104 | Surah Al-Humazah

Date Covered: 9/24 @

Period of Revelation: Makkan

Surah Number: 104

Order of Revelation: 32

Number of Ayahs: 9

Theme and Subject Matter:

Materialism and those who hoard money
How bad mankind can get into loss
Severe and harsh descriptions of hell

English Translation

1. Woe to every scorner and mocker
2. Who collects wealth and [continuously] counts it
3. He thinks that his wealth will make him immortal
4. No! He will surely be thrown into the Crusher
5. And what can make you know what is the Crusher?
6. It is the fire of Allah, [eternally] fueled Which mounts directed at the hearts
7. Indeed, Hellfire will be closed down upon them In extended columns

Overview & Theme

- This surah highlights arrogance + wealth as two things that waste peoples time in dunya.
- Connects to the oath to come in Surah Asr.

Ayah 1

وَيْلٌ لِّكُلِّ هُمَزَةٍ لُّمَزَةٍ

Waylulli kulli humazatil lumaza

Woe to every scorner and mocker

- Wayl
 - two meanings
 - 1. The highest form of regret
 - 2. The name of the lowest valley in Jahannam

- It originates from 'way laka amin' (where way expresses hopelessness and despair)
- Humaza
 - Refers to one who belittles others through facial expressions or body language.
 - For example, ignoring someone new in a group, turning away, sighing, or showing disinterest with the eyes.
 - Refers to mocking others through gestures, like hand movements.
 - Ibn Abbas RA said it means "speaking with your hands."
- Contrast from Prophetic Behavior
 - The Prophet ﷺ turned his whole body to face those he spoke to and gave each person his full attention
- Lesson: We are accountable for our facial expressions and tone. Our body language can hurt others even without words.
- Practical reminder
 - On the giving end: be cautious not to offend others.
 - On the receiving end: be tolerant and forgiving when offended.
- The Prophet ﷺ correcting sahaba
 - Aisha RA: When the Prophet ﷺ praised Zaynab RA and Aisha RA reacted negatively. The Prophet ﷺ said, "If you were to put those words in fresh water, it would turn it bitter." She later regretted it deeply
 - The Prophet ﷺ was always gentle in correcting people. Example: when he took a date out of Ali's mouth
- Main danger of Humaza
 - It often happens without realization. We might not intend harm, but our expressions can still hurt others.
- Lumaza
 - Ibn Abbas: Mocking someone directly to their face, not just behind their back
 - Mujahahid: Using the tongue
- Root disease
 - Both Humaza and Lumaza stem from arrogance

Ayah 2

الَّذِي جَمَعَ مَالًا وَعَدَّدَهُ

Alladhee jamaa maal wa addada

Who collects wealth and [continuously] counts it

- Social Context
 - Wealth was the main measure of status among the Meccans
 - This attitude continued even after some accepted Islam.
 - This verse also addresses Muslims who continued to subtly look down on fellow muslims like Bilal RA, because of their background.
- Hadith about Attitude Towards Wealth
 - The Prophet ﷺ said, "The worst person is an arrogant poor man, and an old person who is unchaste."
 - Such behavior is shameful because both should have developed humility and wisdom through their experiences, but did not.
- Jama'a
 - Means to gather or hoard wealth.
 - Allah is describing a 2nd group of people that also deserve Wayl
 - Referring to those who do not merely earn but accumulate obsessively
 - Previously also condemned in Surah Maun and Surah Quraysh.
- Wa 'Addada
 - Means to count repeatedly, showing their unhealthy obsession with wealth, constantly keeping track of it
 - Pointing to a person who spent his entire life gathering money
- Ma'alahu
 - "his wealth"
 - It is in the singular form which is belittling the wealth
 - Carries connotations that the wealth that its not rightfully his
- A'dada
 - to count, but also meaning to prepare.
 - Could be foreshadowing the next ayah, which expands on how he thought "preparing" his wealth would benefit him

Ayah 3

يَحْسَبُ أَنَّ مَالَهُ أَخْلَدَهُ

He thinks that his wealth will make him immortal

- Malahu
 - his wealth, repeated
 - In the 2nd ayah, Allah connotes that the wealth is not rightfully his.
- Psychological state of this person
 - Now Allah is showing this person's mental state

- He thinks that the money is truly his, and he assumes ownership and control over it.
- He is forgetting that wealth belongs only to Allah.
- Akhladah
 - Eternity/continuous. To make something last forever
 - The arrogant believe their money will protect them from death or make them live on forever.
 - He thinks that the wealth he amasses will save him from death, and that he will remain forever in this worldly life.
- Lesson: Wealth gives a false illusion of permanence, distracting the person from mortality and accountability.

Ayah 4

كَأَلَّا لَيُنْبَذَنَّ فِي الْحُطَمَةِ

No! He will surely be thrown into the Crusher

- Layum Badhanna
 - from nubidha
 - means to throw away something worthless
 - Mufti compares it to discarded meat.
- Hutama
 - From hatama
 - Meaning to crush or shatter.
 - Describes a fire that crushes bones and burns flesh due to its unimaginable force (like dry plants that crumble when touched)
- Analogy
 - Those who are mocked and hoarded will be thrown away by Allah like food into a garbage disposal

Ayah 5

وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا الْحُطَمَةُ

And what can make you know what is the Crusher?

- Wama adraka
 - Means "what can make you know"
- Mal hutama
 - Meaning the crusher
 - The Ma'rifa version of the word by the addition of alif lam to hutama

- Gives it strength/completeness
- The point of the rhetorical question
 - This ayah presents a rhetorical question
 - Shows that nothing can make this person (who is obsessed with wealth) understand what Al-Hutama (the Crusher) is
- Linguistic nuance
 - Maa for negation: they will never know its full reality

Ayah 6

نَارُ اللَّهِ الْمُوقَدَّةُ

It is the fire of Allah, [eternally] fueled

- Naarullahi
 - meaning “the Fire of Allah.”
 - Allah attributes the fire directly to himself
- Why this ayah should strike fear in us
 - Anything Allah attributes to himself becomes the greatest and most intense form of it
- Muuqadah
 - Related to mawqadah meaning “that which is lit or ignited.”
 - Linguistic Nuance: ism ma’fool (recipient of the action)
- Interpretation: Thabit Al-Bunani said, “It will burn them all the way to their hearts while they are still alive.”

Ayah 7

الَّتِي تَطَّلِعُ عَلَى الْأَفْئِدَةِ

Which mounts directed at the hearts

- Tatali’u
 - Means to climb, rise, or emerge suddenly
- Connection to the heart
 - The sins of humaza and lumaza come from the arrogance rooted in the heart
 - The punishment also targets the heart directly.
- Af’idah
 - The plural of fu’ad
 - Referring to the innermost part of the heart (where feelings, desires, and arrogance reside)

- Destroying a person in the worst way
 - The pain will be very intense, but there will be no death to escape the punishment.
 - Also symbolizes how every corrupt desire and ego-driven feeling will be “burned away”

Ayah 8

إِنَّهَا عَلَيْهِمْ مُّصَدَّدَةٌ

Indeed, Hellfire will be closed down upon them

- Alayhim
 - Means “upon them”
- Mu’sadah
 - Means caged/covered
 - Isad: a place where animals are kept locked up and secured
 - The people of jahannam will be trapped completely, as if caged like animals, unable to escape.
 - Mu’sadah: a covering with no escape.
- Impossible doors
 - There will be doors high above them and they will want to escape, but the doors will be so far and out of reach.
- Extreme regret
 - Being trapped in such a way will make them feel extreme regret.
 - The previous ayat focused on the psychological side, this focuses on both psychological and physical punishment.

Ayah 9

فِي عَمَدٍ مُمَدَّدَةٍ

In extended columns

- A’amadin
 - columns, the essence of a structure
- Mumaddadah
 - to stretch to far extremes/as far as the stretch can go.
- Mufti’s Interpretation
 - The ayah as a whole refers to “deeply rooted pillars”
 - Their confinement is so complete that even if they tried to dig or escape, they would not reach the end.

- Scholarly Interpretations
 - Atiyah Al-Awfi: said they are “Pillars of Iron.”
 - As-Suddi: said they are “made of fire.”
 - Ibn Abbas: Al-`Awfi reported from Ibn `Abbas RA “He will make them enter pillars stretched forth, meaning there will be columns over them, and they will have chains on their necks, and the gates (of Hell) will be shut upon them.”

Summarizing Qualities of the People of Jahannam

1. Arrogant – displaying superiority and belittling others.
2. Wealth Driven – obsession with material accumulation and false security.

103 | Surah Al Asr

103 | Surah Al-'Asr

Date Covered: 9/22, 9/23

Period of Revelation: Makkan

Surah Number: 103

Order of Revelation: 13

Number of Ayahs: 3

Theme and Subject Matter:

Importance of Time

Qualities of the successful people

English Translation

1. By time
2. Indeed, mankind is in loss
3. 3. Except for those who have believed and done righteous deeds and advised each other to truth and advised each other to patience

Background

- Theme of Time
 - Previous surah (Surah Takathur): ended with the reminder that our time has come to an end and we were unable to take advantage of it because we were caught up in distractions.
 - Surah Asr: Allah reminds us that time itself will come to an end.
- The Oath
 - Although this surah has only three ayahs, Allah makes one of the most important oaths in the Qur'an (an oath on time itself)
 - Purpose of oaths: to indicate the subject is sacred, powerful, and magnificence
 - Purpose of Allah swearing by time: to tell the human to reflect
 - The oath is a witness for time and time is a witness that many humans are in loss.
- Uniqueness of Asr
 - While Allah swears by specific times in other surahs, Asr is a comprehensive oath (swearing by time in its entirety) and is also the last oath to appear in the Qur'an.
- Purpose

- This surah serves as a jolt, reminding us that we are at a loss and that time is slipping away.
- Though not tied to a particular event, the placement of this surah is like a conclusion to the previous surahs and their messages about time.

Ayah 1

وَالْعَصْرِ

By time (Asr).

- Wal:
 - Harf jarr through the letter waw
 - In English it is translated to “by”
 - In Arabic generally takes the meaning of oath/swearing by something.
 - Linguistic Definition: time that is running out.
- Asr
 - Meaning time, or “the time” (definite) as used here.
 - Asara means to squeeze. Time squeezes you, as responsibilities and worldly pressures narrow your focus.
 - Aseer: meaning juice (that which has been squeezed out)
 - Full meaning: squeezing time
 - Emphasizes that we are being drained of moments, and must act before time runs out
- Interpretation #1: the end of the day
 - Asr means time as a concept but also refers to the final portion of the day (due to dwindling sunlight).
 - It symbolizes the final stretch before the end.
 - Historical Significance: Asr was the time when the merchant and traveler was always in a hurry, because it was a time of danger. It is a time associated with urgency.
 - Maghrib on the other hand signifies the start of the night.
 - Connection to Asr Salah: The short time between Asr and Maghrib also symbolizes the little time left in life in general. It highlights our urgency to act.
 - Overall meaning: end of the day = not much time left = urgency needed
- Interpretation #2: the unique reward afforded to muslims
- Hadith about the previous nations

- The Prophet (ﷺ) said: "Your life in comparison to the lifetime of the past nations is like the period between the time of `Asr prayer and sunset. Your example and the example of the Jews and Christians is that of persons who employed laborers and said to them, "Who will work for me till the middle of the day for one Qirat (a special weight)?" The Jews did. He then said, "Who will work for me from the middle of the day till the `Asr prayer for one Qirat each?" The Christians worked accordingly. Then you (Muslims) are working from the `Asr prayer till the Maghrib prayer for two Qirats each. They (the Jews and the Christians) said, 'We did more labor but took less wages.' He (Allah) said, 'Have I wronged you in your rights?' They replied, 'No.' Then He said, 'This is My Blessing which I give to whom I wish." [Sahih Bukhari 5021]
- The ordained work times of previous nations
 - The Jews: worked from Fajr to Dhuhr
 - The Christians: worked from Dhuhr to Asr
 - The Muslims: should work from Asr to Maghrib.
- Reason for privilege: half the time and double the reward
 - The muslim ummah has been required to work in the way of Allah for less time in a day while receiving more reward.
 - Compared to the Jews and Christians, Allah has made access to his rewards easier and more abundant for Muslims.
 - This is the hadith the Hanafis use for their timing of Asr
- Evening Symbolism
 - The evening before sunset represents a person's final moments in life, when they rush to finish their tasks.
 - Allah swears by this period to remind us that our time is almost over.
- Lesson: Prioritize Allah
 - "Do not leave your leftovers for Allah."
 - The hypocrites used to give Allah what was left, not the best of their time or energy.
 - Allah deserves the first portion not the scraps.
- Example of prioritizing Allah: Aisha RA cutting off her nephew
 - Aisha RA was willing to make a huge sacrifice that prioritized her relationship with Allah.
 - Her nephew Abdullah ibn Zubair would often give her large gifts, which she would donate completely. Upset, he objected, and she vowed, "Wallahi, I will never speak to my nephew again."

- Although he later snuck in to embrace her and they reconciled, Aisha RA beautifully demonstrated hijran (cutting ties for Allah's sake)
- Side Note about Aisha RA: Though she had strong emotion (ghayrah), the Prophet ﷺ always redirected it with gentleness, saying, "Your mother, her ghayrah got the best of her." He taught us to see others' flaws with empathy and respect.
- Useful Mental Images
 - Ice Cream: Time is like melting ice cream on a hot day. You rush to eat it but end up dropping it and losing it.
 - Squeezing: Time squeezes away, it slips out of your hands while you're busy chasing distractions.
 - Like a sword: if you don't cut with it, it will cut you.
 - Selling Ice (quote from Imam Shafi'i): The struggle of the human being is like the one who is trying to sell ice. It is melting away and he needs to sell it quickly and make as many sales before the end of the day comes. Otherwise, all of their efforts will go to waste.

Ayah 2

إِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ لَفِي خُسْرٍ

Indeed, mankind is in loss.

- Al Insan
 - Ma'rifa (definite)
 - The addition of alif-lam makes the word definite
 - Meaning "the" human being not just "a" human being
 - Referring to all of mankind, not a specific group.
- La fi
 - Meaning "is in"
 - The lamin la fi intensifies the statement
 - The grammatical nuance gets translated as "surely, certainly."
 - Allah is declaring: The human being is most definitely in loss.
- Khusr
 - means loss, ruin, or decline
 - both worldly and spiritual
- Khusr as a Concept
 - Humans think they are winning at life but they are actually losing because they're more focused on dunya than akhirah.
 - Allah generalizes mankind: people may differ in how they lose (through wealth, power, safety, or peace), but all are at loss if they prioritize this world over the next.

- Defining loss
 - Islam redefines “loss”: what the world calls failure (poverty, death, or sacrifice) may actually be profit in the path of Allah
 - Death: is not a loss for the believer, who is returned to Allah.
 - Spending for Allah’s sake: is also not a loss since wealth given in charity is actually an investment for the akhirah.
- Learning from sahaba: story of Suhaib Ar Rumi
 - Known as Suhaib the Roman, one of the Prophet’s four “front-runners in faith”. During Hijrah, he was wealthy and vital to Makkah’s economy. When he tried to leave, the Quraysh pursued him for his wealth.
 - He said, “You know I am a better archer than you. I’ll tell you where my wealth is if you let me go.”
 - They agreed. When he arrived in Madinah, the Prophet ﷺ greeted him saying, “What a profitable transaction, Abu Yahya!” praising his choice to lose wealth for Allah’s pleasure.
- Lesson: Choosing Allah is never a loss.
 - Every believer will face moments where they must choose between halal and haram, obedience and desire.
 - Always choose halal, it will never be a loss.
- Trusting in Allah’s promise: Example of Hajar
 - When we go for Umrah we make sa’i. The word sa’i itself means effort, and teaches us that repeated effort comes from conviction in Allah’s promise.
 - People work tirelessly because they believe in results (like Hajar running between Safa and Marwa).
 - Similarly, believers keep striving in deeds for akhirah, because they trust Allah’s promise.

Ayah 3

إِلَّا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ وَتَوَاصَوْا بِالْحَقِّ وَتَوَاصَوْا بِالصَّبْرِ

Except for those who have believed and done righteous deeds and advised each other to truth and advised each other to patience.

Allah identifies the four qualities of those who escape loss

1. Belief (iman)
2. Righteous action (amal salih)
3. Advising others to truth (tawasaw bil haqq)
4. Advising others to patience (tawasaw bis sabr)

The 4 Qualities in Detail

1. Amanu

- From imaan, meaning faith
- Is the foundation of salvation. Without belief, there is no share in the akhirah

2. Amilu

- From amal, meaning action
- Faith must be proven through action. Belief without obedience is incomplete.
- Some think faith alone is enough, but neglecting obedience weakens it, just as neglecting care kills love.
- Modern Example: Mufti mentioned the Lebanese Muslim community in North America. One of the first to arrive, yet many descendants drifted away from Islam due to neglecting practice. Their story is a warning: Iman without amal fades.
- Delaying actions: People often say, "I'm not ready yet," but the deed itself makes the person righteous. Waiting to feel ready is a losing battle: action is what builds readiness.

3. Watawasaw bil-haqq

- Meaning "advising to truth"
- Wasiya: a final, heartfelt will or counsel, such as a parent's dying words.
- Tawasaw: means to mutually encourage (sincere, ongoing, two-way advice)
- Interpretation: True believers inspire and remind one another of sincerity and gentleness. The goal is to help each other remain firm upon truth.

Giving Advice

- We should reflect on how we give others advice
 - Advise each other the way a person in their dying breath advises the people they are leaving behind.
 - That is the tone of watawasaw bil haq.
- Conditions for Genuine Advice (Imam Ghazali)

- Love: You must genuinely want good for the other person (nush).
- Experience: You should have wisdom or understanding before advising.
- Taqwa: Advice must be rooted in sincerity and Allah-consciousness.
- Correcting with wisdom
 - The goal is that it is taken, not simply that it is given. The Prophet ﷺ corrected people privately, with compassion.
 - Harshness was reserved only for when it was truly needed.
 - True advice uplifts, it doesn't humiliate.
- Focus on haqq
 - Truth must be prioritized over comfort, manners, or preference.
 - Even if someone's adab or style differs, if their message aligns with truth, support the truth first.
 - The haqq of Islam outweighs all personal sensitivities.

4. Watawasaw bis sabr

- Meaning "advising to patience"
- Sabr here is actually better translated to "perseverance"
- Referring to the strength to stay committed despite hardship, criticism, or delay.
- If you commit your life to this path of truth, you must hold fast to sabr.
- Lesson: Don't command patience, foster it
- Like raising children, you teach patience by modeling calm and resilience, not demanding it.
- Etiquette in advising others to sabr
 - Be gentle with those in pain
 - Mufti's personal experience: When his brother passed away, people told him, "At least he died Muslim." Mentions that at janazahs, he prefers silence and dua, because sometimes presence is the greatest comfort. Offer duas and presence, not empty words.
 - Be patient with blessings. A lack of trials doesn't mean Allah doesn't love you (even blessings are tests)

Extra Notes

- Power of environment
 - You must place yourself in good environments. Even the most sinful can change when surrounded by light.
- Examples of sincerity
 - Mufti mentioned reverts often have fresh, sincere hearts, making their experiences in Umrah deeply moving.
 - Story: A man from the MARs Umrah group broke down crying before the Prophet's grave, saying, "I can't go in, I'm too sinful." His tears showed true humility and love.
- Humility with the Prophet ﷺ
 - A scholar in Karachi would cover his face when greeting the Prophet ﷺ at Nabawi.
 - Another one never said salam from the front, only from the side, out of humility.
- When you wake up, Shaytan ties three knots
 - Reciting the dua unties one.
 - Making wudhu unties another.
 - Praying Fajr unties the third.
 - Only then does your soul feel light.
- Angels don't enter where there are dogs or faces, and jinn settle where angels do not.
 - Keep your spaces spiritually clean
 - Invite angels with dhikr and salah.

102 | Surah At Takathur

102 | Surah At Takathur

Dates Covered: 9/29 @ 1305, 9/30 @ 1300, 10/1, 10/6 @ 1300

Period of Revelation: Makkan

Surah Number: 102

Order of Revelation: 16

Number of Ayahs: 8

Theme and Subject Matter:

- Being busy with/competing for this world and forgetting the akhira

English Translation

1. Competition in [worldly] increase diverts you
2. Until you visit the graveyards
3. No! You are going to know
4. Then no! You are going to know
5. No! If you only knew with knowledge of certainty
6. You will surely see the Hellfire
7. Then you will surely see it with the eye of certainty
8. Then you will surely be asked that Day about pleasure

Context

- Surah At Takathur has themes in common with Surahs Zal-Zalah, Adiyat, and Qariat.
 - Zilzal and Qariat
 - The ending (time is up)
 - Deeds being exposed/weighed
 - Adiyat and Takathur
 - before the ending (time is running out, but there's some left)
 - Horse imagery
 - time as a theme
 - All of these surahs are a build up to Surah Al-Asr, and have in common the theme of the Day of Judgement

Ayah 1-2

Takathur Ayah 1-2

Dates Covered: 9/29 @ 1305, 9/30 @ 1300, 10/6 @ 1300 (review)

Ayah 1

الْهٰكُمُ التَّكَاثُرُ

Alhakumutakathur

Competition in [worldly] increase diverts you

- Al-haku
 - Root word lahu meaning diversion
 - The word is being used in its verbal form.
 - In this ayah it means something that distracts a person from their deen.
- At-takathur
 - meaning competition
 - It is attempting to achieve things simply to one-up others, or compromising a need to fulfill something else.
 - This ayah is saying that the pursuit of abundance has deluded you.
- Interpretation: Excessive competition in dunya (permissible or impermissible) will divert you from what is important.
 - TS 10/6 @ 1300

Lahu As a Concept

- Connotations
 - Lahu carries the connotation of being concerned over superficial things (like small children getting distracted by insignificant things).
 - Allah is demonstrating that the competition of dunya is not even a meaningful distraction.
 - Modern Example: The internet is one of today's biggest distractions. Mufti jokes that it's called the "world wide web" because it's a web that catches and holds you. That is lahu: being caught up in distractions.
- Not Limited to Haram
 - It does not have to be sinful to be considered a distraction. Even halal things can be considered lahu if done excessively/at the wrong time/with inappropriate intentions.

*Time stamp for interpretation 2 (13:31:13) *notes out of order for clarity

- Although you might not naturally be competitive, dunya will still do that to you. Everyone is vulnerable to sins and deviance.
- كُلُّ مَا يُشْغِلُكَ qullu ma yushgiluka
 - An arabic saying meaning “everything that distracts you”
 - This phrase includes anything that occupies your mind, taking you away for even a moment from what is important.
 - Mufti explains that this split second distraction falls under the umbrella of lahu.
 - Modern Example: It might be beneficial to check the news, but checking it in class makes it lahu.
- More Examples
 - Prioritizing Responsibilities: If a parent is cooking while her child is about to fall down a staircase, keeping her focus on cooking would be considered lahu. Cooking is not inherently wrong: failing to prioritize her attention is.
 - Prioritizing Deen: If you are sitting at Masjid Al-Haram, spending time thinking about anything other than Allah is then lahu.
 - Losing focus of what is important to us can be fatal (as can be seen in countless examples)
- Greater Harm from Being in a Constant State of Distraction
 - If this is the effect of one moment of distraction, imagine how in loss a person is being distracted throughout their entire life. People spend life times being in a state of lahu, and that is why it is so dangerous.
- Lahu in Deen
 - lahu can be good things at the wrong time too.
 - Example: Mufti mentions how he advises his MII students against fasting if they cannot handle it, because it makes them lethargic in class. The students are not doing something haram, but that does not mean it is necessarily beneficial either. Fasting in this case would be considered lahu because there is a bigger demand given to the student by Allah.
- Lahu in Seerah: The Man Who Wanted to Make Hijra
 - A man travelled from Yemen to do jihad with the Prophet in his 9th year after Hijra. The Prophet ﷺ upon meeting the man asked him about his mother: Is she happy with you or was she upset?
 - He answered that she was very upset, but that he came anyway because jihad was the more significant amal (action).

- The Prophet ﷺ told him to go back. He was instructed to spend the night at Quba (meaning to leave ASAP and be out of Madina by night) and to come back when his mother is happy.
- The Real Reason for Leaving: The man actually left home because his mother was upset and not despite it as he tried to make it seem. Some people look to religion as a shield from things they've done wrong. This man was running away from his situation, the Prophet ﷺ was advising him to fix his wrongs first.
- Moral of the Story: In this story, jihad for the sake of deen was actually a form of lahu. Mufti mentions that there's no virtue and substitution, there's virtue in compromise.

The 5 Stages of Distraction (Surah Al-Hadid 57:20)

Know that this worldly life is no more than play, amusement, luxury, mutual boasting, and competition in wealth and children. This is like rain that causes plants to grow, to the delight of the planters. But later the plants dry up and you see them wither, then they are reduced to chaff. And in the Hereafter there will be either severe punishment or forgiveness and pleasure of Allah, whereas the life of this world is no more than the delusion of enjoyment.

1. Stage 1: La'ib - Play
 - Laib is children's play/inconsequential distraction.
 - They are not engaging in anything meaningful and it is mostly physical in nature.
 - Mufti compares la'ib to wasting time staring at an object.
2. Stage 2: Lahu - frivolous distraction
 - See above
3. Stage 3: Zeena - appearance and optics
 - Starts at 15 and lasts until 40s. To be overinfatuated by your physical appearance, at a superficial level (ex: beauty)
4. Stage 4: Tafakkur
 - "Pretending that you made it somewhere"
 - Fakhurun Baynakum: Boasting about yourself through your accomplishments.
 - In their 40s-50s they are focused on status, one-upping each other.

*Time stamp for interpretation 2 (13:31:13) *notes out of order for clarity

- Examples: titles, accolades, etc. It is being obsessed with appearing to have things (faking it basically)
5. Stage 5: Takathur
- “You’ve already made it, you’re just flexing.”
 - The stage of the 50-60s. It’s like how they brag about their children being in med school. They cannot do the first 4, so they engage in this.
 - This state is about actually having things.

Arabic Word	Core Meaning	Type of Distraction	Typical Life Stage	Classical Examples
1 La’ib	Play	Physical	Childhood	Kids playing
2 Lahu	Amusement	Mental / emotional	Adolescence	Distraction & games
3 Zeenah	Beautification	Visual / social	Youth	Fashion, image
4 Tafakkur	Boasting	Social / ego	Adulthood	Bragging of achievements
5 Takāthur	Rivalry in accumulation	Material	Older age	Competing in wealth, children, property

Ayah 2

أَلْهَكُمُ التَّكَاثُرُ

Hatta zurtumul makabir

Until you visit the graveyards

- Zurtumul makabir
 - Meaning visit the graves
- Interpretation 1: You will have takathur until you visit the graves and are reminded of death (visiting graves removes worldly desires)
 - If anyone still feels takathur after attending a janazah, they have missed the point.
 - This is reflected in the sunnah of visiting graves (see more below)

*Time stamp for interpretation 2 (13:31:13) *notes out of order for clarity

- Interpretation 2: You will continue to be in takathur until you die.
 - You will keep forgetting and remembering your priorities until you are actually in your grave.
 - This is the more common meaning
 - Why our time in the grave is a “visit” and not a “stay”: our final abode is not the grave. We are visitors in it until the DOJ.
- Makbara
 - Root words kabara and kuruba
 - Often in arabic, if you swap letters you will get a similar meaning
 - Here the underlying connotation is of “closeness/nearness”
- Interpretation 3: The grave is always close by
- Hadith on remembering death
 - The solution to crushing desires for dunya is remembrance of death.
 - Abu Huraira reported: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, “Remember often the destroyer of pleasures: death.” (Tirmidhi 2307)
- The Prophet ﷺ's Dua for visiting graves

السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ أَهْلَ الدِّيَارِ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُسْلِمِينَ وَإِنَّا إِن شَاءَ اللَّهُ بِكُمْ لَاحِقُونَ نَسْأَلُ اللَّهَ لَنَا
وَلَكُمْ الْعَافِيَةَ

Peace be upon you, people of this abode, from among the believers and those who are Muslims, and we, by the Will of Allah, shall be joining you.[May Allah have mercy on the first of us and the last of us] I ask Allah to grant us and you well-being.

- Why would the Prophet ﷺ say “inshallah”? Because we believe the grave to be a positive place, and we hope to be with the pious in our graves.
- Sunnah of visiting the grave every Wednesday
 - The Prophet ﷺ would visit the graves of the suhahada from the Battle of Uhud every Wednesday was part of his sunnah to frequently visiting the graves, especially of Uhud
 - “No one’s spirituality is so great that you don’t need to visit the makbara (graves). Shaytan’s goal is for you not to start. Once you start you’ll see the benefits of it.”
 - We should be making the effort to attend janazahs, visit graves, and remember death often.
- Virtues of Praying a Janazah

*Time stamp for interpretation 2 (13:31:13) *notes out of order for clarity

- Abdullah ibn Umar narrates that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Whosoever attends a janazah gets the reward of one qirat (mountain) of gold in reward."
- Lesson: remember death, attend janazahs
- Etiquette at Janazahs
 - Keeping it short
 - It's from the divine wisdom of Allah that the janazah is short. No one would want to end the salah of their loved one quickly and if salat al janazah had quran recitation in it, it would be lengthened and drawn out.
 - Janazah's in general should be kept brief.
 - Story: Mufti mentions he was at the janazah recently where lots of shuyukh present and the family each one to make dua. He advised them to instead let a couple people make dua and end it there, and that none would be offended because the janazah is not a moment for shuyukh but for the families.
 - Prioritizing the family
 - The Imam does not lead the janazah, rather the closest rahim (person with ties of kinship) does.
 - The Prophet ﷺ spoke about who is given first permission to be with him after his death (after the angels): his wives, and then his nephew Ali RA, then Abbas. The sahaba did not have first rights, his family did.
 - The haqq of grief at janazahs always belongs to the family.
 - Making your own duas in private
 - We should be thinking about our own janazahs, reflecting on our lives, and making duas related to our deaths in private.
- Learning from sahaba: Amr ibn Al Aas' dying request
 - About Amr ibn Al Aas
 - He was the companion who asked the Prophet ﷺ who he loved the most.
 - He spent his early life as an enemy of islam (was one of the ambassadors to Habasha/Abyssinia sent to bring back Jaafer and other companions who had made hijra there)
 - He had a very eloquent and sharp tongue
 - He became muslim after the Treaty of Hudaibiya
 - He and Khalid ibn Walid became muslim at the same time, they caught each other sneaking in.

- Their conversion was a big win at the time due to their military expertise. Mufti compares Amr ibn Aas to a “coach” and Khalid to a “captain.”
- Context: When he was passing away, he had a conversation with his son in which he was concerned for his death.

The Narration of Amr ibn Al Aas’s Dying Wish

When death approached Amr ibn al-As, he wept. His son, Abdullah, said to him, "Why are you crying? Is it from the fear of death?" He replied, "No, by Allah, but because of what comes after." His son said to him, "You were on the right path," and began to remind him of his companionship with the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and his conquests in Sham.

Amr said, "You have neglected something better than all of that: the testimony that there is no god but Allah. I had gone through three phases in my life, each of which I knew well in myself. I was first a disbeliever, and the most intense enemy of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ ; had I died then, I would undoubtedly have been in Hell. When I pledged allegiance to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ , I was the most bashful of people before him. I could not gaze fully upon him, nor speak frankly with him until he departed to Allah out of shyness. If I had died then, people would have said, 'Congratulations to Amr; he became a Muslim and was on the right path, so he died hoping for Paradise.' After that, I took on positions of power and other experiences, about which I do not know whether they will be for or against me."

"So, if I die, do not cry for me, do not follow me with praises or fire. Tighten my shroud well, for I will be questioned. Spread soil over me evenly, for my right side does not deserve it more than my left side. Do not place wood or stone in my grave. When you have buried me, sit by me for the time it takes to slaughter and distribute a camel so that I may find solace with you."

Commentary

- Regarding the third stage of his life
 - After the death of Uthman RA and during the fitan of political dispute between sahaba
 - He had sided with Muawiyya RA, and was his spokesperson.
 - This era was rife with differences between the sahaba and bloodshed, the fitna of it concerned him.

- Instruction to his children: stay at his grave for as long as it takes to slaughter an animal and cook and serve it
 - He uses the words munkar and nakeer
 - This process was quick for them: 1hr-1.5hr
 - Why did he ask them to stay for this long? Because the soul can still hear their family
 - This concept can be found in Bukhari.

What Stays with the Person in their Grave

- A sahaba shared an analogy which the Prophet liked so much he asked him to repeat it.

"A person's first sibling is their wealth (which leaves immediately), their second sibling is their family (which stays for some time), the third sibling is your good deeds (stays with them in their grave)"

Comments:

- Wealth does not follow a person into their grave at all, while family will visit at first but eventually they stop as well. However good deeds will follow
- Side Lesson: Sunnah of visiting the graves on Thursday nights (the night of jummah)
 - The Prophet ﷺ would visit Baqi on Thursday nights
 - However we should avoid visiting the graves at night, due to the bidahs associated with it now. Visit during the day.

- In an authentic Hadith Anas ibn Malik reported that the Prophet ﷺ said:

"Three things follow a deceased person. Two of them return and one remains. His family, his wealth, and his deeds follow him. His family and wealth return, but his deeds remain." (Bukhari 6149)

- The physical appearance of good deeds
 - Narration: When the angels come with their three questions, a beautiful image will speak up on the person's behalf. The angels will ask who they are, and it will say that it is the Quran which kept the person busy during the day.

*Time stamp for interpretation 2 (13:31:13) *notes out of order for clarity

- One opinion of what Allah means when he says that deeds are “weighed and presented” is that they actually take physical shapes and appearances.
- In another hadith Anas ibn Malik narrates that the Prophet ﷺ said

When a person offers his salaah at its fixed hours with proper wudhu, with humility and submission and with qiyaam, ruku and sajdah done satisfactorily, then such a salaah rises up in a bright and beautiful form and blesses the person in words: 'May Allah guard you as you have guarded me.'

On the other hand, if a person is not punctual with his salaah nor does he perform wudhu, qiyaam, ruku and sajdah properly, then salaah rises up in an ugly and dark shape and curses the person saying, "May Allah ruin you as you have ruined me!" Then it is flung back like a dirty rag at the face of the person."

- Deeds have shapes and sizes in akhirah.
 - A person's fasting will also speak up for them and say “I am the fast that kept them hungry”

Maintaining a Relationship with the Graves

- People will be able to hear the footsteps of their family walking away
- The ayah recited at burials
 - Allah keeps firm those who believe, with the firm word, in the life of this world and in the Hereafter. (Surah Ibrahim Ayah 27)
- Story about Sufyan At Thawri
 - When his father passed away he would visit often, but later he slowed down
 - He had a dream in which he was sitting at the makbara and his father came out of it,
 - He asked him, “Son why have you stopped visiting me?”
 - He responded “I didn't know that you felt me coming, and if I knew I would have visited more often”
 - His father responded “There isn't a time except that I knew you came and I felt you coming”

Misconception about Visiting the Grave

*Time stamp for interpretation 2 (13:31:13) *notes out of order for clarity

- Why do we have a hard time accepting the importance of visiting graves?
 - Often it is because we have been told that it is a bida'h
 - However we lose any attachment to the graves that way. The Prophet ﷺ said about the person who visits graves that the deceased respond to their salams and they feel their steps.
 - The soul in the grave recognizes the soul that is visiting.

The Connection Between Souls

- The connection between human beings was never between physical bodies but rather their souls.
 - Before they entered our bodies, the souls used to be in groups
 - Hadith: The souls were in different groups (mujannada) and it is possible that if you didn't get along in the Alim Al Arwah that you will not get along with them in dunya either.
 - Islam endorses the "souls attract" concept
- Ar-ruhu huwa mihlul arraf - the soul is the place of recognition
 - Souls have purity/impurity which can make it more/less recognizable
 - The soul can be unrecognizable even to the self, if it is corrupted
 - Children have pure souls sometimes drawn to pious people
 - Babies, for example, that stop crying when they hear athan are not doing so randomly but because their souls are used to hearing the dhikr of angels.
 - The last thing a soul has is also Allah's remembrance.
- Everything that occurs between the beginning and end of a person's life in dunya will decide how their soul responds to Allah
 - The soul is what finds ma'rifa (definiteness) not the body
- Sleep is a form of death
 - Examples in usul al fiqh books. Hitting someone in their sleep. If they didn't feel it, is it still wrong? Or in the example of stealing from the dead, if they're no longer alive to possess their wealth is it still stealing?
 - Sleep is a minor form of death because our soul has been separated from your body.
- A person's soul can be dead while they are alive, and the opposite as well
 - The prophets deaths are unique, their recognition continues beyond their life in dunya

- There are many examples of our souls existing before and after dunya and much to be said about the interactions of souls.
- A soul's purity and impurity will be the deciding factor

Ayah 3-8

Takathur Ayah 3-8

Dates Covered: 9/30 @ 13:32:43, 10/6 @ 12:59 (yaqeen - want to revisit)

3. No! You are going to know
4. Then no! You are going to know
5. No! If you only knew with knowledge of certainty
6. You will surely see the Hellfire
7. Then you will surely see it with the eye of certainty
8. Then you will surely be asked that Day about pleasure

Ayah 3-4

كَأَلَّا سَوَفَ تَعْلَمُونَ. ثُمَّ كَلَّا سَوَفَ تَعْلَمُونَ

Kalla sawfa taalamun. Thumma kalla sawfa taalamun

No! You are going to know. Then no! You are going to know

- Kalla
 - Meaning “No!”
 - Repeated for the purpose of emphasis to the kaffir, who believes they will just be bones, or that they will reincarnate (whatever they believed in life)
- Sawfa ta’lamun
 - Meaning “you will know”
- Interpretation: Once a person dies, they can no longer deny the truth
 - When you do leave (dunya), at that time you will certainly know about the truth.
 - You will realize that the takathur was not worth it
- Thumma in the repetition
 - Adds tafkheem (heaviness) to the first ayah
 - When repetition occurs, there is a strong warning and increased urgency in a situation.
- Interpretation of Az-Zamakhshari
 - This is a warning and a benefit so the people wake up from their distraction.
 - Kaafirs often think they know what is happening. This is telling them they will know.

Ayah 5

كَلَّا لَوْ تَعْلَمُونَ عِلْمَ الْيَقِينِ

Kalla law ta'alamuna ilmal yaqeen

No! If you only knew with knowledge of certainty

- Ilmal yaqeen
 - Meaning knowledge of certainty
- Interpretation: referring to knowledge of the unseen/akhira
- The heightened senses of the soul at death (Ghazali on the relationship between physical senses and soul senses)
 - When physical senses decrease, soul senses increase.
 - As the physical senses decay, the veils of the akhira are slightly lifted
 - Examples: sleep, dreams, in children, in animals etc.
 - In another ayah of the Quran: As the soul reaches the highest point of the body, they will be able to see.
- Believers will not be shocked when they are dying
 - Some people are smiling right before death, while others are stunned.
 - This ayah is for the people who did not live their lives properly.
 - Sufiyan at Thawri says about death: it is a raha (relief) for the believer.
 - People who have been able to correctly feed their soul with spiritual belief can actually heighten a person's awareness of the unseen before death
 - Analogy: Just like the expert of a field is confident and can gauge their situation very quickly, death will be like that for a believer. It will not be confusing.
- Everyone will see the truth when they die.
 - In one hadith, the Prophet ﷺ says there is not a person except that they will see the angels of death.
 - In another hadith, the angel of death visits 5 times a day, and it sits and says it is not your time yet. However, when you die there will be not a second left.
 - The angel will be excited to bring relief to the believer and punishment to the disbeliever.
- Interpretation: Referring to the knowledge of the inanimate about our actions.
 - All things, animate and inanimate will testify and speak about what we did, on the DOJ.
 - The Prophet ﷺ said even the camel will complain to Allah about the man that rode on it on the DOJ.

- Interpretation: Knowledge of the respite/punishment of the grave (difference between believers and disbelievers)
 - Some people will find that the earth was waiting for them. It will speak to them in the grave the way a family member who hasn't seen you in a long time does. It will say "I will be the best of hosts for you" and make the grave vast for them.
 - To the believer the grave is like family you've never met: it will take care of you and provide you relief despite you not knowing it.
 - The people who didn't pray will receive the opposite treatment.
- Summary: Ilmal yaqeen is the position of the person when they are about to leave the world.

Ayah 6- 7

ثُمَّ لَتَرَوُْنَّهَا عَيْنَ الْيَقِيْنِ. لَتَرُوْنَ الْجَحِيْمَ

Latarawunnal jahim. Thumma latarawunnalaha aynal yaqeen

You will surely see the Hellfire. Then you will surely see it with the eye of certainty

- Jahim
 - From juhm
 - Referring to the fiery stare of a lion when he is about to pounce on his prey
 - The stare makes the animal afraid so it can't move.
 - Used as a description of a blazing fire
- Aynal yaqeen
 - It is no longer ilm (knowledge) but ayn (sight)
 - Referring to the certainty you have after checking
 - You are still doubtful so as you are checking for yourself is when you become certain.
- Interpretation: You will have ilm al yaqeen as you are leaving the world, and you will have ayn al yaqeen when you pass away.

Defining Yaqeen

- 3 types of yaqeen
 - Ilmul yaqeen (certainty from knowledge)
 - Aynul yaqeen (certainty from seeing)
 - Haqqul yaqeen (certainty from experience)

- Peoples need for haqq ul yaqeen decreases as they age
 - The yaqeen of a child: In the beginning you tell a child the fire will harm him and he might not trust it until he touches it. But eventually, seeing is enough. A person who continues trying to play with fire despite knowing is simply foolish and immature.
- The yaqeen of a believer
 - When a person is attached to Allah they do not need haqqul yaqeen for everything, ilm is enough.
 - A mature person turns their ilm ul yaqeen into haqq
 - Spiritual maturity is the same as physical maturity
 - Similar to the child, a person who is just starting to grow in their deen will have a lot of questions because they don't trust the religion yet.
 - But that trust grows with time, and soon they do not need to see or experience it to have certainty. Awareness is enough.
- Yaqeen is rooted in tawakkul
 - Tawakkul is absolute trust in Allah, and completing Allah's commands without question
 - There are times when tawakkul will be in direct contradiction with aynal yaqeen.
- Allah highlights it as a quality of a disbelievers to always need aynal yaqeen
 - In the Quran, the kuffar are always asking for more proof and more miracles (example of Bani Israel, kuffar of Mecca to the Prophet ﷺ)
 - The irony of this ayah is that the disbelievers who keep asking to see Allah for certainty will only really see it when it is too late. If only they had had knowledge with certainty.
 - For believers who want ilm al yaqeen, one time is enough. They don't keep asking for more proof, they have confidence in qadr.
 - They also will not be calculative in their deeds.
- Example of the yaqeen of sahaba
 - The Prophet ﷺ to Haritha: How did you wake up today?
 - Haritha: I woke up as a believer.
 - Then the Prophet ﷺ responded: Every statement has proof what is your proof?
 - Haritha: I pray at night, and I fast in the day, and I live my life as if I can see jannah on the right and jahannam on the left.
 - This is the example of a person whose ilm ul yaqeen has reached the level of haqq. They do not need to be convinced, they live as if it is already true.

- A believer does not need convincing, just reminding.
 - Allah instructs the believers to always be in a state of dhikr for a reason.
 - A reminder is enough for a believer.
- The benefit of yaqeen when people are struggling
 - Everyone has dips in their imaan, sometimes all a person needs a trigger to help them remember "That's why I was doing that"
 - Everyone is in need of it, just as how even mothers need reminders on why they care for their children. Their jannah for you.
- Once in a while Allah will show you aynal yaqeen, but you cannot be reliant on it for overall yaqeen.
 - We all need to evaluate the state of our yaqeen
 - Must believe that the Quran has no doubt in it and that it is absolute truth.
 - There will be moments of doubt, but overcoming them will actually help you grow. Moments of doubt do not define us.
- Summary: believe in the deen as if you have already experienced akhirah

Ayah 8

ثُمَّ لَنَسْأَلَنَّ يَوْمَئِذٍ عَنِ النَّعِيمِ

Thumma latusalunna yawmaidheen anin na'eem

Then you will surely be asked that Day about pleasure

- Naeem
 - From ni'mah
 - Meaning blessing
 - Root letters form naumah which means softness/gentleness
- Interpretation: You will be asked about everything that brought ease into your life.
- A person will not be able to answer for even one of Allah's blessings
 - Analogy to grading exams: If teachers were to scrutinize they'd be bound to find mistakes. People sometimes take liberties, thinking Allah will pass over their mistakes the same way.
 - Example of a man from Bani Israel: Did sajdah for 40 years. Wanted jannah through his amal, didn't think he was in need of Allah's mercy. Was then asked about the blessing of his eyes. Had to backtrack.

- The right of the eye is that we never take it off the words of Allah. How are we fulfilling that right? We are not, hence we are in need of Allah's mercy.

English Translation

1. The Striking Calamity
2. What is the Striking Calamity?
3. And what can make you know what is the Striking Calamity?
4. It is the Day when people will be like moths, dispersed
5. And the mountains will be like wool, fluffed up
6. Then as for one whose scales are heavy [with good deeds]
7. He will be in a pleasant life
8. But as for one whose scales are light
9. His refuge will be an abyss
10. And what can make you know what that is?
11. It is a Fire, intensely hot

Recap of Connection to Other Surahs

Qariah and Zal Zalah: speak about the ending (specifically of time)

Adiyat and Takathur: speak about that which comes before the ending

Ayah 1-3

الْقَارِعَةُ. مَا الْقَارِعَةُ. وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا الْقَارِعَةُ

Al qariah. Mal qariah. Wamaa adraka mal qariah.

The Striking Calamity. What is the Striking Calamity?. And what can make you know what is the Striking Calamity?

- Al-Qariah
 - From qara'a

- Meaning to knock, strike, hit
- Referring to when two very heavy things are striking each other
- Other uses in the Quran
 - To describe the earth and sky hitting each other
 - In that example the sky is falling and the earth is shattering (mountains are clashing etc.)
- Purpose of repetition
 - To give certainty and emphasis
 - What would give you the certainty of it besides the situation of itself? The repetition.
- Interpretation: Al Qariah describes the noise that will come when the Earth stops turning.
 - The earth spins 1000 miles an hour. When it stops turning it will cause a loud noise, and everything, even mountains, will leave their spots.
- Ism fa'il (the active noun)
 - Brings a connotation of anxiety compared to the standard form qara'ah.
 - Example: Knock on your door in a normal way vs in the middle of the night. The fear that comes with the second one is qariah.
- Interpretation: "The case is pending and Allah is knocking"
- Brought in the feminine
 - Qariah with a taa marbutah
 - Add another layer of emphasis
 - Many words in Arabic that have to do with emotions will have a haa or a taa at the end.

Ayah 4

يَوْمَ يَكُونُ النَّاسُ كَالْفَرَاشِ الْمَبْثُوثِ

Yawma yaqunun nasu kal farashil mabthuth

It is the Day when people will be like moths, dispersed

- Farash mabthuth
 - Mabthuth - dispersed, spread out
 - Farash - moths, locusts.
 - People will be like moths, not in that they are flying but in that they are lost.
 - These are insects that flock towards any light.
- Interpretation: On that day people will be both physically and intellectually unstable.

- Human beings, in general, are very logical and stable in both.
- However, on that day it will be different.
- Physical Instability
 - This is a way of getting your attention
 - It implies that at the time people will just be moving without purpose. They have no direction.
- Intellectual Instability
 - They will be driving themselves into walls
 - On the day of judgement they will literally be looking for light, just like moths.
- Figurative Interpretation: People will be living their lives without meaning
 - This ayah is also a reflection of the progression of humanity over time.
 - Referring to their loss of purpose and aimless movement in life.
- Does not apply to believers.
 - The analogy of mabthuth is only for the people who have no knowledge of akhirah.
 - The believers will have the "light" of faith, they know where to go.

Ayah 5

وَتَكُونُ الْجِبَالُ كَالْعِهْنِ الْمَنْفُوشِ

Wataqunul Jibalu Kal ihnil manfush

And the mountains will be like wool, fluffed up

- Al-ihn timer
 - Meaning wool of different textures.
 - Shows that to Allah mountains are as weightless as wool
- Nafasha
 - Meaning to scrape fiber into fine lines.
 - Allah is describing the tough mountains as becoming fine/thin wool on this Day, which will become so light that they are weightless pieces flying in the air.
 - The mountains will move on this Day and collide with each other, causing them to be like mixed wools of different colors.
- The mountains have phases on the Day of Judgement
 - First: removed by their pegs
 - Second: clouds of dust from being removed
 - Third: brought down and crushed

- Fourth: just remainders
- Allah will strip the world of its ability to give life.

Ayah 6

فَأَمَّا مَنْ ثَقُلَتْ مَوَازِينُهُ

Fa amma man thakulat mawazeenu

Then as for one whose scales are heavy [with good deeds]

- Thakulat
 - Referring to the weight of deeds
 - Specifically, "heavy deeds"
- Mawazeen
 - Meaning scale
 - Could be referring to one of two types of scales
 - Either a scale which measures weight on both sides
 - Or a scale on which evil deeds will have no weight and only good deeds will.
- Experience of the day of judgement
 - It will not be the same for everyone.
 - For some people it will only be like Dhuhr to Asr, while for others it will be like 7000 years.
- A person who has thikl in their life will be relaxing in jannah.
- Allah does not say "those who do good deeds" or those who "count" good deeds, he says thakulat. Heavy deeds.
- One heavy deed could be worth more than many light ones

How to Attain Thikl

- Be rooted in faith
 - The only thing that can give a person thikl (weight) is belief in islam
- Quality WITH quantity
 - One might wonder, should we prioritize one over the other?
 - The answer is in sahaba: both quality and quantity
 - If they're doing it, they're doing both
- Never assume weight
 - Hadith: A mufliis is someone who thinks they have thakulat.
 - The person thinks they have good deeds (but does not) is showing signs of hypocrisy.

- Do good deeds with trust in Allah's mercy
 - Hadith: On the Day of Judgment, there will be a person whose deeds are being weighed and they just needed one more good deed. He will look at the person who has no chance of making it to Jannah with their good deeds and ask him for one. The man will give up his good deed. Allah is kareem so when he sees this, he will ask the man: Why? The man will say I might as well. Allah will say "There is no one more shafiq (loving) than me, so if you show love, I will show you more love"
 - Some scholars say that this hadith shows that Allah will find excuses to let us into jannah. It is extremely difficult to fail with Allah, only your lack of good deeds will get you into jahannam.
 - Sins do have weight but the sincerity of a good deed can overpower it.
- Questions to ask ourselves
 - Because we don't know if any of our deeds have true weight and you will have deeds that you bank on more than others.
 - Which of your amal do you have the most hope in?
 - Which one will Allah use to forgive me?
 - Which of my amal are the most concerning?

Conditions of Acceptance of Good Deeds

1. Imaan
 - The person must have faith and belief in Allah.
 - Clarification: Fluctuations in faith do not mean the person doesn't have imaan.
2. Ikhlas (sincerity) and istiqama (consistency)
3. Qubul (acceptance of the sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ)

Good Deeds Lead to More Good

Hadith: A man comes. Ya Rasool, will I get the reward for what I did before I was muslim? He tells of when he was a merchant that was travelling in the desert, with all his merchandise. And as I was about to fall asleep I heard digging and a baby crying. And I realized that someone was burying their daughter. Before that I had also buried people, but in that moment the cry of the child touched my heart. He asks the man for the child. The man refuses. He offers all of the merchandise. Ya rasoolallah I did this amal many more times. Started looking for children who were about to be buried. The Prophet ﷺ was teary hearing this. Due to the virtue of what you did, Allah gave you islam. Your reward was becoming muslim

Having a Soft Heart

- Analogy: Sheikh Abdullah only drinks organic milk, and none of the brothers like it. But it's not because the milk is not pure, rather because their bodies are not used to it.
 - Only after we clean the heart can we fill it with islam.
 - When salah/atha'an touches your heart you should thank Allah that your heart is prepared for it.

Ayah 7

فَهُوَ فِي عِيشَةٍ رَّاضِيَةٍ

Fa huwa fi ayshatin radhia

He will be in a pleasant life

- Ayshatin
 - From i'sh
 - Meaning to live life without worries, relax and have fun, etc
 - A type of enjoyment that comes from no sickness, no concerns about food and shelter, and no fatigue.
- Radhiya
 - Referring to a mental state of contentment and pleasure
 - It is the state we will be in when we get to jannah
 - Jannah is the only place where you do not have needs, and are in a constant state of enjoyment because it is always increasing; it does not stay stagnant.
- True i'sh cannot be attained in dunya. The blessings of dunya will always become dull
 - Story: The path of knowledge is full of worries, especially with food and rest (example of Musa when he was pursuing khidr). Mufti mentions how when he was in boarding school, they could only order pizza on Saturdays and it was optional but not everyone could afford it
 - Because of that, at MII now, they order food for the students. However where at first they were happy with little caesars, they became dissatisfied. Then they started getting a different kind of pizza. And the pattern continued
 - Moral of the story: contentment in dunya is fickle and fluctuates easily,

- Related word: Raha
 - Means satisfaction with the connotation of being temporary.
 - Allah does not use this word to describe jannah but to describe dunya.
 - Nothing in dunya is permanent except Allah

Ayah 8

وَأَمَّا مَنْ خَفَّتْ مَوَازِينُهُ

Wa'amma man khaffat mawazeenu

But as for one whose scales are light

- The opposite of thakulat is khaffat
- Khaffat
 - Meaning light
 - Used to describe light people; a person by default is "light"
 - Here it means not that they have no amal, but that
- Related word istiqfah: Example of Firaun
 - Why did his people not revolt? Allah says those leaders had the power to make their people feel istiqfah.
 - Meaning light, insignificant
 - Istiqfah makes you someone who will follow anything and anyone.
 - That's also why it's a sin to humiliate people. Humiliating a person makes them feel mustaqfah, which could push them away from islam.
- Interpretation: Khaffat means that your good deeds were not accepted
 - It's not that there is no amal, but that there is no acceptance from Allah in the amal.
 - There are worldly signs to amal being accepted, though we will only know if it was really accepted in akhirah.

Worldly Signs of Amal Being Accepted

- Being able to continue doing the deed
 - Sometimes Allah strips a deed away from a person because their intentions are wrong.
 - However other times the deed just finishes. Not being able to continue is a sign from Allah that the deed is complete and thus accepted
- Increasing knowledge
 - Knowledge has two purposes: acceptance and application.
 - Ilmal al nafiya: having knowledge is beneficial to inspiring good deeds

How to Get Deeds Accepted

1. Do the deed
 - Imam says TS Oct 13 1:17 you may be ahead of me in jannah because you may do more amal upon what i teach you than what i myself did.
2. Preserve it
3. Become a silent partner
 - Imam Bukhari's teacher avoided the riyaa and got all the reward.
 - Do the amal with all of the conditions fulfilled
 - Then preserve the amal. Telling people about it
 - Mannan is reminding people of their favors on them. That causes you to lose the reward of your good deeds.
 - Who is the muhlis (bankrupt) a person who did good deeds. They had amal but not ja'a
 - The third is growing it. That is ja'a. Arrival
- All of this is relevant to making sure our scales are heavy

Ayah 9

قَامَةُ هَاوِيَّةَ

Ummuhu hawiya

His refuge will be an abyss

- Ummuhu Hawiya
 - Hawiya meaning Jahannam
 - Ummuhu meaning literally meaning mother
 - Figuratively meaning refuge
- Interpretation of "mother"/refuge of Jahannam
 - People will run to jahannam like how children run to their mothers.
 - The day of judgement will be so overwhelming for them that they will run to the fire.
 - The only refuge they will feel will actually be in Jahannam (the waiting period is worse than the punishment)

Ayah 10-11

وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا هِيَّةُ نَارٍ حَامِيَّةُ

Wama adraka mahiya. Naa run Hamiya

And what can make you know what that is? It is a Fire, intensely hot

- Hamiya
 - Meaning heat that is intense/at its hottest capacity
 - Thasla naran hamiya in Surah Ghashiyyah
 - Meaning “the fire just reached its hottest point right now”
 - Hamiya is a consistent description
 - Intense heat but in its active form meaning it is constantly happening and it is taking place right now
 - Hamiya, hamim where your tolerance will never increase and your suffering will be at its peak
- Radhiya
 - for jannah, meaning ease
- Hadith: The Prophet ﷺ said “This fire of yours which is lit by the sons of Adam is one seventieth part of the fire of Hell.”
 - They said: “By Allah, if it was like this, that would be sufficient.”
 - He said: “It is sixty-nine times worse than that, each time as hot as this (worldly fire).”
 - 1/70th: the number 70 is used to show shidda (exaggeration of amount)
- Question to Abu Hanifa: how do jinns burn in the fire of jahannam
 - Threw a rock at the guy ??
 - You’re made from dirt and water but rock and rivers can still hurt you.

100 | Surah Al Adiyat

100 | Surah Al Adiyat

Dates Covered: 10/14 @ 1300, 10/? @

Period of Revelation: Makkan

Surah Number: 100

Order of Revelation: 14

Number of Ayahs: 11

Theme and Subject Matter:

- Ungratefulness of humans
- Warnings of the Hereafter
- Secrets hidden in the hearts

Background

- Adiyat and Takathur relationship: Time
- Continuing oaths
 - Allah does not shy away from using examples, he even uses the wing of a mosquito
 - In this surah Allah uses horses to allude to how time works.

Ayah 1

وَالْعَدِيَّتِ ضَبْحًا

Wal adiyati dhabaha

By the racers, panting

- Wal adiyat
 - means to rush/to rush like a horse rushes
 - Why horses? They move fast without huffing and puffing
 - They do not factor in self harm
 - They are difficult to distract
 - They are focused.
 - Many names for horses and their qualities exist in arabic
- Things that require urgency
 - Leaving sin
 - Fard (ex: salah)

Qualities of a Rushing Horse

1. Fast

- The oath by adiyat here should show us that we need to run towards allah
- A person will rarely be able to leave a sin if they don't run away from it
- Like Yusuf AS who left urgently, to the point that when he was pulled back his shirt was ripped
- If you're walking away from the sin, you can easily be pulled back

2. Unworried about harming oneself

- Even if the command of Allah is such that it seems like it may harm you, you should still do it.
- Surah Imran 144: Muhammad is no more than a messenger; other messengers have gone before him. If he were to die or to be killed, would you regress into disbelief? Those who do so will not harm Allah whatsoever. And Allah will reward those who are grateful.
- The example of Ibrahim: Not everybody is Ibrahim AS. As he was being thrown into the fire he refused help from the angel and said "If its help from you I'm okay without it, and if its from allah he knows my state better than you"
- Story of a scholar: A scholar (name missed) was performing tawaaf and the khalifa of the time saw him. He asked him is he needed anything and the scholar responded "How can I be in the house of Allah and ask someone other than Allah? The king learned his lesson and waited outside for the sheikh to see if he needed anything, in a very respectful manner. He then said, "Can you help me in dunya or akhira? If I didn't ask the one who owns dunya for dunya why should i ask you?"
- Story about trusting in Allah: A sheikh in the subcontinent region who only made one dua (rabban takabalminna). His students asked him why. Other duas are not necessary because his job is to be like a soldier in an army, do what's required and you are set and everything is covered.
- Deen does not need creativity: Creativity does not mean eloquence. Creativity in deen can actually cause loss of eloquence. There are prescriptions in sunnah and it's not an experiment, we are just running straight on a path that has already been paved.

- Not worrying about self harm with acts of ibadah: You might be losing out on something because you're prioritizing salah, still pray.
- Be like the horse. Within boundaries, because passion with no knowledge will lead to extremism. It's necessary to have both.
- If you doubt yourself too much you will fail.
- Self harm doesn't mean you harm yourself. It means you keep awareness that Allah will never actually harm you.

3. Focused

- Obedience like a horse: The horse is an inferior creation but knows how to listen to its master. So how should you (the human) listen to me (Allah)?
- Loyalty like a horse: Horses are also very loyal after being trained. No rationale being needed after loyalty. The horse doesn't think about why it should go into enemy lines. If it does, it's a bad horse that doesn't listen
- Blindspots like a horse: Horses also have blind spots which actually allow them to stay focused.
 - Madd: meaning extend
 - Laata mudhunik: meaning don't extend your gaze
 - It wouldn't affect you if you didn't extend your vision. Extended glances are how aayn happens.
 - It's not out of a fear of sinning, but out of a fear of being distracted.
- Focus of the Prophet ﷺ: Even down to the way he walked he was perfectly balanced in his focus. His head was straight up and his gaze down. And the earth seemed like it was moving for him.
- Basing ourselves in knowledge: Aisha RA saw people in Madina wearing wool clothing (sufa) and bending as they walk. They were called the ahlul zuhadi of Madina (zahid meaning most abstinent). Aisha commented that she has seen zahid and they never walked like that (the Prophet ﷺ / Abu Bakr). That is not true zuhud.
- People are very ignorant in certain places and easy to capitalize on. They have passion without knowledge
- However, knowledgeable people are hard to make passionate

Ayah 2

فَالْمُورِبَاتِ قَدَحًا

Fal Muriyati Qadaha

And the producers of sparks [when] striking

- Qadaha

- Meaning striking

- Muriyat

- From wara, meaning to hide
- Example: Fire, hides things.
- People burn evidence in fire
- Referring to the horse rushing so fast that sparks are coming from their hooves touching the ground
- They're not just running fast, they're doing it with intention.

- Interpretation: Moving with purpose/intention

- It's like how in umrah the men march for the first 3 rounds of tawwaf
- The purpose of marching in tawwaf is to show that you are strong.
- Abu Dujana, before battles, would wear a red bandana and would march a little to strike fear in opponents

- Story of Uthman with the well

- Context: Madina had no pure water. The only one with pure water was a jewish man with a well and the bad water was a common cause of illness.
- The Prophet ﷺ said to the sahaba whoever buys this water will received a well in Jannah. Uthman then said he would buy it. The jewish man refused. Instead I said I'll give you days and you'll pay for your days.
- Uthman RA ended up buying the well for way beyond its worth. He did not need more wells in Jannah but he still took advantage of this opportunity.

Ayah 3

فَالْمُغِيرَاتِ صُبْحًا

Fal Mughirati Subuaha

And the chargers at dawn

- Mughirat

- Root verb ghayra means to change
- means to charge
- A person changes things by charging at it

- Subuhah

- Meaning the morning
- Interpretation: Believers who wants to create change must attack in the morning, and begin their day for Allah
 - The morning is essential for change
 - Believers are balanced.
- Not starting the morning with dunya
 - Hadith: "Man asbaha minqum..": If you refer to dunya matters first thing in the morning it will ruin the day.
 - Sheikh Abdullah says he can tell what people are concerned about by their energy in the morning. They're muslim but they wake in the morning as kaafirs.
- Secular acknowledgement of mornings holding productivity
 - Nobody can tell us something beneficial that Islam hasn't already taught us.
 - CEOs and their use of mornings an example
- Interpretation: Making the most of youth
 - Could be referring to young horses
 - Believers who even in their youth are working to please Allah
 - Subaha could also be referring to the youth, like how we are committing to the deen in our youth right now.

Ayah 4

فَأَثَرُنَّ بِهِ نَفْعًا

Fatharana bihi naqaa

Stirring up thereby [clouds of] dust

- Because of what the horses are doing (in the previous ayat) the dust starts rising
- Naqaa
 - meaning dust
 - This is dust that would not have risen without the force
- Unity is the greatest factor of growth
 - All words are in the plural, which has the literary effect of demonstrating unity
 - Hadith: My ummah will never concede upon a matter that...
 - Unity in the ummah is necessary
- Athara
 - means to impact or effect
 - It is a natural impact

- Athara = creating impact
- Impact = creates sand
- Example
 - The slogan of Abu Obeida: the last part of their saying refers to the sand going up when the army moves.
- Narration about Ali's duel in Khandak
 - Context: The 1v1 duels in seerah. Like in movies. Genius idea of Salman Al Farasi to build the trench for the battle of Khandaq. He was only muslim for 1 month because of his advice. The Prophet ﷺ always took sahabas advice.
 - One of these guys his name was ??? who was a very big man. And he gets over the trench and the sahaba feels like it is doomsday, because they were starving and had stones tied to their stomachs. No words were said but so much was spoken. It was a difficult cold in the desert.
 - He asks is there a man here to compete with me? Among 3000 sahaba, the prophet ﷺ waits. Only one person raises hand. Ali RA. Greatest combo of brain and brawn. Prophet ﷺ says calm down. Asks again. Ali raises hand again. The Prophet ﷺ stands and says calm down. Third time. He raises hand again. Some say the prophet ﷺ told Ali to sit because he had married fatima just 3 months before.
 - Abu Bakr RA narrated that the Prophet ﷺ turned away from Ali as he was walking towards the fight. This shows how hard it was to leave the love they had. Ali RA is around 25 yrs old compared to his 1v1.
 - Then the ansar walked up. The Ansar were brave. The mushriq of mecca were more afraid. They say where is Hamza, so you cannot say we defeated your pawns. Where's Ali. Every battle, Ali was known to do 1v1s.
 - Ali says no one will remember except by the fact that I killed you.
 - 1:30 Fatharna bi naqaa. Can't see anything, pin drop silence. Only the clouds of dust going up. Same word used to describe the dust being sent up.
 - The dust settled and his head was on Ali's sword. They allahuakbar so loud the ground shook.
- Ali when up against Muawiyya
 - Even against Muawiyya, Ali wouldn't engage. The first few days he wouldn't fight. Then he rushed through the army looking for Muawiyya. Muawiyya was in the tent with Amr Ibn Aas, says i need to go. Amr says "would you like to return with your head or your body." That was the character of Ali RA

- So Ali had been hit by an arrow in his eye. Two sahaba brought him from his tent to receive the flag. And got saliva in his eye.
- Learning from Ali RA
 - Ali RA was not afraid of anything
 - Fear is normal. Musa was afraid his entire life. But he was not paralyzed by it.. He found kheefa in his heart.
 - Jokes that his MII student asked for a 1v1 bball

Ayah 5

فَوَسَطْنَ بِهِ جَمْعًا

Fawa satna bihi jam'a

Arriving thereby in the center collectively

- Wasatna
 - Means you grab it from the middle
 - "You attack kufr from its nucleus. You don't hold onto the side of the table trying to help, you hold the middle"
- Jama'a
 - Meaning to gather
 - Referring to the preference of muslims doing things together
- Interpretation: Believers should do things collectively
 - Never go alone. Do not be someone who always prefers to do things alone
 - A believer should always have uns, passion. But if you attack alone you are gonna get killed. Also doesn't always mean military, but doing within your means...Hadith about stopping with hand
 - Similarly the horse does something it is not a spectator. And it does it together, not alone. There is structure to it.
- Examples in islam
 - Umar removed Khalid mid battle because he would put the army at too many risks. His tactic was attack, retreat in quick hits.
 - Jama'a, doing things together, has a purpose
 - Like praying salah in jama'a. Reward is elevated in congregation

SUMMARY AYAH 1-5: These 5 ayah are about horses but they are also a parable for humans. They are not a spectacle but an example.

Ayah 6

إِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ لِرَبِّهِ لَكَنُودٌ

Innal insana li rabbihi lakanud

Indeed mankind, to his Lord, is ungrateful

- Kanada

- Root word kunuud, meaning separating or disassociating from you
- Like a friend who disappears when things are bad
- Kunud is also what munafiqs do, leaving when its not beneficial
- Definition from Hasan Al Basri: Kunud is person who counts their calamities but forgets their blessing

- Interpretation: Humans are in a hasty nature that whenever harm afflicts them they forget all the good.

- It is natural of human beings to do so
- Lakanud is a person who always speaks about their calamities and never about their blessings.

Forms of Ingratitude

1. Finding problems

- When Yaqub grieved to Allah about Yusuf he talked to Allah but he did not complain about Allah
- Haluwa/halaa: is when someone is always trying to seek sympathy from others. being dependent on our day to day comforts and situation.
- Although calamities are subjective, going around acting like you lost a loved one with something small is halaa.

2. Dissociating from others during good times

- The other side is that when he is experiencing good he is also dissociating.
- It's like you get a job or you get married but you don't share it until you're having issues or fighting with them.
- Its fard to be present for janazahs
- It's a requirement on muslims to be present for each other.

3. Towards people who deserve our gratitude (parents, spouse, etc)

- To the parents: The greatest ingratitude that can take place after that to Allah is that to the parents
- To the spouse: Hadith about the woman who after one mistake the husband makes the wife says I've never seen good from you.

4. Seeking sympathy

- It is also unethical to seek virtue through someone else's difficulty

- Jaza'a: also sympathy seeking. Wanting comfort from everyone.
 - Not everyone is sincere. Nasihin is someone who listens sincerely
 - When giving naseeha, their well being matters more to you than yours
5. Exaggerating difficulty
- Certain words are too definitive. Do not say things like hate and never.
 - Allah also speaks about this in surah fajr in two different ayahs.
Akramani (Allah has honored me) vs Allah has embarrassed me.

Ayah 7

وَإِنَّهُ عَلَىٰ ذَٰلِكَ لَشَهِيدٌ

Wa innahu ala thaalikala shaheed

And indeed, he is to that a witness

- Shaheed
 - Meaning witness
 - Shaheed is a hyperbole, nuance of constancy
 - Shaahid means witnessing one time
 - Shaheed means witnessing constantly
- Interpretation: The human being is a witness against themselves against the day of judgement
 - He is self aware
 - Humans use the favors that Allah gave them to sin and disobey Him.
 - Man is the biggest proof against himself.
- Statement of Al Baydawi
 - The human being is truly a witness (to his disloyalty and ungratefulness to Allah) and its effects manifest on him in his character and behavior.

Ayah 8

وَإِنَّهُ لِحُبِّ الْخَيْرِ لَشَدِيدٌ

Wa innahu lihubbil khairil la shadeed

And indeed he is, in love of wealth, intense

- Khair
 - Referring to wealth
 - Literally means 'good'
 - Wealth is not filthy it is khair
 - Khair can also be talent, skills, knowledge, children, family, and so on.
- 5 questions on the DOJ

- 2/5 questions have to do with money
- 2/5 knowledge
- 1/5 life
- Hubbi
 - Referring to a deep love
 - The person will have a deep love
 - ?? missing Hadith: Afiya is that your limbs are safe and your heart is safe
- Shadeed
 - Meaning severe or intense
 - Two opinions
 - Opinion 1: severe in his love of wealth
 - Opinion 2: he is covetous and stingy due to the love of wealth.
- Why is khayr (good) mentioned and not Maal (wealth)?
 - Ibn Zayd stated: Allah named wealth as good in this verse because He is translating the mentality of the disbeliever who thinks all wealth is good and there is nothing better than it
- Interpretation: The person has such extreme love for his wealth that he thinks there is nothing better than it and is cautious with it
 - ?? People who are very wealthy in the time they have nothing you see that they do not speak with disdain.
 - Ayoub's fiqh was how can i ask allah for afiya. Some say he waited for the same number of years he was blessed for. But we dont follow this fiqh, we follow the Prophet ﷺ
 - Inni anni masil yuu
 - Have love appropriate to the blessings
 - Example of land distribution: they should be fighting over whose not going to get it. They were people who were already wealthy. Losing relationships

Ayah 9

أَفَلَا يَعْلَمُ إِذَا بُعْثِرَ مَا فِي الْقُبُورِ

Afala ya'lamu itha butira ma fil quboor

But does he not know that when the contents of the graves are scattered

- Butira ma fil quboor
 - Means "fighting like this" ??
 - to pull something out

- Interpretation: We will be pulled out of the earth and be brought forward on the DOJ
 - Allah relates wealth with death in these verses since this happens continuously
- Relationship between wealth and death
 - Through human history, people kill each other for wealth and resources
- Importance of using your wealth for good
 - The reality of deen is that it spread because they had people who could finance it
 - Abu Bakr's first nickname was Atiq because he used his wealth to free slaves like Bilal.

Ayah 10

وَحُصِّلَ مَا فِي الصُّدُورِ

Wa hussila ma fis sudoor

And that within the breasts is obtained

- Hussila
 - Means to attain
 - To peel something to reveal what is inside
 - What is on the outside will be peeled away to show the inside of the hearts
- Sudoor
 - Referring to the heart
- Interpretation: The reality of their heart will be exposed and judged on the DOJ
 - The smallest thing a person did will be shown to him
 - But in this surah, it specifically mentions what is in the hearts is revealed on that Day
 - Allah will accept imperfect things, it doesn't mean we have to be perfect
- Opinion of Ibn Abbas
 - "This means what was in their souls will be exposed and made apparent."

Ayah 11

إِنَّ رَبَّهُمْ بِهِمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ لَّخَبِيرٌ

Inna rabba hum bihim yawma idhil la kabir

Indeed, their Lord with them, that Day, is [fully] acquainted

- Khabir
 - Means that Allah is fully aware of their inside and outside deeds
 - The disbeliever may have thought to himself that no one will ever find out about the crimes they committed.
- Al Khabir vs Al-Alim
 - This ayah tells them that Allah is Al-Khabir
 - Khabir is more powerful
- Bihim
 - brought first for emphasis

99 | Surah Zal Zalah

99 | Surah Zal Zalah

Dates Covered: 10/20 at 13:09, 10/21 @ 13:00

Period of Revelation: Makkan and others say Madinan

Surah Number: 99

Order of Revelation: 93

Number of Ayahs: 8

Theme and Subject Matter:

The end of time

Life after death

The Book of Deeds

Background

- The first of the 4 surahs speaking about the DOJ
 - Recap: Zalzalah/Qariah and Adiyat/Takathur

Ayah 1

إِذَا زُلْزِلَتِ الْأَرْضُ زُلْزَالَهَا

Idha zulzilatil ardhu zilzalaha

When the earth is shaken with its [final] earthquake

- Zala
 - Means slip
 - Zala is a tier beneath zalzala
- Repetition
 - In arabic doubling words can give a deeper meaning
 - Scholars refer to zalzalah's repetition
 - Nahw: Mafool muthlaq. The verb is repeated in noun form as the best way to emphasize it
 - Analogy: In english "I helped him a great help"
 - This happens many times in the quran to ascribe excess and exaggeration
- Shaking on the DOJ
 - Referring to when the earth shakes in the most destructive way, to destroy itself
 - Everything will come to a halt, even the sun and moon which are in their decreed places will not be

- How do earthquakes happen? With the tectonic plates clashing
- On the DOJ things will not be in their decreed place and everything will be clashing.
- The shifting of the universe will lead to the violent shaking
- Other descriptions of the DOJ in the Quran show us that everything will be out of place.
- Analogy: Akin to breaking while driving a car at high speed. Everything will fly out.
- The earth is moving 1000 mph and it will stop. Everything on the earth will be shaken off

Ayah 2

وَأَخْرَجَتِ الْأَرْضُ أَثْقَالَهَا

Wa akh rajatil ardu athqaalaha

And the earth discharges its burdens

- Athqal
 - From thikl, meaning weighted/heavy
 - Translated here as burdens
 - Referring to human beings
 - Only 2 creations are called thakeel in the Quran
 - Humans
 - Jinn
 - Surah Rahman talks about two weighted creations
 - "Weighted" because we carry deeds
- Interpretation: Humans are like a burden on the earth and it will speak and be a witness for or against us.
 - The earth will get rid of the humans inside of it
 - Everyone will be resurrected
 - The earth also has power, so it will remove us from it
- Creations are in a constant state of obedience to Allah
 - Hadith: Every creation does sajda...
 - One meaning: Every creation obeys Allah the way they are supposed to.
 - Second Meaning: The Prophet ﷺ said they are actually doing sajdah. Example of the sun: Sets everyday. An interesting point about the sun: at any point in the day it is setting somewhere in the world. It is always doing sajdah.
- The earth speaks to Allah

- Hadith found in At-Tabarani
- When a person who did not pray salah passes away, the earth speaks to Allah asks permission "Give me the responsibility to take care of this person...so that I can punish him for what he missed" or "so that I can treat him with honor"
- The earth can feel
- Hadith about the earth speaking: When the Prophet ﷺ was on the Mt. Uhud and it started shaking and rumbling, and he told it to be at ease. He spoke to it and said "Oh Uhud the most virtuous people that you will ever come across. A rasool, a siddique, and two shaheeds." (Imagine if you were Umar and Uthman, you would realize you are shaheed. However this was an honor for them)
- The mountain of Uhud then stopped shaking
- Shows how the mountains can hear and have feelings
- The earth will get rid of everyone

Stages of the afterlife

1. B'itha (Resurrection)
 - First stage of the DOJ where everyone is resurrected
 - When they are resurrected they will naturally follow packs of people who will lead them to Hashr.
2. Midhan Al Hashr (Waiting Period)
 - Some say it is Arrafah. Others say it is not a place on earth but rather from the heavens
 - It is the waiting period before hisaab
 - Analogy: the waiting period before an interview, where you have to wait with all the other applicants.
 - Sometimes that wait for your turn is more nerve wracking than the interview itself.
 - This stage is also when you will go to your prophet.
3. Sirat (The Bridge) or Hisaab
 - The third stage could be hisam OR sirat.
 - Opinion of Ghazali: the third stage is sirat
 - If it is sirat, you have to get across to make it to even make it to "the interview". All of the disbelievers wont even make it to hisaab
 - Just as there will be countless people who go to Jannah without hisaab, these people will not make it across siraat and they will just fall into jahannam.

- Hashr will be their punishment. They will be drowning in their own sweat, eating their own arms. All of the hadith that describe these scenes are speaking about Hashr not Hisaab.
- The believers will cross.

4. Hisaab (Account)

- If the sirat filters out the disbelievers, who receives their book in their left hand? Munafiq/people who were not forgiven.
- Asking Allah for forgiveness: We do not believe in salvation. We believe in forgiveness, but you have to earn it. Mercy is not defaulted, it is earned. You have to do something to get Allah, a believer has to ask for forgiveness.

وَإِذَا سَأَلَكَ عِبَادِي عَنِّي فَإِنِّي قَرِيبٌ أَجِيبْ دَعْوَةَ الدَّاعِ إِذَا دَعَانِ فَلْيَسْتَجِيبُوا لِي وَلْيُؤْمِنُوا بِي لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْشُدُونَ

And when My servants ask you, [O Muhammad], concerning Me – indeed I am near. I respond to the invocation of the supplicant when he calls upon Me. So let them respond to Me [by obedience] and believe in Me that they may be [rightly] guided.

- There is an amal needed to be forgiven and guided. Those who were not forgiven will be sent back and that will be even worse.
- Analogy: Passing the first two stages of a job interview and then not getting it.
- Why would people be afraid after passing the first two stages of an interview? Huqul ibad.
- Huqul ibad: the rights of people. It's like people coming after us for any good. You can lose all your good deeds. People who thought they were good might actually regress.
- Hadith: The Prophet ﷺ spoke about the mufliis, who had goodness in the grave and thought the DOJ would give them more of it but because they have rights of people to fulfill they lose all of it.
- Your deeds only get taken from you when your outcome is about to be established.
- Shafaa: we do not believe in salvation but we do believe in intercession. The Prophet ﷺ can intercede for us on the DOJ.
- Hadith: My shafaa is for the major sinners of my ummah

(Before the DOJ) Barzakh

- Notes out of chronological order. TS 1325

- Why would we be concerned about the DOJ, sirat, hisaab etc. if the grave went well?
- The grave is the marhal between life in dunya and qiyama. It's the stage between you and the akhira.
- Analogy to the womb: Still in the womb of your mother and have not yet begun your life. However the sound of your mothers voice carries on in your memories after you are born. And you continue to develop.
- Similarly a person in their grave already starts experiencing akhirah. They get a taste of the luxuries and blessings of Jannah. The window opens up, the grave widens. You get the feel of akhira but you are not in it yet.
- Why would they be afraid if their grave was like jannah for them? Because they still have the remaining stages
- Analogy to med school: Doing well on the MCAT but still needing to pass interviews.
- However if your stage 1 is good enough the remaining stages will also be good. The only thing that can undo it is the sins of huqul ibad (continued under Hisaab)
- In the grave you technically continue to accrue your good deeds and sins.

Opposite Opinion: Hisaab before Siraat

- Ibn Al Qayyim and others say that hisaab comes before siraat
 - Might make more sense
 - No definitive answer, but the idea is that there are stages
- Length of the DOJ
 - Many hadiths about the stages
 - The Prophet ﷺ said the DOJ will be 70,000 years in one narration
 - However Surah Ma'rij (70:2-4) says 50,000 years
 - For believers the Prophet ﷺ said it will be like the wait between Asr and Maghrib
 - In another narration found in Imam Ahmed's collection the Prophet ﷺ says it will be like a qaylula (short nap)
- Time on the DOJ
 - No longer exists
 - Experiences of time will be relative

Recap

- Athqal: We are like a burden on the earth because we sin and the earth will feel like its facilitating that sin

- Everything will speak and be a witness for or against you.
- Umar RA would grab the dust of Arafah during hajj and ask it to be a witness for him.
- Hadith: Every leaf or blade of grass will be a witness for athan
- Our own tongues will not have a voice. Our bodies will speak for us but we will not be able to.

Ayah 3 - TS 13:33

وَقَالَ الْإِنْسَانُ مَا لَهَا

Wa qalal insanu malaha

And man says, "What is [wrong] with it?"

- Malaha
 - is the disbelief, asking what happened
- Analogy of waking up
 - Like a person who takes a short nap and wakes up the next day and wonders what happened
 - The soul has been in a "sleep" for so many years in the grave
 - Imagine the shock of the soul being brought back
 - The believer by comparison will be waking up like they set an alarm clock
- Refers specifically to the disbelievers
 - Not for the believers
 - This is for the disbelievers
 - Believers will respond with certainty, they will know what it is
 - The disbelievers were convinced that life was only what they knew in dunya, never expecting for there to be a DOJ. They lived as if there was no afterlife.
- Continuity of the human soul
 - Humans are the only creation which have an inception but not a deadline from allah (or jinns, they are included to)
 - Things are considered good products when they have longevity
 - Humans are Allah's favored creation so they don't end, they just transition.
 - The disbelievers will realize this haqq on the DOJ
- Benefit of being a believer on the DOJ
 - Prophets on the DOJ will be clothed: Hadith: I will be the first person on the DOJ to be resurrected and when I am brought back I will see that

Ibrahim is already standing there putting on his clothes (Ibrahim AS will be the true first, and also the first to put on clothes)

- Disbelievers will be naked and confused: People will be so confused that they do not even care that they are naked, like a sick person at the doctor who can not
- Aisha RA asked if it wont be awkward to be naked. prophet ﷺ said they will not realize or care. Like a sick person in a hospital.
- Knowing what is going on will allow you to be clothed.

Ayah 4

يَوْمَئِذٍ تُحَدِّثُ أَخْبَارَهَا

Yawma ithin tuhaddithu akhbaraha

That Day, it will report its news

- Tuhaddithu
 - meaning news
 - Meaning the earth, which has been watching since its beginning
 - Ibn Masoud says the earth will literally speak to Allah
- Akhbaraha
 - meaning to report
 - This is where every non living thing will be given a chance to speak
- Interpretation: The day that the earth is given a chance to speak, either in your favor or against
 - It will strike back and give all the news
 - For lack of better words, it will be the snitch OR it will be a favorable witness
 - The earth will say "This person used to pray on me" or "This person used to sin on me"
- Having increased consciousness towards non-living things
 - This is why knowledge is power, because once you know about you can worry about it
 - Some people have even have haya towards animals bc of this, they don't want to be doing something haram in front of an animal
 - Some people even reach the point where they have haya towards things ex: the walls have ears

Ayah 5

بِأَنَّ رَبَّكَ أَوْحَىٰ لَهَا

Bi anna rabbaka awhalaha

Because your Lord has commanded it

- Bi anna rabbaka
 - Meaning because your lord
 - Your lord told the earth to speak
- Awhalaha
 - Root word wahi
 - Meaning to inspire
 - 2 words for "inspiration": wahi and ilham
 - Sometimes people say wahi is only for prophets, not necessarily. Also used in the Quran for others. However it is a heavy word
- Things will be given a voice
 - All body parts will speak
 - They will not speak on their own but because of the command
 - Wahi has been given to the earth too

SUMMARY OF DESCRIPTION UNTIL AYAH 5: The DOJ is a day where things will speak for or against you.

Ayah 6

يَوْمَئِذٍ يَصْدُرُ النَّاسُ أَشْتَاتًا لِّيُرَوْا أَعْمَالُهُمْ

Yawma ithin yasdurunasu ashtatal li yuraw aamalahum

That Day, the people will depart separated [into categories] to be shown [the result of] their deeds

- Yawm
 - Referring to the DOJ
 - Allah is now moving into the second description of this day
- Yasdurunnas
 - Combination of sadara and nas
 - Sadara meaning chest, here means middle/center (like the chest)
 - Not commonly spoken of description: the day people will gather
- Ashtat
 - Root word shatta
 - means groups, categories
 - You will fall into those groups naturally and you will feel similar to them
- Li yuraw aamalahum
 - meaning "so that they can see their deeds"
 - This is the outcome of you gravitating towards people who are like you

- Your company will show you what kind of person you are
- People looking for other people they recognize
 - Going to the middle because you are confused and want to understand your situation better.
 - People forming groups for safety and recognition
- Analogy to being lost
 - Like being lost while at Hajj. Millions of people walking around you, all look the same. So you look for people who look similar to you.
 - This is what yasduru refers to. Being recognized makes you feel safe.
- Analogy to being on the same sports team
 - Example: at sports games, finding fans of the same team.
 - Means when you're raised you're also gonna be looking for people you recognize. You'll find them and start grouping up with them
 - If you're a player on a bad team, you know you're not going to win the game. By comparison, you end up on a team with great players, you already know you're gonna win.
- Interpretation: When you are raised you will look for people you recognize, and that will be reflective of your outcome
 - You don't have to wait for hisaab, the moment you get out of your grave and find people who are similar to you, you'll know what your deeds are going to look like
 - You find your group or you will be called into your group

يَوْمَ نَدْعُوا كُلَّ أُنَاسٍ بِإِمْئِهِمْ فَمَنْ أُوْتِيَ كِتَابَهُ بِيَمِينَةٍ فَأُولَئِكَ يَفْرَحُونَ كِتَابُهُمْ وَلَا يُظْلَمُونَ فَتِيلًا

Then think of the Day We shall summon every community with its leader. Those who are given their Record in their right hand shall read the Record of their deeds and shall not be wronged a whit (Surah Israa, 17:71)

Various Narrations

- Hadith: About the people who do not pray
 - Hadith found in At Tabarani
 - These people will be raised with Abu Jahal, Haman, and Qarun
 - Imagine being raised and looking at your group and seeing Abu Jahal
 - Or imagine being raised with Firaun, Abu Jahal, and Netanyahu. And they themselves realize they are goners
- Hadith: Finding the Prophet ﷺ on the DOJ

- The sahaba asked the Prophet ﷺ “Where will we find you on the DOJ?”
- He responded “I’ll be raised with the masakeen (the poor people of this ummah)” People who had no one with them in dunya so I will be with them in akhira. I won’t make them feel unnoticed as they went unnoticed in dunya.
- Alt narration: Where will you be on the Hashr? I’ll be raised with the orphans
- Hadith: Revelation of verse about being raised with prophets
 - Sahaba named Thawban came to the Prophet ﷺ seeming overwhelmed. The Prophet ﷺ asks. I was sitting with my family and I realized that one day either they will die or I will, then I realized that the day that either you pass or I pass will be tougher. How will we live life without you? I will be on the same level as my family in jannah, but you will be in the highest. What will Jannah be without you?
 - The Prophet ﷺ stayed quiet. Then Allah revealed the verse:
 - On the DOJ those who obeyed Allah and his Messenger will be with the Prophets
- Side story
 - Mufti jokes that if someone came to you saying we’ll see each other in Jannah you’d say I’m hoping I’ll be higher than you but inshallah you can catch up
 - Heard this from his teacher, joked that Americans get first class in dunya while everyone else will get it in akhira, but luckily jannah is not based on where you were in dunya
- Hadith about those grouped with the prophets
 - Imagine you manage to sneak into the VIP Nabiyyin wa siddiqin wa shuhada. They will have pulpits.
 - They will be asking each other who are you and clarify when they became shaheed.
 - Analogy to airline lounges: When he gets to first class delta, they look at him like how’d he get here.
- The one who is not shaheed
 - Angels and maybe even Allah will speak. These are people who used to love each other for my sake. Hadith
 - People under the shade, those who love each other sake, people who would go when told to
 - TS 1400 people who know that their mission is bigger.
- Analogy to VIP lounge

- Act like you know where you're going like you're in a VIP lounge. Imagine you've got the prophets in that lounge, but you have a reason to sneak in
- The scholars of this ummah. The angels will speak for us.
- They will fall into their own groups.
- Imams will be called and people will be called with them.
- Narration about the sahaba
 - Riwaya narrated by Ibn Abbas Allah will say Aynas Siddique. No one will move. It will be quiet and Abu Bakr RA will walk up.
 - "This is siddique who else fulfilled his covenant" and the angels will grab people.
 - For believers there are people who fulfilled their promise to Allah. Aynal Faruq. Then Umar RA will walk up. And the people who fought for justice and who didn't flatter.
 - Aynas Sahib al-Jun wal Hay wal Karam. then Uthman RA. Modesty Generosity and Honesty
 - Aynas ? Ali for bravery
 - Leader of the Martyrs: Hamza.
 - A shaheed will show up with all of their wounds, with their blood still fresh. And all the shuhada will come with him
 - Two youth leading. Hassan and Hussain.
 - Leader of the Women: Fatima.
 - Many many more teams. Negative teams exist too.
- Being with people that they love
 - not fake love but real love
 - Muttaqoon will find each other
 - This is why believers will recognize the Prophet ﷺ

Q&A

- 3 things for a person to enter jannah
 - amal (actions)
 - shafaa (intercession)
 - Allah's mercy
- Shafaa is not guaranteed
 - The amal for shafaa is salawat
 - Must have built up a score with Allah to earn the Prophet ﷺ's shafaa
 - Must also seek Allah's forgiveness

- TS 5:15 on video
- Muadh ibn jabal details
- Wiping of sins from angels memory

Ayah 7-8

Ayah 7-8

Date Covered: 10/21 @ 1300

Ayah 7

فَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ خَيْرًا يَرَهُ

Faman yamal mithkala dharratin khairai yara

So whoever does an atom's weight of good will see it

- Yara
 - Meaning to see
 - Used again in the next ayah
 - Some mufasssirun say it means that the deeds actually take shapes
- Interpretation: You will see your deeds physically manifested
 - Dharr al amal (dunya) vs dharr al jaza (akhira)
 - In dunya we don't actually see our amal
 - Hasan Al Basri says if an insincere person could see the stench of their deeds they would run away from it. The angels can see them too.
 - Hadith: About the salah which is so poorly graded that the angels throw it back as a rag at the person
 - Hadith: When the person in the grave gets their deeds, the Quran will show up as a beautiful figure. It will speak to Munkar and Nakeer, and it will respond "I was the Quran that kept them busy during the day and woke them up at night" Then the same thing will happen with their sawm.
- Dharra
 - meaning dust particles
 - It is light, inconsequential
 - The Prophet ﷺ mentions it in the context of arrogance as well.
 - Commentators of tafsir, it denotes the least thing that could be present
- Interpretation: Acts of goodness of the smallest weight will be rewarded.
 - The exact date and second of it is recorded
 - It will be recorded in equivalent weight to the good it held.
 - People will also find out from the DOJ how their good deeds came to be.
 - Could be from sadaqa, could be from knowledge, etc.

- This is one of the reasons why sadaqa jariah is so motivating, because it's like you are making investments.
- Important to not be calculating though, jamal wa malan wa addada, don't be calculating
- Weight of Deeds on the DOJ
 - Things like akhlaq and others don't have a set reward.
 - Hadith: of the man wondering about where his reward came from will actually be referring to fasting.
 - Don't worry about the reward for fasting.
- The reward for covering other people's sins
 - Hadith: Allah will call a person from behind his cover, and he will say to them do you recognize this sin, and will be able to tell from their face that they committed the sin. And Allah will replace them with hasanat. The person will request that the major sins are also included (in the replacement) . The person will be wishing that Allah does not mention a specific major sin, but they will be replaced by a good deed. The Prophet ﷺ say look at his harees, desperate in a good way. He smiled at this because the person will reveal his own sins to Allah to take advantage of the opportunity, where before he was scared.
 - He hid the sins of other people. That was why he got this reward from Allah.
- Rewards granted through the good deeds of other people
 - The crown of light that parents of hafiz will wear
 - Allah will show you where you got your reward from.
- Analogy: like being hard pressed for money
 - You will remember every good deed that you have conscious knowledge of as well as the sins. And you will be thinking about them.
 - The criminals who are afraid will see their book of deeds and will notice that every deed small and big is in.
- Deeds that are physically present
 - Haathir: their deeds are physically present
 - The Quran is capable of physically ascending a person. It will become an escort.
 - But if your quran is weak (especially in action, not in memory)
 - The condition is to memorize the Quran/attempt to. And follow up by acting on it.
 - Someone who is trying to memorize and passes will be raised as a hafiz
 - A person who sincerely asks to be a martyr will be raised as a shaheed even if they didn't die that way.

- Allah is not addada (calculating) with his reward.
 - These are examples of yarrahu. To see and have knowledge

Ayah 8

وَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ شَرًّا يَرَهُ

Waman mithqala dharratin sharrayyara

And whoever does an atom's weight of evil will see it

- Wa man
 - Wa vs fa
 - Fa used for immediacy in the previous ayah
 - Wa used here for the evil deeds because they will not want to see its weight
- Interpretation: The ones who did well want to see their deeds, the ones who did not don't rush to see them.
- Analogy to Boxing day/gifts
 - Like people shopping during the holiday season.
 - Story: about Boxing Day and dad...rushing to get gifts
 - Some people don't expect good gifts. When it's time to open, they don't rush to open it.
- Analogy to receiving exam grades
 - Our exam grades are not a fa but a wa
 - Fa was for good deeds and wa for bad deeds
 - What book? Or maybe they'll hide their book.
 - Interesting to note. The person on DOJ will know of their sins and they will fear Allah because of it.
- Sharra
 - Roots word meaning from spark.
 - Every small sin will be seen or they will know of it.
- Caution towards guiding others toward sin
 - Imagine someone committing sins because of you, and because you taught them the sin.
 - Rule: if you sin and you do tawbah and you announce to the people that you denounced it, you free yourself of the sin.
 - But not doing tawbah
- Caution in keeping the right company
 - Have the friend around you who encourages you to good and not bad
 - People who will make dua for you when you die.
 - The Prophet ﷺ said having a hafiz in a janazah shows they are good

- Knowing the deed, seeing it on the scale, and seeing the deeds figure
- Attaining Allah's cover
 - Allah is As Sattar
 - He is concealed and he can conceal anything, he can make people forget all of your sins
 - Do not be a mujahhir: A person who commits a sin and then flaunts their disobedience. Like posting it on social media. Why is jahar salah (fajr maghrib and isha) called that? Because you recite it out loud. Jihar is doing things loudly.
- Memory of sins in the afterlife
 - Even the person who committed the sins will forget about them, because they will struggle to enjoy jannah when they remember their disobedience
 - Allah will lift guilt from us. It will be a place of no regrets.
 - They will still remember their life in Jannah. Allah speaks about it in Surah Tur. However their sins will be blurred away. Allah removes the ability to reflect on your sins, because in Jannah he is pleased with you and he will never be angry with you.
 - Similarly a person in Jahannam will remember their life too, and their sins will be their biggest regret
- Seeking forgiveness from the deceased
 - Getting forgiven by the deceased, seek forgiveness from their families and their friends. Visit their graves. Be kind to your parents and be kind to their friends as well.
 - Abdullah ibn Amr: Would go for Hajj every year. He was very knowledgeable about it, but he said ask Attaar (student of Ibn Abbas) when he was older. A bedouin asked Abdullah who are you. Abdullah would sacrifice more animals than most. He gave the bedouin all his animals. This person, his father and my father were friends and my father (Umar RA) used to enjoy his company.
 - This narration teaches us about dunya. How to have good adhab.

SUMMARY: This surah details two main things that will happen on the DOJ.

1. The earth will speak for/against us.
 - Before that, the earth will shake us out of our graves
2. Our deeds will be weighed
 - Before that, we will naturally fall into groups who we were similar to

98 | Surah Al Bayyinah

98 | Surah Al Bayyinah

Date Covered: 10/27 @ 1310, 10/28 @ 1300

Period of Revelation: Madinan

Surah Number: 98

Order of Revelation: 100

Number of Ayahs: 8

Theme and Subject Matter:

The People of the Book

Idolaters

Punishment and Reward in the Hereafter

English Translation

1. Those who disbelieved among the People of the Scripture and the polytheists were not to be parted [from misbelief] until there came to them clear evidence.
2. A Messenger from Allah, reciting purified scriptures
3. Within which are correct writings
4. Nor did those who were given the Scripture become divided until after there had come to them clear evidence
5. And they were not commanded except to worship Allah, [being] sincere to Him in religion, inclining to truth, and to establish prayer and to give zakah. And that is the correct religion
6. Indeed, they who disbelieved among the People of the Scripture and the polytheists will be in the fire of Hell, abiding eternally therein. Those are the worst of creatures.
7. indeed, they who have believed and done righteous deeds - those are the best of creatures
8. Their reward with Allah will be gardens of perpetual residence beneath which rivers flow, wherein they will abide forever, Allah being pleased with them and they with Him. That is for whoever has feared his Lord.

Background and Context

Significance of Order

Surah Alaq [96] – 1st revelation

Surah Qadr [97] – How revelation began

Surah Bayyinah [98] - What is the essence of revelation and its effects

- The order is not by coincidence.
- Alaq holds the command to read
- Qadr holds how the Quran was revealed
 - It is about being content with Allah's decree
- Bayyinah holds the clarity of its message.
 - Bayyinah is about affirming that there is no doubt in it.
 - Example: many people accept islam through the Quran and through finding appeal in its message. Many also accept through seerah.

Name of The Surah

- Meaning of Bayyina
 - bayaan: meaning clear speech
 - Speech is a skill exclusively given to human beings
 - We will be confused on the DOJ when all objects are given the ability to speak.
 - bayna: meaning between
 - Verbal form: meaning to make clear
 - Bayyina (hyperbole): is the highest version of this word family
 - The title of this surah is the hyperbole version implying that the Quran is the most superior form of clear speech
- Ultimately the purpose of clear speech is to convey meaning.
- This surah conveys 3 things as bayyinah:
 - Quran
 - The Prophet ﷺ
 - The message of islam

Context of Previous Prophets

- Previous prophets were asked for miracles but only the Prophet ﷺ was given the Quran.
 - Idris was the first to know how to write with a pen
 - (root of his name is darasa: meaning to write)
 - Yusuf was given dreams
 - Musa AS was given magic
- Previous nations have been destroyed because they asked for miracles and rejected them.

- Side Lesson: When we ask Allah for something and he gives it to us, we have to recognize it. Failing to recognize it will lead to destruction.
- Clarification: Some people say splitting the moon was the Prophet ﷺ's miracle. However it is not a miracle which Allah gave him by request, nor was it his only miraculous quality.
- Uniqueness of the Prophet ﷺ's Miracle
 - Every other Prophet ﷺ was given timed miracles and physical miracles.
 - This was because their message needed to end with their deaths.
 - Only our Prophet ﷺ was given a message that needed to last until the end of times, hence a clear quran.
 - Side Lesson: We are equally liable to the sahaba that lived with him in regards to believing the message.

Narrated Abu Huraira:

The Prophet (ﷺ) said, "Every Prophet was given miracles because of which people believed, but what I have been given, is Divine Inspiration which Allah has revealed to me. So I hope that my followers will outnumber the followers of the other Prophets on the Day of Resurrection." (Bukhari 4981)

Ayah 1

Lam ya kunil lazeena kafaru min ahlil kitaabi wal mushri keena mun fak keena hatta ta-tiya humul bayyinah

Those who disbelieved among the People of the Scripture and the polytheists were not to be parted [from misbelief] until there came to them clear evidence.

- Lam yakunillatheena kafarru min ahlil kitaab
 - The polytheists and people of the book are described with munfakkeena.
 - This word is adverb coming from fakka which means imprisoned.
 - They are a people who would not be freed from it: those people were shackled in their previous ideologies until a message was brought to them.
 - Min means that not everyone will be freed. Min can be used to establish the existence of exceptions.
 - The clarity of the Quran is what gives us the power of action.
- Stories in Seerah of the Power of Bayyinah

- The leaders of Quraish sneaking out to hear the recitation of Quran. They return 3 times to hear the Quran. They all hear truth in the words, but Abu Jahal says how will we find a Prophet from our tribe?
- They denied acceptance out of ego, despite that clarity of the message that reached them.
- Anyone that looks into islam is able to recognize truth, they reject for other reasons.
- Musaab was a sahaba that was similar to the Prophet ﷺ, and they tried to make him a spokesperson. While he was trying to prepare against him, he heard Surah Haqa. He realized he could not debate it and became muslim.
- The greatest power of water is to give life right? It cleans, and hydrates but ultimately its strongest power is life. For the bayyina of the Quran, its strongest power is hidaya (guidance). It can be a source of other benefits but its best one is guidance.
- Hatta tattiyahumul bayyina
 - Meaning until there came to them a clear evidence
 - The clarity of the message forced them to part with their disbelief
 - Quran is one of the top reasons why people become muslim, its message is clear.

Ayah 2

Rasoolum min allahi yatlu suhufam mutahharah

A Messenger from Allah, reciting purified scriptures

- Rasoolum min allahi
 - The bayyina is not only the Quran, it's also in the messenger
 - Quran and seerah are inseparable
 - Example: Many secular scholars have studied islam and understand the Quran but does that mean its clarity has reached them? No, because they have not learned anything from the life of the Prophet ﷺ
- Yatlu suhufam muttahara
 - Meaning who recites purifies scriptures
- Yatlu
 - Meaning recites
 - The Prophet ﷺ did not come holding the Quran, or memorizing it
 - The way that this Quran is appreciated is in recitation and application

- The miracle of the Quran is in its application
- Suhuf
 - pages/pamphlets
 - referring to the Quran
- Mutahhara
 - means pure
- Opinion of Imam Ghazali
 - The Prophet ﷺ himself is a bayyinah
 - The Quran and the Prophet ﷺ are each their own independent bayyinahs
- Opinion of Hasan ibn Thabit
 - "If the Prophet ﷺ had not come with the Quran, his mere presence and personality would be sufficient as a bayyinah."
 - Ibn Hajar adds in his commentary that more than 33 people accepted islam just by looking at the Prophet ﷺ (ex: Salman Al Farasi, Tuffail ibn Amr)
 - Similarly, Imam Ghazali had the nickname Hujjatul Islam. He was so dominant in his field that people accepted islam just because he had done the same. Clarity through character.
- The Bayyinah of Seerah
 - We have every detail of the Prophet ﷺ's life with exception to a drawing of him.
 - Seerah is a clear example of how to live life.
 - The Prophet ﷺ word was so powerful that people respected him as a truthful person even before he became a prophet.
- Story of Umayya ibn Abu Talib
 - Accepted islam (after intially divorcing the Prophet ﷺ's daughter)
 - At the Battle of Hunayn the Prophet ﷺ was given many gifts and had Umayya stand next to him.
 - The valley beneath had a sea of animals.
 - The Prophet ﷺ asked him, are you impressed by this? He said "Who would not be?" The Prophet ﷺ said take all of it. So he took all of it.
 - You used to be able to give new muslims things to keep them muslim, but it got abrogated.
 - That day he understood the Prophet ﷺ could not be a liar since he spent without the fear of poverty.
 - Umayya saw clarity in the religion through the Prophet ﷺ's character.
- Summary: Bayyina is seerah and quran together.

- You cannot seek clarity by removing either one from the equation.
- Responsibility
 - We are the only ummah who can continue to memorize the Quran and carry the message forward.
 - Scholars are responsible. Without scholarship, knowledge loses its clarity and fails to reach people.

Ayah 3

Feeha kutubun qaiyimah

Within which are correct laws

- Kutubun qaiyimah: literally means “correct writings”
 - Qaiyimah can mean two things.
- 1. The Quran can make a person's life upright. If a person uses the Quran in their life they will become upright.
- 2. Everything written in the Quran is upright. It does not have inconsistencies, it is not extreme, it is a very upright book. None of it needs to be fixed, changed, or re-evaluated.
 - Even the most controversial laws in the Quran are still qaiyima. Upright.
 - The Jews would cherry pick what they considered upright.
- Kutubun: better translated here as “laws”

Ayah 4

Wa maa tafarraqal lazeena ootul kitaaba il-la mim b'adi ma jaa-at humul baiyyinah
Nor did those who were given the Scripture become divided until after there had come to them clear evidence

- Wa maa tafarraqal latheen utul kitab
 - This is being repeated from the first ayah
- Those who were given the scripture differed amongst themselves after the Prophet ﷺ had come to them and made the message clear - the message which was supposed to unite them
- Only the People of the Book are mentioned in this ayah

Ayah 5

Wa maa umiroo il-la liy'abu dul laaha mukhliseena lahud-deena huna faa-a wa yuqeemus salaata wa yu-tuz zakaata; wa zaalika deenul qaiyimah
And they were not commanded except to worship Allah, [being] sincere to Him in religion, inclining to truth, and to establish prayer and to give zakah. And that is the correct religion

- The highlight of this ayah is sincerity
- Mukhliseena lahud-deen
 - meaning sincereness in religion
 - The people are mukhlis (sincere) in why they accept the religion
 - This excludes munafiq (hypocrites) who are turning to deen for benefits in dunya.
- Etiquette of Someone who is Mukhlis
 - Someone who is sincere in the religion is never going to make it look bad
 - They care about representing it, and they follow it with care.
 - Story: The wife of Harun Rashid, her name was Zubaida. Scholars approved of Rashid, and when his wife passed away one of her children saw her in a dream. Allah asked her can you present me one good, sincere deed? She responded that she built the water path. Allah responded that she built it with the people's money. She responded she did not know what other deeds she could present.
 - Allah told her what she did. One time you were sitting in front of your dinner and your hair was uncovered, but the athaan started playing and you told your friend to be quiet and you covered your hair.
 - That which you did was out of respect for this religion, and for that you get Jannah.
 - She placed water stops on the path to hajj. Bringing water to the pilgrims was very difficult but she cut through the mountains towards Mecca to build the hujjaj road and provide them water.
 - Story: If you respect the Quran it will open your heart towards it. There was a poor husband and wife with nowhere clean to put their mushaf. Half the night one sleeps and the other half the other sleeps, while holding the Quran. They did not want the Quran to be at the same level as his feet. They woke in the morning having memorized the Quran. (unclear where this story comes from)
- Interpretation: The most correct belief is one that is sincere, and sincerity is reflected in our etiquette.
 - Respect and sincerity can look different.

- Treating elements of the deen with honor and reverence can speak to sincerity.
- We should be more sincere to the deen than we are to anything else.
- Reminder for us: We should uphold our etiquettes and hold each other to high standards in respect to the deen.
- Hunafa
 - comes from hanifa
 - Meanings
 - Sincerity (stronger version mukhlis)
 - Natural inclination towards good
 - Purity (effort to be sincere in every deed)
 - Continuity and cleansing (due to continuous purity)
 - Free of shirk
 - Exclusivity
- Analogy of signing an exclusive contract
 - When you sign to a company like celebrities due to brand deals.
- The Ultimate Hanif
 - Ibrahim AS. The extent of his exclusivity cannot be compared.
 - Being a hanif is "My rights belong to Allah and him alone"
 - Your exclusivity clause with Allah.
- Dhaalika deenul qayima
 - Dhalika meaning "that"
 - Qayyima meaning uprightness
 - Uprightness starts with tawheed and is followed by mukhlis
- Two key factors for an upright religion
 1. Oneness of Allah as my reference.
 2. Sincereness in deeds.

Ayah 6

Innal lazeena kafaru min ahlil kitaabi wal mushri keena fee nari jahan nama khaali deena feeha; ulaa-ika hum shar rul ba reeyah

Indeed, they who disbelieved among the People of the Scripture and the polytheists will be in the fire of Hell, abiding eternally therein. Those are the worst of creatures.

- Nari Jahannam
 - Meaning the fire of hell
 - After the clearest text, they are still disbelievers
 - Hence why they are promised the nari jahannam

- Reminder: Allah's loves his creations, and his love is superior
 - There is no one who loves their children more than a parent
 - There is no one more upset to see a student in trouble than a teacher
 - Discipline is not easy on the discipliner.
 - Allah loves his creation. He does not find joy in delivering punishments.
 - Parents tolerate terrible abuse from their children sometimes, but they still love them.
 - Nuh AS gave dawah for 950 years, and still only 80 people and only one of his sons accepted islam. Nuh AS questioned Allah's love for him from heartbreak seeing his son die, and Allah had to tell him he is not your family (for his rejection of the deen)
- Ulaika hum sharrul bariah
 - "They are the worst of all creations"
 - This does not mean that all non-muslims are terrible. The Prophet ﷺ would honor non-muslims.
 - However, beyond this world, it is out of our control.
 - Example of Abu Talib: Even though he was the biggest support to the Prophet ﷺ he will still be ankle deep in Jahannam along with Ibrahim AS's father
 - Ibrahim AS stopped making dua for his father after his death, but on the DOJ he will try to intercede again. His father will have to be pulled out of his grasp.

Ayah 7

Innal ladhina amanu wa 'amilu saalihaati ula-ika hum khairul bareey yah
Indeed, they who have believed and done righteous deeds - those are the best of creatures

- Inna
 - Meaning surely
- Saalihati
 - Not hypocritical or corrupt
- Khairul bariah
 - the best of creatures

Ayah 8

Jazaa-uhum inda rabbihi jannaatu 'adnin tajree min tahtih an haaru khalideena feeha abada; radiy-yallaahu 'anhum wa ra du 'an zaalika liman khashiya rabbah
Their reward with Allah will be gardens of perpetual residence beneath which rivers flow, wherein they will abide forever, Allah being pleased with them and they with Him. That is for whoever has feared his Lord.

- Khalideena fiha abada
 - Khalideena and abada both mean perpetual/forever
 - Is like emphasizing the foreverness
- Analogy to life sentences
 - Why do people get multiple life sentences?
 - Emphasis of the gravity of the deed they did
- Jazahum inda rabbihi
 - Meaning residence near Allah
 - Their reward is proximity to Allah
 - And proximity to Allah in dunya is a reward.
 - Imam Ghazali details maqasids (outcomes). One of them is qurub. Nearness to Allah.
- How to Attain Nearness to Allah in Dunya from Imam Ghazali
 1. Fulfilling fard
 2. Observing nawafil
 3. Living in the framework of Allah's pleasure
 - They asked Musa AS what the reward was for fighting Firaun. Musa AS responded "You will be near me"
 - Proximity to Allah is the best. The highest level of jannah is the closest to Allah's throne. Proximity to Allah is enough of a reward.
- Story: Wanting nothing else but nearness to Allah
 - King named Mahmud Ghaznawi and his slave was named Ayaaz. Ayaaz was an outsider, but he rose in ranks and became treasurer. People who were close to Mahmud said Ayaaz was playing games. Mahmud tested Ayaaz in multiple ways to show them how loyal Ayaaz was.
 - The test: Anything you all touch is yours. Ayaaz did not touch anything. Ayaaz touches the king. Mahmud put his hands on his head. Ayaaz said, if you become mine, everything becomes mine.
 - Teachers would share this story to show how a human could be with their master. If that could be true, how should we be with Allah?
- The rewards promised:
 - Gardens of Jannah

- Eternity in Jannah
 - Radiallahu anhum (allahs pleasure)
- Attaining Allah's Pleasure
 - The people of jannah will be asked if there is anything more they want. They will respond that there is nothing else they could possibly have, but that is when they will see Allah.
 - Hadith: The sight of Allah will be like seeing the moon.
 - That is when Allah will respond that he is pleased with them (radditu)
 - Our final goal is working for Allah's pleasure
- Khashiya
 - A type of fear that comes from love
 - Attaining Allah's pleasure is through fearing to displease him.

97 | Surah Al Qadr

97 | Surah Al Qadr

Dates Covered: 11/10 @ 1310

Period of Revelation: Makkan

Surah Number: 97

Order of Revelation: 25

Number of Ayahs: 5

Theme and Subject Matter:

- Importance and value of the Qur'an
- The Night of Qadr (destiny)

English Translation

1. Indeed, We sent the Qur'an down during the Night of Decree
2. And what can make you know what is the Night of Decree?
3. The Night of Decree is better than a thousand months
4. The angels and the Spirit descend therein by permission of their Lord for every matter
5. Peace it is until the emergence of dawn

Background

- Key points of surah
 - 3 meanings of qadr
 - 2 interpretations of what event laylat ul qadr is
 - Rewards of the night
- First Meaning of Qadr: to be precise in measurement
 - Allah's precision in everything is perfect, nothing is off in time, blessings, hardships or any other measure.
 - There are 4 things that are decided for us according to hadith
- Second Meaning of Qadr: ability and power
 - The root word "qudra" means ability/power
 - Allah is Al-Qadeer. He is the most Powerful, or better translated Capable.
 - The Prophet ﷺ is also told "Be strong because we gave you the Quran." The Quran and this deen is a source of strength.

- There is also strength in their backing. Having Allah is our backer is a source of strength.
- Connection between the two meanings
 - A sign of capability is to be precise.
 - When children color they can't color inside the lines, but when they get older they are more capable and more precise
- On being unhappy with Qadr
 - Anyone can be unhappy with qadr
 - Our duty is ridaa qadr. Be content with qadr.
 - Contentment with qadr is in knowing who our creator is.

Ayah 1

إِنَّا أَنْزَلْنَاهُ فِي لَيْلَةِ الْقَدْرِ

Inna anzalnahu fi laylatul Qadr

Indeed, We sent the Qur'an down during the Night of Decree

- Anzalnahu
 - From nazzala
 - Meaning reveal
- Laylat ul qadr
 - What does it mean to be revealed?
 - Is it referring to a specific date?
 - This ayah is related to the ayah in a different surah about being revealed in Ramadan
 - Some argue that the names of months changed after the Prophet ﷺ received revelation
 - The stronger opinion was that these months were already there, and Iqra was not in Ramadan but the bringing down of the ilm of Allah to Luh Al Mahfuz was in Ramadan
- About Luh Al Mahfuz
 - Meaning preserved tablet
 - The concept makes more sense to us now because we can document a lot of information very easily.
 - Ilm of Allah. Whatever ilm we do have, came from Allah
 - The actual ilm of Allah belongs to him alone, and it is complete
 - The knowledge of the angels and any other creation is incomplete
- The aqeedah of Laylat UI Qadr

- How is it changing? The angels are only given 1 year worth of information. Our decrees are subject to change based on our duas and actions. Our fates are re-evaluated and the angels do not have full information.
- If they had all of it, it would be difficult for them to act on it.
- The Quran is the words of Allah, not a creation.
- Majority Opinion: this ayah refers to the descent to the lowest heavens
- Summary
 - In this ayah Laylat ul Qadr is referring to the night in which the Quran was descended to the lower heavens for the first time, in Ramadan.
 - However, laylat ul qadr also takes the meaning of the night which comes every year in which Allah accepts duas and gives the decree of the following year to the angels.

Ayah 2

Wa maa adraka ma laylatul qadr

And what can make you know what the night of laylatul Qadr is?

- Third Meaning of Qadr
 - also means appreciation
 - The third meaning and a more distant one
 - Means that our deeds are being more appreciated
 - Deeds on laylatul qadr hold more weigh (1000x more)
- Statement of Sufiyan At Thawri
 - Fear allah based on the authority he has over you
 - So Qadr is still being used with the connotation of Allah's power over us.
- Determining which Night
 - The night of Laylat Al Qadr was originally known, but the Prophet ﷺ forgot it by the will of Allah.
 - We know from hadith that it is one of the odd nights of the last 10 nights.
 - Imam Malik's opinion it could be any night in Ramadan
 - Imam Shafi's opinion that it could be any night in the last 10 nights.
 - Statements of the Sahaba: Ibn Abbas presumed that it was the 27th night.
 - Summary: We do not know. Use every night as if it is Laylat Ul Qadr. The date is hidden for a reason: to provide motivation and not make people lazy.

- Story: The brothers often start Ramadan on different days. The odd nights are different for them.
 - Interestingly the environment at different masjids changes based on their opinions.
 - Moral of the story: don't only treat odd nights as the possible night
 - The night also moves every year.
 - The signs, like the Prophet ﷺ seeing rain, are just modes of motivation. Because it can rain anywhere right?
- Statement of Imam Suyuti
 - He mentions that Laylat Al Qadr is different for different populations. The angels will come to people according to their times.
 - Our daytime is nighttime on the other side of the world
- More signs of Laylat Ul Qadr
 - Mild breeze
 - Sakina in the air
 - Sakina in your heart
- On that night
 - There is an abundance of angels: wherever angels are there is sakina, sakina is attached to angels and the Quran.
 - The earth craves for laylat al qadr

Ayah 3

Laylatul qadri kharyrum min al fishahr

The Night of Decree is better than a thousand months

- The reward of Laylat Al Qadr is multiplied
 - Deeds are worth 1000x more
 - Its like praying the Haram
 - If you can do laylat ul qadr in the haram you can multiply your reward even further. Like doubling coupons.
- Analogy to coupons
 - The Prophet ﷺ saw how short our lifespans are and asked how our deeds will be able to compete with our predecessors
 - Hence Allah gave us "coupons": this surah was revealed in response to the Prophet ﷺ asking.
 - We have many ways to multiply the rewards of our deeds and the Prophet ﷺ has told us how.
 - Another example of the mercy given to our ummah: taking spoils of war. Previous people did not have access.

- It was a way of allowing the muslims to 'catch up'
- Story: Hajj
 - They tell them to relax in Madina, and then again in Mecca because Hajj is coming.
 - Then when they get to Mina, they are told to relax again. There's no specific worship for the day of Mina.
 - Day of Arafat starts. You are supposed to exert yourself but they will tell you to wait until Asr, because the dua is from Asr to Maghrib.
 - However the Prophet ﷺ says not even your salah should be a distraction from your dua. That day is special for dua.
 - You cannot keep pushing off making dua. You need to "pregame"
 - MAW says he doesn't baby people, they are there once in their life and they are there to worship.
- Moral of the story
 - Don't "take it easy". Ramadan only comes once a year. We should make the most of those nights.
 - Hasan Al Basri: You achieve Laylat al Qadr by treating every night with equal levels of enthusiasm.
- Sins are worth more too
 - Whenever Allah gives something more value, the sins and liability also increase.
 - It's like sitting in the Haram and missing salah, or scrolling social media, or backbiting
 - When we are fasting we speak less because our tongue is a source of sin.
 - Laylat Al Qadr is also a night to be extra cautious of our sins.
 - Relaxing is okay, but don't make it your priority when worship should be.
 - Reminder: Ramadan isn't about having fun, or hanging out.
 - Hasan Al Basri was a great speaker but he would not speak in Ramadan. That is how seriously we should be taking it.
- The Prophet ﷺ mentioned that a man from Bani Israel used to spend the night in prayer, then in the morning he would fight the enemy in the way of Allah during the day until the evening and he did this for a thousand months.
 - The Muslims were in awe of this warrior, and they compared their efforts to him and found them to be deficient, so they were given the Night of Qadr as it is better action and reward than that of the warrior
 - This is a weaker narration.

Ayah 4

Tannazalul malaaiatu warruhu fiha bi-idhni rabbihim fil qulliam

The angels and the Spirit descend therein by permission of their Lord for every matter

- Malaaiika

- The angels.
- They surround pious people
- They are in a state of complete obedience
- Usually duas have to pass “checkpoints” in the heavens, but through the angels you can bypass them.
- Its like using a fastpass to give Allah our duas
- Those who have no barriers in the duas
 - Those who are oppressed (the Prophet ﷺ said beware of their duas because there is no hijab between them and Allah. Includes oppression in all of its forms)
 - Those who are in the path of Allah (until they return home, ie umrah, hajj, students of knowledge)
 - Parents (parents have to be careful making dua)

- Ruhu

- Referring to Jibreel AS
- Although Jibreel is also the angel, he is the greatest of angels
- It's the only night that he comes down with the other angels
- He is called ruh meaning spirit because of the comfort he brings
- He brought the Prophet ﷺ raha (comfort)
- Related words: rahma (mercy)

- Bi idhnihi rabbihim

- Meaning by the permission of their lord
- They come and make dua for us
- Allah reminds them on that night, why he created us
- The heavens and angels look down upon the earth in appreciation, until every gathering is filled with angels

- Earning Peoples Duas

- Serve people at such a capacity that their dua comes with full sincerity, especially your parents
- How does one earn the dua of their parents, one that comes from their heart? From service and from giving them time.

- They spend laylat al qadr making dua for us until fajr

- The angels are on the side of the believers
- They are sad for us when we sin or when we fail.
- They give us the benefit of doubt. Ex: the man who was in the middle, trying to go to the Kaaba

Ayah 5

Salamun hiya hatta mattail fajr

Peace it is until the emergence of dawn

- Salam
 - Meaning peace
- Possible meanings of peace
 - Mujahid said this means "Peace concerning every matter."
 - Security in which Shaytan cannot do any evil or any harm
 - The angels give the greetings of peace during the Night of Al-Qadr to the worshippers until the coming of Fajr.
 - The angels pass by the believers doing worship and give Salaam to every single one of them individually.

Maghfira vs rahma atta minannar, the souls being freed vs the day of arafat.
 Shaytan hides in ramadan

96 | Surah Al Alaq

96 | Surah Al Alaq

Date Covered: 11/3 @ 1313, 11/4 @ 1307, 11/5 @ 1300

Period of Revelation: Makkan

Surah Number: 96

Order of Revelation: 1

Number of Ayahs: 19

Theme and Subject Matter:

- The first revelation
- Importance of knowledge
- The threat against man's transgression for the sake of wealth

Background and Context

- Related surah: Surah Qadr.
- Alaq
 - Meaning clot/embryo
 - Related word allaqa means connected
- Interpretation of title: The meaning of clot/embryo signifies this surah's place as the first revelation made to our ummah, and thus our first step in our relationship with Allah.
 - This Surah reflects the cycle of creation, just like how a clot eventually turns into a baby
 - It holds our ummah's first relationship with Allah as the first revelation made to humanity after hundreds of years
- Different words that give insight to the purpose of wahi
 - Nur (light): Wahi gives you clarity. People were in a state of darkness and ignorance prior to its revelation. It's how you definitively distinguish right from wrong
 - Rahma (mercy): The beginning of wahi was the beginning of one of Allah's greatest mercies, and once it ended the sahaba struggled.
- Wahi as a rahma to the sahaba
 - Example of Umm Ayman: When the Prophet ﷺ died her grief was not toward his death but rather towards the end of wahi
 - Sahaba were eager to receive the next wahi
 - Analogy: Like waiting for the next episode of a good show. Or the next chapter of a good book.
 - For munafiq, revelation was a burden. Every new ayah held potential to expose them. But for a believer it is mercy.

- When you really enjoy something you look forward to it and dread its ending
- Wahi as a rahma to the Prophet ﷺ
 - When wahi paused, the Prophet ﷺ struggled with it.
 - The Prophet ﷺ also had a special relationship with Jibreel because it was Jibreel who brought revelation. They had a unique relationship of love
- Wahi as a rahma to the angels
 - Angels come where there is rahma just as they come where there is Quran
 - The only time Jibreel AS comes down to humans (since the Prophet ﷺ died) is on Laylat Al Qadr.
 - Angels swarm the earth on Laylat Al Qadr, and the reason they come is because the Quran is being recited.
- Details of the first revelation
 - Cave of Hira which the Prophet ﷺ used to seclude in and Khadidja RA used to climb to reach him in often
 - Jibreel came to the Prophet ﷺ in his full form
 - Squeezing: When the prophet ﷺ first received revelation he was squeezed so hard he thought he was going to die (7 wisdoms of the squeezing detailed by ??) A couple of the wisdoms: The hearts are connected. The squeeze informs what is to come with every revelation.
 - Wahi was physically strenuous: he would sweat, and his environment would become heavy
 - The Prophet ﷺ said “ma ana” meaning “not me”. The responsibility on him was huge, and when he came down to Khadidja he asked to be wrapped in blankets. Some take the opinion that the Prophet ﷺ felt he was not good enough.
- The first 5 ayah were revealed together, at the first wahi
 - The following ayat were revealed at a separate time though still Makki
 - The remaining surahs in Juz Amma were at once
 - This is the first surah we can say was revealed staggered
 - Completed in the first year of prophethood

Ayah 1-2

اقْرَأْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ. خَلَقَ الْإِنْسَانَ مِنْ عَلَقٍ

3Iqra' bismi rabbika allathee khalaq. Khalaqa al-insāna min 'alaq.

Recite in the name of your Lord who Created man from a clinging substance.

- Iqra
 - The Prophet ﷺ's mission began with the command to read.
 - Does iqra mean read or recite? Accurate translation is to recite.
 - Reciting (repeating someone's words) is different from just reading
- Similarity between Musa AS and the Prophet ﷺ
 - Musa received the command to listen.
 - Waraqah told the Prophet ﷺ that his message was from the same angel that came to Musa AS
- Iqra bismi rabbika
 - 3 meanings
 - With the name of Allah: everything without the mention of Allah in it is incomplete. Allah is saying "My name is the name you announce at every opportunity that you have" The beginning, middle and end of your life should all have mentions of Allah.
 - In the name of Allah: recite with the purpose of serving Allah
 - With the help of Allah: recitation is only possible with Allah's assistance
- Interpretation: The purpose of recitation is to get to know Allah
 - There is no imaan without recognition of our creator
 - There is no belief in the absence of knowing who Allah is
 - People get caught up on iqra while forgetting the purpose is to get to know who Allah is
 - Imam Hanbal would say every knowledge is la hul illahu unless it brings a person towards the creator
 - And in that respect, any knowledge, as long as it is bringing a person closer to Allah, can be beneficial knowledge
 - Example: a person in college can still be learning with the niyyah of iqra bismi rabbik
 - The true purpose of iqra is to come closer to Allah, and anything that we learn in dunya is for this purpose.

Ayah 3

اقْرَأْ وَرَبُّكَ الْأَكْرَمُ

Iqra' wa rabbuka al-akram.

Recite, and your Lord is the most Generous

- Iqra
 - Being repeated again a second time for motivation
- Wa rabbuk al akram

- Akram meaning generous
- Why? When we're told to read over and over again, it's almost overwhelming
- Allah is reminding us your lord is the most kind, noble
- "You probably can't read but let me help you read"
- Interpretation: Your lord is the most generous so he will open up your heart to read.
 - This was the Prophet ﷺ's first interaction with wahi
 - After the third try was he able to recite it back

This first interaction of his with wahi teaches us about how Allah is

Ayah 4

الَّذِي عَلَّمَ بِالْقَلَمِ

5Allathee 'allama bil-qalam.

Who taught by the pen

- Allama bil qalam
 - Referring to the pen
- The pen being Allah's first creation
 - Hadith found in Nasai: Allah showed Adam the lifespan of Daud
 - However as time went on lifespans got shorter
 - Adam AS didn't remember that he gave 50 years of life to Daud, hence the creation of the pen
- ?
 - Hadith: Glad tiding to the person who lives long and has good deeds
 - A tabi'een used to say every time I look at someone I look at them as if they were better than me. If they're old, they must have worshipped Allah longer. If they're younger, they have disobeyed Allah less than me. And the ignorant, has sinned without knowing who Allah is, the scholars' recognition of Allah is better.
- Ibn Kathir's opinion in Al Bidaya wan Nihaya
 - 4 possible first creations, which have no order and whose order we do not need to be concerned with
 - No hukum attached in fiqh nor aqeedah
 - Could be the qalam
 - Could be the arsh
 - Could be water (upon which the arsh was created)
 - Could be Jibreel AS
- Allah is first and there was nothing before him

- There is a time in the azzal where there was nothing but Allah
- And in the end of time only Allah will be left
- By comparison all other creation has a beginning and an end

Ayah 5

عَلَّمَ الْإِنْسَانَ مَا لَمْ يَعْلَمْ

Allama al-insāna mā lam ya'lam.

Taught man that which he knew not

- Allama
 - Meaning teach
- Ma lam ya lam
 - Meaning that which he did not know
 - Referring to his divine speech
 - Referring to knowledge in general
- Interpretation: The first honor of the human being is that Allah is his teacher and that we learn directly from his words
 - We learn directly from Quran, and everything else is simply an avenue
 - All other knowledge is simply a tool
- Interpretation: Allah teaching us all that which we do not know includes both dunya and the unseen
 - Some people think their secular knowledge is attained through their own skill, however Allah teaches us whatever we know

Ayah 6-7

كَأَلَّا إِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ لَيَطْغَىٰ . أَلَّنْ رَأَاهُ اسْتَغْنَىٰ

Kallā inna al-insāna la-yatghā. Ar-ra'āhu astaghna

But indeed man transgress. Because he sees himself self-sufficient.

- Kalla
 - is the most emphasized way of saying "No"
 - The human being assumes that they know by their own capacity, Allah is saying that they don't
- Interpretation: The assumption that they don't need Allah IS the transgression
 - Analogy: Teenagers. Become more argumentative when they feel like they don't need their parents. Ignorant humans think they don't need Allah.
 - We should never act like we don't need Allah

- Reminder: We should not let society dictate how much we need our parents and how we respect them. When we don't need them is when we become liable for being good to them.
- Astaghna
 - Meaning self sufficiency
 - The human being is mistakenly thinking they do not need to rely on Allah.
- Ingratitude
 - Surah Abasa "What allows man to be so ungrateful to Allah?"
 - Allah has known us since we were clots.
 - Hadith Qudsi: Oh son of Adam, you have not been fair to me. I created you and you were nothing, oh son of Adam you had no teeth to bite with, and no teeth to walk with... and when you came of you flipped on me... How retched is a person who has been granted many blessings but they forgot Allah and their beginning and end" loosely taken
- Interpretation: The assumption that we do not need Allah is unjust and ungrateful to him, as the provider of all things and our creator.

Ayah 8

إِنَّ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ الرُّجْعَىٰ .

Inna ilā rabbika r-uj'ā

Indeed to you Lord is the return

- How much will you run?
- Opinion of Ibn Abbas: This ayah is a source of comfort
 - How is this a comfort?
 - Until your last breath you can make tawbah
 - Its like returning to your mother
 - Death is a relief for a believer
- Every deed you do goes back to your lord.

Ayah 9-10

أَرَأَيْتَ الَّذِي يَنْهَىٰ . عَبْدًا إِذَا صَلَّىٰ .

Ara'ayta allathee yanhā. 'Abdan idhā ṣallā

Have you seen the one who forbids a servant when he prays

- Refers to the actions of 3 people: Abu Lahab, Waleed ibn Al Mughira, and Abu Jahl

- They did not like the Prophet ﷺ praying in public because it affected people.
 - The power of truth is that it affects people. People would come out to listen to the Quran and they were moved by it.
 - Fake does not stand strong against truth
- Abuses the Prophet ﷺ endured
 - He was assaulted multiple times while praying near the Kaaba
 - Narrated by Ibn Masoud: Abu Jahl asked who will have intestines of an animal thrown on the Prophet ﷺ, and Waleed and his group threw camel innards on him while he was praying.
 - The Prophet ﷺ went from being Sadiq-ul-Ameen (the trustworthy and truthful) to majnoon (crazy).
 - Ibn Masoud says he never felt so helpless in his life. He watched as Fatima took the intestines off, unable to do anything.
 - This was one of the only times the Prophet ﷺ made dua against an oppressor.
 - In another incident, the Prophet ﷺ was praying and Abu Jahal hit him. Hamza RA hears about it, and hits Abu Jahal. And the Prophet ﷺ says what will make him happy is if he says kalima.
- Lesson: the himma of the Prophet ﷺ and sahaba
 - They had so much himma
- Interpretation: There is no greater oppressor than the one who stops people from praying
 - Do not be the reason why someone else does not pray or has a difficult time doing so
- More context
 - The Prophet ﷺ continued to pray at the Haram though he advised other sahaba like Abu Dharr not to (while he had protection from Banu Hashem)
 - Abu Bakr would protect him, even fell unconscious. First thing he asked after he woke up was to see the Prophet ﷺ

Ayah 11-12

أَرَأَيْتَ إِنْ كَانَ عَلَى الْهُدَىٰ . أَوْ أَمَرَ بِالتَّقْوَىٰ

Ara'ayta in kāna 'alā al-hudā. Aw amara bi-t-taqwā.

Have you seen if he is upon guidance or enjoins righteousness?

- Talking to the disbelievers
 - Allah is asking them, did they at least give the Prophet ﷺ a chance?

- Did they check if his message is a good one?

Ayah 13-14

أَرَأَيْتَ إِنْ كَذَّبَ وَتَوَلَّى . أَلَمْ يَعْلَم بِأَنَّ اللَّهَ يَرَىٰ

Ara'ayta in kadhdhaba wa tawallā. Alam ya'lam bi-anna Allāha yarā.

Have you seen if he denies and turns away, doesn't he know Allah sees?

- Ara'ayta in kadhdhaba wa tawallā
 - Meaning "Don't you see the people who deny and turn away?"
 - Talking to the believers
 - The recipient of the message has changed
- Talking about Abu Jahal
 - Specifically about him
 - Most of the stories are through him
 - How he came to not care if people/Allah saw him or not
- Interpretation: The first thing the disbeliever does is deny the truth and the second thing they do is try to run away from it
 - Example: A person whose heart is crooked, sees what is happening in Gaza but pretends they don't or just does not care
 - Turning away from the truth because it can catch you.
- Alam ya'lam bi-anna Allāha yarā
 - Allah is watching them every step of the way.

Ayah 15-16

كَلَّا لَئِنْ لَمْ يَنْتَهِ لَنَسْفَعًا بِالنَّاصِيَةِ . نَاصِيَةٍ كَاذِبَةٍ خَاطِئَةٍ

Kallā la-in lam yantahi la-nasfa'an bi-n-nāṣiyah. Nāṣiyatin kādhibatin khāṭi'ah

No! If he does not desist, We will surely drag him by the forelock (15) A lying, sinning forelock

- Nasiyah
 - Referring to the forehead/frontal lobes
- Significance of nasiya as the frontal lobe
 - The frontal lobe is where you make your decisions
 - Your own mind made the decisions that it did, and your own mind was mistaken about the truth
 - Allah makes similar mentions in other surahs
 - Evil acts are planned in the frontal lobe hemispheres before they are conveyed to the parts that implement those actions
 - It is a place where the mind and knowledge rests

- Significance of nasiya as a sign of honor
 - The forehead in Arab tradition was the place of one's pride and dignity
 - People wear turbans as a mark of honor and respect
 - Dragging by the forehead would be considered dishonorable
 - Their honor was everything to them (think Abu Jahal asking for his neck to be elongated when he was being executed)
 - This act of being dragged by the forehead was the most dishonorable possibility
- Significance of pressing our foreheads to the ground in sujood
 - This is why sajdah is incomplete if your forehead does not touch the ground
 - Part of salah is putting our foreheads down for Allah.
 - On the DOJ noor will come from our foreheads
- Allah (SWT) talks about Abu Jahl but not directly to him
 - There are two benefits to this:
 - Allah distances himself from Abu Jahl through this language
 - The Prophet ﷺ needs to be spoken to directly this because he is the one being attacked
- Kaadiba
 - The tongue
 - The tongue is lying despite knowing the truth
 - It is as if their brain lied to them and told them the wrong thing
- Khatiya
 - Is sinning despite knowing the truth
 - You may know what is good and bad, but that doesn't mean you always act on it.
 - Sawwala in Surah Yusuf: You beautified this idea in your head so you believe in it.
- Summary: The forehead is
 - a) part of the brain that makes decisions
 - b) a sign of honor.
- Interpretation: This person will be dishonored on the DOJ when they are dragged by their forehead, the same one which lied and sinned despite knowing the truth.

Ayah 17-18

فَلْيَدْعُ نَادِيَهُ . سَنَدْعُ الزَّبَانِيَةَ

Fal-yad'u nādiyāh. Sa-nad'u az-zabāniyah

Then let him call his associates. We will call the angels of hell.

- Fal yad'u nadiyah
 - Allah is saying let him call his people
 - Abu Jahal had lots of followers. His original nickname was Abul Hakam because he was someone people went to for judgement
 - Don't fall into the trap of thinking that having lots of followers means that you are right
 - In another ayah Amara tawbig, meaning to humiliate. Dhuk means to taste. Allah is going those in jahannam taste humiliation.
- Ghazali on sources of arrogance
 - Lists 7 reasons
 - One of which is amassing a following/having lots of supporters/power
 - Abu Jahal was one such person
- Context of revelation
 - Ibn 'Abbas RA narrated: "The Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وسلم was praying at the Maqam (prayer station of Ibrahim) when Abu Jahl passed by him and said: 'O Muhammad! Haven't I prevented you from this' He threatened the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and thus, the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وسلم became angry with him and reprimanded him. Then he said, 'O Muhammad! What can you threaten me with? By Allah, I have the most kinsmen of this valley with me.' Then Allah revealed ayahs 17 and 18. Ibn 'Abbas RA said, "If he had called his people, the angels of torment would have seized him at that very instant.'
- Interpretation: This ayah is a rhetorical response showing that calling upon followers will not help when Allah calls the angels of hell
 - This is a common theme in the Quran, where the disbeliever live as if things will help them (money, followers, false gods) and Allah will ask them to call upon them
- Zabaniya
 - From the word zabana
 - Meaning to push, enforce, squeeze
 - Referring to the angels of jahannam
- About the angels of hell
 - Analogy to courthouse cops: They have their own unique names and roles
 - These angels will have no ability to hear or speak, will be deaf to the cries of Jahannam
 - They have uns (feelings) but their feelings are different from ours

- The angels names
 - Main keeper: Malik (Allah has given him full control over what to do)
 - Escort: Redwan.

Ayah 19 - SAJDAH AYAH

19. كَلَّا لَا تُطِيعُوهُ وَاسْجُدْ وَاقْتَرِبْ ﴿١٩﴾

Kallā lā tuṭī'hu wasjud wa-qtarib

No! Do not obey him. But prostrate and draw near [to Allah]

- Kalla
 - Significance of kalla in this ayah is to show that no, he will not be able to call his friends
 - He won't succeed in finding support
- La yuti'hu
 - Meaning "Do not obey him"
 - The one who is stopping you from praying.
 - Abu Jahal was one who stopped them from praying
- Interpretation: Do not let anything stop you from praying
 - We deal with all kinds of "Abu Jahals"
 - Even our nafs can be our biggest barrier
 - Important to love salah it is not a burden but a gift
 - Don't ever stop praying and don't let people deter you from praying
- Etiquettes of Praying
 - Do not block a pathway. Pathways have rights (not blocking, not littering, not gossiping, not watching people)
 - Do not interrupt or disturb others
- Wasjud wa qatarib
 - Wasjud is a command to prostrate
 - This ayah has a sajdah in it
 - Wa qatarib meaning you shall be close to Allah.
- Interpretation: Pray wherever you wish and do not worry about him. Indeed, Allah will protect you and help you, and He will defend you against the people.
- Ibn Abbas: Do sajdah and you shall be close to Allah
- Another opinion: is that sajdah needs to be intended with seeking nearness. You should carry the intention of finding closeness to Allah.
 - The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said: "The closest that a servant can be to his Lord is when he is in prostration. Therefore, make Abundant supplications " (while prostrating)

- Imam Ghazali on intended benefits of salah
 1. Raha (comfort). The Prophet ﷺ said people would rush to salah when matters were overwhelming. When he called Bilal for athan he said bring me comfort. He also said salah was a coolness of his eyes.
 2. Yubiduka mafasid (pushes away harm). Salah is a protection, and the greatest form of it.
 3. A person learns how to take from the treasures of Allah. Salah is ultimately a dua. Allah responds to us when we pray (with each part recited). Ghazali says we don't find any incident when sahaba were praying except that Allah opened doors for them. We need to believe that our problems are solved through salah

Extra Notes

- Umm Ayman
 - The Prophet ﷺ used to love Umm Ayman and he married her to Zaid. The Prophet ﷺ wondered why he was being questioned about the family of Zaid. He sent his son Usama ibn Zaid.
 - The Prophet ﷺ used to visit her everyday
 - Abu Bakr and Umar visit her and they all cry.
 - Umm Ayman said she was crying because Wahi had stopped.
- Story of Hiracle
 - Abu Obeida being replaced. Battle of Yamuk, that if we were to win the doors would be open for us.
 - Abu Obeida said Hiracle spoke the truth.
 - Umar RA sent a letter in the middle of it saying Khalid gets replaced
- Story of Maqawqis
 - When the Prophet ﷺ sent letters, the king of Egypt responded by kissing and he honored the sahaba delegation. He sent Maria.
 - Years later Amr ibn Aas conquered Egypt. There was a young girl being protected. The daughter of Maqawqis. Asked for her to be released, Give her palace back. Dont you know that her father honored the prophets letter. If i held his daughter what answer would i have for the Prophet ﷺ
- Honoring People
 - Abdullah ibn Umar. Learn sunnahs from him because he was strict about following the sunnah. Took off his turban and gave it away. They asked why (Tying turbans is an honor) My father used to enjoy spending time with his father.

- The Prophets stress
 - The message was a big responsibility
 - Surah Hud singlehandedly aged him
 - The ayah about his job as a messenger
 - The sahaba would count his gray hairs, surprising he had so few
- Miscellaneous
 - Eid salah doesnt have sunnahs after it so the
 - Ex maghrib being delayed. Hanafis wait a little, other schools dont, shouldnt force it
- Abu Huraira
 - Only a narrator from year 7-9
 - All he did was take hadith from the Prophet ﷺ
 - Others were doing different things
 - Anaas ibn Malik said he knew more but narrated less. Bc Abu Huraira had better students
 - Students carry the sanad.
 - One day he was so hungry, stood at the door knowing Abu Bakr was walking in. Made sure to greet him, but AB didnt ask if hes hungry. Same with Umar RA. Then the Prophet ﷺ lastly who asks if you need something. He didnt even say salam yet.
 - The Prophet ﷺ had a convey coming, and they brought milk. Called Abu Huraira to feed him the milk. Told him to start with the person next to him. He was convinced he wouldnt get anything.
 - Sunnah of serving the guest, they eat first and you serve them dont make them come to you.
 - Finally the milk came back to Abu Huraira and he drank. He drank to his fill. The Prophet ﷺ drank, then he told AH to drink more.
 - 1353
 - Sa'i. Doing the same thing over and over again knowing that its going to come true.
 - Sunnah of serving is that you serve with the pot closed.
 - Serve with Dhikr
- Prostrate and make sure that it fulfills the requirement of bringing you closer to Allah.

95 | Surah At Tin

95 | Surah At Tin

Date Covered: 12/18 @ 1311

Period of Revelation: Makkan

Surah Number: 95

Order of Revelation: 28

Number of Ayahs: 8

Theme and Subject Matter:

The creation of mankind
Rise and decline of human beings
Day of Judgment

English Translation

1. By the fig and the olive
2. And [by] Mount Sinai
3. And [by] this secure city [Makkah]
4. We have certainly created man in the best of stature;
5. Then We return him to the lowest of the low
6. Except for those who believe and do righteous deeds, for they will have a reward uninterrupted
7. So what yet causes you to deny the Recompense?
8. Is not Allah the most just of judges?

Context

- Begins with 3 qasams (technically 4)
- Back to back oaths
- When Allah takes an oath upon anything it gives it more significance
 - When Allah begins with tin its highlight fruits (specifically the fig and olive)

Ayah 1

Wat teeni waz zaitoon

By the fig and the olive

- Why the fig and olive?
 - The creation of the fig is very unique. It doesn't grow the same way

- As in awe as you may be about the fig, you are an equally miraculous creation of Allah
- The olive. Also highlighted in other surahs. It has many benefits. The human being similarly carried many benefits in their qualities.
- There is no creation like the human being
- Also referring to the uniqueness between human beings (no two figs are the same, no two humans are the same)
- Could also just be the Prophet ﷺ's favorite fruits, Duha and Sharh were all sent to comfort him. Showing that Allah is wearing by your favorite fruits

Ayah 2

Wa toori sineen

And [by] Mount Sinai

- Why the mountains?
 - Great reverence for Mt. Sina: that is where Musa AS received revelation
 - Allah loves two mountains
 - Uhud
 - Tur
 - These are two mountains that Allah brought from Jannah
 - And the Prophet ﷺ also loves these mountains

Ayah 3

Wa haazal balad-il ameen

And [by] this secure city [Makkah]

- Wa haadhil baladil amin
 - Sacred and secure city
 - Referring to Makkah
 - As virtuous as Madina is, Makkah has more reward for salah
 - Ex: the reward for salah is 100,000
- Interpretation: Allah is listing things the Prophet ﷺ loves
- Argument about the Prophet ﷺ love for Makkah
 - The Prophet ﷺ loved Makkah
 - Some people think he loved Madina more
 - But he still loved it, it's where he was born, where his family was from

- This history of prophets was loving their homeland
- Its the nature of human fitra to love where the came from
- Examples of his love
 - He said: If it wasn't for your people i would never have left you
 - He would tear up looking at the Kaaba
 - He continued to face Mecca while praying even after getting to Madina, and showed Allah how he missed the Kaaba
 - Allah changed the kaaba for him: we will changed the direction of kibra to a place you are pleased with
 - At the conquest of Makkah, his love was so apparent that people started to assume that he wouldn't go back to Madina. Sahaba asked him and he said my life and my death are with you Oh Ansar
 - Khadidja, his forefathers, kaaba
 - He's royalty in Makkah
- Reminder: Madina was his city
 - Makkah will always have the stamp of Ibrahim
 - Allah gave the Prophet ﷺ Madina
 - Analogy: like giving both of your children their own cars
- Reverence of Makkah
 - Allah honors Makkah in the Quran out of caution people will lose their love and reverence for it (for what its people did to the Prophet ﷺ)
 - We should not let anything interfere with our reverence
- People also have a greater impact on those who they are local to
 - Hence why prophets had local impact
 - Analogy: Giving dawah to your local community. Using the same slang, tone, attitude, manners. Siyak.
- Prophets and their obligation to their locality
 - Why did Nuh stay with his people for so long?
 - Obligation
 - Why was Yunus reprimanded?
 - Yunus was reprimanded heavily and it is unique
 - Quran says: if it wasn't for his tasbeeh (which he recited very often and guaranteed him to be taken care of by Allah) he would have stayed in the whale.
 - His big mistake: he left without Allah's final permission.
 - Why did the prophet ﷺ wait to make hijra?
 - He needed Allah's permission first

- Prophets had compassion for their communities like how fathers love their children. They had to stay with their people and not give up on them.
- Side lesson: Make yourself recognizable to Allah
 - Yunus made himself recognizable
 - The angels will say they hear a voice that they recognize
 - Modern Analogy: Global entry. You're recognized and acknowledged so you walk in faster.
 - On the DOJ some people will just be walking by, and the day will move fast. We want to be those people.
- Side lesson: like prophets to their people, we should be like that for our families
 - Need to be able to cry for them at night to grow
 - People go to Mecca and Madina and do not know what to make dua for, not realizing their duas are unlimited

Ayah 4

Laqad khalaqnal insaana fee ahsani taqweem

We have certainly created man in the best of stature;

- Verily created most beautiful
- Taqweem
 - Meaning to stand together
 - Related words: qiyaam
 - The main meaning is "protection"
- Interpretation: Allah has given us physical uniqueness
 - Even angels acknowledge our uniqueness
 - Honor and dignity in all of our nature
 - Our limbs are unique
 - The way we eat
 - The way we relieve ourselves
 - The way we walk
 - The function of the body.
 - Our artist is Allah. The way he created us cannot be compared.
 - Not even our bodily functions can be recreated or replicated.
 - The imagery that we're amazed by in dunya
- Interpretation: This ayah is not about human superiority. It's about Allah's superiority.

- Analogy: Why do people spend so much on paintings? Sometimes it just because of the artist
- Allah created us exactly the way he meant to
- Reminder: His blessings are distributed with great proportionality. Not everybody will feel good about their uniqueness, but Allah does not oppress and we won't struggle in Jannah.
- Disregarding the greatness of his creation is actually a form of kuffr, because you're disregarding his creation
- Reminder: Does not mean you can be arrogant
 - You only are what you are because Allah made you that way and gave that to you
 - Ghazali on the arrogance of beauty
 - One time the Prophet ﷺ was praising Zainab, and Aisha gestures her as the short one (there were two Zainabs, she had competition with the other Zainab). If you took this statement and put it in water it would make it better
 - Summary: all qualities are from Allah. We should speak about them with that in mind
 - Context
 - Hamla was Zainab's sister and she got caught in the rumors about Aisha
 - Despite the wives rivalry she only praised her
- Allah has given us internal uniqueness
 - If even
- Clarifying qawaam
 - Does not mean that you should stand for each other
 - Tells story about a speaker who misexplained the word while talking about another ayat
 - Has a connotation of protection

Ayah 5

Thumma ra dad naahu asfala saafileen

Then We return him to the lowest of the low

- Asfala saafileen
 - Asfala is an ism tafdeel with ism fail
 - Has the superlative meaning
 - Meaning the lowest

- Interpretation: The human being also has the capacity to be the lowest of creation
 - As high as we can go, we can go equally as low
 - We can be like animals or even worse
 - Like the donkey who carries books
- Analogy: Decreased value of a cracked phone
 - Human not fulfilling his purpose lowers his status in the eyes of Allah like a cracked phone
 - When the functionality comes to an end, it decays.

Ayah 6

Ill-lal lazeena amanoo wa 'amilus saalihaati; falahum ajrun ghairu mamnoon
Except for those who believe and do righteous deeds, for they will have a reward uninterrupted

- How to Avoid Being the Lowest: The Humans Purpose
 - A humans purpose is two things.
 1. Ibadah (Worship): a person can be sinful but their function is still worship of Allah. As long as they are doing that they will keep their status in the eyes of Allah.
 2. Ilm (Knowledge) and Dawah (Calling)
- Being an Ambassador of the Deen
- ? says be a khalifa
 - If you go to a country as an ambassador, you have things laid out for you
 - But your job is to uphold the honor of your country and not mess up the job of being an ambassador
- Analogy: be an ambassador not a tourist
 - Allah will take care of you the same way countries take care of foreign ambassadors
 - Toursits are not taken care of
 - If we choose to live in dunya like tourist in foreign country (with no sense of responsibility) than Allah is going to take care of you the same
 - If we act like kahlifas of the deen, we are spoken for Allah will take care of all our needs (saftey, sustenance, rizq)

- Our job is to learn and teach
- Analogy: Similar to how companies send employees on work trips fully covered. But if they forget to do their job why would they stay hired
 - Come back to Allah having fulfilled your purpose
 - Don't become like the foam of the sea. Foam goes away very quick. Be like the ocean.
 - The Prophet ﷺ said a time will come when we'll be like the foam of the ocean. No substance to us
 - We have the potential to be better than angels but generally we are not
 - Being an ambassador of Allah is the best thing we can do for ourselves
 - If we're not calling people to Islam we will never fulfill our obligation
 - ? Says there will come a time when Wahi stops and ?? 1358
 - Our status is lowered but we're never discarded
 - Allah is Kareem in that he never discards us

Humans Potential

- Can be better than angels
 - Even angels have limitations
 - Jibreel could not pass Sidrat Al Muntaha
 - However that doesn't mean we're better than Jibreel
 - Should not be arrogant. Jews took to heart that they are better than angels to the point
 - In Jannah the angels will be serving us
 - The angels also love us
 - However we have to strive to be better
- Or worse than Iblis
 - Ex: Firaun
 - Human beings have potential but not as a default
 - There are animalistic people
- Illal latheena amanu
 - "Man" means to continue

Ayah 7

Fama yu kaz zibuka b'adu bid deen

So what yet causes you to deny the Recompense?

- Is Allah not the most fair judge? Why would you want to be judged by anyone else?
- Allah is merciful and adil (just)
 - We shouldn't want his judgement though
 - The Prophet ﷺ has the most of his mercy
- Sins will not be decrease and rewards will not be depreciated
- Do not deny this day

Ayah 8

Alai sal laahu bi-ahkamil haakimeen

Is not Allah the most just of judges?

- Ahkami haakimeen
 - Best prayer
- Interpretation: Allah will take the best performance of the deed and apply that reward to all other deeds
- Analogy: Like working in a company and having your best performance day be your yearly analysis
- Summary:
 - Allah highlights the human being as a creation
 - The high risk high reward model

94 | Surah Ash Sharh

Date Covered: 12/1 @ 1310, 12/2 @ 1310, 12/3 @ 1307

Period of Revelation: Makkan

Surah Number: 94

Order of Revelation: 12

Number of Ayahs: 8

Theme and Subject Matter:

- Ease after hardship
- Consolation for the Prophet ﷺ
- Closely connected to Surah ad-Duha
- It is the most rich in love for the Prophet ﷺ

English Translation

1. Did We not expand for you, [O Muhammad ﷺ], your breast?
2. And We removed from you your burden
3. Which had weighed upon your back
4. And raised high for you your repute
5. For indeed, with hardship [will be] ease
6. Indeed, with hardship [will be] ease
7. So when you have finished [your duties], then stand up [for worship]
8. And to your Lord direct [your] longing

Background

- Surah Duha is like a preface to Surah Ash Sharh
 - Duha spoke about the Prophet ﷺ's burdens
 - Ash Sharh speaks about how the burden is removed
 - Duha speaks about how he should be in service
 - Sharh speaks about how he should be in worship
 - The two surahs were often recited in a pair
 - They share similar themes
- Allah ended Duha with an acknowledgment that the Prophet ﷺ should share his blessings. This surah explains what they are

Ayah 1

Alam nashrahlaka sadrak

- Meaning the expansion of the chest
 - When Musa AS was experiencing difficulty, he had to ask for this.
 - The Prophet ﷺ did not have to ask, it was given to him
 - Difference between kalim and habib, habib does not have to ask
- Sharah
 - Meaning expansion
- Sadr
 - Meaning heart
- First Interpretation: the blessing of acceptance of islam/imaan
 - Continuing on tahdith bin ni'ma from Surah Duha (meaning sharing the news of your blessings) Allah is saying that the greatest blessing we have is our heart accepting belief
 - Knowledge is nothing without the confidence of the heart
 - When Ibrahim AS was asked to leave Ismail and Hajar in the desert he was only able to do so because he had confidence in Allah's care
 - The meaning of alam nashrak laka sadrak isn't just acceptance, because lots of feelings of the heart can be positive and negative, it can be a reluctant acceptance and it can also describe a comfortable acceptance.
 - The Prophet ﷺ was very decisive, he did not doubt his decisions
- Regarding confidence in decisions
 - The Prophet ﷺ is a role model in decision making
 - He made istishara and istikhara
 - Example of Salman al Farasi whose opinion the Prophet accepted for Khandak, despite him being muslim for only a couple month
 - Your shura is where you do have authority. But if you have no authority there is no
- Side Lesson: have shura in your life
 - If you're always doubting your decisions you will struggle.
 - Know how to consult others
 - Know who to consult: they must be knowledgeable, they must be ?, and they must have taqwa
- Example of Uhud: Even if things go wrong you will not question it
 - At Uhud things went wrong, and the Prophet ﷺ was revealed an ayah after with reassurance to have tawakkul.
 - Those verses instructed them to trust each other

- Allah reminded them not to question each other
- Second Meaning: expanding of the heart (having a big heart)
 - Musa AS referred to it. In the path of being a Prophet ﷺ is a natural force that will attack them that they never felt before
 - Both Musa AS and the Prophet ﷺ were the most trusted. The Prophet ﷺ was known for being truthful, even by his enemies. Abu Sufyan
 - Establishing deen in your life will require a big heart.
- Leadership is incomplete without a big heart
 - You need a big heart to forgive people, to deal with people
 - You can't lead with a small heart. The Prophet ﷺ was very tolerant, and even more forgiving and this is why he was the most complete human being. We see snippets of Allah's mercy in him.
 - We can not be people who are unforgiving and hard in the heart.
 - The most disgusting character traits come out in people who are not soft in their heart.
 - Muslims do not lead with a chip on their shoulder but with big hearts
 - Being a leader also means that you will face lots of criticism. Allah is telling the Prophet ﷺ he was given a strong heart for a reason
- Expectation
 - Mufti mentions how many of his graduates are imams struggling to handle people's expectations.
 - However these things don't have trial periods, like how a mother becomes a mother overnight.
 - You can't lead people that you don't love
- Third Meaning: Confidence in muslim identity and a strong sense of responsibility towards the deen
 - The most popular meaning
 - Open your chest toward the burden/responsibility of this deen
 - When people say the dua of Musa AS, they are asking for strength
 - The idea of diving deep into the commandments of Allah can be understood from Musa AS. He needed to care a lot about shouldering to deen to even talk to Firaun. Sharh is confidence. Not just passingly doing it, but doing it with strength.
 - When Firaun had the conversation with Musa AS, widen my chest was a request to be relieved of his anxiety.
 - Innaka antal a'la telling Musa not to feel small
 - Confidence does not come from physical ability it comes from the divine

- When you explain yourself, don't give other reasons. Tell them confidently that its because you're muslim
- Balancing confidence with riya
 - Islam is not about sticking out like a sore thumb
 - You don't have to overdo your confidence
- Summary: the blessing of an expanded chest is 1350

Ayah 2-3

Waa danaa aanka wizrak. Allathee anqada dhahrak.

- Wizr
 - Meaning burden, sin
 - From wazeer
 - In other languages means advisor, ambassador, supporter
 - Appears in another of the ayah of the Quran to imply sin (No one will be burdened with another's sins Surah ? Ayah ?)
 - Wazeer can mean someone who shoulders others burdens
- Anqada
 - Naqada meaning ?
 - Hear its metaphorical, the burden weighs heavy on his existence
 - Related word is nawaqit meaning break
- Interpretation #1: Referring to the burden of people accepting his call
 - The Prophet ﷺ biggest struggle was with people not accepting his message
 - He felt intense grief towards his people, he had such care for them that he was weighed by grief
 - However the Prophet ﷺ was reassured with the message that his responsibility is only to spread the message and that the rest is in Allah's hands
- The extent of responsibility we carry
 - The responsibility of dawah never goes away
 - However, the people accepting it is on them and in Allah's control alone
 - The Prophet ﷺ tried his hardest with Abu Jahal but in the end it was not in his hands
 - The outcome is not our responsibility. The burden of the outcome is not on us. Only Allah is capable of opening the heart.
- Interpretation #2: the removal of sins from his back
 - Prophets are sinless

- Sins carry weight
 - If people have a lower tolerance for sin, they will feel its weight more
 - Righteous people will feel the effect of their own sins more, because their hearts are purer
 - Analogy to clothes: People with dirty clothes are unbothered but someone in the cleanest white clothing will be bothered by the smallest speck of dirt.
 - People of righteousness carry the weight of sins like they are boulders, while munafiq carry them like flies.
 - Tawba frees a person from the weight of sins
 - Islam is the only religion that has a true concept of tawba

Ayah 4

Warafa'na laka dhikrak

- Dhikrak
 - From dhikr meaning praise
- Remembrance and praise given to the Prophet ﷺ
 - Comparing to the other prophets, the Prophet ﷺ was given the praise of his believers without asking
 - The previous prophets had to ask for that favor. All creations have virtues over other, prophets included.
 - Ibrahim AS for example had to ask for his name to be remembered, and Allah granted him that request. We mention him in every salah now.
 - However the Prophet ﷺ was endowed with it at birth
- Allah reminds that it's not just his name that is raised but his remembrance
- Evidence of the Prophet ﷺ's remembrance being raised
 - Madina is the most beloved of cities
 - Even the dirt near his grave has higher status
 - A person saw the Prophet ﷺ in his dream telling him how to give salam to him. That praise included a mention of how his body made the dirt he was buried in smell good.
 - Allah is telling the Prophet ﷺ in the ayah that anyone who even acts like you has been elevated
 - His sunnah, his name, his salawat, are all things that have been raised
 - As an ummah we are also raised. We are the final nation to come but on the DOJ we will be the first to enter jannah, despite being more flawed.
- Anyone who follows the Prophet ﷺ is similarly raised
- This ummah is raised despite its flaws

- Previous ummahs only had one fitna
- This ummah has all of the previous
- Regardless we are raised, because we follow the Prophet ﷺ
- Narration about the elevation of the Ummah of the Prophet ﷺ
 - The Prophet ﷺ said that he saw the blackness of peoples heads, and hoped it was his ummah because of how many people there were
 - Then Allah said it was the nation of Musa AS. Then he was directed toward another group that was even bigger.
 - Musa AS cried when he saw the Prophet ﷺ during Al Miraj because he had the largest ummah.
 - Our ummah is so unique that we can pray anywhere. This is a long hadith.
 - A people that can purify themselves through dirt and water, and Allah will tell ? that this is the ummah of Ahmad. ? will ask make them my ummah. They were the last nation but the first to enter jannah.
 - Every prophet ﷺ sought the virtue of this ummah and wanted to be a part of it. Only Isa AS was granted this request, he will be brought back as a follower of the Prophet ﷺ
 - Analogy of representing a team: Like wearing the jersey of a famous team. You don't assume that you are the one making the team famous. Rather making it to the team is a source of honor.
- A young sahaba mocking the athaan
 - The Prophet ﷺ called him over, had him call it himself
 - The Prophet ﷺ placed his hand on his head, and make dua for him and he became muslim
 - His hair later stayed black in that spot
- Narration of sahabas conversation
 - The Prophet ﷺ catches them talking about the previous prophets blessings wondering how he is the greatest when he does not have what they have
 - In one narration he asks jibreel. In another he says he is allah's greatest creation.
 - In the one where he asks Jibreel, Jibreel answers that his honor is that the Prophet ﷺ's name is not mentioned except that Allah's name is mentioned with it.
 - Analogy to being mentioned in the same sentence as another incredible person. Except that Allah is saying it about himself to the Prophet ﷺ, which is the highest honor.
- Insights into Durood Ibrahim

- Ibrahim made dua for his name to be mentioned, its a product of his own dua
- We are responding to his salam that he gave us, hence why it might sound like hes lower in virtue than the Prophet ﷺ
- Virtues of Salawat
 - Decreases the hamm (anxiety) of a person, similar to how Madina eases people, and how sahaba found peace in him.
 - Brings barakah to your rizq
 - Holds the highest reward between duas
- In a narration the Prophet ﷺ said if the whole dua was salawat all of their needs would be fulfilled.
 - Saying the name of the Prophet ﷺ before Allah is enough to have our duas answered.
 - Analogy to having someone's recommendation, just mentioning their name is enough
- Even the angels send praises to the Prophet ﷺ
 - The angels send salawat on him by Allah's command

Ayah 5-6

For indeed, with hardship [will be] ease. Indeed, with hardship [will be] ease
 Fa inna ma'a al usri yusra. Wa inna ma'a al usri yusra

- Usri yusra
 - Hardship comes with ease
 - Covered in Surah Duha
 - Appears here with marifa/nakira connotations
 - The hardship is marifa, grammatically indicating the harshness it carries
- Function of repetition
 - Example of dual mention in Quran: Jannah is spoken about in the dual form in Surah Rahman, not because there are actually two. But rather to show that there are ranks, not just one jannah that is the same for everyone.
 - Similarly, the repetition here is to show that patterns of difficulties and ease are different for everyone.
 - Hardships can even differ at different stages of life. Within dunya, and beyond that in the grave, on the DOJ etc.

Ayah 7-8

So when you have finished [your duties], then stand up [for worship]. And to your Lord direct [your] longing

- Faraghta
 - Meaning communal responsibilities
 - How does a Prophet ﷺ get freed from his communal responsibilities
 - Working for the community without spiritual connection is a recipe of disaster
 - If you wish to be able to survive this work, your night prayer is what will give you fulfilment and strength
 - When you work with people, they are constantly taking from you. Allah is the only one who give
 - Allah is saying come back to me so that I can refuel you
 - Why is this ayah for the Prophet ﷺ specifically?
- Thinking about your day actually begins at night
 - We start planning for the next day at night
 - Our next day is already in planning (what time will we sleep, what will we eat)
- Nasab
 - Meaning difficulty or struggle
 - Allah is telling the Prophet ﷺ to struggle for Allah at night the same way he did in the day time for people
 - Quranic example: Nuh AS would give Allah recaps of his day.
- Give Allah recaps of your day
 - That is how you see your weaknesses
 - Some days are not worth recapping
- Fa in the nasab
 - Meaning immediacy
 - Do not delay it or hesitate to worship
 - Example of the awliya: they never missed tahajjud
- Illa rabbika farghab
 - Farghab meaning longing
 - We should be in a state of longing towards Allah, and find highest comforts in him
- Hadith: The coolness of my eyes will be found in prayer
 - Salah is an opportunity for those who love it
 - It's only a burden for those who do not love it
 - We should develop in ourselves a longing towards Allah

- Loving worship
 - The sahaba would speak about ramadan, the 6 months leading up to it and the 6 months that followed it
 - When people are stressed they turn to the activities which calm them down the most. We should make a habit of turning to worship for comfort.
- Developing a wurd (routine of worship)
 - A person who spends the majority of their day learning the deen should be spending as much time engaging in direct worship of Allah
 - A wurd gives you something to fall back on, it is your protection
- Protecting ourselves against arrogance
 - You cannot give if you do not have. If you are arrogant your dawah will also spread arrogance.
 - The work of dawah can be overwhelming and particularly can lead to arrogance
 - Night worship is a reminder that any work we achieve is actually only by the permission of Allah.
- Reserving time for Allah alone
 - Spending time with Allah alone is important. You cannot be involving other people in your worship all the time.
 - Analogy to spending time with loved ones. If other people are around its not true alone time.

How to Develop Raghba

1. Ma'rifatullah (Learn about Allah)

- Analogy to food cravings: you don't crave a food you've never heard of or tried before. You also don't appreciate a food if you don't know how nicely it was made.

2. Speak about Allah

- Speaking about Allah is one of the best ways to grow your love and longing for him.
- Things you might speak about

- His greatness/qualities. Analogy of people who speak about great sports players. You cannot hold them back from their passion
- His blessings. We are so blessed in this current moment that we come back to Miftaah and are spending our day and night in the path of Allah
- Ask yourself how much do you speak about Allah outside of class.
 - Make a habit of speaking about Allah in small conversations
 - That does not mean you have to speak in excess though; the Prophet ﷺ
- Story: Mufti recently spoke to a man who was really passionate about tennis, and it reignited his own raghba towards the sport.
 - Speaking about things is a way of bringing longing and passion in each other

3. Acting on our love in acts of worship.

- Doing it does not necessarily develop love.
 - This is the hardest of the 3 steps
 - But it is the last step because acting on our love is necessary
- Loving the act is not necessary for completing it.
 - Example of Hajj. People don't love it. But they love Allah and they endure hardship for that reason.
 - You have to love the outcome: Allah's love in return.

Extra Notes

- The love Allah has for the human being
 - A mother still loves their disobedient child
- These surahs are for us as much as the Prophet ﷺ
- Defining khushoo
 - Presence of Allah in your mind
 - During your prayer, whenever your mind wanders you have the ability to pull it back
 - Khushoo is actually referring to the skill of pulling the mind back
 - The person who has never drifted won't know the battle of khushoo

How to Develop Khushoo

1. Develop khudoo (perfection of physical movements)

- People who are unaware of their physical movements do not have khushoo. To control the mind you have to control the body first
 - Salah includes physical limitation for the purpose of giving us khushoo
 - Even in tawaf, we have to walk in one direction so that we can have khushoo.
 - Story: Person getting lost in tawaf. Another person asked what time it is even though there is a clock tower. Another one thought he was completing a round of tawaf every time he went around the kaaba.
2. Make good wudhu
- Analogy to stretching before the game: If you don't have a good pregame, you could get hurt while playing or not perform as well
 - Your salah begins with wudhu
3. Know where you are standing
- You are standing before Allah
 - Analogy to standing before your boss
4. Learn Arabic
- It is not a prerequisite to khushoo
 - However it is a good add on. Knowing what you are reciting elevates your salah.

93 | Surah Duha

93 | Surah Duha

Dates Covered: 11/11 @ 1310, 11/17 @ 1308, 11/18 @ 1340 *

Period of Revelation: Makkan

Surah Number: 93

Order of Revelation: 11

Number of Ayahs: 11

Theme and Subject Matter:

- Allah reassuring the Prophet ﷺ
- Orphans
- The blessings of Allah

Background

- Commonalities with previous surahs
 - Qasam (oaths)
 - Mentions of morning/night
- Context in the Prophet ﷺ's life
 - Allah revealed after a pause. There were multiple fatrah (pauses) in the Prophet ﷺ's prophethood.
 - When this fatrah took place it was overwhelming for the Prophet ﷺ.
 - Modern Example: Seeing your parents after a long time and then they leave you, seemingly not wanting to see you.
 - People told the Prophet ﷺ that Allah had abandoned him.
 - Khadidja says maybe Allah is upset with us, and when she said it, it actually hurt the most.
 - The Prophet ﷺ stopped coming out in public, and talking to people.
 - This is when Surah Duha was revealed.
- Refuge from pressure and abandonment
 - Every person who experience the burdens of pressure due to responsibility, an/or abandonment, can find refuge in this surah.

English Translation

1. By the morning brightness
2. And [by] the night when it covers with darkness

3. Your Lord has not taken leave of you, [O Muhammad], nor has He detested [you]
4. And the Hereafter is better for you than the first [life]
5. And your Lord is going to give you, and you will be satisfied
6. Did He not find you an orphan and give [you] refuge?
7. And He found you lost and guided [you]
8. And He found you poor and made [you] self-sufficient
9. So as for the orphan, do not oppress [him]
10. And as for the petitioner, do not repel [him]
11. But as for the favor of your Lord, report [

Ayah 1

Wad duhaa

By the morning brightness

- What is duha?
 - It is not fajr (the sunrise/the tearing open of the sky)
 - A fajar is someone who does something openly without regret
 - Duha by contrast is after fajr. It's when the sun has risen and the day is bright. It is enjoyable to look at.
- Interpretation 1: Revelation is a source of light, and now that it has come he has duha in his life again
 - The Prophet ﷺ was as if he was living in darkness
 - There is comfort in light
 - The Prophet ﷺ is being reassured with the light.
 - The surah starts with light to show that light is not all of his life, just certain moments
 - You will see Allah's help and you will also struggle
- Interpretation 2: Imam Suyuti's opinion: refers to the brightness of the Prophet ﷺ's face
 - It is one of the most loving qasams in the Quran: Allah is swearing by the brightness of the Prophet ﷺ's face
 - Other opinion: the brightness of his face and the darkness of his hair
 - Like a parent expressing their love
- Similes of Duha
 - Help
 - Comfort
 - Ease

Ayah 2

Wal layli itha sajaa

And [by] the night when it covers with darkness

- Axillary opinion: referring to the darkness of the Prophet ﷺ's hair
- Comparison
 - When he speaks about light he says small portion
 - Layl is in the ma'rifa
- Similes of Layl
 - Difficulty
 - Hardship
- Interpretation: We can understand that more of life will be difficulty than comfort
 - Layl (night and hardship) will be majority of the life
- Related ayah: With hardship comes ease
 - If we go backwards, we can understand that the comfort of Duha, while brief, is guaranteed.
 - Yusuf AS endured many hardships before his ease, and the ease he experienced
 - Difficulties appear in serieses
 - Yusra in the ayah is not referring to ease in dunya but rather Jannah
- Correcting our Understanding of Allah
 - We should not be deceived on Allah's promise
 - Allah is telling us that difficulty is long, it's not a surprise.
 - I am still your lord even when things are not going right
- True Ease: Akhira
 - The ease we will get is actually what allah is testing us with
 - Allah has not put us through any difficulties without the capacity to tolerate.
- True Goal: Tolerance and Contentment
 - Ghazali says that farah (happiness) is the goal of those who have low ambitions, (qana'a) contentment is the true higher ambition
- The oath
 - The short duha is equivalent to the long layl. They are equal despite their different length.
- Other tafsir: Duha is wahi and layl is everything else
 - The light of wahi will always be less despite being the truth, and the darkness of falsehood will always seem like more
 - The muslims will also be less until the DOJ

- Summary: A person must have the correct understanding of Allah. Trial may last longer than comfort, but we accept both.
 - Not all stories have relief (yusra) in them
 - If our sakina is attached to temporary things, our contentment will be temporary.
 - Attachment to Allah on the other hand is eternal.

Ayah 3

Ma wad da'aka rabbuka wa ma qalaa

Your Lord has not taken leave of you, [O Muhammad], nor has He detested [you]

- Wadaaka
 - Wada'a refers to saying goodbye to someone you love
 - Ex: wida to the kaaba when you're leaving. You are saying goodbye to someone who you don't want to say farewell to.
 - Ex: Valley of Widaa in Madina. The Prophet ﷺ would walk them to this valley, and make them feel loved
 - Bidding farwell actually hurts
- Side Topic - Sunnah of Saying Farewell
 - The Prophet ﷺ would always walk to the point of saying farewell.
 - We should be taking responsibility with our families.
- Ma wadda aka rabbuk
 - Your lord has not said bye to you that a lover says to his beloved, even that kind of farewell is hard
 - Hajar is another word for leave
 - Taqara is to get rid of
 - Waddaa is not a commonly used word, because having such love is not common
- Comforting the Prophet ﷺ that Allah has not abandoned him
 - The Prophet ﷺ 's main cause of discomfort was that he thought there was a gap between him and Allah
 - Ex: When we sit with our parents, sometimes we feel sad because we feel emotionally distant from them. That was what the Prophet ﷺ was feeling because of the gap in wahi.
 - This ayah provides reassurance. Allah recognizes that this was the source of the Prophet ﷺ 's pain.
 - Allah is saying he has not abandoned him.
- Toddler Example

- A toddler feels comfort not because of the space they are in but because they are in the company of their mother. But if the child is distant from their mother, even in their own bed they will feel anxious.
- For a believer, who lives for Allah is the same.
- The presence of Allah is the only thing that gives them comfort.
- Only the remembrance of Allah can give them comfort.
- Spaces do not give you comfort the state of your heart does.
- The Prophet ﷺ in the cave
 - Hijra, they were hiding in the cave, and so close the mouth that they could be easily seen
 - The Prophet ﷺ says What do you think is the strength of two people when Allah is the third?
 - One sahaba narrates that his sword fell out of his hand more than 27 times, because he kept falling asleep at the Battle of Badr. So many of the sahaba felt so much sakina that nuaas (sleepiness) came on them.
 - Feeling safe in a space that is so dangerous. How?
- The safety of being in Allah's care
 - Parent driving the car, children are asleep despite bad weather
 - The believer feels comfort where they find Allah. That is why we find comfort in the masjid, in Madina, in the Haram.
 - The Prophet ﷺ found this ultimate comfort. Allah is with him and has not has left him
- Qurub
 - Allah is close
 - Ibn Abbas: allah's nearness also means that you have his nasra (help)
- The Believer's Responsibility towards the Prophet ﷺ
 - We are not capable of saying goodbye to the Prophet ﷺ
 - Even the tree the Prophet ﷺ left cried
 - Bilal could not continue living in Madina after the Prophet ﷺ died
 - Bahira the Monk. When the Prophet ﷺ was 7-8 years old, Abu Talib said I'm his father. Bahira said you are not. Bahira knew he was a prophet ﷺ and an orphan because he saw the clouds shading their caravan.
 - The Prophet ﷺ had love from all creation, how can we say bid him farewell?
- Failing to Observing Sunnah
 - Not doing sunnahs is like doing widdaa to the the Prophet ﷺ, which Allah even couldn't.

- It's like saying goodbye to someone we love, or like saying that something someone you loved used to do is nothing special.
- Zaid ibn Haritha's father looked for him for years, and he still did not want to go back. The sahaba are role models in how our love for the Prophet ﷺ should be.
- Istihdar of Allah - Finding Relief in His Presence
 - Meaning the presence of Allah and the belief in it is what comforts you
 - You need to believe that Allah is with you
 - It's like feeling the comfort of someone near you when you are not feeling well. That is how a believer should be feeling towards Allah.
 - Reminder: Ease is more difficult. In ease, a person already has what they want and need, they are more likely to forget Allah
 - This ayah is a reminder that we should be finding comfort in Allah's presence.
 - Be a person whom their istihdar overwhelms any anxiety they might feel.
 - Your environment can influence your istihdar too. The masjid, Ramadan, righteous people. But faith is built in having istihdar no matter where you are
 - Istihdar should not be dependent on anything else. You should find the same amount of comfort and relief in Allah no matter what is going on.
- Anxiety vs urgency
 - Not feeling anxious does not mean you shouldn't have a sense of urgency. Urgency should be balanced with find comfort in your lord.
- Wa ma Qala
 - Qala means to detest
 - Describes a deep level of anger and hate
 - There is no pronoun attached to qala
 - Allah does not even complete the sentence to say "I don't hate you"
 - He is saying "There is no hate"
- Grammatical Nuance
 - Hatred of Allah towards the Prophet ﷺ is not even an option
 - We can apply this to ourselves by understanding that following the actions of the Prophet ﷺ is a way of guaranteeing Allah's love
- Feeling Like Allah does not love us
 - Often when we experience trials we think that Allah does not love us
 - However all blessing and trials are a show of love
 - We are always in a state of blessing and mercy.
 - The ni'mas and rahmas of Allah cannot be counted

- Blessings cannot be counted
 - In another ayah, if you were to count Allah's blessing you would not be able to.
 - An interpretation of this is that you cannot even count a single blessing, because within it there are more
 - Every person needs to maintain hope that Allah loves them
 - Self love cannot help us, Allah's love can
 - Feeling that Allah does not love us is a very dangerous state to be in, because losing faith in Allah's love kills motivation.
- Prerequisite of Istihdar is Knowing Allah
 - If a person doesn't know who Allah is, how will they find comfort in Allah's love?
 - Hilm: meaning ilm + sabr. The nature of sabr is that you cannot have it without ilm. Surviving with patience is done knowing that the ease is to come.
 - You must know Allah, his mercy, and the promises of Jannah, in order to find comfort in it. This ayah tells us who Allah is.
 - Bilal RA only knew of Allah that he was ahad, but it was enough for him.
- Summary: this ayah is showing us who Allah is and why we should find comfort (istihdar) in him.

Ayah 4

Walal-aakhiratu khairul laka minal-oola

And the Hereafter is better for you than the first [life]

- Additional comfort, that Jannah is waiting for you after this difficulty
- Interpretation #1: What is coming tomorrow is better
 - Akhira can also mean tomorrow
 - What's about to come in life is better for you
- Interpretation #2 (not from direct tafsir)
 - It is the principle of Allah for the human being: be better with every new day.
 - Ali RA used to say "Whosoever has two days that are identical, they are the biggest losers. The next day has to be better than the previous in obedience to Allah"
 - How can we use today as a scorecard for our life? Are we 1% better?
 - Analogy: Water that stays still becomes impure. Stagnancy is also regression.

- People find their earnestness to grow in dunya to be endless, and so limited when it comes to deen.
- Imaan is not the goal, the deeds are the goal.
- Timing of relief is not in our control
 - The Prophet ﷺ has many more difficulties yet to experience: after this was persecution, Am Al Huzun, hijra etc.
 - You've ultimately snatched their life away from them when you take away the hope of a better abode but akhirah is the true final abode of a believer.
 - Tomorrow might not be easier but Jannah will.
 - Timing is not within our control.
 - Khandaq The Prophet ﷺ hits the rock and prophesized the victory over Persia, Rome, and Sham. The munafiq were watching in disbelief. But it still happened. When things are promised, they will come even if not in the timing we expect.
 - Allah knows best when you are ready for it, and when it does come is when it is best for you.
- Interpretation #3
 - Akhirah is better than dunya in every way
 - The Prophet ﷺ said "The handkerchief Saad Ibn Mu'adh will be given in Jannah is better than these (referring to the treasures)"
 - Allah holds the best of our relief and reward for Jannah.
 - Even deficiencies in dunya will go away.
 - The Prophet ﷺ was approached by a sahaba with a bad eye. The sahaba said I need my eye back, give me both. The Prophet ﷺ smiled.

Ayah 5

Wa la sawfa y'uteeka rabbuka fatarda

And your Lord is going to give you, and you will be satisfied

- Sawfa vs Seen
 - Means that Allah will give in due time
 - Both terms for fi'l mudhare
 - Sawfa is further away and usually used to describe akhirah/believers
 - Your lord will give to you later/in due time
 - Seen is long term and usually used to describe dunya/disbelievers
 - Your time to be held accountable is near
- Y'uteek

- Meaning give you
- Mustajid is a person who when they ask, they keep checking when it comes
- Sawfa in this context is a reminder of patience, it will take time for Allah to give.
- Allah made the giving open ended without mentioning what He will give; He will give Limitlessly.
- Allah gives just to make us happy. He has no benefit in giving to us
- Fa tarda
 - Meaning to be satisfied
 - Fa adds the meaning of immediacy
 - Referring to
 - Fath of Mecca
 - Akhira as a whole
 - Maqamam Mahmuda (the highest position on the DOJ)
 - The ummah
- Comfort for the Prophet ﷺ
 - the promise of receiving something in akhira was what allowed the Prophet ﷺ to continue.

Defining Satisfaction for the Prophet ﷺ : His Ummah

True satisfaction for the Prophet ﷺ will only come after shafa'a for the ummah. The Prophet ﷺ narrates himself:

He will praise Allah in a manner incomparable to any previous praises. And Allah will tell him to raise his head and intercede. That is when he will intercede on behalf of his ummah. He will grant shafa'a for 70,000 of the ummah without hisaab. The Prophet ﷺ will ask for more and he will get 70,000 more and another 70,000 more. Allah will ask him "Fa'tarda?" meaning "Are you satisfied now?" He will say not yet. He will continue until every person with a mustard seed of faith receives his intercession, and then he will be the last to enter jannah. (Hadith Source Needed)

- The Prophet ﷺ had such love for us, and his true happiness was the success of his ummah.
 - Previous prophets will be lined up but Jannah will only open for him. He will be seen crying, and when they ask why he will mention a verse. Oh Allah if you punish them then verily they are you slaves and if you are to reward to them then surely you are the most might and the most wise.

- Speaking to Abdurrahman Ar Awf on why he was crying. Every prophet has an accepted dua, and Jibreel came to him. The Prophet ﷺ chose to save his dua for shafa'a for the ummah instead for Ibrahim.

- Interpretations of Sawfa Y'uteek Fatarda

- Meaning #1: Allah will give later (referring to akhirah)
- Meaning #2: Allah will continuously give, until you are pleased
 - When the father said ? about ? to his children. He used the word sawfa.
 - In this context it means that your lord will continue to give to you until you are pleased.

Ayah 6

Alam ya jidka yateeman fa aawaa

Did He not find you an orphan and give [you] refuge?

- Yateem
 - Meaning orphan
 - The Prophet ﷺ was an orphan whom wet nurses did not want to feed.
 - Taking care of the orphan is a great deed for that reason
 - Allah reminds him of the favors, and how he was an orphan
- Aawaa
 - Meaning refuge
 - The Prophet ﷺ received a home despite his seemingly impossible status as an orphan infant

Ayah 7

Wa wa jadaka daal lan fahada

And He found you lost and guided [you]

- Dhaalan
 - Meaning lost
 - The Prophet ﷺ was lost in some ways, but it might not be referring to him specifically. Could be referring to the people around him

- Fahada
 - Meaning guided
 - The Prophet ﷺ rejected all the false religions even before Islam and was seeking the truth
 - He would reflect and pray that he knew the truthful way because he was so dissatisfied at society's low level moral standards

Ayah 8

Wa wa jadaka 'aa-ilan fa aghnaa

And He found you poor and made [you] self-sufficient

- Aa-il
 - Meaning poor, with the connotation of feeling crushed by expectation and the burden of society
 - The Prophet ﷺ was in a society that did not have much to say about him (his lineage, wealth, etc)
- Aghna
 - Meaning self sufficient
 - Could be referring to wealth
 - Could also be referring to feeling comfortable in himself
 - Ghazali says the starting point of sins is never ending need, and that Allah is saying here that you've been given the privilege of being satisfied with what you have.
- Lesson: Living with istighna is always better than living with faqr
 - Istighna is contentment
 - Faqr is need
 - Lesson: Be in the perspective of contentment with what you have. Do not look at other people's blessings and think about what does not concern you.

Ayah 9

Fa am mal yateema fala taqhar

So as for the orphan, do not oppress [him]

- This ayah returns the responsibility to the listener. Everyone loves the orphan except the person who used to be an orphan.
- Yateem
 - Meaning orphan, but not restricted to orphan
 - Referring to anyone of low status

- Fala taqhar
 - Meaning do not oppress him
- Lesson: Do not be calculated in how you treat people
 - Some people only have good adhab depending on who they are with or where they are
 - This ayah is a reminder that everyone, especially the lowest in society, deserve good manners from us.
 - And do not overwhelm them with your blessings.
- Lesson: Spend time with those who have less.
 - The Prophet ﷺ used to recommend softening the heart by putting your hand on the head of an orphan.
 - People who have experienced difficulty are enough of a reminder of our own blessings.

Ayah 10

Wa am mas saa-ila fala tanhar

And as for the petitioner, do not repel [him]

- Saa ila
 - Meaning the petitioner, the one asking for a favor
- La tanhar
 - Meaning do not repel
 - Sometimes we don't have anything to give.
 - We still have to respond well.
- Lesson: Adhab of responding to someone who needs something from us is that we do not embarrass them.
- Adhab of Giving: When giving things, less important is what we give than how we give it.
 - Lower the hand
 - Sahaba would not even raise their hands when giving people things.
 - Do not say no, or shame them
 - Never rebuke people for their favors.
 - Avoid overreaction
 - Sometimes we overreact when people ask us for favors. Part of the adhab is also making the other person feel like they are not asking anything big.
 - If we cannot help, we guide them to someone who can.
 - Do not take righteousness from fulfilling obligations

- If you are gaining from your “support” how is that really support? Do not be the beneficiary of your own charity
- Support is doing more than what benefits you, it is not something to be proud of.
- There is no barakah in the giving of the arrogant person

Ayah 11

Wa amma bi ni'mati rabbika fahad dith

But as for the favors of your Lord, report [it]

- Fa Haddith

- Means to speak, report
- Allah loves that he sees his blessings upon people
- This ayah is a reminder that our blessings are not something we should ignore or hide
 - Some may reject appearing blessed in order to avoid arrogance,
- Even leaving food that is warm to pray is being neglectful of the blessing.

- Ni'am

- Plural of ni'mah meaning blessings
- The best usage of a blessing is that it is seen being used
- When Allah grants us things we should make the most of them

- Lesson: People should benefit from our blessings

- It's not a true blessing if people are not benefitting from it
- People sometimes struggle with the idea of having nice things.

- Story: Mufti tells the story of a man who has expensive things. “ I drive a nice car so that people know they can ask me for money. I can't appear poor. I can't hide my blessings.”

- Reminder: Ultimately the one who gives is Allah.

EXTRA

Related Surah Fatiha Tafsir

- Iyaka nastaeen
 - Seeking help from Allah
 - Not mentioned is what we are seeking in Allah for
 - Usually you say what you need help with.
 - But if you are drowning do you mention why you need help?
 - Allah already knows what we need help with.
 - That's also why the most powerful duas are so short.

Dua Analysis

Rabbana atina fid dunya hasana, wa fil akhirati hasana, wa kina adhabannar

- Hasana means goodness in 4 things
 - Deen
 - Children
 - Wealth
 - Health

Rabbish rahli sadri, wa yassirli amri, wahlul uqudatam

- Musa AS made this dua right after becoming a prophet.
- Allah responds to him, Ya Musa you have already gotten what you've asked and I have been providing for you all this time.
- Allah was there for him in every step of the way.
- Tusna'a meaning to perfect.

Lessons

- Cover your faults with generosity.
- When someone comes to you with a need, be more upset with not knowing they needed something than not being able to give it.

Surah Al A'raf (7:74) "And remember how He made you successors after Aad, and settled you in the land. You make for yourselves mansions on its plains, and carve out dwellings in the mountains. So remember Allah's benefits, and do not roam the earth corruptingly."

Surah Al A'raf (7:143) And when Moses came to Our appointment, and his Lord spoke to him, he said, "My Lord, allow me to look and see You." He said, "You will not see Me, but look at the mountain; if it stays in its place, you will see Me." But when his Lord manifested Himself to the mountain, He turned it into dust, and Moses fell down unconscious. Then, when he recovered, he said, "Glory be to you, I repent to you, and I am the first of the believers."

Surah Al A'raf (7:171) And when We suspended the mountain over them, as if it was an umbrella, and they thought it would fall on them: "Hold fast to what We have given you, and remember what it contains, so that you may be saved."

Surah Hud (11:43) He said, "I will take refuge on a mountain—it will protect me from the water." He said, "There is no protection from Allah's decree today, except for him on whom He has mercy." And the waves surged between them, and he was among the drowned.

Surah Ar Ra'ad (13:3) And it is He who spread the earth, and placed in it mountains and rivers. And He placed in it two kinds of every fruit. He causes the night to overlap the day. In that are signs for people who reflect.

Surah Ibrahim (14:31) Even if there were a Quran, by which mountains could be set in motion, or by which the earth could be shattered, or by which the dead could be made to speak. In fact, every decision rests with Allah. Did the believers not give up and realize that had Allah willed, He would have guided all humanity? Disasters will continue to strike those who disbelieve, because of their deeds, or they fall near their homes, until Allah's promise comes true. Allah never breaks a promise.

Surah Ibrahim (14:46) They planned their plans, but their plans are known to Allah, even if their plans can eliminate mountains.

Surah An Nahl (15:82) They used to carve homes in the mountains, feeling secure.

Surah An Nahl (16:15) And he cast mountains on the earth, lest it shifts with you; and rivers, and roads, so that you may be guided.

(16:68) And your Lord inspired the bee: "Set up hives in the mountains, and in the trees, and in what they construct.

(16:81) And Allah has made for you shade out of what He has created, and has given you resorts in the mountains, and has given you garments to protect you from the heat, and garments to protect you from your violence. Thus He completes His blessings upon you, so that you may submit.

(17:37) And do not walk proudly on earth. You can neither pierce the earth, nor can you match the mountains in height.

(18:47) On the Day when We set the mountains in motion; and you see the earth emerging; and We gather them together, and leave none of them behind.

(20:88-90) And they say, "The Most Merciful has begotten a son." 89. You have come up with something monstrous. 90. At which the heavens almost rupture, and the earth splits, and the mountains fall and crumble.

(20:105-107) And they ask you about the mountains. Say, "My Lord will crumble them utterly." 106. And leave them desolate waste. 107. You will see in them neither crookedness, nor deviation."

(21:79) And they ask you about the mountains. Say, "My Lord will crumble them utterly." 106. And leave them desolate waste. 107. You will see in them neither crookedness, nor deviation."

And so We made Solomon understand it, and to each We gave wisdom and knowledge. And We subjected the mountains along with David to sing Our praises, and the birds as well—surely We did.

(22:18) Do you not realize that to Allah prostrates everyone in the heavens and everyone on earth, and the sun, and the moon, and the stars, and the mountains, and the trees, and the animals, and many of the people? But many are justly deserving of punishment. Whomever Allah shames, there is none to honor him. Allah does whatever He wills.

(26:149) And you skillfully carve houses in the mountains?

(27:61) Or, who made the earth habitable, and made rivers flow through it, and set mountains on it, and placed a partition between the two seas? Is there another god with Allah? But most of them do not know.

(28:88) And you see the mountains, and imagine them fixed, yet they pass, as the passing of the clouds—the making of Allah, who has perfected everything. He is fully Informed of what you do.

(33:72) We offered the Trust to the heavens, and the earth, and the mountains; but they refused to bear it, and were apprehensive of it; but the human being accepted it. He was unfair and ignorant

(34:10) We bestowed upon David favor from Us: “O mountains, and birds: echo with him.” And We softened iron for him.

(35:27) Have you not seen that Allah sends down water from the sky? With it We produce fruits of various colors. And in the mountains are streaks of white and red—varying in their hue—and pitch-black

(38:18) We committed the mountains to glorify with him, in the evening and at daybreak.

(50:7) And the earth, how We spread it out, and set on it mountains, and grew in it all kinds of delightful pairs?

(52:9-10) On the Day when the heaven sways in agitation. And the mountains go into motion.

(56:4-6) When the earth is shaken with a shock. And the mountains are crushed and crumbled. And they become scattered dust.

(60:21) Had We sent this Quran down on a mountain, you would have seen it trembling, crumbling in awe of Allah. These parables We cite for the people, so that they may reflect.

(:13-14) Then, when the Trumpet is sounded a single time. 14. And the earth and the mountains are lifted up, and crushed, with a single crush.

(70:8-9) On the Day when the sky will be like molten brass. 9. And the mountains will be like tufted wool.

(73:14) On the Day when the earth and the mountains tremble, and the mountains become heaps of sand.

(77:8-10) When the stars are obliterated. 9. And the sky is fractured. 10. And the mountains are blown away

(77:25-27) Did We not make the earth a homestead? 26. For the living and the dead? 27. And set on it lofty mountains, and given you pure water to drink?

(78:6-7) Did We not make the earth a cradle? 7. And the mountains pegs?

(78:18-20) The Day when the Trumpet is blown, and you will come in droves. 19. And the sky is opened up, and becomes gateways. 20. And the mountains are set in motion, and become a mirage

(79:32) And the mountains, He anchored.

(81:3) When the mountains are set in motion.

(88:19) And at the mountains—how they are installed?

(101:5) And the mountains will be like tufted wool
