Ibn Masoud demonstrated two valuable traits: intelligence and trustworthiness (not giving up the goat)
- Ibn Masoud learned 70 surahs directly from the mouth of the Prophet ﷺ.

From that day onward, Ibn Masud began to accompany the Prophet ﷺ, learned from him, and accepted Islam – becoming one of the earliest believers. (Ibn Hisham, vol. 1, p. 390–391)

- Abdullah Ibn Masoud endured lots of torture as an early muslim.

Jaafer ibn Abi Talib

Narration: One day, Abu Talib passed by while the Messenger of Allah was praying, and with him was Ali, praying beside him. Abu Talib said to his son: "My son, what is this religion that you are following?" He replied: "Father, I have believed in Allah and His Messenger and in what he has brought, and I have prayed with him to Allah." Abu Talib said: "Truly, he (Muhammad) calls you only to good. Remain close to him." Then Ja'far ibn Abi Talib came upon them while they were praying, and Abu Talib said to him: "My son, stand by your cousin and follow his religion, and you will never be led except to goodness." So Ja'far accepted Islam and joined the Prophet ﷺ in his prayer. (Ibn Hisham, As-Sirah an-Nabawiyah, vol. 1, p. 245–247)

- Jaafer was encouraged by Abu Talib to join the Prophet ﷺ and Ali.

- Abu Talib's oldest son died without accepting Islam however the remaining 3 brothers Ali, Aqil, and Jaafer all became muslim.
 - Aqil accepted islam after hijra.

Family of Yasir

- Father: Yasir
- Mother: Sumayya
- Sons: Ammar ibn Yasir and another brother
- Sumaya and Yasir were slaves.
 - Some books of Seerah mention that they were not originally slaves.
 - They came from Yemen to look for Yasir's missing brother.
 - In one narration their caravan got raided and they got captured.
 - In another narration Yasir was never enslaved but married Sumaya who was a slave, and endured abuses with her due their lack of tribal status.
- Sumaya's Slave Background
 - Some narrations say that she was a slave of Banu Makhzum and others say she was directly enslaved by Abu Jahal.
 - She was abused by Abu Jahal.
- Sumaya is the first shaheed in islam
 - The story of their persecution as a family is famous and to be discussed later.
 - Yasir was also killed and Ammar was beaten to near death.

Suhaib Ar Rumi

- Originally from Iraq, a city near Mosul
- His father was a significant figure from the Lakhmids and used to work for Kisra.
 - Recap: The Persian Empire had an Arab tribe that was originally from Yemen (the Lakhmids (Manadhira)) who resettled there.
- Suhaib was captured by the Romans and sold into slavery.
 - Suhaib is called Ar Rumi (the Roman) but he is neither a slave nor a Roman.
- Was freed by Abdullah ibn Judan
 - Recap: Abdullah ibn Judan was famous for camel drivethrough, hilf al fudhul.

- Reminder about slavery. Slavery in Arabia is not the same as transatlantic slavery. The slave status was less significant to the Arabs than the foreigner/tribal status.
- Became very wealthy through business.
 - He was not a “simple guy”. Coming from a noble family, he knew the tricks of trade.
- Participated in all the battles
 - Has a significant hijra story
- Learned a lot of Quran very quickly
 - Umar RA appointed him as one of the back-ups to lead salah if he was not present

Musaab ibn Umair

- Popular among the Meccans
 - He was young, charming, and handsome young man
- Set as an equal to the Prophet ﷺ by the kuffar
 - There was a point where the kuffar were saying if you have the Prophet ﷺ, we have Musaab
 - Despite his young age, when he spoke people would listen.
- Was abused by his mother for trying to become muslim
 - Beaten, tied up, locked in the house
- Lesson from his conversion. Living a virtuous life is not easy.

Abu Dhar Al Ghifari RA

- Non-Meccan: Originally from the Ghifar tribe of Yemen. His tribe was originally known for being the equivalent of “highway robbers”
- Publicly Muslim: The first to announce his muslim status to the public.
- Giving Salaam: The first to say salam to the Prophet
- Prayer Before He Knew It: In narration he mentions “I was praying for 3 years before I knew of the Prophet, anywhere Allah would face me, I would pray. And I would pray for as long as I could at night”
- A Narration About How He Found Islam: Although there are multiple narrations from him, Sheikh shares one from Ibn Abbas
 - Brother’s Trip: Abu Dhar has a brother named Unais, whom he often asked to take care of his business. One time he heard that his brother was going to Mecca, and he asked him to “go check the situation” (regarding the Prophet and the message of Islam)
 - Witness to the Prophet: When his brother returned he informed him about the Prophet “commanding people to do good and forbidding evil.” He also spoke about how the Prophet was facing abuse and accusations.
 - Quranic Influence: Unais was himself an expert in poetry, and clearly stated to Abu Dhar that the Quran he heard was not soothsayings or poetry.
 - Abu Dhar’s Journey: Abu Dhar after hearing this decided to go himself (but carefully). He leaves with just a single leather sack of water.
 - Arrival at Mecca: He arrives at the Haram and is looking for the Prophet but does not know what he looks like.
 - Looking for the Prophet: Eventually he asks a weak looking person “Who is the one they refer to as sabih (leaver of religion)?”
 - The Attacks: Realizing that he was an outsider asking about the Prophet, people gathered around him and started attacking him.
 - Injured and Hungry: Then he washed his face and drank zam zam, from which he mentions he survived 30 days and even gained weight off of.
 - Specialness of Zamzam: The Prophet said that zamzam is like food.

- Seeing the Prophet: There was one night when he was hiding between the cloth of the kaaba, while two women were doing tawaf to the idols. They saw movement on the Kaaba and left in a panic.
- Prophet and Abu Bakr's Tawaf: The Prophet and Abu Bakr had seen the women and spoken to them, allowing Abu Dhar to realize that this was the Prophet. The Prophet and Abu Bakr proceeded to do tawaf.
- Abu Dhar Greeting: Abu Dhar comes out from behind the cover and greets the Prophet with salam for the first time in history.
- Prophet's Joy: The Prophet was incredibly happy to receive such a greeting. He then asks Abu Dhar where he is from
- Reaction to Abu Dhar's Origin: Abu Dhar explains that he is from Ghifar, to which the Prophet slaps his head, and Abu Dhar fears he displeased the Prophet by stating his true origin.
- Further Questioning: He asks: How long have you been here? AD: 30 days. P: What did you eat? AD: Just zamzam
- Narration From The Prophet: This is when the Prophet says zamzam is food and a cure for disease.
- Alternate/Preferred Narration:
 - In this narration it is favored that Ali RA converted him.
 - He lived with Ali RA for some time, who kept his cover.
 - The Prophet also advised him to stay private however he decided to announce himself as muslim publicly, provoking the beating.
 - Sheikh mentions that of the two stories this story makes more sense
- Duas for the Ghiffar: The Prophet would make dua for the Ghiffar often as he liked them a lot. The tribe would later accept islam.

Abu Musa Al Ashari

- Real Name: Abdullah ibn Qays
- Converted to Islam as a teenager in Yemen after hearing news about the Prophet ﷺ
- Traveled to Mecca to meet the Prophet ﷺ
- Instructed to return to his people and give dawah
- Single-handedly converted his tribe

SKIPPED IN CLASS

Amr ibn Abasa

- Early Muslim: To his knowledge he was 1/4th of islam when he first became Muslim.

- Hanif Before Islam: He was free from shirk in that he never believed in idols prior to islam.
- Origins: Lived in Yemen
- Conversion Narration: When he got to the Prophet ﷺ he was still giving dawah in private.
 - Amr Ibn Abasa asked the Prophet ﷺ "What are you?"
 - The Prophet responded, "Prophet of Allah and Messenger of Allah"
 - Amr: What message did he send you with?
 - The Prophet ﷺ : To destroy the idols, to maintain ties of kinship...
 - Amr: Who is following you?
 - The Prophet ﷺ : One man and one freed slave (referring to Abu Bakr and Zaid, Sheikh mentions he was downplaying it)
- The Prophet ﷺ's Advice: the Prophet ﷺ advised Amr against moving to Mecca to learn more about Islam because it was still unsafe for those without tribal protection.
- Reunited with The Prophet ﷺ: Much later, after the Prophet ﷺ made hijra to Madina, the news passes to Amr from the arriving caravans. He makes his way to Madina where he meets the Prophet ﷺ for the second time and learns about wudhu and salah.

Dhimaad ibn Tha'labah al-Azdi

- Ruqya Expert from Yemen: Dhimaad was a man from Yemen who specialized in providing ruqya. He came to Mecca during the early days of prophethood and initially sought to cure the Prophet ﷺ after hearing rumors that he was afflicted by sihr.
- The Prophet ﷺ's Recitation: The Prophet ﷺ recited the khutbah of need to Dhimaad 3 times in response.
- Dhimaad's Reaction: He responded "I've heard all the speech of soothsayers and magicians and I've never heard anything like that. Your eloquence is like the depths of the ocean..." loosely translated

The Dua That Was Recited

Al-hamdu lillahi nahmadhu wa nasta'inuhu wa nastaghfiruhu, wa na'udhu billahi min shururi anfusina wa min sayi'ati a'malina, man yahdihillahu fala mudilla lahu, wa man yudlil fala hadiya lahu. Wa ashadu an la ilaha illallahu wahduhu la sharika lahu, wa anna Muhammadan `abduhu wa rasuluhu.

Praise is to Allah, we praise Him and we seek His help and His forgiveness. We seek refuge with Allah from the evil of our own souls and from our bad deeds, Whomsoever Allah guides will never be led astray; and whoever is led astray, no one can guide. I bear witness that none has the right to be worshiped but Allah, alone with no partner or associate, and that Muhammad (ﷺ) is His slave and His Messenger. (Sunnan Ibn Majah 1892)

In-class Translation:

- Nasr for large victories
- Musa'ada means physical help and support
- Istiana means physical, emotional, and spiritual support
- Eloquence to a New Listener: To someone who has never heard this before it is stunning.
- Protection for his Tribe: When Dhimaad accepts islam he requests protection for his tribe
- Relevance to Later Seerah: A sahaba asked Dhimaad's tribe for a cup of water to make wudhu. The Prophet (ﷺ) later instructed them to give the same amount of water back.
- Another Narration about Conversion: In another narration about his conversion, the Prophet (ﷺ) gave Dhimaad dawah and he asked the Prophet (ﷺ) "If I follow you what do i get?". The Prophet (ﷺ) responded that he would get jannah.

Significance of the Early Sahaba

- Pure and Dedicated: As with anything, the people who struggle for the sake of building a cause have stronger attachment to it.
 - Example of Miftaah: Sheikh compares it to the generations that built Miftaah. Miftaah developed over multiple generations of teachers and students, and each passing year of students is more comfortable because previous generations put in the comfort and work. However, this also means that our dedication has diluted.
 - Quote from Imam Malik: Imam Malik said "The last generations of this ummah can only be reformed by that which reformed its first generations." (Ash Shifaby Al Qaadi Iya'd 2:88)
- Tribal Diversity: The presence of foreigners and tribal diversity in islam shows that the religion was not a tribal one.

Early Dawah Context

Early Dawah Context

Dates Covered:

- Conflicting Narrations: There were narrations of the early muslims claiming to be 1/4th or 1/7th of islam and this is because many of them were not even aware other muslims existed.
- Clarifying the Purpose of Dawah: Before discussing the public phases of dawah, it is important to realize that we don't fully understand the capacity of islam to change the fabrics of society. To us, dawah is much more individualistic.
 - Contrast: The mission of the Prophet ﷺ was transformation, and that was evidenced by the responses of the Quraish (resistance, oppression)
 - Example of Algeria and Sheikh Abdelhamid Badees: Mentioned in earlier notes. Dawah is a central component of fighting back against colonization.

Fighting the Idol Worship of Quraish

- Reminder to Students - Identify what You Worship
 - Ibn Al Qayyim on Ibadah: Ibadah is two things: the pinnacle of obedience and the pinnacle of love.
 - Some people worship celebrities. They may not realize it, but they listen to whatever the celebrity tells them to do and that is worship. That is obedience and love.
- The Challenge of Early Dawah: it was received poorly by the Quraish, because they worshipped their status and economy. Their idols were significant to their economy and peace treaties.
 - Significance to Early Muslims: For the sahaba becoming muslim meant shifting their entire life, and being able to die for the cause.
 - Significance of La Ilaha Illallah: it's not just a statement, it's a commitment.

6 Phases of the Prophet ﷺ's Dawah

Phase 1 - Household + Hand Picking Individuals Directly family + targeting talented/influential Individuals that could continue with a core structure that would thrive after the death of the Prophet ﷺ

Phase 2 - Publicly to Extended Family He started with Banu Hashem. These were the people he had the most influence over, so he started with them.

Phase 3 - The Quraish: Dawah from standing on mountains, that we have heard about.

Phase 4 - Surrounding Tribes: Taif, and to all surrounding tribes that came for Hajj. Eventually the Ansars which leads to Madina becoming Muslim

Phase 5 - Arabian Peninsula: He sent messengers to different areas of the Peninsula

Phase 6 - World Powers: Sending letters and messengers to the the major world powers

Structured and Strategic: Everything was calculated. The Prophet ﷺ meticulously planned out how he could best reach people.

- Similar to how when we want to reach people with marketing, we plan things out really well. Targeting in advertisements is ruthless. Influencing people to good also requires planning.

Salah in the Beginning of Prophethood

- Ali RA saw Khadidja and the Prophet ﷺ praying
- Narrations show that Jibreel AS taught the prophet how to pray.
- The only acts of ibadah they knew:
 - Salah
 - Quran.
- Salah was not an obligatory command that needed to be fulfilled 5 times a day yet. The command of salah would come much later after Israa wal Miraj
 - Other narrations indicate just 2 rakat morning and evening.
- The Prophet ﷺ however, was required to pray tahajjud
- When someone accepted Islam, the Prophet taught them individually.

Dawah at Dar al Arqam

Dawah at Dar Al Arqam

Dates Covered: 10/3 0910, 10/3 @ 1130

Dar Al Arqam (Gathering House)

- Need for a Gathering Place: The muslims, given their small number and need for secrecy, had no official place to gather. They decided to meet at Dhar Al Abi Arqam's house.
- About Arqam: Arqam was either the 7th or 10th person to embrace Islam.
 - His house was on Mount Safa
 - Muslims regularly congregated there until 'Umar RA converted

Why the Prophet Chose This House

- Minimal Suspicion: Arqam was not publicly muslim.
- Tribal Rivalry: Arqam was from Banu Makhzum (same tribe as Abu Jahal and rival Banu Hashem)
 - Prior to the Prophet ﷺ, the two tribes were an equal match for each other. They competed in influence and generosity. However they were unable to compete with the Prophet ﷺ's message.
 - This was an unexpected move (setting base at house of a member from an enemy tribe)
 - This also worked in his favor because they considered Arqam the worst member of their tribe.
- Young Age: He was very young (around 13 yrs old) which made him least suspect.

Wisdoms of the Decision

- Tawakkul: If he wanted to throw caution to the wind he could have, but he still took precautions. Taking caution did not mean he did not trust Allah.
 - Understanding the word tawakkul. Derivative words:
 - Wakeel: a person you trust, someone reliable to complete the job.
 - Ittikal. Used by Umar RA in the hadith where he tells the Prophet ﷺ not to inform people of la ilaha ilallah leading to jannah. Ittikal has a negative connotation of placing your trust in the wrong place.

- Tawakkul is trusting Allah but also giving due diligence. Some people have the misunderstanding that tawakkul means we can't plan or be cautious.
- Practicing Secrecy: the Prophet ﷺ is training the sahaba how to maintain energy and not publicize everything right away.
 - This is still applicable to us.
- Gathering Places: Islam needs spaces of gathering.
 - Gathering distinguishes Islam from other religions (ex: monks).
 - This is a problem for non-muslims; they have no third spaces. They strive for healthy social environments. The fact that we have them and foster them is beautiful.
- Humble Beginnings: If people saw dar al arqam, they would never think these are the same people who are going to topple empires. In general, things that start with humble but sincere intentions end up becoming incredible.

Quran as Teaching Material

- The Only Available Material: At this time, all that was being taught was Quran. The most common theme in these early revelations was the sunnah of Allah (helping them understand the way that Allah operates).
- Relatability of Early Quranic Revelation: The stories of the previous prophets were relatable.
- Sunnah's of Allah that were Taught:
 - The Sunnah of Ta'leel: There are long periods of struggle before relief.
 - Correcting Aqeedah: The belief systems of the early muslims needed correction.
 - Textbook aqeedah
 - Applied aqeedah

Applied Aqeedah

- Sheikh mentions that people focus too much on understanding belief and not enough on applying it. As Muslims, we need to prioritize applied aqeedah.
 - Example of Application: When you are tested in your beliefs, do you doubt them? You believe that Allah sees everything, but when you are by yourself, do you still sin?

- Reliance and Control: We live in a country where everything feels like it's in our control. True aqeedah is having reliance on Allah in all circumstances.
- Example of True Aqeedah: The story of the sheikh from Gaza (see earlier notes) and the value he took from the first revelation (Iqra bismi rabbi...), is an example of full faith in Allah and true aqeedah.
- Reliance on Allah
 - The less reliant you are on physical objects, the more reliant you are on Allah. For example, if you are reliant on coffee to be energetic, you are not truly relying on Allah.
- Mental Framework for Applying Aqeedah
 - Do not show weakness to human beings.
 - Do not complain, have honor and dignity regarding your complaints and especially do not make complaining to others your personality.
 - Example of Complaints: Some people who joined the mission to Gaza were complaining about the heat and safety. Example of what not to do.
 - Tell yourself that you don't need anything. The less the better. Like that you could live in the desert and still be content with Allah alone.
 - Example of Mufti Tareq Maqsood: He chose to sleep on the rug despite them setting up a bed for him. He had also only brought a small suitcase of clothes and appeared clean despite never doing laundry. They later found out he was handwashing his clothes in the bathroom. Out of respect for his lifestyle and rejection of excess comfort, Mufti's mother ended up leaving a bucket with detergent for him in the corner of the bathroom.
- Ease should not be an excuse for weakness.
 - Allah told the Prophet ﷺ that he would have a lot of land and wouldn't need to fight, and that his people would live in ease, but none should become so useless that they don't know how to shoot an arrow.
 - When the Sahaba were discussing what they would wish for, Umar said he would wish for a room full of good people.
- Be reliant on Allah not dunya.
 - The best of us are those who are mentally unreliant on the dunya.
 - Story of a Man from Gaza: A man wanted to start a diabetes clinic in Gaza. Sheikh helped gather materials, but when the borders changed from Egypt and Jordan, his was the only bag searched and stopped. The man responded, "There's nothing in this world that's worth caring about. Nothing happens in Allah's world except what Allah wants to make happen."

How to Give Dawah

Lessons from Seerah

- Building Creed and Sincere Belief: The actual commands of Islam cannot be enforced by policing. It requires creed and sincere belief in the tenets of Islam.
- The Focus of Makki Surahs
 - Building human dignity
 - Reflecting on the creation of Allah (day and night, the sun and moon, and other signs)
 - Worship as a means of purifying the mind, heart, and body
 - Fixing oppression through moral accountability (passages about oppression are often linked to passages about Jahannam)
 - Stories of the Prophets: These stories built a broad mindset for Islam—a system meant to protect five things (see below)

Maqasid of the Sharia (Preservation of Society)

Islam's preservation of society is based on the preservation of these five qualities.

1. Deen (Religion)

- The system of faith must be protected first. Life and lineage lose their sacredness without religion.

2. Nafs (Life)

- Human (and other) life must be treated with respect.

3. Lineage

- Protect family ties and the institution of marriage.
- Modern Example: Statistically, more men raised in single-mother homes end up in prison, and women raised fatherless face mental instability.

4. Wealth

- Protect people's wealth and property.

5. Aql

- Protect human dignity, intellect, and reputation, ensuring people are not backbitten or humiliated.

- A child says “I need to find something that fits my system.” But how can right and wrong exist without a moral code? Without it, everything becomes subjective.
- Relative Harm: Harm is relative to one’s framework. Children may think something is torture, while parents know it’s actually to protect them.
- We don’t have a bird’s-eye view, and as Muslims we recognize that deeply.

Modern Approaches to Dawah (Q&A)

● Framework Not Rulings

- When giving da’wah, focus on establishing a framework of thinking, not on specific rulings.
- Example of Salah: Salah itself is not the goal. It is a mechanism that reinforces the main principles of faith by preventing evil and reinforcing the inner framework of Islam.
- If someone doesn’t see how beautiful these structures make a society, then salah will feel like a burden. When a man came asking for zina to be made halal, the Prophet ﷺ reoriented him to the bigger picture.
- Meet people exactly where they are. You don’t have to start with just the biggest picture, but you definitely don’t start with the most specific commands.

● Faith is a Spectrum

- Teachers of deen often go back and forth between different levels of dawah, which is why Miftaah has so many different programs.
- Dawah “Stations” Analogy: Example originally from MAR. It’s like taking a train from Detroit to Chicago. Some people are on the train from the start (like the kids at MII), while others get on later (like Thaabat attendees). Each station is a different step in the journey.
- Our job is to build the stations, because everyone’s route to “Chicago” looks different.

● Examples from the Prophet ﷺ

- When some Quraysh became Muslim, they said they didn’t want to pay zakat or go for jihad, but the Prophet ﷺ still required them to pray.

● Rejecting Uniqueness

- The work being done at Miftaah is not unique, and students shouldn’t carry excess loyalty to it. Respect other paths and institutions.

● Not Taking Shortcuts in Our Paths

- The existence of “stations” doesn’t mean you can take shortcuts. If you know the path, take it early. The longer and less convenient the path, the better it is for your growth.
- Better to be a Sinful Muslim than not Muslim
 - Establish that something is sinful, but also that it’s still better to be Muslim and believe.
 - Be mindful when declaring something halal or haram, because you will take responsibility for those statements.
- Freedom and Limitation
 - If someone objects the deen out of “freedom” remind them that freedom is subjective. People claim to value freedom while forgetting our entire existence is a series of limitations. They may take this as wordplay, but it’s truth.
 - Just because something feels like a restriction doesn’t mean it is one, just as parents know better for their children Allah knows better for us.
 - Freedom does not actually exist. Either Allah limits you, or everything else does.
 - A truly free person is one who allows only Allah to limit their “freedom,” and separates themselves from being a slave to the world around them.

Dawah to Family and Quraish

Dawah to Family and Quraish

Date Covered: 10/6 @ 0920

Second Phase: Family

- Timeline: 3-4 years into prophethood
- Surah Shu'ara 214: Warn Your Closest Family
 - This surah covers the previous Prophets giving da'wah to people who had power over them. These stories are priming the Prophet ﷺ for his own mission.
 - The last ayat of the surah is a direct command to the Prophet ﷺ "Warn your closest family"
 - Closest family is not necessarily referring to direct family, it is referring to those around you who you have the most influence over.
- Miracle of Food
 - When this ayah came down, the Prophet ﷺ told 'Ali (RA) to bring the leg of a small goat, some wheat, and bread, and then call the family.
 - This allowed him to show them a miracle publicly. Around forty people were invited to this meal, all of whom ate to their fill despite the small amount of food.
- Called by Their Names
 - He called them by the names of their tribes, and even called on his own daughter, Fatimah (RA). He said, "O Fatimah, save yourself from the fire; the only difference between you and everyone else is that we have ties of kinship."
 - Family's Responses: Mixed responses. There was no open aggression. Some narrations of Abu Lahab calling him a magician. Everybody loved him a lot, so they were hesitant to respond to him aggressively.
- Lessons
 - Warn your closest family: dawah to family should be a priority.
 - Power Of Food: Food is an age-old tactic for appealing to people.

On Giving Dawah to Family Members

- Hasan Al-Basri's Quote: Hasan al-Basri said the people who benefit from a scholar the least are their family.
 - Quranic Example: Even Firaun rejected Musa (AS) on the basis of raising him.

- Wisdom Of Hasan Al-Basri: A lot of Hasan al-Basri's statements are confused for hadith because of their wisdom.
- Family Will Push You Away: A common theme in history is that family pushes you away.
- Modern Example: Story of the MII student – his father fasted for the first time this recent Ramadan. The student himself is a haafiz and scholar. Sheikh mentioned he told the son to leave his dad alone and just model behavior instead, as his own discipline is a lot for his father (who is growing at his own pace)
- Lesson: Don't become judgmental and difficult to be around. It may be more beneficial to lower your standards a bit and be easy to be around, especially if it allows them to learn from you.

Third Phase: Quraish

- Timeline: 4th year of prophethood
- Revelation of Surah Al Hijr 15:94: "So proclaim what you have been commanded, and turn away from the polytheists" (15:94) with the revelation of this ayah, the Prophet now has direct command to give dawah publicly.
- Calling Them By Their Names (again): The Prophet ﷺ stands on Mount Safa and calls, "Ya Bani Fihri" (Quraysh). He calls them out name by name, and the famous story about the army behind the mountain takes place. This is also when he says, "I am standing on this hill and I see something coming, do you trust me" etc.
- Abu Lahab's Reaction: Abu Lahab says "Tabba Ya Muhammad," after which Surah Al-Masad is revealed.

Effect of the Quran on Kuffar

Effect of Quran on Kuffar

Date Covered: 10/7 @ 0910

- Importance of the Effect of Quran: Although we are jumping ahead in Seerah briefly, it is important to understand the effect of the Quran on non muslims, and how they commonly responded to it.

The Story of Quraysh Leaders Sneaking Out to Hear Quran

Time Period: 5-7 years into Prophethood

Main Characters: Abu Jahal, Abu Sufiyan and Akhnas ibn Shurayq

Akhnas ibn Shurayq: Akhnas is one of the 3 major leaders of the Quraish against islam, and a very flimsy figure in seerah.

- Akhnas is not his real name. Meaning “retreating”. He was the only one to flee the Battle of Badr and retreat his tribe.
- Unclear Status as a Muslim: While he ended up converting to islam later, he was a source of much trouble for the sahaba and it is debated whether he died muslim because he was inconsistent in his commitment.
- The Story: The three of them secretly went out at night to listen to the Prophet ﷺ reciting the Qur’an.

Muhammad bin Ishaq said in As-Sirah:

"Muhammad bin Muslim bin Shihab Az-Zuhri told me that it happened that Abu Sufyan bin Harb, Abu Jahl bin Hisham and Al-Akhnas bin Shurayq bin `Amr bin Wahb Ath-Thaqafi, the ally of Bani Zahrah, went out one night to listen to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ when he was praying at night in his house.

Each one of them took up a position for listening, and none of them knew that the others were also there. They stayed listening to him all night until dawn came.

When they left, they met up on the road, each of them blaming the others, saying to one another; 'Do not come back again, lest you give the wrong impression i.e., that you like what you hear.' Then they went away until the second night came, when each of them came back to his place and spent the night listening.

When dawn came they left, then when they met up on the road, each of them blamed the others, saying the same as they had said the previous night. Then they went away until the third night came, when each of them came back to his place and spent the night listening.

When dawn came they left, then when they met up on the road, they said to one another, 'Let us not leave until we promise not to come back,' so they made a promise to that effect, and went their separate ways.

In the morning, Al-Akhnas bin Shurayq took his stick and went to the house of Abu Sufyan bin Harb, where he said, 'Tell me, O Abu Hanzalah i.e., Abu Sufyan, what do you think of what you have heard from Muhammad'

Abu Sufyan said, 'O Abu Tha'labah i.e., Al-Akhnas, by Allah, I have heard something I understand and I know what is meant by it, and I have heard things I do not understand and do not know what is meant by it.'

Al-Akhnas said: 'Me too, by the One by Whom you swore.' Then he left and went to Abu Jahl, and entered his house. He said, 'O Abu Al-Hakam i.e., Abu Jahl, what do you think of what you have heard from Muhammad'

He said, 'What did you hear' He said, 'We and Banu 'Abd Manaf competed for honor and position: they fed people so we fed people, they engaged in battle so we engaged in battle, they gave so we gave, until we were neck and neck, like race horses.

Then they said, we have a Prophet among us who receives revelation from heaven. How could we compete with that? By Allah we will never believe in him.' Then Al-Akhnas got up and left him." (Tafsir Ibn Kathir 17:47)

Significance of Tribal Rivalry: They then speak about the rivalry between Banu Hashim and Banu Makhzum which made it hard for them to accept that Banu Hashim might surpass them by having a prophet among them. Abu Jahal says "Wallahi we will never believe in him."

- Effect of the Quran: They continued to come out at night to hear the Quran being recited. It is ironic how desperately they were deeply affected by it (though they refused to admit it publicly)
 - Pride over Truth: They all agreed that what they had heard was not ordinary speech, but something powerful and beyond human ability.

Despite recognizing its greatness, they ultimately dismissed it out of tribal pride.

Al Waleed ibn Al Mughirah

- Family and Tribe: Banu Makhzum. Father of Khalid bin Waleed/ Brother of Abu Umayya / Uncle of Umm Salama
 - Reminder about his Brother: During the reconstruction of the Ka'bah, when the tribes of Quraysh disputed over who should place the Hajar Al Aswad back into its place, it was Abu Umayyah ibn al-Mughirah who suggested the famous solution: "Let the first man to enter the gate of the Haram decide between us."
 - Tafsir of Surah Al Mudatthir

Ibn 'Abbas related that:

Al-Walid ibn al-Mughirah went to the Prophet, Allah bless him and give him peace, who read the Qur'an to him and it seemed as if his heart softened to it. Abu Jahl heard of this. He went to him and said: "O uncle, your clan wants to collect money to give it to you, for you went to Muhammad exposing yourself to his message".

He said: "The Quraysh know well that I am among its wealthiest". Abu Jahl said: "Then say something about him which will let your people know that you condemn and dislike him". He said: "But what shall I say? By Allah, there is not a man among you who is more knowledgeable about poetry and its composition than me. By Allah, what he says does not resemble any poetry. By Allah, the speech which he utters is sweet and graceful, fruitful at the top, copious at the bottom; it has the upper hand and nothing has the upper hand over it. But let me think about what I shall say about it."

Then he said [as reported by the Qur'an] (This is naught else than magic from of old) [74:24], which he simply learnt from others". Allah, exalted is He, then revealed (Leave Me (to deal) with him whom I created lonely...), and the other verses which follow it.

Mujahid said:

"Al-Walid ibn al-Mughirah was in the habit of visiting the Prophet, Allah bless him and give him peace, and Abu Bakr so much so that the Quraysh thought he was going to embrace Islam.

Abu Jahl then said to him: 'The Quraysh claim that you visit Muhammad and Ibn Abi Quhafah to share food with them'. Al-Walid said to the Quraysh: 'You are people of noble lineages and sound minds, but you claim that Muhammad is mad. Have you ever seen him seized by a bout of madness?'

They said: 'No!' He said: 'And you claim that he is a soothsayer; have you ever seen him soothsaying?' They said: 'No!' He said: 'You claim that he is a poet; have you ever heard him utter poetry?' They said: 'No!' He said: 'You claim that he is a liar; have you ever caught him lying?' They said: 'No!'

The Quraysh said to al-Walid: 'What is he, then?' He thought for a while, looked and frowned and then said: 'He is nothing but a sorcerer', hence Allah's saying (For lo! he did consider; then he planned...) [74:12] up to His saying (This is naught else than magic from of old)". (Source)

- About the Eloquence of Quran: The Quran is a unique text, which the people of the Prophets time could recognize. They saw how much it impacted the listener. It was impossible to them that such a word could come from a human.
 - The original usage of magic was to break apart families. This fit their claim that Islam was breaking families.
- Then the ayat from Surah Muddathir (74:11-24) were revealed to the Prophet ﷺ.

Utbah Ibn Abi Rabi'a

- Recap/Important Context
 - Dar Al Nadhwa: The gathering place of the Quraish, established by the Prophet ﷺ's great-grandfather Kusay ibn Killab.
 - He was the one who paid the blood money to end the Hurub Al Fijar. Was a teenager at the time.

Narration

Utbah ibn Abi Rabi'ah, who was a master said one day he was sitting among the Quraysh assembly and the Prophet (pbuh) was sitting in the mosque alone, "Why should I not go to Muhammad and make some proposals to him which if he approves some, we will give him whatever he wants, and he will leave us in peace?"

That was after Hamzah had embraced Islam and after the number of the Prophet's (pbuh) followers had increased. They accepted. "Utbah sat by the Prophet (pbuh) and said, "O my nephew, you are one of us as you know, of the noblest of the clan and hold a worthy status in genealogy. You have brought your people an immense matter, dividing their unity thereby and ridiculing their way of life, and declared that their ancestors were disbelievers, so listen to me and I will make some suggestions, and maybe you will be able to agree with some of them."

The Prophet (pbuh) said, "Say (hem). O Abul-Walid, I am listening." He went on, "If it is money that you want, we will gather for you of our properties so that you may be the wealthiest of us; if you want honor, we will make you our head so that no one can determine anything without you; if you want sovereignty, we will make you king, and if this jinni which you see, is such that you cannot get rid of him, we will find a physician for you, and drain our funds in getting you recovered, for a familiar spirit may get possession of a man until he can be cured of it."

- Although he started off nice, he became condescending.

The Prophet listened patiently, and then said, "Have you finished, O Abul-Walid?" He replied in the affirmative, so the Prophet (pbuh) said, "Now listen to me." He said, "OK." The Prophet (pbuh) said, (reciting from the Qur'an).

"In the Name of Allah, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful, Ha-Mim. A revelation from Allah, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful A Book whereof the Verses are explained in detail; a Quran in Arabic for people who know. Giving glad tidings [of Paradise to the one who believes in the Oneness of Allah) and fears Allah much (abstains from all kinds of sins and evil deeds) and loves Allah much (performing all kinds of good deeds which He has ordained)], and warning (of punishment in the Hell Fire to the one who disbelieves in the Oneness of Allah). but most of them turn away, so they listen not. And they say: "Our hearts are under coverings (screened) from that which you invite" (Surah Fussilat Ayah 1-13)

And the Prophet (pbuh) continued to recite it to him. When Utbah heard this, he listened carefully, putting his hands behind his back and leaning on them as he listened. Then the Prophet (pbuh) ended at a verse of prostration in the Sarah? and prostrated himself, and said, "You have heard what you have heard, O Abul-Walid, and it is up to you"

- Addition from class: Utbah became pale when the Prophet ﷺ reached verses about Ad' and Thamut and their destruction. He stopped the Prophet ﷺ from continuing with his hands.

When Utbah went back to his companions they observed that the expression on his face had completely changed, and they asked him what had happened. He said, "I have heard words such as I have never heard before, which by Allah were neither poetry, magic, nor soothsaying. O Quraysh. take my advice and do as I do, leave this man utterly, for by Allah, the words which I have heard from him will become of great reputation, If the Arabs kill him, you will have then got what you want, and if he gets the better of the Arabs, his sovereignty will be yours, his power be yours, and you will be the happiest through him." They said, "By Allah he has bewitched you with his tongue." He replied, " You have my opinion, so do what you see fit."

Ummaya and Ubayy ibn Khalaf

- Brothers, staunch enemies of islam
- Ummaya ibn Khalaf
 - Owner of Bilal RA, tortured him.
- Ubayy ibn Khalaf
 - Is the only person who the Prophet personally states he will kill. Later killed him in the battle of Badr by throwing a spear.

Uqbah ibn Abi Mueet

- His habit was that when he returned he would make food and invite all of Mecca.
- He had a rapport with the Prophet ﷺ, and one occasion when the Prophet ﷺ was invited to his gathering, he said "I will not take a bite out of this food until you say "la illaha illalla muhamadur rasoolulah"
 - For the sake of making the Prophet ﷺ eat the food, he said it.

- Either Umayya or Ubayy heard news of this, and asked him if he accepted islam. He says no, he was just saying it.
- They tell him the only way he can redeem himself is by spitting in the Prophet ﷺ's face.
 - Some narrations say that the spit never landed on the Prophet ﷺ and that Jibreel AS returned the spit to him and it burned him.
- The Prophet ﷺ says that he sees him leaving Mecca and he's standing above him with a sword.
 - He was eventually captured on the day of Badr, and was one of the two people who were executed and not ransomed
 - Ayat about the two in Surah Furqan 28 "Woe to me! I wish I had never taken so-and-so as a close friend."

Quraish Tactics

Quraish Tactics

Date Covered: 10/7 @ 0935, 10/8 0915, 10/9 @ 0910 (ending)

Summary of the Tactics

1. Claims against the Quran (poetry, stories, magic)
2. Distractions (music, stories, mockery)
3. Strategic deals
4. Appeal to leaders
5. Questioning through the Jews (people of the cave, Musa and Khidr, the soul)
6. Negotiations through Abu Talib (failed)
7. Bribery to the Prophet ﷺ (wealth, women, power)
8. Open aggression (late stage)

Claims Against the Quran

- Just Poetry: They would claim the Quran to be man-made poetry. However this claim did not last for long, because it was immediately recognized as special.
- Borrowed Stories: They would claim the Quran to be learned stories. This claim also did not last long.
- Soothsayings: The time period had soothsayers who spoke in rhythms and poems, however any soothsayer who listened to the Quran disagreed with it being soothsaying.
- Sihr (Black Magic): After struggling to prove all the other claims, the most logical was that the Quran is outside the bounds of natural existence and must be black magic. The irony of this is that they acknowledged the Quran's miraculous nature but refused to adapt to its truth.
- Breaking Ties of Kinship: The pattern of oppressors is to smear the people they are oppressing. The kuffar of Mecca wanted to make it seem like the Prophet ﷺ was breaking ties of kinship by rejecting idolatry.

Distractions

- Music: from very early on, they would bring singers to distract people from listening to Quran
 - Ayat in Surah Luqman about people were hired to do lahu-al-hadith (distractions)

- Barrier to Growth in Deen: it is a factual statement that it is impossible to come closer to Allah and improve while listening to music. This has been consistent since the early days until now.
- Skips Cognitive Analysis: You can control emotions just by sound and this is well known. We often ignore the lyrics just because the sounds are pleasant, this is another example of cognitive bypass.
- Occupies Memory: Music occupies and distorts memory. A person who cares about their intellectual purity will not engage with music.
- Creates Tolerance to Sin: People grow tolerance to sins and the same is true for music.
- Stories of Rome and Persia: A man by the name of An Nadr Ibn Harith would have his own gatherings to tell stories about Rome and Persia. Entertainment was a distraction.
 - A Nadr was the second of two to be executed instead of ransomed at the Battle of Badr.
- Juvenile Mockery: They would put their fingers in their ears, call the muslims derogatory names, make noises, etc. (in general very juvenile distractions)

Other Methods

- Strategic Compromise: Since idol worship was also a political exchange, they treated islam the same way. An example is in the context of Surah Kafrun, before which the Quraish offered to the Prophet to “exchange” religions.
- Appeal to Leaders: they would appeal to the tribal leaders to diminish the Prophet ﷺ's power.
- Consulted Jews of Madinah: later, they would try to discredit the Prophet ﷺ by asking the Jews of Madina for questions they could use to prove that he is not a Prophet

Unexpected Failure: Conversion of Dhimaad ibn Tha'labah al-Azdi

- Ruqya Expert from Yemen: Dhimaad was a man from Yemen who specialized in providing ruqya. He came to Mecca during the early days of prophethood and initially sought to cure the Prophet ﷺ after hearing rumors that he was afflicted by sihr.
- The Prophet ﷺ's Recitation: The Prophet ﷺ recited the khutbah of need to Dhimaad 3 times in response.

- Dhimaad's Reaction: He responded "I've heard all the speech of soothsayers and magicians and I've never heard anything like that. Your eloquence is like the depths of the ocean..." loosely translated

The Dua That Was Recited

Al-hamdu lillahi nahmadhu wa nasta'inuhu wa nastaghfiruhu, wa na'udhu billahi min shururi anfusina wa min sayi'ati a'malina, man yahdihillahu fala mudilla lahu, wa man yudlil fala hadiya lahu. Wa ashadu an la ilaha illallahu wahduhu la sharika lahu, wa anna Muhammadan `abduhu wa rasuluhu.

Praise is to Allah, we praise Him and we seek His help and His forgiveness. We seek refuge with Allah from the evil of our own souls and from our bad deeds, Whomsoever Allah guides will never be led astray; and whoever is led astray, no one can guide. I bear witness that none has the right to be worshiped but Allah, alone with no partner or associate, and that Muhammad (ﷺ) is His slave and His Messenger. (Sunnan Ibn Majah 1892)

In-class Translation:

- Nasr for large victories
- Musa'ada means physical help and support
- Istiana means physical, emotional, and spiritual support
- Eloquence to a New Listener: To someone who has never heard this before it is stunning.
- Protection for his Tribe: When Dhimaad accepts islam he request protection for his tribe
- Relevance to Later Seerah: A sahaba asked Dhimaad's tribe for a cup of water to make wudhu. The Prophet (ﷺ) later instructed them to give the same amount of water back.
- Another Narration about Conversion: In another narration about his conversion, the Prophet (ﷺ) gave Dhimaad dawah and he asked the Prophet (ﷺ) "If I follow you what do i get?". The Prophet (ﷺ) responded that he would get jannah.
- order to disprove that he was a Prophet.
- Aggression: After 10 years of dawah and their attempt to distract from the Prophet (ﷺ) 's message in other ways failed.

Negotiation through Abu Talib

- Culture of Diplomacy: One of the first things they did was negotiation, because diplomacy was an essential for peace in Mecca.
 - The Quraysh approached Abu Talib multiple times in an attempt to stop the Prophet ﷺ.
- Multiple Attempts
 - The First Time: Abu Talib was asked to speak to the Prophet ﷺ, he respectfully declined
 - The Second Time: they offered him Ummar ibn Waleed (son of Waleed ibn Mugheera) for the Prophet ﷺ. They wanted to “swap sons” and Abu Talib was in disbelief at how that would make sense, especially knowing they planned to kill the Prophet ﷺ.
 - Another Occasion: It is narrated that Abu Talib asked the Prophet ﷺ to tone down his dawah, and the Prophet ﷺ said the famous narration

By Allah, had they placed the sun in my right hand and the moon in my left hand so that I leave this matter before Allah makes it clear or I die doing it, I would not leave it.

- Abu Talib's Poem
 - When Abu Talib saw how serious the situation was, he doubled down in defense. He said many poems (of which he was a master)
 - Ibn Kathir commented on one of his poems saying, ‘It is a very great, eloquent poem that no one can compose except that one to whom it is ascribed. It is more perfect and more eloquent in delivering the meaning than all the (famous) Seven Poems (hanged on the wall of the Kaaba).’
- Poem Summarized
 - Assertion of Leadership: Declares that in times of crisis, he alone decides; others’ opinions do not guide action.
 - Critique of Quraysh: Notes that many relatives have broken ties and opposed Banu Hashim, showing that they have betrayed them.
 - Preparedness for Defense: States he has armed himself and gathered his family around the Ka‘bah to protect the Prophet ﷺ
 - Appeal to Idols: Seeks protection through mountains, idols, etc.
 - Challenge: Questions whether anyone in their right mind among Quraysh could act justly toward Banu Hashim.
 - Describes the Prophet ﷺ: Says his face is so bright that when they want rain they present him

- Callback to the Prophet ﷺ's childhood in which Abdul Muttalib used to take the Prophet ﷺ to the Kaaba to pray for rain.
 - Aisha RA used to quote this to Abu Bakr RA at his deathbed.
 - Ultimate Resolve: Affirms absolute loyalty to the Prophet ﷺ and willingness to defend him, regardless of danger or opposition.
- Ending of the Poem: Abu Talib says, if it were not for the fact that accepting this religion would bring disgrace to our ancestors, we would have certainly followed him.
 - At his death he said "I am on the deen of Abdul Muttalib (my father)."
 - This mentality surprises us but we actually do the same all the time. We know something is right but we limit ourselves because of ego or discomfort.
- Source: Abu Talibs Poem

Bribery

- Carrot and the Stick Method: They are trying to tempt him with dunya.
 - The first thing that happens to someone who is resisting mainstream messages and gains a following is that they will be offered money.
 - When that does not work it escalates into death threats and aggression.
- Utbah ibn Rabi'ah offers a bribe
 - He tried offering wealth, women, and leadership
 - Prophet responds with Fussilat 1-13 (See "Effects of the Quran on Kuffar" tab)

Questioning With Help of Jews

- The next attempt was in the form of academic assessment and questioning
 - Quraysh sent Nadhr ibn Harith (the story teller) and 'Uqbah ibn Abi Mu'et (spat in the Prophet ﷺ's face) to Yathrib (Madina)
 - They asked the Jews in Yathrib how to identify if he is a true prophet.
- The Jews ask 3 questions, which they believe the Arabs would have no knowledge of and only a prophet could know the answer to
 - Question 1: People of the Cave

- They asked about the story of the sleepers in the cave (how many slept, how long they stayed, etc.)
 - Beginning of Surah Kahf
- Question 2: The Man who Traversed the Earth
 - They asked about a man who traveled widely across the earth, learning and ruling
 - End of Surah Kahf
- Question 3: The Soul's Nature
 - They asked about the soul (ruh), a matter no human could know without divine revelation.
 - Designed to be a trick question because the nature of the soul had not been revealed.
 - End of Surah Israa. The soul is from the command of Allah.
- The story of the cave is explained in a way that mocks the kuffar of Mecca.
 - It shows that they are doing the same things to the muslims that those people did to the men of the cave. This is a familiar pattern of events.
 - The phrasing of all three revelations are beautiful and significant to the irony of the questions and how they were asked.
- The Second Pause in Revelation
 - The Prophet ﷺ told them he would answer the questions tomorrow, because he was used to meeting Jibreel at regular intervals.
 - He forgot to say Insha'Allah, and wahi was paused for about 10-15 days (narrations vary)
 - Kuffar were very happy to see this, they thought the jinn that was with him had left him, however revelation returned with answers.

Hostility of the Quraish

- No Physical Aggression Yet
 - Physical attacks on the Prophet ﷺ did not start until after the death of Abu Talib.
 - They respected his tribal protection, similar to how a US citizen is given certain protections in foreign countries.
 - The muslims who did not have tribal protection were subjected to lots of abuse.
- Questioning his Status
 - They questioned why the Qur'an was not revealed to someone more honorable in their society.

- They questioned why the Quran was not revealed Waleed ibn Mughira (leader of Mecca) or the leader of Taif
- Allah answers in revelation that it is Allah's decision who gets wahi, why do you care if it was revealed to a king or anyone else
- Mocking his Progeny
 - Al Aas' ibn Wail mocked the Prophet ﷺ for his lack of living sons to carry on his lineage.
 - Surah Kawthar was revealed to comfort him.
 - Wisdom of the Prophet Losing his Children: The Prophet ﷺ has experienced every kind of familial loss (his parents, his children, his wife, etc.)

Side topic - Lessons from the Prophet ﷺ's life.

- There is divine wisdom in why Allah put the Prophet ﷺ through such experiences: he is an example for us to follow.
- When Sheikh Abdur Raheem passed, Sheikh Abdullah said the dua of Taif and Sheikh Abdul Aziz said the Prophet ﷺ lost 6 children
- Lesson: apply everything you learn to all moments of your life. The purpose of learning it is to absorb and apply it.

It was narrated from Mus'ab bin Sa'd that his father, Sa'd bin Abu Waqqas, said:

"I said: 'O Messenger of Allah, which people are most severely tested?' He said: 'The Prophets, then the next best and the next best. A person is tested according to his religious commitment. If he is steadfast in his religious commitment, he will be tested more severely, and if he is frail in his religious commitment, his test will be according to his commitment. Trials will continue to afflict a person until they leave him walking on the earth with no sin on him.'" (Ibn Majah 4023)

- If life is easy, you are not following the life of the prophet closely enough.
- Keep the moments of the Prophet's life in the front of your mind at all times.
- After the Prophet ﷺ died, people used to give condolences at deaths and remind each other of him.
 - The grandkids and relatives of the Prophet became such a source of dispute, imagine if he had a son.
 - There is a lot of significance in Fatima RA being the only one to live on, and her children being successors to the deen. It would've been a huge fitna to the ummah. More details to come with discussion.

Lessons from Surah Al Kawthar

- Allah could have said a specific person's name, but rather generically says that the Prophet ﷺ's enemies will be cut off, to show that his name will be protected for all of time.
- Lesson: Some things take longer than others. It's Allah's promise to us. Allah could have taken care of them immediately, but it is within his wisdom that he did not.

The Family of Yasir

- Timeline: 3rd-4th year of Dawah
- Recap: Yasir originally from Yemen, came to Mecca looking for his brother. Sumaya was the slave of Banu Makzhum (and abused by Abu Jahal)
- Sumaya's Death
 - Narrations mention that Sumaya was old and frail and Abu Jahal tortured her, ultimately impaling her with a spear
 - Sumaya was the first shaheed of Islam, and the Prophet ﷺ continues to speak
- Yasir's Torture
 - Yasir was beaten to near death
- Ammars Perspective
 - Ammar was around 40 yrs old and he and his younger brother had to watch his elderly parents be tortured.
 - Ammar himself was later tortured with water, and beaten senseless. Abu Jahal also forced him to insult the Prophet ﷺ. He was not, however, held to fault for it.
 - The Prophet ﷺ did not make dua for him in that time rather he said Be patient, O family of Yasir, for your destination is Paradise (Musnad Ahmad (5/319))
 - The wisdom of this is that the success of the deen requires struggle and patience through that struggle.
- The Prophet ﷺ's Narrations
 - The Prophet ﷺ continued to remember the family 20 years after their deaths.
 - He said that "Ammar ibn Sumaya will be killed by a rebellious group; he is calling them to Paradise and they are calling him to the Fire." (Loosely understood from class)
 - There is significance in calling him by his mother's name: he is paying respect to Sumaya.
 - Umar RA said to Ammar "No one is worthy of sitting in this place except you, Ammar, and Bilal" (loose)
- The Lesson from Their Story

- Such stories in Seerah should stay fresh in our minds and frequently remembered. These were the sacrifices people made.
- The Prophet made du'a for the family of Yasir (RA) later in life and confirmed their place in Jannah

Khabbab ibn Al-Arat

- Recap: A blacksmith from another part of Arabia, captured and sold to Mecca to Umm Anmar Al Khuzaiya
- Torture Endured
 - Umm Anmar would approach him while he was welding and take the hot tools and burn his back with them.
 - Some narrations mention that they would roll him in a rug and throw him in the desert, suffocating him
 - He narrates himself that he used to be laid on a bed of hot coals, and the only thing that would extinguish the flames was the pus coming from his wounds.
- The Prophet ﷺ's Response
 - During the worst persecution in Makkah, Khabbab and other companions had their skin peeled with forks down to the bone. They came to the Prophet ﷺ asking him to make dua and he replied:
 - "Among those before you, a man would be placed in a ditch, and a saw would be put over his head, splitting him in two; yet this would not make him abandon his faith. By Allah, Allah will complete this religion until a rider travels from Sana'a to Hadramaut fearing none but Allah and the wolf for his sheep, but you are being impatient." (Sahih al-Bukhari 3852)
 - This is an unexpected response from the Prophet ﷺ but it holds a lot of wisdom. Tests of faith have always been difficult and sometimes the best we can do is be resilient through them.

RECORDING STOPPED - FOLLOWING NOTES INCOMPLETE

- Story of a Shaheed from Gaza
 - He wrote a book called Khandaq-u-Khabbab. He was thinking about how Khabbab was told this by the Prophet ﷺ, and he imagines Khabbab sitting next to him telling him all about it.

- The stories of seerah should be what allow us to survive. We should hold onto these stories.
- None of the companions saw the success of islam. These early shaheed sacrificed with so much sincerity and they never saw the result.
- The silent work that goes unseen and with little fruition is what is needed
- The Prophet refused to make dua for Khabbab because he understood that they needed to struggle.
 - Why did the Prophet make dua for Ammar and not Khabbab?
 - Sometimes it can be to wake somebody up and tell them to toughen up. Different people need to hear different things.
 - It wouldn't have been wrong to make dua, but it is not from the behavior of a muslim to act pitiful.

Suhaib ibn Sinan (ar-Rumi)

- Recap: Had no tribal protection, his father was originally a governor under Kisra. He grew up in Rome, was purchased and sold in Mecca. Later freed from slavery.
- Sometimes he was beaten until he fell unconscious
- See more under "Abu Bakr's Converts" tab

Zanirah (RA)

- 'Umar's RA's slave
- One of the first women to embrace Islam
- Some narrations mention that was tortured until she went blind.
 - She lost her eyesight due to her persecution
- Allah SWT restored it later.

Core Sahaba and their Experiences

- Abu Bakr RA and Talha would be tied to each other by their tribe due their acceptance of islam.
- Uthman RA would be beaten by his uncle
- Mus'aab's mother and family tied him up to prevent him from meeting the Prophet ﷺ or practicing islam. He managed to escape and was among the first group of Muslims who migrated to Abyssinia.

Question: Why did they torture people without tribal protection if they had Hilf al Fudhul?

- The way that enemies of islam always target it is that they say its threatening society. They will always resort to claim.
- The western mentality is that in Afghanistan they are oppressing women, they should be carpet bombed. Iraq has weapons so they should be starved and bombed.
- An ummah with no borders and no empires is dangerous to them. They do what they can to divide us.
- Example of Firaun: Firaun's tactic was to split people up and generate animosity between them

How do we unify?

1. Compromise: However people will be fighting like “donkeys butting heads” as prophecized
2. A Unifying Power: The best example is that of Salahuddin, who established unity by force. Imam Mahdi will be the same.

Bilal ibn Rabah

- Background
 - Not much known about him before he got into Mecca
 - Nothing about his father, mothers name suspected to be hamama
 - Close to Abu bakr in age
 - Slave to Ummayah bin Khalaf
- The Three Most Tortured
 - Famous statement of Umar RA that amongst those who were tortured, Khabbab, Ammar bin Yasir and Bilal were the three that went through things no one else went through.
 - Khabbab adds that between the three of them, Bilal had a few people who were protecting him and felt bad for him so out of the three of them Khabbab suffered the worst, then Bilal slightly less, then Ammar.
- Torture Endured
 - While enslaved under Ummayah bin Khalaf they would

- take him out on the hottest day and put him on the sand, burning his back.
 - put boulders on his chest
 - drag him through the street
 - Tie him up and deprive him of food and water for multiple days
- The famous narration is that he kept repeating “Ahad, Ahad” meaning “one” and referring to the oneness of Allah
- In another narration, they ask him to worship and praise Lat and Uzza, and he responds that he cannot pronounce the words they are saying.
 - Even while he is being tortured, he is mocking them. He is a symbol of resilience.
- Abu Bakr RA purchasing his freedom
 - Abu Bakr RA was acquainted with Bilal prior to islam, and the Prophet ﷺ would see Bilal and feel pity
 - Abu Bakr tells Umayya bin Khalaf he'll buy his freedom.
 - Narrations about how much he paid vary. Modern equivalent from 10k-80k
 - In the various narrations Umayya asks how much, and Abu Bakr RA gives a high number. The exact amount varies. Abu Bakr says “If you had asked for more I would have given it to you”
- Meccan's Confusion around his Status
 - Meccans were very confused by Bilal's status.
 - It deterred people from accepting islam because they cared a lot about lineage.
 - The kuffar of Mecca came to Prophet ﷺ asking for a separate gathering without the slaves and foreigners.
 - Allah sent down that ayat on the 3rd page of Surah Kahf in which Allah says, do not let your eyes leave these people...they wish they could color in a different appearance...
 - Allah does not allow the Prophet ﷺ to compromise for the kuffar even a little bit, setting the standard that anyone who wants to take the religion in pieces is not welcome.
- After Hijra
 - Most famous for being the muaddhin of Madina alongside Abdullah ibn Umm Maktum, who was blind.
 - In Ramadan, Bilal RA would call the athan of suhoor, and then Abdullah ibn Umm Maktum would call the athan of Fajr.
- After the Death of the Prophet ﷺ
 - He stopped calling athan.

- The first day after the Prophet ﷺ's death, he tried to call athan and couldn't finish because he burst into tears when he reached the part referencing the Prophet ﷺ.
- Soon after he left Madina.
- He asked Abu Bakr RA to send him to fight in the conquest of Sham.
- He spent the majority of the remainder of his life fighting the Romans and Persians.
- Return to Madina
 - In a famous narration, one night when he was in Sham, he had a dream of the Prophet ﷺ asking him "Why are you so distant from me for such a long period of time?"
 - He returned to Madina nearly 10 years after the Prophet ﷺ's death.
 - Narrations mention that Hassan and Hussain were the ones to ask Bilal to call athan. He felt embarrassed to reject their request.
 - When the people heard his voice, they felt the Prophet had come out of his grave. Everyone came out of their homes to see what was going on.
 - This was the last time he ever called athan.
- Death
 - Differences of opinion on the location of his death, most probably Syria/Sham due to markings of his grave.

SEE SUB-DISCUSSION ON SLAVERY IN NEXT TAB

Sub Discussion: Slavery

Sub Discussion: Slavery

Date Covered: 10/10 @ 0910

- Elephant and Rider Analogy: Understand your bias.
 - Islamic permission of slavery is not the same as transatlantic slavery.
 - Understanding the image of slavery in that time, the word slavery meant something different.
 - Like the word "qahwa" to us now, but back then it meant alcohol.
- Why did slavery exist in the ancient world?
 - There was no way to make money besides doing heavy work
 - Slavery has existed in humanity through oppression, people were captured in order to serve the upper class.
- Islam only recognizes captives of war as slaves.
 - This prevents enemies of islam from recouping and causing further harm to muslims.
- The rights of slaves in Islam
 - Care and provisions: must provide for and take care of them, like a member of the family which is actually more difficult to do
 - If you give them a difficult job then you have to do it with them.
 - The Prophet ﷺ reminded that Allah has more right over him than he does over his slave.
- Benefits of Islamic Slavery
 - No infrastructure to keep captives of war imprisoned
 - Imprisonment is not a good framework in any situation
 - Islam's system with slavery is basically a prisoner rehab system.
 - Islam gave them an opportunity to incorporate back into society. The American prison system is not beneficial to society or to the prisoners.
 - The track record of freed slaves who became muslim for example.
- Modern Enslavement
 - Quote: If you were to bring Aristotle out of his grave during the industrial revolution he would think everyone is a slave (because the modern capitalist construct is like slavery)
- The lived reality of slaves
 - Very different from transatlantic slavery.
 - Some slaves would get paid
- Accountability of muslim slave owners

- The act of freeing slaves being extremely virtuous incentivized the abolishing of slavery from society.
- Its also mandatory to free slaves after committing certain sins, like murder, breaking fast, and being disrespectful to the wife
- If a female slave has a child, their child is not a slave but takes the lineage of the father and the mother is also essentially free
- If you know that someone is going to be good, make a contract with them to for them to buy their freedom.
- The Prophet ﷺ interactions with slaves
 - Under the biography of Adi Bin Hatem it is mentioned how the Prophet ﷺ freed slaves
 - Juwairiya's entire tribe gets free from her marriage to the prophet.
 - Rayhana was a slave, the prophet wanted to propose to her but she chose to stay a slave because it was easier for her. Mutually beneficial relationship in a righteous relationship.
- Employee Analogy
 - People were considered like property though a better analogy is that they were like employees
 - Slavery is not imposing harm on the people more than what will naturally exist.
 - Nafi was a freed slave, so why would he choose to maintain the relationship with his master? Because he had a good relationship with them.
- Divine Wisdom
 - Allah created a system of power for a reason. The mercy of your lord is better than what else could exist.
- Goal of Abolition
 - Some ulama of usool say that the goal of removing slavery was there, though the change needed to occur gradually.
- Modern Irony
 - The immigrants that come from other countries to do labor work are basically slaves, and with less rights than what islam guarantees them.

Q&A

What is the difference between calling someone a slave and calling someone their child?

Adopting at the time made someone receive tribal status. A slave on the other hand does not take a tribal association.

Considering that they are prisoners of war, what happened when there was pushback?

There aren't many events like this to compare to due to victories being decisive in islamic history. However there is a chapter of fiqh focused on how this should be handled.

Was there a concept of imprisonment?

There was a concept of imprisonment but it was not a corporate system and it was not a virtuous thing.

What was the point of imprisoning women?

Women are still considered a threat. Furthermore, they have to reconfigure their families and society if you only take away their men. If you capture a family together they stay together. Capture was not permission to split up families.

Female slaves and their awrah?

Conversations regarding this will be discussed further into seerah.

Extra Notes:

- There should have been no way to distinguish a master from his slave.
- At the end of the day slavery is not a good thing and islam recognizes that. We can't change the fact that it exists in society. War is not a good thing either but it exists as a concept and there are rulings in place on how to handle it.
- A slave could not have property unless their owner permitted them to have property.

- Status as a human being was not taken away. You can't really change someone's confidence in this until they believe in their core that all people are equal in the eyes of allah
- Sheikh mentions that a lot of muslims didn't do that, and it's not our job to defend the immoralities of the empires that followed
- The Prophet said not to say the word slave, but to say young man or young lady.
- Is it very clear that slavery is a major sin? No. It is not a major sin but it is also not always sinless.

 - When the group woke the next morning, they found that an animal had killed him overnight
- Level of permissibility in making dua against enemies
 - The Prophet ﷺ naming his enemies and cursing shows that it is allowed to an extent. It is a personal decision, and when someone is being oppressed for a long time they have the right to it. However, that does not mean we be cursing people at every inconvenience.
- Umm Jameel (Abu Lahab's wife)
 - skipped

Year 5: Hijra to Abyssinia

Year 5: Migration to Abyssinia

Key Events

First Hijra to Abyssinia

Return from Abyssinia

(Also Covered: Second Hijra to Abyssinia in the 6-7th years of Prophethood)

Hijra to Abyssinia

Hijra to Abyssinia

Date Covered: 10/13 @ 0915, 10/14

Background on Abyssinia

- Primary Religion: Christianity, with a small minority of Messianic Jews.
 - The Messianic Jews believed in Isa AS as prophet but followed the sharia of Musa AS (basically muslims before the coming of the Prophet ﷺ)
 - The standard christian believed in the Trinity.
- Najashi (title for the kings of Abyssinia)
 - Najashi was a Messianic Jew.
 - He had a reputation for being just and fair.

Motivations for Hijra to Abyssinia

- It was an option available to those who could afford the journey.
 - Those who could not afford it endured the hardship and difficulty of living in Mecca.
- The Prophet ﷺ said "Go to Abyssinia because there is a just king there that does not tolerate oppression and good people, and stay there until Allah gives you an opportunity come back and the situation in Mecca changes."

First Migration

- Population: 11-12 men and 4-5 women
 - Some people left with the main group, some on their own and some who went back and forth
- Date: 5th year of prophethood, in the month of Rajab
 - Dawah has been public for 2 years.
- Period of Stay: 3 months
- The Group:
 - Uthman ibn Affan (leader)
 - Ruqayah (the Prophet ﷺ's daughter and wife of Uthman)
 - Abu Hudayfa
 - Son of Utbah Bin Rubiya (See "Effects of the Quran on Kuffar")
 - One of the earliest muslims despite his father being an enemy
 - Salem Mawla Abi Hudayfa

- The freed slave of Abu Hudayfa, whom he treated like a son
- They were close in age, did hijra together, later died together in the battle of Yamama
- Salem was the one who picked up a flag at the battle and was asked "Are you not afraid?" and responded "I am a terrible hafiz of the Quran if I allow weakness to come from my part of the army"
- Sahla bint Sohail ibn Amr
 - Sahla is the wife of Abu Hudayfa
 - The daughter of Sohail ibn Amr who is a staunch enemy of islam until Fath of Mecca
- Zubair ibn Awwam
- Mus'aab ibn Umair
 - His mother had chained him and abused him, until he snuck out and joined the Hijra.
- Abdur Rahman bin Awf
- Abu Salama
 - Cousin of the Prophet ﷺ through his mother Barrah bint Abdul Muttalib.
 - Milk brother of the Prophet ﷺ through shared wet-nurse Thuayyba.
 - First husband of Umm Salama (later married the Prophet ﷺ)
- Umm Salama
- Uthman ibn Madhun
- Amr Bin Rabiya and his wife Layla bint Abit Hathma
- Abu Sabra bin Abi Ruhum
 - A sahabi with very little detail known about him
- Sohail bin Baydha
 - The Prophet ﷺ prayed his janazah inside of Nabawi, which was not normal.
- Abu Hateb Bin Amr
- A common pattern among most of these names is that they were notable figures in Mecca, and their oppression is not to the same caliber as that endured by Bilal for example, and the others without tribal protection.

Cause of Return

- Returned in Shawwal due to a rumor of Quraish accepting islam.

- The Prophet ﷺ was reciting Surah Najm in front of sahaba and mushriqeen.
- Surah Najm has a poetic and mesmerizing sound
- The ayat are all about the power of Allah.
- Ends with an ayah of sujood, which everyone participates in (the Prophet ﷺ, sahaba, and mushriq)
- Clarifying Misconceptions
 - People ask why the non-muslims would also be doing sujood.
 - Sujood wasn't a foreign concept to the Arabs. While it wasn't an every day occurrence it was not completely new either.
- Aftermath
 - Narrations mention that among those who witnessed the event was Ummaya bin Khalaf and Waleed ibn Abi Mughira, neither of whom did sujood but instead put dirt on their heads.
 - Rumors spread that Quraish accepted Islam.
 - News reaches the muslims in Abyssinia, but as they get closer to Mecca they find out that it is not true.
- Dilemma
 - They were worried because they were returning without tribal protection.
 - Jiwar: meaning tribal protection
 - When they left Mecca, they essentially denounced their tribal statuses, so to re-enter they needed a new sponsor.
 - They reached out to various tribal leaders.
- Side-topic: Fabricated Story About "Satanic Verses" of Surah Najm
 - Popularized by a man named Salman Rushdie who wrote a book called Satanic Verses.
 - The government of Iran ended up issuing a hit on him.
 - The book contains a lot of blasphemy
 - Was popularized in the Western world
 - The Prophet ﷺ recited the ayat about Lat/Uzza/Manat (idols of Quraish)
 - The Authentic Narration: Shaytan made an audible sound, shouting "These are the noble cranes and we hope to receive their intercession"
 - The Fabricated Narration: Shaytan whispered in his ear and he confused wahi with Shaytan's whispers, leading him to recite the shout of Shaytan himself.

- The chain of narration and the wording of the hadith both indicate fabrication, and the consensus among scholars is that it is fabricated.
 - The words in these ayat are unique, and they denounce idol worship.
 - This event is also alluded to in Surah Hajj "There has never been a Prophet ﷺ except that while he is hoping for people to accept islam Shaytan tries to deviate those people. And Allah removes the effect of Shaytan and confirms his signs."
- Entering back into Mecca
 - Uthman ibn Mudhun
 - He gets tribal protection from Waleed ibn Al Mugheera (Why? When someone asked for tribal protection, saying no was a sign of weakness)
 - Uthman saw that he was the only one living under his tribal protection with ease.
 - He told Waleed, "You fulfilled your responsibility on me, nobody harmed me and everything is good, but I am returning your protection."
 - Waleed asks what happened and Uthman says "I cannot tolerate to see my fellow muslims like this"
 - Tells him to announce it in the masjid publicly.
 - Uthman praises Waleed, but after this moment Uthman makes a comment against the poet Labid bin Rabia, and gets publicly beaten.
 - Becomes blind in one eye. Waleed sees him, says this didn't have to happen, offers protection back. Uthman refuses.
 - Abu Salama
 - Got tribal protection from Abu Talib
- Side Topic: Are you allowed to remove the protection and expose yourself to harm?
 - No mufti is going to let you do it. But Uthman is an example of a person with imaan.
 - Harara tul Imaan: How much does your imaan motivate you?
 - Imaan drives you to live in a certain way. Thinking about halal and haram is the bare minimum, you're not actually living as a muslim if you only care to know if something is halal or haram.
- Story: Businessman in Gaza
 - Said he can't tolerate living outside of Gaza while knowing what is happening inside.

Second Hijra to Abyssinia

Date Covered: 10/14

Details

- Population: 83 men, 18-19 women
- Date: 6-7 years after prophethood
 - Not as formal as the first hijra as the first one, people trickling in and out.
- Lead: Jaafer ibn Abi Talib
 - Along with his wife Asma bint (half sister of the other Bint Umays who the Prophet ﷺ referred to as the believing sisters)
 - Famous for her hijra
- Time Remaining: 7 years in mecca and 7 in medina before they come back from Abyssinia
- Narration of the Reward Guaranteed

Asma was in Hafsa bint Umar's house when Umar RA saw her and asked Hafsa, "Is she the one that crossed the ocean and went to Abyssinia?" She responds yes.

Umar RA says "Wallahi we have more right to the Prophet ﷺ than you guys" and Asma responds "Wallahi I will not drink water or eat food until I tell this to the Prophet ﷺ"

The Prophet ﷺ says to her "You will get the reward of two hijras"

Asma would later be asked by Abu Musa to repeat what the Prophet ﷺ said. Though Abu Musa was not part of the Hijra, and merely joined them on the boat to guide them back. The people who were on that boat would ask to hear the hadith repeated.

- Returning at Different Stages
 - Many of them returned at their own pace
 - Reminder: Abyssinia was the place they went to when it got difficult, but it was still a sacrifice and not an easy lifestyle. They basically lived like refugees and the journey was difficult.
 - Majority stayed until after the Battle of Khyber

Stories from Narration about the Journey

- Khalid bin Hizam

- Khadidja RA's nephew
 - Recap: Hakim bin Hizam (brother) had purchased Zaid and given him to Khadidja RA, and supported the muslims during the boycott.
- Khalid was bit by a snake during the journey
- Narrated by Zubair bin Awwam (cousin) who states that he was waiting for Khalid and was devastated to learn of his death. Zubair was a teen/early 20s.

- Reminder: These small stories show that there are real people and real stories behind this. It was not a simple journey.

Famous Incident with Najashi

- The Quraish are upset

- 100 people, notably respectable people, leaving looked bad on them
- Economic harm
- Did not want islam to grow in Abyssinia

- They sent delegates to bring the Muslims back

- Amr Ibn Aas (diplomat) and Abdullah ibn Rabiyya are sent to Abyssinia.
- They buy foreign skins and trinkets for Najashi as a bribe

- About Najashi

- Najashi is not a name but just a title.
- Real name Ashama ibn Abjar

- The Meeting with Najashi

- They gifted all of his cardinals first.
- They tell him "There is a group of young people that causes trouble and splits up families (tries to frame them as a strange group of people) and our nation sent us to bring them back. Exact words: "These are our kids and we are their uncles"
- All of the cardinals agree to send the muslims back.

- Why did the Prophet ﷺ want them to go to Najashi?

- Because he is just leader despite his corrupt team, who were won over by the bribes.

- Najashi's Response

- He says there is no way he will let refugees go back.
- "Bring them in front of us"

- The muslims are all kind of scared. Jaafer says they will tell the truth without hiding anything.
- Najashi asks "What's this religion that you are following?"
- Jaafer: "We lived in a period of time where we were worshipping idols, and committing zina etc. We lived like that until Allah sent us a messenger and we knew all his qualities etc. and he told us to worship Allah and stop worshipping rocks.."
- Jaafer lists all the common commandments of islam
- Wisdom of Jaafer
 - Prioritizing common ground. They tried to make the muslims seem like foreign entities.
 - The narrative is falling apart when they see that we have common ground, and they become attracted to the image of islam.
 - Modern Example: The right wing taking interest in islam after finding common ground.
- Continuing the Conversation
 - Jaafer "So when it got too much we came here, and we chose you out of hope for your protection"
 - Najaashi "What do you have from the message?"
 - Jaafer recites the first few pages of Surah Maryam.
 - Jaafer is speaking through a translator.
- Response to Surah Maryam
 - Najashi started crying until his beard was filled with tears, and his cardinals too.
 - Najaashi "What you just said and what Musa said come from the same lamb". The message of the quran is more similar to the torah than the injeel that came to Isa AS.
 - Najashi says Isa AS is exactly how you describe. The cardinals react strongly (Najashi was a messianic jew while they were Christian)
 - Najaashi silences them and commands them to give back all the bribes.
 - The delegates return.
- Internal Issue
 - They caught wind that Najaashi was too sympathetic to the muslims
 - Umm Salama describes: there were attempts to overthrow Najaashi and the muslims were very scared. They knew that they were able to live there because Najaashi was just. And when Najaashi squashed the rebellion they were so happy.
- Muslims living in Foreign lands

- 15 years and the number of muslims did not grow at all.
- They were not giving dawah, they were just surviving. That was an intentional decision
- Muslims shouldn't be too attached to specific patches of geography
- Even the holy lands, if they are not conducive to living then we should be more focused on being able to fulfill the commandments of Allah

- Najashi's Conversion to Islam

- Najashi later became muslim
- Tricking the Abyssinians: They were questioning him about his faith and he pointed to his chest "affirming" his belief. In reality he had his true written beliefs written on a paper in his chest pocket.
- His death was the only time that the Prophet ﷺ prayed an absent janazah, the Prophet ﷺ said "A righteous member has died in Abyssinia"

Fiqh of Hijra

Fiqh of Hijra

Date covered: 10/15 @ 9:10

Causes for Hijra

- The hijra to Abyssinia was not mandatory but optional (mustahabb)
 - The rulings that existed at that time did not mandate hijra.
- Mandatory Hijra
 - When you cannot be muslim in the place you are living in.
 - Example: Uyghurs. They are being forced to drink and eat during ramadan, preventing them from fulfilling fard.
 - Example: France banning niqab and hijab in public spaces. A move that opened up discussions regarding hijra.
 - On the DOJ, Allah will ask people what was going on with you? They will say we were oppressed and Allah will say did we not create the entire earth?
- Applicability to Us
 - Nobody can claim that hijra is mandatory in America.
 - Story: A person walks into the masjid in California. Says he is stressed and says he just needs to talk to someone. A Sheikh is telling them to do hijra, says his friends are being sent to Yemen, and he is a sikh convert.
 - This narrative becomes attractive to people when they start practicing. You start to see it as the ultimate form of religiosity
 - Only situation where it is mandatory is when it becomes absolutely impossible to practice islam.
 - Question: How can it be halal to leave in the US when they send money to Israel? At the end of the day, all of the countries in the world sending money to israel
 - There are at least 3 million muslims living here. If even 10% of them were to leave, the general mass would fall apart. Keeping communities intact and taking care of them is important
- Haram Hijra
 - When you leave a practising land to a land of kufr

- Islam has respect for wealth, familial construct, and integrity of life. Making hijra when it's not absolutely necessary is not right.
- The growth of islam in America is unparalleled.
- Anybody who has the awareness of this country's problems is the kind of person we need here.
- Our mindset should always be focused on the need for deen.
- Example of Sahaba
 - The number of sahaba that passed away in Madina vs that passed away outside of it is great.
 - Less than 10% of them actually died in Madina, their graves are scattered all around the peninsula.
 - The sahaba were active people, they were constantly travelling and moving. And not living mindlessly, the way western societies lull you.
 - Western society has immobilized people.
- Loving Dawah
 - If it is ingrained in you from childhood to not be attached to any land, you'll be happy to die in a corner of the earth giving dawah.
 - The Prophet ﷺ says to Fatima your father will not rest another day.
 - From the age 55 of to 63 he spent most of his time travelling, in battles, in the desert etc. This is the tradition we should be inheriting. Not a life of ease, but a life of struggle for the deen.
 - Sahaba is reciting a poem about Mecca, they had so much attachment to it. The Prophet ﷺ also had an attachment to Mecca.
 - But our attachment is to Allah and where there is a need for the deen.
- Story
 - Sheikh mentions that whenever they go somewhere new, they want to open a boarding school, because often families are so desperate to send their kids.
 - MAR always says the same thing. A community will not thrive until people are willing to leave it to grow it.
- Reward
 - The further away a person passes from home the more reward on the DOJ
 - We get lulled into the lifestyle of working and constant entertainment and that being the whole purpose of our lives.
- Imam Ghazali on things that are tying you down.

- Your family can be your enemy in battle because they hold you back from achieving what you need to.
- Releasing attachments to dunya
 - At the end of the day Sahaba loved their families and their communities. But the person who mitigates their need for involvement will succeed the most.
 - When his mom was sick he was in Pakistan, he knew that other people were filling the role and going back would just be to make him the one taking care of her.
 - In Gaza, there's videos of the kids grabbing their parents saying don't leave. The heart that it takes to leave. Although most scholars will give you the soft answer, the one who benefits the community the most is the one willing to make a sacrifice.
 - If your dunya is more beloved to you than fighting in the path of Allah, you will find out on the Day of Judgment
 - You learn to never underestimate the people sitting next to you and what's going on in their life.
- Story
 - There was a kid who would always be falling asleep. Couldn't sleep at night because his parents are shouting at home.
 - Danger to the one who is going through a lot. They set the bar lower for themselves.
 - The Prophet ﷺ warned the sahaba not to praise themselves for what they have done
 - It's a sign of hypocrisy to only receive as much as is needed to receive credit
 - When the ayat of surah tawba encouraged everyone to participate in Battle of Tabuk.
 - ??? name (9:45) sitting in shade, battle taking place in outskirts and he is an old man but he gets ready to participate. Abat il bahuth (one of the names of surah tawba). Surah tawbah rejects the possibility of him retiring.

Year 6: Conversion of Hamza and Umar RA

Conversion of Hamza and Umar RA

Date Covered: 10/16 @ 9:17

Hamza RA's Conversion

- Hamza Ibn Abdul Muttalib: uncle of the Prophet ﷺ but similar in age to him.
- Context - Abu Jahal insulted the Prophet ﷺ: while he was giving dawah on the mountain.
 - The Prophet ﷺ stayed quiet and Abu Jahal walked away.
 - He made his way to the Kaaba, where Abdullah ibn Juban (camel driver + hilf al fudul) was sitting with his slave.
 - Abu Jahal shared with Abdullah what he was just doing, and his slave also listened in.
- News reaches Hamza RA
 - He was returning from a hunt when Abdullah ibn Juban's slave told him what Abu Jahal did to the Prophet ﷺ "If you saw what happened with your nephew..."
 - He then went to the Kaaba where they were gathered, and smacked Abu Jahal with his bow, leaving a cut on his head.
 - "You insulted my nephew, I am also on his religion, if you don't like the Muslims pick on me."
 - People from Abu Jahal's tribe come to fight Hamza, he tells them to leave him alone.
- Hamza Reflecting on his Words
 - Hamza was not Muslim. He goes home and thinks about it, sleeps the night and next morning goes to the Prophet ﷺ.
 - The Prophet ﷺ gives him dawah and convinces him.
 - The Prophet ﷺ was extremely happy. Hamza RA makes 39 Muslims, and Umar makes 40.
 - They felt some protection through him.

Umar RA

- Takes place 3 days after Hamza RA
- Most famous narration is at his sister's house

Narration #1 (More authentic)

Umar RA, one night wanted to observe the Prophet ﷺ so he followed him until he reached the Kaaba. He then hid behind the curtain.

At this time, the Prophet would stand behind the Kaaba between Hajar Al Aswad and Ruqman Yamani towards Jerusalem. Umar RA kept moving closer until he got right in front of the Prophet ﷺ, then he heard quran and his heart became soft.

The Prophet ﷺ was reciting “al haqu mal haqu...” Right when he thought it was poetry the Prophet ﷺ recited the ayah that said this is not poetry. The next ayah was that it was not the speech of a soothsayer. The following ayah that threatened the Prophet ﷺ in the event he were to fabricate the quran. (Source Needed)

- In these narrations it says that Umar RA accepted islam in these moments, but other opinions are that he was just softened to it.

Becoming Sympathetic

- Umar RA was flip flopping for a while before he became muslim.
- Layla bin Abi Hathma narrates that before the hijra to Abyssinia Umar RA was her neighbor, and when they were preparing he asked what they were doing.
- She mentions that he used to give them a hard time but this time he said “May Allah be with you”
- She noticed that he was sympathetic and spoke of it to her husband, who responded “The donkey of Khattab will accept islam before Umar ibn Khattab”

Similar story: Umayy ibn Abu Sat

- A poet who was about to accept islam but turned away after he found out his brother was killed at Badr
- Died non-muslim. It is common for people to flip flop between extremes after their hearts are softened

Narration #2

Nu'aym ibn Abdullah (who was a secret muslim at the time and from the same tribe) sees Umar RA with his sword drawn, walking towards the Prophet ﷺ's house.

Asks him what he is doing. Umar RA says he is going to kill the Prophet ﷺ, he is causing corruption etc. Nu'aym tries to dissuade him, then says take care of your own family first, you sister and brother-in-law are muslim

Umar RAs face changed and he stormed into his sister's house. Khabbab was teaching them a small page of Surah Taha at the time, and he hid in the closet. Fatima took the paper and sat on it. Umar RA says what is tha haynama (buzzing rhythm) I was hearing.

Fatima says it is nothing. Umar RA says I heard that you are muslims, throws Said against the wall. Then his sister attempts to stop him and she falls on the ground, face bleeding. She says we accepted islam you can do whatever you want. He softens up. He says give me this paper, let me read it. The narrator mentions Umar RA was literate.

She doesn't trust him, so he swears by the idols. Then she says he is a mushriq and that nobody can touch without being pure. He showers.

- Wisdom of this: calming him down first

The first 10-15 ayah are about Allah, Umar RA says it's a beautiful speech. Khabbab comes out, and says I heard the Prophet ﷺ making dua and it applies to you: "Oh Allah give honor and support to Islam through one of the two Amars (could be Umar ibn Khattab or to Abu Jahal) Whichever is more beloved to you accepts islam"

- In Arabic you can play with words like this.
- Khabbab is giving Umar RA a tribal challenge

Umar RA walks out with his sword still brandished and goes to the Prophet ﷺ at Dar al Arqam and knocks at the door. One sahaba looks through a gap and sees Umar RA. The sahaba panics.

- Umar RA and Khalid bin Waleed were two men whom their horses would drag (showing their size)

Hamza RA says let him in, what can he do. They open the door. The Prophet ﷺ grabs Umar RA by the collar. Asks what brings you here today, I don't see any in which you continue on the path you are on now except that Allah will destroy you.

- The Prophet ﷺ had the strength of 10 normal people.

Umar RA says I am here to accept islam. Prophet ﷺ says takbeer and they all said allahuakbar loudly.

- Up until then, it was private. But after this Hamza and Umar lead two lines and they do tawaf publicly.
- Narration is in Ibn Hisham and Ibn Ishaq: This is the story shared in Madina and the other story (hiding) was shared in Mecca.

Changes for the Muslims

- Quote from Abdullah Ibn Masoud: "From the day Umar RA accepted islam, honor and respect was brought to islam and after he died it only went down."
- Hadith narrated by Hudayfa bin Yaman
 - About Hudayfa: He was the secretkeeper of the Prophet ﷺ (knew the names of the munafiq) Umar RA would ask him if his name is in the list.
 - Among his narrations: Hudayfa once told Umar RA that: The Prophet ﷺ told me about a door that will be broken on the death of a certain pious person, which opens the doors for fitna.
 - Students asked, did Umar RA know he was the door? He replied he knew as well as knew there was a tomorrow coming.
- Despite this game-changing moment there was never much protection for those of weak lineage. It didn't change the major trajectory.

Years 7-9: The Boycott

The Boycott (Years 7-9 of Prophethood)

Dates Covered: 10/17 @ 9:25

Zooming Out

- The Boycott is the build up to Hijra
 - Sahaba are being taught the sunnah of Allah
 - The help of Allah arrives when the difficulty and suffering reach an intolerable point
- Example of Musa AS: There were 40 years between the dua of Musa and Harun and the end of their torment.
- Summary: The boycott phase is characterized by difficulty and suffering, leading up to hijra.
- Growth of Islam
 - Islam was gaining traction (failed mission at Abyssinia, Hamza and Umar RA conversion)
 - Current Stage:
 - 13 years of Meccan dawah
 - Current Number: 40
 - Grows to 400 right before Hijra, including the ones who returned from Abyssinia

The Agreement

- The Quraysh drew up the agreement and pinned it inside the Ka`bah.
- Details of the Agreement
 - Suspended all dealings with
 - Banu Hashim
 - Banu Al-Muttalib
 - Financial boycott (no buying or selling from them)
 - Social boycott (no talking to them, no marriage into their tribe)
- Why the tribes and not just Muslims? Not enough Muslims to have the desired impact.
- Mansour Bin Akrimah wrote the agreement and the Prophet ﷺ made dua against him. His right hand was paralyzed and it is assumed he died non-Muslim.

Immediate Effects of the Boycott

- Their livelihood was cut off.
- Many opponents and neutral figures thought the boycott was extreme.
 - They were an intimate society, so it was like boycotting your own family.
 - Abu Sufiyan was unhappy with the boycott despite being an enemy of islam.
- Abu Talib's Move
 - Abu Talib moved both tribes into a small valley called Shaab
 - Some narrations mention that it was in order to protect the Prophet ﷺ as this was one of the first times assassination attempts were made against the Prophet ﷺ

Survival

- Internal Providers: Those among the muslims who had animals slaughtered and fed others with them.
- Key Supporters
 - Khadidja RA: almost singlehandedly supported the muslims with their wealth.
 - Hakim bin Hazam:
 - Was not muslim yet.
 - Would smuggle food in for the muslims.
 - Abu Jahal and other kuffar caught him and beat him.
- Criticisms of the Boycott
 - Abul Baktha ibn Hisham saw Hakim being beaten, and thought it was too much.
 - Several others felt the same.
- Pauses in the Boycott
 - Hajj Season: The arrival of hujjaj would "pause" the boycott because the Meccans would pretend things were normal
- Abu Lahab's Role
 - Abu Lahab would go to the tradesmen who came for Hajj and buy their goods for double the price, so that the muslims could not.
 - He excluded himself from Banu Hashem's boycott.
 - Every other muslim and non muslim starved.
 - Hamiyat: the concept of tribal loyalty, which others had but he did not

- His failure to be loyal to his tribe was seen as an extremely low move.
- One of the few people to affirm Abu Lahab was Hind, the wife of Abu Sufiyan. She once saw him on the street and Abu Lahab and he asked "Isn't it a good thing I did? And she responded yes.
 - However, overall very few people agreed with him.
- Other Sahaba's Involvement
 - Abu Bakr RA and Umar RA were not included in the boycott. Because the leaders of their tribes had signed the agreement their hands were tied
 - They supported the muslims by smuggling in food.
- Duration of the Boycott: 3 years
 - Important Event during the Boycott: The birth of Abdullah ibn Abbas

End of the Boycott

The 5 Responsible for the End

- Hisham ibn Amr
 - The boycott ended when Hisham ibn 'Amr, together with four others, went to the Ka'bah and declared it broke.
- Zuhair ibn Abi Umayya
 - Hisham tells only one other person, Zubair
 - Brother of Umm Salama/ son of Atiqah/ cousin of the Prophet ﷺ
- Muttam bin Adi
 - His son accepted islam, but he himself died non-muslim. The Prophet ﷺ appreciated him a lot for the protection he gave them after Abu Talib's death
 - Narration: The Prophet ﷺ in reference to the 70 captives from Badr said if Muttam bin Adi had told me to free all these people, I would have.
- Abul Baqtari
 - The same person that scolded Abu Jahal
 - In the battle of Badr, the Prophet ﷺ commanded the army not to kill him, because he was forced to come fight.
- Zama'a ibn Aswad
 - From Banu Aswad, related to Khadija RA
- The Prophet ﷺ appreciated and recognized them.

The Scheme

- Quraish were gathered in front of the Kaaba
 - The plan of the 5 of them was to make it seem like public opinion is in favor of ending the boycott and gain traction off of each other.
- One of them gets up and proposes ending the boycott.
 - The plan proceeds.
 - Popular opinion shifts, and they agree to break the agreement
- Prediction of the Prophet ﷺ: At the same time the Prophet ﷺ is in a different place telling someone that Allah already destroyed it, and insects have consumed the document
 - Fake Religiosity: When the treaty was initially hung inside the Kaaba, the kuffar of Mecca tried to make it seem like it was being done in religious defense
 - The Sunnah of Allah: is that anybody that makes any religious effort will be treated like a criminal. Firaun did the same with Musa AS, and the Israeli government is doing the same with Palestinians.
- The open up the Kaaba to remove the treaty
 - They find that the paper is destroyed and only a small part of it is left: the part that says "bismikallahumma"
- The boycott officially ended.
 - Despite this, oppression ramps up beyond belief.
 - Restoring social and financial relationships with them was difficult, especially after the death of Abu Talib.

Lessons

- Hamiya (Loyalty)
 - They defended their tribes out of pure nationalism.
- Having a System of Support Ready
 - Those who had the means to support were the ones that could.
 - Someone who wants to help should already have been helping before things got bad. Being prepared is of essence.
 - Ex: humanitarian orgs in Gaza. Prepared because they expect it.
- Good Times Require Urgency
 - When things are good are when we should be doing the most work to prepare. It requires a sense of urgency.

Year 10: Am Al Huzun (The Year of Sorrow)

Year 10: Am Al Huzun (The Year of Sorrow)

Date Covered: 10/20 @ 0905

Context

- This was a difficult year due to 3 main reasons.
 - Death of Abu Talib (Loss of Tribal Protection)
 - Death of Khadidja RA
 - Journey to Taif
- Abu Talib and Khadidja passed away within a short range of each other. Abu Talib was in his 80s and Khadidja was 65. Living in the boycott with such little food took a toll on their bodies.

Abu Talib's Death

- Time of Death: Some narrations of Am Al Huzun mention that the death of Abu Talib was a month after the end of the boycott. Other narrations mention exactly 28 days.

Hadith about his Death

Narrated Sa'id bin Al-Musaiyab from his father: When the time of the death of Abu Talib approached, Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) went to him and found Abu Jahl bin Hisham and `Abdullah bin Abi Umaiya bin Al-Mughira by his side.

Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) said to Abu Talib, "O uncle! Say: None has the right to be worshipped but Allah, a sentence with which I shall be a witness for you before Allah.

Abu Jahl and `Abdullah bin Abi Umaiya said, "O Abu Talib! Are you going to denounce the religion of `Abdul Muttalib?" Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) kept on inviting Abu Talib to say it while they kept on repeating their statement till Abu Talib said as his last statement that he was on the religion of `Abdul Muttalib and refused to say, 'None has the right to be worshipped but Allah!...' (Bukhari 1360)

- In some very weak narrations, Abbas says to the Prophet ﷺ that he heard Abu Talib whisper la illaha illallah. The narrations are weak and contradict Quranic revelation.

Hadith on His Lightened Punishment

Narrated Abu Sa`id Al-Khudri: I heard Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) when his uncle, Abu Talib had been mentioned in his presence, saying, "May be my intercession will help him (Abu Talib) on the Day of Resurrection so that he may be put in a shallow place in the Fire, with fire reaching his ankles and causing his brain to boil."

- Lessons from Abu Talib's Outcome
 - Even the weakest punishments in jahannam are severe.
 - Non muslims can benefit from their actions in the akhirah.

Duas for Deceased Non Muslims

"...Then Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) said, "I will keep on asking Allah's forgiveness for you unless I am forbidden (by Allah) to do so." So Allah revealed (the verse) concerning him (i.e. It is not fitting for the Prophet (ﷺ) and those who believe that they should invoke (Allah) for forgiveness for pagans even though they be of kin, after it has become clear to them that they are companions of the fire (9.113). (Bukhari 1360)

- Surah Al Qasas Ayah 56 is revealed to the Prophet (ﷺ) first: You surely cannot guide whoever you like 'O Prophet', but it is Allah Who guides whoever He wills, and He knows best who are 'fit to be' guided. (28:56)
- Then Surah Tawbah Ayah 113-115: "It is not 'proper' for the Prophet and the believers to seek forgiveness for the polytheists, even if they were close relatives, after it has become clear to the believers that they are bound for the Hellfire. As for Abraham's prayer for his father's forgiveness, it was only in fulfilment of a promise he had made to him. But when it became clear to Abraham that his father was an enemy of Allah, he broke ties with him. Abraham was truly tender-hearted, forbearing."
 - Although opinions differ on when exactly these ayat were revealed, they make it clear that non believers cannot receive dua.
 - In order for someone to qualify for dua after death, they must be a known/public muslim. Unknown muslims do not count.

Burial and Consequences of his Death

- The Prophet (ﷺ) told Ali RA to bury his father.

- Abu Talib is buried in the same graveyard that Khadidja, Abdul Muttalib and others are buried in.
- Physical attacks begin after the death. The Prophet ﷺ narrates this himself.

Khadidja RA's Death

- Time of Death: 3 years before Hijra. Narrations vary from 3 days - 1 month and 5 days after the death of Abu Talib.
- Recap of Khadidja RA's traits
 - Fadail (Virtues): Promised jannah, salam from Allah and Jibreel, status as one of the 5 most virtuous women
 - Khasais (Unique Traits): Wealth and generosity, mother of all of the Prophet ﷺ's children
 - Her life with the Prophet ﷺ was characterized by hardship and sacrifice.
 - Misunderstandings of Her Khasais: Sometimes people who want to propagate a materialistic lifestyle in the context of islam use Khadidja RA's wealth as an example. However her life was actually very different from what they try to push forward about her.
 - Sacrificing for the Deen: If the reality of her situation (giving up her wealth for her husband, suffering for his mission, etc.) was to be propagated, it would be considered unfair by the standards of modern society. As muslims we should move past individualistic perspectives and recognize the virtue of enduring things for the sake of Allah.

Difficulty of this Time for the Prophet ﷺ

- Extreme Loneliness: Losing Abu Talib and Khadidja RA at the same time was incredibly difficult for the Prophet ﷺ. He mourned for a long time and seldom left his house, partly because of abuse from Quraish and partly because of his grief.
 - He wanted to contrast the loud grief of Jahiliya with quiet grief. The sunnah of grieving is to do it quietly.
- Loss of Tribal Protection: There are many stories, but the most famous is that in which the Prophet ﷺ has intestines thrown on him.

Stories from Narration

Narrated Abdullah Ibn Masoud: While the Prophet (ﷺ) was in the state of prostration, surrounded by a group of people from Quraish pagans. [THE WORST OF THE NATION] Uqba bin Abi Mu'ait came and brought the [PLACENTA] of a camel and threw them on the back of the Prophet (ﷺ). [THEY ARE FALLING ON EACH OTHER OUT OF LAUGHTER] [AND NOBODY COULD DO ANYTHING] The Prophet (ﷺ) did not raise his head from prostration till Fatima (i.e. his daughter) came and removed those intestines from his back, and invoked evil on whoever had done (the evil deed). The Prophet (ﷺ) said [THE DUA OF BEGINNING A KHUTBAH FOLLOWED BY:], "O Allah! Destroy the chiefs of Quraish, O Allah! Destroy Abu Jahl bin Hisham, `Utba bin Rabi`a, Shaiba bin Rabi`a, `Uqba bin Abi Mu'ait, Umaiya bin Khalaf (or Ubai bin Kalaf)." Later on I saw all of them killed during the battle of Badr and their bodies were thrown into a well except the body of Umaiya or Ubai, because he was a fat person, and when he was pulled, the parts of his body got separated before he was thrown into the well. (Bukhari 3185) Additional translations from class added in caps

- Abdullah Ibn Masoud takes note that this was the only time he personally ever saw the Prophet (ﷺ) make dua against another person.
- In an alternate narration, he also admits that despite being a grown man, he was unable to stop the situation due to his powerlessness (he was from a different tribe). States that nobody could do anything except Fatima RA.

Narrated by Ali RA during his Khilafa, when he was asked who was the bravest person he knew. He said "Wallahi it is Abu Bakr RA. I saw a moment where the Prophet (ﷺ) was surrounded by Quraish, and people were grabbing him by his shirt, pulling, pushing, and scolding him 'You are claiming that all of our gods are one god' and Abu Bakr was defending him while shouting 'You'll kill somebody for stating that their lord is Allah?' to the point that he fell unconscious". Then Ali RA lifted a cloth that he was wearing and started weeping until his beard was soaked.

- The line that Abu Bakr was saying is quoted in the Quran on the tongue of a person from the family of Firaun. And Ali gets asked who is better, that person or Abu Bakr. "Wallahi an hour of life from Abu Bakr is better than two lifespans of that person. That person was hiding his belief."
- Abu Bakr has similar stories getting hurt defending the Prophet (ﷺ).

Defenders from Among the Quraish

Abul Baktari

- One of the 5 that ended the boycott.
- He sees the face of the Prophet ﷺ on a day he had been beaten and asks him what is wrong.
- The Prophet ﷺ doesn't expand, and Abul Baqtari insists on finding out.
- The Prophet ﷺ then explains how Abu Jahal had intestines thrown on him.
- Abul Baqtari walks with the Prophet ﷺ to the masjid and smacks Abu Jahal on the head.

More Stories

- Uqbah bin Abi Mueet choked the Prophet ﷺ until he fell on his knees.
- Abu Bakr says the same ayah from Ali's narration.
- The Prophet ﷺ say "I've been sent to you with slaughter". Abu Jahal says "You were never this harsh" and the Prophet ﷺ responds "You are amongst them"
 - The pattern of oppressors has always been and always will be of causing harm and then pretending to be the victim when faced with retaliation.

They took dirt and dumped it on the Prophet ﷺ. He comes home and Fatima RA sees the dirt and brushes it off, crying and asking why they are doing this to him. The Prophet ﷺ says "Don't cry, Allah will protect your father"

The Prophet ﷺ said "I was neighbors with Abu Lahab and Uqbah ibn Abi Muayt and they would garbage into my house." Then he walked out one day and "Oh people of Abd Mandaf (calling them by their tribal name), what kind of neighbors are you?"

- He calls them by their tribal names. The Quraish had a norm of treating their neighbors with respect, which they were clearly violating.

Extreme Poverty and Starvation

- The muslims were extremely poor leading up the deaths. Khadidja RA had exhausted all her wealth supporting the ummah, prior to dying.
- Hadith: The Prophet ﷺ says "I've been harmed for the sake of Allah in a way that no one else was, and I was living in such a fearful state that no one, and Bilal and I had nothing to eat for 30 days except what fit under his arm.

Narration About Abu Bakr

Narrated 'Aisha Bint Abu Bakr (the wife of the Prophet):

"I never remembered my parents believing in any religion other than the true religion (Islam), and (I don't remember) a single day passing without our being visited by Allah's Messenger in the morning and in the evening.

When the Muslims were put to test (troubled by the pagans), Abu Bakr set out migrating to the land of Abyssinia (Ethiopia), and when he reached Bark-al-Ghimad, Ibn Ad-Daghina, the chief of the tribe of Qara, met him and said, 'O Abu Bakr! Where are you going?' Abu Bakr replied: 'My people have turned me out (of my country), so I want to wander on the earth and worship my Lord.' Ibn

Ad-Dhagina said: 'O Abu Bakr! A man like you should not leave his homeland, nor should he be driven out, because you help the destitute, earn their living, and you keep good relations with your kith and kin, help the weak and the poor, entertain guests generously, and help the calamity-stricken persons. Therefore, I am your protector. Go back and worship your Lord in your town.'

"So Abu Bakr returned and Ibn Ad-Daghina accompanied him. In the evening Ibn Ad-Dhagina visited the nobles of Quraish and said to them. 'A man like Abu Bakr should not leave his homeland, nor should he be driven out. Do you (Quraish) drive out a man who helps the destitute, earns their living, keeps good relations with his kith and kin, helps the weak and poor, entertain guests generously and helps the calamity-stricken persons?'

- When the Prophet ﷺ first received revelation and was afraid, Khadidja RA reassured him using the same words: By Allah, you join ties of relationship, you speak the truth, you bear people's burden, you help the destitute, you entertain guests, and you help against the vicissitudes which affect people.
- This shows how similar the Prophet ﷺ and Abu Bakr RA were.

So the people of Quraish could not refuse Ibn Ad-Dhagina's protection, and they said to Ibn Ad-Daghina: 'Let Abu Bakr worship his Lord in his house. He can pray and recite there whatever he likes, but he should not hurt us with it, and should not do it publicly, because we are afraid that he may affect our women and children.'

Ibn Ad-Dhagina told Abu Bakr all of that. Abu Bakr stayed in that state, worshipping his Lord in his house. He did not pray publicly, nor did he recite Quran outside his house.

"Then a thought occurred to Abu Bakr to build a mosque in front of his house, and there he used to pray and recite the Quran. The women and children of the pagans began to gather around him in great number. They used to wonder at him and look at him. Abu Bakr was a man who used to weep too much, and he could not help weeping or reciting the Quran.

- The men were aggressive, the women and children were less so.

That situation scared the nobles of the pagans of Quraish, so they sent for Ibn Ad-Daghina. When he came to them, they said: 'We accepted your protection of Abu Bakr on condition that he should worship his Lord in his house, but he has violated the conditions and he has built a mosque in front of his house where he prays and recites the Quran publicly. We are not afraid that he may affect our women and children unfavorably. So, prevent him from that. If he likes to confine the worship of his Lord to his house, he may do so, but if he insists on doing that openly, ask him to release you from your obligation to protect him, for we dislike to break our pact with you, but we deny Abu Bakr the right to announce his act publicly.'

Ibn Ad-Dhagina went to Abu Bakr and said: 'O Abu Bakr! You know well what contract I have made on your behalf; now, you are either to abide by it, or else release me from my obligation of protecting you, because I do not want the Arabs hear that my people have dishonored a contract I have made on behalf of another man.' Abu Bakr replied: 'I release you from your pact to protect me and am pleased with the protection from Allah.'

Marriage to Sawda

Marriage to Sawda

Dates Covered: 10/21 @ 9:15

- Post-Khadidja: After the death of Khadidja RA, the Prophet ﷺ mourned for a long time and seldom left his house. Partly because of abuse from Quraish and partly because of his grief.
 - Sunnah of Grief: is to grieve quietly. He wanted to contrast the loud grief of Jahiliya with quiet grief.
- Offer of Marriage from Khawla bint Hakim
 - About Khawla: the wife of Uthman ibn Madhun (man who came back to Mecca under Waleed bin Mughira and went blind in one eye) and an older lady.
 - Offer: She asked the Prophet ﷺ if he wanted to get married again (unclear if before or after Taif)
 - He did not refuse so she asked if he wanted someone married or unmarried. Offered Sawda and Aisha, the Prophet ﷺ responded she should ask them (Sawda and Abu Bakr RA) what they think.
 - She went to each party, Sawda agreed.

About Sawda bin Amr

- Age: A few years younger than the Prophet ﷺ
- Previous Marriage: Sawda was married to Sakran bin Amr (brother of Sohaib bin Amr - Khateeb of Mecca) who passed away.
 - A few days before he died, she had a dream of her sleeping and the Prophet ﷺ stepped on her neck.

- Already Muslim
 - Sawda converted before her marriage to the Prophet ﷺ.
- Concerns
 - She was worried because she had 6 children.
 - The Prophet ﷺ said to her: "The best women to ever ride camels in all of Arabia are the righteous women of Quraish they are the most compassionate to their children when they are young and they are the most courteous and considerate over the property of their husband..."

Journey to Taif

Journey to Taif

Dates Covered: 10/21 @ 9:28, 10/24 @ 9:00

- Motivation: Safer land for the muslims
 - The Prophet ﷺ was looking for places to live after the death of Abu Talib.
 - Why Taif?
 - Taif is a more luscious land with greenery and water.
 - It is southeast of Mecca.
 - Lots of leaders of Mecca owned land in Taif, because it grew dates.
 - It was the next most influential city after Mecca
- The Journey: 1-2 days
 - Accompanied by Zaid ibn Haritha
- Dawah while There: 3-7 days
 - Narrations vary on how long he was there.
 - He worked during that time, and gave dawah both in public and one on one to its leaders.

Dawah to the Chiefs of Taif

- The Chiefs of Taif were 3 brothers
 - Abdiyaalil ibn Amr
 - Masood ibn Amr
 - Habib ibn Amr
- They remain the leaders of Taif until Taif accepts Islam.
 - They reappear in the 9th year after Hijra
- He gave them dawah and recited quran
- Their Reactions
 - One brother said: "If Allah actually gave you revelation I'll sleep with the cloth of the kaaba as my clothing"
 - Another brother says: Allah couldn't find anyone else better than you, an orphan from mecca?
 - The last brother says: "I am not foolish enough to say anything to you, if you are actually a prophet it would be foolish of me to say anything. If you're a liar Allah will destroy you anyway, and there is no point in me risking this"
 - Narrations don't mention who was who.

Attack on the Prophet ﷺ

- The brothers tell the people to stone the Prophet ﷺ and expel him from Taif.
 - He and Zaid are walking, getting pelted.
 - They end up in the outskirts of Taif in a garden owned by Utbah and Shayba Ibn Rabia (two enemies of islam that the Prophet ﷺ made dua against)
 - There they find a slave named Addas.
- Narrations mention his shoes were sticking to his feet from how much blood there was.
 - Addas came to him instantly and offered him grapes and other foods, and as the Prophet was about to eat the grape he said bismillah.
 - Addas asks "Where did you here that from?"
 - The Prophet ﷺ ask Addas in return where are you from?
 - He says, "I am a Christian from the city of Ninwa in Iraq
 - The Prophet ﷺ responds "You are from the city of Yunus AS?"
- Addas was amazed to find that the Prophet ﷺ knew about Yunus and Iraq. He also recognized bismillah and the teachings of Yunus AS.
- The Prophet ﷺ gives dawah to Addas and he accepts islam

Dua of The Prophet ﷺ at the Garden in Taif

O Allah! I complain to you of my weakness, my scarcity of resources and humiliation before the people. O Most Merciful! The Lord of the weak and my Lord too! To whom have You entrusted me? To one who does not care for me? Or have You appointed my enemy as master of my affairs? So as long as You are not angry with me, I care not. Your favor is abundant for me. I seek refuge in the light of Your Face, by which all darkness is dispelled and every affair of this world and the next is set right, lest Your anger or your displeasure descend upon me. I desire your pleasure and satisfaction until You are pleased. There is no power (to do good) and no might (to refrain from evil) except with You. (Ar-Raheeq-Al-Makhtum)

Purpose of Sunnah Duas

- Every single dua we say is symbolic of the mentality Allah wants us to have while this moment is taking place.
- Dua is a way of controlling the environment of a muslim.
- The things that you say set the framework for how you think. Duas help regulate your reaction.

- The Prophet ﷺ is in a moment of struggle for the deen.
- From a materialistic perspective, there is very little show after 10 years of effort in terms of the success of the ummah.
- The Prophet ﷺ is at his lowest point and supposedly hopeless, but is he giving up? No, rather he makes this dua.

Dua Analysis

- Takes Personal Blame: He apologizes that he is weak and places the blame on himself, his lack of ability to plan, and that his lack of skill is the reason why.
- Accepting Difficulty: Complaining against Allah in time of difficulty is a sign of kufr
 - We cannot be ungrateful for Allah, but complaining to Allah is different.
 - The Prophet ﷺ takes comfort that long as Allah is not angry with me, I will take either route.
- Willingness to Continue: The Prophet ﷺ assert his wish to push forward

Angels Offer

- Jibreel presents the offer from Allah for the angels of the mountains to destroy Taif on the Prophet ﷺ's behalf.
- The Prophet ﷺ declines, saying "I hope that somebody from their descendants can accept islam"
 - The entire tribe of Thakif accepted islam during the Prophet ﷺ life
 - A descendant from this tribe named Muhammad bin qasim al-thaqafi conquered Sind leading to the spread of islam in the Indian Subcontinent
 - Nearly 600 million people are muslim today, directly leading back to someone from the lineage of Taif.
- Why did the the Prophet ﷺ not make dua against him? He had hope that they would accept islam.
- Taif Significance
 - This was by far the most difficult for the prophet ﷺ
 - Narration from Aisha RA: Badr was nothing compared to Taif
 - Taif was mentally defeating.
- Uphill from Here
 - However, overall things start to go uphill.
 - Addas accepting islam in Taif, a group of jinn accept islam while on his way back from taif were signs of improvement

Jinn Accepting Islam

- Location: Nakhla on the way back to Mecca from Taif
- Prophet ﷺ was praying qiyam and the jinn overheard it
 - The Prophet ﷺ gave them dawah.
 - They accepted islam
- Unseen Support of Allah
 - A sign to the Prophet ﷺ that if humans reject the jinn will accept
- Israa wal Miraaj soon to come

Lessons from Taif

- Need for Struggle
 - The results are in the hands of Allah. Allah told him to give dawah so he gave dawah.
- Not Giving Up
 - Hadith: The Prophet ﷺ says that some messengers will have followers and from among them Musa will have many, however he want to have the most.
 - Modern Trials: People say they want to give up on falastin, but our duty to protect the holy lands and victory is not in our hands.
 - Prophet ﷺ asserted he would do it over and over again as long as Allah is not displeased.
 - The pattern of success is that you keep trying while enduring failures.

Re-entry into Mecca

- The Prophet ﷺ unsure how he is going to get back into Mecca
 - Ya Zaid allah will take care of this, there is no possibility where Allah does not support his religion
 - He sends a few messengers to Athmas bin Shuray who was not Quraish but an ally of Banu Zahra (tribe of the Prophets ﷺ mother)
 - Athmas rejects, because he want to protect his alliances.
 - Sohail ibn Amr also rejected for the same reason.
- Mutaab Bin Adi was already sympathetic and participated in ending the boycott.
 - Gets all of his 6-7 sons to put on their armor and do tawaf, announcing their protection over the Prophet ﷺ

- That is how the Prophet ﷺ re-enters Mecca.

Masjid Al Aqsa

Masjid Al Aqsa

Dates Covered: 10/22 @ 13:50, 10/23 @ 9:10, 10/23 @ 13:00

Background

- What do we consider to be Masjid Al Aqsa? The first image we usually think of is the Golden Dome, but it actually includes the entire courtyard.
- Who established the Courtyard? The courtyard was established by Prophet Suleiman AS.
- What are the Masjid's origins? The Masjid's origins are unclear. It is similar to the Kaaba in the sense that we do not know who originally built it, but have some theories based on hadith.
 - Preferred Theories
 - By Prophet Adam AS, 40 years after the angels established the Kaaba
 - By Ibrahim AS, who established the Kaaba first and then Al-Aqsa 40 years later.
 - Hadith: Abu Dharr reported: I asked the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, about the first mosque placed on the earth. The Prophet said, "It was the Sacred Mosque." I asked, "Then which one?" The Prophet said, "The furthest mosque in Jerusalem." I said, "How long was it between them?" The Prophet said, "Forty years, then the earth was made a mosque for you. Wherever the time for prayer reaches you, then pray there." (Bukhari 3366, Muslim 520)

- Musallil Kibli (The Qibali Masjid)
 - Gets its name due to it being the closest to the Qibla.
 - Formerly underground
 - Established in the caliphate Umar RA.
- Other Musallahs on the Complex
 - Musalla Al-Marwani named after the caliph by the same name who constructed it.
 - Masjid Al Buraq

1. Virtue from Quran: Barakah in the Surrounding Land

Surah Al-Isra (17:1)

سُبْحَنَ الَّذِي أَسْرَىٰ بِعَبْدِهِ ۚ لَيْلًا مِّنَ الْمَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ إِلَى الْمَسْجِدِ الْأَقْصَا الَّذِي بَارَكْنَا حَوْلَهُ لِنُرِيَهُ مِنَ ۖ ءَايَاتِنَا إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْبَصِيرُ

Glory be to the One Who took His servant by night from the Sacred Mosque to the Farthest Mosque whose surroundings We have blessed, so that We may show him some of Our signs.

- What are the boundaries of that barakah?
 - Scholarly Opinion: Sahaba by the name of Muadh Ibn Jabal was of the opinion that Al Ardil Mubaraqa extends beyond Palestine and into Egypt, Lebanon, and Jordan.
 - Muadh Ibn Jabal spent a significant amount of time in the Sham region.
 - This is a more popular opinion, though there are many.
 - Other opinions suggest that the blessing is limited to the courtyard.

Virtues Derived from Hadith

Maimuna reported: She said, "O Messenger of Allah, tell us about the Sacred House in Jerusalem." The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "It is the land of the gathering and the Resurrection. Go there and pray, for one prayer in it is like a thousand prayers elsewhere." She said, "What if I cannot endure traveling there?" The Prophet said, "Let one send a gift of oil to light its lamps, for whoever does so is as if he has gone there." (Mushkil Al Athar 610)

Warshul Salim: originally hebrew, meaning peace (not sure about the context of this note)

2. Land of Gathering and Resurrection

- From the Hadith: The Prophet ﷺ said "It is the land of the gathering and the Resurrection"

- Gathering on the DOJ: Other narrations speak about the DOJ and a fire that will push people until they are gathered in Jerusalem at Masjid Al Aqsa. Note incomplete, details missed. See time stamp 14:14

3. Prayer worth 1,000 Prayers

- From the Hadith: The Prophet ﷺ says "Go there and pray, for one prayer in it is like a thousand prayers elsewhere."
- Value of Salah in the Three Holy Mosques
 - Masjid Al Haram: 1 salah is worth 100,000 as mentioned in the Quran
 - Masjid An Nabawi: Ranging from 1,000-50,000. Narrations differ, some mention 10,000. The most authentic opinion is 1,000.
 - Masjid Al Aqsa: Ranging from 250-1,000.
 - Note about Differing Numbers: When narrations differ, it speaks more to the value of the deed than the reward itself. We should hope for the higher number and trust Allah's generosity.
- Additional Notes about the Holy Mosques
 - These are the only 3 sacred lands.
 - Masjid Al Aqsa, unlike the other two, is almost entirely preserved. It has not been renovated.

4. Reward for Sustaining the Masjid

- From the Hadith: The Prophet ﷺ says: "Let one send a gift of oil to light its lamps, for whoever does so is as if he has gone there"
- Significance to Current Times: Palestinians and particularly the people are unable to visit despite being so near.
- Importance of Taking Care: If we are unable to visit, we should do whatever we can to take care of and sustain the Masjid.

5. Masrah of the Prophet ﷺ (Door Way to the Heavens/ Spot of Ascension)

- Meaning of Masrah: stage/theater

- Gate to the Heavens: The night of the Prophet ﷺ's Heavenly Ascension, he was first taken to Jerusalem. Scholars take the opinion that Al Aqsa is a "doorway" to the heavens, and that previous Prophets had similar access to the heavens from it.

6. A Place of Prophets and Angels

- History with Prophets: Al-Aqsa was built by Prophets, and every Prophet visited Al Aqsa, with the exception of Musa AS.
- Related Ahadith
 - Abu Huraira narrates that the Prophet ﷺ said "...Moses asked, 'O my Lord! What will be then?' He said, 'Death will be then.' He said, '(Let it be) now.' He asked Allah that He bring him near the Sacred Land at a distance of a stone's throw. Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) (p.b.u.h) said, 'Were I there I would show you the grave of Moses by the way near the red sand hill.'" (Bukhari 1339)
 - Zaid Ibn Thabit narrates that the Prophet ﷺ said, "How blessed is Al Sham"! The companions asked, "Why is that"? The Messenger of Allah replied, "I see the Angels of Allah spreading their wings over Al Sham"
 - Ibn Abbas added, "And the Prophets lived therein. There is not a single inch in Al-Quds (Jerusalem) where a Prophet has not prayed or an Angel not stood". (Tirmidhi, Ahmad)

7. Forbidden to Dajjal

- Dajjal will not be able to enter Al-Aqsa.
- Hadith: The Prophet ﷺ said regarding Al-Dajjal: "He will stay in the land forty days; he will enter every place on earth except the Ka'bah, the Prophet's Masjid, Al-Aqsa Sanctuary and Mount Sinai". (Ahmad 23139)

8. The Vicinity of Dajjal's Defeat

- The vicinity of Baab e Lud (now called Lid under Israeli occupation) will be where Dajjal is killed by Isa AS.
- The churches there have marked themselves.

- Hadith: Mujammi' bin Jariyah Al-Ansari said: "I heard the Messenger of Allah(s.a.w) saying: 'Eisa bin Maryam will kill the Dajjal at the gate of Ludd.'" (Tirmidhi 2244)

9. Ihram from Al-Aqsa

- Lesser Known Virtue: Anyone who puts on ihram at Aqsa will have all of their sins forgiven.
- Hadith: Narrated Umm Salamah, Ummul Mu'minin: She heard the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) say: If anyone puts on ihram for hajj or umrah from the Aqsa mosque to the sacred mosque , his former and latter sins will be forgiven, or he will be guaranteed Paradise. The narrator Abdullah doubted which of these words he said. Abu Dawud said: May Allah have mercy on Waki'. He put on ihram from Jerusalem (Aqsa mosque), that is, to Mecca. (Dawud 1741)
- Notable Figures who Performed This:
 - Abdullah ibn Umar
 - Umm Hakim

10. Praying to 2 Rakat for Complete Forgiveness

- Virtue of Praying in Al Aqsa: It was the dua of Prophet Suleiman AS that praying in Al-Aqsa carry the reward of freeing a person of all of their sins.
- Hadith: It was narrated from 'Abdullah bin 'Amr that the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said: "When Sulaiman bin Dawud finished building Bait Al-Maqdis, he asked Allah for three things: Judgement that was in harmony with His judgement, and he was given that. And he asked Allah for a dominion that no one after him would have, and he was given that. And when he finished building the Masjid he asked Allah, the Mighty and Sublime, that no one should come to it, intending only to pray there, but he would emerge free of sin as the day his mother bore him."

11. Intangible Value of Local Land

- Hadith: Narration from Abu Dharr: In this narration, Abu Dharr asks the Prophet (ﷺ) which holy masjid is more virtuous. The Prophet (ﷺ) says "Praying in my masjid is 4 time more virtuous than praying in Al Aqsa."

What an amazing place to pray that is. It is very soon that a time where a person owning the reins of a horse near Al Aqsa will be worth more to them in the entire world.” (in class translation, unable to find reference)

Fate of the Jews in the Quran

17 | Surah Al-Israa

- Alternate Name for Surah: Another name for this surah is Surah Bani Israel.

Ayah 4: starts by discussing the decreed destruction they would bring upon the earth two times.

- الْأَرْضِ (al-ard): could be referring to the entirety of earth or specifically to Al-Aqsa.
- وَلَتَعْلَنَّ عُلُوًّا (wa'la ta'lunna a'luwwun): meaning arrogance, power, dominance

Ayah 5: mentions that during the first destruction, strong servants will be sent.

Ayah 6: assures that power will return to them after they repent.

Ayah 7 states that if they do good, they'll benefit; if they cause harm, they will face harm too, and additional strong servants will come.

Ayah 8 conveys a promise from Allah: if they return to wrongdoing, Jahannam will await them.

- Mufasssireen lean towards interpreting the first instance as the Babylonians and the second as the Romans, who treated the Jews with extreme brutality.
- Interestingly, most of this narrative is in past tense until Ayah 7, which shifts to present tense.
- Ayah 8 is a promise, essentially suggesting that whenever they create problems in Al-Aqsa, Allah will send punishments continually.

Ayah 104 talks about the gathering of Bani Israel as a significant sign for the end of times, hinting at a heavy concentration of them in Falastin.

- Dajjal will emerge from Syria fighting the army of Isa AS near Bayt Al Maqdis.
- The trees and rocks will assist the muslims in the battle.

Lessons from Surah Al Israa

1. Allah will always send a people to destroy Bani Israel when they gain power and arrogance, due to their evils.

2. The Jews will be gathered in Falastin in the end of times.

Surah Al-A'raf

Ayah 163 recounts the story of Ashab al-Sabbath.

- The Jews were granted the Sabbath after they rejected Friday as their holy day and fabricated rules about Saturday.

Ayah 164 reveals their behavior of finding loopholes: one group tries to correct, while another dismisses them.

Ayah 165, only the corrector ends up being saved, while others face severe consequences—turned into monkeys.

Ayah 167 warns that a group will continually torment them until the end of times unless they accept Islam or make a treaty.

Surah Al-Hashr

- Banu Nadir is mentioned as the first Jewish tribe.

Ayah 1 states Allah expelled them from their homes, with some moving to Jerusalem.

Ayah 2 talks about their fortifications, like Khybar, and how Allah instilled fear in their hearts, prompting them to destroy their own properties.

Ayah 11 calls out the hypocrites in Medina who allied with the Jews; they were nothing but liars.

Ayah 14 they won't confront you directly but only hide behind walls, showcasing deep hatred for one another despite outward appearances of unity.

- The way the Prophet ﷺ taught was by making these lessons personal, warning us not to repeat the mistakes of those before.

Surah Al-Maida

Ayah 78 highlights how their own messengers cursed them for failing to correct each other.

Ayah 79 speaks about their disregard for accountability, and Ayah 80 notes their alliances with disbelievers.

Ayah 82 emphasizes that among the biggest enemies are polytheists and Jews, while Christians are more sympathetic.

Surah Imran

Ayah 112 warns that they will face disgrace unless they accept Islam, are protected by Muslims, or form outside alliances.

- The theme carries forward: there will never be a time of full peace for them.
- The Prophet ﷺ explains the cycle of leadership and mercy, culminating in a time when people will fight for power, leading to a lack of mercy in the world.
- He stresses the importance of defending Muslim lands, specifically highlighting Askalan as essential to protect.
- The struggles prophesied will far surpass current wars, with the imagery of 80 Roman flags, where one-third will flee, another third will die as martyrs, and the remaining third will be victorious.

 - No sunni muslim will deny it
 - Consensus: the physical journey only happened once.

The Ride to Jerusalem

- Al Buraq was brought before him.
 - About Al-Buraq
 - White animal
 - Smaller than a mule and bigger than a donkey
 - So fast that each step reached the horizon
 - Fully prepared (with saddle and reigns)
- When the Prophet ﷺ first sat on it, it was uncomfortable. Jibreel said "Nobody more noble in the eyes of Allah has sat on your back." Al Buraq started sweating.
 - This detail indicates that others rode Buraq before the Prophet ﷺ.
 - Narrations of the other prophets (such as Ibrahim AS) riding him exist
 - Weak narrations mention it has wings.
- They rode Al Buraq to Jerusalem and the Prophet ﷺ tied it to the ring all previous prophets tied it to. Then he walked into the masjid to pray 2 rakat and left.

Stops Made during the Journey

- Other narrations claim that the Prophet ﷺ made 4 stops before reaching Jerusalem, praying 2 rakat in each place.
 - 1. Madina: Jibreel revealed that it is the place of hijra.
 - After this, he tried to gain protection to go to Madina.
 - He previously saw a land of greenery (why he went to Taif initially)
 - 2. Madiyan: Land of Prophet Shoaib
 - 3. Jabal at Tur (Sinai): Where Musa AS received wahi.
 - 4. Bayt al Ahim (Bethlehem): Where Isa AS was born
 - 5. Ending at Jerusalem, where he led the other prophets in salah (debated)
- Geographically: Moving in south to north sequence.
 - Symbolism: Following the footsteps of the previous prophets shows that he is the final messenger.

Narrations of Things the Prophet ﷺ Saw

Date Covered: 10/24 @ ? 0930

Scattered Narrations: Musa Rashad Al Asami collects the narrations of things the Prophet ﷺ saw on his journey. These narrations are important to understand as a supplement to the main narration due to their symbolism. Bukhari also collects many of these in his chapter on dream interpretation.

The Narrations

1. Jinn Chasing with Fire & Protective Dua

Saw a jinn chasing him with a piece of fire every time he turned.

Dua taught by Jibreel: "I seek refuge in the Perfect Words of Allah which neither the righteous nor the wicked can surpass, from the evil of what He has created, what He has caused to germinate and what He has formed, and from the evil of what descends from the sky, and from the evil of what ascends therein, and from the evil of what germinates in the earth, and from the evil of what issues from it, and from the tribulations of night and day, and from the evil of every visitor except one who comes with good – O Most Merciful."

2. Dajjal in True Form

Saw Dajjal physically – large in size, fair skinned, one eye protruding like a shining star, hair like tree branches.

- Opinion: Dajjal is human, parents will be Jewish
- Prophet ﷺ says there will be 30 dajjals after me
- Scholarly debate: one person vs. many as part of his fitna
- Purpose is warning and preparation

3. Old Woman in Jewelry (Symbol of Dunya)

An old woman on the roadside wearing every kind of jewelry with rolled up sleeves.

Prophet ﷺ ignores her as Jibreel says keep going.

The Prophet ﷺ smelled a very good scent from somewhere.

- The hairdresser dropped the comb, said "Bismillah." The daughter asked if referring to her father, the hairdresser said "No, my Lord and his Lord." She was reported, tortured with family in boiling oil. Asked for bones to be buried together. The infant spoke: "Jump into punishment, torment of dunya is less than akhira."
 - One of 4 instances of babies speaking (Ibn Abbas)
 - Level of imaan required to witness such things establishes honor

5. Farmers Planting and Harvesting Endlessly (Sadaqah Jariah)

Group planting and harvesting same day, never diminishing.

- People going for jihad, their deeds are multiplied 700 times
- Rizq always replaced and increased when spending in Allah's path
- In another narration: all deeds stop except shuhada whose deeds continue

6. Heads Crushed by Boulders (Lazy with Salah)

People's heads being crushed by boulders, growing back repeatedly.

- Those who are lazy with salah, their heads get heavy when prayer time comes.

7. Naked People on All Fours (Not giving Zakat)

11. Bull Coming Out of Small Hole

A large bull emerges from a small hole, tries to return but cannot.

- Person who says harmful word and wants to take it back but cannot
- Mouth is small but holds great power
- Some sins of tongue cannot be undone even with tawbah
- Reminder: be reason others are excited for class, not uncomfortable

12. Man in River of Blood

Man swimming in a river of blood, force-fed stones.

- Person who consumes interest (riba)
- Blood = interest generates animosity leading to warfare
- Stones = eating what shouldn't be eaten, no barakah, weighs down
- Prophet ﷺ nullified uncle's interest collection first
- Fear: no financial interaction untouched by riba dust
- Cannot be light on this as Muslims

13. Musa AS Praying in Grave

Passed by Musa AS next to a red sand dune near Al-Aqsa, standing and praying in his grave.

- Prophets are alive in their graves

UNEDITED

The Prophet ﷺ Leading Salah

- Jibreel took the Prophet ﷺ to Jerusalem
 - They arrive at Masjid al Aqsa, unclear where exactly he led the salah
 - Some narrations mention that Jibreel called athaan himself, it is unclear the nature of that athaan
 - Every other prophet prayed behind him.
- Symbolism of the Journey and Salah: Allah says “to show the Prophet ﷺ our signs and miracles”. Leading the other in salah is to show that he is the final messenger.

Entering the Skies

- Jibreel grabbed my hand, started ascending
- Spoke to the gatekeeper of the skies (samawaat)
 - Jannah (paradise) and samawaat (skies)
 - Clarification: he is ascending through the skies not jannah
 - Each sky has different populations. The prophets' souls are placed there for this night.
- Gatekeeper asks who the Prophet ﷺ is, then the door opens.
- All of the previous

Order of Meeting the Prophets

The wisdom of meeting the prophets was that they foreshadow the struggles the Prophet ﷺ will have in his own messengerhood.

1. Adam AS (in the first sky)

- The Prophet ﷺ says when we were in the lowest sky, I saw a man with silhouettes to his right and left
- Adam AS “Welcome my righteous son” the souls of his children, the ones on his right are of jannah (he smiles) and the ones on his left are jahannam

- Similarity: being expelled from a comfortable place due to their enemies

2. Yahya and Isa AS (in the second sky)

- The Prophet ﷺ says he met “the two cousins”
 - They appear together because they are related and because they went through the same things.
- Similarity: the difficulty they will experience from Bani Israel (the jews).

3. Yusuf AS (in the third sky)

- The Prophet ﷺ says “It is as if he has been given half of the beauty on earth”
- Similarity: Victory over those who are oppressing him.

4. Idris AS (in the fourth sky)

- The Prophet ﷺ recites the ayah from Surah Maryam that says he has an elevated and high status.
- About Idris
 - Not much authentic information
 - Israeli riwayat mention that was a shoe fixer, who did dhikr as he was fixing.
- Similarity: unclear

5. Harun (in the fifth sky)

- The Prophet ﷺ does not make any comment. They exchange salam, and Harun AS makes a dua for the Prophet ﷺ.
- Harun AS’s fitna was the people of Bani Israel committing treachery and causing corruption
- Similarity: internal corruption among their people

6. Musa AS (in the sixth sky)

- The Prophet ﷺ describes Musa AS as tall, curly haired, and dark skinned. Mentions that when he passed him, Musa AS started crying, because the Prophet ﷺ is going to enter jannah with many more followers. He was in remorse over his nation and their rejection.
- Similarity: A large ummah that is difficult to guide.

7. Ibrahim AS (in the seventh sky)

- The Prophet ﷺ saw him leaning on Bait Al Mamour
 - Bait Al Mamour: Kaaba of the Angels. Directly above the Kaaba. 70,000 angels come to do tawaaf around it and do not return.
- Ibrahim AS says “Welcome oh righteous son”
- The Prophet ﷺ said “I met Ibrahim on the Night of Ascension and he said to me: 'O Muhammad, convey my greetings to your Ummah, and tell them that Jannah has a vast plain of pure soil and sweet water. It is a plain levelled land. The plants grow there by uttering: Subhan-Allah, Al-hamdu lillah, La ilaha illallah and Allahu Akbar”
- About Ibrahim AS:
 - he spent his life by himself and few followers
 - Built the kaaba on his own
 - his message spread after his death.
- Similarity: An ummah that grew after their deaths.

Commentary

- Umma draw lots of wisdom from the order of the prophets and the specific ones that were chosen.
- Familiarity to the Prophet ﷺ: The information he heard about each prophet was like the information we hear about historical figures we know very well..
 - They come into your mind with all of those symbols attached.
- Seeing them is very meaningful to him, and a source of comfort.
 - Story: Mufti Rafiq 2009-2010, all of his family died in one landslide in Pakistan, then a couple years later his parents and sister died a few days within each other. Sheikh heard the story many times from Mufti Aasim and MAR but those few times he met the actual person were a source of motivation.

Sights of Jannah in the of the Highest Samawaat

- The highest sky has some of the signs of Jannah in it.
- The Prophet ﷺ was shown:
 - Rivers of pure water
 - Rivers of unchanging milk
 - Rivers of wine that has no harm
 - Rivers of pure honey
 - Pomegranate the size of a barrel

- Bird (mentions a specific type)
- The river of Kawthar
- The footsteps of Bilal
- The Prophet ﷺ says that Allah has prepared things that no eye has seen and no ears have heard, and things that have never crossed the heart of a person.
 - Worrying about things in Jannah: Ibn Abbas says the only similarity between dunya and jannah is the names of things (ex: pomegranate)
 - Jannah and jahannam are the pinnacle of pleasure and punishment. They cannot really be comprehended.
- Wisdom from Bilal's Response: Bilal responded to the news of his footsteps in Jannah in a beautiful way.
 - The Prophet ﷺ asked him what was the most hopeful thing he did, and Bilal RA said I make wudhu and I make sure to pray after making wudhu.
 - Bilal had been tortured for 10 years prior to this. You would assume he would attribute it to the torture, but he actually attributes it to his small act.
 - It is not actually difficult to endure hardship rather reacting to it in a beautiful way is.
 - His response to the Prophet ﷺ's question reflects an important trait: not making our difficult experiences our personality.
 - Umar RA once said no one deserves to sit here except Bilal. Difficulty does make a person virtuous but we should not be taking pride or ownership over it. This is a beautiful quality of his.

Ascension to Sidrat Al Muntaha

- Sidrat Al Muntaha: a lote tree, which was seen as a grand and appreciated tree.
 - This tree marks the highest point of the skies
 - The Prophet ﷺ says, I saw this tree and the fruits that were coming off of it, were khilal ul raja (the size of large pots) and the leaves were the size of elephant ears, and indescribable colors, and nobody could describe this tree.
- There are 4 rivers coming from the base of it, two visible and two not

- And Jibreel says the invisible ones are from Jannah and the two visible ones were originally from Jannah but made available to the people as a source of benefit.

Further Ascension

- Jibreel in green clothes with 600 wings, each wing blocking the horizon and with jewels falling from them. Then references Surah Najm.
- In another narration the Prophet ﷺ says they kept ascending until they heard pens writing. Jibreel says this is where the decree is being written.
- Then the Prophet ﷺ says Jibreel told him he could not go any further. The Prophet ﷺ continued on his own, and Allah revealed the last ayat of Surah Baqara.
- Sahaba asked the Prophet ﷺ if he saw Allah.
 - Seeing Allah: Muslims will see Allah in Jannah, and some on the DOJ. Haram to believe Allah has a body. The Prophet ﷺ seeing Allah does not involve a physical form of sight. Allah mentions this in the Quran, on the DOJ faces will be shining from sight of Allah.
 - The Prophet ﷺ says seeing Allah will be like looking at a full moon.
 - Deviant Groups: rejected the notion of seeing Allah
 - The Prophet ﷺ said he only saw light.
- Now the Prophet ﷺ descends. Musa AS asks him what he was commanded with, and the Prophet ﷺ returns to ask for less prayer. Musa AS knew the initial command was too difficult for the people to follow, because his people struggled to pray twice a day.

Understanding Allah's Attributes

- Implication of Allah being higher in space
 - Similar to the implications that Allah has a face, or hand, or so on. The sahaba did not question these; they recognized that Allah does not have a body, these statements are more so for imagery.
 - Allah descending to the lowest sky to accept duas for example.
 - When deviant groups started forming, they questioned Allah's nature. The sahaba did not engage in this.

- Summary: when “human” traits are attributed focus on understanding the message and acting on it. Nothing more and nothing less.
- Sukoo vs tafweel
 - Sukoo: taking words literally
 - Tafweel: taking words subjectively
 - Imam Malik on ascension. The “how” for Allah is impossible to define, and trying to do so is a bidah (innovation)
 - A group after him came and explained it by taweel
 - Taweel: explain words by their connotations
 - Ibn Abbas will give many explanations like this in tafsir
 - He explains “jamb illah” which literally means side/rib of Allah, but its meaning is the rights of Allah.
- Final point: Haram to attribute human traits to Allah and haram to deny the attributes he has given to himself.
 - Best thing to do is what the sahaba did. Understand the message.
 - Do not lose the message while focusing on these details
- The Saudi government gained power through this dogmatic/superiority of interpretation approach.
- Things mentioned in the Quran in relation to Allah
 - Hand
 - Face
 - Shin
 - Jamm (side)
 - Hearing
 - Seeing
 - Speech
 - Ascension and domain (skies, etc.)
 - “Forgetting”
- Things mentioned in Hadith in relation to Allah
 - Foot
 - Kanaf (under the arm)
 - Fingers (usbayn al qulub)

Return to Jerusalem

- Some say this was when he prayed with the Prophets.
- Why didn't Ibrahim AS tell the Prophet ﷺ to lessen the prayers
 - He had a life of submission
- The Prophet ﷺ's titles left behind

- His most honorable title is Abd (slave) of Allah
- Ascending during night and not day
 - The strongest spiritual connection a person will have is at night.
 - Whatever you are occupied with at night will have the most power in your life.
 - Even from a physiological perspective, it is a vulnerable state, and that is why praying at night is so valuable.
- Hadith: on that night, angels were created in ruqoo, or created in qiyam and they will be like that until DOJ and after resurrection they will say "We didnt worship you as you deserved"

Date Covered: 10/29 @ 0915

Return from Al Miraj

- The Prophet ﷺ tells the Quraish about his journey
- The reaction is one of mockery, and they are excited to prove that he is insane.
 - Abu Bakr's response: If he actually said it, I believe that it is true.
 - Wisdom of the Response: You shouldn't jump to explain things when someone comes to you with accusations. Verify the truth of the information first.
 - Siddique: this is when he gets his title, because his faith is sturdy and unwavering.
- The Prophet ﷺ gave exact descriptions of Masjid Al Aqsa, as well as the exact location and return of a caravan of the Quraish from Sham.
 - Miracle of the Sun: The caravan had not returned by sun down, the Prophet ﷺ asked for the sun to be held.
 - The only other time this has happened for a prophet was for Yusha AS, when they were fighting a battle and he asked for the sun to be held until they conquered the city.
 - Yusha AS is the inheritor of Bani Israel from Musa/Harun AS.
- Splitting the Moon
 - The Prophet ﷺ split the moon around this time as well (not immediately after)
 - The Quraish that witnessed this miracle, after asking him to demonstrate one, claimed it was sihr.

The Moral of the Ups-Downs of this phase

- At the same time that there is difficulty, there is also ease. The ayah from the Quran is mistranslated. They occur at the same time.
- We see that in this phase of the Prophets life

Dawah to Pilgrims

Dawah to Pilgrims

Date Covered: 10/29 @ 0930, 10/30 @ 0915

UNEDITED

Dawah to Tribes Coming for Hajj

- Invited pilgrims to Islam on the camping grounds during Hajj season
 - The Prophet ﷺ took the opportunity of giving dawah to every tribe to seek protection and find a land fit for Hijra
 - Some tribes responded while others did not
- Abu Lahab trailed behind urging people not to follow him
- The Prophet ﷺ would go at night to avoid drawing opposition and attention.
 - Would have private conversations with them in their tents, give dawah to them and ask them about their ability to protect the muslims

Lessons about Dawah

- Dawah is Worship: Up until this point, all the sahaba had for worship was recitation and dawah.
- Following our Predecessors: Umar RA said the only way for later half of the ummah to be rectified is by following what the earlier generations did.
- Living in a Non-Muslim Country: We need to recognize that changing society starts with giving dawah. We cannot change it without that step.
 - Even the Prophet ﷺ was willing to go door to door and doing this groundwork.
 - The value of dawah has been highlighted through Gaza. We have all become familiar with what its like to be concerned and learn how to have conversations.
- Concern for the Deen: Sheikh mentions that our concern for the deen should be significantly higher than the concern for Falasteen. The shuhada of Falasteen are guaranteed Jannah. The loss of deen on the other hand is a much greater consequence.
- We've lost our concern for kufr. We should be looking at people as if they are in a burning building.
- Have a society where muslims have concern for fellow muslims.
- The way the Prophet ﷺ taught sahaba to give dawah was by throwing them on the court. He didn't teach them the game first, he let them learn through their work.

- The sahaba gave dawah with little to nothing.

Lessons from Tufail ibn Amr-Daus's Conversion

- He was told to put cotton in his ears, and the one day he decided not to was the day he accepted islam.
- The Prophet ﷺ told him to return to Yemen and gave dawah to the Daus Tribe.
- Daus was a party city, and they rejected it. Told the Prophet ﷺ they are destroyed, the Prophet ﷺ makes dua for their guidance.
- They all become muslim 7 years later.
- Imagine sending people to change the fabrics of a community now.
- Died in the Battle of Yamamah: He tells them, I saw a dream that my head was shaved, then a bird flew out of my mouth, then a woman grabbed me and put me in her womb. My son was looking for me but could not find me
 - Shaved: he dies
 - Bird: his soul as a shaheed
 - Woman: the earth taking him into his grave
 - Son: will stay alive, and wish that he could die

More Lessons about Dawah

- We don't see the prophets and sahaba as actual people, but they struggle in this way.
- Story: Sheikh's friend created a non-existent organization and messaged news channels. People are exhausting every option in their mind to give dawah.
- Qiyama being the ultimate reality. The sense of danger and that you need to stop an imminent harm. Our lack of certainty in qiyama is also the reason why we lack passion. The sahaba saw that very quickly.
- People can find out information and it very quickly becomes their life's cause.

Tribes Given Dawah in 10th Year

Hamdan

- Among the tribes that came for Hajj is the tribe of Hamdan
- "Is there anybody that will protect me because they're preventing me"
- Is your tribe strong? He says yes. He says he will talk to his leaders first to make sure they do not reject his offer of protection. After he returns it is too late.

- Delaying good excessively is from Shaytan. Hamdan's delay lost him the opportunity of hosting muslims.
- Being in a position where you can accept opportunities is very beneficial.

Banu Amr bin Sa Sa

- One of its members says if the Prophet ﷺ comes to them, they will dominate arabia. He says to the Prophet ﷺ, when you pass away can we be the leaders? The Prophet ﷺ says it is up to Allah and he gives power to whoever he will.
 - Two qualities the Prophet ﷺ displays
 - Istidna: not needing to rely on anybody and recognizing that we are not desperate
 - Tawafuf:
- The man returns to his tribe, who tells him to go back and accept his offer.

Kinda

- Eastern Yemen, border of Oman
- Abdullah bin Abi Bakr narrates that the Prophet ﷺ saw them to be soft and open, so he gave them dawah. Most of them said "What you have said is nice, but we will stick to the religion of our forefathers" The youngest in the tribe says they should accept islam. The leaders then interact with the jews, and return next year but it was too late.

Banu Hanifa

- Tribe of the false prophet from Battle of Yamama
- Rejected harshly

Banu Abs

- Maysara bin Masouf. Accepted islam became a tabi'een
- Mentions the exact place near Masjid Al Qaif. Talks about how he saw the Prophet ﷺ on his camel and Zaid Ibn Haritha behind him. The tribe ignored him, but one man says "I swear to you he will dominate arabia" but the tribe ignore

- Maysara sees the Prophet ﷺ again later and tells him that he wanted to follow him the first time he came. Says alhamdulillah allah saved me through you.

Banu Shayban

- Near northeastern Arabia, Persia
- They were willing to accept the Dawah, but said they had a treaty with Persia and did not have the strength to fight them.
 - The Prophet ﷺ says as long you have a treaty with Persia it will not work. Even in this moment

Banu Muharid

- Near central Arabia
- Sees an extremely old man. Your people know you better than I know you, and if they are not accepting you then we are fools to accept you. Abu Lahab says I wish everyone was like you.

Ansar (Madina)

- Originally from Yemen, nation of Sabah. These are the ones that settled in Madinah
- They had treaties with the jews of Madina and were aware of the situation
- Two tribes, from two brothers.
 - Aws
 - Khazraj
- Past couple years, Battle of Buath. Extremely bloody battle, that led to the death of most of the tribal leaders which Aisha RA says was in the Prophet ﷺ's favor.
 - Two main living opposition
 - They later became leaders of the Munafiq (hypocrites)
 - Abdullah ibn Ubaid Salul and Amr ar Rahib (Nickname: Al Faiq)
- The first of Ansar to accept islam, a year before their tribe received dawah and died in the Battle of Buath.
 - Suayd bin Samr
 - Ilaas ibn ??
- Lessons from to Context to Ansar becoming Muslim

- Sometimes when terrible things happen, that is how a society and place is prepared for a big change.
- Aisha RA says Allah set up Madinah perfectly with the Battle of Buath.
- The purpose of learning these details is to increase our intellectual ages.
- They wanted to accept the Prophet ﷺ before the jews did.
 - The Jews of Madina would threaten the Ansar with the coming of a Prophet ﷺ who would give them power.
- They were tired out by war.
 - Narration: "We hoped that this could be a source of unity

The Six people from Ansar (Yathrib) that Embraced Islam

- 11th year of Prophethood
- Hijra still not solidified to any one place
- The following are from all from the Khazraj

As'ad ibn Zurārah

- Passed away very early on in Madina.
- From older leadership.
- First to be buried in Baqi and first to lead jummah.
- Kaab ibn Malik's son says that when his father was blind, and every time he heard athaan he made dua for Asa'ad. His son asked why. As'ad would lead prayer for 1 year before the Prophet ﷺ came.

Awf ibn al-Hārith

- Mother: name is Afrah, and 7 of her kids fought in the Battle of Badr.
- Brothers: Mawwid and Muad, who killed Abu Jahal at the Battle of Badr.
- More about Afrah:
 - married Bukair with whom she had laas bin Bukair, Aqil bin Bukair, Khalid and ???
 - She came to the Prophet ﷺ regarding her living son and said "This is the worst son that I have"
 - Lesson: You cannot achieve high results with a normal or easygoing mentality. Afrah was able to make her sons Badri through her stern mentality of sacrifice.

Rāfi' ibn Mālik

- Narrations mention he is the first of Khazraj to accept islam

Qutbah ibn 'Āmir

- Not related to Uqbah. Wounded in Badr and Uhud showing his status.

'Uqbah ibn 'Āmir

- Also participated in all the battles and died in Yamama.

Jābir ibn 'Abdullah

- different Jabir. Not many details on him

The First Bayya (Pledge of Allegiance)

The Returning Group

- 12 people returned and pledged their allegiance to the Prophet ﷺ
 - 10 Khazraj and 2 Ansar
 - Khasraj:
 - Asad bin Zurrar
 - Awth and Muad ibn Harith
 - Rafa Bin Malik
 - Kutbah bin Amr
 - Uqbah bin Amr
 - Daqwan bin Abdul Qais
 - Ubadah bin As-Samit
 - Yazid bin Thaliba
 - Abbas bin Ubada
 - Aws
 - Abul Haitham
 - Uwaiym bin Sa'ida
 - The mere joining of Aws and Khazraj into one group was a sign of the significance of their acceptance of islam

Time Stamp 10/30 0946

Narration of their Bayya

They avowed their faith in Muhammad (Peace be upon him) as a Prophet and swore: "We will not worship any one but one Allah; we will not steal; neither will we commit adultery, nor kill our children; we will not utter slander, intentionally forging falsehood and we will not disobey you in any just matter." When they had taken the pledge, Muhammad (Peace be upon him) said: "He who carries it out, Allâh will reward him; and who neglects anything and is afflicted in this world, it may prove redemption for him in the Hereafter; and if the sin remains hidden from the eyes of the men and no grief comes to him, then his affair is with Allâh. He may forgive him or He may not.” (Aqabah)

- Absolute Obedience to Prophet ﷺ (there were many instances in which they did not want to, like Badr)
- To maintain society
- To be resilient against deterrents
- Promise of Jannah (Surah ? 0943, Allah promises the one who dedicates to him Jannah)

Sending Musaab bin Umair to give Dawah After the First Pledge

- Musaab was sent along with Abdullah ibn Maqtum (the blind muadhin)
 - They worked together. Abdullah taught deen while Musaab did dawah work.
- Virtues of Musaab: Musaab was very charismatic and charming, similar to the Prophet ﷺ in that sense.
 - People can be more virtuous than others, but their specific qualities and skills may make them more fit for a job.
 - The Prophet ﷺ was very good at choosing people for the correct jobs.
- Acceptance of Banu Abdl Ash-had

Narration of Musaab Giving Dawah to Leaders in Madina

- As'ad ibn Zurarah hosted and supported him.
- Usayd ibn Hudayr confronted them first, angrily, with a spear.
- Musab responded calmly and invited him to listen.
- Usayd accepted Islam after hearing the Quran.
- Sa'd ibn Mu'adh then came angrily afterward.
- Sa'd also accepted Islam after hearing the Quran from Musab.
- After Sa'd accepted Islam, his tribe (Banu Ashhal of the Aws) accepted Islam almost entirely.
- Only one man delayed acceptance.

Original:

Musaab arrives at the well. Saad bin Muad says to Zain bin Mudair. Ashad bin Zurara. The importance of having an inside person. Musaab says if he wants to talk I will. Just leave us if you have any respect for yourselves. Why dont you just sit down and listen to what we have to say? ? Stuck his spear in the ground When he started hearing, they knew he would accept islam. Was told to make ghusl and then take shahada. One man I know that... Saad bin Muaad. Told him did not say anything wrong. Tricks him into speaking with them. Out of rage and anger, basically gets rage baited. He grabs the spear and says you are useless. Sees them sitting on the ground, got very angry. If it wasnt for the fact that we are related Equivalent of speaking to government officials. Sit and listen to what we have to say. Recites the beginning of Surah Zuh. Again they notice that he will accept islam. They stand with the tribe. Says to them, How do you know me to be amongst you. You are our leader and the most intelligent, He says he will not speak to anyone until the accept islam. Everyone in the tribe accepted islam besides the one guy. Asayrid

Year 13: Second Pledge of Aqabah

Year 13: Second Pledge of Aqabah

Date Covered: 10/31 @ 12??, 11/3

UNEDITED

- In the 13th year of Prophethood
- Ansar return again
- Narrated by Kaab bin Malik. One of the sahaba that did not have a reason for fighting Battle of Tabuk
- He says about the bayya. But he would not trade his opportunity to be at Aqabah for fighting at Badr (which he missed only due to fast preparation)
- Why is called Aqabah. The pillars of Mina are called Aqabah.
 - The entire season of hajj was used to make important decisions, because people gather.
 - The Prophet ﷺ used these times to take bayya, give dawah etc.
 - When Abu Bakr RA makes the declaration of the treaties being broken was also during hajj.
 - When hajj becomes just a series of rituals it is a sign of the decline of the ummah. In seerah the hajj season has always been a time of big changes.
- Bara bin Marou was with them. They leave Madina
- They ask a stranger, and they knew Ibn Abbas from previous business
- See someone sitting next the him
- Prophet ﷺ asks do you know them? Ibn Abbas says yes they are khazraj
- The Prophet ﷺ heard Kaab bin Maliks name, and said the poet?
 - Knowing a small detail about somebody can mean a lot to them. It is a part of dawah
 - 12:13 joke
- Then the Prophet ﷺ tells them to meet him on Ayaam ut Tashriq (days after hajj))
 - They would slaughter animals after hajj, and slice the meat thin and let it dry.
 - This was referring to the meat drying
- Then the day came for them to meet.
- They were hiding their motives, father of Jabir was with them.
- Then Kaab says they slept for 1/3rd of the night to meet the prophet ﷺ. They were sneaking like birds.
- There were 23 people
- Among them was
 - Nusayba. She was one of the few women who fought in battles.

- Asma bint Amr. Mother of Muaad bin Jabal
- The Prophet ﷺ and them come together
 - He doesn't recognize Rafa
 - He calls them all khazraj despite them being both
- 1220
 - Says Ibn Abbas wants to go is. Doesn't actually
 - Not publicly muslim
 - Last to do hijra
 - If there is even a small chance you will abandon him then he will not go
- Kaab says to the Prophet ﷺ to make his demands
- The Prophet ﷺ makes his demands
- The treaties with the Jewish will become invalid. Wondering will the Prophet ﷺ leave them?
- The Prophet ﷺ smiles (despite the offense) and says my blood is your blood. If you die I die with you.
 - The sahaba would not like to go back to Mecca.
 - Narrations of the Prophet ﷺ ignoring people who want their homes back. Sahaba gets told, doesn't want you to do Awd Fil Hijra.
 - Awd fil Hijra. Not regretting your sacrifice. The best way to think of sacrifice is that you do not feel regret. ? Sahaba who turned away from his home, afraid of the fitna of regretting his sacrifice.
- The Prophet ﷺ then takes their bayya.
 - Took bayya from women verbally, or with a cloth.
- The tribes have their own sub tribes, so the Prophet ﷺ elected leaders
 - The deputies elected were nine from Al-Khazraj:
 - As'ad bin Zurarah bin 'Ads
 - Sa'd bin Ar-Rabi' bin 'Amr
 - 'Abdullah bin Rawahah bin Tha'labah
 - Rafi' bin Malik bin Al-'Ajlani
 - Al-Bara' bin Ma'rur bin Sakhr
 - 'Abdullah bin 'Amr bin Haram
 - 'Ubadah bin As-Samit bin Qais
 - Sa'd bin 'Ubadah bin Dulaim
 - Al-Mundhir bin 'Amr bin Khunais
 - Three others were from Al-Aws
 - Usaid bin Hudair bin Sammak
 - Sa'd bin Khaithamah bin Al-Harith
 - Rifa'a bin 'Abdul Mundhir bin Zubair.

- On Shaking Hands
 - No mention in the history of islam of any kinds of shaking hands.
 - Even looking at women is not permissible, so shaking hands is worse.
 - The Prophet ﷺ said he was rather have a metal rod pierce through his head than touch a woman not mahram to him.
 - Sometimes people bring the wudhu being broken as a signifier of halal/haram. Not an accurate line of logic.
 - Taking responsibility for our representation of the deen. Have to set the standard. A person allowing things to be permissible muddles the perception of islam
 - It works most effectively if everyone does it.
 - Not touching people is a sign of respect (ex: Queen of England)
- The Wisdom of Islam
 - Me Too movement integrated protections that islam already had (no physical touch, meetings in public spaces)

The Loss within Hajj

- Muslims being gathered for hajj, and Saudi dispels any discussions of Palestine.
- Nothing is able to come out of the gathering. The Prophet ﷺ used hajj to discuss what is most necessary for the ummah.
- Quote from a book: how can the imams of Mecca recite ayat about defending the ummah and it not lead to any action? And mentions how Hajj now has been hijacked as a mechanism of controlling people.
- If in the khutbah of Arafah the 3 million people were mobilized, there could be a lot achieved.
- Hajj is intentionally silenced now. In the time of the Prophet ﷺ this mentality never existed.

Bayya Sub-Discussion

- Bayya to a New Leader: pledge of allegiance to a new leader (ex: like the sahaba did to Abu Bakr RA)
- Bayya of Tarbiya: the Prophet ﷺ would engage in this as a form of tarbiya. The sahaba would make people take oaths on certain things.
 - Ex: Surah Muntahina revelation of testing them. The Prophet ﷺ made the women make bayya on certain things

- He would make people take bayya on their specific weaknesses (ex: the individual often asks people for things so the Prophet ﷺ makes them take bayya that they will not ask for anything again)
- Opinions of Bayya
 - Some scholars have assumed that bayya is necessary and others think it's a bidah.
 - However it is not mandatory. A person who wants to grow is required to have a reliable mentor.
 - Abuse of bayya has the potential to snowball into a cult-like process.
- Developing a Relationship of Mentorship
 - It is an extremely important relationship to have, but not easy to foster, because not everyone will feel comfortable giving advice.
 - Reminder for Seekers: the teachers recognize that we are set in our habits. Our attitude will influence how much we grow.
 - Salman Al Farisi took pride in being corrected by the Prophet ﷺ
 - Be a clean slate. Mufti Aasim compared it to coming in as a full cup vs as an empty one that is ready to be filled.
 - Humility and Work Ethic
 - Humility. The best quality to have. A humble student is the most likely to receive advice and be able to grow.
 - Work Ethic. Do things with ihsan. Teachers care the most about the student who works hard.
- How to Develop Trust
 - Caution: Do not latch to the wrong person
 - Many teachers are guarded because they do not want their advice to be misconstrued

SECOND PLEDGE CONTINUED

- Also send Abdullah ibn Umm Maqtum (the blind muaddhin of Madina)
 - Unclear if he went after the first or second bayya
 - His memory was very sharp
 - His presence shows that things people assume are limitations are actually not
- By the time the Prophet ﷺ reaches Madina, dawah had already been taking place for 3 years.
 - The overwhelming majority of Madina was muslim.

- The Ansar were more open and accepting
- Musaab (RA) returned the following year with 73 men and 2 women
 - The Prophet ﷺ met them in secret in one of the nights of Tashriq with his uncle, Al-Abbas
- Pledged their lives to the Prophet ﷺ in the Second Pledge of 'Aqabah
- 11/3 0921 Shaytan screamed. They would recite poems insulting Mudhammam." These people are all gathering to wage war against you. The Prophet ﷺ responds "Your turn is coming"
 - Some narrations state shaytan screamed in the form of a person.
 - Others say that he took the form of the jinn of Mina
 - This shows how significant this event was
- Abbas bin Ababa says "If you want us to wage war on them tomorrow we will do it." The Prophet ﷺ said "We have not been commanded to wage war, go back to your places."
 - When the kuffar heard this they said "We heard that you have accepted islam and plan on waging war" and they try to avoid any conflict with him.
 - Some of the people from Madina came and said none of that happened.
 - Abdullah ibn Ubaid (leader of munafiq in future) says "My people are not foolish enough to force me into something without asking me"
 - Then they all started looking at each other, communicating with their eyes. They were letting the non-muslims speak. Let the kuffar of Mecca think everything was okay.
- After Mina was over, Kuffar found out it did happen.
 - They found Saad bin Abada and Mundhir bin Amr
 - Started chasing them
 - Mundhir escapes and Saad gets captured and dragged
 - Saad says he was being beaten and abused, then a handsome face arrived. He had hope, then the handsome man smacked him.
 - They dragged him through Mecca.
 - Jubair bin Muttad Adi (Muttad gave protection to the Prophet ﷺ after Taif). Saad said he used to protect his caravans
 - Jubair gets captured in Badr. Surah Tur, his heart flew out of his chest.
 - Before the Prophets nikkah to Aisha RA, he had proposed to her
 - He calls for Jubair and Harith bin Harr
 - The man who told him to call for them finds them
 - Announces his tribal protection

- Then Saad says “That man that I was looking at was Sohaib bin Amr
 - Sohaib was the khateeb and would use his skill of public speaking against islam
 - Captured at Badr. Umar RA wants to rip out his teeth and give him lisp. The Prophet ﷺ
 - After the death of the Prophet ﷺ. Sohaib and Abu Bakr give almost identical khutbas without knowing.
 - He prevented the people of Mecca leaving islam.
 - His story will return in Seerah because his son involved
- Abul Baktari bin Hisham 0933
- When the muslims heard they wanted to wage war
- Now the ansar go back to madina
 - Abbas bin Obada stays back in Mecca
- Some sahaba who before hijra, they went to Madina
 - Among them was Abu Salama
 - Abu Salama came back from Abyssinia and went to Madina on his own
- Very Significant Event
 - Bukhari and Muslim report that Ka’ab ibn Malik (RA) said: “I would not trade my attendance of this pledge for the attendance of Badr, despite Badr being more well known to the people”.
- Paved the way for Hijrah to take place.
- Similar to the treaty of hudaiybiyaa in the sense that it creates the opportunity of giving dawah safely. This was a very valuable opportunity

Lessons from this Phase

Lessons from this Phase

Date covered: 11/3 @ 0940

- Changing a society will always require these two phases
 - Mecca
 - Madina
- The phase of Mecca is categorized by difficulty.
 - Only then will you have a people capable of changing a society
 - Umar RA quote mentioned again. People must follow the path of their predecessors.
- The journeys we mention are not simple
 - Often times while learning about them we start to think they were simple, but the sahaba put in a lot of work
 - Early shuhada did not see any ease.
- Madina formed on the backs of early muslims and their sacrifices.
 - Khadidja, Sumaya, etc.
- The dawahs of Mecca and Madina were different
 - We can look at people and figure out what kind of dawah they need. Do they need foundational dawah (Meccan) or structural dawah (Madinan)?
- Need for dawah in the country
 - We need muslims in the country giving dawah the way the sahaba did
