Question and Answer

4/20 Did madhabs evolve? Yes. They're not just one opinion. The imams within the madhabs at times had different opinions despite being in the same school.

4/17 Using your strengths. Tangible skills. Ex, being able to drive for a long time. You notice that you can do this easily. Also, having people around you who are always pushing you forward. You don't build off of self concluded strengths, especially those that put you on the path of pursuing fame.

4/16 OK to do tawaf on a vehicle, but still better to do the actions on foot

4/13 Lowering standards. The concept of urf is what governs this. Where the man doesn't take care of as many things. Vs in a society where it is normal for a woman to take care of things. Qawama. Regarding switching out of survival mode.

4/13 Does comfort in the dunya take away from comfort in the akhira? Yes, the sahaba would worry about this. But it's not that you get punishment for comfort but rather you lose the reward of sacrifice.

Sins are the red line of comfort. The green line is a thing of self monitoring. The Prophet ﷺ's lifestyle was very balanced. Detachment is meant to train yourself out of needing certain things. In a limited way that doesn't affect the people around you. The Prophet ﷺ would wear fancy things so that people could see it, and then he would give it away.

4/10 Learning the akhlaq of deen. There's never going to be a designated amount of argumentation that is "okay". For the man, the more he can tolerate argumentation the better and for the woman the less argumentative she is the better.

4/9 It is not possible to filter out weaknesses without experiencing a trial or being in an intense environment. Somebody whose baseline is 50% can jump to 100% in the right environment. Keep looking for ways to maintain yourself and increase your baseline

4/9 Dealing with the paralyzing feeling of too much to do. Someone with high ambitions will always feel like that, but will actually channel it well. The best way is to be around people who are also doing a lot. Like an athlete training with other athletes.

4/3 Sharing your thoughts is not a bad thing, unless you're constantly imposing. Venting which involves any other form of speech (like backbiting) should be reigned in. Needs to be balanced with the. Ayah of venting Surah Nisa, Allah ﷻ does not like publicizing anything negative, except the one that is oppressed

4/3 Awwa. comes from alif ha, a sound a person makes when they're feeling difficulty, complaining etc. For Ibrahim AS its being used in a positive context? When it is directed towards Allah ﷻ it is a good quality and when it is directed toward someone else it is bad quality

4/3 What is formalized tawbah? Astaghfirullah wa atubu ilayk. You say the words of tawbah with the intention of negating the specific sin, and then follow the steps to fulfill any rights, and then feel genuine remorse. The purpose is tawbah for minor sins.

3/31 What does it mean to love someone for the sake of Allah ﷻ? Your love for them doesn't lead to any kind of disobedience. The love does not fluctuate based on how the person treats you. The only way to ensure that your love for someone is completely pure is that you do not rely on others. Someone who is reliant on others is not going to be able to love others for Allah ﷻ's sake. A tangible way to measure loving others for the sake of Allah ﷻ is how often you are remembering Allah ﷻ when you are with them.

3/30 Hadith about waking up as a kafir. Lesson 1, detachment from the dunya protects you from a lot of things. What should we do in this time? Don't be so involved in things during this time. Your house should be enough to satisfy your needs. Protect your family and home. The Prophet ﷺ also advised sahabi to cry over their sins. Kitab al fitn, the Prophet ﷺ describes a time where theres going to be so much fitn, pitch blackness. Theres not going to be a single person... except that it is going to slap them in the face. Another hadith, following the majority opinion. If you find yourself with a minority group, leave it

3/27 The moment someone makes dua is the moment the angels are saying ameen.

3/27 Famous statement of Aisha, the woman who came and asked why do people have to do qadaa of fasting and not of salah

3/26 6 months before the Prophet ﷺ died, Fatima got into an argument with. The land that was left behind, and all of the Prophet ﷺ things left behind being charity. Authentic narrations do include Abu Bakr visiting her before she died. Will talk about it more.

3/25 Sh talking about women travelling. See ipad

3/24 Difference of opinion on salah in niqab. Makruh for men, not necessarily for women

3/5 Itikaf schedule. Ishraq-dhuhr for sleep. Dhuhr and then a talk, then free time. After asr, small talk and then personal tilawa. Maghrib, dates and water and then pray and then eat. Then tilawa. Talk after taraweeh, chill time, qiyam 2.5 hrs before fajr. Post fajr talk then tilawa until ishraq

3/5 Argumentation removes the barakah of ibadah

3/5 The Prophet ﷺ would not sit for extended amounts of time after salah doing dua and dhikr, would turn around to speak to people after fajr and asr

3/5 0914. Fertile women. How was fertility assessed? Based on the relatives. Does not need to be disclosed if someone is infertile, never going to be 100%. However if they have a disease or injury they were born with, they should mention it in a marriage conversation. The reality of life. Every decision that a person has, has an emotional impact and you're not always going to be able to make the "right" decision. Not advisable to divorce to have children ... the burden is not on the self if a woman can't have them... did Allah ﷻ send wahi that you would have children (to the man). The best women to live on this earth did not have children. Story, man with daughters wanted a son, wife couldn't safely have more kids. They decided to surrogate, baby dies 2 weeks later

3/5 Different styles of recitation. As long as you follow the rules of tajweed you're fine

3/5 Jannah has infinite levels, 8 gates. There's 100 ranks just for mujahideen.

3/4 The significance of Subhanallah wabihamdi

- There's a lot of virtue given to simple phrases. 2 main benefits
- Allah ﷻ give the opportunity of a lot of reward for something that is easy to achieve. Makes you ask the depth of what's being said
- Adkhar is meant to bring you into a state of mind. Sometimes quantity is more important than quality
- Saying subhanallah a 1000 times, 50 of them you have khushoo. If you have even one instance of khushoo it's good for you
- Supposed to put you in that state
- Once you say the words, you are negating everything else with significance in your life
- La illaha illallah, when you say it while rejecting all other things it has a huge effect on your mindset
- Has a physical effect and mental effect
- Tasbeeh specifically is acknowledge Allah's perfection
- Alhamdulillah is saying that all forms of perfection belong to Allah ﷻ
- Adhama has the meaning of greatness and power
- Saying it with 100% certainty in the heart

3/3 amal mujarrab. doing things out of habit, vs doing things in a very specific way

3/3 @ 0921 self work, this is a lifelong journey. The goal that you're trying to achieve is working to be better. Allah ﷻ can show a person how to fix themselves. Thinking about it is the first step. Another person is only going to see so much. When you respect someone, they naturally will see the best sides of you. The way that you interact with others in private moments. Prioritize the lowest hanging fruit. Ex, you find that you are stingy, you decide to spend on others. Internal motivation can get you far with holding yourself accountable

3/2 "Not the end of the world" when something is

3/2 Verified timed tables. Most apps don't account for elevation. Extreme elevation gain will affect the salah timings. Mufti Aasim's teacher is the first human to establish a standardized time table.

Muft learned it from him, and decides (TS 1432) he needs to document it manually. Would drive out to an empty place and document the timing of fajr.

Summary: If a muaddhin calls athaan and the community is following a verified time table, just follow.

Reasoning for breakfast quickly. There are ways that people show fake piety.

3/2 @ 1423: Imam Hazam. Dhahiri madhab. They don't believe in qiyaas as a concept. Absolute literalists. Propagated the idea 500 years later of people being able to touch the mushaf while in a state of haidh. Out of the thousands of sahabiyat, none of them touched their mushafs in states of haidh.

2/27 If a man asks his wife to break her fast, she should and that's the standard

2/27 Mustahabb of moving in salah. When the imam initiates change in salah do you wait for them or do you move with them. Best practice: be slightly after the imam. Just give a little time

2/26 Etiquette of reciting the Quran. Can walk around while reciting.

2/24 Best practice of reciting Quran is that you recite istiadah

2/23 Somebody who does ibadah in a time with fitna gets more reward

2/20 Praying witr with the imam. The Prophet ﷺ said praying with the Imam until he leaves, its as if they prayed the entire night. So it is better to pray with the imam, than to delay witr in this scenario. Do not add any rakat after the imam (some people try to make it 4). 2 negatives: messing up the continuity of the jamaa, and showing off in a way. The adhab of jamaa is higher in this case than the adhab of praying witr at the end of the night.

2/20 Reciting during menses and muftis mention of qurb. Qurbatun in fiqh means ibadah. When fuqaha uses this word, they're referring to it as pure ibadah. Ex: salah, quran. Dhikr is not considered qurba, even though it brings you closer to Allah ﷻ. Ilm is technically a qurba. There is not state that a human can possibly enter that would make them not close to Allah ﷻ.

2/20 if responsibilities are overstimulating, volunteering for anything related to ibadah. You will structure yourself in a way that nothing else matters when you're doing it. You learn how to manage things in a way. Khushoo. Also be mindful of distracting others. It falls under the sin of moving people off the path of Allah ﷻ.

2/20 reciting with the intention of dua, memorizing. Intention doesn't technically matter. Imam Malik gave exceptions out of necessity. Some say it shouldn't be a full ayah. Replace quran with adhkar, take the time to memorize duas, hadith. Looking at the mushaf on your mobile phone, and reading in your head.

2/17 Don't need to try to stay humble if you are around the right people.

2/16 a mawla would have a secondary status to the freed slave. There was a period of time where they would inherit as a freed slave. In another time the mawla would ?. Imam Bukhari, was called jawfi mawlahum. Accepting islam from the tribe.

2/13 What is considered collective wealth? Spoils of war. Buildings, masjid, communal spaces. Anything that has a haqq over it

The Prophet ﷺ restricted announcements in certain scenarios. Each individual has a much bigger effect than they think.

2/13 Whenever the Prophet ﷺ recommended affairs of deen, we know it was based on wahi. And with affairs of deen, they become

2/11 A man that looks like a woman. Transgender, converts at Flint Masjid and Sh Abdullah sends them to Grand Blank. They pray in between the men and the women, on their own.

2/11 Do iron transfusions break a person's fast? Doesn't fulfill soora and maana. If it does, it is a valid reason to break fast.

2/10 Why is there eternal jahannam for "good" non muslims

- The literal answer
 - The concept of belief is not a small thing. It adds up, especially on how they act in life.
 - All corruption stems back to the beliefs which allow them to act like that. Someone whose framework is flimsy is still dangerous. Even if it doesn't show in their life, it will reflect somewhere else. When you have a system of beliefs which allow corruption to spread, it has an effect.
- The spiritual answer
 - is that Allah created things how we chose and we cannot ask questions beyond that. He knows things we do not know, and in the reality of our existence we are to him like a table is to us. The purpose of this feeling we have for non muslims is concern and motivation to give dawah.
- If there is an All Merciful god, how is there eternal punishment?
 - How do you define evil? Evilness is subjective until made objective
 - If it's through a religious system, God is the one who defines evil to begin with
 - Punishment exists because justice exists
- Theoretical discussion: not all non muslims in jahannam forever
 - Hopeful discussion but then why would we care?
 - Even if you go to jahannam for 100 years, nothing has significance except infinity. You remove the motivating factor of the afterlife
 - There's no sunni scholar who has adopted the opinion
 - Ibn Al Qayyim and Ibn Taymiyyah have spoken about it but none have adopted it

2/10 What breaks the salah? Amal kathir, meaning excessive motion. To the point where you do not think they are praying.

1/30 10:12 Dua. Make the right decisions. Built off of that dua: Ya Allah even if I make the wrong decision let there be khair in it.

1/29 How to be a "junior": Every second of your life you are embarrassing yourself. The middle school spirit goes a long way. Don't feel too cool for class. Be excited for it, it motivates the teachers.

Hadith: The only reason you are given success is through the weak that you are supporting. Relying on someone else financially to pursue ilm is virtuous for them.

1/30 Reminders

- Reminder for us - thib un nafs
 - Story: MII kids first class have an insane vibe lol. And the class after that has a mixed vibe. Got annoyed at them
 - Reminder: teachers are human. They get motivated by the energy that students give off.
 - The vibe we give off might be the reason why our teacher doesn't teach for 10 more minutes. These things add up. The amount of times you have 10 minute concessions will add up. Those breaks should matter to us. The goal of a student is to know how to extract information from a teacher.
 - The "class vibe" has a huge effect on how much you benefit long term
 - The act of seeking knowledge as a form of ibadah is only virtuous if you're actually seeking knowledge
- Seeking knowledge has conditions
 - It's not about being on cruise control
 - There's a way to get the feeling out of seeking knowledge that sahaba got
 - You have to think about seeking knowledge like salah
 - The moment you start your day thinking about it like you've just said allahuakbar
 - There needs to be a distinct shift in your attention from 9-4
 - You are never going to benefit if you are not doing it in a group
 - Imagine joining salah and you start distracting everyone else
 - Have to think about it like this, otherwise you don't realize the impact of your actions
 - Don't be the reason why somebody else is distracted in class
 - Giving more respect to one class over another class, or one teacher over another teacher is showing that you are not actually here for the ibadah of knowledge
 - There is a sincerity issue there
 - Treat it as a formalized ibadah
 - Your takbeeratul ihram is 9 and your salam is 4
 - A person's success is linked to their dedication

- Equivalent of a masjid having nice carpets and you get distracted in salah. The nice cafe we have here shouldn't be a distraction
 - The ability of the student is also linked to the ability of the teacher
 - The level of intentionality and focus needed to be
 - The most important thing is actually being in the room
 - It is the equivalent of watching other people pray
 - You are not actually praying you're just watching
 - If you make excuses for yourself
 - The reason it gets transferred from

 - Or we can stick it out and see what happens

 - The Prophet ﷺ says umduala bismillah, let's see what happens

- Lesson: Knowing when Allah plans
 - Difficult for us to remember when we have things like weather apps and news reports
 - At the end of the day these are not finite predictions

Negotiating with The Quraish

- The first person to come to Prophet ﷺ
 - Buday ibn Warqa, not muslim and not Quraish
 - From the tribe of Khuzaa, who was sympathetic to the muslims due to their hatred for Quraish
 - He tells the Prophet ﷺ they're not going to allow you to come in
 - We didn't come for war but for umrah. War is messing with their heads, tell them if they want we will make a treaty... and if they don't want to make a peace treaty I swear by the one in whose hand is my soul that I will fight until my neck is cut...
- Buday tells them what the Prophet ﷺ said
 - A few people had an immediate reaction of rejection
 - Some elders called him back
 - He says you guys are too hasty to reject, he is not going to fight anybody
 - If he came here to do umrah and he is not going to fight, wallahi he is not going to do it (they were too embarrassed by it, that it would show them to be weak)
- The first person Quraish sends is Miqriz ibn Hafs
 - The Prophet ﷺ sees him from far away and says, this man is treacherous
 - Repeats to him what he said
 - Next they send Hulays ibn Alqama
 - When the Prophet ﷺ sees him he says this man has a lot of respect for hadi (animal sacrifice)
- The Prophet ﷺ says bring all of the hadi animals to the front and when Hulays gets here say labaik
 - Hulays gets emotional, goes back to quraish without even negotiating

- Hurayth is not a leader of quraish but a leader of Habis (surrounding tribes)
- they insult him and call him a bedouin
- One of the things he said was how can we let everyone else so umrah
- Then they send Urwa ibn Masoud

 - Urwa ibn Masoud bin Muattil says, the Prophet ﷺ is presenting a fair idea. Let me talk to him and see
 - He sits right in front of the Prophet ﷺ and asks him you brought all of these random people to destroy the city. Have you heard of anyone invading their own city
 - They came out wearing their skins and lions
 - Urwa says I swear i can see the people around you are going to abandon you

- Lesson: Someone might say, why risk all of the people and islam?
 - There is a point where it doesn't matter and fighting is the right thing to do
 - All of the battles that the sahaba fought were drastically outnumbered
 - It is a quality of munafiqeen to monger fear

 - It is a quality of munafiqeen to monger fear
- In the meantime, Umar is already preparing for war

- He said I saw my uncle didn't have anything so I gave it to him
- The Prophet ﷺ laughed and said you remind me of the saying "Oh Allah grant me somebody who I love more than myself."

 - They send Mikraz ibn Hafs as the leader
 - Salama sees movement and alerts people
 - All 50-80 were captured
 - Ibn Zubayd, lesser known sahabi was killed
 - The incident is alluded to in Surah Fath
 - Lesson: this has always been a tactic, of instigating so that they have a reason to retaliate
- Salama ibn Al Akwa narrates this story
 - I was on the journey to Hudaybiyya, and I was borrowing from Talha while taking care of his animals. I went to the camp and was sitting near the tree when 4 mushriq walked by insulting the Prophet ﷺ

 - Then I took out my sword and captured all 4 of them
 - If any of you moves an inch I'm cutting your head off
 - I grabbed all of their weapons in one hand

- I dragged them all to the Prophet ﷺ
- Then my uncle came with Mikraz, in a group of 70
- The Prophet ﷺ sees this and he says “Let them be the ones who violated us”
- This was the last ditch effort

Signing the Treaty

Date Covered: 2/4 @ 0908

Negotiations with Suhail ibn Amr

- One interesting event: Runaway slaves from Mecca accept islam
 - Kuffar say they're only doing it to leave their masters
 - The Prophet ﷺ says it is not my job to cut peoples hearts open
 - Lesson: Someone says shahada, there is no reason to doubt them
- Suhail ibn Amr sent to negotiate the treaty, the Prophet ﷺ's response
 - The Prophet ﷺ says your affair became easy
 - Suhail means easy, he took a good meaning out of his name
 - The Prophet ﷺ also liked the name tafaal which literally means to derive good meaning
 - If someone's name had a bad omen tied to it he would stop people from talking about it
- Suhail sits in front of the Prophet ﷺ and they negotiate
 - The Prophet ﷺ asks to just make tawaaf
 - Suhail responds that they are not going to let their enemies walk through
 - You can enter next year for 3 days
- The Prophet ﷺ calls Ali
 - Tells him to write bismillahi ar rahman ar raheem at the top
 - Suhail says I don't know rahman and raheem, write bismikallahumma
 - This event is alluded to in the Quran
- The muslims are not happy with this
 - They say we are not changing
 - The Prophet ﷺ says just write bismikallahumma
 - When he first stopped the camel he said any condition that respects us, I'll accept
- The Prophet ﷺ then says write, this is what Muhammad Rasoolullah agreed to
 - Suhail does not let him right rasoolullah
 - The Prophet ﷺ says wallahi I am a messenger, then tells Ali to erase it
 - Ali refuses. Not a thing of disrespect or aggression
 - The Prophet ﷺ understood it would be difficult and asked Ali to show him where it was
 - Minority opinion: the Prophet ﷺ knew how to read at this time
- The Prophet ﷺ tells Ali of his future
 - Imagine how tense the situation is
 - In that moment the Prophet ﷺ is telling Ali, you are going to have a moment exactly like this
 - Referring to Ali signing a contract with Muawwiya, and they erase Amir Al Muminin from it

Conditions of the Treaty

1. No fighting between the Muslims in Medina and Quraysh in Mecca for 10 years
2. The muslims have to go back this year without performing umrah
3. The muslims are allowed to return the following year. When they come back they can stay in Mecca for three days, and only carry sheathed swords.
4. Any tribe can choose to ally with either side. If an allied tribe is attacked, that would count as breaking the treaty.
5. Any man that leaves Mecca to go to Madina without permission has to be sent back, but if a muslim leaves Madina to join the Quraish, they do not have to be returned. (women are still allowed to leave Mecca without restriction... for conditions on their acceptance into Madina see Surah Mamtahana tab)

One copy was given to the kuffar and the other to the muslims.

Failed Return of Abu Jandal

- While they're finishing up their signing Abu Jandal appears
 - The son of Suhail ibn Amr
 - Recap on Abu Jandal: accepted islam early on, joined Badr but got captured and his been chained up since
- Abu Jandal starts calling upon the muslims
 - Suhail says this is the first one
 - The Prophet ﷺ says we have not signed the treaty yet
 - Suhail bin Amr does not budge
 - He says I am not signing the treaty unless he is returned
- The muslims would call Hdaybiya the Day of Abu Jandal
 - Umar RA would only refer to the day as such
 - Lesson: these things stay in our memories. Like in Gaza the Israelis have set up prisoner camps.
 - Story: Man released from the camps. Described how he was moved around between various prisons, various torture experienced
 - Comparing to Abu Jandal, as if throwing someone who was just released from torture back to the oppressors
 - Umar RA dropped his sword in front of Abu Jandal, implying he should kill his father. Umar said he was too soft
 - Sahaba would refer to this day as the Day of Abu Jandal
- Story of Sahil ibn Hunayf telling Ali how he felt at Hdaybiyya
 - Narration of Sahil bin Hunayf
 - Recap: saw Ali with the lady, burning the idols
 - He later told Ali, accuse your own opinion. I remember on the day of Abu jandal if I was able to reject everything the Prophet ﷺ said, I would have
 - Context: right before a big battle, peace treaty was signed

Lessons From Hdaybiyya

- Lesson: sometimes your leader might do things you do not understand

- Never think, while in the position of follower, that you know what's right
- Will be in various positions through life
- Lesson: Sometimes the right thing happens even though no one is happy with the outcome
 - Happiness is subjective
 - You pursue the truth and what is right
 - A mumin will be content with what is best not what makes them happy
 - Sometimes victory looks like this, where everybody is annoyed
 - Can be scaled to an difficult situation
 - Very easy to jump in politics though, where we call someone a sellout
- Story: criticizing institutions without thinking
 - Someone came to Mufti Aasim, bashing miftaah. Said haram food was served
 - The guy was making it seem purposeful
 - Someone can see something wrong and have 2 approaches
 - He either: could assume something wrong of them
 - Or you could give them benefit of the doubt
 - There is a level of wisdom that you don't always see
- Story: Jumping to conclusions about people
 - Sheikh Abdullah was telling a story, then the director called him wanting to ask if he is a feminist
 - When someone comes in a certain setting, you will see a different side of them
 - Example, Sheikh Abdullah is called mlCE at MII because there's always someone getting expelled when he drops by
 - When you only see a person in one context all the time you jump to a conclusion about who they are
 - If you only see a small part of the puzzle, you do not know what is going on
 - Even if I'm wrong, put khair in it
- During Ali's khalifa
 - There was a group of people who wanted to keep fighting with Muawwiya
 - There is no situation where we go into battle reluctantly
 - However right now you see every single sahabi hesitating

The Muslims Leaving their Ihram

- The Prophet ﷺ sends Abu Jandal back
 - Then he tells everybody to shave their head
 - Not a single person moved an inch
 - He says it 3 times
- Famous story with Umm Salama
 - He goes into the tent
 - Tells Umm Salama
 - She says go, dont say anything just slaughter your camel and shave your head
 - Sometimes you get a better understanding from the position of a follower
 - Umm Salama's wisdom runs in the family
- The Prophet ﷺ does it first
 - The sahaba saw him

- Then they all moved fast
- Narrations mention so fast that they were almost hurting each other
- The Prophet ﷺ makes the dua, oh allah forgive the people who shaved their heads
 - Some people only shortened their hair
 - They kept asking about the ones who shortened
 - He did not mention them until he was asked a third time
- Some fiqh points
 - Called ihsar, meaning being prevented from doing Umrah or Hajj
 - Wherever you are you exit the state of ihram
 - Sahabi named Kaab bin Ujja who had a scalp disease
 - An ayat came down about him, that the one who has a disease has a specific fidya
- Total camp in Hudaibiya
 - 20 days
 - 1 month and a half total, 2 weeks going and 2 weeks coming back added

 Return from Hudaybiyya

Return from Hdaybiyya

Date Covered: 2/4 end of class, 2/5 @ 0918

Umar's reaction to Hdaybiyya

- While returning from Hdaybiyya, Umar is still angry
 - Says, aren't you the Prophet ﷺ of Allah? Aren't we on the truth? Why are we compromising
 - The Prophet ﷺ responds I am the messenger of Allah and I am not disobeying Allah, and Allah will support me
 - Didn't you say we would do tawaf?
 - I did not say it would happen this year
 - Lesson: Imagine being the leader in this situation. He knew Umar was too emotional to hear it
- Umar then says the same to Abu Bakr
 - Abu Bakr responds. Ayyuhal rajul. The Prophet ﷺ does not disobey Allah
 - Gives the same answer as the Prophet ﷺ about doing tawaf
 - Ayat of Surah Fath revealed
- They're sitting at the camp, the Prophet ﷺ calls for Umar
 - Ayat: We have given you a clear conquest
 - Umar became calm
 - This was one of his qualities, that when he heard Quran he would become calm
 - While he was narrating this story, he mentioned that he still did kaffara for what he said on that day

Abu Bakr's Narration on Hdaybiyya

- Abu Bakr's Narration
 - The biggest conquest of Islam was the Fath of Hdaybiyya
 - The nature of people is that they are hasty and Allah works in a very slow and consistent way
 - The same man (referring to Suhail) I saw him bringing the animals of Hajj to the Prophet ﷺ one by one. And I saw him grabbing the Prophet ﷺ's hair and holding it to his face for his barakah
 - And on Hdaybiyya he did not want to write rasoolullah and 4 years later he completely switched
 - In summary Abu Bakr is showing how things can change

Miscellaneous Incidents

- The Prophet ﷺ misses fajr
 - Narrated by Abdullah ibn Masoud
 - They were travelling back late into the night
 - They all go to sleep, and awoke to the heat of the sun on their faces

- The Prophet ﷺ gets up and sees Abdullah sleeping
- Then he moves the whole group, they make wudhu, and they do qadaa in jama'a
- He says If Allah did not want you to sleep you would not have. Allah has used you as an example for the people after
- Miracle of food
 - They are passing by Banu Nihyan
 - He is worried about a possible attack

 - They are about to slaughter some of their travelling animals and move on foot
 - Umar RA says don't do that, put out your sheets
 - They all throw on their random scraps of food They all took from it

Events of the Return

- Event 1: Runaway of Abu Basir
 - He was muslim, imprisoned in Mecca
 - He escapes and runs away
 - Originally from the tribe of Thakif and Akhnas bin Huray sends people looking for him
 - He returns with the men sent to capture him
 - While on the way back, he kills one of his captors and comes back to Madina
 - The Prophet ﷺ says you cannot stay
 - Wayha ummi - what is wrong with this guy
 - The Prophet ﷺ says Allah will make a way out for you

The highway gang

- He lives on the caravan route near Sham
- More runaways join him later, including Abu Jandal
- They reached a total of 70, some narrations mentioned 300
- They became a highway robber gang
- The Quraish send a letter asking Madina to accept them into the city
- Abu Basir died holding the letter the Prophet ﷺ sent him

Story: Noticing Abu Basir's resilience

- They had a teacher who was very aggressive, and his jokes could be harsh
- When he started telling this story, he started crying
- Abu Basir symbolizes somebody who cannot rely on anybody else not even the Prophet ﷺ or other muslims
- But he did not give up and he stayed dependent on himself
- Do whatever it takes to survive and without making excuses for yourself

- Event 2: Runaway of Umm Khultum bint Uqbah
 - Uqbah ibn Abi Mueet was executed at Badr
 - His daughter Umm Khultum accepted islam as a teenager and ran away
 - She decides to make hijra on her own
 - The Prophet ﷺ says the treaty does not include women
 - When they wrote the treaty they wrote it with masculine pronouns

- So she ended up staying and getting married to Zaid ibn Hairtha, then after him Zubair ibn Awwam (divorced), then Abdurrahman ibn Awf, the Abdullah ibn Amr ibn Aas

More came after her

- Surah Mumtahana is named after the interrogation the muslims would do of women who came after Hdaybiyya
- Allah tells the Prophet ﷺ to test the women, to make sure they are coming for islam and not any other reason. And if he thinks they are sincere, to keep them
- Event 3: Ruling of being married to mushriq
 - Ayat come down in Surah Mumtahina
 - Umar RA was married to two mushriq women in Mecca
 - Sends a letter divorcing them
 - Talha bin Ubaydillah was also married to a mushriq woman in Mecca
 - The ayat mention the ruling of sending back the mehr if the woman does hijra, all a temporary system for the time of Hdaybiyya

Why is Hdaybiyya a Fath?

1. The Prophet ﷺ did not provide any additional leniencies
 - The Prophet ﷺ is not trying to appease them
 - The revelation of Surah Fath ?
2. Quraish has recognized them as a valid country
 - This is more significant than anything else because it sets the tone for the Fath
 - That give them a lot of ease in terms of travel
3. Peace allows them to give dawah to other nations
 - The first thing the Prophet ﷺ does is give dawah to all of the nations
 - The second Hdaybiyya was signed the Prophet ﷺ shifted to the rest of the worlds
4. Growth in the population of the muslims
 - At khandak, there were 3000 muslims of fighting age
 - When fath of mecca comes it is 10,000 muslims of fighting age
 - The population of islam triples
5. Conquering the remaining tribes
 - Also opens up islam to conquering the remaining tribes
6. Opening the door to the eventual conquest
 - In 2 years when the treaty is violated is when Fath of Mecca takes place

- Lesson: Permissibility of making peace treaties with non muslims
 - Some people try to push a war narrative
 - Hdaybiya is already after the ayat of jihad
 - Peace treaties are permissible and virtuous
- Lesson: Putting aside pride to establish conditions

- Not everything has to be about PR
- It bothered the sahaba to see the Prophet ﷺ being disrespected and having to accept unfavorable conditions
- Its like us seeing someone random coming and shouting at Mufti Aasim but he doesn't let us respond
- Will talk about again later
- Lessons: Victory doesn't always look the same, Hudaibiyya is an example of how Allah operates
 - Sometimes it looks like Badr, other times like Uhud
 - If you are a believer you are always superior
 - Famous Hadith: the state of a believer is very strange. Every single thing that happens to him is good for him and that is only true for the one with imaan
 - This world is not significant enough to actually cause difficulty
 - The worst possible thing to happen is death
 - People can look at Gaza and say all kinds of negative things but we don't know if it is Badr or Uhud
- Lesson: the value of peace
 - It is during peaceful times that you can get things done
- Lesson: Compromising on things of a lesser significance is sometimes valuable for the greater good
 - Like the Prophet ﷺ dropping small things to sign the contract
- Lesson: Muslims need to trust their leader
 - Its a very dangerous thing for people to be doing their own things all the time

Surah Mumtahana

Date Covered: 2/6 @ 12000

Summary

- Relationship between muslims and non muslims
- Who you are allowed to take as friends
- Ayah 1
 - A certain amount of animosity shown towards islam that you cannot be friends with
- Ayah 2-3
 - They wish harm upon you
 - Your children and family will not help you on the DOJ
- Ayah 4
 - Drawing connections to Ibrahim AS and his trouble with his family
 - No religious support until you accept islam
 - Ibrahims dua for his father was only for a limited period of time, had to stop
- Ayah 5-7
 - Do not put yourself in such a weak position that it turns people away from islam
 - Only believers will benefit from an example like that
- Ayah 8-9
 - You are not forbidden from showing basic kindness toward those who are not hostile
 - Specifying this attitude to hostile non muslims who fight you and want to expel you from your homes
- Ayah 10-11
 - The forbiddance of marriage to polytheists
 - Need for clarifying if the existing spouse is genuine
 - Telling the muslim men not to hold on to the marriage of non muslim women
 - The rulings of mehr
- Ayah 12
 - The bayyas of the coming women. No stealing, no killing children, no lying or slander, no disobedience of the Prophet ﷺ etc.
- Ayah 13
 - Muallat/taali meaning closeness and affection
 - Don't have this for someone who Allah's wrath is upon
 - Why would you be nice to someone who Allah is displeased with
 - Birr meaning to be loyal and dutiful
 - Tawalli is a higher form, you take advice from them and honor and respect them. Dont seek this from them. Basic goodness, not closeness
- Lesson: Not taking non-muslims as close advisors
 - When you are around something wrong all the time it lowers your tolerance to it
 - They might be a nice person but eventually you are going to reach a cognitive dissonance if you are taking someone who is not basing their morals on Allah as a close friend

- Its okay for the purpose of dawah and cordiality but beyond that you should be cautious
- The level of respect that you give stays the same
- Question: for a revert with non muslim parents
 - Sahaba had various methods and outcomes for giving dawah to their parents
 - Some ended up killing their parents in battle
 - The rights owed to a parent stay the same, unless they are abusive
 - Depends, case by case
- Question: What are some points we can make with non muslims who use these ayat against us?
 - Somebody that hates islam is someone you do not owe loyalty and kindness towards
 - You don't want someone with a corrupted moral system very close to you
- Question: The permissibility of a muslim man marrying ahlul kitab
 - This is a very limited usage
 - Some sahaba gave fatwas that it was not permissible anymore
 - For them they were capturing non muslims, and it was pragmatic considering the mitigated harm (islam was the dominant religion)
 - If you live somewhere that islam is not the dominant religion you are taking a huge risk
 - The usage of this type of marriage is very limited and not at all encouraged
 - Even if the jew/christian is not openly trying to harm islam, tawalli with them is not recommended
 - These ayat show the mental framework
 - Would consider it sinful for a muslim man to marry a non muslim woman while living in detroit even if the nikkah is valid

- Heraclius was in Falastin at the time
 - At this time Heracle was in Falastin
 - The Romans had defeated the Persians after they desecrated Jerusalem
 - Why Falastin? He had taken an oath that he would walk on foot from Constantinople to Jerusalem if Allah gave them victory. This march is documented in secular history

 - He had a dream where he saw a king from a tribe of people that practices circumcision defeated him
 - After this dream he targeted the jews thinking it was them
- Heraclius receiving the letter
 - When Heraclius received the letter, he asked if there was anyone nearby from the region who he could talk to
 - His stay overlapped with Abu Sufyan's, who was there for business
 - After talking to Abu Sufyan he realizes his dream wasn't about the jews but the arabs

Conversation Between Heraclius and Abu Sufyan

Link to source: Hidden Pearls p.1689 of 2595

- Narrated by Abu Sufyan after he became muslim
 - Heraclius calls for Abu Sufyan
 - He's sitting on his throne, all the leaders of Rome are around. Calls a translator and asks for the person closest in lineage. Its Abu Sufyan, who is a cousin of the Prophet ﷺ distantly
 - Tells him to come closer and stay further away from the rest of the people so that he can confirm truths from lies
 - Abu Sufyan mentions, if it wasn't for the fact that he didn't want to be known as a liar he would have lied. Shows the arab trait of truthfulness which they gave a lot of importance to

- Heraclius verifies the character, leadership, and message of the Prophet ﷺ
 - How is the lineage of the Prophet ﷺ? It is very noble
 - Did anyone else claim this? No
 - Were any of his fathers leaders? No
 - Are his people noble or weak? Weak
 - Has anyone left the religion out of hatred? No
 - Has he ever been accused of lying? No
 - Is he treacherous? No, but right now we are in a treaty we do not know what he will do. Abu Sufyan mentions this was the only question where he could spin the Prophet ﷺ's character
 - Have you fought with him in war? Yes
 - What happened? Sometime we would win and sometimes he would win
 - What does he command? Worship Allah, leave the forefathers, pray, be chaste, maintain ties of kinship
- Heraclius then recaps all of the questions and answers with the translator
 - Mentions all the reasons for questions and how he was convinced by question and answer
 - Mentions these are all signs of a prophet and a true message
- Heraclius' responds very positively
 - If what you say is true, he will possess the very ground beneath my feet
 - I knew he was coming, but I did not think he was one of you
 - If I had known I could reach him, I would have gone to meet him
 - If I were with him, I would have washed his feet
 - His dominion will surely reach the ground beneath my feet
- He calls for the letter from Dihya and reads it
 - In the name of God, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful
 - From Muhammad, the servant of God and His Messenger, to Heraclius, the ruler of the Romans
 - Adhim ar Rum is a very great and noble title and way of greeting
 - Peace be upon those who follow guidance. Now then, I invite you to the call of Islam. Embrace Islam and you will be safe, and God will grant you a double reward
 - But if you turn away, then upon you will be the sin of the Arians
 - The ayah "O People of the Scripture, come to a word that is common between us. And between you is that we shall not worship except Allah and shall not associate anything with Him. And let us not take one another as lords besides Allah. But if they turn away, then say, "Bear witness that we are Muslims."
 - Heraclius started shaking and trembling out of awe
- Abu Sufyan's realization
 - The cardinals started panicking
 - Abu Sufyan turned to his people while watching this
 - He calls the Prophet ﷺ Abu Kabsha as mockery and says his kingdom is so powerful that even the Roman kings are afraid of him
 - Abu Sufyan narrates that he realized then that Islam will be dominant

Response of Heraclius

- Heraclius does not accept islam but does send the letter back very respectfully
 - With the amir of Busra
 - And sends Dihya with a bunch of gifts
 - Dihya's caravan gets raided
 - Ends up leading to the Sarriya of Hisma
 - He did not accept islam but did send it back in a very respectful way
 - Some narrations mention he put it in a leather pouch

 - Calls for the leaders of Rome to gather at his place and ordered its gates to be closed
 - Asked them: O people of Rome, do you want success and guidance and for your kingdom to be established so that you will pledge allegiance to this prophet?
 - So he proposes they give bayya but they all panick and try to run out
 - Heraclius sees their reaction and orders to bring them back
 - Says: I said my statement earlier to test your strength in your religion, and I have seen from you what I love.
 - Then they all did sajda to him and became happy with him again
- Side Story: Islam of one of the roman cardinals present
 - While Dihya was there a cardinal accepted islam secretly
 - Dihya narrates. The man was very old, the other cardinals would gather with him
 - One day he stayed in his house then stayed for a whole week. Used being sick as an excuse. People then said we are going to come in and kill you
 - They became suspicious because it overlapped with Dihya's visit
 - The cardinal handed a letter to Dihya and told him give it to the Prophet ﷺ
 - Then when he left his house they killed him
- Heraclius calls Dihya to deliver his rejection to the Prophet ﷺ
 - "You see that I am afraid for my kingdom. I am a Muslim..." and sent him dinars
 - When the Prophet ﷺ read the letter, he said "The enemy of God has lied. He is not a Muslim, and he is a Christian.
 - Either the Prophet ﷺ responded that he was too stingy to give up his kingdom
 - OR he responded that he would last as long as his letter (he bought himself some time by being respectful)
 - What strengthens the fact that Heraclius preferred his kingdom over faith is that he fought the Muslims in the Battle of Mu'tah 8 AH

 - Their brother was a eunuch. They had a stereotype that it made men stronger. But this is haram in islam.
- Side topic: Castration in islamic history
 - Some non muslims try to attack islam from the angle of castration
 - Our job is not to defend every muslim that existed, if it did happen in the Ottoman Empire
 - Those numbers are blown out of proportion
 - The slave tried was invented by the west

Side Topic: Concubinage

Date Covered: 2/10 @ 14??

Context: Topic appeared while discussing the sending of Maria Al Qibtiyya as a gift to the Prophet ﷺ by the king of Egypt. See Delegation to Egypt.

- The system of slaves in consensual relationships with their masters
 - A female slave has permission to enter a consensual relationship with her master
 - That becomes a separate system of slavery from normal slaves
 - Tassari: the slave who enters a relationship with their master, they are almost indistinguishable from the wife in terms of role
 - Umm al Walad: the slave who has carried a child
- The options a slave woman had
 - Two options
 - Getting married to another slave
 - Marrying a free person (which would have been extremely rare due to the societal stigma)
 - The option of a relationship with the master was preferable
- Rights of the slave in a relationship
 - All other rights that a wife has are present
 - Exceptions: talaq, witnesses at nikkah
 - Consent is absolutely necessary, contrary to common misconceptions
 - Lineage is protected
- Changes in rights once a slave woman gives birth
 - She cannot be sold
 - She would not be expected to work
 - She becomes mudabbar: free the moment her master dies
 - The child born is free
- Reason this is allowed to exist
 - Carries a very specific benefit for the slave women
- Why not just free them?
 - Slaves carried a very specific benefit and value at the time
 - Hard for us to imagine humans having a monetary value
 - But that was the nature of society at the time
 - Also less burdensome on the woman
- Why would the men marry and not just keep slave women?
 - There was a much bigger honor in marriage than in keeping slave women
 - It was not a noble thing to do
 - The Prophet ﷺ did it to show it was permissible
- Why were women not allowed to marry their slave men?
 - It was considered dishonorable
 - In terms of responsibility, there was a lot of conflict because it made the woman financially responsible for her husband which conflicts with nikkah
 - Shows how similar it is nikkah

- Power dynamic influencing consent
 - Power dynamics are very subjective
 - Things can shift at any point in any direction, even in marriage
 - Ex: a couple where the wife is employed by her husband
 - Consent is the lowest bar
- Why did the Prophet ﷺ not free Maria even though it was virtuous?
 - Why do any of us have money in our pockets right now even though donating is virtuous?
 - It was a realistic component of their society
- Does the female slave have an obligation to intimacy?
 - It is not explicitly written
 - Not to the same degree as the wife
- How does this contribute to the abolishment of slavery?
 - Ending the lineage of slaves

Side Topic: The Nation with a Woman as its Leader

Date Covered: 2/10 @ 0940

Hadith: When Kisra's daughter takes leadership, the Prophet ﷺ says "No nation that makes a woman its leader will be successful"

- What does it mean?
 - A nation that is so incompetent that there is no man around capable of taking leadership is destined for failure
 - The princess of Persia had not experienced anything at that point
- Islam does not view the concept of leadership for men and women as the same
 - Authority and virtue are not related
 - Just like how women are not able to be imams
 - Islam actually sees the leaders (generically) to be the worst of society except for minor exceptions
- Accusations of misogyny
 - The Prophet ﷺ encouraged sahaba to avoid positions of leadership
 - The Prophet ﷺ said to Abu Dharr being in charge of people is going to be a source of regret, except for a very small group of people who are able to fulfill their rights
- A non religious reason
 - Even in a group of men, there are criterias. Being physically intimidating etc. This is just the nature of human reactions. It's easier for someone to command respect when they are physically intimidating
- Allah has placed the burden of leadership on men
 - Specifically in the context of nations
- What contexts would this hadith be applied to?
 - Only two things where women are restricted: khalifa and imam
 - Does not apply to smaller scale things, like masjid shura

Black Magic

Date Covered: 2/11 @ 0905

About Black Magic

- Black magic was done on the Prophet ﷺ
 - Before the battle of Khybar
 - Done by Labid ibn Al Asam, a jew that had 3 sisters and a family business of sihr
- Jewish practice of sihr
 - The jews are known for magic and its extremely common
 - Mentioned in Surah Baqara that they left the teachings and did sihr
 - Even their religious rituals, many of them have origins in sihr and they claim them to have origins in jewish practice. These are all innovations
 - It was also primarily a job of women
- What is shir
 - Controlling jinn
 - Using them to harm or kill people
 - Why is it called sihr? Comes from the meaning of deception
 - The time of darkness right before fajr is called sahr because it is deceptively dark
 - Sihr is all about affecting things in a hidden and secret way
- How is sihr done
 - Desecration or disrespect of things that are sacred
 - They will communicate with the jinn who will then tell them to do strange things
 - That gives the jinn "street cred"
 - Another way is through a muslim jinn that is being blackmailed or involved in some sort of gang activity
- Major sin
 - One of the 7 major sins is sihr
 - In some narrations the Prophet ﷺ calls it shirk
 - Can be differentiated from the kind used to make someone fall in love.
 - Any kind of magic that negates la ilaha illallah takes them out of the fold of islam
- Why is khybar doing it?
 - They know that they are next
 - There was no treaty with them, but some of the escaped tribes were here

The Incident

- They took some of the Prophet ﷺ's hair, tied it into knots, and put it in the husk of a palm tree
 - The Prophet ﷺ got sick from somewhere between ? days- ? days
 - He was very very sick for 40 days
 - Ulama say the effects in general lasted 60 days
- The dream

- Aisha narrates that he would hallucinate. One night he asked Aisha, do you know Allah answered my dua. In my dream two men came, one stood at my head and another at my feet.
- The two angels are having a conversation and they say sihr was done, by Labid using the comb of the Prophet ﷺ (his hair) and dried husk of a male palm tree (a very specific material) and then they say the location
- Finding evidence of the sihr
 - The Prophet ﷺ and the sahaba go to well of Sarwan ? that was mentioned by the angels in the dream
 - They go to the well, and the water looked like henna and the nearby trees looked strange
 - In this narration the treatment is not mentioned
- The treatment of Surah Falaq and Nas
 - Opinions of its revelation are that it was revealed once in Mecca and again in Madina when this happened, brought again by Jibreel to show the ability of treatment
 - 11 knots were tied, and every time the Prophet ﷺ recited it would undo a knot and he would feel a little better
 - Shows the power of the two surahs
- How the Prophet ﷺ took care of it
 - When the sahaba asked if the sihr item should be destroyed, he said no he doesn't want to make a scene
 - Afterwards, he sent someone to get it to restore the well
- Moral of the story
 - Sihr and hasad is not something to be too afraid of
 - Recite Surah Falaq and Nas with the right adhab and focus

Question and Answer

- The frequency of people having large scale celebrations and then getting separations, sicknesses etc.

Battle of Dhi Qar

Battle of Dhi Qarad

Date Covered: 2/11 @ 0950

- Context
 - Small battle, 3 days before Khybar
 - There was a pasture outside of Madina being maintained by a sahabi
 - The pasture had 20 of the Prophet ﷺ's camels
 - The son of Umayyah, Abdur Rahman ibn Umayyah invaded it and stole the camels
- Narrated by Salama ibn Al Akwa
 - The first person to become aware
 - He goes out with ? in the morning
 - Was taking care of Talha's horse
 - Tells someone to alert the prophet ﷺ
 - Someone from Ghatfan did it
 - He shouts and alerts of war
- Salama's chase
 - He runs after them with his bow and arrow and cuts the legs of the animals
 - And the animals moved slower when passing through trees
 - And now that they were alerted, he would hide behind the tree and shoot from behind them
 - He mocked them with poetry, today we will find out who drank enough milk from their mother
 - Kept shooting them and cutting down their animals
 - They all go into the narrow pass and he throws down rocks on them, and continues doing that until they abandoned the camels of the Prophet ﷺ
 - Eventually they start dropping their merchandise too and anytime it was dropped he would put a few rocks to mark for the Prophet ﷺ
 - They reach a point where they settle down
- Ibn Umayyah gets support
 - They ask how did this happen
 - He tells them about the chase
 - If Salem had support you would have known. Why don't you guys attack him
- They try to attack Salama
 - 4 guys get up and Salama tells them, do you know who I am there is not a single one of you who can reach me
 - They all runaway

The Prophet ﷺ Arriving with Help

- Meanwhile the Prophet ﷺ mobilizes
 - Several sahaba were there
 - They all start moving
 - Salim ibn Akba says he saw them catching up
 - First he saw ? and Abu Qatada, and behind them Mikhdad

- Al Akhram Al Aslami pursues Ibn Uayna
 - Salama tries to stop him
 - He says Dont try to stop me from going forward
 - They fight and he injures Uayna's horse
 - Ibn Uayna stabs and kills him
- Abu Qutada vs Ibn Uayna
 - Abu Qutada then catches up and kills Ibn Uayna, covers him with his own clothing
 - They see a dead person covered in the cloth of Abu Qutada and think he died
 - The Prophet ﷺ says its not him
- They continue the chase
 - Salama on foot and the sahaba on horse
 - They reach a water well, try to drink water but see Salama and run away
 - Keep the chase going
 - They say where the heck did they get this guy from
 - Took the two horses
- Downsizing the chase
 - At this time 500 sahaba are gathered
 - Decide to take 100 of them and chase them all the way to Ghatfan
 - ? Says something that makes the Prophet ﷺ laugh
 - Outcome: they get back what was taken and more
- Side story: Abu Dharr's wife's escape and oath
 - In one of the moments they stopped the wife of Abu Dharr ran away with camel of the Prophet ﷺ's
 - She swears that she will slaughter the camel
 - When she asks the Prophet ﷺ and he finds out about her oath. WHat kind of exchange is that this camel saved your life
 - You are not allowed to take an oath in the disobedience of Allah

Siege of Khybar

Khybar

Date Covered: 2/12 @ 0914, 2/13 @ 0925

Misc. Event: Arrival of the Wife of Abu Bakr

- Comes to Madina, is still non muslim
 - Asks asma for financial help
- Asma says she has to ask the Prophet ﷺ first
 - Some narrations mention ayat of mumtahina came down
 - Saying it is okay and good to take care of family
 - But also shows the loyalty that sahaba had

Leaving for Khybar

- It was the beginning of 7 AH Muharram when they left for Khybar
 - 6 AH muslims return to Madina
 - The whole situation of the bribing happened because of the jews of khybar
 - The remnants of the other tribes were there
 - Assassination attempts being made
 - Last remaining threat near Madina
- Gathering the army
 - The Prophet ﷺ tells everyone to get ready
 - Some mention that he sent a letter first
 - Only people from Hudaybiyya were allowed to come
 - Allah already guaranteed victory so the munafiq were trying to join
 - Army of 200-300
- Reason for turning away munafiq
 - The munafiq that refused to come for Hudaybiyya and then tried to come to khybar
 - These were the people who thought the muslims would not return
 - The ayat say they are not permitted and never will be
- About khybar
 - Very fortified, difficult to get into
 - Many forts built on mountains
 - Some of them had sources of water that are carved into the fort
 - 10-15k fighting age men in Khybar
 - Objectively it doesn't make sense to turn people away
- Lesson: Sometimes if you don't show sacrifice in the right moment, you are going to be deprived of future opportunities
 - Despite the fortification, the Prophet ﷺ draws a clear line because the munafiq already proved themselves
 - In our lives, sometimes the benefit of going through something is just to show that we are sincere. You are going to have another opportunity to sacrifice which will actually bring you relief

- Reminder for students of knowledge: Seeing your time and effort spent towards knowledge as a burden means that you probably aren't going to be chosen by Allah to do it again
- All of those days where our teacher might give us an exam, and the point of that is to strengthen our knowledge. But if we seem really down about it, we lose that opportunity. The willingness of the student to be pushed is going to reflect how far they are going to go
- Analogy: having a personal trainer, where the client can't manage much. Doesn't go as far
- It is a quality of munafiq to only put in effort where/when its going to be appreciated

Misc. Event: Arrival of Abu Huraira

- Misc Event: Arrival of Abu Huraira
 - One narration: he came after the Prophet ﷺ left
 - Other narration: he came with the tribe of Daws

- Abu Huraira wanting to fight at Khybar
 - He wanted to fight in the battle but his mother was old and begged him not to
 - She went to the Prophet ﷺ as a non muslim and told him my son is leaving me to go to battle
 - The Prophet ﷺ then talks to Abu Huraira and asks him, he stays quiet and the Prophet ﷺ turns away from him. Abu Huraira notices he is angry. The Prophet ﷺ speaks generically, do you not think that being with your parents is fi sabilillah
 - After that AH missed all the battles, and after his mother died he went
 - Narrations are questioned, reasonably acceptable
- How to decide when you can leave family and not
 - Why is everyone else going when they also have family?
 - If there is no one else to take care of your family and you not being around is going to cause significant harm then that is the excusable type of situation
 - For sahaba the condition was not that their parents needed to be ok with them going into battle
- Islam of Abu Huraira's Mother
 - One day she says something harsh about the Prophet ﷺ, and he goes crying
 - He asks the Prophet ﷺ to make dua for his mother
 - Hears water pouring in his house, his mother tells him stay where you are
 - She was dressed, and she takes her shahada
 - He then runs back to the Prophet ﷺ, then he asks make me and my mother beloved to the people. The Prophet ﷺ makes dua for them to be beloved to believers and the believers beloved to them

 - The Prophet ﷺ tells them to take it easy, you are not calling upon someone who is deaf. Call upon Allah in a moderate voice
 - This hadith is used as evidence for group adhkar
 - Also used: chants of khnadak
 - The sahaba would do this casually, not organized. Different view points on this style of adhkar now
 - Mudhahat as sunnah - meaning competing with sunnah. Don't want to excessively formalize things that weren't there
- The Prophet ﷺ praying salah on the back of a donkey
 - While facing south
 - Which means that he was not facing the kaaba
 - Fiqh derived; For nafl while traveling, you do not have to face the kaaba
 - He would also pray while sitting, or the animal would move
- Dua of the Prophet ﷺ throughout the journey
 - Narrated by Anas ibn Malik
 - Narrates he was next to the prophet ﷺ to the point that there legs were touching
 - He was saying this dua the whole time

عَنْ أَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْهَمِّ وَالْحَزَنِ وَالْعَجْزِ وَالْكَسَلِ وَالْجُبْنِ وَالْبُخْلِ وَضَلَعِ الدَّيْنِ وَغَلَبَةِ الرِّجَالِ

 - They start at the north west corner of forts, which has the most military powers
 - The Prophet ﷺ sets up camp, starting at the east and then looping around to the west
 - Initially he wanted to camp in the west. But Habbab ibn Mundhir says it's not a good idea, we should camp east where we can cut off Ghatfan if they try to provide support

Siege of the Fort of Na'im

- Sending Abu Bakr and Umar first
 - They target the most difficult fort Na'im first
 - Over the span of a week approx.

 - Fatima asked for this land from Umar, it belonged to the Prophet ﷺ
 - He would use the money of Fadak for communal services
 - Some Shia will say that Abu Bakr abused Fatima
 - Wasn't distributed formally to specific people
 - During Umar's khalifa, Ali and Umar were arguing over how it should be used
 - It stayed as communal wealth

- Details of the siege
 - Under siege for 4 days

 - Then they surrendered with the same deal (half produce)
- The Prophet ﷺ leaves someone in charge to collect the money
 - Amr ibn Saeed ibn Aas
 - The cousin of Umar
 - Left in charge of collecting the money owed from the produce
 - They have the same issue as in Khybar, they kept beating up the collectors
- Incident: Young sahabi got shot with an arrow in the neck, the Prophet ﷺ denies his shaheed status because he stole from spoils
 - Everyone says he is a shaheed
 - The Prophet ﷺ wallahi that is not true. There is a shawl he took from the spoils of war which is burning him in his grave right now
 - The Prophet ﷺ says at the end of this qalul is al, nar, shanar. Disgrace, punishment
- Lesson: Being cautious of using communal things for personal benefit
 - Communal things that you do not think are significant are still things that have heavy weight

 - Umar says You think I forgot when I heard the Prophet ﷺ say to your face, what are you going to do when you are kicked out of Khybar
 - The man says he was just joking with us, Umar says shut up the Prophet ﷺ doesn't joke about these things

Ghazwat Al Ajib

- Previously spoken about

 - The Prophet ﷺ asked him, you killed him after he said la ilaha? The Prophet ﷺ then says did you rip his heart in half and check it to see if there was a sliver of imaan in it. Then the Prophet ﷺ says what are you going to do when la ilaha illallah is going to come to you on the DOJ and ask you how you could kill someone
 - Usama mentions he said it so much he wished he could die. Then he vowed to never kill another muslim
 - Later in the time of Muawiyya, he could not be convinced to fight
 - He became known for it. Saad ibn Abi Waqas said Im not going to fight a muslim until Usama bin Zaid does
- Wisdom of the Prophet ﷺ
 - The Prophet ﷺ would at times be harsher, even where excuses could be made, to teach a lesson

 - You take things at face value
 - Happens to often on social media now
 - Sheikh mentions he has 0 tolerance for this, even between practicing muslims "don't argue with anybody"
 - Someone who does this too easily ends up taking a big hit to their own imaan

Maymuna

Umratul Qada/Nikkah to Maymuna

Date Covered: 2/18 @ 0920

The Umrah

- The Prophet ﷺ's umrahs

 - The Prophet ﷺ did hajj one time and umrah 4 times
 - They count Hudaibiyya as one
 - Then qada as one
 - Then ji'r raana after fath of mecca
 - and the fourth is the one he did with his hajj
- Dhul Qida 7 AH
 - With 2000 people, previously at Hudaibiyya there was less
 - Some couldn't come
 - Wisdom of bring more: some sahaba stayed outside of the city in case of treachery
- Prep
 - The Prophet ﷺ says to bring a certain number of horses and weapon
 - However the agreement was 3 days, umrah only, no weapons
 - Some sahaba ask about it
 - The Prophet ﷺ says he is not going to bring the weapons into Mecca
 - Lesson: looking at the minimum expectations of an agreement. The Prophet ﷺ is taking a favorable interpretations
- Muhammad bin Maslamah
 - Waiting with the horses and weapon
 - The sahaba take shift
 - When the Quraish find out they panic
- Some Quraish could not tolerate seeing the muslims doing tawaf so they left the city
 - They camped at Mt Qayqaan
- The Prophet ﷺ shares some etiquettes of Umrah
 - TS 0926
 - Uncover the right shoulder
 - Stomp/run in the first 3 rounds
- Showing strength
 - May Allah reward the ones who show strength
 - This is kinda a PR move
 - Umar once asked his people why we still do raml (marching) and ittibaa (uncovering the shoulder). The only reason the Prophet ﷺ said this was to show we were strong
 - And they responded, if its the Prophet ﷺ did then we dont want to leave it
- Lesson: Not overthinking sunnahs
 - Our attachment to sunnah and deen is not rooted in intelligence and logic

- Umar is saying, we know the reason and the reason does not exist anymore, but we are still going to do it because the Prophet ﷺ did it
- We are easy to right things off, and that is not how we should be
- "The Prophet ﷺ did it" should be enough of a reason for us to do it
- A person should have so much love for the Prophet ﷺ that they cant fathom doing anything else
- Having taqwa of small things is easier than of big thing
- The person who cares about the small things doesn't escalate
- Normal people who
- Reminder: Knowing the reasoning does not mean you do not need to do it
 - There is a concept called illa, where if the reason for something is found the ruling is not needed anymore.
 - Some people come from this genuine angle
 - A faqi was not necessarily known for being spiritual
- Continues sharing
 - The Prophet ﷺ has food brought
 - They march in doing labbayk
 - They also move very strongly while they are doing tawaf
- Poetry shared
 - Abdullah ibn Rawaha, one of the poets
 - Kuffar move out the way we're coming
 - We're going to keep killing you the same way we killed you previously, in such a way that you forget your friends and family
 - Then Umar is like whats wrong with you lol
 - And the Prophet ﷺ says leave him, wallahi this hurts them more than arrows
- End of the umrah
 - The Prophet ﷺ asks about Khalid bin Walid
 - Narrated by him, that his brother Walid ibn Walid was with the Prophet ﷺ and he couldnt find me so he wrote me a letter. I have never seen something more astonishing than you not accepting islam when you are as intelligent as you are
 - He was not in the city at the time
 - This letter becomes one of the motivating factors

Side Story: Custody of Umamah bint Hamza

- Context
 - Umamah bint Hamza
 - Hamza's ? sister was ?. She married Shaddad ibn Hadi
 - In history books its not mentioned how Ammara ended up in Mecca by herself, it seems like her mother had passed away by this point
 - She is 7-8 yo at this time
 - As the muslims are leaving Mecca, she comes to Ali (her cousin) and grabs his leg asking him to take her with him. Ali hands her to Fatima and asks the Prophet ﷺ who is going to have hadhana (custody)
- Deciding hadhana

- They all want it and start arguing
- Ali says she is my niece (actually his cousin) and my wife is related too
- Jaafer says I have the same, and my wife is her khala (Asma bint Umays)
- Then Zaid ibn Harith says her father is my brother (referring to the muakhatt of hijra). He thought the right of the brotherhood after Hijra had the same weight as blood brotherhood
- The Prophet ﷺ then says the maternal aunt is the equivalent of the mother
- Another hadith shared
 - The Prophet ﷺ says to Zaid you are a close friend/slave calling him mawla
- Marriage of Umamah to Salama
 - People were suggesting the Prophet ﷺ marry her but he was a brother in ridaa with Hamza
 - He married Umamah to the son of Umm Salama instead
 - He then tells Umm Salama, am I taking care of Salama? Kind of as a joke
 - Some mention Salama was the spokesperson in his mothers nikkah, the Prophet ﷺ was returning the favor in a way

Nikkah to Maymuna

- Details
 - Last marriage in the life of the Prophet ﷺ
 - Half sisters with Asma bint Umays
 - Full sisters with the Lubabas (Umm Al Fadl/wife of Abbas, wife of walid)
 - The sisters were known as believing sisters
 - Her original name was Barra, and the Prophet ﷺ changed it
 - She was 26 yo and widowed twice
- Maymuna makes Umm Al Fadl her waqil in marriage after the death of her second husband
 - A person can become your agent, who can fully conduct your business or nikkah on your behalf
 - Narrations don't mention that she ever did hijra, she was still in Mecca
 - Umm Al Fadl goes straight to the Prophet ﷺ and proposes
- Nikkah and walima
 - The Prophet ﷺ sends Abu Rafi to accept while Abbas represents Maymuna
 - The nikkah technically took place in Mecca so the Prophet ﷺ offers to have a walima in Mecca inviting the kuffar, and extending the stay
 - They say we're not interested, get out
 - They get to an outskirt place called Sarif and have the walima there
- Death
 - Maymuna also dies in Sarif, in 51 AH
 - It was on her way to hajj
 - Abdullah ibn Abbas buried her there and prayed her janazah
 - Aisha praised her and said she feared Allah more than any of us and maintained ties of kinship more than any of us
- Brought up discussion
 - Did the Prophet ﷺ conduct the nikkah in ihram or not?

- Not hugely relevant

Death of Zeinab/Muslims of Hdaybiyya/Mimbar

Date Covered: 2/18, 2/19 @ 0915

Death of Zeinab

- Context
 - 8 AH
 - She fell off her carriage, had a miscarriage and was injured
 - For the last 5 years she has been injured and struggling
 - The Prophet ﷺ spoke about her
 - She was 30 yo
- Fiqh of washing bodies
 - The Prophet ﷺ did not wash her body
- Her washing
 - Umm Ayman, Fatima, and Sawda
 - The Prophet ﷺ told them what to do, and when you're done call me
 - Then he gave them his shawl
 - Narrations mentions he was very sad
 - He also dug her grave
 - He sat next to her grave after and made dua
- Janazah
 - Some add details
 - He looked more said when he sat next to her grave
 - Then he started smiling
 - The sahaba asked him. He was thinking about the constriction of the grave, and asked Allah to make it easy on her. After he made dua Allah alleviated it, but she was screaming so loud that everyone in Madina would be able to hear it.
- Squeezing of the grave
 - Some people get forgiven in dunya, some when in the grave, some on the DOJ etc
 - The squeezing will be different for everyone
- The Prophet ﷺ announces a target on Habbab

Islam of Amr ibn Aas

- Context
 - Saffar 8AH
 - Treaty of Hdaybiyya still active
 - See explanation below
- Amr ibn Aas narration
 - Mecca has thrown pieces of its liver to you
 - After Khandak (where they saw the destructive wind) they start to realize there is a level of divine protection
 - Amr ibn Aas starts talking to the people around

- He says, my idea is that we go live under Najashi (who he would rather live under than the Prophet ﷺ)
- His people all think that is a good idea
- He tells them to gather gifts for Najashi, and says najashi likes animal skin
- Amr ibn Aas with Najashi
 - As they are sitting Amr ibn Umayya Ad Dhamri comes in and then walks back out
 - I think if I tell Najashi to kill him, he'll let me
 - Then he went and bowed to Najashi. Najashi asks about the gifts
 - This man that just walked by is the messenger of our enemy
 - Najashi got so angry that he hit himself in the face so hard that he broke his nose
 - Amr ibn Aas was very scared, backtracks and says I am sorry
 - Najashi says you want me to hand over the messenger of the one who Musa and Namus comes to
 - Najashi then tells Amr ibn Aas to accept islam. Ibn Aas says let me give you bayya
 - Meaning that Ibn Aas accepted islam through a tabi'i
- Ibn Aas goes back
 - He is hiding his islam
 - Bumps into Khalid ibn Walid
 - Asks him where are you going
 - Khalid says thats it, this guys is a prophet ﷺ
 - They both go to Madina
- How they were able to leave Mecca despite the treaty
 - 1: Quraish didnt demand their return. The reason the Prophet ﷺ let them accept islam and did not send them back to Mecca is because technically if someone wanted to make sure they were coming back they would retrieve them
 - 2: They returned to Mecca, just in expeditions. He sends them in Mecca to expeditions instead, which is a tactical way of handling it
 - The condition is not that they have to live in Mecca, but just that they can't live in Madina. So it is short of enough of a time window to "get away" with it
- In Madina
 - Khalid gives bayya first
 - Ibn Aas puts his hand forward and the draws it back says, I am giving bayya on the condition that all of my sins are forgiven
 - The Prophet ﷺ accepting islam and hijra both erase sins
 - The Prophet ﷺ says Ibn Aas accepted both islam and imaan

Islam of Khalid ibn Walid and Uthman ibn Talha

- Narration
 - When Allah wanted to bless me he put islam in my heart
- Backstory
 - Every time we fought the muslims I felt like nothing was working
 - At Hudaibiyya, when they took a different path and Khalid was trying to get to them
 - Then when he saw them praying, he felt that the Prophet ﷺ was protected by something

- How the Prophet ﷺ evaded him was not making sense
- He also realized Hudaibiyya would make islam spread
- Khalid decides to go to Rome
 - As he is thinking this, becoming christian etc
 - Then the muslims came for umrah
 - And his brother wrote him the letter
 - The letter made him decide on islam
- His dream
 - That he was in a constricted and droughted place
 - Then he moved to a city with greenery
 - When he got to Madina and he told Abu Bakr he interpreted it
- Talking to others
 - He left with Safwan ibn Umayya
 - You see what is going on, if Muhammad gets power so do we
 - But his dad and brother got killed in Badr
 - Then he tries ikrimah, doesn't work
 - Then he tries Uthman bin Talha (10 of his family members got killed in Uhud)
- Leaving
 - They meet before fajr at a designated spot
 - That's when they bump into Amr ibn Aas
 - They reach Madina
- Meeting the Prophet ﷺ
 - Who was very excited
 - Khalid's brother was excited too, said hurry up
 - The Prophet ﷺ was smiling the whole time
 - Says I knew someone as smart as you would get something good
- Dua for Khalid
 - What about
 - Forgive him for every step he took to deter others
- Khalid says, after I accepted there is no one that the Prophet ﷺ was better to than me

Making a Mimbar

- The mimbar was very simple, just an elevated tree trunk
 - However as the population increased, the sahaba suggested a mimbar
 - He kept pushing it off but eventually asked for it
- Contacting a woman
 - A woman from the Ansar 3-4 AH offered her slave make one, had good carpentry skills
 - The Prophet ﷺ said to go and find her when this time came
- Lesson: Not over using this kind of thing ("a woman built the mimbar")
 - Nobody was surprised by this
 - It was a normal event
 - Sometimes the identities get blown out of proportion
 - Comes out of a defensiveness

- The build
 - 2 steps and then a platform
 - Or 3 steps and then a platform
- The tree
 - That the Prophet ﷺ used to lean on
 - It started crying, loud enough to disturb the masjid
 - Sounded like a baby camel that lost its mother
 - The Prophet ﷺ got off the mimbar and hugged the tree
 - He later said if I hadn't done that it would've cried until the DOJ
 - Hasan Al Basri says, If a tree cried like that, how should we be
- Lesson/Story
 - Sh. Abdul Aziz came into the classroom the other day and muhammadun rasoolullah jameel was on the screen (we were learning about badal, went overtime in class lol)
 - He got very emotional
 - Shows how things leave an impact on people
- The offer made to the tree
 - The tree was offered jannah
 - He says that it wants to be in jannah, and then they cut it down
- Statement of Malik
 - Ustuwatool hannana: the tree, named after the sound of its crying
 - Malik says it is the most virtuous place

Battle of Muttah

Date Covered: 2/20 @ 0942, 2/20 1136,

- Details
 - 8 AH
 - One of the messengers sent was Harith bin Umair
 - Sent to the Busra of Syria
 - One of the leaders of Ghassan kills him before the letter can be delivered
 - The only one to be killed
 - This was a big deal
 - Ghassan had already decided to create an army, this escalated it
- The Prophet ﷺ's army
 - 3000 people
 - To Ghassan on the border of the empire
 - Chain of command
 - Zaid ibn Haritha
 - Jaafer ibn Abu Talib
 - Abdullah ibn Rawaha
- Reactions
 - They realize Zaid and Jaafer will pass away
 - They don't know directly but there is a heavy indication due to the Prophet ﷺ specifying a chain of command
 - Jaafer says he wasn't expecting it, and the Prophet ﷺ says just go
 - Context: Jaafer has a lot of experience leading battles, wonders why Zaid was put first
 - This comes back up in the expedition of Usama bin Zaid, where they question why a 17 yo is leading. The Prophet ﷺ says then that they are questioning Usama just like they questioned his father Zaid

Narration of Abdullah ibn Rawaha Before the Battle

- Abdullah had tooth pain
 - The Prophet ﷺ made dua and it healed
- Abdullah starts crying as the army is leaving
 - Not crying because I care about this dunya, nor am I going to miss any of you
 - It's a massive disparity in power
 - I heard the Prophet ﷺ reciting an ayah and it reminded me
 - Every single person is going to have to cross over jahannam
 - He has many stories getting emotional over this ayah
 - They start making dua for him
 - Then ibn Rawaha starts saying poems
- Ibn Rawaha's poems of dua
 - Forgive all my sins

- Someone strikes me with a sword that my blood gushes so much that it creates foam
- Or a spear rips my liver into pieces, so that everyone passing by says “Allah ﷻ guided him as a warrior”
- He basically wants to become a symbol for other
- Lesson: Asking for a virtuous death
 - A lot of people think this comes off really aggressive
 - Same as with Abdullah ibn Jahsh's dua in Uhud
 - Everyone should ask for afyah, and should not ask for death if its to escape hardship
 - However you are allowed to ask for a virtuous death
- Ibn Rawaha hyping himself on the way out
 - He says: If i dont fight in a way that saves me from jahannam, i dont know what im doing
 - For the army leaving, standard procedure was to camp outside madina for a bit to make sure everything is ready
 - He was fully caught up in the poetry (that's why poetry is called shahr/shihr meaning ? 0951)
 - He starts singing, kinda
- Narration by the kid Zaid bin Arqam
 - I was an orphan and ibn Rawaha was my caretaker
 - As I was walking with him, I heard him singing this song “If you send me off and pack my bags and Im 4 days past [place] you can consider yourself a widow. I am never coming back. I am going with the muslims and they are leaving me in that place. You are completely alone you are on your own. I dont care if I'm buried” (as if singing to his wife)
 - Zaid starts crying, ibn Rawaha grabs a stick and hits him. Why are you crying, whats the issue if I die shaheed
- The Prophet ﷺ is at the camp to give a speech
 - Go and fight in the path of Allah ﷻ
 - Do not go near the monks
 - Describes the romans they are the targets
 - Don't kill women, trees, or destroy property
- Event
 - They leave madina and are now travelers
 - Ibn Rawaha wants to pray one more jummah with the Prophet ﷺ
 - He goes back to Madina to pray
 - The Prophet ﷺ sees him and asks what you are doing here
 - If you spent all the money in the world, you would not achieve the virtue they have achieved while traveling
- Lesson
 - He thinks he is doing the more virtuous thing but he is actually not
 - The virtuous thing to do is the thing you are responsible for in the moment
 - If I'm responsible for making taraweeh run smooth, and it hinges on me, then its not virtuous for me to be praying

- Ibn Rawaha got it wrong in this instance
- In another hadith, the Prophet ﷺ says, do you know how far they are? He says they are one day ahead (literally). Responds, in terms of virtue they are as far as the east and the west
- When it is the time to do something, your focus needs to be very directed
- If you end up in a situation where you wear a lot of hats, you prioritize the thing that is more dire
- Sheikh's personal input: doing the right things at the right time
 - Sheikh balancing SwB with teaching
 - If you don't prioritize properly, you will be doing the wrong thing at the wrong time
 - Figuring out the most virtuous ibadah in the moment with a full mind
 - Being able to compartmentalize is very important
 - Otherwise all of your deeds become insufficient
 - But you should always be asking yourself "What should I be doing right now?"

Deaths of the Chain of Command

- The ranks of the 3 in jannah
 - When the Prophet ﷺ narrates these sahaba and their deaths
 - He tells them Zaid was killed and I see him on a mimbar in Jannah
 - Then Jaafer, as a shaheed in jannah
 - Then he showed some hesitation
 - Sahaba think Ibn Rawaha might have made a mistake
 - The Prophet ﷺ says ibn Rawaha took the flag and was killed
 - I saw them being elevated on golden cushions but Ibn Rawaha's was a little lower because he hesitated
 - Either in battle or when he came to pray jummah
 - Delaying for even one second at the wrong time might not be something you recuperate from
- They reach Muttah
 - The place muttah
 - Preferred to pronounce muutah over muttah
- Ghassan army
 - The Ghassan had heard of the muslims coming through spies
 - They get reinforcements from Rome
 - Estimated to be from 80k-250k
 - They reach the outskirts of the spot
 - They are unsure of whether to continue
- Ibn Rawaha's Speech
 - Ibn Rawaha gives a speech
 - The things yo
 - We don't fight based on resources, the only weapon we have is deen
 - Theres only 2 possibilities
 - Same ayat we read in Uhud
- The muslims are lining up

- ? is freaking out, hasn't seen live victory yet
- Other sahaba say, you didn't see badr
- Zaid
 - Killed by a spear
 - The Prophet ﷺ is seeing the battle live through wahi
 - Announces Zaid has been killed in Madina
- Jaafer
 - Takes the flag off of Zaid's body
 - As he's getting off of his camel, in the middle of the battle, he realizes he is going to die
 - He cuts the legs of his camel
 - The Prophet ﷺ narrates it to sahaba real time
 - Jaafer recites a poem: How beloved is Jannah, how close are we to it, they are all going to jahannam
 - His right arm is cut off
 - Then his left arm is cutoff
 - Then he was killed, some mention his body was cut in half
 - The Prophet ﷺ says I saw Jaafer like an angel, with two wings
 - He's narrating real time, crying
- The Prophet ﷺ's dreams of Jaafer
 - Later on, he sees a dream. I saw Jaafer flying in jannah with wings colored in blood
 - He would be called by his nickname Dhul Janahayn the son of two wings
 - Missed detail
 - The Prophet ﷺ narrates to Jaafer's wife Asma
 - I saw a dream that Jibreel, Mikaeel, and Israfeel all came with Jaafer and said Convey my salam to Asma.
- The flag bear
 - Very important and puts the bearer at risk
- Abdullah ibn Rawafa grabs the flag
 - Sahaba mentioned that he looked hesitant
 - He was telling himself: I swear to go you are going to go fight or I am going to force you. Why do you hate jannah? Why do you think you are so important that you can't die? If you are not killed you are going to die another way
 - Then the Prophet ﷺ announces that he was killed. And while he is crying, says they do not want to be with us
 - In another wording, it would not make me happier that they were to come back safely
- Lesson: Being reassured the virtues of loss and difficulty
 - Condolences in places of war
 - Every culture that has war in it for a long time will kind of "flip the script"
 - Some mothers in Gaza with shaheed sons will celebrate at it
 - Not necessarily a sunnah to do that
 - However it is a correct emotion to feel happiness that someone has returned to Allah ﷻ
 - The virtues of certain losses and difficulties are very reassuring

- Lesson: Emotional stability rooted in yaqeen in akhira
 - You become much more emotionally stable when you have yaqeen in akhira
 - Really hard to reassure a non muslim

Tactical Retreat by Khalid

- Khalid ibn Walid takes lead
 - He refuses, because he just became muslim
 - They push him to do it and he feels out of place, but he has knowledge of military
 - This is when the Prophet ﷺ says "One of the swords of Allah ﷻ has taken the flag"
 - Khalid later shares that he broke 9 swords. Meaning it was chaotic, he fighting hard
 - One of his swords was from Yemen and that was the only one that did not break
 - The Prophet ﷺ says the battle has reached its peak and then night come
- Khalid makes tactics
 - Lighting fires in multiple tents
 - Switching the sides of the armies
 - Makes it seem to the enemy like there are new faces
 - People whose only job was to run between the hills on their horses
 - To make it look like there are new reinforcements coming
 - In the meantime, the army slowly starts retreating
 - The position was also limited, for the front line
- Battle ends with retreat
 - Ibn Al Qayyim says this ended up being a mutual retreat
 - The Roman also realized it was futile
 - Support of Allah ﷻ and angels too
- They return to Madina
 - People tell them that they fled from the battlefield
 - Imagine a month journey there and back
 - The Prophet ﷺ tells them, they did not flee, they just took a strategic pause
- Why is this battle not considered "fleeing"
 - Army of Usama bin Zaid gets sent back later
 - Told him go where your father was killed
- Shaheed
 - 12 shaheed
 - See slide for full list

Event: Argument over Spoils

- Khalid gets into an argument with Awf bin Malik
 - Awf had killed somebody and taken his armor, considered to be his spoils
 - He had very fancy weaponry with gold stitched into it
 - Khalid says no, this needs to be distributed
 - Awf says don't you know these are our spoils
 - Awf threatens Khalid, and Khalid refuses
- Awf goes to the Prophet ﷺ

- But phrases it in a way that makes him seem right
- The Prophet ﷺ tells Khalid to give back the armor. Awf says, See I told you
- The Prophet ﷺ realizes there was an argument, asks what did you say?
- He hears the full story. Then he tells Khalid not to give anything back
- Says: Are you going to leave my leaders alone? Does it make sense that when they make a good decision you benefit but when they do something bad you blame them?'

Lesson: The Etiquette of Being a Follower

- People in positions of leadership are alleviated from criticism (to an extent)
 - The position of leadership. More responsibility instantly, not one that alleviates any accountability
 - However it does alleviate criticism. Anyone who is a valid leader is not someone who should be getting criticized every time they make a bad decision
 - There is a level of authority you give to the leader, that you don't argue back with and that you don't scrutinize
 - You give good leaders maximum slack
- Islam gives respect to power dynamics
 - In every relationship that exists, there is a level of power dynamic. People organize themselves in that way naturally
 - When that system exists, Islam gives it a lot of respect
 - The job of the follower is to acknowledge for example that the ego of a leader is more sensitive
 - Islam doesn't live in "fairyland", it acknowledges that leaders have egos
 - Important for us not to be people who nitpick our leaders
 - Doing so is a sign of khawarij, it builds up an attitude of disdain and is rooted in individualism
- Applying to our lives
 - Not getting in the habit of talking about our leaders
 - Not sharing small things, even if they are not that significant
 - Once the attitude of disdain spreads it is very hard to get rid of
 - This was what happened to Uthman too, the talk about him not being at Badr
 - Shaytan gets validated by both the speaker and the listener
- Story
 - Person asking about her own husband, sharing what he did with everyone and then everyone validates her
 - Ends up leading to something much worse
- Story
 - First night. Saw a camera, asked what it was. Shouldn't have done that
 - Building resentment on a decision that is not that big
 - Can spin a big narrative on how things are
 - Often leads to big fallouts
 - Shaytan can put in your mind that you are doing it for the benefit of others but all it actually does is cause people to lose respect for each other

- Example of the people of Kuffa
 - Kuffa was a community that decides the leader, has a habit of being overly critical
 - Would send away all of their governors
 - When somebody is in charge, you respect them for your own benefit
- Pointer
 - Not being reactionary
 - Wait 3 days after an event to bring things up, positive or negative

Death of Jaafer

Date Covered: 2/23 @ 0915

- 3 days after the death of Jaafer he went back to his family and told them to stop crying
 - Your state needs to change after 3 days
 - The only exception is for the wife who loses her husband, who has 4m10d
- The Prophet ﷺ shaved the heads of the children
 - Why? It was a thing in jahiliya to show grief by being unkempt
 - He made the kids cut their hair and look put together
 - He continued to comfort them
- Narrated by Abdullah ibn Jaafer
 - He says: We were all kids and we were brought to the Prophet ﷺ as if we were little bird
 - After cutting the hair, Abdullah resembles by akhlaq
 - Then he grabbed my hand and made dua for us
 - Dua: Take care of this family
 - Asma says, are you worried about them in dunya? Dont worry about them
- The Prophet ﷺ is with Aisha when someone comes and says the family is still mourning
 - I told them to stop but they kept going
 - Tells them to go back a second time and a third time
 - In the third time, the Prophet ﷺ says throw dirt in their mouths
 - He is expressing annoyance
 - Aisha starts yelling at the man. You cant get the job done and you're bothering the Prophet ﷺ
- The Prophet ﷺ tells Fatima and some relatives
 - Make food for the family of the deceased
 - So that they don't have to worry about eating
 - In jahiliya the family of the deceased would make food and feed other
 - They had a formalized culture of this, specifically feeding people on behalf of the deceased
 - It creates a big burden on them, this alleviates it
- In another moment
 - The Prophet ﷺ walked into the house
 - She is crying, and says Oh my uncle, oh my uncle
 - The Prophet ﷺ didn't say anything but he didn't like verbal expressions of grief
 - The Prophet ﷺ says If anybody is going to cry, it would be over someone like Jaafer

- This day stayed in the memory

 - The chasing and fires, he says noted
- When the army comes back
 - Asks why
 - I know they have reinforcements
 - Didn't want to give away our position
 - As for praying, I didn't know what to do but Allah جل جلاله said don't kill yourself
 - The Prophet ﷺ started laughing out loud
 - This shows an example of taqleel
- This is when Amr ibn Al Aas asks who is the most beloved to you
 - Right now he feels very special to the Prophet ﷺ
 - He felt like he has to love him the most
 - His son narrates this, and how his father stopped asking so wouldn't come last
- Technically a violation of Hudaibiyya
 - Sends Amr ibn Al Aas to Bahrain
- The Prophet ﷺ makes up in the middle of the night one night while traveling and makes dua for Amr
 - Does it two more times
 - Then he says I'm making dua for Amr ibn Aas
 - Sahaba ask why him
 - He would say about his charity that it was from Allah جل جلاله
 - One sahaba who witnessed this said later that Amr ibn Aas was on the side of Muawiyya and he decided to follow him just because the Prophet ﷺ praised him
- Side story from this expedition
 - A sahabi named Rafi ibn Abi Rafi
 - I used to be christian and my name was sarjis
 - I knew the desert better than anyone, and I was a criminal who raided caravans

- He had a very specific tactic
- Would fill up ostrich eggs with water and bury them in the desert, so when the caravans stopped for water I already had some
- When he became muslim he decided hes going to stick to the best person he sees
- He decides to stay with Abu Bakr
- Abu Bakr was wearing an over coat, and he would put it on the ground and sit on it, and on his camel
- Shows that he was a simple guy
- Rafi says, teach me something and Abu Bakr says even if you didn't ask I would have taught you
- He tells him the 5 pillars, do ghusl from janaba, and never put yourself in a position of leadership over two muslims
- He tells him this because of what he had seen during this expedition
- Rafi agrees to all except the leadership one, and asks about it
- Abu Bakr explains that there was fighting until people accepted islam, willingly and unwillingly. When people are muslim, they are considered to be under the protection of Allah ﷻ. You are going to ??
- Abu Bakr is in summary saying not to be in charge
- Rafi comes back and asks him how he is khalifa (after the Prophet ﷺ)
- He answers took the position out of worry for the ummah

Sif Al Bahr/ Khabt

- Details
 - Rajab 8AH
 - Led by Abdullah ibn Jarra
 - Named Khabt meaning dry leaves because it difficult and they ate leaves

- Trying to fit in the eye socket and under the rib
- Then they put Qays (the biggest guy) on the biggest camel
- They ate until they got big, and scooped oil
- They didn't know the ruling yet
- They ask the Prophet ﷺ about the ocean
 - Anything that is dead from the ocean is halal
 - Difference of opinion among ulama between things that are rotten and things that the ocean "pushes" out
- Outcome: missed the caravan
- Lesson: Recognizing leaders and putting aside ego
 - They were all together in Mecca
 - They still had some recognition of the respect
 - Might have felt, this person is not that different why is he leading?
 - Shows a similar lesson, putting aside the ego when a leader is assigned

4/12 @ 0914

- The messenger, Amr ibn Salim arrives
 - Stands in the masjid, does not give salam and just starts reciting a poem
 - I am calling upon Muhammad, on the treaty from a long time before that got stronger after islam. In this place Watir they killed us in the night while we were praying, and they tried to capture people at Qudaa. Help us and supporters, call the sahaba
 - He's hyping everyone up
 - Then the Prophet ﷺ says: It's done, you have our support
 - Some narrations: May Allah ﷻ not help me if I don't help you

 - This cloud is telling me to help you
 - As if to say everything in the world is telling them to help
- Budayl bin Warqa

 - He comes and gives the same news

Abu Sufyan Attempting to Negotiate

- Quraish are not sure if the Prophet ﷺ knows yet but are worried and regretful

 - Then he goes straight to the house of Umm Habiba
 - He tries to sit on the Prophet ﷺ's cushion
 - She calls him a filthy kuffar
 - He says you went down hill after coming to Madina
- Abu Sufyan meets with the Prophet ﷺ
 - Is assuming the Prophet ﷺ doesn't know
 - Plays it cool, asks if everything is okay
 - The Prophet ﷺ asks did anything happen
 - Abu Sufyan says no, just wants to make sure everything's good
 - The Prophet ﷺ ignores him, and then Abu Bakr ignores him, then Umar curses him out, then Uthman ignores him, then Ali ignores him, then Fatima, then he talks to 5yo Hussain
 - Wants anyone to talk to him, and help him speak to the Prophet ﷺ
 - Umar says: any agreement and protection we have may Allah ﷻ destroy it
 - Abu Sufyan asked Fatima to send Hussain
- Ali tells Abu Sufyan to announce his protection of Quraish
 - Ali says stand in front of everyone and announce your tribal protection
 - Ali knows there's no chance this will work, is pranking him
 - Tells the Prophet ﷺ directly
 - And the Prophet ﷺ says, "That's what you are saying Abu Sufyan"
 - Everyone is looking at Abu Sufyan like he's crazy
- Abu Sufyan returns to Mecca
 - Tells them he couldn't secure safety
 - Nobody would talk to him
 - Says Ali was gentle, told him to announce protection
 - The Quraish make him realize it was a prank

Preparation of the Muslim Army

- Aisha starts packing for the Prophet ﷺ
 - Told to be very discreet
 - Abu Bakr walks in and starts asking where the Prophet ﷺ is going
 - She doesn't answer, even though he is asking specific locations
- Lesson:
 - The level of secrecy that is trained in their mind
 - Even though Abu Bakr is her father and the Prophet ﷺ's close friend

- The Prophet ﷺ walks in and sees Abu Bakr is frustrated
 - He starts asking the Prophet ﷺ
 - The Prophet ﷺ says yes when he asks is it Quraish
 - Abu Bakr asks dont we have a treaty
 - And Prophet ﷺ says havent you heard about Kuzaa
- The prophet ﷺ tells everyone to get ready
 - Calls outskirts villages to come to Madina to Ramadan
- He makes dua
 - Block the Quraish from finding out that we are preparing an army
 - So that we can surprise them
- The Prophet ﷺ sets up checkpoint on every road
 - If anyone suspicious comes, send them back
 - A information siege
 - Protecting info coming in and out
 - High level intelligence training
- The Prophet ﷺ sends Abu Qutada on an expedition in the north
 - This is a misdirection tactic
 - So that if theres anyone collecting info in the north they think thats where the Prophet ﷺ is focusing

Treachery of Hatib bin Abi Baltah

- The Prophet ﷺ announces that we are going to Mecca, and Hatib bin Abi Balta starts panicking because his family has no tribal protection
 - He is worried, all the people who are not protected will be killed
 - He writes a letter and gives it to a non muslim singer woman, who pretended to accept islam
 - Some mention, she pretended and came to the Prophet ﷺ saying after Badr she was out of work because there were no celebrations. She took money from the Prophet
 - Hatib helps her avoid the checkpoints, and the Prophet ﷺ gets wahi that this is happening
- The Prophet ﷺ sends warriors to confront her at Rawdah ?
 - She denies having the letter
 - They say they'll search her head to toe
 - She takes it out and gives it to them
 - Letter: this is from Hatib...
- Hatib's reason
 - I knew that Allah ﷻ would give us victory
 - But my family has no protection
 - Is coming from a genuine place
- The Prophet ﷺ's response
 - Umar says he is a munafiq, lets kill him
 - The Prophet ﷺ says, He was at Badr, how do you know, its very likely that Allah ﷻ looked at the people of Badr and said do what you want I forgive everything

- Umar starts crying, says Allah ﷻ and his messenger know best

Islamic View on Accountability/Reintegration

- Lesson; When someone has a track record of good, you should have a level of respect for it
 - The Prophet ﷺ is not saying Badris are infallible
 - But he is showing that he is someone sincere that just made a mistake
 - You have to decide what is considered “crossing the line”
 - Hatib wasn’t doing out of greed or hypocrisy but out of concern for his family
 - Recognizing that people have moments of weakness
 - It's a judgment call, how the leader reacts depends on the threat of the situation
 - Two things to balance when judging the gravity of a person's actions
 - 1: The harm of having the person in society
 - 2: The harm to the person
- Related Hadith: Don't support shaytan against your brother
 - The Prophet ﷺ said this hadith in the context of hudud
 - If a person is getting penalized already and then you contribute to them getting ostracized even more (like how it happens in this country), you are actually supporting shaytan in encouraging them to do more wrong
- Lesson: Islam doesn't identify people by their sins
 - If you make it easy for someone to reintegrate they will change a lot faster
 - Hence the related principles of not exposing sins and not speaking harshly of people or calling them by their crimes/sins
 - Nobody gets “thrown in the garbage”, even if someone makes a mistake
 - Sometimes forcing yourself into an identity can actually cause harm
 - If you take the identity of a criminal you feel the need to play the part
- Lesson: Raising the threshold of our emotional response to people's mistakes
 - Like if Mifthaah was its own civilization and someone we all know did something wrong
 - It would be difficult to react to them normally, would have an extreme response
 - In situations much lighter than this we react very strongly
 - However the threshold the Prophet ﷺ set was extremely high
 - Anyone who has a foundation of goodness, you should cover for them
 - You don't have to give them the same status they had before their mistake, but you still treat them with dignity
 - Cancel culture has made this a foreign concept in our world
 - Have to ask yourself if you want what is best for that person
- Realistic steps for dealing with people who have made a mistake
 - In an ideal situation the community leaders decide what happens, there is someone with authority over the person, and there is communal trust
 - However where there is no leader, or if the leader is not reliable, it becomes very difficult
 - On an individual level. Once it is clear that the person/their action is not going to cause any more harm, you should be normal with them

- Examples in of reintegration in Seerah: the woman who stole from the house of the Prophet

صلى الله
عليه وسلم

- In the beginning the sahaba sent Usama bin Zaid to intervene on her behalf
- The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم says Your are trying to intercede on a matter which Allah جل جلاله set the punishment
- They ended up cutting of her arm
- However she did tawbah, hence why her name is not mentioned, and why other details about her and why she did it are not known
- Aisha narrates the she and the woman would talk to each other and visit each other
- The reintegration was impeccable
- You choose whether or not to solidify an image of someone, and make everything else they do a confirmation of that image

The Conquest

Date Covered: 2/26 @ 0917, 2/26 @ 1325

- The Prophet ﷺ is leaning on the door of the kaaba
 - Starts with takbeer
 - A lot to be learned
 - This is the time to go crazy and drag the enemy through the streets
 - But the Prophet ﷺ is already thinking about how to stabilize a society
- Says: Every single form of honor that existed in jahiliya is destroyed. The only thing that is staying is the roles of taking care of the Kaaba. Allah ﷻ has removed the filth of jahiliya, and tribalism is gone. A righteous person has value in his eyes and a wretched person has no value, He has created all ?? and Adam is from him. (then recites ayah) Nations that are taking pride in forefathers will either stop or they will be like a dung beetle pushing its dung.
 - Notice, he goes straight to justice, equality, balancing a society
 - This is how leaders of hikma handle things

- Lesson:
 - These are all late redemptions
 - Some of us feel like we are too old, wish we could go back
 - Supposed to use this feeling as a way to work harder
- 3 people that were actually executed
 - Miqyas ibn Subabah: executed by Numaylah bin Abdullah, who was from the same tribe. His sister said a long poem (He is embarrassing his whole tribe, and he made all the guests of the winter so sad, find me an eye that ever saw somebody like Mikyas..)
 - Abdullah bin Khatl: he pretended to accept islam, killed an Ansari, ran back to Mecca, and would incite violence with poetry. At first he was ready to fight, later he hid inside the cloth of the Kaaba. The Prophet ﷺ said kill him
 - His slave girl: Was executed along with him. There were 2. They would travel among the tribes singing poetry. One accepted islam the other did not
 - Huwaylith bin Nukay: Unclear what he did. Executed by Ali. Might've attacked the Prophet ﷺ's daughters while they were making hijra

Announcement and Speech

- Narrated by a Sahabi whose name was changed in real time
 - Muti ibn Al Aswad (used to be Al Aas which means the disobedient)
- The announcement
 - The city of Mecca is never going to be invaded after this day
 - Someone can say that Mecca was destroyed
 - But it was never by non-Muslims
 - It was not a ghazwa, there were always Muslim armies
 - Mecca is going to remain until the end of times
 - It will never return to the hands of non-Muslims
 - Quraish are never going to be executed
 - Meaning they are all going to accept Islam
- Two reasons for hadith to be narrated
 - Sabab ul wurud: why the Prophet ﷺ said a hadith
 - Sabab ul tahdeeth: why the Sahaba narrated the story
- The narration
 - The sabab al tahdeeth is very interesting
 - Narrated by Abu Shuraih
 - When Amr ibn Zubair was invading Mecca, to fight against his own brother
 - I came and told him what the Prophet ﷺ said
 - "We were there at Fath of Mecca..."
- The speech
 - Someone from Khuzaa had killed someone from Khuzay. The Prophet ﷺ said:
 - Allah ﷻ made Mecca a haram.. Not permissible to spill blood, cut a tree
 - Not permissible to invade this city, only permissible for me and only for a short period of the day.
 - I want everybody to know that it has gone back to its sanctity
 - Anyone who tells you that the Prophet ﷺ did it, say not halal for you
 - Hasn't been any benefit to this, I am going to pay the blood money
- Blood money
 - Life for a life
 - Or blood money
- Back to the sabab tahdeeth
 - He's telling Amr ibn Zubair this to show him he can't invade Mecca
 - Mecca doesn't protect any criminal
 - Abu Shuraih says I was there with the Prophet ﷺ, I'm just doing what he told me to
- In other narrations
 - He also said: Allah ﷻ stopped the elephants of Abu Raha but allowed us to enter

Post Fath Situations

- Situation 1: The ansar start getting worried
 - They start to talk amongst one another
 - He likes his home land, maybe he is getting sentimental about staying here
 - The Prophet ﷺ gathers the Ansar
 - They say some people were saying that
 - He responds there is no way I am living here, I'll live with you and I'll die with you
 - That slight ill assumption is coming out of love
- Lesson: Feeling abandoned after sacrificing
 - This is a phenomenon with the Ansar, they put in a lot of sacrifice and now that they see things changing they become worried
 - Original Masjid Uthman people who were doing everything, very small core group of people
 - Theres people who have been working behind the scenes who aren't recognized
 - Shaytan naturally will come and whisper
 - Might not end up getting the attention from the leaders that they were before
 - The Prophet ﷺ calms them down now but it reappears at the Battle of Hunayn
 - This is a natural thing that happens everywhere
 - Even for us seekers, we get priority over the other years/MII, they probably feel abandoned
 - However the natural progression of things is that you see each other less as you progress
- Side topic: How long the Prophet ﷺ stayed in Mecca
 - 10-20 days
 - The entire time he was shortening his salah
 - Hanafi: 15 days of shortening
 - Sometime people use this as evidence it can be longer
 - The residents were told to pray 4
- Situation 2: Tells them to fix the boundaries of the haram
- Situation 3: Khalid kills people from the Tribe of Julayma
 - Sends people to destroy the remaining idols
 - Uzza was outside of Mecca
 - Khalid ibn Walid told also to give dawah to the tribe of Julayma

 - Meaning we are leaving all the other religions
 - Khalid thinks they are making fun of him
 - Starts killing them
 - Comes back to the Prophet ﷺ
 - The Prophet ﷺ raises his hands and make duas that he has nothing to do with it
- Situation 4: Argument between Khalid and Abdurrahman bin Awf
 - Abdurrahman says you're just continuing your beef with that tribe from Jahiliya
 - Abdr bin Awfs father was close to the tribe of Julayam
 - Khalid says youre just saying that bc theyre your dads friend
 - Basically they are both accusing each other
 - Khalid bin Walid cusses him out
 - Abdurrahman goes to the Prophet ﷺ

- The Prophet ﷺ says why are you insulting people of Badr
- You would not be able to catch up
- Don't insult my companions and don't curse people who have been with me
- Situation 5: More idols destroyed
 - Suwa by ?
 - Manat by ?
- Situation 6: The woman that stole a cloth from him
 - Send Usama bin Zaid
 - Her hand cut off
- Situation 7: Son of Walidati Zamaa
 - Utbah ibn Abi Waqas he had told Saad ibn Abi Waqas that the child of the slave is mine so take care of it for me
 - Saad comes to the Prophet ﷺ
 - Then Abd bin Zamaa stands up and says, this is my blood brother and they argue
 - Then the Prophet ﷺ checked, who does he look like the most
 - But despite the fact that he looked like Utbah, he gave the child to Abd bin Zamaa
 - Says: The child belongs to Abd
 - The child is attributed to a valid relationship (firash), which technically belongs to Zamaa as the slave owner of the child's mother
 - Zina prohibits lineage
 - The Prophet ﷺ still tells Sawda, where hijab around this child (even though she is technically the child's sister)
 - Even if we have lots of evidence, it is not a valid reason to establish the relationship
 - Just out of respect for the relationship of nikkah
- 3: last rulings
 - Allah ﷻ and his messenger prohibit
 - Selling dead animals, ? and ?
 - Someone asked, what about the fat of dead animals
 - Used for various things
 - The Prophet ﷺ says it is haram
 - May Allah ﷻ destroy bani isreal, when Allah ﷻ made it forbidden they went around it
 - Any fat of an animal is prohibited
 - Things that have valid usages that are not part of the meat or fat are permissible

- 1: The Prophet ﷺ laughing at Umm Sulayms dagger
 - Umm Sulaym is with her husband
 - Abu Talha says come see what she is doing
 - She has a dagger in her overcoat
 - Some narrations mention she was pregnant
 - The Prophet ﷺ laughed at her
 - Ya Umm Sulaym, its okay we are good
- 2: Sahaba become overconfident
 - Biggest army to move in the life of the Prophet ﷺ
 - Some sahaba were speaking very confidently
 - Allah ﷻ speaks about it in the Quran
 - They were impressed by their own large numbers
 - But victory is not guaranteed all the time
- Lesson: Victory is not in umbers
 - In the beginning of Hunayn they were very close to being defeated
 - Allah ﷻ let you see that first and then he sent down angels
 - Numbers have nothing to do with victory
 - Hunayn is the same lesson as Badr but for the opposite reason, to humble them
- 3: Left in charge of Mecca: Attad bin Hussain ??

- The Prophet ﷺ left the same person in charge that was just talking about Bilal giving athaan
- Wisdom: Maintaining existing leadership
 - Plug islam into the society and keep going
 - It is better to leave the existing structures/leadership
 - On the contrary, western colonization is focused on erasing culture, and making people hate themselves
 - The post colonial mindset leave a toll on people and how they view themselves (ex Britain with India)
 - Islam has never done that with any country
- 4: The Prophet ﷺ narrates that muslims will follow the mistakes of the Jews and Christians
 - Pass by a tree named Dhatu Anwat, which was seen as a holy tree in jahiliya
 - They would hang their swords on it and pray
 - One of the new muslims asks the Prophet ﷺ for a tree like this for the muslims
 - The Prophet ﷺ responds, you are asking for the same thing Musa's people asked for
 - They are still attached to their previous symbolisms
 - Then the Prophet ﷺ says youre going to follow the path of the people before you, inch by inch, to the point that ?
 - Sahaba ask are you referring to the jews and christians? He responds who else
- Lesson
 - Warning of following the path of jews and christians
 - Jews famous mistakes: blending with paganism, looking for loopholes in commands, not being willing to accept instructions
 - Christians: overveneration of people as religious figures
 - Surah Baqara lists dozens of mistakes, not to show that they are terrible but as a warning
 - The Prophet ﷺ is guaranteeing the same
- Side topic: The mistakes of previous peoples in current day
 - The murjia: people who think saying la illaha illallah makes a person sinless.
 - This flavor of bidah (taking things too lightly, minimizing sins, no discipline or structure) takes it too far
 - The opposite is celebrity imam/scholar culture. People have always had respect for scholars but no in this way
 - Story: Sh. Omar Suleiman, being treated like a tourist attraction
 - People treating figures of the caliber
- Personal story
 - The famous sheikhs struggling to do umrah, having to cover their faces and stay in their hotel rooms
 - Saw one of the famous sheikhs of the haram
- Lesson/Reminder
 - You miss out on the benefit if you do not think this applies to you
 - Ask yourself do I do any of this
- 5: Angels defending the muslim camp from spies

- Malik bin Awf sends spies to check on the muslims
- They return injured
- There were men wearing white who were protecting the camp, was the angels
- The Prophet ﷺ looks at the enemy camp and says this will all be our spoils
- 6: Camp guarded by Anas ibn Abi Marthad Al Ghanawi, the Prophet ﷺ guarantees him Jannah
 - The Prophet ﷺ asks who will guard
 - He says he'll guard the camp
 - The Prophet ﷺ tells him: Go to x and stay on your horse the entire time
 - Then in the morning the Prophet ﷺ prays the sunnah of fajr, and asks for Anas
 - Sahaba say he prayed salah very quickly
 - He says glad tidings, he is coming back
 - Anas comes back and says salam, did not get off of his horse
 - The Prophet ﷺ says, you have guaranteed Jannah for yourself
- Virtues of protecting Muslims
 - He gets the reward of guarding
 - Previously spoken about in the topic of jihad (see Seerah (3))
 - Nobody would be able to move if not for the one protecting
 - The virtue of guarding carries into a lot of other things (travel, etc.)
 - It's very difficult to be in that position of being a guard
 - This general concept of taking the burden off the jamaa is very virtuous

The Battle

- Some leaders of Quraish leave
 - Now the armies are set up and its the day of Hunayn
 - Some of the leaders of Quraish left

- Incident with Shayba bin Uthman bin Abi Talha
 - Recap: Uthman bin Talha ibn Abi Talha is his cousin. Grandfather is Abu Talha, who had two sons. Shayba's father had been killed at Uhud but he technically came with the army of Muslims
 - He thinks, it would be easy to kill the Prophet ﷺ right now and decides he wants revenge. Then he sees Abbas and Abu Sufyan are near him and gets nervous
 - He sees an opening and is about to do it when a burst of fire comes, blinding him. Starts walking backward
 - The Prophet ﷺ says Ya Shayb (it's a term of endearment), Come close. Smacks him on the chest and says Ya Allah ﷻ remove Shaytan
 - Shayba says after this the Prophet ﷺ became most beloved to me
 - Later, after everything is over, the Prophet ﷺ says What Allah ﷻ wanted for you is better than what you wanted for yourself
- The Prophet ﷺ throws dirt and makes dua for them to be blinded and defeated
 - Then angels come down
 - Sahaba saw it

 - Abu Amr Al Ashari sent with a group to chase them down
 - Small skirmish, Durayd (from earlier) gets killed
- Abu Amr is shot with an arrow
 - He falls on the ground and Abu Musa sees him, asks if hes okay
 - He says go kill the guy that shot me so Abu Musa chases him. The guy is running away so Abu Musa says are you not embarassed. Trade blows, kills the guy
 - Then he goes back to Abu Amr
 - Allah ﷻ killed that guy. Pulls the arrow out and it starts pouring blood like a river
 - Abu Amr knew he was gonna die, says Go to the Prophet ﷺ and tell him to make dua for me. Tells Abu Musa you're in charge now. He passed away shortly after
- Abu Musa tells the Prophet ﷺ what happened with Abu Amr
 - He way laying on a small dusty mat
 - It had left irritation on his skin
 - Tell him what happened
 - The Prophet ﷺ makes wudhu and then makes dua
 - Lesson: Not a condition to make dua with wudhu but an etiquette of it
- The Prophet ﷺ making dua for Abu Amr
 - raised his hands so high his ribs could be seen
 - He makes dua for Abu Amr
 - Make him above your creation
 - Abu Musa says he wishes he had died
 - Asks to be included in the dua

- Amr ibn Rabia comes to the Prophet ﷺ and explains. The Prophet ﷺ says why does somebody kill someone else with ayn. Ayn is haqq
- The Prophet ﷺ says, make wudhu with this water and then says pour it on him
- Lesson: Overadmiration without asking Allah ﷻ to protect it
 - This method only works if you know who the person is
 - You can someone hasad and ayn without intending it
 - It is a concept that exists
 - Side wisdom: Why this kind of cure? The same way you cure the poison of a snake with its antivenom

- Khawarij from his lineage
 - The Prophet ﷺ tells Umar, this guy. he and his companions will recite the Quran but it will never go past their throats and it will pass through them the way an arrow does an animal
 - At some point in this guys lineage is the Khawarij. You are going to see how they pray and fast and think you don't know. You'll look at the arrow and you'll see no trace
 - The animal is islam. They are going to cause a lot of harm but are not going to have any traces left on them
 - The Prophet ﷺ says he is going to have a group of people who go so deep into deen that they start to nitpick, and try to be "too pious"

TS 1522

- Hadith on the love of wealth

- The Prophet ﷺ turns to Aasim bin Adi
- Responding to the bedouins
- He gives the imagery of two hungry starving wolves let loose on a lost flock of sheep
- The two wolves do not cause more damage than the love of wealth and honor on a person's deen
- Failure to protect your deen from greed and ambition
- Halima
 - Is also from the tribes of Hawazin
 - She comes and does ?
 - Abu Tufail narrates this (last sahabi to die)
 - Says he was a little kid at the time and Halima, the foster mother of the Prophet ﷺ came
- Ansar not getting any money
 - Some of the young ansar spoke amongst themselves
 - Said: May Allah جل جلاله forgive the Prophet ﷺ
 - He's giving them while not giving us though our swords are still dripping with their blood
 - The Prophet ﷺ hears about it from Abu Ubaida, that they are upset
 - Imagine being the Ansar who sacrificed all this time
- Lesson
 - Not shoving things under the rug is a sign of a good leader
 - Ex: All of A's friends are upset that Sheikh is always making fun of them. A, as their leader, can bring it up in a good way or he can just dismiss it
 - Knowing what the pulse is, knowing not to push the wrong buttons
- Abu Ubaida then says
 - He used to hold onto tribalism
 - He responds, I'm just a person from my tribe
 - The Prophet ﷺ was not pleased by this
- The Prophet ﷺ gathers the Ansar
 - Gives the beginning of khutba
 - Then asks the Ansar about their statement
 - Are you unhappy with me? Did I not come to you when you were completely misguided?
 - They say, of course ya rasoolullah
 - Then the Prophet ﷺ asks the muhajjireen
- The Prophet ﷺ says
 - If you wanted to say we took care of you provided you etc you could
 - But I dont feel the need to butter you guys up or water things down
 - Story: Sheikh Abdullah quoted this the other day when Sheikh asked him when hes coming back to teach class
 - Are you not happy that they take back goats while you take back me?
- Then he lists the virtues of the Ansar
 - I would've been Ansar if not for hijra
 - I would take the path of the Ansar

- Ansar are like the undershirt. It is not visible but it is the thing you keep closest to you
- Then the Prophet ﷺ makes dua for the Ansar, their children, and their grandchildren
- At the end of this speech the Ansar are now crying
- The Prophet ﷺ explains
 - I'm giving to some people because I worry about their imaan
 - And I am not giving to some because I trust
 - He name drops Amr ibn Taghlib
 - I'm giving to people who are new muslims, need to be eased in
 - Mentions another guys, ? name missed and says he is better than x and y combined
- Lesson: the core group is going to feel neglected when priorities change
 - This is a common pattern
 - Ex: MAW, MAR, Sheikh used to see each other often
 - But now they don't have much time
 - Walking in as a random person, and then suddenly spiking to importance
 - Prioritizing spending time with the people who need attention
- The Prophet ﷺ tells the Ansar
 - You are going to see a lot people preferring other over you
 - Be patient until you see me at the Hawd
 - The Prophet ﷺ is reassuring them that they are going to be disrespected and belittled

 - Banu Hashem
 - Uayna bin Husn, Uqbah ibn ? and ?
 - These 3 leaders says no
 - There was enough general consensus though

 - Leave Atad bin Asid in charge
 - Gives him instruction
- Instructions
 - I put you in charge of the city of Allah ﷻ
 - Nobody should consume profit that they have no liability over
 - Ex: A person uninvolved in a transaction having to owe on another persons behalf
 - Not selling things you dont own

Return

- 8 AH Dhul Qada
 - The last time that hajj happens in the old style of Hajj
 - Then Abu Bakr is going to fix everything

Side Topic: Lessons from Khawarij

Side Topic: Lessons from Khawarij

Date Covered: 3/2

- Lesson: Using religiosity as a way of propagating yourself
 - Khawariji sentiments. Creeps into a lot of things.
 - They symbolize themselves with baldness, tattered clothes etc. as their way of showing that they are very pious
 - A very dangerous thing, being too pious
 - Some people have the tendency to go way too far
 - That is why extremist groups exist
 - Do not let yourself feel like only you are right and everyone else is wrong
- Lesson: Things are permissible for a reason
 - I'll hold myself to a high standard while not putting it on anyone else
 - Things like always fasting, never getting married etc.
 - The Prophet ﷺ said Whoever thinks they are too good for my sunnah has nothing to do with me
 - The Prophet ﷺ would often do things purposely to show that it can be done
 - Ex: praying the sunnahs of dhuhr. Never missed, except in particular occasions
 - Khawarij mentality is having no flexibility
- Analogy: MII kid responding to a sheikh in a suit
 - A lot of those kids will tune out when they see a sheikh in a suit
 - But drawing lines on things that the Prophet ﷺ and Allah ﷻ did not draw the line on isn't right
- Question: Where do you draw the line between discipline and flexibility? I feel like some people use flexibility as a scapegoat for their lack of discipline
 - People who try to be flexible all the time
 - The only way to do so is by the people around you
 - Getting all of your knowledge from books
 - Deen is taken from people not books
 - Allah ﷻ sent prophets for a reason, all of the messengers had flexibility for a reason
 - Find somebody whose knowledge and wisdom you trust and see how they navigate things
 - Ex: Mufti Aasim on qiyam nights. Lean more towards not having qiyams, but understand why it is beneficial.
 - Fuquha of the past would do research for a long time before they came to any conclusions
 - Its to show a level of respect for the things within permissibility
 - You draw the line at things that are forbidden
 - Example: mixed classrooms in an islamic environment
 - The level of tolerance we have to such things where Allah ﷻ and the Prophet ﷺ have drawn the line
 - There's a level of trust that comes with that
- Question: How to corroborate the actions of the salaf which sometimes go beyond the sunnah, and how to fix someone doing it the wrong way

- It wasn't something they did intentionally, for the purpose of seeming more pious
- Doing more ibadah is not going to be a problem until you start using it to claim yourself to be better
- The best thing for someone who finds themselves becoming "too pious" is to be around community.
- Warning sign: they will isolate themselves
- The Prophet ﷺ described the khawariji type as all of them being young. A group of young people who think they are right while everyone else is wrong
- Story: Mufti Aasim, Pakistan
 - Intellectual warfare. Two huge mashaikh from the same movement giving different fatwas

Year of Delegations

Pt.1

Year of Delegations Pt.1

Date Covered: 3/3 @ 0945, 3/4 @ 0924

Context

- Basically, now islam is spreading like wildfire
 - Tribes coming from everywhere
 - Some already accepted islam and others were waiting
- Wafd = delegation
- Not in chronological order

Islam of Kaab bin Zuhair

- One of the main poets of Arabia
 - His father had a poem hung on the Kaaba
 - Previously rallied against the muslims
 - His name was on the list of people to be executed
- His brother Bujair was already muslim, wrote him a letter
 - Saying that all of the poets were either killed, or fled
 - Anyone that comes to the Prophet ﷺ is forgiven
 - Kaab bin Zuhair writes him a poem in response, saying he went off track. Is basically scolding him
- He plans to flee and leaves, but soon after realizes he has nowhere to go
 - He comes back to Madina, with his face covered
 - The Prophet ﷺ shakes his hand. Kaab asks about himself in the 3rd person
 - Would you accept him if he came, the Prophet ﷺ says yes of course
- Then he recites a poem in front of the Prophet ﷺ
 - Name of poem: Banat Suwad
 - Talks about a girl that doesn't exist, as a metaphor for the separation. Then a camel. Then direct praise of the Prophet ﷺ
 - This poem is very famous in Arab history.
 - The poem then praises the Prophet ﷺ and muhajireen
 - Did not praise the Ansar because they were aggressive with him
- The Prophet ﷺ takes off his shawl and puts it on him, as he is reacting
 - This poem is known as the original burda because the Prophet ﷺ took off his shawl for him
 - Muawiyya bought the shawl from Kaab's family, and then it got passed down/worn between khalifas until the fall of Baghdad almost 600 years later

 - The tribe later came to the Prophet ﷺ with complaints that the guy that was supposed to be in charge of the sadaqa is mistreating them
- ??
 - One of their people
 - ?? missed
- Lesson: the potential for sin in leadership
 - Power and authority are neutral things, but often appear in negative contexts in hadith
 - The majority of the time it ends up with sin, responsibility you don't want
 - The Prophet ﷺ tells Abu Dharr, On the DOJ leadership will be a source of disgrace
 - On the contrary, some sahaba wished to be in charge of certain expeditions due to their virtues
- Lesson: Not pursuing leadership but assuming it when necessary
 - Ideally, you don't take authority unless someone puts you in it
 - Someone above you, who you trust, that commands you to be a leader
 - Being a follower is being better than being a leader
 - OR if there is no one to take charge
 - However that is also when mistakes are made
 - Making judgement calls when in positions of authority is necessary if there is no one else to step in
- Zaid ibn Haritha's reaction to the Prophet ﷺ
 - Says it went into his heart
- Hadith about greed
 - Another man comes and asks for money
 - The Prophet ﷺ says anyone who asks for money while they are wealthy, will develop a headache and sickness in their body
 - Meaning that love of dunya will cause stress and sickness in the body
 - Basically is saying, you're only going to get this if you're poor enough
 - The man insists on sadaqa
 - The Prophet ﷺ says, If you want sadaqa, Allah جلّ declared it for 8 categories of people
 - The man from Yemen observes this
 - Says this also went into his heart
- Miracle of water from the Prophet ﷺ's hands

- In the beginning of the night the Prophet ﷺ was laying down, and then it was only me and him. He told me to call athaan (then teaches him)

- The Prophet ﷺ tells him to call Iqama
 - Then he brought two letter to the Prophet ﷺ

 - If you want to take it, take it. If you want to leave it
 - Then asks who do you want to put in charge
 - New people are chosen
- Miracle of the well water
 - Then the man says about the well in their city
 - When its winter theres enough water but in the summer there isnt
 - He wants to know how to get the water lol

 - Kid named Amr bin Salama, used to live near a pond and would hear the muslims read Quran when feeding their camels
 - He memorized a significant amount just from hearing it so often
 - He would ask older people who the muslims are
 - He became intrigued and memorized what they would say
- Says When islam was spreading, my tribe went
 - When our leader came back and taught us
 - He said that the Prophet ﷺ commanded us to pray at certain times
 - And when salah comes, someone should call athaan and the one who knows the most Quran
 - I was 7 years old and led salah
 - I was just a kid, poor and no clothes
 - When I would do rukoo my back would show
 - Eventually one lady yelled, can you cover the butt of your Imam

 - Which is revealed over a long period time
 - Also covers lots of rulings
 - Mecca was all aqeedah
 - When Madina started forming, more legislation
 - Baqara also has akhlaq and etiquette
 - Now that its established rulings, we want to establish akhlaq

Ayah 1

- Takdeem
 - Meaning they were being imposing
 - Instructing them not to be imposing on the Prophet ﷺ or Allah ﷻ
- Starting like this
 - Mindset is already that we are subservient to Allah ﷻ
- Lesson: How to apply to us
 - Carries over to the teachings of the Prophet ﷺ, sahaba, salaf etc.
 - Any prophet that came to this world left teachings which you would have to benefit from
 - To maximally benefit, you can't come with baggage that you want to impose on the teachings

Ayah 2

- Trans: While speaking to/in front of the Prophet ﷺ, do not raise your voice
 - Previous ayah was the mindset, this ayah is the physical speech
- Lesson: Deriving etiquettes
 - Don't put your own opinion over the sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ
 - Don't raise your voice over those who are respected/teaching you
 - Don't dominate their discussions
 - From the etiquettes of ulamma is that you are silent in their gathering
 - Sit with scholars silently
 - Might think that it is counterproduction for SOK, but its not
 - Just lean on the side of silence
 - Needs a little bit of social awareness to figure out how much to talk, what to talk about, etc.

- The Prophet ﷺ in their society is their teacher, that is the etiquette we should be keeping towards our own
- Story:
 - Previous seekers. Did a bunch of hadith about etiquettes of knowledge

- Trans: Don't call out to him the way you call out to one another
 - You give the Prophet ﷺ a specific kind of respect
- Lesson: Appreciation for how and when you communicate
 - Would you just pick up your phone and call Mufti Aasim
 - Mufti quoted one of his teachers, who would keep his landline unplugged and would only plug it in if he needs to call someone
 - He said phones took away the value of interaction and the effort needed to communicate with others
 - People have lost etiquette and respect because of the convenience
 - Some of Sh's teachers still write letters to their own teachers
- Trans: If you don't do this, all of your deeds might be eradicated, while you are completely unaware
 - This is why Thabit was so afraid
 - It's a very serious and dangerous consequence
 - On the tier of severe deeds, it's just below the sharia
 - Undermine adhab and respect to the Prophet ﷺ speaks to a larger respect for the rulings
- This ayah is written on the rawdah

Ayah 3

- The people who lower their voice, Allah ﷻ has tested their hearts and purified
- Raghda
 - Used also for lowering/softening the gaze
 - Also used in the hadith of how Abdullah ibn Masoud read Quran
 - Meaning: freshly cut tree branch
 - Speaking in softer volume and tone
- Trans: their hearts have been tested to accept taqwa
 - Meaning their hearts have gone through the training process

Ayah 4-5

- Trans: those who do this have no clue what they are doing
- Trans: and if they were just patient until you came out to them, that would've been better for them
- Lesson
 - Sometimes we convince ourselves to compromise on adhab to get things done
 - Not better to do so

Ayah 6

 - Of course, not just religious. Or news, rumors etc.
 - The etiquette of a muslim is to verify information before acting on it

 - Implies that the person made a mistake and being mocked because of it
 - Could be that you care about the party but you make fun of/belittle them
- Trans: Dont look down on others, nor should women look down on other women
- 2 Benefits of mentioning man-man/woman-woman
 - Qawm would not negate a man making fun of a woman
 - Mufassirin mention two benefits
 - 1: No society has such little haya that men and women feel comfortable making one of another. They already have a natural barrier of respect
 - 2: The way that men mock men and women mock women is very different
- Lesson: teaching this to young generations
 - Something kids should be taught from a young age
 - How a man should interact in front of a woman and vice verse
 - If someone teaches their daughter that they have to be aggressive and assertive to get respect
 - Or teaches their son not to respect women
 - The islamic baseline is that from a young age you instill a level of respect
 - Men should not be disrespectful with women in the room and vice versa
- The resulting environment
 - If everyone maintains this dignity it creates a beautiful environment
 - Have to be especially mindful in mixed environments
 - Losing this sanctity has clear negative effects
 - Everybodies concern should be to not make anyone else uncomfortable
- Trans: You might be mocking someone who is better than you
- Lamz
 - Insulting somebody by indication
 - Disrespecting through body language
 - Also in surah humaza
- 3 words

- Hamaza: with your eyes, or very lowkey words that are difficult to detect. Ex: barber shop. Sign language for tips. Very difficult to detect
- Lamaza: some describe it as physical gestures with the head/hands (movement involved) or insulting words that are spoken in a subtle way. Easier to detect, might spark some suspicion
- Ghamaza: means to literally poke something. Actually touching it
- Rhamaza: a hidden form of communication, focusing on quickness, or a secret code
- Anfusakum
 - Don't belittle yourselves
 - But is using the word meaning ourselves
 - Purpose: treat people like you would treat yourself
- Tanabaru
 - People have multiple names, so there are many ways of referring to others
 - Tanab is when you purposely use a negative nickname
- Trans: what a terrible name to take on is fusuq
 - Brought to say that all of the mentioned actions so far are deeds of a fasiq

Ayah 12

- Trans: Distance yourself from most of assumption because a small part of it is sinful
 - There is a point where your assumption of somebody is sinful
- Ghan bil muslimin: ill assumptions of believers
 - The honor of a muslim is protected to the extent where even having an ill assumption of them is sinful
 - Not all thoughts bear accountability but this one does
 - Evolves in levels. Turns into tajassus/spying, then gheeba/backbiting
- Related sin: Backbiting
 - In another part of the quran,
 - The person who is backbit cant defend themselves, like a dead person
 - Eating from it is harming their physical body
 - Hadith: the sanctity of reputation is like the sanctity of their blood
 - Sometimes your reputation being harmed is actually worse than physical harm
 - Allah ﷻ is establishing the weight of these sins
 - Establishing the respect we should have for each others reputations as much as for we do for the bodies of our blood siblings
 - Considering reputation as something that is our job to protect
- Lesson: Venting
 - Do not be casual about it or rush to justify it
- Lesson: Intervening on problematic observations
 - Only if you know them really well
 - Find out from them first
 - Have strong motivation to actually help them

Ayah 13

- Trans We created you all a single male and single female and the only reason we made it so that you are from different tribes is so that you can come to know one another

Recap: Last thing we talked about was Banu Saad bin Bakr (see pt.2)

Wafd of Thaqeef

- Out of order
 - Ramadan 9AH
 - After Tabuk
- About Thaqeef
 - In the city of Taif
 - The Prophet ﷺ has just successfully seized Taif
 - But left without them accepting islam
- Urwa ibn Masoud tries to give dawah to the people of Taif but gets killed
 - During the siege of Taif, Urwa ibn Masoud was not present. He was in Sham learning siege warfare tactics.
 - When he comes back, he accepts islam on his own and wants to give dawah to the people of Taif
 - The Prophet ﷺ says its not a good idea, but he says that his people love him more than they love his own children
 - When he gets there he announces to them to accept islam, and he gets shot by an arrow and killed
 - Urwa was a leader of Thaqeef, so for a month after they continued to talk about it and ended up regretting it
- The tribe of Thaqeef decides to accept islam after weighing their options and they send a delegation to the Prophet ﷺ led by Abdi Aleel
 - As they are getting close to Madina, Mughira bin Shuaba sees them (he is also originally from Thaqeef)
 - He rushes to the Prophet ﷺ to give him good news
 - While running he sees Abu Bakr, who asks him what he is doing
 - Abu Bakr asks to be the one to deliver the good news, and Abu Bakr starts begging
 - They had this trait of wanting to be the bearer of good news
 - Abu Bakr finally convinces him and tells the Prophet ﷺ
 - The Prophet ﷺ has Mughira take care of them, shows choosing people with things in common to take care of each other
- The Prophet ﷺ has them stay in a tent in the masjid
 - To immerse them in quran, tarweeh etc
 - A tactical decision
 - The Prophet ﷺ also ate iftaar with them
- The delegation of Thaqeef tries to negotiate their own terms
 - We will accept islam but you have to write an agreement that alcohol, interest, zina are halal and that we don't have to pray, give zakat or go for jihad
 - The Prophet ﷺ declines

- They continue to argue and go back and forth
- Then they say, okay we won't fight in jihad or pay zakat and no foreign leader can be placed on us
- The Prophet ﷺ agrees to this, but you have to pray salah because there is no good in a religion which does not have rukoo
- The sahaba are shocked and ask how this is an acceptance of islam
- The Prophet ﷺ responds that they will end up doing it on their own
- Lesson: Learning when to give leeway in dawah
 - Jihad and zakat are not immediate requirements on them
 - He's not removing the fard
 - But he is giving them time to adjust
 - He is making it seem like he is compromising, because some people just need to feel like they are special
 - Rule: No one is allowed to drop fard. However you can tell a person they have time to work on it.
 - There is a difference between rejecting the concept and struggling with the action
 - The actions of islam should not be a barrier from them accepting islam
- Story:
 - Random white guy and a muslim mechanic
 - The white guy says if that guy beats me in a race I'll accept islam
 - Then the guy backed out, saying I love beer and bacon lol
 - Lots of women will say they are not ready to accept islam bc of hijab
 - Better to accept it and be sinful, at the very least to believe in it as a concept
 - Know to differentiate the rejection of concepts and someone being not ready
 - If they want to alter the concepts of the religion, that is not actually accepting islam
- Thaqeef also try to set the condition that they won't break the idols with their own hands
 - They still have some respect for the idols
 - Islam has not yet settled in their hearts
- As they are leaving Mada'ina they ask who should be in charge
 - He puts Uthman ibn Abi al-Aas in charge
 - Was the youngest in their group
 - Opposite of what he would usually do, which is keeping the original leader in charge
 - But this young man was glued to the Prophet ﷺ through the whole month of Ramadan
 - He would keep trying to learn Quran and benefit from the sahaba
 - Abu Bakr pointed him out himself
- The Prophet ﷺ gives him 3 advices
 - You are their imam, and you should lead salah for them (because he memorized the most Quran out of them)
 - But follow the weakest amongst them (you show consideration for them in salah)
 - And assign someone to call athaan that doesn't get paid (doing it for the sake of Allah ﷻ)
 - In another narration, Uthman says he feels some hesitation

- The Prophet ﷺ says come closer, he takes his hand and puts it on his chest then on the same spot on the back. Then says the same advice: lead a light salah, but when you pray on your own, pray however you want
- In some narrations, Uthman specifies that the Prophet ﷺ told him to read surahs similar in length to Surah Alaq
- Fiqh derivings
 - Fard salah was short, comparatively
 - Fajr was the longest, 2 pages, but would be made shorter depending on who was present
- Narration about protection from the Shaytan that distracts a person during salah
 - Narrated by Uthman ibn Abil Aas
 - He came to the Prophet ﷺ once complaining that shaytan distracts me as soon as I start salah
 - The Prophet ﷺ shared that the name of this Shaytan is Khinza
 - Then he shared what to say and said turn your head left and blow 3 times
 - Not a full 90 degree turn but a subtle turn of the head
 - Say it in your head not out loud
- Thaqeef delegation returns to their people
 - Their tribe still doesn't know what has happened
 - They tell a fake story: we got there and the Prophet ﷺ told us to do xyz, and we refused. We decided to get ready for war instead
 - The people of Thaqeef start getting ready but are hesitant
 - The fake story is so that when they hear the actual conditions they're relieved
 - If they heard the conditions right off the bat they would've been overwhelmed
 - Then the tribe accepts islam
- 20 years after the initial incident of Taif, they have accepted islam
 - Back then the Prophet ﷺ made dua for them to accept islam
 - You don't know how these things will play out
- Lesson: Not giving up hope on someone accepting islam
 - A person never knows when their community, parent, sibling, child, etc will accept islam
 - It can be after 20 years, while most people give up after a single conversation
 - This is how dawah operates, you cant get sick of it easily
 - The story of Nuh AS shows this too
 - Your job is not to manage results but to convey the message
- The Prophet ﷺ sends Khalid bin Walid with Mughira bin Shuba to destroy the idol of Lat
 - Mughira decides to play a prank
 - He takes an axe and is about to destroy the idol
 - But the first time he hits it he drops to the ground and starts spazzing
 - Then the people start freaking out and he gets back up
 - He then destroys the entire temple and even digs the dirt
 - Then they return to Madina

Side Story: Islam of Wahshi

- Wahshi was hiding in Taif after Fath of Mecca
 - Recap: he killed Hamza RA at Uhud
 - After he has no where to go
 - People kept telling him to just go and apologize to the Prophet ﷺ
- Narration of Wahshi going to the Prophet ﷺ
 - Narrated by two tabieen, Jaafer bin Abi Umayya ad Dhamri and another one who went looking for Wahshi. They were told that he is a very old man but if they manage to meet him they will see how amazing he is
 - They get to Sham to meet Wahshi, and he can barely see. They sit right in front of him, and Wahshi asks, are you so and so? I've never seen you except for when you were a baby. I handed you to your mom as she was sitting on a camel
 - They ask to hear the story of how he killed Hamza
 - The story mentioned already in Uhud
 - "I stayed in Mecca until the Prophet ﷺ came, then I fled to Taif and people told me to flee. Then one person told me to go to the Prophet ﷺ. Im walking to Madina when the Prophet ﷺ sees me.
 - "Are you Wahshi? Sit down and tell me how you killed Hamza. At the end of it the Prophet ﷺ says, can you avoid being in front of me?
 - (in other narrations) Wahshi says forgive me. Then the Prophet ﷺ hits him in the chest and tells Wahshi to fight in the path of Allah ﷻ
 - Wahshi spent the rest of his life fighting
 - Muhaddith mention that it was out of character for the Prophet ﷺ to not want to see Wahshi, and his reason for saying this was that Wahshi was the one who actually killed with their own hands
 - When a Prophet ﷺ is discomforted, it can be a reason for punishment so it was actually for Wahshi's benefit

Wafd of Kinda

- Context
 - Led by Ashath ibn Qays
 - Tribe from Yemen
- The Prophet ﷺ's conversation with Ashath
 - They are a very normal tribe
 - The Prophet ﷺ asks them about their family background
 - He finds a common connection from Kusay bin Kilab's mom who was from their tribe
 - Generically, when you can find a common relative it creates a stronger connection
 - Then he asks him, do you have any kids?
 - He responds, my first child was just born
 - Then he says, I would rather have our society have food than having a child
 - Because they were in the middle of a drought
- Hadith on children being the coolness of the eyes but also a source of cowardice

- The Prophet ﷺ says don't say that, children are a coolness of the eyes and reward if they pass away. There is some truth to what you are saying, kids are a source of cowardice and stinginess
- Lesson: Not using children as an excuse to be cowardly or stingy
 - Now somebody can justify a lot of things in the name of the excuse of their children
 - The munafiq would use their children as an excuse for not going to battle or spending their money
 - The danger in kids is using them to justify minimal sacrifice
- Lesson: Recognizing societies overinflated importance on comfort
 - Someone will look at Abu Bakr, who left his family with nothing, and say that he is neglecting his family
 - Now they see a lot of sacrifice/ any compromise of comfort as dangerous and negative. This has become a problem among practicing muslims now and has become widely accepted
 - People should be comfortable with an extent of putting their families through difficulty not saying things like "Don't be too religious, you still need to live comfortably"
 - Sahaba didn't give such excessive importance to comfort, people treat living minimally like its a major sin when its not
 - Love of dunya is what destroys societies
- Ashath accepts islam, leaves it in the time of Abu Bakr, then comes back to islam
 - Later participated in various conquests as a muslim
 - But fought against them in the short period he wasn't

Wafd of Hadra Mawt

- Context
 - Now a huge region of Yemen
 - At the time was a small city
 - King was named Wail bin Hujr
 - Was rich and famous
- Another sahaaba that says, he is not Wa'id hes my brother
 - They tell the Prophet ﷺ the story
 - Who responds "a muslim is the brother of another muslim"
- Muawiyya left in charge of taking care of him
 - Because he is a king
 - Waid was on a camel
 - Muawiyya walked barefoot on the sand
 - Waid says your people are not the type to be able to ride on a camel with a king
 - Then he asks to where his shoes
 - Waid says walk in my shadow
 - Fast forward 40 years, Muawiyya is in Sham
 - And jokes is the seat of your camel better now

Death of Najashi

- Death of najashi
 - In rajab
 - The Prophet ﷺ says your righteous brother passed
- The Prophet ﷺ prays janazah alal ghaib
 - And he says to them ?
 - In some hadith, he says Allah جل جلاله has folded the earth for me and I can see him
 - Could've been done for other sahaba, but why Najashi?
 - Because he has no other muslims around to lead a janazah for him
- Permissibility of absentees janazah
 - Malik/Hanifa: The Prophet ﷺ uniquely had this privilege
 - Shafii/Ahmad: that this is generic

Ila/Seperation of the Prophet

صلى الله

Ila/Seperation of the Prophet ﷺ

Date Covered: 3/24 @ 0930, 3/25 @ 0933

Ila of the Prophet ﷺ

- Ila
 - When a man takes an oath that he is not going to be with his wife
 - Not specified which month this took place
 - Once a man says this,
 - In jahiliya this was unrestricted in time range
 - Led to hardship for the woman, because the guy would leave her like that for years
- Islam changing the timing of ila
 - Surah Baqara, restricts it for 4 months
 - After 4 months there is either a divorce or the man breaks his oath
 - He told all of his wives he wouldn't speak to them
 - And did not see them for a month
 - Stayed in a separate room
- Possible Reasons
 - 1: Zeinab used to make a drink with honey which caused him to visit her more often, so Aisha and Hafsa made a plan to make him think the drink made his breath smell bad. And as this went on
 - 2: An incident where meat was gifted to the house of Aisha, and she was told to send meat to Zeinab but that Zeinab rejected it 3 times. After Aisha told the Prophet ﷺ "Zeinab disgraced you" the Prophet ﷺ got angry "You and her are not important enough to disgrace me"
 - 3: The wives were jealous of Maria, the Prophet ﷺ's slave and were giving him a hard time over him spending time with her
 - 4: The wives were asking for more money, and ayat came down saying either choose to live like this or separate from the Prophet ﷺ
- Scholarly opinion
 - It wasn't any single reason
 - More likely that it was a combination of things
 - It doesn't fit the character of the Prophet ﷺ to get angry over something small
 - Things were bothering the Prophet ﷺ from Khybar onward

Umar's POV of the Ila of the Prophet ﷺ

IN CLASS TRANSLATION

Lots of events happening at the same time

Me and my neighbor from Ansar used to live in the outskirts of Madina and would take turns living downtown Madina. Then we would report to each other about what happened. And in Mecca, the men were really dominant in relationships, but in Madina the women were more dominant than they were used to. And when the women of Mecca came to Madina, they became more like that.

One day I got mad at my wife and she snapped back at me, and I was shocked. My wife said to me, why are you so surprised, the wives of the Prophet ﷺ talk like that to the point where they get angry with each other. I panicked when I heard that and forgot what I was angry about, and said anyone who talks to the Prophet ﷺ like that is a loser

Then I went to Hafsa's house and asked her, she said yes, and said you are a loser. Do you worry that if he gets upset, Allah ﷻ will get upset and ?? missed. Don't ask him for too much and don't go back and forth with him too much, just ask me, and don't be deceived by the fact that your neighbor is more beautiful than you and better than you. Then I knocked on the door of Umm Salama (they're related) then she snaps back and says what is wrong with you, basically tells her to mind your own business. That broke my spirit, then I regretted ever saying anything.

And the rumor was that Ghassan was forming an army to invade Madina, and my neighbor from the Ansar came back. He came at night banging on the door, I said "Is Ghassan invading us?" I panic and run to the door, he says "Something crazy happened today" The Prophet ﷺ divorced his wife. Immediately Umar says, Hafsa is a loser, and immediately he goes to pray Fajr with the Prophet ﷺ.

The Prophet ﷺ then goes into a private room. Then I visited Hafsa and she was crying. Didn't I tell you. I don't know if the Prophet ﷺ divorced. Then I went to the masjid and the a bunch of sahaba were crying. I sat with them, then I couldn't take it anymore and went to the room. Rabah was sitting at the door, tell him I want to come in. He stayed quiet. Then I returned to the sahaba at the mimbar. Then I went to the door again, and the Prophet ﷺ stayed quiet again. Then a third time, "I think the Prophet ﷺ thinks I'm here to defend Hafsa, tell him if he wants me to cut off Hafsa's head I will" and shout from outside. The Prophet ﷺ stays quiet again. Then Rabah indicates to come over.

I enter and he's laying on a thin straw mat that is dusty, to the point that it left a mark. And he was laying on a pillow of animal skin stuffed with fibers. Did you divorce your wives? No. Ya Rasoolallah ?? tries to lighten his mood. Then he tells him, remember back in the day in Mecca when the men were dominant, and the Prophet ﷺ laughed. I wish you saw me talking to Hafsa, then the Prophet ﷺ smiled again. Then Umar saw the smile and sat down. Looked at the room we're sitting in, and not a single thing was there to look at except 3 skins of animals.

In some narrations, he started crying. Made dua that Allah ﷻ gave him more comfort and luxury. Umar says, the Prophet ﷺ was leaning on the pillow and when I said that he sat up. Do you have any doubt about what we are doing?... Umar says, I ask Allah ﷻ to forgive me... what had happened was the Prophet ﷺ took an oath not to enter the houses of his wives for a month.

He entered the house of Aisha after 29 nights. Aisha says it's only been 29, and the Prophet ﷺ responds some months are 29. Then the ayaat of Surah Ahzab came down. I'm going to mention something to you, that you don't have to rush to answer, ask your parents, then he recited the ayah (of leaving him or staying with him). She says what part will I ask about. Then she says, don't tell the other wives what I said (hoping the others would leave).

Side Bar: Understanding Divorce and Polarizing Issues

- Lesson: The best people on the face of the earth go through such difficulties
 - Certain things do not happen to the prophets because they are impermissible
 - However permissible/neutral things, Allah ﷻ allowed them to happen in the life of the Prophet ﷺ so that people could learn from it
 - Divorces happened among the sahaba, it was normal and not necessarily a blameworthy thing
 - Lesson: Divorce is not meant to be a polarizing issue, need to put aside our personal gender biases and assumptions and not be trying to absolve anyone of blame. If it's possible for a Prophet ﷺ to be involved in a messy situation like this, it's possible for anyone
 - The Prophet ﷺ did not divorce Sawda, but he wanted to. And for Hafsa, he gave her a revocable divorce

Ibn Hajar's 27 Derived Points

1. For a man to be extremely overbearing over his women is not good
 - The Prophet ﷺ adapted to his wives taking the manners of the Ansari women
 - In Mecca the social standard was for the men to be more domineering, but the Prophet ﷺ left off that standard
 - Lesson: Some people become very aggressive, not from sunnah to be like that. The Prophet ﷺ was very tolerant and didn't say anything to his wives becoming more like the Ansari women
 - Story: Seekers 2 yrs ago, Sh. says if I was a woman this kind of thing (this wisdom) would offend me because it's implying that women just need to be tolerated. Explanation why that's not true: this goes both ways. Women also should not be overbearing over their men. The expectation of pardons, forgiveness, being easygoing etc. are for both parties to each other
2. The fact that it is permissible to correct family
3. Knocking at the door
4. Mahrams being able to enter without permission of the husband
5. A father asking his daughter about her situation (being somewhat nosy about things of caution/benefit)
 - He derives the eagerness of seeking knowledge from Umar going to find out more
6. A student of knowledge should set some time to earn money
7. Being patient with a spouse when they make a mistake
8. Permissibility of having a guard in front of your home
 - An in this, is being
9. Being easy/modest/shy with your in laws
 - Umar RA being an in law with the Prophet ﷺ

- It is weird to say that Umar is the Prophet ﷺ's FIL but he is 10. Silence can be more virtuous
 - The Prophet ﷺ not saying anything to Raba when Umar wanted to go inside
 11. If the guard at the door knows silence to mean "no" then he should act accordingly
 - Shows the importance of understanding silent cues
 12. Asking permission to enter someone's home even if they are by themselves
 13. Seeking permission multiple times (no more than 3)
 14. Seeing a friend in a difficult state and saying something lighthearted to calm them down
 15. Reminding someone who took an oath about their oath
 - Ex: Aisha saying it was 29 days
 16. Living on the second floor of a house
 17. An elder taking knowledge from a person younger than him
 18. No matter how much news is spread and accepted, unless it goes back to something firm/correct it should not be given and credibility
 19. How emotions can get the best of a person even if they are very stable
 20. Looking at/into somebody else's house (if it is known it will not bother them)

Expedition of Tabuk

Date Covered: 3/25 @ 0948, 3/26 @ 0916, 3/27 @ 0914

- Details
 - Rajab 9 Ah
 - Last battle the Prophet ﷺ participated in
 - The romans have prepared an army
 - News came at an extreme time of drought
 - Also came at the time of harvest, meaning the storage of food is basically finished
- The Prophet ﷺ announces they're leaving
 - Any time the Prophet ﷺ set out an army, he would not state clearly where he was going, as deception to avoid spies
 - But this time he said it openly
- Wisdoms of announcing it
 - It is a long difficult journey so they need to know how much to take
 - It also exposes munafiq, who will not commit
- Army of 30,000 people leaves madina
 - Sends people to smaller tribes
 - Tells them all to get ready
 - Becomes largest army to ever leave Madina
- Surah Tawba is revealed
 - Saying whatever state you are in, you should go to this battle
 - Will go through the ayat next class
 - Surah Tawbah is a live reaction to the events of Tabuk
 - People were saying/doing things through out
 - The sahaba would say the revelations kept coming with "minhum" until they thought there wouldn't be anymore people left to be exposed as a munafiq
- The Prophet ﷺ calls on the people to donate
 - Also mentioned in the Surah
 - Umar donated first, wanting to outdo Abu Bakr. He gives half of his wealth, and left the other half for his family
 - Then Abu Bakr donates all of his wealth (the other time was in hijra), says he left Allah ﷻ and his messenger for his family
 - It was used to buy camels, food, weapons
 - Everything purchased was worth 43,000 dirhams (modern equivalent 250k)
 - Q: Who were they buying from
 - Uthman also donated, either 1,000 dinars or all of his wealth (600k) along with prepared camels/horses (worth about 500k). These are the lower narrations
 - Abdurrahman bin Awf gave 5,000 dirhams, to the extent that the Prophet ﷺ's face was shining
 - People came and put down whatever they had
- This army was nicknamed Jaysh Al Usra, virtues of the ones who donated
 - Peak arabian summer, no food/drought
 - The Prophet ﷺ said whoever prepares this army, for them is Jannah

- Then he said “Nothing Uthman does after this day can prevent him from jannah”
- Lesson
 - This type of sacrifice is not lost
- Surah Tawbah revealed about the poor giving small donations
 - On the other hand, there was people giving only a saa of dates
 - A sahabi named Abu Aqil gave half a pound of dates
 - The munafiq started making fun of him, saying his donation is not needed
 - Surah tawbah came down saying Allah ﷻ will mock the one who mocks this person
- Lesson:
 - Some people spend all of their time criticizing others while not doing anything themselves
- Side Story: Miracle of the Prophet ﷺ's touch
 - Sahabiyah who was a baby at this time named Amrah bint Sahl
 - She narrates that her father was holding her when he donated 2 saa of dates
 - He asked the Prophet ﷺ to make dua for barakah in her life
 - Then the Prophet ﷺ wiped her head and put his hand on her stomach
 - She said I can still feel the coolness of the Prophet ﷺ's touch in my liver (body)
- Hadith: If you give even half a date in charity you protect yourself from the fire of jahannam
- The next tier down of people, known as the ones who were crying
 - Mentioned in the Quran as “the people crying because they don't have anything to spend for Allah ﷻ”
 - Amongst them Abu Musa Al Ashari. His friends and relatives sent him to the Prophet to ask for an animal. He went and asked, and the Prophet ﷺ said ‘Wallahi
 - This is an interesting hadith because we see a different side of the Prophet ﷺ
 - There was so many people asking at the time and he was already angry
 - Abu Musa mentions that he realized afterwards that he was angry about other things. Then he left quietly and told his friends
 - Then Bilal called out to him, and the Prophet ﷺ gave him six camels. Said I just bought them from Saad ibn Abi Waqas and take them to your friends
 - Tell him the Prophet ﷺ has given you these and use them
 - Then he said I want some of you to come and hear this
 - How does it make sense that the Prophet ﷺ took an oath and then went back on it
 - They then heard it from other sahaba
 - In another narration, the Prophet ﷺ clarifies himself. Never do I take an oath and see a better alternative except that I break the oath and take the better option
 - Etiquettes of taking oaths
- Alaba bin Zaid
 - Had absolutely nothing
 - Was just praying qiyam ul layl, crying and making dua
 - He was talking to Allah ﷻ and saying you didn't give me anything to give, nor to the Prophet ﷺ
 - The only sadaqa I can give is forgiveness of any person who wronged me
 - The Prophet ﷺ asked where is the person who donated last night
 - Then Alaba stands up. The Prophet ﷺ I swear that your donation was written as zakat

- Waqila ibn
 - Who wants to make a deal with me that I will ride the back of their camel and you keep my spoils of war

The Munafiq Response

- The reactions of the munafiq
 - The bedouins of the outer tribes came and gave excuses
 - The Prophet ﷺ accepted every excuse
 - The ayat comes down asking him why he allowed them to make excuses
- Analogy
 - S making excuses for not coming to class
 - Allah ﷻ revealed the ayat saying to the Prophet ﷺ to be harsher and expose who has genuine excuses
- The munafiq who did not even make excuses
 - The ones who did not leave Madina
 - The ones who snuck out
- When the Prophet ﷺ was getting things ready, the munafiq gathered in the house of Suwaylim to plot how to leave the army and make others leave
 - The Prophet ﷺ sends ? to burn the house down
- Muaddhirun
 - Group of 82 people giving excuses
- Among the munafiq, Jadd bil Qays

 - Ayah comes down saying he is worried about falling into fitna but he is already in a fitna
- The munafiq who made fun of the Prophet ﷺ
 - They said they can see him in chains and shackles
 - Essentially fearmongering
 - Ammar bin Yasir told to ask them what they see
 - He exposes them and then they say they were joking
 - Allah ﷻ quotes it, you decide to mock Allah ﷻ and his prophet ﷺ
- Jullaad bin Suwayd
 - He says if these ayat are real, we are worse than donkeys
 - A sahaba hears this and responds
 - Wallahi you are the most beloved to me, if I people hear about this you will be exposed but if I don't share I am sinful
 - Then he goes to the Prophet ﷺ and says Wallahi I did not say that
 - Sahaba were terrified because people were being exposed
 - The Prophet ﷺ gets wahi in that moment
 - However narrations mention that he did tawbah
- Masjid Dirar is built
 - A gathering place of the munafiq

- They disguised it as a masjid
- It was built by Abu Amir (the guy who dug the wholes)
- Was previously a leader of Aws
- He fled to the Romans after the battle and was the one who orchestrated the building of the masjid
- They acted like a charity project for the old people
- Some muslims fell for the trap, didn't realize
- One sahaba was the imam of the masjid, which ruined his reputation to the extent Umar didn't want
- The munafiq tried to bring the Prophet ﷺ to pray there
 - He skillfully delayed it until the return from Tabuk
 - At the return, the ayah was revealed to not set foot in it
- Symbolism of Masjid Dirar
 - This is how nifaq operates
 - It's always a concealed form of propagation, takes the face of piety
 - No one is going to invite us to a bar
 - TS 0940 Alia being the imam of the cafe lol
 - It takes someone to "burn down the building" for it to be taken care of
 - For the Prophet ﷺ to actually burn the masjid down shows that such things cannot be handled in a soft way
 - However the boundary for being firm/harsh requires a lot of wisdom
 - Some people are too quick to call everyone a munafiq or jump to call others wrong
- 12 munafiq documented to have participated in Tabuk
 - They all went to get spoils of war
 - They cause a lot of issues

Departing for Battle

- The muslims leave Madina on a Thursday
 - Some left behind
 - Amir of Madina: Sibab bin uTFUTA
 - Muhammad bin Maslama
 - Abdullah ibn Umm Maqtum
 - Ali, who was packing and the Prophet ﷺ told him not to come and he started crying
 - The Prophet ﷺ comforted him, would you not be happy that I am leaving you like how Musa left Harun? Except for the fact that Harun is a prophet ﷺ and there is no prophet ﷺ after me
- Some shias take this as the moment he became next khalifa
 - Harun passed before Musa so he never actually took leadership
 - The Prophet ﷺ is drawing a distinction between Harun and Ali
- The Prophet ﷺ hires a guide
 - This time its a muslim guide
 - They set out
 - They get Thaniyatul Wudad

- Kaab ibn Malik narrates that there was so many people that nobody was documenting the names
 - The Prophet ﷺ organizes them by tribe and gives each one a flag
- Some of the munafiq sneak out
 - Some people saw them sneaking out
 - And they told the Prophet ﷺ
 - If there's any good people
- The muslims who did not join but did not have good excuses
 - Acronym Mekah
 - Murara bin Rabi
 - Kaab ibn Malik
 - Hilal ibn Umayya
 - Referred to as ? the 3 sahaba left behind
 - Only stayed behind because of the temptations of dunya
- The sahaba who caught up
 - Abu Khaytham: Tells the story himself. He had no excuse for not being with them in the beginning. It was a hot day out, and the garden was comfortable and his wife had cool water. And he felt so embarrassed that the Prophet ﷺ was in the hot dessert, told his wife, wallahi I am not setting foot in this garden. When he gets close to the army, they see his figure coming closer. The Prophet ﷺ says, I hope its Abu Khaytham. Then he gets there, apologizes. The Prophet ﷺ says you were so close to being destroyed
- Lesson
 - Making mistakes in the beginning is not a sign to sell yourself short
 - You should still try to compensate in whatever way that you can
 - This attitude of Abu Khaytham, of not cutting himself slack, has a lot of lessons
 - We are also saying this story as if it was a small decision, but its not
- More of them
 - Abu Lubaba
 - Abu Dharr - his camel died on the way there. He walked on foot. When he arrived the Prophet ﷺ said I hope its Abu Dharr. Some narrations mention that other sahaba were talking about him and the Prophet ﷺ said if theres good in him he will come. Then the Prophet ﷺ says, he is walking alone, he will die alone, and he will be raised on the DOJ alone. Recap: his story of his body being left outside, and the group passing by burying him.
- While the army is moving the Prophet ﷺ divided the tribes and then asked each tribe if anyone was missing
 - Hes checking for the munafiq
 - So he knows who is missing
- Passing the place of Thamud
 - Known as Al Hija
 - It's now a tourist destination
 - The Prophet ﷺ told sahaba to move fast
 - He started running past it
- Lesson: Avoiding places of divine punishment

- We shouldn't go to these places unless we are crying, because they're places where the punishment of Allah ﷻ descended on people
- The Prophet ﷺ tells
 - The Prophet ﷺ told them to throw out the water they took from their for drinking, and to feed the bread made from that water to their animals
 - He did not want anything to do with it
 - In another narration, people wanted to go to Hijr and the Prophet ﷺ called salat al jami, and asked them why they are entering Hijr. A man said, we are astonished by them. The Prophet ﷺ responded, do you want to know something more amazing, there's a guy standing in your midst telling you what came before and whats coming after. Wallahi allah ﷻ does not care about destroying you. Theres going to come a group of people who do not defend themselves from the punishment of Allah ﷻ at all. Dont ask Allah ﷻ for signs and miracles, the nation of saleh ask for it. (then he pointed) and the camel used to walk from here to here, and it would drink from the water of this area and they would drink the camels milk and then slaughter it. Allah ﷻ made jibreel scream and then Allah ﷻ obliterated all of the people, except one person who was in the haram at the time (Abu Rughail)
- Lesson: Avoid places where the previous people were punished
 - They pyramids, petra, ula etc
 - We remove all the benefit of the reminder
 - Should not be a tourist destination
- The Prophet ﷺ combined salahs
 - Most of the narrations come from battle of Tabuk
 - Difference of opinion on how its done
 - Is dhuhr allowed to be prayed in the timing of Asr and vice versa
 - The Prophet ﷺ would delay dhuhr until it was right before Asr and pray together
 - And if the army was leaving early he would pray dhuhr early, and if late he'd pray asr lat

Hadith of Muadh

- Muadh narrates context
 - During the journey to Tabuk The Prophet ﷺ got up to pray fajr, people were tired from traveling at night. I stayed with the Prophet ﷺ but everyone else was scattered and the camels were grazing.
 - While Muadhs camel was walking it tripped and scared the camel of the Prophet ﷺ and it started jittering, to the point that the Prophet ﷺ's shawl fell off. He then said Oh Muadh, come here. Until their camels were touching each other. The Prophet ﷺ says, I didnt think that everyone was so scattered (they started dozing off) I was tired too
- Muadh taking the opportunity of being alone with the Prophet ﷺ to ask him a question
 - Muadh notices they're alone together. Ya rasool can I ask you about something. He asks, what is a good deed that I can ask you that would get me into jannah
 - The Prophet ﷺ says bakh bakh bakh, you asked about a good thing. It's a very significant... He repeats things 3 times.

- Answer: That you believe in Allah ﷻ you pray, you don't commit shirk and you...
- The Prophet ﷺ elaborates further on the foundations of tawheed
 - If you want I can tell you the head of this affair, and the thing that maintains this religion, and the pinnacle that a person can reach.
 - Muadh says tell me
 - The head: believing la illaha
 - Keeps this religion together: salah and zakat
 - The pinnacle: jihad fi sabilillah
- Cont. into famous hadith from arbain nawawi
 - I've been commanded to do qital... (from arbain nawawi)
- Cont. into virtues of jihad
 - I swear by the one whose soul is my hand, there's no face fatigued nor a foot dusty that can raise ranks in jannah after fard salah than jihad
 - And nothing that makes the scales heavy than giving your camel in jihad or letting someone else ride it
- Why is the Prophet ﷺ telling him this
 - They're doing it right now
 - They've been travelling for weeks and are dusty
 - This is encouragement

Stories

Abu Lubaba

- Recap: Tied himself to a pillar after Khandak because he gave an indication to Banu Qurayda, is among the sincere muslims
- He tied himself again after Tabuk and 7 more people joined him
- Prophet ﷺ says I'm not going to untie him until Allah ﷻ does
- Ayat is revealed in their favor
- Kaab ibn Malik
 - He was one of those who led the Bayya of Aqaba
 - Says he never missed an expedition except Tabuk
 - He says I would not give up bayya of Aqaba for Badr
 - And there was never a time I was more wealthy than Tabuk, never in my life did I have two camels (this isn't much, he was still poor but this was a relatively good time for him)
- The Prophet ﷺ shares that they're leaving for Tabuk
 - And anytime the Prophet ﷺ would want to go on an expedition he would spread misinformation, except this one because it was hot and there was a drought and he wanted people to prepare
 - Another wisdom of sharing the destination: to check sincerity
 - And there were so many muslims in this army that not all of their names could be documented, so anybody that wanted to sneak away would be able to
 - The Prophet ﷺ was leaving during harvest season
- Kaab procrastinates getting ready
 - Kaab saw him getting ready and thought to himself that he would also get ready but kept procrastinating until they were leaving
 - Then he decided he would catch up to them
 - Then he gets distracted again, and this kept happening
 - By that point they were already so far away that it would be hard to catch up
 - He says I wish I had done that but Allah ﷻ did not want that
 - He would go out and see only munafiq and old/sick people
- The Prophet ﷺ asks where Kaab is
 - The Prophet ﷺ did not ask about Kaab until they reach Tabuk
 - A man responds and says his wealth kept him back
 - Muadh stands and says what a terrible thing you said, I only know good of him
- Lesson: Defending others from backbiting
 - About Muadh: the hadith was said to him about the pillar that islam stands on, hold your tongue back from speaking about others. Muadh acts on it instantly by defending
 - Hadith: Anyone that betrays their fellow muslim... Allah ﷻ is going to betray you and abandon you in a place where you need a lot of help
 - A person's honor and reputation is their own body.
- Kaab hears that the Prophet ﷺ is coming back
 - He wonders how to lie
 - Asks all of his family what he should do, they all tell him to come up with an excuse

- Right when he heard he is close he decides not to lie
- The Prophet ﷺ comes back into Madina
 - Shares some etiquettes
 - First he would go to the masjid
 - Pray 2 rakat
 - And sit and allow people to come and ask him whatever they needed
- The people left behind came and gave excuses
 - About 6 people came and gave an excuse
 - The Prophet ﷺ did not dig into it further
- Kaab ibn Malik comes
 - The Prophet ﷺ smiles at him like how an angry person smiles
 - When someone that's actually sincere messes up that's the time to grill them
- The Prophet ﷺ asks him
 - I saw you preparing. Where were you?
 - Kaab responds, if I were sitting in front of anyone else I'm sure I could make an excuse, but with you I can't... wallahi I have no excuse
 - Prophet ﷺ says this guy has told the truth, tells him to leave until Allah جل gives an answer
- Why is hypocrisy being rewarded and telling the truth being punished?
 - You have a higher standard for people based on the sincerity they have shown
 - Sometimes this means being more forgiving and other times this means being stricter on them
 - This is one of the demands of wise leadership, knowing when to do what
 - The Prophet ﷺ is dependent on wahi
- Kaab says
 - He got up and a group of men followed him asking, we never knew you to be sinful why didn't you just give an excuse
 - They kept telling him this until he felt like going back to give an excuse
 - The Prophet ﷺ said the same thing to two other guys who also said they have no excuse, Murara and Hilal ibn Umayya
 - Kaab felt comfortable knowing they were both Badri's and decided to continue
 - Lesson: You will continue to be tested after making the right decision
- The Prophet ﷺ orders a social boycott
 - Nobody was treating us the same to the point that I felt like I was in a foreign country
 - I was the youngest and toughest, while Murara and Hilal would just cry in their homes I would pray in jamaa, and I would say salam to the Prophet ﷺ and I would try to figure out if his lips move. While praying I would look at him from the corner of my eye. If I was in salah he would look at me but if not he would turn away
 - Then I went to Abu Qatada, my cousin who was beloved to me. I jumped over the wall into his house
 - I said salam and he did not respond. Do you know that I love Allah and the Prophet ﷺ. Then he asked 2 more times. Then Abu Qatada said Allah جل and his messenger know best. Then I started crying and I jumped back over the wall

- Then ? from sham (who are like bedouins) comes looking for Kaab with a letter from the king of Ghassan (the roman arabs)
- Letter: I heard that your leader is mistreating you, you don't have to live in this way
- I read this said, this is another test. I went to the furnace in my house and I lit the letter on fire
- The Prophet ﷺ commands that they separate from his wives
 - Then a messenger comes saying I cannot live with my wife anymore, and that the same message was sent to Murara and Hilal
 - I told my wife to go to her parents house and stay there until Allah ﷻ sent wahi
 - The wife of Hilal went to the Prophet ﷺ, said Hilal is an elderly man is it okay if I take care of him
 - He says theres no problem with that but he cannot be intimate with you
 - She says, he wont do that anyway hes been crying all day
 - Someone suggests that Kaab ask for the same for himself, but Kaab realizes its not the same for him and is another test
- About Murara and Hilal
 - They are both in their 50s-60s
 - But the sahaba are also in that age range
 - There is no age limit to cut off participation in Badr
 - For us thats hard to imagine, but for them it was their reality
- They reach 50 days
 - Kaab is praying fajr on the roof of one of his houses
 - While I'm there, I felt like I was suffocated in my own body and the earth was restricted
 - Then I heard someone screaming "Good news" and I fell in sujood
- The Prophet ﷺ announced the ayat of Allah ﷻ forgiving them
 - People started going to find them to congratulate them
 - A guy started running on his horse to give the news to Kaab
 - Another guy gets on the top of the mountain and screams
 - The guy that screamed later caught up in person and said he was the guy who screamed
 - And Kaab took off his clothes and gave it to him
- Then I went to meet the Prophet ﷺ
 - And people were meeting me in groups
 - I enter the masjid and see the Prophet ﷺ sitting with sahaba
 - Theres not a single muhajir who got up except Talha
 - Talha and Kaab were muakhat right after hijra
- Lesson: Public sins need to be corrected appropriately
 - We can see how the sahaba addressed sin
 - Once the moment of ease came everyone wanted to celebrate
 - But before that they strictly followed the boycott
 - Dont be the one to justify sins in other peoples minds
 - Public sins need to be corrected appropriately, you cannot comfort them too much but cannot scold them too much either
 - ?? Analogy: conquering muneer and A does not go lol

- The Prophet ﷺ says ?
 - Kaab asSays Allah ﷻ forgave you
 - His face would light up as if it was a piece of the moon
 - Kaab says he wants to give all of his wealth in sadaqa
 - The Prophet ﷺ tells him to keep a portion of it
- Kaab says ?
 - ? missed
 - I promise to not say a single word that is not truth
 - I don't know anyone who went through difficulty for telling the truth like me
 - Allah ﷻ did not make anything a blessing in my life besides telling the truth
 - Allahs said the worst warning to those who lied
- Kaab then says
 - Missed
- Main Lesson: (also the purpose of Tabuk) To differentiate the sincere from the insincere
 - Which require intense difficulty
 - This will continue to happen until the end of times until a person cannot be muslim unless they have the imaan of a sahaba
 - As holding onto the coal becomes more and more difficult
- The moment a person decides to live with imaan they will be tested on it
 - Through their job offers, family pressure
 - The ability to be tough enough to tolerate it is what saves this person, like how it did for Kaab ibn Malik
- Main Lesson: Adhab of dealing with a person who committed a sin
 - Without minimizing the sin or ostracizing the person

Ibn Hajar's Derived Points

1. Permissibility of journey in sacred months
2. Permissibility of announcing where you are going if its not harmful
3. Once the imam of a community announces that every person has to join, every person is sinful for not participating
4. If you're told to fight you have to
5. There's no blame on the person who cant fight
6. Leaving someone in charge of the city
7. Munafiq cannot be killed
8. Those who permit the killing of munafiq, restricted to the time of the Prophet ﷺ
9. The severity of sins: The people whose only sin was procrastinating participating in the Battle
 - They got punished for all of this
 - Hasan al Basri is saying, if their sin was their lack of willingness to participate in a good deed, what about those who are sinning continuously?

10. Someone who is strong in their deen is held to a stronger sense of accountability than everyone else
 - Never take the silence of somebody as approval in these circles
 - It probably means that they are not comfortable telling you
 - It doesn't mean the thing was right and okay
11. It's permissible to tell stories about mistakes and the end result if it's for advising and helping others, as long as you're not romanticizing the sin
 - If it is going to be beneficial to another person you should share
 - Ex: a muslim who drank alcohol and quit successfully, sharing with a couple students who are struggling to help them
 - A religious person who changed, bragging about sins they used to do is actually a source of tawbah not being accepted
12. Permissibility of praising people if you are not worried about fitna
 - The fact that you praise one person
 - Fitna here means many things
 - 1: the person gets arrogant from the compliment
 - 2: praises in the wrong context which could potentially be offensive
 - 3: praising one person over and over again implies a level of favoritism
 - Reminders for people dealing with community work, even as examples using other people will cause rifts
 - If you don't handle things properly they can be interpreted inappropriately
13. Taking an oath just to emphasize your speech
14. Rejecting backbiting
15. When somebody has an opportunity to do a good deed they should rush to it
 - Kaab kept delaying his good deed and Allah ﷻ removed his tawfiq
16. To wish for something good to happen
 - Particularly for good deeds
 - You are allowed to wish for the opportunity to do good deeds
17. The leader can remind people of things/ the leader can be direct with people
18. Permissibility of accusing somebody due to overwhelming opinion, out of getting defensive and angry on behalf of deen
 - The guys who backbit Kaab didn't do so out of any personal grudge
 - He was just saying out of anger on behalf of deen
 - We get its permissibility from the Prophet ﷺ staying quiet
19. Permissibility of responding to an assumption with an assumption
 - Taqreer/ affirmation through the Prophet ﷺ's silence
20. Judging based on the apparent
21. Accepting excuses
22. Not saying salam to someone who committed a sin, and boycotting them for more than 3 days
 - The Prophet ﷺ prohibiting people from cutting each other off for more than 2 days
 - But if it's for a sharii reason, meaning that they are sinful, is permissible
 - A person also has to have an actual impact on the sinful party
 - Your silent treatment being impactful

23. Smiling can show anger
24. A senior leader correcting his close people and not other
25. The benefits and the value of being truthful
26. Lightening the burden by comparing yourself to other people
27. Entering the house of your close friend or relative if you know that they're okay with it
 - However you still have to maintain etiquette
28. Glancing with your eyes during salah doesn't break it
29. Giving obedience to the Prophet ﷺ priority over your family
30. A woman serving her husband
 - Like Hilal bin Umayya's wife
31. Burning things that have the name of allah ﷻ
32. Sajda shukr
33. Racing to give good news
34. Shaking hands
35. Charity for tawba
36. Oaths to donate money don't have to do all of it
37. Virtue of Kaab ibn Malik

 - That the Prophet ﷺ is not some angry war lord

Surah Tawbah

Surah Tawbah

Date Covered: 4/2 @ 0920, see voice memos, 4/2 @ 1253

Context

- Only surah that does not start with a basmalah
 - Because it is a declaration of war
- Other name
 - Surah Fadiha
 - Referring to the munafiq being exposed

Ayah 42

- The excuses made
 - Of it being too far away
 - Allah ﷻ describes them giving excuses as destroying themselves

Ayah 43

- Allah ﷻ addresses the Prophet ﷺ
 - Asks him why he let them go
 - Shouldn't have let him off the hook that easy
 - It would've become clear that they have no excuse

Ayah 44

- Can be translated in two ways
 - They do not ask you for exemption from struggle
 - On the contrary: the people who believe do not ask for permission
 - Has a masdariya
 - Jihadan bi amwalihim, has a missing harf jar
 - You either get the meaning of "not" to participate or you get the meaning that someone of true imaan is not going to ask for permission to participate
- The believer is not going to ask for permission
 - They not only have their bags packed but they're ready to go
 - The Prophet ﷺ was sending sahabi who weren't fit back
 - Ex: MAR needs to go to Chicago, two people respond. One asks if he can take him and the other one prepares everything
- Lesson: The effort of dawah succeeds through people who put in effort to do good
 - Your existence in a community is automatically spreading deen

Ayah 45

- Those who have faith... only those who are confused come and ask for permission
 - The people who come and ask
 - Some people, from birth, are used to being served by others
 - Ex: Someone brings tea, one person says I'll do it but doesn't actually do it
 - If you actually care you'll get up and do it yourself

Ayah 46

- Allah ﷻ did not want these people to participate
 - He stuck their feet to the ground
 - And held them back from getting up
- Lesson:
 - Sometimes we give us more credit than we deserve
 - Our participation in things is entirely by the tawfiq of Allah ﷻ
 - The thing that removes opportunity to do good is the failure to sacrifice
- Lesson: A person who does not show sacrifice or dedication will not get the tawfiq to serve deen
 - Someone who is constantly looking for excuses

Ayah 47

- Allah ﷻ doesn't allow them

Ayah 48

- Don't think that having those people will make a benefit
 - Allah ﷻ tells the sahaba, if they were here they would cause chaos
 - And some of the sahaba are listening very closely to what the munafiq are saying
- Lesson
 - Some of us fall into the habit of listening to the "munafiq" mentality
 - The habit of making excuses, which builds up
 - The people who have looked at every possible way to cause fitna and corruption

Ayah 49

- Beginning the accusations
- The person who came saying "allow me to avoid fitna" (of the Roman women)

Ayah 50-51

- They are bothered by anything that harms you and when you are hurt they're happy
 - Ex: S is told by A to come late
 - The munafiq would say, we told you not to go
- Lesson: When the believer is put into difficult positions it makes the munafiq seem "right"
 - Ex: 10/7 etc.

- Our attitude should be that we obey the command of Allah ﷻ
- If the munafiq come pointing to the losses, we remind ourselves that the two routes are jannah through death or victory

- Allah ﷻ is either going to destroy them, or we'll be the source of the destruction

Ayah 53

- Spend or donate Allah ﷻ will not accept
- Lesson: Hypocrisy prevents good deeds from being accepted

Ayah 54

- Their kufr is preventing their deeds from being accepted. They only come to salah in a very lazy state
 - If you can't be on time for salah
 - You are not going to have motivation to show up for battle
 - If you can show up for salah on time every day you have the necessary discipline
- And they do not enjoy giving for the sake of Allah ﷻ
 - Not enjoying it make the potential of the deed minimized
 - It also removes the likelihood of the tawfiq to continue

Ayah 55

- Allah ﷻ is telling the Prophet ﷺ not to be impressed by their money, children etc and that Allah ﷻ gave it to them to punish them

Ayah 56-57

- They are terrified, and if they find any reason to hide they will
 - Quality being highlighted: seeking social acceptance
- Lesson: Owning up to mistakes is a quality of sincerity
 - Ex: Someone's phone rings in class, and they hide to avoid admitting that it was them
 - A sincere person will not hide their mistake
 - You may be stressed about it
 - But like Kaab ibn Malik admitted that he had no excuse

Ayah 57

- And they come mocking you
 - Same word as lumaza
 - Saying that they are only happy when they are benefiting and are the center of attention

- They talk about justice only when they are disadvantaged

Ayah 61

- Lesson
 - The standard when someone talks about something else, you defend the person who is being spoken about
- The munafiq were accusing the Prophet ﷺ of being gullible and listening to everyone
 - But Allah ﷻ is responding that its to their benefit

Ayah 62

- They are going to come and make oaths to you
 - Ex: A is a munafiq but can't get to the person who is at the top who can detect their insincerity
- Question
 - Sincere people who say the wrong things
 - Genuine people who regurgitate statements of hypocrisy
 - Important for us to realize what those statements are
- Quality of a munafiq
 - Coming to a place and wanting access to powerful people but not having it. Trying to weasel their way in.
 - A person who spawns into a space and immediately becomes friends with all of the people in power

Ayah 63-24

- Allah ﷻ tells the munafiq that they're worried about getting exposed and its going to happen now

Ayah 65-66

- Making a mockery of deen and joking about it is being equated to kufr in this ayah
 - Some people have the habit of joking
 - Pick something else to joke about, don't joke about salah, the Prophet ﷺ etc.
- The munafiq are being told that they don't need to apologize

Ayah 67

- The male and female munafiq are from one another
 - They encourage each other to evil
- Whenever the female group is mentioned, the female group is being mentioned
 - Its like saying female twice
 - This ayah is focusing on female qualities
 - Emphasizes that there are female hypocrites and it looks different for them

- They are the ones propagating this narrative
- The role of a female munafiq
 - A child growing up somewhere is being taught munafiq sentiments and will carry that into his life
 - The fact that women are propagating those sentiments can have effects in this way
 - Their role: yamurun bil munkar
 - They encourage/command evil
 - They prohibit people from doing good
 - Ex: a group of friends where they are unhappy with one person for wanting to do something good
 - They are tight-fisted and refuse to spend their money
- Giving charity is one of the main ways to combat nifaq
 - The Prophet ﷺ recommended that women donate
 - Its easy to fall into the mentality that men possess all the money and thus should be the ones donating
 - Not true, one of the deeds women can do with no restrictions and were encouraged to do
- Giving emphasis to the main ways that women show nifaq, given that they can't go for battle anyway
- How do avoid this?
 - Be someone who encourages good
 - And discourages evil
 - And do not respond bitterly to people who are pursuing pious acts
 - It is a very dangerous quality to have if you try to minimize someone else's good deed
 - And someone does do good, reward and encourage it
- Lesson (for sisters): Not justifying sins out of "compassion"
 - Modern problem with communities of sisters
 - The people that are approving of sins sometimes they do it out of compassion
 - They don't want to be aggressive and they want to be nice and friendly to everyone
 - But such things could be corrected if done with wisdom
 - Ex: hijab of sister who are not used to coming to the masjid
 - You cannot allow a comforting to supercede your own perception of what is right and wrong
 - Naturally as human beings we have cognitive dissonance when surrounded with sinful behaviors
 - Either the sin becomes lighter in your eyes or you have trouble staying in the environment
 - Need to keep a system of improvement, cannot be too soft/enabling because this is how munafiq keep their system

Ayah 68-70

- Allah ﷻ promised them jahannam just like the people before them
 - Nuh, Ad, Thamud, Ibrahim, Midian and other ruined cities

- Purposes of listing
 - Chronological order, but swapped at the very end
 - Some of these nations are called by their prophets while others are called by the nation
 - The name has a level of hayba to it, hence why Ad and Thamud are mentioned by their names
 - The name that Allah ﷻ chooses is based off of specific qualities of the people he wants to highlight

Ayah 71

- Now talking about the believers
 - Previously, the munafiq were "from" the munafiq
 - Showing a lack of connection
 - Where as the believers are described as wali, true close friends
- The believing men and believing women encourage good
 - As a community they establish salah and zakat
 - And they obey Allah ﷻ and the Prophet ﷺ
- Highlighting the relationship between men and women of a society
 - How do they interact with one another?
 - The segment of society that is believing men and women is one of cohesive cooperation
 - They work together to establish these 5 things
- Lesson: The roles of men and women in deen are going to look different
 - Men have an emphasis to populate the masjid, fund and facilitate
 - Women also have to populate, but particularly to raise their children to do so
 - Slightly different between them
 - Things need to be handled differently between men and women
 - If the men of the society are falling short, oftentimes the women will step up to fix it as mothers, sisters, wives etc. And vice versa.
 - There's nothing out of these 5 things which is worth stress other than these things, in the world
- Allah ﷻ has mercy on the people who are working on these things
- Lesson: Overcoming the phenomenon of the gender war
 - Allah ﷻ is saying the unifying quality is imaan
 - Imaan is the primary thing to identify yourself by, and everything else is secondary
 - Everyone is going to be resurrected naked and nobody will care what they are
 - Shaqi and saeed will be the only differentiation
 - The obsession with genders stems from baseline confusion in a society
 - A person's basic sense of identity is at question
 - Men vs women mentality should not be instilled in children from a young age
 - There is so much mutual respect in islam for people who are trying to achieve the same goal
- Lesson: Overcoming not wanting to put blame on people who share an identity with you
 - Neutral story, the story of a couple

- You can't have anything in your mind that leads to blind support
- Like the slogan "women support women"
- It's not like that and it shouldn't be like that

Ayah 71

Conditions for Ilm/Jihad

1. You treat them with the same amount of discipline
 - a. Militant level of discipline
 - b. As you were set on top of a watch tower and if you're even a couple minutes late and you miss something it's dire
2. You treat it with the same amount of purpose
 - a. Treat ilm as if it is protecting the deen of Allah ﷻ and you are learning it so that you can pass it on
 - b. Jihad means exertion. Learning knowledge given the same amount of purpose

What is our job as onlookers to muslims who are making the call to take up arms against an oppressor? Unless they are fighting other muslims, criticizing them for their valid approach (based on shura) is like siding with the oppressor and a sign of nifaq

Question: working with groups of people where habits of nifaq come in.

- Question your own decisions many times before questioning others
- Have shura and constantly ask people for advice

Ayah 73

- How a society of nifaq should be combatted

Ayah 74

- Asbab ul nuzul, the munafiq saying wallahi I didn't say that
 - There are certain statements which are certainly kufr
 - They said such statements
- Part of this ayah is referring to the ones who tried to attack the muslims on their return

Ayah 75

- Addressing the group who are poor
- Story
 - A guy that didn't have any money
 - Some narrations mention that he wasn't actually a munafiq but he was heavily impacted by them
 - Ya Allah ﷻ, If you give me wealth and I'll donate it all
 - Then when Allah ﷻ blessed him with it he didn't use any of it

Ayah 76

- He broke his promise
- Lesson:
 - Nifaq is not something you are born with
 - Doing an action that leads to nifaq
 - He was around the wrong people
 - If you listen to a certain narrative for a long enough time, the same way imaan grows, nifaq also grows

Ayah 78-79

- The ones mocking those who give while they don't have anything, Allah ﷻ is going to make a mockery of them
 - They're insecure because they're not donating
 - Don't want to look bad

Ayah 80-81

- The emotion of the munafiq
 - Mukhallaf as majhool
 - This word shows that sacrificing is an opportunity
 - Allah ﷻ chooses who to bless
 - Analogy: Nobody misses class, rather Allah ﷻ holds them back
- Story
 - Sheikh's teacher would take attendance
 - They would do it by class
 - He would say where are the people who Allah ﷻ deprived yesterday
 - And he would make them stand the whole day
 - It's his way of saying that you are so close and yet Allah ﷻ is depriving you
- Fariha
 - A type of happiness that is referring to relief
 - The munafiq are happy to enjoy their seats

Ayah 82

- And they hate the concept of fighting so they're making excuses

- so tell them that they should laugh very little and tell them of their future

Ayah 83

- Never going to face an enemy with me again
 - Shows the same concept
- Lesson: Refusing to participate leads to deprivation of opportunity
 - There's so many people who want to do seekers that never end up doing it
 - Like the tribes who wanted to sponsor the muslims in the beginning but missed their chance
 - The system of Allah ﷻ works in such a way that if you are complacent
 - You don't make it a thing of wanting to/not wanting to, when you talk about it like your not sure of its virtue, thats how you ensure that you'll lose the opportunity
 - When Allah ﷻ continues to give you a bunch of opportunities and you squander them
 - Allah ﷻ is way more generous in that he will continue to give you opportunities but theres no telling when Allah ﷻ might take it away

Ayah 84

- Lesson: A leader does not accept work from people who are unwilling to do it
 - MAR's dad wrote them a letter
 - Need to be able to work at any time, for any purpose, etc.
 - Need to be able to correct them in any way without any hesitation
 - It could be the randomest task
 - Need to be able to accept that whole heartedly and happily
 - Allah ﷻ will move on to the next person quickly
 - Ex: Mufti Aasim travels often, MII guys coordinate who will take him to the airport
 - Sheikh worries every time. Kid sends a broadcast message asking who can pick Mufti Aasim up, and nobody answers it except Sheik
 - MAR keeps saying to give him a chance
- Lesson: Receiving correction at any time
 - If the thought comes to mind of the person correcting you that you might not take it well, that's something you need to fix
 - Eventually you are going to get worse and worse because people are pampering you
 - Services of deen need to be held to higher standard
 - MAW is the best at this, a teacher was showing up late
 - There is no room for inefficiency or shortcuts, need to treat this with a thousand times more weight than anything else. You're learning the information that keeps the world going

Ayah 85-86

- Prophet prohibited from praying their janazah
- Don't be deceived by their children and wealth

Ayah 87

- Allah ﷻ is saying they are happy sitting back with the women and children

Ayah 88-89

- Now moving into those who are actually excused

Ayah 92

- Nor is there any blame on those who ask for a ride and when you have nothing to give them their eyes are pouring with tears
- Lesson: Two options for responding to such opportunities
 - Either be jumping on it as quickly as possible
 - Or be crying about your inability to participate

Ayah 93

- Tell them there is no need to give any excuse

Ayah 94-95

- Talking about how what they do is known, and to ignore them

Ayah 96

- They're going to come and take oaths

Ayah 101

- Allah ﷻ tells the prophet ﷺ there are more hypocrites on the outskirts of Madina and that he is going to punish them

Ayah 102

- The ones who confess their deeds
 - Like abu lubaba
 - And they have a mix of good and bad

Ayah 103-105

- Lesson: Reintegrating a person who committed a major sin
 - For us it looks very different
 - While these guys (Kaab etc.) were being boycotted, they didn't know what was going to happen

- This was the most severe punishment a muslim received up until then
- It was a very serious thing
- Even if you bring the person back, everyone's hearts are not big enough to just accept them
- It's easier to cut them off. The difficult person is to care for them ourself
- Don't be supporters of Shaytan against others
- The Prophet ﷺ would tell sahaba not to mention Ikrimah's father at all
- How do you do that while having a fear of being affected by them or feeling bad for the person they wronged
 - Don't give them a baseball bat ever again
 - Just because you forgave them doesn't mean that you give them the same level of authority
 - You don't enable them to commit the sin/crime again
 - Regarding feeling bad for the victim
 - "Don't let your hatred or compassion affect your ability to be just"
 - Your obligation is to the entire ummah
 - Your emotional attachment to the victim can lead to a level of injustice
 - Takes a lot of maturity, not to ostracize people over things like this
 - For that person to be around
- Regarding victims deciding the course of action
 - Common thing in modern day society
 - Worships the victim, which is a very dangerous thing to have
 - Sanctifying the victim to the point where they commit various oppressions and get away with it
 - The one who has experience a dhulm, cant go overboard in killing, and can't do more than they did to you. An ayah like this where the Prophet ﷺ is told to make dua
 - "If you show me their destruction, do not allow me to turn into an oppressor"
- Islam has a system of justice that is not dependent on the opinions or emotions of either party (the victim or the oppressor)
 - The Prophet ﷺ corrected the sahaba when they spoke negatively of the woman who made tawbah after zina
 - If you can understand this you can become very balanced
 - However its hard to implement into our society
 - Start at a small scale, do not be the kind of person who cuts people off over small things
- - Kids went from cabin to cabin
 - Took milk cans and threw it on the cabins
 - 20 of them in a gang, all recording
 - All of them lied
 - Kid lied then they showed him the video
 - If you punish someone who is doing wrong when it is there only experience with good things, it might turn them away

- As for the ones who took Masjid Dirar
 - Dirar means harm
 - Don't set foot in that masjid ever again

Ayah 108

- The sin that they committed of making Masjid Dirar is going to stay in their hearts until the end

Ayah 111

- Allah ﷻ purchased peoples lives from them
 - A believers offers every second and every penny for Allah ﷻ
 - It does not mean they will be happy necessarily
 - But they are promised jannah
- We don't have the delusional image of being promised a happy life we are only promised jannah. Everything else is just extra

Ayah 112

- They fight in the path of Allah ﷻ
 - This was a process established in the previous books
 - Be happy with this deal

Ayah 113

- It is not permissible to make duas for the mushriqeen

Ayah 117

- Ayaat of the tawbah of Kaab, Hilaal etc,

Ayah 119

- Fear Allah ﷻ and be truthful

Ayah 120

- Not fitting of a believer to sit back and chill while others serve Allah ﷻ
- Lists the virtues
 - Every second that they thirsty and hungry and fatigued
 - Each step they take angers the kuffar
 - Putting yourself in a position that makes the enemy angry
- The smallest thing to the end result, it is all rewarded

Ayah 121

- If they spend a little or a lot for gods cause if they traverse a mountain pass all this is recorded to their credit so that god can reward them in accordance to their deeds
- Lesson: Getting one inch closer to anything
 - Even social media posts
 - Because even that makes a difference
 - You are rewarded even for the “one step”
 - Not beneficial to always be thinking about the big picture
 - It boils the enemy on the inside

Ayah 122

- It doesn't make sense for the believers to all go in battle, some need to focus ilm
 - So that they can learn the deen and establish it
 - You can't fall short in either
 - If you fall short in defense, the place is not safe enough to continue with spreading ilm
- Lesson: You need to have safety and security to teach ilm, and military without education leads to improper moral grounds

- A messenger from your own selves has come to you and it hurts him a lot when you suffer,
 - Allah ﷻ is telling them how much the Prophet ﷺ cares
 - Doing this is the most merciful and compassionate thing they can do
 - Like a child going to the doctor for an injection, preventative measures
 - Allah ﷻ doesn't want your dunya and akhira to both be compromised
- If it was not for the fact that Allah ﷻ used people to prevent harm on others

Ayah 129

- If after all of this nobody participates, just say that Allah ﷻ will take care of it
 - Just do what you need to

Questions and Answers

Not all sins can be completely erased. Tangible things happen in this world for even small sins, which is why Allah ﷻ prohibits it. Certain things are inseparable from sins. Along with the tawfiq to do good deeds.

On every realm of sacrifice. Theoretically, a person who thinks they have done their time and they are now entitled to sitting back and relaxing. They claim authority by virtue of their suffering. People are tempted to speak as if their experiences grant them authority. The fact that somebody did something doesn't mean anything if they are not speaking the truth

Post Tabuk

Post Tabuk

Date Covered: 4/6 @ 1123

Islam of Khuraym bin Aws

- First event immediately after Tabuk
 - He says he came to accept islam right as the Prophet ﷺ was on his way back in
 - The Prophet ﷺ was speaking to sahaba, and some of them were under the assumption that jihad was over
 - He says, theres going to be battles until the DOJ
 - And the muslims are going to conquer Hira (capital of Iraq)
 - Says he sees its castle and the daughter riding a white mule, wearing a black bandana on her head in that exact situation
- Khuraym becomes amazed by this and asks, can she be my captive
 - Because the ransom of a princess is a lot of money
 - Then he tells the story about dealing with the false prophets, and then reaching Hira
 - And how he saw the daughter in exactly that state
 - I captured her and grabbed her mule
 - Khalid ibn Walid asked if there was any proof
 - And then her brother came to ransom her, his name was Abdul Massih
 - Khuraym says Im not going to ransom her for any less than 1000 dirhams
 - And he says that he didn't know any number bigger than this
 - Shows how simple the people were who were conquering kingdoms

Umm Khultums Death

- Narrated by Umm Aati
 - One of the women taught how to do ghusls
 - The Prophet ﷺ was standing outside the room telling her what to do
 - Wash her body 3 times or 5 times with sidr
 - And perfume the last cloth
- Then they called the Prophet ﷺ who wrapped her, and he took off his own garment to shroud her
 - All the remaining daughters had passed away at this point, besides Fatima
 - She is also the second wife of Uthman
- Uthman's reaction
 - The Prophet ﷺ said, marry your daughters to Uthman RA
 - Allah ﷻ commanded me to marry my daughters to him

Death of Abdullah ibn Ubayy

- Gets sick for 20 days, the prophet ﷺ would visit him
 - The Prophet ﷺ said i told you not to tie yourself to the jews so much

- He says leave me alone
- Was sick, fading in and out of consciousness
- Asaad bin Surara also had animosity
- He asks the Prophet ﷺ to bury him in his clothes, pray his janazah and make dua for him
 - When he passes, his son Abdullah ibn Ubayy
 - The Prophet ﷺ takes his outer layer off
 - Then his son asks for his inner shirt too
 - And Abdullah ibn Ubayy gets buried
- Then the Prophet ﷺ stands to pray his janazah and Umar stands in his way
 - The Prophet ﷺ half smiles and says move out of the way
 - He is being stern with him
 - Umar doesn't budge because of what it represents
 - The Prophet ﷺ says Allah جل جلاله gave me an option
- Then the Prophet ﷺ prayed his janazah
 - A few seconds later the ayat came down, do not pray their janazah and do not even visit their graves
 - Umar narrates later he wonders how he was so bold
- Lesson: Showing respect in the right timing can be a good form of dawah
 - Why did the Prophet ﷺ pray to begin with?
 - It was a form of dawah to the munafiq
 - Many of Ibn Ubayy's tribe accepted islam because they showed him respect
 - It is a weird moment to witness
 - But a person in power showing respect to an oppressor is not always something to take out of proportion
 - Have to understand what he is doing here
 - A group of people whose default expectation is to be treated poorly but instead they are treated well, it shifts their perspective
 - There's always going to be umars in these situations
- Lesson: I
 - Why didn't the ayat come until after?
 - Allah جل جلاله could've sent the ayat before, but he allowed it to show there is a wisdom in the wrong thing taking place too
 - It shows that there is a balance
 - Even if you end up doing the wrong thing, there could still be khair in it
 - Ex. if Sheikh sits with a Zionist lobby
 - If we don't have this in the front of our mind we get very confused
- Other wisdoms
 - Also a means of comfort to the son
 - Also a repayment for when Ibn Ubayy gave his shirt to Abbas

Hajj of Abu Bakr

- 9 AH in Dhul Hijjah
- Assigns the hajj group to Abu Bakr

- Prophet ﷺ doesn't go himself because there are many new delegations coming into Madina now
- Also so that people get a clearer perception of what tawaf/hajj is supposed to look like, once islam is more established in Mecca
- First ayah of surah tawbah is revealed
 - Comes down giving rules for each type of person
 - Ali gets sent with these ayat
 - To the mushrik, they need to see someone from the same tribe as the Prophet ﷺ to accept
- Abu Bakr recognizes the sound of the camel of the Prophet ﷺ that Ali RA is riding
 - Were you sent as the new amir or a messenger
 - No just a messenger
- On the day of Eid he reads it out
 - No mushrik hajj after this year
 - No hajj without clothes
 - No jaannah except for beleiveres
 - Treaties continue to set date if not then 4 months
 - After 4 moitnhs all are null
- Abu Bakr appoints Abu Huraira and a few others
 - He narratesKept calling out over and over again until I lost my voice
- mAIN purpose is to set the stage for the Prophet ﷺ
 - When he eventually comes he announces to all of arabia that everyone needs to come
 - Does it in a very PR way

Death of Ibrahim/ Delegations to Yemen

Death of Ibrahim/ Delegations to Yemen

Date Covered: 4/6 @ ?, 4/7 @ 0910

Abu Musa and Muadh to Yemen

- Abu Musa Al Ashari and Muadh ibn Jabal are sent to Yemen to teach
 - Sent to different regions
 - The Prophet ﷺ told them to make things easy on people
 - Muadh was the imam of his community and would make his salah longer
 - Give people glad tidings and don't push them away. And you too as two leaders work together and do not disagree with each other
 - Then the Prophet says to Muadh, first thing tell them la ilaha, then salah, then zakat, then make sure that you don't touch their wealth and fear the du'a of the oppressed person, there is no barrier between the oppressed and Allah ﷻ
 - The last words the Prophet ﷺ ever told me, Ya Muadh have great akhlaq
- Muadh's last conversation with the Prophet ﷺ
 - How will you judge if there are court issues
 - Muadh says ill use quran
 - Prophet ﷺ says what if it's not there
 - Then sunnah
 - What if it's not there
 - Then my best judgement
 - Alhamdulillah that Allah ﷻ gave the ability to the messenger of the messenger of Allah ﷻ
 - His actual final words while his camel is moving
 - It's very likely you will never see me again and you will pass by the masjid and you will see my grave
 - Muadh starts weeping and the Prophet ﷺ turns the other way towards Madina because he is also crying
 - Know the people closest to me are the people of taqwa, wherever they are on the face of the earth
 - The whole purpose of raising a community is to send them out
- Lesson:
 - Despite not wanting to leave + things coming to an end
 - This is a good example of the fact that you're not necessarily going to back in this environment again
 - Good memories are not the purpose of this type of thing
 - In this dunya, if you're ready to go to the ends of the earth to serve the deen you're not necessarily going to see the people you love
- Story from Muadh in Yemen
 - He's reading at Fajr
 - And a bedouin guy says, Ibrahim's mom is a lucky lady
 - Talks out loud thinking it's cool lol

Death of Ibrahim

- Rabi Al Awwal 10 AH
 - Anaas ibn Malik narrates
 - We all went into the house after hearing that Ibrahim is sick
 - The Prophet ﷺ kissed him and we all left
- Ibrahim's breathing became weak and the Prophet ﷺ was crying
 - Abdrahman ibn Awf was surprised that the Prophet ﷺ was crying
 - Even you cry oh Prophet ﷺ
 - He says the famous hadith
 - Even if our eyes shed tears and our hearts feel sadness we don't say anything except what pleases Allah جل جلاله
- Lesson: What you feel internally does not negate sabr, rather your words and actions
 - In the ayat of loss in surah baqara
 - And give glad tidings to the people of patience
 - It doesn't talk about those who do not feel sadness
- Then the prophet ﷺ says Oh Ibrahim we are very saddened at your loss
 - The things that please Allah جل جلاله are not only dhikr and tabih
- The Prophet ﷺ says
 - Ibrahim has 2 foster mothers in Jannah now
- Virtues of losing children at each age
 - Miscarriage
 - A child that was miscarried will argue with Allah جل جلاله on the DOJ (murara means throwing a tantrum) until their parents are taken to jannah
 - The child will pull its mother by the umbilical cord into jannah
 - Loss of any child
 - In one of the gatherings, the women of Madina asked for time with the Prophet ﷺ. He told them to gather in a house on such and such date. One of them narrates a moment, Any one of you that buries three of her children those children are a barrier between you and jannah. Then a woman asks "What about two?" very urgently. And he responded to her the same way (repeating 3 times) "And two"
 - The Prophet ﷺ would have all children buried with Uthman ibn Madhun, the first to die in Madina
- Unclear if the Prophet ﷺ prayed janazah or not
 - Supposed to pray janazah of a baby if they show signs of life
 - There is a difference of opinion
 - Some sahaba did not narrate because they weren't present
- Happened the same day as an eclipse
 - Some had the superstition that things happen in the sky when an important person is born or dead
 - The Prophet ﷺ said The sun and the moon are two signs of Allah جل جلاله, they don't change based on the birth and death of a person
- Lesson: Not attaching meaning to zodiac signs, birth stones etc.

- All of this is a form of shirk
- To actually believe in it takes someone out of the folds of islam
- And to be swayed by it is also sinful
- There's hadith about sitting in a soothsayer
- Or even sitting with a palm reader as a joke
- Or opening a fortune cookie and giving weight to the fortune inside
- The Prophet ﷺ then tells them what to do. If you see something change in the sky, go to salah as quickly as possible
 - He reads Surah Baqara in one rakat
 - The eclipse prayer was very long for him
 - Once they prayed Masjid Uthman, Baqara silently
 - The ruku is equal length, as is the sujud
- Wisdom of the Prophet ﷺ not having living sons
 - The fitna that was attached to even his grandsons is telling
 - People took it very far, claiming prophethood
 - Some weak hadith: if he had lived after me people would have attributed prophethood to him

Khalid and Ali Sent to Yemen

- Khalid ibn Walid and Ali get sent out
 - Khalid first
 - Ali says I don't have any experience
- The Prophet ﷺ smacks him in the chest
 - Makes dua: Guide his heart and make him firm
 - Gives advice: Ya Ali, when two people are in a dispute, don't give any verdict until hearing both sides of the story because one side can be a lie. If you dig into both sides it will be very clear
 - After that day I had no hesitation in figuring out between two people
- Lesson: Forming judgements about people
 - Should not be done without hearing both sides
 - Sometimes its hard, especially when the sob story is convincing
 - As the person who was affected, sometimes a leader might have a tough reaction because it is their job to investigate and be defensive
 - Even if it is your own sister that was beaten up with a baseball bat
 - Your love for another person is not allowed to lean you in their direction in judgement
- Personal Story
 - South Africa and UK, some parts of shariah are recognized in legislation
 - One of Sheikh's teachers, served as a qadi, would make them watch
 - Would sometimes have to kick them out and tell them to collect themselves
 - As a student Sh. would get emotionally attached but as the Qadi he would have to be very emotionally indifferent
- Side story:
 - Having emotional intelligence and social aptitude

- Sometimes you just have to walk away from it
- Library, muslim guy was drunk and a bunch of friends making fun of him
- Then the kids dad sees the friend dropping the kid off
- The dad call thinking hes the one who harmed him
- While Ali is in Yemen
 - Has an interesting situation
 - ? says I was in the group that went with him
 - We had a personal caravan, with zakat camels
 - Asks to give rest to our camels and ride the zakat camels instead
 - Ali says no
- Then Ali leaves for hajj
 - Some sahaba stayed back
 - Among them is Abu Saeed Al Khudri
 - One of them says, the guy left behind in charge allowed us to ride the camels of sadaqa
- Abu Saeed al Khudri and the others meet the Prophet ﷺ back in Madina
 - Saad ibn Malik tells the story
 - Dont imply that he is being too harsh, you know that he is a good person
- Lesson: Not questioning the decisions of a leader
 - Saad was narrating this at a time when Ali was fighting Muawiyya
 - There were moments of tension like this

Hajj

Hajj

Date Covered; 4/8 @ 0910 SEE IPAD - 32, 4/9 @ 0922

Farewell Hajj

- Details
 - Difficult to come to an exact number about how many times the Prophet ﷺ did hajj
 - The Prophet ﷺ leaves for this Hajj on Saturday the 25th of Dhul Qaadah
- The Prophet ﷺ announced to everybody to come
 - It was documented very well
 - 90,000 to 114,0000
 - All of the people of the north gathered in Madina
 - The south met them in Makkah
 - Abu Dhujana left in charge
- They stopped at Dhul Hulayfa
 - Structure: Haram > hill > miqat (the boundary between hill and aafaq) > aafaq
 - Once you enter miqat with the intention of hajj/umrah you have to be in ihram
 - Dhul Hulayfa is a miqat point
 - People still stop there
- The Prophet ﷺ spends the night there
 - The sahaba get ready to enter ihram the next morning
- The Prophet ﷺ entering ihram
 - The Prophet ﷺ took a shower
 - Then Aisha put athar on his body (not his clothes)
 - Then she put honey on his hair (like gel)
 - Then he put the clothes of ihram on and they readied their saddles
 - Then he prayed two rakat
 - Then he did labbayk
 - Cant cut your nail, hair etc
 - The Prophet ﷺ makes intention for both hajj and umrah
- 3 types of ihram
 - Simple things to understand
 - Qiraan: hajj and umrah together in one ihram
 - You perform umrah without shaving your head and continue in a state of ihram into hajj
 - Tamattu: hajj and umrah in two ihrams
 - After umrah you shave, and before hajj you put on a new ihram
 - Ifraar: hajj only
 - Ulama differ on what the Prophet ﷺ did
 - The most famous narrations are that he did qiraan

Sunnahs/Rulings of Hajj

- 1: The labbayk
 - The one that is famous
 - The Prophet ﷺ would also say Ya Allah جل allows this to be a hajj that is not for showing off
 - He wanted to be purposefully humble
 - Sahaba had their own variations of talbiya
 - Lesson: Adhkar and duas don't always have to be exactly how the Prophet ﷺ did it
 - The sahaba did different things and the Prophet ﷺ did not comment
- 2: Doing talbiya/talbir loudly
 - Some sahaba lost their voices
 - The Prophet ﷺ said:
 - Ajj: loud and tadj: blood being spilled
 - Talbiya is a sunnah that only exists within ihram
 - Hadith: Any time someone in a state of ihram says labbayk, an angel responds with you're going to jannah
 - Takbir is also included in this
 - Along with talbiya
 - Muft Aasim will make Sh do it when they go
- Asma bint Umais (current wife of Abu Bakr) give birth while in ihram
 - Was pregnant at the time, near delivery
 - Still wanted to go for Hajj
 - Then she gives birth
 - The Prophet ﷺ tells her to take a shower and enter ihram
 - And you can do all of the actions of hajj except tawaf
 - Abu Bakr's son is the first child to be named Muhammad after the Prophet ﷺ
- All 9 of the wives are present
 - After you do this hajj, stay home
 - But Aisha would still do hajj every year
- The Prophet ﷺ tells the camel singer, Anjasha, to take it easy
 - Anjasha was the ahaadi/ camel singer
 - His job was singing to the camels
 - This would make the camels go faster or slower
 - The Prophet ﷺ then says, don't have the camels running so fast when there are glass bottles on them
 - Referring to the wives
 - Side Lesson: Shows how powerful music is
- Lesson: Etiquette of a caravan
 - Even though Anjasha could take them to the destination very fast
 - You should stay slow, out of respect and courtesy for the group
- Lesson: The sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ was to make sure people are comfortable
 - Someone could say, if they can't handle the journey why are they going
 - There were many instances in which the Prophet ﷺ delayed the whole group to take care of one person
- Hajj/umrah without tahara

- Umrah: old school fatwa is to wait until you exit haidh to do umrah
- Current fatwa: do tawaf in whatever state you are and consider your umrah complete
- 3: Hajar al Aswd
 - Kissing it is a source of sins being forgiven
 - He sees Umar and he says this is the place where tears are meant to be poured
 - The moment stayed with Umar in his khilafa
 - I know that you are just a rock but I saw the Prophet ﷺ do this so I am doing it
- The Prophet ﷺ shares the etiquette
 - Do not crowd, you are a strong guy
 - If you find an opening then go
 - And if not just say la ilaha, allahuakbar
- Story
 - Sh. says he has tried to get to the black stone twice, couldn't
 - The hateem only opens in specific times, hard to get to
 - Sh and MAR, kid squeezes his leg, sh picked him up and the dad was at the kaaba and gave thumbs up
 - They crowd surfed a baby to the kaaba lol

End of Hajj

- Days
 - Sunday - Wednesday
 - 4 days total
 - They finish safa and marwa
- The Prophet ﷺ tells them to do tamatu'u
 - While at marwa, anyone who didnt make niyyah for the animals of hajj, they should shave their heads
 - Suraqa ibn Malik says to explain it to me like I was newborn baby
 - Is this only for now or is it allowed forever
- Then they camp outside of Mecca for 3 days
 - This was done on purpose
 - Did not do tawaf until the tawaf of hajj
 - If he was going back and forth ever day people might confuse the bare minimum
 - Ibn Abbas says, the Prophet ﷺ did not go near the kaaba until after hajj was over
- Ali returns from Yemen and goes straight to Fatima who is not in ihram, and yells at her
 - He asks the Prophet ﷺ
 - I told myself that I am making the intention however the Prophet ﷺ made it
 - If you did that, just stay in ihram
- Now it is the 7th of Dhul Hijjah
 - Yawm uz Zina
 - Each day has a name
 - Last day before the actions of hajj actually start
 - On the 8th thats the first day when things start
- The Prophet ﷺ gives a speech on this day

- 5 speeches total in his hajj
- The first one is on this day
- He teaches the actions of hajj
- Sunnah to do this, for the leaders
- 9th of DH - khutbah of arafah
- 10 - Eid khutbah
- 11
- 12
- On the night of the 8th of Dhul Hijjah they camp at Mina
 - Known as Laylat ul Tarwuya
 - The sahaba spent the night of
 - tHEY Camp at Mina
 - He says I'm going to camp in the same place where the Kuffar signed the boycott
 - The Prophet ﷺ prays duhr of the 8th until fajr of the 9th
- The Prophet ﷺ shares the virtues of Arafah
 - There is no day where Shaytan is more weak and disgraced
 - Because the muslims are all standing together
 - The only day he felt more disgraced was Badr
 - Sahaba asked why, and its because he saw Jibreel lining up the soldiers and fled
- There is not a day where more people are freed from jahannam
 - the angels praises people doing ibadah
 - Allah ﷻ asks the angels, what are they doing
 - Its like if Sheikh sees us studying really specific information with dedication
 - It shows how much dedication and sacrifice a person makes
- On the day of Arafah, Ibn Abbas says his brother Fadl kept looking at a lady, and the Prophet ﷺ noticed. Then he said this is a day that anybody that guards their eyes and tongue, their sins are forgiven
 - The Prophet ﷺ is bringing their attention
 - People go their with messed up intentions
 - Sheikhs friend was in ihram, got pulled off to the side. A guy was taking pictures of his sister
 - Arafah is also a day when you are sitting and doing nothing but making dua
 - Its very easy to do nothing but gheeba on the day of Arafah
 - Needs a separate intentionality

Showing desperation in front of the kaaba, it shows a higher spiritual state. The symbolism of it
Avoiding harm is given preference over attaining benefit

I've heard the concept of need to spiritually cleanse yourself before you go or else you might lose your opportunity

- Allah ﷻ
- For it to be a more impactful trip you should

Once you have hadi, you have to slaughter the animal and complete the hajj

Khutbah of Arafah

Khutbah of Arafah

 - A couple lines which we will talk about in detail

Blood Money/Interest/Calendar Year Section

IN CLASS TRANSLATION

The Prophet ﷺ stands up on Arafah and says the intro. Oh people listen, because its very likely you will not see me again after this year. Oh people, your blood and wealth is haram upon people, until the day you meet your lord its never going to be acceptable. Just the same way the day of Arafah is so noble, and and Mecca is, violating a person is the same as violating Mecca. Every single form of interest is abolished. Oh people, Shaytan has lost hope that he will be worshiped in this land ever again. But if you obey shaytan in other ways he is happy. So avoid these situations And you are allowed to get back the capital that you loaned out. And you are not allowed to oppress anybody. Allah ﷻ declared that riba does not exist. The first interest that I am abolishing is that of Abbas. All of the blood money of jahiliya is abolished. The first I am abolishing is that of my own cousin Rabi'a. Brings ayah of Surah Tawbah, the delaying of sacred months is not possible anymore. Time has now spun around, and today onward is the actual calendar. Allah ﷻ created the year with 12 months and (lists 3 of them) are sacred. Today is arafah and it will continue to be the only arafah as allah ﷻ set it

ONLINE TRANSLATION

"O people: postponing the inviolability of a sacred month [claiming to postpone the prohibition of killing in it to a subsequent month, so as to continue warring despite the sacred month's having arrived] is a surfeit of unbelief, by which those who disbelieve are led astray, making it lawful one year and unlawful in another, in order to match the number [of months] Allah has made inviolable. Time has verily come full turn, to how it was the day Allah created the heavens and the earth. Four months there are which are inviolable, three in a row and fourth by itself: Dhul-Qa'da, Dhul-Hijja, and Muharram; and Rajab, which lies between Jumada and Sha'ban. Have I given the message?—O Allah, be my witness."

- Wisdom of abolishing blood money
 - Wisdom of this is that fixing it will only create more war
 - In order to move on from something negative you have to completely move on. If you keep trying to fix it, you are going to make it harder to move on
 - Ex: racism in this country, making people hyper aware of race as a concept, which actually builds more resentment

- Trying to build society off of past wrong constructs isn't productive
- Establishing the calendar
 - Nasih: a practice in which they would delay the sacred months out of personal incentives
 - Some tribes even had a different calendar because of how often they would switch their calendars
 - This brings them

Family Section

IN CLASS TRANS

Oh people your wives have rights over you, that you do not allow people into your house. And your right is that they do not commit zina, and if they commit promiscuity, then Allah ﷻ has permitted you to distance yourself from them and strike them in a way that is not damaging. And if they stop the sin that they are committing, it is their right upon you that you provide for them based on what is customarily appropriate. I am entrusting you to treat the women of your family well. They are like prisoners to you. And the only reason you were allowed to marry them is because you conducted nikkah

ONLINE TRANS

“O people: verily you owe your women their rights, and they owe you yours. They may not lay with another man in your beds, let anyone into your houses you do not want without your permission, or commit indecency. If they do, Allah has given you leave to debar them, send them from your beds, or [finally, only] strike them in a way that does no harm. But if they desist, and obey you, then you must provide for them and clothe them fittingly. The women who live with you are in your trust, unable to manage for themselves: you took them as a trust from Allah, and enjoyed their sex as lawful through a word [legal ruling] from Allah. So fear Allah in respect to women, and concern yourselves with their welfare. Have I given the message?—O Allah, be my witness

Explaining “prisoners”

- Lesson: Duty on the husband to not abuse privacy
 - Things that happen in the home are very private
 - The husband is in a position of power, don't misuse it
 - They might want to hide things, the Prophet ﷺ is acknowledging that
 - Especially at that time there was really no way of a person's family knowing if she is being abused
- Prioritizing privacy
 - Not just spinning it to a positive angle, because the Prophet ﷺ precedes and follows up with taking care of the women
 - Similar priority conveyed in another hadith in which the Prophet ﷺ says you should not ask a man why he hit his wife
 - The main message is to value privacy

- Last sentence: The thing that differentiates nikkah from zina is obeying the command of Allah ﷻ

Explaining “Striking” the wives/ Wadhribu hunna

- Reminders
 - The elephant and the rider. Emotional reactions. Sometimes when we hear some things we apply our own conceptions to what the Prophet ﷺ
 - Any time you come to an ayah and hadith, you understand that it is Allah ﷻ and the Prophet ﷺ talking to us and that we have to accept it (in its proper understanding) as truth
 - Not everything needs to be understood, and not everything is going to be able to see the wisdom behind it
 - If you understand the wisdom of 9/10 things, you don't throw out the basket with the eggs. You accept that the 10th thing has a wisdom behind it too
- Understanding that the Prophet ﷺ did not make domestic violence permissible
 - Domestic violence as modern society defines it is categorically haram
 - The Prophet ﷺ in another hadith says do not strike your wives
 - He himself never struck anybody
- Understanding that the concept of physical discipline is stable across all societies, though our current society has a very minimal threshold for it right now
 - Through history there are various levels of physical discipline which are tolerated in society
 - Ex: Between a parent and a child, a teacher and their student, and between spouses
 - Our generation witnessed the turn in society where it became less acceptable
 - Your shock and disgust is produced by society, don't default to it
 - It depends on whether there is actual harm being produced by it
 - Ex: Sh. gets into an argument with his mom and she smacks him in the head. Showing disapproval of an action in a minimal harm way
- Explaining “ghayr mubarri”/ hitting without causing harm
 - The hard red line is when it causes tangible harm
 - The Prophet ﷺ sets the line
 - Ghayr mubarri: meaning to hit in a way where the skin changes color (Sh. demonstrates a slap on the wrist which makes his skin pink)
 - NOT meaning bruises
 - Permissible to this extent, but even then it is not recommended
 - But doing such a thing is not inherently sinful
 - Particularly if it crushes a person's mind
 - Not allowed to belittle a person through physical discipline
- The Prophet ﷺ limits this discipline to a specific scenario: the woman is engaging in promiscuity
 - Borderline adultery, very frequently
 - Before jumping to divorce and separation, trying everything that can be done to resolve the situation
 - The Quran explains this with a lot of wisdom, to avoid tearing a family apart

- The wife doing something haram is grounds for divorce
- The most you are allowed to show your disapproval is through this light form of hitting that does not leave a mark on the skin
- It borders on a symbolic gesture
- Physical discipline only works if it is never used
 - Saved for the most dire of situations
 - The hit to ego and shock will be more than the actual pain
 - Some sahaba would compare to hitting someone with a miswak
 - There is no actual pain involved, but the action of physical discipline and being angry enough to do it is a shock
- Nushuz
 - Means to elevate, to raise
 - Meaning that the wife is treating the husband in a very arrogant way
 - A “forget you, I’m going to do what I want” attitude
 - Limited to very extreme situations
- The levels of mediation in the Quran
 - Physical discipline
 - Temporary separation
 - A mediator from each side of the family
- Regarding mediation
 - Resolving it by bringing in people
 - Allah ﷻ wants to avoid this
- The concept of takeed al mubah
 - What is an acceptable level of physical discipline?
 - Is a society like this one, where none of it is acceptable, we can make the argument that it becomes restricted
 - Takeed Al Mubah: a concept in fiqh where the baseline of something is permissible but it leads to something impermissible
 - Ex: permissible to eat carrots but all the carrots in a area are cancerous, so it becomes haram to eat the carrot
 - So someone might say, it will not go well for a person to hit their wife in current society and thus it is impermissible
- How exactly is promiscuity defined in this context?
 - The Prophet ﷺ is defining it on the basis of allowing men into the house
- Is physical discipline limited to this context?
 - Not necessarily, can be an option for scenarios of a similar nature
 - Dealing with the fact that physical discipline in previous eras was greater
- Pain is different from harm, there is a boundary and it is subjective from society to society

And I am leaving you things that if you hold onto them you will never be misguided. And listen carefully. Every muslim is the brother of another muslim so it is not permissible to take something from someone else unless with happy arms (thib un nafs)

- Thib un nafs
 - Welcoming with happy arms
 - Year 2 class, were about to leave, Sh. realizes no thib un nafs
 - A person needs to be immediately ready to give up their time, money, energy
 - Don't take favors without this either

Oh Allah ﷻ testify to the fact I conveyed what I was supposed to convey.

Other parts were narrated by other sahabaa

Allah ﷻ has given every person their due right, not allowed to include new people in the will. Allah ﷻ already clarified what was due to be given. And the child is attributed to the existing marriage when the woman gave birth. And zina will not have the honor of having a child attributed to it. Anybody that attributes lineage to people who are not their family and its false, or claims a treaty, then the curse of Allah ﷻ is upon them. A woman cannot spend any of her husbands money without his permission

- A wife spending her husband's money
 - Referring to the extra money
 - Not to the necessities
 - Someone asked, not even food? The Prophet ﷺ said that is the best kind of food
 - However there is implied and explicit permission
- His money is my money and my money is my money
 - Does not actually exist in islam
 - Is actually a form of oppression
 - Is a slogan which makes people excited
 - However she does have the absolute right to food, clothing, and shelter
 - Anything beyond that, the man is getting infaq/reward

Anybody that has entrusted you with a loan or gift, it has to be fulfilled and cant be delayed. This deen will remain strong for 12 khulafa... Every single prophet ﷺ had a specific dua that was grnated, except mine. i am saving mine for shafaa on the DOJ. And on that day the Prophets are going to be competing. Dont embarrass me, Im going tobe sitting at the hawd, dont become kuffar after I pass away. Ill be at the hawd and Ill be calling toward you and the angels are going to pull you away.

- Who is considered a khalifa
 - If you look at the next 8 after the main 4, you see that it was relatively stable
- Competition between prophets
 - Some will come with only 10-20 followers
 - Others with 0

WHOLE KHUTTBA

فَلَمَّا طَلَعَتِ الشَّمْسُ مِنْ يَوْمِ الْجُمُعَةِ - نَهَضَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - ﷺ - إِلَى عَرَفَةَ، وَأَمَرَ أَنْ تُضْرَبَ لَهُ قُبَّةٌ مِنْ شَعْرِ بَنِمْرَةَ (٣)، فَسَارَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - ﷺ - سَالِكًا طَرِيقَ ضَبٍّ، وَكَانَ مِنْ أَصْحَابِهِ - ﷺ - الْمَلْبِيُّ، وَمِنْهُمْ الْمُكَبِّرُ، وَهُوَ يَسْمَعُ ذَلِكَ وَلَا يَنْكُرُ عَلَى هَوْلَاءِ وَلَا عَلَى هَوْلَاءِ (٤)، فَلَمَّا وَصَلَ إِلَى عَرَفَةَ وَجَدَ الْقُبَّةَ قَدْ ضُرِبَتْ لَهُ بِنِمْرَةَ فَنَزَلَ بِهَا، حَتَّى إِذَا زَالَتِ الشَّمْسُ أَمَرَ بِنَاقَتِهِ الْقُصَوَاءِ فَرَجَلَتْ لَهُ، ثُمَّ سَارَ حَتَّى أَتَى بَطْنَ الْوَادِي مِنْ أَرْضِ عُرْنَةَ، فَخَطَبَ النَّاسَ، وَهُوَ عَلَى رَاحِلَتِهِ (١)، خُطْبَةً عَظِيمَةً جَامِعَةً، فَرَّرَ فِيهَا قَوَاعِدَ الْإِسْلَامِ، وَهَدَمَ فِيهَا قَوَاعِدَ الشِّرْكِ وَالْجَاهِلِيَّةِ، فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - ﷺ - بَعْدَ أَنْ حَمِدَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى وَأَثْنَى عَلَيْهِ:

«أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ! اسْمَعُوا قَوْلِي، فَإِنِّي لَا أَدْرِي لَعَلِّي لَا أَفَاكُم بَعْدَ عَامِي هَذَا بِهَذَا الْمَوْقِفِ أَبَدًا.

أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ! إِنَّ دِمَاءَكُمْ (٢) وَأَمْوَالَكُمْ (٣) حَرَامٌ عَلَيْكُمْ، كَحُرْمَةِ يَوْمِكُمْ هَذَا، فِي شَهْرِكُمْ هَذَا، فِي بَلَدِكُمْ هَذَا.

أَلَا إِنَّ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ مِنْ أَمْرِ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ تَحْتَ قَدَمِي مَوْضُوعٌ، وَدِمَاءُ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ مَوْضُوعَةٌ، وَإِنَّ أَوَّلَ دَمٍ أَضَعُ مِنْ دِمَائِنَا دَمَ إِبَادِ (١) بْنِ رَبِيعَةَ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الْمُطَّلِبِ، كَانَ مُسْتَرْضَعًا فِي بَنِي لَيْثٍ، فَقَتَلْتُهُ هَذِلًا، وَرَبَا الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ مَوْضُوعٌ، وَأَوَّلُ رَبَا أَضَعُ رَبَانًا، رَبَا عَبَّاسِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الْمُطَّلِبِ، فَإِنَّهُ مَوْضُوعٌ كُلُّهُ.

فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ فِي النِّسَاءِ، فَإِنَّكُمْ أَخَذْتُمُوهُنَّ بِأَمَانِ اللَّهِ، وَاسْتَحْلَلْتُمْ فُرُوجَهُنَّ بِكَلِمَةِ اللَّهِ، وَلَكُمْ عَلَيْهِنَّ أَنْ لَا يُوطِئَنَّ فُرُشَكُمْ أَحَدًا تَكَرَّهُونَهُ، فَإِنْ فَعَلْنَ ذَلِكَ فَاضْرِبُوهُنَّ ضَرْبًا غَيْرَ مُبْرِحٍ، وَلَهُنَّ عَلَيْكُمْ رِزْقُهُنَّ وَكِسْوَتُهُنَّ بِالْمَعْرُوفِ (٢). أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ! إِنَّ اللَّهَ قَدْ أَعْطَى كُلَّ ذِي حَقٍّ حَقَّهُ، فَلَا وَصِيَّةَ لَوَارِثٍ، وَالْوَلَدُ لِلْفِرَاشِ (١)، وَلِلْعَاقِرِ (٢) الْحَبْرُ (٣)، وَحِسَابُهُمْ عَلَى اللَّهِ، وَمَنْ ادَّعَى إِلَى غَيْرِ أَبِيهِ، أَوْ انْتَمَى إِلَى غَيْرِ مَوَالِيهِ، فَعَلَيْهِ لَعْنَةُ اللَّهِ النَّابِغَةِ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ، لَا تَنْفِقُ الْمَرْأَةُ شَيْئًا مِنْ بَيْتِهَا إِلَّا بِإِذْنِ زَوْجِهَا»، فَقِيلَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، وَلَا الطَّعَامُ؟

قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - ﷺ -: «ذَلِكَ أَفْضَلُ أَمْوَالِنَا».

الْعَارِيَّةُ (٤) مُؤَدَّاةٌ، وَالْمِنْحَةُ (٥) مَرْدُودَةٌ، وَالذَّيْنُ مَقْضِيٌّ، وَالزَّعِيمُ (٦) غَارِمٌ (١)».

«مَنْ لَمْ يَجِدْ نَعْلَيْنِ فَلْيَلْبَسْ خُفَيْنِ، وَمَنْ لَمْ يَجِدْ إِزَارًا، فَلْيَلْبَسْ سَرَائِلَ لِلْمُحْرِمِ» (٢).

«وَقَدْ تَرَكْتُ فِيكُمْ مَا لَنْ تَضِلُّوا بَعْدَهُ إِنْ اعْتَصَمْتُمْ بِهِ: كِتَابُ اللَّهِ، وَأَنْتُمْ تُسْأَلُونَ عَنِّي، فَمَا أَنْتُمْ قَائِلُونَ؟».

قَالُوا: نَشْهَدُ أَنَّكَ قَدْ بَلَّغْتَ وَأَدْبَيْتَ وَنَصَحْتَ، فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - ﷺ - بِإِصْبَعِهِ السَّبَابَةِ يَرْفَعُهَا إِلَى السَّمَاءِ وَيَنْكُثُهَا (١) إِلَى النَّاسِ:

«اللَّهُمَّ اشْهَدْ، اللَّهُمَّ اشْهَدْ، اللَّهُمَّ اشْهَدْ» (٢).

فَهَذِهِ خُطْبَةُ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - ﷺ - يَوْمَ عَرَفَةَ، وَكَانَتْ قَصِيرَةً.

Surah Nisa

Surah Nisa

Date Covered: 4/9 @ 1410

- Reminders
 - Separate personal biases from absolute reality
 - Avoid leaning towards the ideology that men are all abusive and women are being abused
 - We are in the habit of being uncomfortable with these things right now
- The name of the surah
 - The whole surah from beginning to end is establishing rights of women and orphans
 - Most of it is financial rights
 - The ayat of inheritance
- 4:32
 - Allah ﷻ prefes the discussion, do not desire what other people have
 - For your own sanity, allah ﷻ created the way you are for a reason
 - Don't keep thinking about what other people have that you do not
 - However Allah ﷻ created you, be happy with it
- The ayat of Surah Nisa are dedicated mostly to men
- 4:34
- It is informing us of the natural state of the world
 - We talked about in Surah baqara how the ayah not starting with a waw means the ayah is connected to all of the previous ayah
 - This ayah explains the preceding
- Ar-rijaal
 - It could've said males and females
 - But it has the alif lam of kamal
 - Informing you of a factual statement
 - The status of man is based on how he treats a woman
 - Scholarly opinion (name missed): Doesn't refer to every man that has a beard or a biological male, but it specifies the qualities of a man
 - Also not specified to their faith
- Qaama
 - Has the meaning of taking care of affairs
 - Allah ﷻ is Al Qawwam
 - Similarly the man is one who takes care of things
- Levels of obligation
 - Not mentioned in the ayah, but a man is the one who takes care of his family
 - Wife and daughter
 - Then a sister
 - Then to a random woman
 - Man has a level of responsibility to every single woman
 - But the burden falls heavier the closer the relationship is
 - The wording gives such a meaning

- Qawwam can also take the meaning of constantly paying attention as to what needs to be done
- Normally you would say qaama bihi, with a ba
 - When you use ala you imply a level of authority
 - Explaining why there is authority
 - The statement is informative
- Bi ma faddala llahuBaada ala baad
 - Allah ﷻ gave preference
 - Could be that allah ﷻ preferred some men over other men
 - Or men over women
 - Both are accurate translation
 - There are typical qualities in men which make them different over women
- Reasons
 - Could be referring to physical strength, aggression etc
 - "And because of what they spent from their wealth"
- Lesson: This ayah is informing us of a natural phenomenon between men and women
 - Ex: Sh's sister gets a flat tire and calls her brother
 - Option 1: he tells her to figure it out herself
 - Option 2: he fixes it for her
 - The next time it happens she'll trust that her brother will be there for her
 - Naturally if a man goes out of his way to take care of things, the role will naturally occur
 - It's not a command but a natural occurrence
 - This ayah is teaching us the fitra of the human being
 - If a man is taking care of all of a woman's needs
 - This ayah is in the context of marriage, and it describes the man who is fulfilling all of the woman's needs
- Ayah specifies The righteous woman's reaction to such a husband
 - Fassalihah: implying that it is a virtuous way to respond in this way
 - Waqanitat: they will respond with obedience, related to the word qunoot. Not tied to a command, but being in a natural state of submission. Doesn't necessitate that you are commanded to something. Also important to mention that it does not specify who the obedience is to
 - Haafidhat... ghayb: they will protect things that are not seen. Could mean that they protect things when their husband is not around, like not misusing any trusts, protecting the reputation of the man, and anything that is important to protect
 - Bi ma hafidhat allah ﷻ: the same way Allah ﷻ protected it
- Ayah mentions what to do if suspecting nushuz
 - Nushuz: means arrogance, from the meaning of elevation. A very high level of disrespect, and from tafsir it derives the meaning of promiscuity
 - The arabic nuances add meaning, that if you are worried about nushuz being a possibility, and you notice a tendency towards it
 - Waad: meaning possible negative consequence
 - Madhjaa: place of laying down to sleep. Could mean homes, exit the house. Or it could mean not to share a bed

- Wadhribuhunna: then hit them. See khutbah section. Cannot mean separate, because it does not have a harf jarr. We cannot bend this meaning to mean something it does not
- Reminder
 - We cannot try to change the meaning
 - It becomes a dangerous game of trying to twist concepts we are not comfortable with yet
 - The way we understand the Quran is bound by our usage of the arabic language
- What is this referring to
 - A woman having men in the home frequently
 - First he will show waad
 - Then he separates
 - Then he may hit her (but not necessary per say)
 - This isn't a checklist for divorce
 - But the most invasive option is physically hitting in a way that causes no harm
- Ayah says what to do if they listen after taking measures
 - You are no longer allowed to take any of these measures
 - Not even waad, where he talks about what she once did
- Ending of the ayah
 - Allah ﷻ brings his names
 - Men having a natural authority, having the process
 - Allah ﷻ is all mighty and all "large"
 - Reminder to the man that any power or authority he has, Allah ﷻ has much more and whatever power the man asserts will be asserted on him more by Allah ﷻ on the DOJ
 - On the DOJ, any rights of people oppressed will be exacted
 - Vulnerability is not something you can take advantage of
- Lesson: This is an ayah for a man to feel the weight of responsibility with
 - Its very easy for a man to read this and think they're in charge
 - Or for a woman to feel powerless
 - Or even for a woman to look for ways to change the meaning
 - But the harder thing to benefit from is its actual message
 - ? said this is supposed to give you white hair
- Lesson: In general authority in islam is not something to desire
 - People with authority on the DOJ will have their hands chained to their neck
 - The Prophet ﷺ told Abu Dharr never to ask for it, people on the DOJ will be disgraced by it
 - When we hear that a husband has authority over his wife, our mind instantly jumps to abuse
- Culture has an impact on the presentation of authority
 - The nature of this authority was different between Mecca and Madina
 - In another ayah of Surah Nisa, Allah ﷻ tells the men to treat their women with maarouf. Meaning customs. And even if you hate your wife, Allah ﷻ will put good in the situation, you don't know what will happen
- Lesson: Allah ﷻ created the world to have systems of authority

- Somebody could ask why there has to be a system of authority
- Allah ﷻ says the way he created the world is that some people have authority over others
- Every single person exists in some kind of power dynamic
- Sometimes its obvious but other times its not
- Ex: a friend group, where the energy is hinging on them
- Friends are as equal as you can make it, but it still carries a power dynamic
- That ayah is followed up by: the mercy of your lord is better than what you can come up with
- The nature of authority will always look different
 - Every person with authority has a choice with how they want to display it
 - Ex: a teacher to a student, boss to employee.
 - Can choose to be heavy handed but is that a good thing to do? No, it better to be forgiving
 - In another ayah, a woman has the rights that a man has, and for men there is an added degree
 - Ibn Abbas says that the added responsibility is that of forgiveness
 - The one with authority is required to be more forgiving
 - Ex: much bigger mistake if teacher doesn't show up than if we don't
- Summary: this ayah is informing us of natural results
 - Treatment isn't learned from this ayah but from the behavior of the Prophet ﷺ
 - Allah ﷻ listed two things
 - A man providing financially
 - And safety and protection
 - If you leave the room feel authority and not responsibility you've missed the point
- If someone argues In our times these two things are not that important anymore
 - 99 percent of women alive on this earth are still in this category
 - Even in America, the west etc.
 - What is a meaningful life
 - People want to take the route of never getting married and never being taken care of often end up miserable
 - Or you can be the very small population who manages to get through that process and be okay
 - How much of that actually results in happiness?
 - A man needs to be taking care of certain needs and the woman needs to be allowing that to happen
- If someone comes in with the narrative of the standard American
 - Might lose them the moment you start this convo
 - Ask if equality even exists in the first place
- This discussion can become an aqeedah one
 - If someone is muslim, but openly rejects this ayah
 - Or challenges it and says that is "not how it is supposed to be"
 - Gender ideology is called that for a reason, people incorporate gender into their belief systems
- What do we do if the man is the one acting promiscuous?

- Handle it similar way, however with some differences because the man takes some authority
- There is never going to be a point where a woman is recommended to hit her husband
- If a woman fears that her husband has nushuz
 - They should try to reconcile through a third party

How do you identify a man who take option 2 over option 1 in your tire situation? How do you fix an option 1 man and make him into an option 2 man? What if a man does not recognize his responsibility to take care of a woman despite the woman being in a state of obedience

Its also a bit of how you respond to the situation. You can choose to be heavy handed or you can choose to lean into vulnerability, activate the part in the mans mind that reminds him of his need to take care of things

Could this not be considered manipulation

Surah Maidah Revelation

- A Jewish man came to Umar who said
 - If this ayah came to us (the Jews) we would have made the day Eid
 - The Torah has no claims of final scripture
 - Only the Quran has such a statement
 - Umar says I know the exact day, time and place
 - It was Jum'ah and the day of Arafat
- After the khutbah, the Prophet ﷺ recited this ayah (Deen is complete)
 - Umar starts crying
 - He says, everything was increasing but now if Deen is complete it will only decrease, realizes this is the strongest point Islam will reach
 - The prophet ﷺ says true
 - Some say he realized the Prophet ﷺ was going to die

Final Events

- They wondered if the Prophet ﷺ was fasting or not
 - Umm al Fadl decides to find out
 - She sends milk
 - He takes a sip in front of the congregation
 - Better not to fast if completing Hajj
- Usama bin Zaid was on the back of a camel. Saw the Prophet ﷺ raising his hands with the reins of the camel in his camel
 - The best dua that you can make is La illaha illallah wahdik la sharika la lahul...
- On the day of Arafah there was a guy who fell off his camel and got kicked in the head by the camel and passed away
 - The Prophet told them not to cover his head
 - He will come on the Day of Judgment saying Labbayk
 - He will get the reward of being
- Hadith: Take it easy, go slow. Piety is not done hastily
 - Usama narrates that the prophet ﷺ did Labbayk between Muzdalifah
 - He saw people rushing
- Lesson: Ibadat are to be done with composure
 - Deen is supposed to be presented in calmness, composure
 - There are some religions which utilize chaos
 - But it doesn't mean to be slow or lazy in matters of Deen
 - Rather that Sakeenah needs to be present
 - For us, as students of knowledge, it's not virtuous to rush in studying
 - Not a race, and not virtuous to have a lack of composure
- When the Prophet ﷺ gets to Muzdalifah he picks a spot

- Im standing here but you can be anywhere in the valley
- Etiquette of leadership
 - You need to clarify what you are doing based on personal preference vs what is spiritually recommended
- Right after ishraaq, they move to Mina
 - In Jahiliya they wouldn't go to Muzdalifah because it was too far
 - He's also purposely breaking the culture of jahiliya
- The Prophet ﷺ picks the young men to pay attention
 - Fadl, ibn Abbas
 - Narrates the Prophet ﷺ continued labbayk
- After throwing the first stone he stopped saying labbayk
 - Wadi Muhassir
 - Dark rocks present
 - When the Prophet ﷺ saw it he sped up
- They stay in Mina and celebrate Eid
 - They finish the actions of hajj
- A young lady from Khataam
 - My father is too old, and he cannot do hajj
 - Can I do it on his behalf
 - The Prophet ﷺ sees Fadl looking at her
 - He physically turns his head
 - I saw a young man and a young lady and I didn't feel safe that shaytan would not mess with them
 - This is a day that when ?
- Lesson:
 - Separation between men and women
 - Someone who has lived through enough situations comes to see the wisdom of segregation and lowering the gaze on their own
 - Hadith: Your gaze is a poisoned arrow of Shaytan
 - If a man cannot control his gaze
 - The amount of fitna that people fall into through not lowering the gaze is high
 - The Prophet ﷺ is turning his cousins head in the most pure of situations
- Lesson
 - Some sisters are uncomfortable with the idea of men having to lower their gaze
 - However all it takes is for a man who is close to us who didn't take this seriously
 - It is common for things to derail quickly
 - There is a reason why the Prophet ﷺ is warning them so strongly
 - A man who has so much resolve and determination can be easily derailed by his feelings for a woman
 - Story: An older lady has a son. Starts crying. Was such a good kid, then started coming home late. The son fell in love with a non muslim christian girl. Stopped living at home and talking to anyone. MAR tells her, we'll work on him. Right now you should make dua for other people and other people's kids. They find out next year he is back home. The girl told him that she would not marry him unless he became christian

- When you have naseeha for people allah ﷻ puts it in your heart
- The Prophet ﷺ tells sahaba to throw small stones
 - Don't need to throw big rocks like its shotput lol
 - Pebbles are okay

Difference between Kamal and tamam

Tamam: free of deficiency

Kamal: the absolute best it can be

Remaining Speeches/End of Hajj + Eid

Date Covered: 4/13 @ 0919, 4/14 BEGINNING MISSED

Khutbah of Mina

- The Prophet ﷺ is repeating points
 - Benefit of making sure that people catch everything
 - Has a lot about seeking knowledge
 - And hadith transmission
- The Prophet ﷺ repeats this is the day of Eid. What day is it? They all stayed quiet until they thought the Prophet ﷺ would name another day
 - Is it not Nahl
 - Is it not Dhul Hijja
 - Are we not in Makkah
- Then he repeats: Your blood rep and dignity are haram on one another the same way this day is ... And you are going to meet your lord so dont go back to how you were. Pass on this information to anyone who is absent
 - The encouragement of hadith transmission
- Then he says: its very likely that someone who conveyed this secondhand understands it better than somebody who heard it firsthand
 - People have the ability to experience and benefit from things differently
 - Ex: If a student knows more about a specific topic than the teacher
 - The Propeht is saying dont underestimate anyone who passes by you
 - You don't know who will benefit from what you are sharing
 - From the etiquette of a student teacher relationship is that you teach as if they will do more good with the info than you
- Then he says again: have i conveyed? Theres only 4 sins to avoid
 - Shirk
 - Zina
 - Theft
 - I'm going to be ahead of all of you waiting at the hawd
 - So dont disgrace me, you guys saw me as a prophet ﷺ and you heard me speak and youre going to be asked about me on the DOJ and in the dunya
- Then: On the DOJ I'm going to be saving people, but Im going to be told you dont know what they did after you. And every person is responsible for themselves, a father is not responsible for his son and his son for his father, Shayttan has lost hope in idols being worshipped but you are going to obey him in matters you belittle. Worship your lord, pray your 5 prayers, and follow the one before you and youll enter jannah
- Virtue of seeking knowledge and conveying it
 - May allah freshen the affairs of the one who hears what I say and conveys it with precision. Because there's many that carry information and some understand it better
- 3 things that the heart of a true believer will never find difficulty in

- ?
- Having genuine concern
- Staying close to the jamaa, because the dua of a congregation is ?
- Expanding on the true believer
 - The heart of the munafiq has difficulty being sincere
 - And the individualistic person has no concern for the jamaa
 - Doesn't mean that you have to love everybody
 - But in your heart you should wish for there best
- Lesson: Reminder to us about maintaining love for the jamaa
 - There is a sliver of arrogance which enters your heart when you spend a lot of time in a space like this
 - You lose the appetite for going to normal programs
 - That is the most detrimental thing that can happen after doing seekers
 - Don't let what you've learned hold you back from attending other events
 - Its a sign of imaan to be able to benefit from any gathering
 - It's a disease of the heart to have that sliver of arrogance, and it prevents you from learning more
- Lesson: Make it a point to always show up
 - Keep coming around, stay connected
 - The kind of mentality that gets you far is the kind that has a back up plan for staying connected
 - The moment you start dictating what you benefit from, you start to lose
 - Ghazali: Ill teach them something so that i will benefit from them, because they are a pure person and have less sin than me
 - Don't be a person who is 100% or 0%. Its a harmful attitude, be ready to show up for anything
- Then he says: the manasik of eid... Take knowledge before its lifted from this world
 - The sahaba in general were very restrained in asking questions due to the ayah that was revealed
 - They would wait for a bedouin to ask
- A bedouin asks the Prophet ﷺ how knowledge is going to be lifted. The Prophet ﷺ got angry, his face turned red. He says what the heck is wrong with you. The Jews and the Christians have the books in front of them but are not holding onto anything. And the people of knowledge will pass away
 - One way is corrupting the true message
 - And the second way is the people of knowledge dying out

Finishing the Actions on Eid

- People come saying they did things out of order
 - Someone says: I cut my hair before I slaughtered
 - Another says I threw my jamarat before I cut my hair
 - The Prophet ﷺ responds no problem
 - Is being very easygoing
- The Prophet ﷺ slaughters 63 camels with his own hands

- Very logistically difficult to slaughter an animal
 - Especially camels, since they are so large
- Ali does 37 more camel slaughters
 - There's people helping the Prophet ﷺ
 - The Prophet ﷺ tells him to distribute the meat and organs
 - And he says you are not allowed to use the meat as payment to the butcher
 - He says take a piece of meat from each animal and keep it one pot, and we'll eat from it
- I'm slaughtering my animals here but anywhere in Mina is permissible, and any of the 3 days after eid you are allowed to slaughter your animal
- Then the Prophet ﷺ shaved his head
 - Right side first then left
 - Abu Talha was the first to take his hair
 - Umm Sulaym put his hair in her perfume bottles
- They go for tawaf of hajj
 - They get to Mecca by dhuhr on the day of Eid
 - Aisha was worried about it, but now she is in a state of tahara
 - She completes her hajj
- The Prophet ﷺ does this tawaf with his camel, and he has a stick which he points at the kaaba and then kisses
- Then the Prophet ﷺ drinks from zam zam, spits in it, and makes wudhu from it
- Ayam ul Tashreek
 - Tashreek means leaving out in the sun
 - They would leave the meat out to dry
 - Then he makes dua
- DETAILS MISSED 0950
 - The whole time he is there he would go to ?
 - He stayed in Mina the entire time
 - During Yawm at Tashreek no one is allowed to fast
- Speech of the 12th day/Yawm al Nafr Al Awwal
 - Oh people, your lord is one and your forefather is one
 - There is no virtue for an arab over a nonarab, or for a non arab over an arab
 - Or a black over a white except in taqwa
 - A believer is one who others feel safe regarding their wealth and themselves
 - A true mumin is one who people are safe from their tongue and hands
 - And the mujahidd is the one who exerts themselves in the obedience of Allah ﷻ
- Two more speeches
 - Timing unspecified
 - Dajjal spoken about in detail
- Dajjal speech
 - All you need to know is that your lord does not have one eye
 - And dajjal will have one eye that does not work
 - And it will be like a protruding grape
- The other speech
 - Mentions the 5 pillars

- And avoid major sins
- There's 9 major categories
- Shirk
- Murder
- Fleeing from the battlefield
- Black magic
- Consuming the wealth of an orphan
- Interest
- Accusing an innocent man of zina
- And cutting off ties with one parent
- And violating the sanctity of the haram, alive or dead
- And that nobody dies, that did not commit these major sins and they prayed and gave zakat that will be with the Prophet ﷺ in front of golden doors
- Lesson: People can benefit from reminders about the most basic pillars
 - The Prophet ﷺ has no hesitation reminding people of the 5 pillars
 - Every person you meet, you have something you can encourage them to do
 - MAR does a good job at this
 - We don't need to think big on how to benefit others, reminders about pillars and helping people build their faraid is enough
 - If we learn the 5 pillars in and out and manage to teach it to others that is a huge benefit
 - The Prophet ﷺ would speak about it so often

 - I have a lot of money and only one daughter
 - Allow me to donate half, says no
 - Then a third, says no
 - Its always better to leave your family after you with a lot of money
 - Then he says, in every single penny that you spend in the way of your family you get rewarded for, as if it were sadaqa
 - Then Saad asks do you think i am going to live
 - The longer you live the better it will be for you
 - Maybe you are going to live to point where many people are going to benefit from you or many are going to be harmed by you
 - "Oh Allah ﷻ allow my sahaba to complete their hijra" - the sahaba saw dying in Mecca as going back on their hijra
 - This is the longest sahaba have spent in Mecca after Hijra
 - Then he says: "And don't let them go back. The one I feel bad for is Saad ibn Khawla. Oh Allah ﷻ heal Saad"

On the Way Back From Hajj

Date Covered: 4/1 @ 0920

- At Ghadir Khum
 - The name of a watering spot
 - Some sahaba were uncomfy with Ali RA's qadi in Yemen
 - They brought it up here
- Lesson: Etiquette of Asking Question
 -
 - They waited until after Hajj was over
 - They tried not to bring things up in the wrong moment
 - Not good to bring things up in the heat of the moment
 - As a student you benefit others by knowing how to ask a question
- Hadith: The student and teacher are partners
 - Part of that is knowing the temperament of the teacher
 - Story: MAR. Sheikh once slowed down while reading about Imamas and MAR understood and started talking about imamas
 - Someone who knows how to push the right buttons can get a lot
 - However the opposite is also true
 - The people who mess up the classroom environment
 - The few minutes of lost class time are never going to be recovered
- Story
 - Mufti Aasim teaching bukhari to MII class
 - Kid was looking at a commentary of it while Mufti Aasim was teaching
 - Mufti Aasim says he was excited to teach and then after he saw that he lost his motivation
 - The teacher is not a robot, picking the right questions to ask and how to ask
 - If you never asked, nobody would have benefited from it
- The Prophet ﷺ: I am a human being and it is very likely that very soon my ? will come and get me... Hold on to the book of Allah ﷻ... and my family and I remind you of Allah ﷻ and my family (repeated 3x). At the same time he says: Anybody that I am their mawla, Ali is there mawla
 - Hadith Thaqaalain
 - This incident
 - Has lots of interpretations
- 2 things to identify
 - 1: Hold firm to the book of Allah ﷻ
 - 2: How to regard the family of the Prophet ﷺ
 - The Prophet ﷺ is not saying that ahlul bayt are sources of legislation
 - He is saying to fear Allah ﷻ in how they treat the family of the Prophet ﷺ
 - Reminder: they are not allowed to accept sadaqa and they are going to be vulnerable
 - They are also going to naturally be caught up in power struggles
- This was exactly what happened

- Banu Umayya was very harsh against the Prophet
- Then Banu Abbas used their closeness with the Prophet ﷺ to get power
- He knows this is going to happen so he is saying, take my family
- Some Shias say that the lives of ahlul bayt are a source of jurisdiction
 - Not a valid point
 - Amongst the sahaba they are in the highest caliber
 - But none of them are considered to be legislation
 - All of the sahaba are equal in regards to legislation
 - The only source of it is quran and hadith
 - The Shias give too much significance to this
- Some Shia also try to use this hadith to say ahlul bayt are masum
 - An even more extreme stretch
- Most of the narrations of this hadith do not even have ahlul bayt in it
 - Very academically dishonest to claim that sunnis also believe in this
- Mawla
 - Many meaning of the word
 - Slave
 - Inheritor
 - Friend
 - Leader
 - What would make sense to apply?
 - The closest literal translation of mawla here is friend
 - The Prophet ﷺ is not assigning him as a khalifa
- Lack of logic behind Ali
 - Any ? except what is written in this paper, I just wrote this ahadith down and
 - Also why would Ali give bayya to the other khalifas
- Woman comes up to the Prophet ﷺ who couldn't go for hajj
 - What am I supposed to do
 - When next ramadan comes, go for umrah
 - Anyone that does umrah in ramadan, its as if they have done hajj with me

Statements made by the Prophet ﷺ

1. When Allah ﷻ wants to have mercy on a nation he lets their prophet ﷺ pass before them so that he can wait for them. And when he wants to destroy them, he destroys them while they are alive
2. The sahaba were discussing it once. He asked them, do you think I'm going to be the last to pass?... I'm going to be the first
3. Sahaba say, We prayed maghrib, and wanted to wait for isha. The Prophet ﷺ asks what they're doing. Got very happy. Looked up at the sky (this was frequent of him) "The stars are protection of the sky and when stars are gone, something bad is going to happen...In that same way I am a source of protection for the sahaba, and they are going to go through difficulty and wars, and my sahaba are a source of protection and they are gone they are going to have wars
 - When we can't see the sky anymore its a sign of deterioration

 - Ibn Abbas gauged that it wasn't much time left

Lessons from Hadith on Staying Among the People

- Lesson: The Prophet ﷺ living simply and under-presenting
 - Sheikh was doing interviews and listening from the background
 - Shs tirmidhi teacher, picked them up, didn't know he was his teacher
 - Sh. Abdullah had a teacher who would serve the masjid, did not know until much later that he was a great scholar
 - Great people have often been very low key. Many won't even wear imamas
 - While some have the opposite approach to bring respect to the deen, this was the way of the Prophet ﷺ
- Lesson: Being with the people
 - Tablighi mentality, meet everyone, give dawah to everyone
 - The brothers, still greet everyone
 - Celebrity sheikh told Sh Abdullah that they spend too much time with people
 - Sheikh response summarized: not as insecure as you that I'm afraid they won't spend time with me lol
 - There was a guy who came to do itikaff bc he heard that MAR
 - Does come at the cost of some respect to be available
- Lesson: Rejecting your internal instinct to lose value of what is available
 - People naturally lose value for the things that are available
 - For a student of knowledge, your success depends on the ability to counteract this

- The people for whom it is hardest to learn are the people who you are comfortable with and used to
- Anybody we learn from after this. Will be the same experience, eventually the internal alarm system will diminish
- This is a type of deficiency in intentions, where you only benefit from the environment because of the convenience
- A diamond isn't more or less valuable if it's in a museum
- Can't only be attracted when it's foreign and new
- Lesson: Not seeking out respect
 - The goal of this world is not to walk into a room and demand respect
 - That is not how the Prophet ﷺ lived
 - Anyone who stands when another walks into a room, they can take their seat in jahannam
 - The Prophet ﷺ chose to live like this on purpose and it's not something to desire
- Reminder: Don't gatekeep scholars
 - Will end up in the position of serving scholars
 - MAR, tries to fix everyone's problems. Spent 3 hours at a random masjid in Arizona. Sheikh's instinct is to gatekeep
 - But as students, our job is not to gatekeep but also to protect
 - A very fine balance on this
 - Old school mashaikh are very good at this
- Side Story: Mufti Rafiq
 - A senior teacher who sits in the courtyard
 - Everyone can meet him
 - He'll talk to them, and give them tea
 - Timer starts when it comes out
 - If he wants to keep talking he won't ask for the tea

1. "There's going to come a day where for one of you to see me will be more beloved than the wealth of the entire family
2. "I am the Muhammad the unlettered prophet ﷺ x3 and there never going to be another prophet after me. I've been given eloquent speech, and the beginning and the end of speech is a miracle of Allah جل جلاله, I know how many gardens in jannah / jahannam.. Listen and obey me... halal and haram..."

 - The Prophet ﷺ says That's your nephew (himself)
4. Khutbah of Uhud

 - He gets on the mimbar, says "I'm going to go ahead of you and wait at the hawd of kawthar... not worried you're going to commit shirk but that you will compete in

dunya...There is a person that Allah ﷻ gave him the choice of all of the beauty and money in the world or to be with Allah ﷻ and he chose to be with Allah ﷻ ”

- The Prophet was asked: who goes through the most difficulty?
 - The prophets, the righteous, and the ones that follow them the most closely
 - A person goes through difficulty based on how strong their deen is
 - A person who is weak, allah ﷻ takes it easy
 - People go through difficulty until they are walking this earth sinless
- Lesson: Not shying away from difficulty
 - We're taught not to make dua for difficulty
 - This is a misconstrued understanding
 - Taking it easy, is for the sahaba who were already doing a lot
 - We're only doing the bare minimum

- The wording of the hadith
 - The word farah, for happiness, is not an overjoyed kind of happiness
 - It is closer to the meaning of relief
 - Happy because a difficulty was alleviated off of you
- Lesson: Periods of difficulty are an honor, and periods of ease gave the sahaba concern
 - The sahaba would see things of luxury and start crying
 - Someone going through hardship knows that they are being elevated by Allah ﷻ
 - They respected the sahaba that died early on before experiencing any ease
 - Very difficult to reach a point where you are happy to experience trials
 - Maradh al waffat/ period of difficulty
 - See it as a good thing

 - The people before you used to take the graves as their masajid, dont take any grave as a masjid
 - Allah ﷻ cursed the jews and the chirstians because they did so

- Gets off the mimbar and prays dhuhr, athaan gets back on

- He says again: anybody that has any right, bring it up now
- A man says, you owe me 3 dirhams
- Then he says: We don't accuse anyone of lying... how did I end up owing you
- A poor person was passing by and you told me to give him 3 dirhams
- Another sahabi stands and pays it on his behalf
- Then another man says I have 3 dirhams I took in the path of Allah ﷺ

- The guy says: Im a liar, Im a munafiq, Im sleepy
- The Prophet ﷺ says make him truthful, give him imaan, and remove his need for sleep
-
- Another man stands up: I'm a liar, a munafiq, and there is not a single sin except that I committed it
- Umar says whats wrong with you, you exposed yourself
- Relax, being exposed in dunya and I make dua is better for him
- Make him.. And turn his affairs good
- Umar is with me and I'm with him and the truth after I pass away is with him
- Then another guy stands up
 - Anybody that is going through anything, just ask

 - Other sahaba say no, he wants to write let him
 - The Prophet ﷺ got annoyed at their arguing and told them to get out
- Just going to command you to do 3 things
 - 1: remove any mushriq from the arabian peninsula
 - 2: treat delegations the same way that I used to treat them
 - 3: Ibn Abbas couldnt remember
 - Others narrate that he said to send the army of Ibn Zaid
 - The other is to hold firm to the Quran
 - OR not to take graves as a place of worship

- OR to be good to slaves
- OR the khilafa of Abu Bakr - has heavy indications
- The Prophet ﷺ called Aisha and her brother
 - I'm afraid someone is going to think they deserve it (khilafa) more than Abu Bakr
- Contention with Umar stopping the Prophet ﷺ from writing
 - A lot of shias think the Prophet ﷺ was about to write the command of Ali's khilafa
 - And that this took Umar out of the folds of islam
 - Story: Sheikh's teacher who would ask who memorized the previous lesson, without changing anything. The day that
 - When this teacher was narrating this hadith, he said there were 4 issues, each with 10 answers. Nobody tried to memorize, would get lined up against the wall
- Summary of issues and answers
 - Umar disobeying the Prophet ﷺ: Answer is that he had a special relationship with the Prophet ﷺ and that they would go back and forth. It wasn't disobedience
 - The Prophet ﷺ trying to write the khilafa of Ali: there is no evidence of this at all. This piece of information was either conveyed before or not conveyed before. And if it was mandatory to convey (and he didn't) that would negate his prophethood. Suggesting that Umar was able to stop the Prophet ﷺ from fulfilling his conveying is kufr. And if he wanted to say anything about Ali's khilafa, he had 5 more days after this moment
- The last jamaa salah, maghrib on Thursday
 - Umm Fadl narrates this
 - I heard the Prophet ﷺ read Surah Mursallat

 - The Prophet ﷺ repeats it a few times
 - Then the Prophet ﷺ sees Umar and says, why don't you lead
 - Then he hears Umar, and says Allah ﷻ refuses that anyone leads while Umar is alive
 - Then Aisha says Abu Bakr is too soft and can't control himself
 - And outside of this, she says the only reason I said that was because the people would link the Prophet ﷺ dying with her father
 - Then she rebutted again
 - Then he cut her off, and said you guys are like the women of the time of Yusuf
 - There were also indications that Aisha knew the next imam would be khalifa
 - The Prophet ﷺ was really stern on this
- In one of the salahs, the Prophet ﷺ was carried out and his feet were dragging
 - Abu Bakr felt movement and started to move back
 - The Prophet ﷺ told him to stay in the front
 - He joined Abu Bakr from the left, because he came out from the house
 - He was technically the position of imam but Abu Bakr led
 - Happened on Sunday dhuhr

Sunday

- The narration with Fatima happens
- The Prophet ﷺ calls Uthman
 - Narrated by a tabii
 - Aisha was with Hafsa when the tabii visited

 - Then he brought him near his mouth
 - Then Uthman lifted his head, confirms understanding

 - Then Uthman tells the Prophet ﷺ I heard it and I memorized it
 - Then tells him to get up
 - Hafsa confirms the narration
- The Prophet ﷺ asks for company, says nothing until Aisha asks should I call Uthman
 - When he comes, this story happens
 - An added detail is that Uthman's face was pale
 - On the day Uthman was killed many years later
 - He announces, the Prophet ﷺ told me to do something and I'm never going to leave it
 - Aisha narrates: the last thing he said to Uthman, after hitting his shoulder, if Allah جل gives you a shirt and the munafiq try to take it off of you, don't give it to them

 - Freed dozens of slaves

Last Advices and Death

Last Advices and Death

Date Covered: 4/22 @ 0911

- Context
 - The Prophet ﷺ is giving different advices to everyone
 - It's the last thing they heard

Last Advices

1. Don't take my grave as an idol, Allah ﷻ punished the jews and christians
2. Take care of the Ansar
 - Telling the Ansar you're going to see a lot of Quraish leadership
3. There should not be 2 religions in arabia
4. Jaaber narrates, I heard this 3 days before. Nobody should pass away except with husn al dhun of Allah ﷻ
 - Your assumption of Allah ﷻ while you're alive should mostly be of fear, but when you're about to die you should have husn al dhun
 - There are narrations of sahaba showing regret for things they didn't get to do
 - But the idea is that you don't get anxious over Allah ﷻ punishing you
 - It's also easier on the people who you are leaving, because they have some reassurance
 - Want to leave the people in high spirits, be positive and say good things
5. Anas narrates that when the sound of ghar ghara (the sounds of a dying person's chest) was present when he said this: I'm commanding you to take care of two things, salah and slaves
 - The fact that the Prophet ﷺ could have said anything in his dying moments, but he picked a group that are very easy to marginalize and abuse
6. Abu Musa Al Ashari narrates, the last thing he told us was "Hold firm to the book of Allah ﷻ, you're going to travel the world and find people who love to hear my statements, and whoever attributes to me things I didn't say, their seat is in jahannam, and anyone that memorized anything properly, let them narrate it
 - He's sending the message to convey cautiously and focus on the quran
7. Ibn Abbas, in the courtyard, the Prophet ﷺ moved his curtain OR they were in rows in the masjid. Oh people, there's nothing left of PROPHET ﷺ except glad tidings OR true dreams that a muslim sees or is seen for them, this is the only thing left of interacting with the unseen world
 - Two narrations
8. I've been prohibited to read quran while in rukoo or sujud, ruku subhana rabi al atthem and sujud make dua
9. Narrated by Asma bint Umayy. When we were in Abyssinia, we would do a treatment, where we take ludud (a bitter medicine) and the sahaba were discussing if they should do it. The prophet ﷺ wakes and says don't do it, then he falls unconscious again. They think he's just refusing, and they give it to him. Then he says, every person needs to have it done to them too

- You cannot administer medical treatment to someone who is saying not to do it
 - This is an optional/speculative medical treatment, not a necessary one
 - Not a fair thing to do a person
 - Not the same as resuscitating someone

 - ? says lets ask him, if he wants banu hashem to be in charge, we can know and if someone else... then Ali says, if the Propeht names anyone else there is no chance of Banu Hashem taking leadership after this
- The last person to receive personal advice from the Prophet ﷺ was Ali

- Umm Salama narrates this, from outside the house
- One day we were visiting the Prophet ﷺ and he kept asking for Ali
- Then Ali came, and Umm Salama says they thought it was a private matter so they left, and she was closest to the door. And can see that Ali is hunched over, near the ear of the Prophet ﷺ
- He was the last to get advice. In a narration, the angel of death came and asked permission to enter

 - Umar says, I feel bad that he is unconscious. Then Mughira says no he has passed.
 - Umar says he is stupid, the Prophet ﷺ won't die until the munafiq are taken care of
 - Abu Bakr walks in and instantly says inna lillah
 - Abu Bakr kisses the Prophet ﷺ on the forehead and says ...

Understanding Death

- Understanding the pains of death
 - Some people confuse the Prophet ﷺ experiencing pain when the believer is supposed to die in a smooth way
 - The fact that he went through pain
 - The more pain a believer goes through, the more reward
 - Whereas for the disbeliever its punishment and means of lowering their rank
 - The Prophet ﷺ experiencing pain is not a contradiction
- Good deaths vs bad deaths
 - The no 1 thing in death is imaan
 - Every kind of death is positive for a believer
 - Some deaths are peaceful and comforting while others are honorable
- Hadith: The muslim dies sweating
 - A muslim is going to experience some pain in death

The Purpose of Learning the Life of the Prophet ﷺ

- Lesson: Going over everything in the life of the prophet ﷺ is meant to help us in life
 - These stories are meant to serve us in life
 - The reason Allah ﷻ sent prophets was for one singular reason: to serve and give dawah
- Lesson: the purpose of learning the life of the Prophet ﷺ is to give dawah
 - We just studied the life and the final and best of those prophets, but if we miss the main purpose there's no point. What was the purpose of his existence? Dawah
 - For us to come out of this not feeling a sense of purpose
 - We're not just inheriting the story but the job description
 - Everyone comes to this environment with a different intention, but all of need to leave this space with the goal of having a positive impact on the people around us
- Lesson: Experiencing what the Prophet ﷺ experienced is only by putting yourself in the position of giving dawah
 - The rejection, abuses, etc.
 - Will only experience that if you put yourself in the position of trying to benefit people
- Lesson: Being proactive about dawah
 - Not always about the end goal, if we're too focused on the big picture we don't get anything done
 - It's about continuously taking small steps
 - Just in the community we're in now, there's so much work to be done
 - But if the Prophet ﷺ were to come here right now, he would not be living passively
 - The Prophet ﷺ would just walk around and give dawah
- We really miss out on any benefit if we put these events in the corner of our mind as just stories of the past

Reactions of the Sahaba

Reactions of the Sahaba

Uthman

Famously a few sahaba just completely stopped speaking and their faces glazed over. Uthman a man passed by me and I didn't respond to his salam. In some narrations it was Umar himself. Umar went to Abu Bakr, who then went to Uthman. Uthman says I didn't do that, nobody said salam to me. They go back and forth and realize Uthman is out of it. He passed before I could ask what to do in fitn. AB says I asked. ANYbody who accepts this statement that I presented to my uncle, is going to be safe.

Umar

He was in complete denial. Told people Allah ﷻ is not going to let him pass away until ... and he's going to come back and deal with this. Anybody that says he passed away is in big trouble. Anyone that says the Prophet ﷺ died, I'm going to kill him. Accuses people of nifaq. The reason why is because, munafiq spread this sentiment at Uhud.

Ibn Abbas

Has a famous moment. He hears Umar and he says, the Prophet ﷺ is a human being like everyone else, calls family to take care of the janazah. Allah ﷻ loves the Prophet ﷺ too much to make him die twice, none of us would want that. When the Prophet ﷺ passed he left everything very clear for us. Every single thing in this world, he got married, divorced, went to war, had peace, not left in a bad situation.

Umm Ayman

Started crying and says: I'm not crying because the Prophet ﷺ passed away, I'm crying at the fact that we are not going to have any more information from Allah ﷻ.

Abu Bakr

Kisses his forehead and says ... He was not present when the Prophet ﷺ died, assigned a friend to call. Salem bin Ubaydallah notifies him. AB sees Umar screaming. Gets on the mimbar. Anyone that worshipped Muhammad he has passed, Allah ﷻ has not. Recites ayaat. When Abu Bakr was reciting everyone was shocked as if they had not heard it before. And Umar fell to the ground.

Fatima

She did not laugh or smile in the 6 months she lived after. Anas narrates, after the janazah she saw Anas ibn Malik and asked did you actually put dirt on my father's body (how could their minds allow it) and Anas responded wallahi we had to not think about what we were doing. Then Fatima said a poem at his grave, while the dirt was still fresh, say to the person that is buried in this grave that the calamities that have been poured on me, if it was poured ? it would ?

The Angels

When the Prophet ﷺ passed, the angels gave them condolences. They heard voices, saying ahsanallah... and they wouldn't see anybody there. Salam alaikum ahlal bayt. I didn't see anybody. In allah ﷻ there is a source of comfort for every calamity... have hope in allah ﷻ, the only one deprived of reward is the one deprived of salam

Ahlul Kitab

Narration of Jarir bin Abdillah. He met two people on a boat, from yemen. He told them about the Prophet ﷺ and they say if this is true, than he passed away 3 days ago. Jarir says they continued travelling, then they saw a caravan coming and they said Abu Bakr is khalifa and Madina is stable. The two guys that were with him went back to Yemen. Abu Bakr asks why didn't you bring them. Sees them in Yemen again, guy says I love you a lot and I am going to tell you something. Your stability is going to depend on being able to replace your leader. But once your leaders start killing each other, theyll be acting like kings and angry like kings

Tabii narrates that he went to another tabii, and Abu Bakr told him to spend dirhams. Harith bin Abdillah asks who are you, then he tells him his name. 0922 he asks Maabid bin Juhni what the rabbis were saying. He says, right before the Prophet ﷺ passed he sent me to Yemen. If I knew he would pass I would not have gone. I saw a jewish rabbi saying the Prophet ﷺ passed, then a few days later I got a letter. Then I asked the rabbi how he knew, and he said we had it documented in our books hed die on such a day and after that the nation would be strong for exactly 35 years and not 1 day after (35 years later the khalifa of Ali ended)

Aisha

Once she realized, she was so young that she just started screaming. She had a gut reaction, and slapped herself in the face. She admits later that she reacted wrong

What about the other wives? Did they get to see him? How much is known

Inheritance

- When he passes away, he donated everything
 - To the point that he had a sheet of armor which he gave as collateral on a loan
 - Is that considered a debt? No, because the collateral is the payment. The armor is worth more than the food he borrowed from the Yahud
- Why take a loan from a jew in madina
 - He did not like to ask people for anything
 - He would rather do business so that he is not taking money from anyone wrongfully
 - He knew the sahaba would just give it up if asked
- Lesson: being cautious with taking favors
 - Do not assign your tasks to other people
 - Teachers would emphasize to not let anybody do things for you or get in the habit of asking for favors
 - And they were raised to also not ask their students to do things for them
 - There's a very specific group of people who you let do things for you, where your relationship is strong enough

 - They weren't treated like possession but like waqf
 - The khulafa passed them down, ex the cloak

 - Then the mongols invaded baghdad 600 years later and it got lost
- Land of fadak
 - Debate between ab and fatime
 - I heard the Prophet ﷺ say we dont leave behind inheritance, anything other than the possessions of my wives does not get inherited
 - The land of fadak was used as waqf, a sadaqa for the people
 - Ab and ali had some tension, but ab apologized to fatima
 - Ali and Abbas spoke about it too

- Shia narrations
 - They say AB abused fatima, and that he broke in to their house
 - All fabricated hadiths
 - Not at all legitimate
 - They try to exaggerate the tension
 - Some sahaba never saw the apology, so they did not know about it but it did happen

Bayya to Abu Bakr

- Statement of Anas
 - The only way they were capable of moving forward was by not thinking too hard
 - Everything was illuminated and then everything became dark
- Physical response
 - When people are grieving, everything literally becomes dark
- Tabii narrates
 - He came 1 year after the death of the Prophet ﷺ
 - AB was on the mimbar, and said the Prophet ﷺ stood here one year, and then he got choked up and that happened 3 times. Then he said the hadith "Oh people ask Allah ﷻ for ease and a lack of difficulty because nobody has been given better than yaqeen. The best combination is safety and comfort with yaqeen, and nothing worse than doubt mixed with kufr, and be truthful..."
- Death of Bilal
 - His life after the death of the Prophet ﷺ was miserable
 - He stopped giving athan because he couldn't continue past the Prophet ﷺ's name
 - He eventually asked Abu Bakr for permission to leave Sham
 - AB is trying to hold him back
 - Bilal asks, when you freed me, did you free me for the sake of Allah ﷻ or to benefit from my company? Why are you being selfish
 - Then he fought in Sham for a long time
 - Until he had a dream that the Prophet ﷺ asked him why he is so distant
 - Hasan and Hussain ask him to call athaan
 - They were very curious about the Prophet ﷺ
 - Then Bilal calls, and narrates that the people of Madina felt like the Prophet ﷺ was resurrected

- The wives are now in iddah
 - Not allowed to be in public gatherings or enjoying themselves

 - Shows how they were waiting for death
- Urwa ibn Zubair narrates

 - If you give Shaytan room to infiltrate, he will
 - The Prophet ﷺ wasn't even in the ground yet
- Conversation
 - The Prophet ﷺ did not appoint anybody but he did give a lot of indications as to who he wanted it to be
 - Like having Abu Bakr lead salah, and saying "follow the two coming after me AB and Umar" and "Allah ﷻ refuses to have anyone except Abu Bakr"
 - When Umar passed away, they asked him to pick. He replied, if I appoint someone, someone much better than me did not appoint anyone (referring to the Prophet ﷺ and Abu Bakr)
- Lesson: Islam does not have a mechanism of appointment
 - There is no voting, no prior appointment
 - Sharia allows the current situation to decide what is most appropriate
 - All of the khulafa did different things when transitioning between leaders
- The Prophet predicted that khilafa would last 30 years Then Allah ﷻ is going to put kingdomship (passing authority by lineage)
 - Ali's death is exactly 30 years

Indications of AB khilafa

- AB leading salah while the Prophet ﷺ was alive
- Him telling a lady that has a question, if you don't find me find AB
- The Prophet ﷺ's dream that I'm in front of a pond and giving drink, then AB takes the bucket from me and he was kind of slow and Allah ﷻ is going to forgive him, then Umar comes and I've never seen anyone scoop water like that
- The water is a metaphor for the strength and spread of Islam
- He had many dreams like this, in another one of them drinking milk
- On his death bed he asked for someone to write for him
- The fact that all the doors were closed except AB

- When the Prophet ﷺ was building the masjid of madina, he put a brick then AB the Umar then Uthman, and he said these 3 will be the leaders after me
- Direct indication of the Prophet ﷺ's prediction

The Bayya to Abu Bakr

- Narrated by ibn abbas
 - He gives his backstory first
 - Talking to his student
 - One year was coming back from hajj on a friday
 - He got to the masjid for an announcement

 - Then Umar walked up to the mimbar
 - He got a feeling Umar is going to say something no one has said before
- Umar gets there, muadhin calls athan, and immediately Umar addresses
 - Intro + everyone listen closely Im going to say something allah ﷻ has given me the opportunity to say, I might be gone so remember it well, but if you dont remember ... TS 1348, afraid people are going to want to leave this ruling
 - Then he mentions, not overvenerating the Prophet ﷺ, I heard ? saying dont give bayyah?
 - Dont let anybody get convinced that Abu bakrs khlaifa being fast caused harm, and
 - Then he praises Abu Bakr more
 - All of the Ansar were present and they were sitting in the garden
 - Someone screamed, Umar come out the Ansar are gathering
 - Then Umar tells AB to go and they bump into Abu Ubayda
 - Then they hear the Ansar talking
 - They get told they dont have to speak to them
 - Then they walk into the garden and a man is sitting with a shawl on his head
 - Saad bin Ubada has a shawl on his head, is sick
 - Ansar say were the ones who gave islam strength
 - Then Umar says, I can see they want to get us out of the picture, and he was really excited to speak, and he'll say it in front of AB and itll be perfect, and they had some tension so he wanted to make it up to him
 - Bfore he could say anything AB ushered to relax
 - And he was very tolerant and patient, everything good Umar thought he would say that he planned, AB said off the top of his head
- Ab respons
 - Everything you said is true, worthy of praise, no tribes would claim it
 - But the arabs will not recognize leadership except for the Quraish

 - Umar says this was the only thing he hated
 - Then an Ansari said he was experienced, and suggested two leaders and argument broke out
 - While they were arguing Umar said to AB let us give you bayya, then everyone followed suit of Umar

- It was very sudden, not planned
- Someone said, you guys killed Saad
- Umar got really angry and said May Allah ﷻ killed saad (basically who cares)
- The reason they did it quick was because they were worried about fitna
- It was sudden but still the best possible decision
- Aisha says if you put that burden on a mountain it would crush it
- AB stands on mimbar
 - Im not the best person
 - As long as i lead by quran and sunnah, follow me, and if not then dont
 - Khilafa at 2 years
 - They both passed at 63

 - Sahaba different on how to deal with category 3
- Abu Bakr says I'm going to fight them the same way as the false prophets.
 - You don't know that I've been commanded to fight anyone who rejects islam... and anybody that differentiates between salah and zakat I am going to fight
 - If they decrease one rope of a camel, then I am going to fight them
 - Umar narrates: When I saw Abu Bakr so certain, I knew that he was right
 - Even though everything else was falling apart, Abu Bakr is taking it very seriously
 - It is as serious as armed rebellion
 - Normally its Umar wanting to take the more serious reaction
- Limited safe zone where people were not being misled
 - Either they left islam completely
 - Or were being impressed
- Masjid Juwatha
 - A small masjid outside mecca and madina was the only place where salah was still being prayed
- Why were people leaving islam?
 - These were people who accepted at fath of Mecca
 - They were kind of just going with the flow
 - More than half of them were not sincere
 - Once the Prophet ﷺ dies they think they can just move on to the next source of power
 - Another reason is tribalism

- Another is the fact that the false prophets were logistically far away from Mecca and Madina
- Abu Bakr's military operation
 - The week after the Prophet ﷺ dies
 - He sends out 11 armies
 - Massive groups of people leaving islam (ex: Banu Hanifa 40k)

- Army 5:
 - Sent to Maana near Muttah

How to identify a Sincere Scholar/Leader

1. If their immediate circle/followers is not drawing attention to the person but increasing in their love for ibadah
 - If a person has more love for the person than love for Allah ﷺ, its probably not sincere dawah
2. Excessive focus on loyalty
 - In those circles you'll gain virtue by showing loyalty to the person
 - Dangerous sign is when they are looking for the people around them to benefit them
3. If they say everyone else is wrong and if they never give respect to competition
 - Lots of people start out sincere but end up going down this route because of the fitna of attention

Year of Expeditions

What year did the Prophet ﷺ declare a year of expeditions? What was the main purpose of doing so?

6 AH. It was to convey the message to the rest of Arabia that Madina could not be invaded, and to switch from defense to offense after the Battle of Khandak.

Which sahabi from Yamama accepted islam after being captured in an expedition? What did he leverage against the Quraish?

Thumama ibn Uthal. He was a financial leader from the tribe of Yamama, and was captured unintentionally in an expedition led by Muhammad ibn Maslama. The Prophet ﷺ had him tied to a pillar in the masjid, and he accepted islam shortly after he was freed. Thumama leveraged the sale of food to Mecca against the Quraish after they threatened him while he was completing his umrah.

Which of the Prophet ﷺ's son-in-laws accepted islam around the same time the ayat of Surah Mumtahana was revealed? How did he accept islam?

Abul Aas ibn Abi Rabia, husband of Zeinab. During one of the expeditions, the sahaba returned with him among the captives. He was not muslim at the time, however after arriving in Madina he received tribal protection from Zeinab and he accepted islam shortly after. The ayat of Surah Mumtahana was revealed at around the same time.

Which sahabi led Dawmat Al Jandal? Which famous hadith was said by the Prophet ﷺ the same morning that he left for the expedition?

Abdurrahman ibn Awf. The Prophet ﷺ said that the best of believers is the one with the best of manners, and that the wisest are the ones who remember death most and the ones who are best in preparing for it.

In response to which event was the hadd punishment of severe crimes revealed?

A group of 8 people pretended to accept islam and came to the Prophet ﷺ looking for treatment. The Prophet ﷺ directed them to a specific place, but once they recovered they killed its sheppard, mutilated his body, and stole his camels. The ayah of Surah Maida was revealed detailing the various options of hadd for severe crimes

Hudaybiyya

When was the treaty of Hudaibiyya signed?

Dhul Qada, 6 AH

What did the Prophet ﷺ see that provoked him to gather everyone for Umrah?

The Prophet ﷺ saw a dream in which he was completing the rituals of umrah with the people.

Where did the Prophet ﷺ put his ihram on? Dhul Hulaifa

What was the Quraish's initial response to the muslims coming to Madina for umrah?

They took an oath that they would not allow the muslims to enter Mecca. Khalid ibn Walid had a group of horses mobilized to respond to them.

Which type of salah was revealed at the same time that Khalid ibn Walid was approaching the muslims to stop them from nearing Mecca? How is it prayed?

Salat Al Khawf. Prayed in 2 rows, where 1 row goes into ruku and then they switch. The basic principle is that one group defends while the other prays.

What did the Prophet ﷺ do to protect the muslims from Khalid's approaching army? Which sahabi helped direct that route?

The Prophet ﷺ switched to a more discreet route to Mecca. Najiya Ibn Jundub helped them.

What did the Prophet ﷺ's camel do on the way to Mecca that prevented them from being able to continue with their umrah? How did the Prophet ﷺ interpret this?

After they returned to the main path to Mecca from the detour, the Prophet ﷺ's camel sat down and would not move. The Prophet ﷺ recognized that Allah ﷻ had commanded his camel to stop moving. When the Prophet ﷺ made it move, it started walking backwards to Hudaibiyya.

Who did the Prophet ﷺ talk to at Hudaibiyya and in what order?

Buday ibn Warqa - A member of Khuzaa

Mikraz ibn Hafs - Quraish delegate. The Prophet ﷺ called him treacherous

Urwa ibn Masoud, touched the Prophet ﷺ's beard as they were talking. Mughira ibn Shuaba smacked his hand away. Urwah ibn Masoud is Mughira's uncle.

Who did the Prophet ﷺ send into Mecca first to negotiate their entry for umrah? How did the Quraish respond to him, and who did he send after?

Khiraash ibn Umayya. The Quraish beat him up, and the Prophet ﷺ sent Uthman after him.

Which rumor spread to the muslims after Uthman entered Mecca? What did the Prophet ﷺ do in response?

A rumor spread that Uthman RA was killed. The Prophet ﷺ took bayyah from the muslims that if the rumor was confirmed they would invade Mecca and give their lives for the sake of Allah جل جلاله.

What are some of the virtues of the people who gave bayyah at Hudaibiyya?

They are mentioned in the Quran by Allah's pleasure with them

They cannot enter jahannam

The Prophet ﷺ called them the best of people to walk this earth

They are forgiven

They are the second best after people of Badr

Which sahabi gave bayyah 3 times and gave bayyah a 4th time on behalf of Uthman RA at Hudaibiyya?

Salama ibn Al Akwa (recap: intimidating/big bedouin, could outrun horses)

What did the Quraish try to do after Uthman peacefully returned to the muslims at Hudaibiyya?

They tried to attack the muslim camp. A group of 50-80 of them infiltrated and were captured. They killed one lesser known sahabi. They were also caught by Salama

Who represented the Quraish at the official negotiations of Hudaibiyya?

Suhail ibn Amr

Who scribed the treaty of Hudaibiyya? What occurred during the scribing process which the Prophet ﷺ predicted would happen to his scribe as well?

Ali RA. Suhail Ibn Amr refused to accept 'rasoolallah' written with the Prophet ﷺ's name, and the Prophet ﷺ informed Ali that a similar situation would occur to him some day (in the future Ali would have 'amir al muminin' erased from his contract with Muawiyya)

State the 5 main conditions of Hudaibiyya.

1: No fighting between the Muslims in Medina and Quraysh in Mecca for 10 years

2: The muslims have to go back this year without performing umrah

3: The muslims are allowed to return the following year. When they come back they can stay in Mecca for three days, and only carry sheathed swords.

4: Any tribe can choose to ally with either side. If an allied tribe is attacked, that would count as breaking the treaty.

5: Any man that leaves Mecca to go to Madina without permission has to be sent back, but if a muslim leaves Madina to join the Quraish, they do not have to be returned. (women are still allowed to leave Mecca without restriction... for conditions on their acceptance into Madina see Surah Mamtahana tab)

Who is Abu Jandal? How was he affected by Hdaybiyya?

Abu Jandal is the son of Suhail ibn Amr. He accepted islam early on and fought at Badr but was captured. When the muslims came to Hdaybiyya, he called upon them for help. The Prophet ﷺ tried to negotiate with Suhail by saying the treaty had not been signed yet, but Suhail refused and Abu Jandal was unable to rejoin them. This moment stuck in the minds of sahaba for a long time, to the extent that they would refer to it as the Day of Abu Jandal

How did the sahaba initially respond to the outcomes of Hdaybiyya? How did the Prophet ﷺ deal with it and what was their response after?

After the Prophet ﷺ sent Abu Jandal back, he told everybody to shave their heads but nobody moved, despite him saying it 3 times. The Prophet ﷺ sought counsel from Umm Salama who advised him to lead by example, so he preceded to shave his head and slaughter a camel. The sahaba saw him exiting his ihram, and moved very quickly to follow suit after. Narrations mention they moved so fast that they were almost hurting each other.

How did Umar RA respond to Hdaybiyya? What revelation calmed him down?

Umar remained angry, and questioned the Prophet ﷺ. Soon after the ayah of Surah Fath was revealed, stating that they had been given a clear conquest.

What are some lessons we can take from Hdaybiyya and its eventual outcomes?

1: A leader might make decisions which we don't understand, and it is important to trust them/not be critical.

2: Sometimes it's necessary to compromise on things of lesser significance for the greater good. The right outcome is not always the most pleasant.

3: The sunnah of Allah ﷺ. Victory does not always look the same. While people are hasty, Allah ﷻ builds victory in a slow and consistent way (Hudaybiyya paved the path to the Fath of Mecca despite being unfavorable in the moment)

4: Capitalizing on periods of peace. Peaceful times are when things get done, and preparations are made for when things get worse.

Mention some of the reasons scholars Hudaybiyya is considered a fath.

- 1: The Prophet ﷺ did not provide any additional leniencies, and was able to utilize loopholes
- 2: Quraish has recognized them as a valid political entity, which helped set the tone for the Fath and gave them a lot of ease in terms of travel
- 3: Peace, allowing them to give dawah to other nations
- 4: Growth in the population of the muslims
- 5: Conquering the remaining tribes
- 6: Opening the door to the eventual conquest

Which sahabi, after being turned away from Madina, settled outside of the city and was joined by others? What did he do?

Abu Basir. He was originally from Thakif but he accepted islam and ran away. When he reached Madina, the Prophet ﷺ had to turn him away because of the treaty. He settled on a caravan route and eventually established a highway gang with other runaway muslims. They became significant enough that the Quraish personally requested their acceptance into Madina. Abu Basir died holding the letter from the Prophet ﷺ.

Name one woman who accepted islam and left Mecca after Hudaybiyya.

Umm Khultum bint Uqbah. She is the daughter of Uqbah ibn Abi Mueet who was executed at Badr. She accepted islam as a teenager and ran away. When she reached Madina, the Prophet ﷺ utilized a loophole in the treaty; it hadn't include women (when they wrote the treaty they wrote it with masculine pronouns). Her acceptance into Madina opened the door for more women to leave Mecca.

In which surah was an ayah revealed regarding the women coming from Mecca to Madina after Hudaybiyya and why?

As more women started leaving Mecca for Madina, Surah Mumtahana was revealed instructing Prophet ﷺ to test the women, to make sure they are coming for islam and not any other reason. And to keep them only if he thinks they are sincere.

Which two surahs have ayat that were revealed in response to the events of Hudaybiyya?

Surah Fath and Surah Mumtahana.

What is the ruling regarding existing marriages of new muslims to polytheists revealed in Surah Mumtahana? How did this impact the sahaba?

Ayah 10-11

- 1: Marriage to polytheists is forbidden
- 2: The islam of an existing spouse should be checked for sincerity
- 3: Muslim men should not hold on to the marriage of non muslim women

These ayat immediately nullified the marriages of many sahaba, including Umar RA who divorced his two mushriq wives in Mecca by letter. The men also had to return mehr if the woman had done hijra. This was a temporary system for the time of Hudaybiyya.

Dawah to Foreign Nations

How did the Prophet ﷺ take advantage of the safety and security of post-Hudaybiyya in regards to dawah?

The Prophet ﷺ took advantage of the safety and security post Hudaybiyya to spread dawah as far and wide as he could. He sent letters and delegates to major tribes and neighboring nations.

Name a few of the arab tribes of Hijaz which the Prophet ﷺ immediately targeted for dawah post-Hudaybiyya, and the outcomes.

Daws (Yemen): existing muslims invited to make hijra

Ashariyin (Yemen): existing muslims invited to make hijra

Hawazin (Taif): rejected the call

Who is Umm Habiba? How was her nikkah conducted?

Umm Habiba is one of the wives of the Prophet ﷺ. She is the daughter of Abu Sufyan. She made hijra to Abyssinia with her husband, however while they were there he left islam. When their marriage became nullified, the Prophet ﷺ extended a proposal to her. Her nikkah was conducted long distance, with another sahabi acting as her delegate and Najashi as her officiant.

Who was in the region when Heraclius of Rome received the letter of dawah from the Prophet ﷺ? Why did Heraclius seek him out and what was their interaction like?

Abu Sufyan was in the area for business. Heraclius sought him out so that he could investigate the legitimacy of the Prophet ﷺ's leadership, character, and message.

Their long conversation is narrated by Abu Sufyan himself. Key moment: he describes watching Heraclius read the letter and start trembling out of awe for the ayah of the Quran read. Abu Sufyan realizes at this moment that islam will become dominant.

How did Heraclius respond to the call to islam?

He was too attached to his power to accept islam. When he proposed giving bayyah to the Prophet ﷺ in front of his cardinals, they reacted very poorly. In his responding letter to the Prophet ﷺ he claimed to be muslim but too "afraid for his kingdom". The Prophet ﷺ recognized this as a lie, and called him an enemy of Allah جلّ جلاله.

What was the Prophet ﷺ's primary form of dawah to foreign leaders? Mention a couple ways he demonstrated political wisdom in the process.

He would make a point to address the receiving party in respectful and personalized ways that would catch their attention. Ex: Najashi with the mention of Isa, Heraclius by the title of ruler. He also personalized a ring for stamping his letters, which he recognized to be necessary for communicating with foreign powers with legitimacy. He would "speak their language" when appropriate (ex: praising the leader of Bahrain as more intelligent than the religion of zoroastrianism)

Briefly mention the nations the Prophet ﷺ gave dawah to and if they accepted or rejected islam.

Briefly mention the events of the Battle of Dhi Qar.

3 days before the battle of Khybar, Abdurrahman ibn Uayaynah raided a pasture in the outskirts of Madina. He was initially chased down by Salama ibn Al Akwa (sahabi known for being able to outrun animals) but it escalated into a full chase with both sides calling for support and the muslims responding on the impression of a larger scale attack. The battle ended with the death of Ibn Uayayna, the muslims recovering their animals, and returning with additional dropped spoils. One sahabi, by the name of Al Akhram al Aslami died shaheed.

When was the Battle of Khybar? Who was allowed to participate and how large was the muslim army?

7 AH. Only those present at Hudaibiyya, as a means of filtering out munafiq. 1.4k

What was the terrain/manpower of Khyber like? Why was it seemingly contradictory for the Prophet ﷺ to reject the munafiq?

Terrain

Very fortified, difficult to get into
Forts built on mountains

Manpower

10-15k fighting age men
Expensive Roman weapons
High food stock (dates) and good irrigation systems

The Prophet ﷺ turned away the munafiq that refused to come for Hudaibiyya per direct command in the Quran (Surah Fath Ayah 15).

Objectively, this limits the muslim army to 1.4k and it doesn't make sense to turn people away, however the munafiq have already proved themselves and the Prophet ﷺ is establishing that their participation is not needed for victory.

- 1: Stay in Khyber on the condition of providing the muslims half of all their produce (originally asked to leave khybar, but they negotiated)

How did Safiya bint Huyay come to be a wife of the Prophet ﷺ ?

After her first husband was executed at Khyber, she was taken captive. She was originally given to Dihya al Kalbi, but negotiated to be under the captivity of the Prophet ﷺ due to her royal status. She accepted islam and was proposed to by the Prophet ﷺ not long after.

Mention a couple stories of people who made hijra to Madina after the success of Khybar.

Amr ibn Al Aas, Khalid ibn Walid, and Uthman ibn Talha.

When they arrived in Madina, the Prophet ﷺ took bayyah from them but they did not settle down. Taking advantage of the fact that the Quraish hadn't sent anyone to retrieve them, the Prophet ﷺ made sure there was a short time window between their arrival in Madina and their departure on expeditions.

Their acceptance of islam greatly benefited the muslims because all 3 were skilled in military and strategy. And as influential leaders of Mecca, their conversions also weakened the Quraish. The Prophet ﷺ sent them on military expeditions right away.

Although other sahaba accused him of nifaq, the Prophet ﷺ pardoned Hatib. He recognized his sincerity through his participation at the Battle of Badr.
