

Early Mecca

Prophethood

- Pre-Revelation Events:
 - True Dreams
 - Isolation in Cave Hira doing تحنث
 - Avoiding sin
 - Contemplation and reflection
 - The nature around the Prophet (SAW) was salaming him
 - Seeing figures of Angels
 - Jinns could not ascend to the angels anymore to eavesdrop
- Forms of Prophethood
 - Pious dreams = 1/46 of prophethood
 - 6 months of true dreams before prophethood
 - Revelation from Angel Jibreel in cave Hira
 - 17th of Ramadan
- Why was the Prophet (SAW) afraid when Jibreel came?
 - When you anticipate something, it is still scary when it actually happens
 - You realize what is actually going on
- Khadijah comforts the Prophet (SAW)
 - “Wallahi it is impossible for Allah to harm you”
 - You maintain ties of kinship
 - You carry the burdens of others
 - There is barakah in your wealth/actions
 - You are very hospitable to guests
 - Support truthful causes and not corruption
 - Takes the Prophet (SAW) to Waraqah bin Nawfal immediately
 - First male sahabi to accept Islam, second person to ever accept after Khadija (RA)
- Significance of the first revelation
 - Nothing changed the world more than this revelation
 - Allah starts with اقرا : significance of Ilm
 - Summarizes all of the main concepts of Islam

- Teachings of who Allah is, rulings and commandments, and stories and lessons from the past
- Knowledge is being attached to Allah
 - Knowledge is not useful without Allah
- Analyze what is in front of you: A religious lens

Next Revelations

- There was a pause in revelation; massive differences in opinion (a few days – 3 years)
 - More reasonable to say, 1-2 months MAX
 - No wahi after اقرا
 - Benefits of the pause:
 - Make the Prophet (SAW) excited for it again
 - To help calm the Prophet (SAW) down after the shock and to be able to digest what is happening
- Surah Muddathir : External
 - How to interact with people
- Surah Muzzamil : Internal
 - How your Ibadah is supposed to be
- Surah Qalam

Conversions

- First converts:
 - Khadijah

 - The Prophet (SAW) recognizes him
- Dhimaḍ
 - Was a famous raqi that was sent for the Prophet (SAW)
 - The Prophet (SAW) reads him the beginning of how a jummaḥ khutbah starts
 - Knew this was not from jinns and so he accepted Islam

Phases of Dawah

- Private: to individual people
 - Why private dawah?
 - To create support first, strengthens the message
 - Allah did not order for the Prophet (SAW) to go public yet
 - To create a tight knit group

- Close family and friends
- Quraysh
- Pre - Omar and Hamzah conversion
- Post - Omar and Hamzah conversion

Dar Al Arqam

- Home of ibn Abi Arqam
 - He was around 16 years old at this time
- His home was the base for muslims in Mecca before hijrah
 - Why his house?
 - No one knew he was muslim
 - He was from the same tribe as Abu Jahl, Banu Makhzoum
 - No one would expect him to be on the side of the “competition”, Banu Hashim
 - Not super close to the ka’bah
 - He was young
- Common Themes:
 - Sunnah of Allah
 - How things change
 - Removing superstitions
 - Akhlaq
 - To reflect on the natural world
 - Ibadah

Phase of quiet call lasts for 3 years (~10-20 muslims)

Open Call to Islam

- The prophet (SAW) started by feeding the family members
 - Ali (RA) would be making the food
 - Called everyone out by name
 - People rejected the prophet (SAW) for the most part but no one was super harsh
 - Except for Abu Lahab
 - “People benefit the least from the people they are closest/causal with”

Official Call to Islam: 4th Year of Prophethood

- The Prophet (SAW) was ordered in, Surah Hijr: 94, to publicly proclaim the deen
 - The Prophet (SAW) went to the top of Mt. Safa and screamed
 - “If I told you the enemy was coming over the hill, would you believe me?”
 - Called out to individual tribes
 - Everyone responded yes

 - Warns the people of Quraysh
- Uqbah ibn Abi Mu'et and Umayyah or Ubayy ibn Khalaf
 - The prophet (SAW) was invited by Uqbah for some food
 - The Prophet (SAW) swore that he would not eat his food until he took the shahada (would've been so dishonoring to the host if the guest did not eat)
 - He ended up taking the shahada
 - Umayyah who was his best friend told him that he will never speak to him again unless he spits on the face of the Prophet (SAW)
 - He does it
- Waleed ibn Mugheerah
 - Extremely talented in poetry
 - Told the Prophet (SAW) to recite the Quran to him and he began to enjoy it
 - Abu Jahl came to Waleed and told him that “I will pay you to destroy the reputation of the Prophet (SAW)”
 - Waleed told him: I do not need money but what he is saying is nothing like what I have heard before
 - Waleed realizes that he can't accept it but also can't reject it, decides to say it is magic

- This is because magic breaks up families
- This whole thought process is mentioned in Surah Muzzamil

What did the Quraysh do to combat the Quran

- Claim it is music
- Claiming it is Magic
- Folktales:
 - Nadr bin Haarith would compete with the Prophet (SAW) by getting details about the Roman and Persian empires and would create his own gatherings
- Mockery
 - Quraysh's Attack on the Prophet (SAW)
 - Going to Abu Talib : Quraysh offered him Amarah bin Waleed in exchange for the Prophet (SAW)
 - Negotiations and bribery/offerings
 - Jews of Medinah
 - Quraysh sent Nadr bin Haarith and Uqbah bin Mu'eet to talk to the Jews
 - The Jews told them to ask the Prophet (SAW) 3 questions:
 - Who are the people who slept in the cave?
 - About Dhul Qarnayn
 - About the Soul
 - There was a pause for revelation for 15 days: Kuffar were so happy
 - Pure Hostility and Aggression

Hostility of Quraysh

- They would spread rumors about the Prophet (SAW) during Hajj season
 - Tufayl bin 'Amr bin Dosi: puts cotton in his ears and ends up taking them out and becomes Muslim
 - Goes back to his tribe but no one listens to him
 - The prophet (SAW) made dua for his tribe and they all converted
 - Abu Hurayrah is from this tribe
 - This same hajj season, the first Ansar became muslim as a small group

- Led by Uthman (RA) and Ruqayyah (RA)
 - 11/12 men and 5 women
- Only there for 3 months
 - Left because they heard a rumor that Mecca/Quraysh became Muslim
 - Story of the Sajdah Ayah in Surah Najm
- Uthman bin Madoun and his sister Zainab
 - Was under tribal protection after coming back from the migration
 - His uncle is Waleed ibn Mugheerah who gives it to him
 - Uthman then feels so guilty to be protected while everyone else is being tortured
 - Gives up the protection

Hamza (RA)'s Conversion - 6th year after prophethood

- Converts because Abu Jahl was publicly insulting the Prophet (SAW)
- Hamza comes to defend the prophet (SAW) and hits Abu Jahl with his bow and people begin to hold him back
 - He says, “you can't hold me back from Islam”
- Becomes Muslim

Omar (RA)’s Conversion (A couple of days after Hamza (RA))

- Wanted to kill the Prophet (SAW) but was stopped by Nu’aym bin Abdullah
 - Nu’aym told him to worry about his own family and his sister Fatima
 - Omar (RA) went to go visit them and Khabab ibn Al- Arrat was teaching them Surah Taha
 - Omar beats Sa’id bin Zaid and hits his sister Fatimah
 - Reads Surah Taha and then goes to Dar al-Arqam and accepts Islam
- Second Narration: overheard the Prophet (SAW) praying in front of the reading surah Al-Haqqah
 - Omar (RA) felt like the ayats were responding to his thoughts
 - Accepted Islam then
- “Isn’t time for someone like you to become Muslim” – the Prophet (SAW) to Omar
 - Names Al-Farooq (separates right from wrong)

After the Conversion of Hamza and Omar (RA)

- Muslims began to pray publicly

- Najashi questions him and Ja’far recites Surah Maryam
 - As-Hama becomes Muslim but was secretly practicing until his death
 - Years later, As-Hama converts ‘Amr bin ‘As into becoming a muslim

- Umm Habibah
 - Was married to Ubaydullah bin Jahash in Abyssinia
 - He leaves Islam
 - The prophet (SAW) marries her from Mecca while she is in Abyssinia
 - As-Hama paid the Mehr

Late Mecca

The distinguishing moment in Meccan Seerah was the conversion of Hamza and Omar (RA)

The Boycott - Year 7 to Beginning of Year 10

- Since persecution was not working, Quraysh put both a financial and social boycott of Banu Hashim and Banu Muttalib
 - The only exception to this boycott was during the Hajj season
- Abu Lahab disowned his tribe and was actively telling people to not sell to his family members
- Mansoor ibn Ikramah wrote the contract
 - His hand was paralyzed
- The Muslims were surviving off of Khadijah's wealth
- How does the Boycott end?
 - A group of 5 men come together and they plan out going to Quraysh and showing support to stopping the boycott, they gather momentum and Quraysh calls it off
 - Hisham bin 'Amr
 - Zohair bin Abu Umayyah
 - Mut'am bin Adiyy
 - Abu Al-bakhtari
 - Zaman bin Aswad
 - At the same time, the Prophet (SAW) had a dream that the contract was destroyed and it was
 - It was eaten by insects except for "In the name of Allah"

Year of Sorrow - 10th year of Prophethood

- Death of Abu Talib
 - He was 87 years old and the boycott took a physical toll on his life
 - On his deathbed, the Prophet (SAW) wanted him to take his shahada
 - Dies saying "I am on the religion of my father"

- This was extremely painful for the Prophet (SAW) for abu Talib to have passed away as a non muslim
 - Lesson: you cant guide who you want, Allah guides
- Khadijah (RA) death
 - 1 month and 5 days after the death of Abu Talib
 - Also passes away because of the physical toll the boycott had on her
 - The prophet (SAW) lost both his external and tangible support so close together
 - The Prophet (SAW) was under so many layers of sadness and grief
 - Mourning of the Prophet (SAW)
 - Did not leave his house for days at a time
- After the death of both Abu Talib and Khadijah (RA), persecution and assasination attempts on the Prophet (SAW) were rampant again
- Taif
 - 2 weeks after the death of Khadijah (RA), the Prophet (SAW) has to keep going and so he goes to Taif to seek protection for himself and the Muslims
 - Taif was the most significant city outside of Mecca
 - Urwah bin Masoud Al-Thaqafi was a leader of Taif
 - Tribal leaders of Taif were the sons of 'Amr and they all reject the Prophet (SAW)
 - Abdi yaail
 - “If Allah sent you as a prophet, I am going to rip the clothes off the ”
 - Mas'ood
 - “Could Allah not have sent anyone else but you”

 - 'Addas comes to bring the Prophet (SAW) some food
 - The prophet (SAW) says bismillah
 - 'Addas recognizes it and said that he is from Iraq, the same city as Yunis (AS)
 - 'Addas was shocked that the Prophet (SAW) knew
 - The Prophet (SAW) said "Yunus is my brother, ofc I know him"
 - 'Addas becomes a muslim
- The Prophet (SAW) is in Nakhlah and there were Jinns from Nasabeen hear the Prophet (SAW) praying Qiyam
 - They go back to the other jinns and come as groups accepting Islam with the Prophet (SAW)
 - Allah is giving the Prophet (SAW) support from the unseen
 - Narrated at the end of Surah Ahqaf

Tribal Protection

- The Prophet (SAW) makes it to Mecca and is seeking tribal protection
 - Goes to Akhnas bin Shurayq
 - He is from Taif but has an alliance with the tribe of Zuhra
 - Said he can not because he is just an ally and an ally of a tribe can not protect someone from a tribe in the city
 - Suhaib bin 'amr
 - Says he can not because there is a hierarchy to tribes and his tribe would not be able to protect him from other tribes
 - Mut'am bin Adiyy
 - Accepts since he was sympathetic

- 1Him and all his kids with full war armor stand around the Prophet (SAW) as he prays in front of the Ka'bah

This point in seerah shows us that sometimes your situation will get really really bad before it gets better
