

Tafsir of Juz Amma with Sheikh Abdullah Waheed

Tafsir of Juz Amma

Teacher: SHEIKH ABDULLAH WAHEED
Miftaah Seekers Fall Semester 25-26

Context

Context: Things to Know about Juz Amma

Date Covered: 8/27 @ 0950

- Goal of the Juz
 - To solidify faith
- Meaning of the Name Amma (أَمَّا)
 - The Word “Amma” (أَمَّا) is actually “An’ma” but is combined in Arabic for ease of pronunciation and meaning.
 - The presence of the shaddah over the noon adds extra emphasis.
 - It implies that the disbelievers are asking questions, and these questions have a negative undertone. They are trying to challenge or disprove the Prophet’s message.
- Short and Direct
 - Because it contains the most memorized and recited surahs they are also generally shorter, straightforward, and akhira-focused.
 - Contrast with other Juz: The simplicity of these surahs contrasts with longer, more complex ones that contain detailed rules and legislation.
- Makki Timing
 - These surahs are typically Makki (revealed before the Hijrah)
 - Signs of Makki Surah
 - Short verses
 - Short surah
 - Akhirah
 - The DOJ
 - Adam/Iblis
- Importance of Grammar and Nuance
 - These surahs are often grammatically complex.
 - Untranslatable Eloquence
 - The deeper meanings of words can be hard to translate, and the eloquence of the language served as a powerful tool for convincing the early audience of Islam.
- Chapters are Connected
 - Surahs in the Qur’an are interconnected, often referencing or complementing one another.
 - Thematic Patterns: Some surahs will first discuss the disbelievers and punishment (like Surah Al-Waqi’ah, which discusses the disbelievers and hellfire first, followed by mercy), while others, like Surah Ar-Rahman, flip this pattern by starting with mercy.

78 | Surah An Naba

78 | Surah An Naba

SHEIKH ABDULLAH WAHEED

Period of Revelation: Makkan

Surah Number: 78 Number of Ayahs: 40

Themes and Subject Matter:

- Blessings from Allah
- Events on the Day of Judgement
- Fate of the wrongdoers
- Fate of the God-conscious

Background and Context

- Connection to Surah Al-Mursalat (The Winds) and Surah An-Nazi'at (The Snatch)
 - Mursalat is a conversation which continues into Surah Naba. It focuses on two categories of people
 - Deniers/disbelievers
 - The righteous/believers
 - "Woe to the liars" is repeated in Surah Naba

Ayah 1-5 (Disbelievers)

Ayah 1

عَمَّ يَتَسَاءَلُونَ

About what are they asking one another?

- This opening grabs the listener's attention – a question that provokes thought.
- The disbelievers of Mecca were mocking and disputing the Prophet ﷺ about his message.
- The Qur'an starts the surah with a tone of astonishment and challenge.

Types of Questioners:

1. Disbelievers – asking to disprove and reject the Prophet ﷺ.
2. Believers – asking sincerely to know and understand.
3. The curious – asking for clarification and meaning.

These three types represent the three spiritual states of people toward the truth: denial, faith, and curiosity.

عَنِ النَّبَاِ الْعَظِيمِ

About the great news—

- Naba (نَبَأٌ) = Great news, momentous information, undeniable truth.
- Difference between Naba and Akhbar:
 - Akhbar (أَخْبَارٌ): regular news, everyday information.
 - Naba (نَبَأٌ): something massive, certain, and significant, impossible to ignore.
- The “great news” here refers to the Day of Judgment and the Hereafter.

الَّذِي هُمْ فِيهِ مُخْتَلِفُونَ

That over which they are in disagreement.

- The disbelievers were divided – some denying resurrection, others mocking it.
- The Qur'an exposes this inconsistency in their disbelief.
- Reflection: Truth is one, but falsehood always brings disagreement and confusion.

كَلَّا سَيَعْلَمُونَ

No! They are going to know.

- Kalla (كَلَّا) = a firm rejection – “Absolutely not!”
- Allah denies their claims and warns them of the consequences.
- This is the first warning – a serious tone that refutes their mockery.

ثُمَّ كَلَّا سَيَعْلَمُونَ

Then, no! They are going to know.

- The repetition is for emphasis – the warning is doubled.
- First “they will know” refers to the moment of death.
- Second “they will know” refers to the Day of Judgment.
- The repetition shows certainty and layers of realization – that truth will unfold step by step.
- The surah's theme of “knowing” appears twice, mirroring the cycle of life, death, and awakening.
- The repetition symbolizes that awareness comes in stages – some only know the truth when it's too late.

Ayah 6-16 (Creation)

أَلَمْ نَجْعَلِ الْأَرْضَ مِهَادًا

Have We not made the earth a resting place?

Key notes:

- Mihād (مِهَاد) = bed, resting place; from mahhada, meaning to smooth out or prepare.
 - Allah reminds of His favours: the earth is not chaotic but perfectly prepared for human life.
 - Spiritual reflection: “May Allah make us soft like earth that is easily watered into plants.”
 - The earth is both a resting place and a source of benefit – home, food, stability.

Ayah 7

وَالْجِبَالِ أَوْتَادًا

And the mountains as pegs?

Key notes:

- Awtaad (أَوْتَاد) = stakes or pegs – mountains stabilize the earth like pegs secure a tent.
- The Arabs were surrounded by mountains; Allah pointed to signs they saw daily.
- Spiritual reflection:
 - Connecting with nature is a form of remembering Allah’s power.

- Even mountains humble the soul, reminding us of our smallness.
 - Physical meaning: Mountains balance tectonic pressure – a scientific truth hinted in revelation.

Ayah 8

وَخَلَقْنَاكُمْ أَزْوَاجًا

And created you in pairs?

Key notes:

- Azwaj (أَزْوَاجًا) = pairs, opposites.
 - Everything is created in pairs – male and female, day and night, life and death.
 - Reflects divine balance and purposeful design.
 - The first animal mentioned in the Qur'an – the crow – also existed in pairs.
 - Reflection: Creation in pairs teaches completion through balance, not competition.

Ayah 9

وَجَعَلْنَا نَوْمَكُمْ سُبَاتًا

And made your sleep [a means for] rest?

Key notes:

- Subāt (سُبَات) = rest, disconnection; related to "Sabbath."

- Sleep is a divine mercy and a spiritual reset.
 - Holistic reflection:
 - Sleep is a healing act – both physical and spiritual.
 - Adhkār before sleeping remove anxiety and bring peace.
 - Qur’anic parallel: “And one of His signs is your sleep by night and by day...”

Ayah 10

وَجَعَلْنَا اللَّيْلَ لِبَاسًا

And made the night as a covering?

Key notes:

- Libās (لباس) = covering or garment.
- The night covers everything – offering privacy, stillness, and recovery.
- Practical reflection: Working against this natural rhythm (e.g., staying up all night) harms the body.
- Sunnah guidance: Sleep early, rise early – the Prophet ﷺ loved the early morning for its barakah (blessing).

Ayah 11

وَجَعَلْنَا النَّهَارَ مَعَاشًا

And made the day for livelihood?

Key notes:

- Ma’āsh (مَعَاش) = livelihood, work, or activity.

- The day is designed for movement, productivity, and provision.
 - Peak barakah: 4 AM – 10 AM – early morning hours have the greatest blessing.
 - Prophetic lifestyle: The Prophet ﷺ and the Sahabah valued early mornings for their barakah.
 - Reflection: Even non-Muslims recognize the benefit of early productivity.
 - Qur'anic wisdom: "In the alternation of the day and night are signs for those who reflect."
 - The alternation teaches balance – time to work, and time to rest.

Ayah 12

وَبَنَيْنَا فَوْقَكُمْ سَبْعًا شِدَادًا

And built above you seven strong [heavens]?

Key notes:

- Sab'an shidād (سَبْعًا شِدَادًا) = seven strong, firm layers.
- Shidād from shiddah = strong, powerful, well-built.
- The sky is a masterpiece of balance and structure, serving as both protection and beauty.
- The seven heavens point to the vastness of creation and Allah's precision.
- Reflection: Looking upward humbles the heart – a reminder that the Creator's greatness is above all imagination.

- Cross-reference: Surah Mulk – “He created seven heavens in layers. You see no fault in the creation of the Most Merciful.”

Ayah 13

وَجَعَلْنَا سِرَاجًا وَهَّاجًا

And made [therein] a burning lamp?

Key notes:

- Sirāj (سِرَاج) = lamp; Wahhāj (وَهَّاج) = blazing, radiating, intensely bright – referring to the sun.
 - The sun is both a source of light and a means of life.
 - Wisdom:
 - Salah times are determined by the sun's position.
 - The lunar calendar governs Islamic months – the moon organizes worship.
 - Balance in the universe: Sun = light and direction; Moon = time and reflection.
 - Reflection: Early Muslims were experts in astronomy, using celestial patterns for worship, not superstition.
 - Warning: Believing stars or planets control destiny is kufr (disbelief), though studying them as signs of Allah is an act of ibadah (worship).

Ayah 14

وَأَنْزَلْنَا مِنَ الْمُعْصِرَاتِ مَاءً ثَجَّاجًا

And sent down from the rain clouds pouring water?

Key notes:

- Mu'ṣirāt (مُعْصِرَات) = clouds full and ready to rain.
 - Thajjāj (ثَجَّاج) = pouring abundantly, continuously.
 - The rain cycle: Earth → evaporation → clouds → rain → life → earth again – a sign of divine order.
 - Thajj (ثَجَّ) = to pour with sound – thunder is part of that imagery.
 - Reflection:
 - Rain is both mercy and power – a display of Allah's might.
 - The loudness of thajjāj connects to the cries of Hajj, where millions loudly chant “Labbayk Allahumma Labbayk.”
 - It shows that nature's worship and human worship mirror one another in intensity.

Ayah 15

لَنُخْرِجَ بِهِ حَبًّا وَنَبَاتًا

That We may bring forth thereby grain and vegetation.

Key notes:

- Purpose of rain: not random – a means of life.
- Habban (حَبًّا) = grain (sustenance); Nabātan (نَبَاتًا) = plant life.
- Every drop has a purpose – Allah's mercy in tangible form.

- Spiritual reflection: Just as rain revives the earth, revelation revives hearts.
 - The alternation of dryness and rain reflects the rise and fall of faith.

Ayah 16

وَجَنَّاتٍ أَلْفَافًا

And gardens of entwined growth.

Key notes:

- Jannāt (جَنَّاتٍ) = gardens; Alfāf (أَلْفَافًا) = dense, intertwined, lush growth.
 - Root of Jannah: Janna = to hide – related to Jinn (hidden beings), Junūn (madness), and Janeen (fetus).
 - The imagery shows thick, rich, hidden beauty – lush gardens that protect and conceal.
 - Reflection:
 - “Garden” symbolizes comfort, privacy, and peace.
 - The Qur’an’s garden imagery is spiritual, not just material.
 - Allah wants believers to visualize the Jannah-like state in both heart and home.
 - Historical reflection: Al-Andalus (Muslim Spain) showed this – earthly gardens that mirrored paradise.

Thematic Reflection on Ayahs 6–16

Divine Preparation:

- Allah reminds humanity that every blessing – earth, mountains, sleep, day, night, rain, and vegetation – is purposefully created.

Natural Signs:

- Creation itself is a clear proof of the Creator's power and mercy.

Balance and Wisdom:

- The alternation of night/day, rain/sun, and rest/work shows Allah's perfect balance.

Spiritual Connection:

- True believers worship through reflection – seeing Allah's greatness in the design of nature.

Practical Guidance:

- Live in sync with divine rhythms – work by day, rest by night, rise for prayer before dawn.

Royal Plural "We":

- When Allah says "We", it reflects His Majesty and Power, often referring to His command through the angels in acts of creation.

Ayah 17-20 (DOJ)

Ayah 17

إِنَّ يَوْمَ الْفُصْلِ كَانَ مِيقَاتًا

Indeed, the Day of Judgement is an appointed time.

Key notes:

- Yawm al-Fasl (يَوْمَ الْفُصْلِ) = the Day of Separation – the day Allah divides truth from falsehood, believers from disbelievers.
 - Miqat (مِيقَاتًا) = appointed, fixed time – not random, but precisely decreed.
 - On that day, no injustice will exist.
 - Reflection:
 - The word Faṣl implies clarity and finality – every hidden matter will be exposed and judged.
 - Shafā'ah (intercession) will occur, but only with Allah's permission.
 - It is the day when justice, mercy, and truth meet perfectly.

Ayah 18

يَوْمَ يُنْفَخُ فِي الصُّورِ فَتَأْتُونَ أَفْوَاجًا

The Day the Horn is blown and you will come forth in multitudes.

Key notes:

- As-Ṣūr (الصُّور) = the trumpet or horn of resurrection, blown by Angel Isrāfīl.
- Afwāj (أَفْوَاجًا) = crowds, groups, nations – people will rise from graves in massive waves.

- Hadith: Some will rise with honor and beauty, others disfigured, reflecting their deeds.
 - Surah Maryam (19:68): “We will gather the criminals on their knees.”
 - Reflection:
 - The scene is chaotic yet perfectly organized – each soul summoned to its destiny.
 - Jahannam is described like an ocean, layered with rings and categories:
 - Backbiters
 - Eaters of haram
 - Hypocritical scholars
 - The arrogant
 - It is truly the Day of Separation (Yawm al-Faṣl).

Ayah 19

وَفُتِحَتِ السَّمَاءُ فَكَانَتْ أَبْوَابًا

And the heaven is opened and will become gateways.

Key notes:

- The sky will split open, revealing gates and realms unseen.
- Every gate has guards and angels assigned – as seen during the Isra’ and Mi’raj of the Prophet ﷺ.
- Reflection:

- The sky that once protected humanity will now unveil divine power.
 - The opening of the heavens symbolizes the transition from the unseen to the seen – the ultimate unveiling.

Ayah 20

وَسُيِّرَتِ الْجِبَالُ فَكَانَتْ سَرَابًا

And the mountains are removed and will be [but] a mirage.

Key notes:

- Suyyirat (سُيِّرَتِ) = moved, set in motion; Sarāb (سَرَابًا) = mirage, illusion.
- The mountains, once symbols of strength and permanence, will vanish like dust in sunlight.
- Reflection:
 - The image humbles humanity – what we see as immovable is, in truth, fragile before Allah's will.
 - The destruction of the world is not chaos – it is Allah's deliberate act of renewal.
- Just as mountains once stabilized the earth, their removal will mark the end of worldly stability.

Ayah 21-30 (Jahannam)

Description of Jahannam

Ayah 21

إِنَّ جَهَنَّمَ كَانَتْ مِرْصَادًا

Indeed, Hell has been lying in ambush.

Key notes:

- Mirṣād (مِرْصَادًا) = a watchpost, ambush, or waiting trap.
 - Jahannam is described as waiting, not chasing – it is set in position, and those destined for it will fall into it themselves.
 - Reflection:
 - The imagery implies certainty – the punishment is not random; it is prepared, patient, and just.
 - Hell “lying in ambush” reflects that sins themselves lead one to it – no one ends there by mistake.

Ayah 22

لِلطَّاغِينَ مَأْبًا

For the transgressors, a place of return.

Key notes:

- Ṭāghīn (الطَّاغِينَ) = the rebellious, arrogant, those who cross limits.
- Ma’āb (مَأْبًا) = final home or place of return.
- Reflection:

- The same word (Ma'āb) is used for Jannah, showing that everyone returns – either to eternal peace or eternal regret.
- The disbelievers' "return" to Hell exposes the irony – they spent their lives fleeing remembrance, yet end up exactly where they were warned of.

Ayah 23

لَا يَشِينُ فِيهَا أَحْقَابًا

They will remain therein for ages.

Key notes:

- Lābithīn (لَا يَشِينُ) = remaining, staying.
- Aḥqāb (أَحْقَابًا) = long spans of time – periods upon periods; countless eras.
- Some scholars say: each ḥuqb = 80 years, each year = 360 days, each day = 1000 years (in Allah's measurement).
- Reflection:
 - Though it sounds temporary, it actually implies unending waves of punishment.
 - In other places, the Qur'an says clearly: "They will never exit it."
 - Lesson: Arrogance in this world leads to lifetimes of humiliation in the next.

Ayah 24

لَا يَذُوقُونَ فِيهَا بَرْدًا وَلَا شَرَابًا

They will not taste therein [any] coolness or drink.

Key notes:

- Bardan (بَرْدًا) = coolness, comfort, relief.
 - Sharāban (شَرَابًا) = drink.
 - Reflection:
 - In dunya, cold and water bring soothing relief – in Jahannam, neither exists.
 - The verse uses “taste” instead of “have,” emphasizing that even a trace of relief will be denied.
 - The torment is both physical (heat, thirst) and psychological (hopelessness).

Ayah 25

إِلَّا حَمِيمًا وَغَسَّاقًا

Except scalding water and pus.

Key notes:

- Ḥamīm (حَمِيمًا) = boiling water, so hot it peels skin.
- Ghassāq (غَسَّاقًا) = pus, filth, fluid from wounds – the worst imaginable substance.
- Hadith: The Prophet ﷺ said its smell alone could overwhelm the inhabitants of the world if exposed.
- Reflection:
 - What people drink for pleasure in this world becomes their punishment there.

- The contrast between dunya's luxuries and Jahannam's torments exposes the true worth of arrogance.

Ayah 26

جَزَاءٌ وَفَاقًا

A fitting recompense.

Key notes:

- Wifāq (وَفَاقًا) = fully matching, proportionate.
 - Their punishment fits their crimes – no exaggeration, no injustice.
 - Reflection:
 - Allah's justice is perfect symmetry: the liar faces lying environments, the oppressor experiences oppression.
 - Each person's deeds shape their afterlife – Jannah and Jahannam are reflections of one's actions.

Ayah 27

إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا لَا يَرْجُونَ حِسَابًا

Indeed, they were not expecting an account.

Key notes:

- Lā yarjūna ḥisāban (لَا يَرْجُونَ حِسَابًا) = they didn't anticipate accountability.
- Their sin was heedlessness, not ignorance.
- Reflection:

- Many people believe in Allah but live without expecting judgment — this is a subtle form of kufr.
 - The Qur'an repeatedly warns that arrogant denial begins with neglecting accountability.

Ayah 28

وَكَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا كِذَّابًا

And denied Our verses with [emphatic] denial.

Key notes:

- Kadhdhabū (كَذَّبُوا) = to deny repeatedly and arrogantly.
 - Kidhābā (كِذَّابًا) = intensive — not mere doubt, but mocking rejection.
 - Reflection:
 - Denial wasn't intellectual — it was moral rebellion.
 - They knew, but chose arrogance over truth.
 - Kidhābā captures the tone of defiance — denial repeated until the heart sealed.

Ayah 29

وَكُلَّ شَيْءٍ أَحْصَيْنَاهُ كِتَابًا

But all things We have enumerated in writing.

Key notes:

- Aḥṣaynāhu (أَحْصَيْنَاهُ) = We have counted, recorded in detail.

- Kitābā (كِتَابًا) = written record – the Book of Deeds.
- Reflection:
 - Nothing escapes Allah’s record – every action, word, and intention is documented.
 - The verse instills awe and accountability:

“Not a word does a person utter except that an angel is recording it.”

- It’s a reminder to live consciously – every moment is written.

Ayah 30

فَذُوقُوا فَلَنْ نَّزِيدَكُمْ إِلَّا عَذَابًا

So taste [the penalty], and We will not increase you except in torment.

Key notes:

- “Taste” = used instead of “suffer” – implying they will continuously sense it, not grow numb.
- The punishment intensifies without end.
- Hadith: “The inhabitants of Hell will neither die nor live.”
- Reflection:
 - Ultimate humiliation – no mercy, no death, no relief.
 - The language is sharp, final, and irreversible, marking the complete loss of hope.

- The Qur'an's shift from third person ("they") to direct address ("taste") intensifies the rebuke – as if they are standing before Allah Himself.

Ayah 31-40 (Jannah)

Description of Jannah

Ayah 31

إِنَّ لِلْمُتَّقِينَ مَفَازًا

Indeed, for the righteous is attainment.

Key notes:

- Muttaqīn (الْمُتَّقِينَ) = those who are mindful of Allah, aware, self-restrained.
 - Mafāz (مَفَازًا) = success, triumph, or a place of safety – from fawz (victory).
 - Reflection:
 - The word itself implies escaping danger and reaching peace.
 - Taqwa doesn't mean perfection – it means consciousness of Allah guiding one's choices.
 - Success in the Qur'an is not defined by wealth or status but by purity of heart and consistency in obedience.

Ayah 32

حَدَائِقِ وَأَعْنَابًا

Gardens and grapevines.

Key notes:

- Ḥadā'iq (حَدَائِقِ) = enclosed, lush gardens.
- A'nāb (أَعْنَابًا) = grapevines – a symbol of luxury, sweetness, and satisfaction.
- Reflection:

- Grapes in Arabia were rare and highly valued; their mention represents pure joy and honor.
 - In contrast to the torment of Hell, Jannah's imagery is soft, refreshing, and abundant.
 - The repetition of natural beauty in Jannah shows how the body and soul both find rest.

Ayah 33

وَكَوَاعِبَ أُنْرَابًا

And full-breasted [companions] of equal age.

Key notes:

- Kawā'ib (كَوَاعِبَ) = youthful companions with elegance and vitality.
 - Atrāb (أُنْرَابًا) = equal in age – meaning perfect companionship, no jealousy or imbalance.
 - Reflection:
 - Jannah represents emotional perfection, not merely physical reward.
 - Companionship there is balanced, pure, and eternal, unlike worldly relationships bound by ego or time.
 - Linguistic beauty: The pairing of kawā'ib and atrāb conveys harmony – beauty matched with equality.

Ayah 34

وَكَأْسًا بِهَاقًا

And a full cup [of wine].

Key notes:

- Ka's (كَأْسًا) = a cup filled with drink (used only when the cup contains something).
 - Dihāq (دِهَاقًا) = filled to the brim, overflowing, plentiful.
 - Reflection:
 - The drink of Jannah symbolizes complete satisfaction – no sin, no loss of control.
 - Unlike worldly intoxication, this “wine” brings clarity, peace, and joy.
 - Contrast: The disbelievers’ drink was ḥamīm (boiling water), while the believers’ is overflowing with beauty and delight.

Ayah 35

لَا يَسْمَعُونَ فِيهَا لَغْوًا وَلَا كِدًّا

No ill speech will they hear therein or any falsehood.

Key notes:

- Laghu (لَغْوًا) = useless, vain, or hurtful talk.
- Kidhāb (كِدًّا) = lies, insults, or denial.
- Reflection:
 - Jannah’s peace is mental and emotional, not only physical.
 - In dunya, conversations often wound the heart – in Jannah, every word heals.
 - No arguments, mockery, or gossip – only words of peace and remembrance.

- “They will only hear: Peace, peace.” – Qur’an 56:26

Ayah 36

جَزَاءٌ مِّن رَّبِّكَ عَطَاءٌ حِسَابًا

A reward from your Lord, [an ample] gift [made due by] account.

Key notes:

- Jazā’an (جَزَاءٌ) = recompense, earned reward.
 - ‘Atā’an (عَطَاءٌ) = generous gift, favor beyond measure.
 - Hisābā (حِسَابًا) = in full account – precisely, completely, fairly.
 - Reflection:
 - The duality – earned (jazā’) and gifted (‘atā’) – reflects both justice and mercy.
 - The believer’s efforts don’t earn Jannah by merit alone; Allah gives it out of His love.
 - The verse captures the beauty of divine generosity: reward far beyond what was deserved.

Ayah 37

رَبِّ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا الرَّحْمَنُ لَا يَمْلِكُونَ مِنْهُ خِطَابًا

From the Lord of the heavens and the earth and whatever is between them, the Most Merciful – they possess not from Him [authority for] speech.

Key notes:

- Ar-Raḥmān (الرَّحْمَنُ) = The Most Merciful – emphasizing His mercy even as judgment unfolds.
 - Lā yamlikūna minhu khitābā (لَا يَمْلِكُونَ مِنْهُ خِطَابًا) = none can speak before Him – total silence and submission.
 - Reflection:
 - On that Day, even the tongue that once argued will be silent in awe.
 - Speech belongs to Allah alone, the true Judge.
 - Mercy and Majesty meet: The One whose mercy filled the world now displays His full authority.

Ayah 38

يَوْمَ يَقُومُ الرُّوحُ وَالْمَلَائِكَةُ صَفًّا لَا يَتَكَلَّمُونَ إِلَّا مَنْ أَذِنَ لَهُ الرَّحْمَنُ وَقَالَ صَوَابًا

The Day that the Spirit and the angels will stand in rows; they will not speak except for one whom the Most Merciful permits, and he will say what is correct.

Key notes:

- Ar-Rūḥ (الرُّوحُ) = often interpreted as Jibrīl (Gabriel) or the soul itself.
- Ṣaffan (صَفًّا) = in perfect rows – symbolizing discipline and awe.
- Ṣawābā (صَوَابًا) = truth, correctness.
- Reflection:
 - Even angels will not speak – showing the magnitude of the Day.
 - The only ones who speak will do so with divine permission and truth.

- This verse beautifully balances fear and dignity – silence of the angels, yet permission for truth to be honored.

Ayah 39

ذُلِكَ الْيَوْمُ الْحَقُّ فَمَنْ شَاءَ اتَّخَذْ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِ مَآبًا

That is the True Day; so whoever wills may take to his Lord a [way of] return.

Key notes:

- Al-Yawm al-Haqq (الْيَوْمُ الْحَقُّ) = the Real Day – the only true, undeniable reality.
 - Ma'āb (مَآبًا) = path or destination of return.
 - Reflection:
 - Every worldly illusion – power, pleasure, pride – fades in the face of this truth.
 - The verse is both warning and invitation – it affirms responsibility yet opens a path back to Allah.
 - Tone shift: From description to direct moral appeal – a call to repentance and choice.

Ayah 40

إِنَّا أَنْذَرْنَاكُمْ عَذَابًا قَرِيبًا يَوْمَ يَنْظُرُ الْمَرْءُ مَا قَدَّمَتْ يَدَاهُ وَيَقُولُ الْكَافِرُ يَا لَيْتَنِي كُنْتُ تُرَابًا

Indeed, We have warned you of a near punishment on the Day when a man will observe what his hands have put forth, and the disbeliever will say, "Oh, I wish I were dust!"

Key notes:

- 'Adhāban qarīban (عَذَابًا قَرِيبًا) = near punishment – both near in time and unavoidable.
 - Mā qaddamat yadāh (مَا قَدَّمَتْ يَدَاهُ) = what his hands sent forth – his deeds.
 - Reflection:
 - "Near punishment" includes both the trials of dunya and the final reckoning.
 - The disbeliever's final wish – "I wish I were dust" – reflects absolute regret and envy of the animals who are turned to dust after judgment.
 - Thematic closure: The surah began with mockery of the Hereafter ("Amma yatasa'alūn") and ends with that same disbelief crushed by truth.
 - Moral: Every deed returns to its doer – either as light or as fire.

Closing Reflection

- Surah An-Naba begins with the arrogant questioning of the disbelievers and ends with their hopeless regret.
- Between these two points lies a complete map of creation, resurrection, accountability, punishment, and reward.
- It calls believers to:
 - Reflect on the signs in creation.
 - Trust in divine justice.
 - Return to Allah before the "near punishment" arrives.

- The surah's tone moves from curiosity → warning → awe → silence → realization – a spiritual progression mirroring the journey of belief.
- Final message:
 - The question "What are they asking about?" ends with the clear answer – the Day of Decision is coming.
 - And Allah alone knows the reality of what we have prepared for it.

79 | Surah An-Naziat

79 | Surah An-Naziat

Period of Revelation: Makkan

Surah Number: 79

Number of Ayahs: 46

Themes and Subject Matter:

Characteristics of angels

Events on the Day of Resurrection

Story of Prophet Musa and Firaun

Allah's Power

The fate of the wrong doers and those who fear Allah

The role of the Prophet

Background

- This surah has 79 ayat. And its correlation with surrounding surahs is its expression of Qiyamah.
- In this surah is the last time Musa AS is mentioned. If it started in Baqara it ends here (though his name is mentioned again)
- The statement of how a kaafir dies is mentioned in this surah.

Ayah 1-5 (Angels)

Passage 1: The Angels (Ayah 1–5)

Ayah 1

Arabic: وَالنَّازِعَاتِ غَرْقًا

Translation: By those [angels] who extract [souls] with violence.

Key Words:

- Nazah: to snatch or pull forcefully, e.g., pulling cotton from a plant
- Gharqa: to drown
- Malaika: angels (feminine form)
- Tafsir: The angels pull the souls of the disbelievers with force, performing a “deep dive” into the body. Allah swears by these angels, showing their importance
- Reflection: The oath “wal” emphasizes the seriousness of the Day of Judgment.

Ayah 2

Arabic: وَالنَّاشِطَاتِ نَسْطًا

Translation: And those who remove [the souls of the believers] gently.

Key Words:

- Nashi: loosening knots softly, gentle pulling
 - Nashata: to loosen ropes tied to camels
Tafsir:
The angels gently extract the souls of believers from the bottom up. Pious people emit a pleasant fragrance at death.
Reflection:
Patience and care are required to loosen knots gently—likewise, angels gently release souls of the believers.

Ayah 3

Arabic: وَالسَّائِحَاتِ سَبْحًا

Translation: And those who glide [through the heavens] swiftly.

Tafsir:

The angels move smoothly and continuously, like swimming, symbolizing constant effort in the deen.

Reflection:

The angels follow designated heavenly paths (abwab) that humans cannot fully perceive. Their motion is swift and smooth, symbolizing effortless ascension.

Ayah 4

Arabic: فَالْمُسَابِقَاتِ سَبْقًا

Translation: And those who race each other [in performing Allah's commands].

Key Words:

- Sabiqat: racing

Tafsir:

Angels race to take the souls of believers to Jannah or record their deeds. Even small extra praises in salah are noticed quickly.

Reflection:

Some good deeds have specific rewards, such as:

- Performing wudhu in difficulty
 - Waiting between Asr and Maghrib in the masjid
 - Steps taken towards the masjid

Ayah 5

Arabic: فَالْمُدَبِّرَاتِ أَمْرًا

Translation: And those who arrange [each] matter.

Tafsir:

Angels are assigned tasks to ensure events occur according to Allah's decree

(Taqdeer).

Four Angels in Charge (per Abdurrahman ibn Abbat):

- Jibril: armies and wind
- Israfeel: blowing the trumpet
- Mikaeel: sustenance
- Malak al-Mawt: taking souls

Reflection:

The oath “wal” emphasizes the importance of the Day of Judgment and the angels’ roles in carrying it out.

Ayah 6-14 (DOJ: Physical)

Passage 2: The Day of Judgment (Ayahs 6-14)

Ayah 6 – يوم ترجف الراجفة

Translation: On the Day the blast [of the Horn] will convulse [creation].

Tafsir:

- Allah responds to the oaths of the first passage by describing the consequence.
- Similar to Surah Mursalat, where Allah swears and then describes the outcome.
- Deliberate vagueness creates suspense – part of the Quran's eloquence.

Meaning of Words:

- Rajifa – shaking or rattling, symbolizing the blast of the horn.
- The horn isn't mentioned directly but implied.
- Other Quranic words for shaking: Zalزالah (slipping or loss of balance), Dhamdhama (pounding like heartbeat), Rajja (sudden quick shake).

Reflection:

- Verb + similar noun (e.g., rajifa) adds weight and intensity, implying consecutive quakes.

Ayah 7 – تتبعها الرادفة

Translation: Followed by the subsequent [one].

Tafsir:

- Tabi'a – to follow or come after.
 - Two trumpet blows:
 1. End of creation
 2. Resurrection
 - Radifa – moving along with, like how jinn follow humans.

Ayah 8 – قلوب يومئذ واجفة

Translation: Hearts that day will tremble.

Tafsir:

- Waja – startled reaction, sudden fear (reactionary fear).
 - Types of fear in Arabic explained separately (see below).

Ayah 9 – أبصارها خاشعة

Translation: Their eyes humbled.

Tafsir:

- Raw – to startle someone; appears only once in Quran.
- Additional words for fear and nuanced emotions listed separately.

Reflection:

- Modern society desensitized to fear; technology and gossip heighten worry.

Ayah 10 – يقولون أننا لمردودون في الحافة

Translation: They say, "Will we indeed be returned to our former state?"

Tafsir:

- Hafira – return to a previous state; root word = "to dig."
 - Disbelievers mock the resurrection, asking if they will emerge from their graves.

أإذا كنا عظاما نخرة – Ayah 11

Translation: Even after we have become decayed bones?

Tafsir:

- Karra – return; Nakhira – decayed.
 - Mockery of resurrection resembles modern-day atheists' sarcasm.

قالوا تلك إذا كرة خاسرة – Ayah 12

Translation: They say, "Then that would be a losing return indeed."

Tafsir:

- Their sarcasm continues.
 - Humanity will be gathered back with one loud sound, like animals responding to a call.

فإنما هي زجرة واحدة – Ayah 13

Translation: Then indeed, it will be but one shout.

Tafsir:

- Arabs were fluent with animal noises; Zajra connotes a purposeful sound recognized for its source.
 - This is the sound of the second trumpet; everyone rises from graves.

Ayah 14 – فإذا هم بالساهرة

Translation: And at once they will be on the open earth.

Tafsir:

- Zajra – desperate shout when one has lost sanity.
 - Sahira – sleeplessness, being awake all night.
 - Describes people suddenly standing on earth on that Day.
 - Can mean:
 1. Earth – where they will stand
 2. Sleeplessness
 3. Sahara – desert, combining both meanings

Types of Fear (12 Words)

1. Khawf – physical fear of danger (e.g., people in Gaza)
2. Khashiya – fear based on knowledge and reverence, leading to action
3. Khushoo – fear that manifests physically (stillness, submission)
4. Taqwa – protective fear from consequences of one's actions

5. Hadar – fear of being exposed (hypocrites' fear)
6. Fadiha – exposure or humiliation (Surah Tawbah also called Fadiha)
7. Waja – startled reaction, sudden fear (reactionary fear)
8. Wajas – hidden fear upon hearing frightening news
9. Wajal / Wajila – deep trembling fear from within the heart
10. Rahab – anxious alertness (like before exams)
11. Ruub – fear so strong it removes reason (e.g., in dua against oppressors)
12. Shafaq / Ashfaqa – fear rooted in love (like a mother's fear for her child)

Context: Musa and Firaun

Context of Musa AS and Firaun (Before Starting Passage 3)

Time Stamp: Oct 1st at 11:45

- Partial Revelation of Musa's Story: Allah says He will reveal only part of the story (Surah Al-Qasas 28:3-4), emphasizing lessons rather than complete historical detail.
- Oppressors' Strategy – Divide and Conquer: Firaun instilled fear so deeply that even mothers handed over their sons, showing the power of oppression. Allah wanted to help the people of Yaqub (Bani Israel) (Surah Al-Qasas 28:4-5). This story is relevant to every oppressor to come, whether Muslim or non-Muslim, showing patterns repeated throughout history.
- Hadatha and Qadim – News and Memory: Hadatha means "to speak" (new), and qadim means "old." Even old news becomes new when fresh events occur. For the reciter of the Quran, Musa's story is always fresh (Surah Al-Qasas 28:3).
- Quraish's Ignorance: The attitude of Quraish was as if they had never heard the story of Firaun.
- Firaun's Arrogance and Qarun: Firaun claimed he was divine and sarcastically demanded a tower to see Musa's god. His treasurer, Qarun, shared his arrogance (Surah Al-Qasas 28:38-39, tafsir Ibn Kathir).
- Egyptian Magic and Sihr: Egypt was famous for magic; Firaun employed magicians, nearly 70,000 according to tafsir. Sihr is the play of illusion by Shaytan. The magicians conjured a snake so big its mouth could reach the palace roof (Surah Al-A'raf 7:113-126).
- Takhayul – Perception: The magicians initially saw Musa's miracles as magic, illustrating the difference between human perception and divine reality.
- Miracles by Divine Permission: Prophets manifest miracles only through Allah's will (bi idhnillah), not their own power (Surah Al-A'raf 7:107).
- Mass Conversion of Magicians: Many magicians chose faith after witnessing Musa's miracles, enraging Firaun (Surah Al-A'raf 7:119-123).
- Miracles During Pursuit: Musa manifested miracles while Firaun pursued them, including striking rocks to produce rivers.
- Challenges of Sustaining Faith: After Firaun's destruction, Bani Israel began worshipping cows. Becoming Muslim is one thing; staying consistently Muslim requires tarbiya (training) (Surah Al-Baqarah 2:51, Surah Al-A'raf 7:148-150).

- People of Bani Israel: They were very difficult to deal with, illustrating why spiritual training and repeated guidance are essential.
- Prophetic Miracles Countering Fitna: Every prophet's miracle addressed their people's trial: Yusuf – beauty; Daud & Suleiman – kingdom; Isa – medicine; Musa – magic; Muhammad ﷺ – Quran against idolatry and poetry. Miracles are not by prophets' free will; Allah allows them as He wills (Surah Al-A'raf 7:107).
- Ordinary Miracles: Human bodies and natural phenomena are miraculous. To believers, miracles are normal, but they demonstrate Allah's power (Kun Faya Kun).
- Communal Lessons: Communities follow patterns; veils of modesty and decency can be ruined if previous mistakes are repeated. Musa and Firaun serve as key examples.
- Timing of God: Musa's story highlights divine timing. His journey to Madyan, meeting Shuaib's daughters seeking water, and eventual training were all divinely orchestrated (Surah Al-Qasas 28:22-28).
- Musa in Madyan: Musa helped Shuaib's daughters, praised for strength and honesty. Walking ahead so he did not see their backs preserved modesty.
- Service to Shuaib – Tarbiya: Musa served Shuaib for 10 years without knowing he was a prophet, learning patience and moral leadership.
- Shepherding as Training: Prophets were shepherds to develop responsibility. Musa learned to control anger, as when a goat broke its leg. His anger transformed into mercy (rahma), preparing him for leadership (tafsir).
- Musa's Anger and Prophethood: Musa struggled with anger, including confronting Harun over cow worship. Allah granted prophecy only after Musa had moral readiness. Even confronting Firaun, he was commanded to be soft (Surah Taha 20:44).
- Divine Signs: Musa's stick became a snake; he was repeatedly told "do not fear," highlighting reliance on Allah over human support (Surah Al-A'raf 7:107, Surah Taha 20:17-21).
- Harun's Role: Harun acted as Musa's helper and spokesperson (Surah Taha 20:29-36).
- Ibra – Warning and Ubur – Crossing: Ibra means warning; ubur means to cross or traverse, often interpreted as a lesson that affects the heart and tears, like crossing a river (tafsir).
- Action Item: "I've chosen you" – Listen. To follow Allah's guidance, one must hear, internalize, and act (Surah Taha 20:13-14).

Key Reflections:

- Miracles are manifestations of Allah's will.
- Sustained faith requires tarbiya and moral development.
- Musa's story applies to all oppressors and oppressed, Muslim or non-Muslim.
- Every prophet's trials and miracles were tailored to their people's specific challenges.

🚩 Ayah 15-25 (Musa AS)

Sept 29/ Oct 1

Passage 3 (Ayah 15-26)

15. Has there reached you the story of Moses?
16. When his Lord called to him in the sacred valley of Tuwa
17. "Go to Pharaoh. Indeed, he has transgressed
18. And say to him, 'Would you [be willing to] purify yourself
19. And let me guide you to your Lord so you would fear [Him]?"
20. And he showed him the greatest sign
21. But Pharaoh denied and disobeyed.
22. Then he turned his back, striving.
23. And he gathered [his people] and called out
24. And said, "I am your most exalted lord."
25. So Allah seized him in exemplary punishment for the last and the first [transgression]. 26. Indeed in that is a warning for whoever would fear [Allah].

- The subject changes. The first passage was about the unseen world. The second passage is about the DOJ and answering the skeptics.
- But now Allah brings attention to a story that has already taken place.
- Most of the story of Musa is in Surah Taha, Surah Qassas, and Surah Al Araf

- Expanding on the story of Musa AS.
- Every time Musa AS came with a sign, Firaun denied. Even though Musa AS came with 9 clear signs.
- Even in the punishments there were signs.
- Allah gave Firaun many many chances.
- Musa's name is mentioned 136 times (the most mentioned prophet)
- Surah Al-Araf also makes mention of Firaun. There is an ayah in there that mentions how every time Musa comes with a sign they ask for another sign.
- Only people who humble themselves will be able to see allahs signs and answered duas.
- Surah Al-Araf lists out all of the things that happened to them. Lesson from that is that Allah teaches you things through difficulty. Sheikh gives the example of people thinking everything is sihr. Nothing is a bigger test from allah than breaking the command of Allah.

Context of Musa AS and Firaun (Before Starting Passage 3)

 Ayah 27-33 (Creation)

Passage 4

27. Are you a more difficult creation or is the heaven? Allah constructed it.
28. He raised its ceiling and proportioned it.
29. And He darkened its night and extracted its brightness.
30. And after that He spread the earth.
31. He extracted from it its water and its pasture,
32. And the mountains He set firmly
33. As provision for you and your grazing livestock.

Ah, I see exactly what you mean – my last version condensed and reworded a lot of your original phrasing, and you want all your original notes kept intact while just formatting and bolding key words. Let's do it correctly this time.

Here's a faithful version of Passage 4 (Ayah 27–33) using your original notes word-for-word, just adding formatting, bolding, and separating tafsir/explanations clearly:

Passage 4: Allah's Creation (Ayah 27–33)

Ayah 27 – أَفَأَنْتُمْ أَشَدُّ خَلْقًا أَمْ السَّمَاءُ بَنَاهَا

Translation: Was it harder to make you guys or the sky? Allah is asking them a rhetorical question to make them feel small.

Tafsir & Notes:

- Allah is reminding us He is the engineer of the heavens and the earth.
 - Sama: it includes everything which is above us.
 - Similar to ism (meaning name, which helps things be recognized).
 - Similar to samiyya, which means elevated.

Ayah 28 – رَفَعَ سَمَكَهَا وَسَوَّاهَا

Translation: He raised its ceiling and proportioned it.

Tafsir & Notes:

- Samkaha means ceiling.
 - Samak is the highest part of the camel's hump.
 - Sawoo means to make straight.
 - Futoor means breakage.
 - Altogether it means that the sky Allah has created has clear proportions.

Ayah 29 – وَأَعْشَاكَ لَيْلَهَا وَأَخْرَجَ ضُحَاهَا

Translation: And He darkened its night and extracted its brightness.

Tafsir & Notes:

- Ghasaq is darkness of the night where Allah made things exceptionally blurry.
- From that darkness, Allah has extracted light.
- Similar message is conveyed in Surah Falaq.

Ayah 30 – وَالْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ دَحَاهَا

Translation: And after that He spread the earth.

Tafsir & Notes:

- Udhhiya means round/smooth. Allah is describing the earth as round.

Ayah 31 – وَأَخْرَجَ مِنْهَا مَاءَهَا وَمَرْعَاهَا

Translation: And He extracted from it its water and its pasture.

Tafsir & Notes:

- Allah took out two things from the earth: water and pasture.

- Only sometimes does the water get exposed. Example: for Nuh AS.
- Ra'a means to pasture and graze something. Mar'a is ism makan (the location of the verb)
- Expanding on the meaning: this ayah is describing the earth as a place for pasture to thrive.
- Examples of earth's growth in Quran: olives, trees, figs, grapes, etc.
- Fun story: Sheikh saw Sheikh Hasan's truck full of carrots and he called his wife back to look inside the truck. Realizes Sheikh Hasan is using it for the deer. Wife thinks he's just feeding the deer for fun (he's actually hunting them).
- You're not feeding the animal because you love it, but so that you can eat it. Allah is saying the same about the disbelievers.

Ayah 32 – وَالْجِبَالِ أَرْسَاهَا

Translation: And the mountains He set firmly.

Tafsir & Notes:

- Spoken about in Surah Naba as well.
- Arsaaha means to peg down.
- The mountains are anchored and difficult to move.
- See Naba for more notes.

Ayah 33 – لَتَكُونَ لَكُمْ أَغْذِيَّةً وَلِالْأَنْعَامِ كُفً

Translation: As provision for you and your grazing livestock.

Tafsir & Notes:

- Allah provided us with all kinds of animals and plants as a form of provision.
- Mata'a in Arabic means provision, but originally used to mean a cloth used to wash dishes.
- Significance: if it gets lost, you replace it. It's just something you use – do not get attached to it.
- Some people get very attached to animals and they should maintain understanding that they are Allah's provisions. Value it but do not attach yourself to it.
- Linguistic story: A little girl described mata'a. A dog ran and climbed a mountain with the cloth. And the girl called the sponge 'mata'a' and described climbing with 'taba'a'.

Summary:

We are told to look at Allah's creation and recognize Allah in it. The Arabic nuances also teach a lesson about not getting too attached to dunya: value it but do not get attached to it.

🚩 Ayah 34-46 (DOJ: Conceptual)

Oct 8 11:45

- 34. When the overwhelming calamity arrives
- 35. The Day when man will remember that for which he strove,
- 36. And Hellfire will be exposed for [all] those who see -
- 37. So as for he who transgressed
- 38. And preferred the life of the world,
- 39. Then indeed, Hellfire will be [his] refuge.

Ayah 34

Taamatul Kubra

Taama means calamity

Kubra is overwhelming

Another way to translate is grand calamity

Ayah 35

Yawma tadhakkar

When Allah refers to Al insan he is usually referring to non muslims

Insan's nature is to forget, root word nisyan means forget: Imagine you come to a test and you blank out on the test. Thats what will happen to the non muslims

Sa'i means paced running (like between Safa and Marwa)

What is your sa'i in life for? Are you moving towards the remembrance of allah or are you striving towards other things in dunya?

Annalahu dhikra, the human will remember at last and will have regrets

Ayah 36

Sheikh compares this ayah to getting the wrong grades accidentally. When someone gets a bad grade they wonder is it was a mistake

Tabliz is to pull something out of somewhere and place it. It will be as if jahannam is being pulled out of somewhere to be exposed.

Other descriptions of jahannam mention that jahannam has eyes and it breathes and roars.

Jahim is another word for jahannam. Root word jahamma means hell staring out you with hungry eyes. Its used to describe lions staring at their prey with hungry eyes. The eye of the lion in hunt mode is jaham. Over 300 words to describe the motion of a lion. When Arabs like things, they have many words for it.

Taaka is to tie someones legs

Mayyara. A word that has appeared in another surah.

Ayah 37

Fa amma man tagh

Taghi means rebel. It is someone who rebels against the government essentially, going against the order. Sometimes its necessary, but you cant rebel against allah.

Ayah 38

Wa attaral Hayat ad duny

What caused these people to be considered rebels? Because they were caught up in the life of dunya.

Samiri was one of the people of bani israel were the ones who started worshipping cows. Whenever Jibreel would visit musa he would come on a horse, and he would make the dirt magic. People thought gods reflection was in the cow. Musa asked them what is wrong with you? And Samiri said I just felt like doing it.

Doing things just because you felt like it: your worst enemy is your feelings. But there is one good thing about them: they go away.

It's like food cravings. That's why desires are called hawa which also means wind, or soundless air. It is weightless and fleeting.

Life is a constant battle between allah and shaytan.

Ayah 39-41

Wa amma man Maqama rabbihi: this refers to fearing the position (maqam) of your lord. Maqam can also mean status. You fear allah by his position.

Maqam rabbi appears in other places in the quran as well

Fear is not enough. A lot of children fear their parents but they still do wrong in front of them.

Wannal nafs anil hawa: and prevented the soul from inclination
there are two steps to jannah.

The first step is to avoid haram and the next is to move toward jannah.

If you know the cheat code to jannah, its not really that hard.

It is possible to become so disciplined that your desires become like those of the Prophet.

A time will come when the disciplined person starts to enjoy the discipline (where it was once difficult). Like the person who doesnt like the taste of something healthy but it grows on them.

Quote: Salah is the coolness of my eyes and tahajjud is my joy.

The people who pray tahajjud enjoy it more than those who party at night.

We should persist in our discipline with hopes that we start to enjoy it. We cannot live life forcing ourselves to do things: we should try to make ourselves enjoy it.

Sheikh talks about going to the masjid. We should be excited to go to the masjid.

If we try, allah will make it easy. Just put in the effort first.

We give too much credit to Shaytan. When you call athan, shaytan farts. Not a joke, its in hadith.

What would be the fear of shaytan if you are carrying allahuakbar in your life?

Sometimes if you just show up, the shaytans run away. There was a time when

Sheikh was going to speak at a funeral for a shooting at a synagogue. He said no at first, but then decided to go. There was an islamophobic man who was going to speak instead but since there was a muslim man there he ended up leaving. Sheikh jokes that he confuses shaytan and messes around with him.

If you can be disciplined, jannah is your abode.

Ayah 42

Sa'a: nobody knows about it not even the prophet. There are only signs of it.

It does not matter when the day of judgement is. We should be more worried about what we have prepared for it.

The signs are merely an indication of allahs awareness of things that occur throughout time and progression of human kind.

Ayah 43

Fima anti min dhikraha

Who are you to even remember the DOJ? Even the Prophet is not talking about it so who are you?

Its only allahs position to mention it

Ayah 44

Illa rabbik

Only to your lord

Ayah 45

Your only job is to warn those who fear allah.

The recurring theme in this surah is to remind people who benefit.

Khashiya meaning inner deep fear of allah

Ayah 46

When the DOJ comes people will forget their lives. And this lifetime will feel like less than one night passing by.

You only have to behave for one day and then you have infinite years of enjoyment, why would you cash out?

Allah is setting the ratio of this life to the next. This life in comparison is nothing.

Side story: MAW was getting married in Australia, and Sheikh was in charge of helping him. Flight had a transit stop, 5-6 hour stop. He wanted to get food and he ended up in another terminal. MAW and his mom were waiting for him, and they missed the flight. They were set to arrive thursday night, and marry friday jumma. Sheikh abdullah realized he was testing him. There was no way to get to australia until saturday morning. The lady worked hard to find the flight. The bags went to another country, so they arrived but with no clothes.

The Prophet ﷺ frowned and turned away

- The Prophet ﷺ in the early days fixated on the Quraysh becoming Muslims. The Quraysh wanted private time because they felt their class was different
- Imagine you're in an important meeting, and someone interrupts.
- Abdullah ibn Umm Maqsum was born blind and came to the prophet ﷺ with a question and the Prophet ﷺ did not feel it was right to break conversation to answer the question. He turned away and continued his conversation.
- But the Quran says Abasa. He frowned.
- The blind man never saw the Prophet ﷺ frown.
- The Quran does not say the Prophet ﷺ was harsh or that the man even saw the reaction.
- However the Prophet ﷺ is still being criticized. His demeanor and personality.
- Important Lesson: Most of the time, bad manners are also corrected by bad manners.
- However Allah corrects the prophet ﷺ according to his majesty and to the Prophet's beauty
- The tone used here is not harsh. Allah speaks to the Prophet ﷺ in third person.

Ayah 2

- The blind man came to him.
- The tone here is being shown how much Allah loves the Prophet ﷺ, and it shows how you correct those you love
- You know you love someone through how you correct them
- Sheikh mentions that when he corrects his daughter and he pampers her and he spends the whole day with her before correcting her.
- Sheikh mentions his whole family is full of men. His grandma said Your dad didn't have daughters because he was too strict
- There are many harsher ways this could be conveyed but this was so gentle.
- The tone that's used here is like the kind you use when you speak to elders, or maybe small children. It's a tone of respect and gentleness.

Ayah 3

- This ayah is addressing: what is more important?
- There are two communities: the muslim one and the non muslim one. The Prophet ﷺ is concerned with both.
- This ayah helps us realize that the people who are already muslim are more important than the ones who are not.
- Taking care of what you already have. Maintaining the islam of the muslims is equally if not more important than calling new muslims.
- 1000 converts does not compensate for even 1 muslim leaving islam
- Ummayah Bin Khalaf and the Chiefs of Mecca were sitting there, but allah is saying the blind man is priority
- Hurt can be delivered through even the eyes
- Part of sarcasm is arrogance. The misuse of the eyes can lead someone to Jahannam. Treachery of the eyes is not just looking at bad images but in making other feel bad through them.
- There was a list of men who had "kill orders" but most of them accepted islam
- Time stamp 12:04 lots of details missed
- This sahaba provides cover and takes this man to the prophet for forgiveness. The Prophet ﷺ kept turning away, he says please dont deprive me. Then the man leaves and the Prophet ﷺ asks isnt there a smart person amongst you? He responds Had you just signalled through your eyes we would have taken action. It is not acceptable for a prophet ﷺ of Allah to give gestures with their eyes negatively.
- Looking down at people in any way is not okay
- When you go for umrah you see all kinds of people. They might not know islam very well, they might not be cultured but they look at the green dome and they are crying.
- Just because we maybe know more does not mean our status in the eyes of Allah is higher.
- Superiority complexes will always translate into body language and we should be actively considering it
- Surah Abasa revealed to the blind man who would not have known it otherwise
- The Prophet ﷺ was a piece of art.
- Teacher named Nuruddin. When he came to flint, a retired engineer said to Sheikh Abdullah for the first time he saw someone who looked like the Prophet ﷺ.

- You don't know the character of the Prophet ﷺ until you see his actions modelled.
- Back to the ayah
- Maybe this blind man is coming to you to be purified
- Correcting People: you have to make sure that person knows you love them and they love you too.
- Ignoring with Purpose: The Prophet ﷺ strategically ignored people.
- The blind man however is already vulnerable. This is not someone who should have been ignored.
- This is something that can only be learned through experience.
- Extra care for those who are marginalized in society.
- The Prophet ﷺ was not wrong, the blind man was wrong for asking in this situation however the Prophet's response could have been better.
- All the times when the Prophet ﷺ didn't do the preferred item

Ayah 4-6

- Or be reminded and the remembrance would benefit him
- They are not even interested but you are putting your attention on them.
- Whereas the one who actually wants to know is being ignored
- It's like teachers ignoring the students who want to learn
- While a lot of this party did become muslim, it's important to remember that the Prophet ﷺ had overwhelming concern for making them muslim
- Allah is saying the muslims there already are also important
- Don't just speak to the elite either. The one coming running to you deserves your attention, especially if they are disadvantaged

Ayah 7-10

- The message of these ayah is that your responsibility towards the one who is striving even if they may not be immediately beneficial
- Sheikh Al Masmari will go out of his way to find the people in the room who are simple. The Prophet ﷺ was like this too.

Side Topic: Corrections in the Quran

- There's a place in Surah Tawba, where the Prophet ﷺ was eager to stay in Madina but the youth were eager to fight and they lost. The prophet ﷺ came back and decided not to include the youth. Allah says if it wasn't for the mercy of Allah, he would not have made you soft. He commanded the prophet ﷺ to forgive the youth and tell them to make dua for forgiveness.

- The Prophet ﷺ receives various advices and commands throughout the Quran.
- Allah 'an:
- The placement of words will tell you the tone.

Ayah 11-16: Revelation

Ayah 11-16: Revelation

- 11.No! Indeed, these verses are a reminder;
12. So whoever wills may remember it.
13. [It is recorded] in honored sheets,
14. Exalted and purified,
15. [Carried] by the hands of messenger-angels,
16. Noble and dutiful.

More Information on Abdullah Ibn Maqtum 10/15 11:40

- Abdullah Ibn Maqtum was very special. Although he was blind, he was the other Muadhin. He was also sent as a delegate to Madina with Musaab, and he taught them. Musaab would convert them and Abdullah would teach them.
- There's an ayah in Surah Nisa Verse 95. Those who sit (spectators) from the believers and those who strive for allah are not equal. The people who strive, their reward is greater.
- The spectators are just watching. We have no need for them.
- The ayah was originally revealed, Abdullah was there. He asks, I'm blind, how can I fight? Those who are unable to do not have to?
- While this conversation happened, Jibreel left the Prophet ﷺ and came back. Added a word. "Ghayra" with the exception of those who are blind.
- The Quran always speaks up for marginalized communities.

Ayah 11

- kala is either refuting a behavior or starting a new sentence.
- There people who think because they have things that allah loves them
- The protestant movement thinks that because you are rich, allah loves you. Allah says kalla to this.
- Kala to the wrong perception and kala to the conversation ahead
- Kala is used in many places in the quran
- The quran is a reminder and the best reminder in the world. Dhikra meaning reminder.

Ayah 12

- So whoever will remember it
- If someone wants to memorize the Quran, they will be able to. Allah will make it that way for them.
- 2 people: whose heart is clean and who listens

- Listening to Allah is important.
- Study the parts of the Quran where Allah says listen. Usually in relation to history. History helps us not repeat the same mistakes.
- Human beings need reminders. That's why we set alarms, have road signs.
- Every ayah of the Quran is a reminder to Allah.

Ayah 13-16 (10/15 @ 11:50)

- This is recorded in honored sheets, exalted and purified
- How was the Quran brought down to the lower heavens? In very honorable sheets in an honorable place in the heavens, and exalted by very pure angels.
- Luh Al Mahfudh. It is called umm al kitab. It like the mother drive.
- Not even the angels know what's in it.
- It was actually the first place to be created. The pen was the first thing Allah created, and his first command was write. Everything that would happen until the day of judgement into a secure tablet. And nobody has access to this.
- The knowledge of Allah comes first and then the destiny Qada, then taqdeer execution then tadleel @ 11:55
- Every single drop is compensated.
- The Quran was placed there, and then brought down from luh al mahfudh to the earth

Ayah 15

- The safara/ safeel. Angels who are ambassadors is saffara, and they would read the verses while travelling
- Saffara actually means to open up (asfar) or for something to be light.
- You cannot know people until you travel with them. The word used for travel also has the connotation of exposure and opening up.
- Mufti Aasim for example, when you travel with him, he is so nice.
- Mufasssirin say a woman who is called saffira is one that exposes herself
- These are angels who are ambassadors of the Quran, they are open and clean

Ayah 16

- Kira means noble, pious and righteous
- Barara is a plural of barin, meaning obedient. Bar means to fulfill the rights of someone.
- Innahu lu quranun hakim.

Ayah 17-23: Creation of Man

Ayah 17-23: Creation of Man

Ayah 17

- Ma akfara has multiple modes of translations
- This ayah was revealed about Utbah bin abi Lahab
- Ma is used for ta'deem
- Akfara how disbelieving is he is one translation.
- Another one is

Ayah 18-19

- It is astonishing that he could be in disbelief despite what he sees in front of him.
- Min aysha yi khalafa
- The disbeliever thinks he is somebody but all created him from the drop of sperm. And Allah wrote his destiny too.
- To make this human feel Allah asking, what are you talking about?
- Connotation of "unworthy fluid"
- Surah Insan. Insan is often used in derogatory form, and the human is also made to feel inferior by this reminder that they were created from just some mixed fluids.
- What is the point of eyes and ears if you cannot understand? Eyes and ears were given to you so that you could be guided
- Qadara means to destine

Ayah 20-21

- Aj'um baid. It's like when someone goes too far, they can't make a return back.
- Allah knows every single inch of the world, and controls all of it.
- Allah eased the way for him.
- Could be that his delivery into the world easily from his mother
- Or that the paths to good and evil were made easy
- How do you know your path? Any path that has been made easy for you is also your destination.
- Allah has said we made the Quran easy to learn for you, but the word for learn (mutadakkir) actually is a difficult kind of learning. It's showing that learning requires effort. @ 12:10
- Thaysi is the path becoming easy, and the signs of that path are clear.
- Allah makes things easy.
- The Prophet ﷺ pulls an oxymoron in hadith, it's easy for whoever Allah has made it easy for

- If something is meant to happen, Allah makes it easy.
- Allah already decided who is going to Jannah and who is going to Jahannam so what is the point?
- The Prophet ﷺ was asked this question and he said: whatever you've been created for, Allah will make it easy for you.
- Sabila yasra verse: whoever strives for us, the path will be made easy
- Something meant to be is going to be easy, you just have to strive for it.

Ayah 22-23

- ? means to resurrect
- The burying of people
- No man has not yet accomplished what he has commanded
- Humans have not done what they have been commanded
- This is actually a threat
- Not staying loyal to Allah's promise
- Kalla is a threat, some disbelievers think they are entitled to Allah's forgiveness. They think they won't be in Jahannam for long or even there at all (like the Jews)

Thabbat: strength

Allah will test your love. Tests will come to the one who loves me faster than water reaches the ground. Allah, even in the tests, makes it easy. The path to Jannah is a little smoother. Sheikh mentions that he is almost a little jealous of his brother who passed away and has left behind this responsibility of Miftaah. You learn how tragedy actually carries gifts.

Ayah 24-32: Blessings

Ayah 24-32: Blessings

Date Covered: 10/20 @ 11:45

24. Then let mankind look at his food -
25. How We poured down water in torrents,
26. Then We broke open the earth, splitting [it with sprouts], 27. And caused to grow within it grain
28. And grapes and herbage
29. And olive and palm trees
30. And gardens of dense shrubbery
31. And fruit and grass -
32. [As] enjoyment for you and your grazing livestock.

Ayah 23

Cont Human has no involvement in this divine process

- Khalaqa and nutfa are both allahs favors
- Starts by saying insan
- Denier, skeptic, ungrateful
- Maaqfara in the previous ayah can make it a question
- Kuttala means curses is a human.

Ayah 24

- Allah has positioned things for humans to have food. Down to the animals being available for service.
- Another mention of this service in Surah Nahl, it is allah that brought down water from the sky. And allah details all the benefits people get, says verily in these is a sign for you to ponder. Even the tastes and colors of fruits are signs of Allah. Even in the seasons and the cycles of the fruits is a wisdom. Sea creatures available for us.
- So Allah often does this where he lists the blessings.
- Allah made animals to serve us. This is a blessing from allah, that they are permissible to us. Shouldn't hunt for fun, it needs to be purposeful.
- Jokes, the animal is lucky its going to the belly of a muslim.
- Living in a society where we dont butcher our own animals. We dont see animals we are eating anymore, our relationship with it is siferend

Ayah 25

- Mafooth means rain upon rain.

- Anna is used here, usually for the middle of a sentence not the beginning. Why anna?
- This could be one recitation, or this ayah is a continuation of the previous ayah.
- Most authentic opinion.
- It is not appropriate to stop at this ayah.
- Allah gave use water. Most people dont get their water from tap.

Ayah 26

- Anna used in the beginning again, perceived continuation of previous ayah
- If it was a true beginning, you would consider like a questioning, rhetorical question
- But it is considered to be continued
- Any fruits mentioned in the quran we should try to eat it. Quran and hadith have already told us what is good for us.
- Shaqqa means to break open something
- Talks about gardening and how it gives insight into many verses of the quran
- When allah wants to give plants, he gives plants
- Allah knows what goes into the earth and he knows what comes out of it
- One bad rainfall or one wind could destroy it.
- The people of Dhuaatayn. Allah ruined their agricultural success

Ayah 27

- ? meaning either grain or wheat. Allah is saying this is all through him.
- People who eat from different regions, they eat more rice. And in drier lands they eat more bread.
- There is adhab in how you place books: quran then hadith
- Bread is the king of all food. You can deny a person food but not bread, that is their haqq

Ayah 28-31

- Kabb meaning herbage. Used to describe a variety of vegetables, like cucumbers
- Hadayiq is plural for gardens.
- Allah transitions our attention from the various blessings.
- We live in a time where these natural resources have been occupied. Allah created resources, but greed and oppression created poverty. Capitalist society has subjected people to poverty

- Sheikh talks about how in poor Pakistan neighborhoods they eat amazingly because everything they are eating is home grown.
- Allah made enough food for people, the only reason they struggle is because of some form of dhulm.
- Ghulba are gardens which are intertwined, they are lush and heavy, to the point that if a bird flew in it would struggle to get out.
- Faqiya is fruit/produce of any tree. Included fruits, nuts, etc.
- Abba are parts of a tree that humans cant eat
- Unfortunately now you have to be privileged to have a relationship with earth now. Sheikh says we should try to know the earth for the sake of knowing allahs blessings and being able to appreciate
- The perfect balance of the ecosystem, if we are not eating something else is eating, and the cycle of nature is such.
- Mataa is benefit for you and your animals. Something you dont get attached to, just something that helps you. The word isnt used in a very personal or respectful way, it lacks intimacy. Also used in the quran to describe dunya. Just something you use
- Time stamp 12:18 A linguist learned about mataa from a young girl in the village. A dog grabbed the sponge cloth from the girl. The girl called the cloth mataa. Its inconsequential, nothing special. And then ta'aal meaning to climb and ascend the mountain to describe what the dog did.
- The purpose of dunya is not to get lost in it. Food is not something to spend forever on or get attached to.
- A muslim should live like a resident. Not too much of this indulgence. Dont be distracted by things that are just useful. They are mataa nothing else.

Ayah 33-37: DOJ

Umm is actually leader

Abb is grow

In the linguistic meaning of a mother is to lead and the father is to grow.

And fruits and things that grow without extra nurturing but the father is responsible for the growth and preservation of the family.

We are an interdependent society

Saaakha vs thaaama (from last surah)

- Saakha is a noise that deafens you. Its the blowing of the trumpet but in such a way that it destroys your eardrums. It is so strong that it brings you back to life.
- This blast is for revival not for ending
- Arabs would say saakha was a deafening noise, like bombs. Most of the people in Gaza have lost their hearing.
- Thaama however is a sound of tragedy, its the sound of distant destruction that you know is catastrophic
- Veteran neighbors that dont like holidays with fireworks bc of PTSD. Trauma for indulging, imagine the trauma for those who are victims.

Ayah 34-37

- TS 12:30
- Very psychological
- A brother
- Then the mother is brought first before the father
- The order of bringing, children care the least
- In order of who should care, but why brother before mother?
- Why brother before spouse?
- Parents dont dump their children, but people will always have their siblings
- The psychology of need. You dont want to call your mother with a flat tire. You call your brother first. Your parents will panic
- That brother you could always call will not be there for you.
- When sheikh abdul aziz and him both got flat tires and they both called someone else
- What if that brother himself is in trouble?
- Even your mother will run away, everyone will be worried about themselves and in their own misery

- But the muslims who have strived to please allah will be sitting in the vip lounge. They will not be stressed.
- You will still see the economy class, so that you can feel good. Your ease will start thousand of years before anyone enters jannah.
- Being associated to a righteous person can get me ease. But being in the firdaus department will get me jannah.

Ayah 39-42: Expression on the DOJ

Ayah 39-42: Expression on the DOJ

Dates Covered: 10/20

Ayah 39

- The people who will be laughing and excited on the DOJ are actually people who suffered in dunya
- Surah started with a facial expression and is ending with a facial expression
- Success of the people of Jannah will be visible on their faces

Ayah 40-41

- While other faces will have dust on them.
- And upon that dust is another dark cloud on them
- Katara is dark smoke, dust that goes up
- Upon the depression is also humiliation.
- Ghubar is the dirt that comes from the desert, dust that comes down
- Qatar is the dirt the blacksmiths have on their clothes.
- Clouds of dark dust.

Ayah 42

- Dual exchange in all concept, allah talks about the rewarded and their faces and the wrongdoers and their appearances. Allah always compares two things and builds up the examples
- Duality of expression, going back
- The wicked people here
- Fajara means to erupt, they are people who have broken the commands of allah

Ayah 1-2:

- When the sun is wrapped up
- Kadara in arabic is not just to fall but to become dull
- In kadara is something which becomes so dirty and dull, doesnt have light
- The stars will vanish
- Opinion of Abdullah ibn Abbas is that the stars are suspended in the skies in the control of the angels and orbiting, but after the trumpet the stars will leave the hands of angels
- Nujoom is the plural of najm. The universe is expanding and the stars are infinite. Sky will be bigger tomorrow than it is today. Even though space is not complicated in its existence, things will stop on qiyama
- Purpose of stars:
 - To beautify the sky
 - Protection against the shayateen: Meteorites and stars hit shayateen that try to cross into the heavens. All the shaytans are rebellious. When the shayateen try to listen to the angels communications, in return they get hit. There are righteous jinn and non-righteous jinn.
 - Guidance and direction: we look to stars to navigate.
 - Stars in dreams. Like that for Yusuf AS

Ayah 3-4

- Like in Surah Naba, the mountains will move. You think the mountains are firm but they are not
- Word for removed is ?
- Ashara is a 10 months pregnant camel. A camel that will have milk, that is strong, and that will give birth soon. It is a prized and valued camel
- Al attalla is celebration, used to describe these camels but even that will be neglected.
- When a fire comes, people abandon everything. This is the psychology of the DOJ
- Qhasal ishar the camel will never be abandoned ex

Ayah 5-6

- Even the wild animals will be afraid on that day because of the noise, thunder, etc.
- Qiyama is real
- The sea being filled with flame
- Shajara, mashjoor means to ignite something or fill it with flames
- The property of water will become oil. It will all become like jahannam
- Or sujurat can mean something that just overwhelms. Floods the world.
- Possible that underneath the oceans is reservoirs of heat and fire.

Ayah 7

- Wa inan nufusu zuwijaat
- Zawaaja means to be married. Past tense, someone will get them married. Who?
- Everyone who is married, their nikkahs will be done again before they enter jannah
- Some lucky people will be reunited with their spouses
- When you want to divorce, your spouse is brought back perfectly
- Prophet ﷺ wanted to divorce juwairiya but she said no to be in jannah with him
- Asiya is going to jannah, while fir'aun is going to jahannams deepest pits
- Maryam never got married. She will have a spouse.
- Lots of pious women never had a spouse. Many have spouses going to jahannam.
- People will come out of their graves and be remarried. But not everyone.
- Serving people can carry their jannah. Servitude is a route to jannah.

- Other opinions of nufusu zuwijaat: the souls will marry the human body again. Because they have been separated for centuries.
- The Barzakh: a whole life there, where the souls are stationed and are neither in dunya nor in akhira.
- The true jannah is not open to anyone, the shaheed and children are birds in a garden outside of that jannah, but not in barzakh for sure
- Barzakh is the lounge before boarding to jannah
- Lounge is a station between your departure and your arrival. Thats what barzakh is.
- You dont feel the impact of time. That is barzakh for a believer. They are with the company of other righteous deceased and the ruh is comfortable.
- But for the disbelievers it is different
- Alim Arwah: souls are created thousands of years before us. Like the chip to a product. Wretched is a person whose soul came into the mothers womb corrupted.
- When the mother is pregnant, the hadith about what happens
- The processes of embryology all happen in the first 50 days and in that time you can see the face. 4 months by the standard is a lot.
- There is movement happening in the fetus way before, and yet the soul comes in at 120 days.
- The ruh; the child in the womb
- Now to the body; same ruh but different body in dunya vs jannah. 33 yrs old, beauty of yusuf and voice of daud
- Thats why no human ever dies. Ever soul is immortal, its just a matter of understanding its station

Ayah 8-9

- Maudah suhilat is the young girl being buried alive
- Waada yaidu means burdened. Translated as sin but actually means the burden they felt her by.
- Gender biased abortion and gender biased appreciation. Still a problem
- Not an arab issue. Actually all around the world.
- The girls from middle low class families. Wanted a son that could take responsibilities. Even in the roman and persian worlds. It was a luxury to raise a daughter people couldnt afford.
- But islam places honor on the daughters. The Prophet's lineage continues through Fatima
- Why is umar, the most masculine sahaba called abu hafs
- Prophet ﷺ called him abu hafs at Badr.

- Story of Abu Hudayfa ibn Utba. Utba ibn Rabiya was one of the opposition. How is it possible that the Prophet ﷺ is stopping us from killing his uncle while we are going after our fathers.
- If I see abbas im going to kill him (despite the prophet ﷺ saying not to). Prophet ﷺ says to Umar is he going ya abu hafs?
- Didn't need to call attention to Umar RA but he's calling him by his daughter
- Abbas was a spy, there was a wisdom behind the names he gave protection to
- Umar asks to take his head
- Abu hudayfa did tawba
- Going back to tafsir
- Why is Allah going back in the past? They think they've buried them and the information of them

Ayah 10

- Allah is saying you buried it, but we have knowledge of it
- How are they related?
- Waithas suhufu nushirat.
- Allah will give us our book of deeds in our right hand or left hand
- All the things we did will be in our pages
- When you commit a mistake, the angels wait for repentance and decide not to record
- The angels have verifications
- Everything will either be evidence against you or evidence for you
- Woman who only spoke quran: woman travelling from Jerusalem Masjid al aqsa. Imam ? sees the woman. Says salamun alaikum and quotes an ayah. She had been lost for 3 days, she was fasting, travelling and fasting same time. He lets her ride the camel, tell the men to lower her gaze. Tells him to pace his walk. He recites poetry, and she asks him to read quran, he recites loud and she says the verse about being moderate. Do you have any children: verse about children and them being guides. He wants to know if he is married: verse about not asking questions. Get to camp: verse about the kids all named after the prophets. The sons come out, thank him profusely. She says verse about best food for guests. Sons said since we were born she's only spoken quran. Imam Mubarak says he went back to Jerusalem to get her blessing. Pious men would go to pious women for duas. Finds out she died. That night she came in his dream. She replied with the verse that pious people are in jannah
- Believe in Allah? Be careful. How you speak and how much you speak.

- We cannot be speaking, talking, or moving like an average person
- 3-4 sisters to gathering of Imam Hanbal. King has lanterns on his palace, and we use that to knit at night, is it haram to use the light of an oppressive king. Imam Hanbal knew that you have to be pious to think like this. Bishal Hafi was there father. Imam Hanbal, for anyone else this light is permissible but for you it is haram. You come to me to learn about the laws of allah but i go to your father to learn about who allah is. 12:37
- When the book of deeds is scattered.
- What words are the most visible in a book? What are the boldest actions in your book of deeds?
 - Akhlaq. The angels should fill our book with good deeds.
 - When the Prophet ﷺ was praying and the man added rabbana wa lakal hamd and more. And the angels were rushing to figure out how to document the reward.
- Our thoughts are not written. You are forgiven for all of your thoughts. The sahaba panicked when the verse came down about being accountable for public and private
- The Prophet ﷺ clarified that it was referring to kufr.
- Book in right hand, left hand, or from the back because they dont want their book and will try to hide their hand. They will yell thabura (destruction when they get their book) because they thought everything was a joke.
- The people of jannah will respond that they were mindful and the people of jahannam were the opposite.
- Person who lives in this world without fear for the result for the exam is going to fail it.

11-14

And when the sky is stripped away
 And when Hellfire is set ablaze
 And when Paradise is brought near,
 A soul will [then] know what it has brought [with it].

Ayah 11-13

- Sama is sky and qushita is the passive form of qashata meaning to peel, or skin an animal and the redness of the skin. When the sky loses its layers.
- Ablaze is Powering and roaring flame and jahim is like a hunting stare. Fires, when they blaze, are scary.
- Itha means when but it also means remember. Its a reminder

- The nouns coming first before the verb. Jumlatu ismiya, in which the verbs are passive past tense. Implies the doer with emphasis.
- Passiveness leaves strength in Allah's power and establishes the confusion and ambiguity that will be present on the DOJ
- Now zulfa. Uzlifa is a passive form of zalafah meaning to bring forth (connotation of being brought near out of honor) Jannah will be brought close in a good way.

Ayah 14

- Surah Kahf, we will say to Jahannam, are you full? There Allah says he will bring Jannah very close to the muttaqeen. Surah Kahf gives some context to this ayah.
- Entering Jannah and Jahannam will be like stepping into a portal
- Aliman nafsun meaning every person will know
- Ahdara comes from hadher meaning to be present
- Before the DOJ even goes into full commence, each person will already know their outcome
- Allah has given us an open book exam. Every single moment of anger, desire, celebration is a test. How will we react, even while knowing the outcome?
- Every blessing is a test. Sheikh talks about how you might be blessed with a daughter but then that daughter asks to go trick or treating
- Mini side point: celebrating holidays, need to remember our integrity as Muslims
- Ma'anah vs ruh: in this ayah, nafs is a combo of the body, soul and ruh. Nafs actually means breath. Nafs is breathing, anything that has life. And in the life is ruh, and that ruh means body.
- When nafs is used it could be for Muslim or non-Muslim souls
- The tests of blessings are harder than the tests of trials. Blessings can cause you to lose focus of your priorities

Ayah 15-21: Oath by the Stars

Passage 2 (Ayah 15-21) Oath by the Stars

Date Covered: 10/27 1210

15. So I swear by the retreating stars -
16. Those that run [their courses] and disappear -
17. And by the night as it closes in
18. And by the dawn when it breathes
19. [That] indeed, the Qur'an is a word [conveyed by] a noble messenger
20. [Who is] possessed of power and with the Owner of the Throne, secure [in position],
21. Obeyed there [in the heavens] and trustworthy

Ayah 15-19

- Every oath has to have a response. Ayah 19 is the response.
- So when Allah takes oath by khunnas (retreating stars) referring to the sun which rises and sets, and the stars which appear at night and leave when the sun is up.
- Allah is then describing the actions of the skies.
- Astrology was fascinating to the arabs. They would make decisions based on the visibility of certain stars and planets, and would consult soothsayers.
- The soothsayers would demand payment and would communicate with jinn
- Why is Allah swearing by stars? To show his power
- Singular of khunnas is khanis (retreating stars).
 - Khanasa means retreating. Like a animals that appear and retreat. Also used in Surah Nas.
 - Kurtubi says it might be talking about animals, but Allah in context was speaking about the sky. Whereas in Surah Nas Allah was talking about Shaytan and his waswas
- And of kunnas it is kanis (disappearing stars)
 - Kanassa means to broom or brush. These are the stars that cleanse the sky, like a vacuum or a clearer
- Then allah swears by the night. Wal layli itha aas aas
 - Aas aas when it gets dark enough that your vision is blurry
- And then by the morning when it breathes
 - Wa subhitha ta naffas
 - When do we go for a jog? In the morning when the air is freshest.
- Then allah finishes his oath: statement of a noble messenger. Jibreel.

- Kuffar would get info from soothsayers, whereas the Prophet ﷺ is getting his from Jibreel through Allah. It is not false control, it is a true message
- Makeen is from makan. You refer to in the context of permanent location
- Tamkeen is high status. Referring to jibreel
- Mutain, jibreel is obedient
- In another ayah Allah asks Jibreel what mercy he received, and he says until these ayat were revealed I did not know my success or my outcome in akhira

Ayah 22-25: The Prophets Clarity

Passage 3 (Ayah 22-25) The Prophets Clarity

Date Covered: 10/27 1225

22. And your companion is not [at all] mad.

23. And he has already seen Gabriel in the clear horizon.

24. And Muhammad is not a withholder of [knowledge of] the unseen.

25. And the Qur'an is not the word of a devil, expelled [from the heavens].

- Junoon. Meaning mad. Allah is saying this man is not mad, referring to the Prophet ﷺ. Not mental illness but rather possession.
- And the Prophet ﷺ has seen Jibreel.
 - Jibreel was exposed to him for a reason. To prove that what he is hearing is truth and that it is not from Shaytan.
- The Prophet ﷺ does not withhold. Soothsayers would withhold info for profit. They were stingy (bakheel) and dhanin (stingy with information). The Prophet ﷺ is not that. He shares everything that is revealed to him.
 - Dhanin can be read in different ways. If it was with thaa/dha it would connote weakness. Therefore the prophet ﷺ's weakness would be negated. However the saad/dha refers to stinginess, and that is the preferred definition
- Information is a form of generosity. Sharing knowledge is a form of charity.
- And this quran is not a form of worship of the devil
 - Even though they believed it, they still denied it. They knew what was being revealed to them was miraculous but they still denied it.
 - How could the same person who was sahib for his whole life suddenly be leading people to Shaytan? The word sahib is used on purpose.

Ayah 26-29: The Reminder

Passage 4: Ayah 26-29 (The Reminder)

Date Covered: 10/27 12:35

26. So where are you going?

27. It is not except a reminder to the worlds

28. For whoever wills among you to take the right course.

29. And you do not will except that Allah wills - Lord of the worlds.

- So where are you going? This is a reminder for everyone. Even those who want to be guided and are asking for it.
- You do not get to choose, allah chooses.

82 | Surah Al-Intifar

Period of Revelation: Makkan

Surah Number: 82

Number of Ayahs: 19

Themes and Subject Matter:

- Events on the Day of Judgement Delusion of mankind
- The angels writing down deeds
- The fate of the righteous and the wicked

Ayah 1-5 (DOJ)

Passage 1: Ayah 1-5 (DOJ)

1. When the sky breaks apart
2. And when the stars fall, scattering,
3. And when the seas are erupted
4. And when the [contents of] graves are scattered,
5. A soul will [then] know what it has put forth and kept back.

Ayah 1

- These surahs are a source of worry.
- However, even in these verses of Qiyama is mercy. Being aware of the test is a mercy. Being disciplined is a mercy. It is from the rahma of Allah that he speaks about jahannam. How can you prepare for a consequence that you are not aware of? These verses are shared with us so that we may be mindful.
- Infathara
 - Fathara is to open something out of nowhere. To create from nothing.
 - There are many words to describe creating, like khalaqa and ja'ala.
 - However fathara also carried the connotation of explosion and ripping.
- Ithasama
 - Meaning the sky. Referenced and spoken about in the other surahs as well, see comparisons.
 - Here, the sky will rip.

Ayah 2

- Intathara
 - To fall off and suddenly scatter. Like a broken necklace.
- Nathartuhu
 - Random and out of order. The opposite of asbahum (meaning in orbit)

Ayah 3

- Fajara
 - Also means to rip open. Used in another surah as well. Like the path of water that breaks through between mountains to form streams.
 - The passive form. To show that the oceans will spill over and the earth will be devastated by it.

- The entire world will be under water

Ayah 4

- Kuboor: meaning grave.
 - Understanding the Grave and the stations of akhirah
 - Grave:
 - Scales: deeds being weighed
 - Sirat. How to pass the sirat: by being good to family and amanah. Some people will go at the speed of light while others will have a sirat as thin as a hair.
 - The Hawdh: Where you get the drink from the Prophet ﷺ guaranteeing Jannah. This is where the people you have wronged will be able to interfere.
- Side Note about Angels: Awareness of the angels. Angels don't have full knowledge.
- The Bankrupt Person: they will come with a mountain of deeds but become bankrupt due to their wronging of other people.
 - A person could do one wrong to someone and lose everything.
- Hadith: Where to find the Prophet ﷺ on the DOJ. Prophet ﷺ says by the bridge (sirat) and the scales (mizan) and the hawdh, making dua on behalf of the people.
- Hadith: 70,000 people entering jannah without hisab (counting of deeds). Man asks for the Prophet ﷺ's dua that he gets to jannah in such a way. With every 1,000 years there will be another 70,000. Meaning 4,900,000.
 - The current population of muslims is 2 billion. Equal to the first century of muslim population.
 - For who?
 - The sabiqoon
 - Being a true lover and applier of the sunnah
 - The ones who died with their aspirations still in their chests
- The best way to Jannah is to have pious friends.
 - Your network should be pious people.
 - It will show from the people who attend your wedding
- Learning from Gaza
 - They are dying with incomplete fulfillments. Their hisab is incomparable.

- Umar RA smashed food near the Prophet ﷺ out of upset that he would be asked about the food (after starving for 3 days). The prophet ﷺ said ? about cold water.
 - Shukr is essential.
- Bathara: when something inside comes outside. Requires deep digging and forceful extraction.
 - Could be referring to the people coming out of their graves.
 - Could be referring to the deeds being forward.
 - Also in Surah Adiyat: Itha buthira ma fil kuboor
- The people will not want to leave their grave hence this verb.
 - The first place of manzil akhira is the graveyard. Its the first step, which if you do good on you will do good with the rest.

Ayah 5

- Qaddamat: meaning brought forth
 - Seeing the rewards of your good deeds.
- Akharrat: meaning kept back
 - Regretting the deeds you could have done
 - Hadith: No one dies except that they regret what they could have done
 - Hadith: People in Jannah have no worries, but they will have a little bit of hasra (a small regret) on every moment they spent without the dhikr of Allah.
- Turning Every Moment into Ibadah
 - Muadh Ibn jabal says I expect the same reward in my sleep that I expect from tahajjud. The sleep is for strength to worship Allah.
 - The intention of it can turn it into worship.
 - Marriage is half the deen right? Even the pursuit of marriage in a halal way is a source of good deeds. Even the pursuit of hajj is ibadah.
 - Angels will answer that the difference in levels of Jannah will be one more subhanallah.
 - The distance of Jannah's smells is 500 years, and the person who has one speck of arrogance in their heart will not smell it.

Baligh

- Before puberty
- Sleeping
- Mental disorder

Tab 29

Passage 2: Ayah 6-9

Date Covered: 11/5 @ 1140

6. O mankind, what has deceived you concerning your Lord, the Generous,
7. Who created you, proportioned you, and balanced you?
8. In whatever form He willed has He assembled you.
9. No! But you deny the Recompense.

Feee ayye sooratim maa shaaa'a rakkabak
Kalla bal tukazziboona bid deen

Ayah 6

O mankind, what has deceived you concerning your Lord, the Generous,
Yaaa ayyuhal insaaanu maa gharraka bi Rabbikal kareem

- Yaa ayyuha
 - Carries a connotation of respect
 - Allah always says Ya ayyuha to the Prophets, it is a loving and respectful style of conversation.
 - Allah is lovingly calling us back to him
 - Even in a home, a parent dissociates with their child when they do something wrong, but Allah does not do that.
- Maa
 - Is like a 'maa' of pain
 - The rhetorical question of what carries the connotation of pain, Allah is pained by our distraction.
 - Its like saying, whats going on? I want to help you
- Gharra
 - meaning to deceive
 - Ghurur is deception
 - Sometimes the amanis (hopes) of dunya can be distractions too
 - Even doing things for islam can make you stray
- Watarabbastum
 - Meaning procrastination, delaying
 - Being too late
 - And the reason is gharra, you were deceived by dunya
- Bi rabbika
 - What is distracting you from your lord?

- Rabb is a loving description. Rabb carries the connotation of raising you, taking care of you, and allowing you to blossom. Its seeing something from its infancy to its adulthood
- Allah is the one that watches you with detail.
- Kareem
 - Someone who gives you when you are not even worthy or receiving it.
 - Allah describes himself like this
 - Oftentimes when people receive things, it's because others think they deserve it. It happens out of adhab.
 - Allah gives even though we do not deserve it.
- This ayah is one of the most loving addresses of the Quran to the human being.
- When the Prophet ﷺ received this ayah, he attributed mankind's ingratitude towards their ignorance
 - So much of the Quran is Allah introducing himself to us
- Tafsir TS @ 1156
 - Why did you stay away from Allah? What consumed you leaving no time for me?
 - Oh Allah, your constant hiding of my faults kept me deceived.
 - Like a spoiled adult child, when the parents spoil them they are unable to do anything or progress.
- Ali calling his servant TS 1200
 - The servant does not respond. Ali asks why are you not responding? The servant says, I know that you love me and you will not do anything.
 - We are like this with Allah.
- Our goal should not be one year, but to die in Allah's path. Plug yourself in some sort of involvement in the work of deen.
 - The moment the apple falls nobody touches it. Stay connected to the tree and continue to live with the tree. Don't have to be the tree, or a branch.
 - Your umbilical cord to ruh is connection to the work of deen. Urdu saying that those who get stuck in a good cause are those who are safe from Shaytan.
 - Being stuck in a good cause is one of the best things you can do for yourself.
- Enjoying life while doing good
 - Umar RA was asked, do you ever think about doing haram? He replied the circle of halal is so plenty, that I do not think about haram.

Ayah 7

Who created you, proportioned you, and balanced you?

Allazee khalaqaka fasaw waaka fa'adalak

- Khalaaqqa
 - Meaning created
- Sawwa
 - Meaning symmetrical
 - All aspects of our bodies are symmetrical
 - Overall allah has made us perfect
 - Physcially we are straight
- Adala
 - We are balanced
 - Other ayahs of the quran, Allah says we made you beautiful
 - Nothing is as special as the human being

Ayah 8

In whatever form He willed, Has assembled you.

Feee ayye sooratim maa shaaa'a rakkabak

- Best form
 - The argument is not whether humans are the best
 - However humans can also be the worst.

Ayah 9

No! But you deny the Recompense.

- Dependent on their actions. Humans are different from other creation in that they have dayn (debt) that will need to be paid back on the DOJ

Tab 30

Ayah 10

- Keepers
 - Referring to the angels
 - Angels report on your deeds, record them, and can protect them is commanded by Allah

Ayah 11

Noble and recording

- The angels recording
 - Allah says, there are 24 angels around you everyday
 - Allah tells the angel that we are about to sin, or the angel see that we are planning on sinning
 - Abu Bakr RA was being attacked, and the moment he spoke up the Prophet ﷺ walked away. The moment you spoke up the angels who were defending you left you so I left too.

Ayah 12

They know whatever you do

- They do not know what you do until we act on it
- Allah knows what you are doing but the angels will not record it until you act
- Angels will be informed of the intention by Allah. The DOJ will show the true weight of our deeds, because while angels are writing, only Allah knows our true intentions.

Tab 31

13. Indeed, the righteous will be in pleasure,
14. And indeed, the wicked will be in Hellfire.
15. They will [enter to] burn therein on the Day of Recompense,
16. And never therefrom will they be absent

Yaslawnahaa Yawmad Deen
Wa maa hum 'anhaa bighaaa 'ibeen

Ayah 13

Innal abraara lafee na'eem

- To be discussed in Surah Al Muttafir

Ayah 14

Wa innal fujjaara lafee jaheem

- To be discussed in Surah Al Muttafir

Ayah 15

- Deen
 - The word deen keeps reappearing in these ayat
 - There was no such thing as loan forgiveness for Arabia. It is an exampl

Ayah 16

Tab 32

17. And what can make you know what is the Day of Recompense?

18. Then, what can make you know what is the Day of Recompense?

19. It is the Day when a soul will not possess for another soul [power to do] a thing; and the command, that Day, is [entirely] with Allah

Wa maaa adraaka maa Yawmud Deen

Summa maaa adraaka maa Yawmud Deen

- Nobody can help you on that day.
- On that day nothing can help you except your own good deeds.

Ayah 19

It is the Day when a soul will not possess for another soul [power to do] a thing; and the command, that Day, is [entirely] with Allah

Yawma laa tamliku nafsul linafsin shai'anw walamru yawma'izil lillaah

- That entire day will belong to Allah

Advices from Sheikh

- Pray salah on time
- Don't hurt anyone's feelings
- You're better off quiet
- Limit your interactions with people who are easily hurt
- Indulging in halal over haram

83 | Surah Al Mutaaffifin

83 | Surah Al Mutaffifin

Period of Revelation: Makkan Surah Number: 83 Number of Ayahs: 36 Themes and Subject Matter: Justice in business The book of the wicked and the righteous

Description of Jannah Characteristics of the criminals

Background

- The surahs are back to back Day of Judgement
- Quraish struggled to reconcile with the concept of a DOJ
- In another part of the Quran, Allah says they will be brought back by their fingertips.
- Sawwiya banana
 - Modern day still uses fingertips to identify people
 - Allah is saying your trace remains, he will use that smallest bit of information
- Makki or Madani
 - Some scholars say this surah was the first one revealed in Madina
 - It has to do with finances: specifically fraud
 - Part of being muslim is that your dealings are perfected

Ayah 1-6

Passage 1: Ayah 1-6

Date Covered: 11/12 11:45

English Translation

Woe to those who give less [than due],
Who, when they take a measure from people, take in full.
But if they give by measure or by weight to them, they cause loss.
Do they not think that they will be resurrected
For a tremendous Day
The Day when mankind will stand before the Lord of the worlds?

Ayah 1

Wailul lil mutaffifeen

Woe to those who give less [than due],

- Wayl
 - Used again in ayah 10
 - Meaning woe, cursed with sadness, doomed
 - It is a bad way of sending curses to somebody
 - Appears more than 10x in this surah
 - The same word on those who cheat
- Mutaffifeen
 - Mutaffifeen root word means taking something out from the top
 - Like taking from the top of a bag of grains so that it weighs less
 - Example of water bottles. Your buying a 1 liter bottle but its half full
 - It's deception in sales, selling with an intentional discrepancy
 - Every single product is measured out carefully
- Expectation on a muslim to do good dealings
 - Financial compliance is so strict in this country that they are actually better at being financially just than some muslims

Ayah 2

Alladheena idhak taaloo 'alan naasi yastawfoon

Who, when they take a measure from people, take in full

- Allahtheena ithak taloo
 - When they want to take money from people, they take it in full

- Continuing with the fraudulent meaning
- Could also mean bullying
- Defining trait of Mutaaffifin
 - They also might be someone who lies or bullies people into things
 - Someone who purposely drags things out to be paid more
 - Failing to fulfill the rights of the job promised to do, cheating out of responsibilities

Thresholds on the DOJ

- Imaaniyat
 - The threshold of faith
- Ibadaat
 - The threshold of worship
- Muamalaat
 - The threshold of financial dealings
 - A person will be judged by the honesty of their dealings on the DOJ
 - Improper dealings with others can cause them to leave faith
 - Story of Zubair. Munafiq has a water stream that runs through Zubair's property. Came to the Prophet ﷺ claiming that his crops don't get enough water. The person felt entitled to more but the Prophet ﷺ decided in the favor of Zubair.
 - When you get burnt by a non muslim it doesn't hurt, but when you get burnt by a muslim it hurts.
 - Taking someone's money is a form of active harm.
- Muassharat
 - The threshold of dealings with family
 - Try not to be involved in finances with family

Ayah 3

Wa idhaa kaaloohum aw wazanoohum yukhsiroon

But if they give by measure or by weight to them, they cause loss.

- Khasira
 - Means to take less
 - They make sure that they are not losing out
 - They might take advantage of those who are hardworking and naive and cheat them out of their services

Ayah 4

Alaa yazunnu ulaaa'ika annahum mab'oosoon

Do they not think that they will be resurrected

- Do they not think?
 - They think they are entitled to forgiveness
 - However this is a reminder that their feelings of entitlement are null

Ayah 5

Li Yawmin 'Azeem

For a tremendous Day -

- Atheem
 - The tremendous day

Ayah 6

Yawma yaqoomun naasu li Rabbil 'aalameen

The Day when mankind will stand before the Lord of the worlds?

- Presented to Allah
 - Like standing in court
 - They will be saying kalla (no)
 - Lots of people will end up in jahannam because of their dealings
 - They will come on the DOJ losing their good deeds and mountains of sins instead
 - Simple muslims that do not have many favors nor have they hurt anyone are maybe the safest

Ayah 7-17

Ayah 7-17

Date Covered: 11/17 @ 1140

Ayah 7 and 8

Kallaaa inna kitaabal fujjaari lafee Sijjeen. Wa maa adraaka maa Sijjeen
No! Indeed, the record of the wicked is in sijjeen. 8. And what can make you know what is sijjeen?

- Fujjaar
 - Fajar means to erupt
 - Fujjaar is the plural
- Sijjeen
- Kitaabum marqum
 - Everything is registered and inscribed
 - Woe to those who deny

Ayah 9-11

Kitaabum marqoom. Wailuny yawma'izil lil mukazzibeen. Allazeena yukazziboona bi yawmid deen

9. It is [their destination recorded in] a register inscribed. 10. Woe, that Day, to the deniers, 11. Who deny the Day of Recompense.

- Maktum
- Makhtum
- Deniers
 - Missed

Ayah 12

Wa maa yukazzibu biheee illaa kullu mu'tadin aseem
And none deny it except every sinful transgressor

- Ittada
 - Meaning the transgressor
 - Someone who is arrogant in their sins
- The more a person transgresses the harder it is for them to be in obedience of Allah

- Allah says about the Quraish, just as you cannot convince a dead person, you cannot convince this person of the wrong they are doing
- It is like talking to a wall. Someone who is intoxicated by dunya does not hear anything you tell them.

Ayah 13

13. When Our verses are recited to him, he says, "Legends of the former peoples."
Izaa tutlaa'alaihi aayaatunaa qaala asaateerul awwaleen

- Becoming overconsumed with dunya
 - Dunya is like a drug

Ayah 14

Kallaa bal raana 'alaa quloobihim maa kaanoo yaksiboon

14. No! Rather, the stain has covered their hearts of that which they were earning.

- Kalla bal
 - Recitation: there is no break in breath between kalla and bal
 - The pause comes after baL which build suspense
- Raana
 - Referring to the stains of sin
 - The more sin the more the heart is dirtied
 - And the opposite is true, the more good you do the cleaner their heart gets
- The Pollution of the Heart
 - Sins lead to spiritual weakness
 - Sins appear as a black dot on the spiritual heart
 - It can reach the point of so much darkness that the Quran does not impact it
 - Such people, when they attend a gathering of Allah it merely clears the dust off it. It does not actually treat the disease.
- Disease of the Heart
 - It's just like real disease, there are stages to it.
 - Why do isolated events not help? Because years of accumulated sin can not be cleaned like that: except through sincere repentance
- Purification through Tawba and Good Deeds

- The Prophet ﷺ compares it to a tight armor. Tawba slowly loosens the sins and undoes it.
- There are avenues to Allah. Qulb (nearness to Allah)

Ayah 15

Kallaaa inna hum 'ar Rabbi him yawma'izil la mahjooboon

15. No! Indeed, from their Lord, that Day, they will be partitioned.

- Mahjooboon
 - Meaning deprived, partitioned
 - One of the punishments of sin is being deprived of Allah both in dunya and in akhira
 - If you do not experience it in this world you will not experience it on the Day of Judgement either
- Imam Shafi'i's opinion: A Privilege Given to the Righteous
 - Just as the disobedient will not see Allah, the obedient will
 - Shafi'i says he would not have been obedient if not for the promise
 - Allah says to us the greater reward than paradise is the sight of him
- Jibreel's reaction to the idea of seeing Allah
 - There are 70 veils between him and Allah
 - Merely approaching the barriers would lead to his demise
 - The believers will see Allah like how we see the full moon (meaning without barriers)
- Ghazali on seeing Allah
 - He says the viewing of Allah is based on how clean the heart is
 - If the mirror is clean you can see the reflection but if it is dirty.
 - The reflection of Allah to you is based on the cleanliness of your heart
- There is no greater reward than seeing Allah
 - Viewings of Allah will only take place on Fridays in Jannah, except for those who reside in Firdaus who will see Allah morning and evening
 - When you love something, looking at it is also an enjoyable experience
- Worshipping Allah without seeing him
 - It is one of the highest honors to love Allah without seeing him
 - Read stories of loving Allah
 - Musa AS asked to see Allah and made tawbah for it after he fainted and a mountain was destroyed by the tiniest gleam.
 - The noor of worship is what will allow you to see Allah on the DOJ

Ayah 16

16. Then indeed, they will [enter and] burn in Hellfire.

Summa innahum lasaa lul jaheem

- There is no greater punishment in Jahannam than not being able to see Allah.
 - In another ayah in the Quran, Allah will not even look at them.
 - It is physical and psychological torture
- The people of jahannam will be asking for death.
 - When Malik turns around after thousands of years, it will be a source of hope for them
 - But he will tell them you are staying in hell forever
 - That statement will be so painful that they would have died if they could
 - Surah Ala says, they are neither dead nor alive.
- Lasaa
 - Meaning burning
 - Burning leads to a loss of sensation
 - But Allah says about this burning that Allah will replace the skin
 - Allah spoke about it 1400 years ago before we knew that sensation was lost, that skin needs to be replaced for us to feel sensation after a burn.
 - Allah also says every time the fire diminishes, they will feel it more
- Two most frightening ayat about Jahannam
 - Every time we will get more ? 1217
 - Sanafruhu ayuhal thakalat
 - Fadhuku an nazikuh ala 1221
 - Ibn Abbas says one of them is that Allah will be occupied
 - Allah being "occupied" despite him never really being busy is an extreme way of showing the extent of punishment.

Ayah 17

17. Then it will be said [to them], "This is what you used to deny.

Summa yuqaalu haazal lazee kuntum bihee tukazziboon

- Yuqaalu
 - Meaning it will be said to them
 - Allah will not speak to them, a delegate from the angels will
- Haathal lathee kuntum bihar tukathiboon

- The end of the Quran is all about the DOJ
 - Juz Amma is about akhira for a reason. It is the most memorized and most recited.
 - Majority of the Quran is about akhira

Ayah 18-28

Ayah 18-28

Date Covered: 11/19 @ 1140

Ayah 18-19

Kallaaa inna kitaabal abraari lafee'Illiyyeen. 19. Wa maaa adraaka maa 'Illiyoon
No! Indeed, the record of the righteous is in 'illiyyun. And what can make you know what is 'illiyyun?

- Abrar
 - The plural of bir
 - The books of the righteous people are in bir
 - Possibly meaning souls
- The Barzakh
 - When a pious person leaves this dunya, the angels will take their soul very gently. The journey of the soul goes to illiyeen. This is the life of the barzakh.
 - The soul is informed of the noise that occurs after they die.
 - The Prophet ﷺ told sahaba not to wail because it would make the deceased sad.
- Illiyeen
 - Illiyeen is considered to be one of the highest places, near the arsh of allah
 - The Prophet ﷺ says about it: The people will be able to see illiyeen from Jannah
 - The illiyeen being spoken about in this ayat is a different one, outside of jannah
- Noor of the people
 - Their light will be so bright that they will light up everything around them until reaches jannah From ula meaning highest station
- Comparison to a business class lounge
 - The souls of pious people gather in these lounges and relax until the DOJ
 - Shuhada skip these lounges. They become birds which fly in Jannah until the DOJ.
 - When Jaafer passed away, The Prophet ﷺ said he saw Jaafer flying with the malaika in Jannah.
 - Ibrahim AS is the caretaker of souls that are shuhada
- Story of Umar RA
 - The two angels will come to make you answer in the grave
 - Umar RA asked the Prophet ﷺ if we will have intellect in the grave, and the Prophet ﷺ said it will be exactly like dunya.

- Jibreel then informed the Prophet ﷺ that when Umar RA is asked he will question the angels, that is how strong his imaan is.
- His son saw in a dream that Umar RA hisaab was about to start.

Ayah 20-21

Kitaabum marqoom. Yashhadu hul muqarra boon

20. It is [their destination recorded in] a register inscribed 21. Which is witnessed by those brought near [to Allah].

- Muqarraboona
 - Referring to the angels
 - Specifically the named angels which hold the highest roles

Ayah 22-23

Innal abraara lafee Na'eem. 'Alal araaa'iki yanzuroon

22.Indeed, the righteous will be in pleasure 23. On adorned couches, observing.

- Naeem
 - Meaning blessings
 - Here it specifically Jannah
 - The word naeem is mentioned here and two verse later it is an'naeem
- Araiki
 - Meaning couches, reclining seats
 - Allah often describes the people of jannah in a state of sitting
 - Two other ayahs mentioned
- They are “retired and enjoying”
 - The privilege of relaxation is only afforded to those who work
 - If someone is just sitting around, you can say that they have no worries or cares.
 - This ayah tells us about their physical and emotional state.

Ayah 24-25

Ta'rifu fee wujoohihim nadratana na'eem

24.You will recognize in their faces the radiance of pleasure.

- Nadratana naeem
 - Meaning glowing faces, the glow of blessings
- Raheeq
 - Meaning wine, nectar

- One of the most pure drinks of Jannah
- There is no drunkenness in Jannah
- Wine used to be associated with the highest class of luxury, and more appealing to jahiliya men than women.
- Allah is saying that Jannah will be the highest class of celebration
 - Even in dunya, the most valuable wine is the wine that has been preserved carefully and for a long time
- Everything you can imagine is in jannah
 - You might not find it relatable
 - Every person has something different they are looking forward to in Jannah.
 - The food will be better than any other food. They will be more beautiful with passing time.
 - They will see Allah every Friday at Jummah.
- Only one regret in Jannah
 - The minutes and second they did not spend remembering Allah
 - Reminder to Students: This one year we have, we might look back at it later and wish we spent our entire life like this

Ayah 25-26

Yusqawna mir raheeqim makhtoom. Khitaamuhoo misk; wa fee zaalika falyatanaafasil Mutanaafisoon

25. They will be given to drink [pure] wine [which was] sealed. 26. The last of it is musk. So for this let the competitors compete.

- Continuing the wine
- The more you drink wine the less appealing it is
 - The ending of the drink in Jannah however will only taste better and better
 - It will have no sickening effect, nor an intoxicating
 - There will be no sense of fullness just enjoyment
 - The last sip will be equally as beautiful as the first
- Misk
 - Meaning pleasant fragrance
 - The end of the drink will smell like musk
 - People are often very particular about starting something, but they fade away with time
- People who are particular about endings will also experience the beautiful end of drink in Jannah
 - This is the
- Tanafasa

- Meaning competing
- Root word tanaffas meaning breathing
- When you are competing with others you become out of breath
- It is competition with the connotation of exertion and breathlessness
- Why is this conversation in this Surah?
 - First Allah identifies those who do business, who are by nature different from employees. In business you always want more.
 - Allah is showing us: you are cheating to compete, you always want more money.
 - But if there is something you should be competing for it's not wealth in dunya but rather in akhira.
 - Compete in serving islam, compete in ibadah. And strive for Jannah not dunya.
- Applying it to the Ummah
 - If you put a muslim and a non-muslim in a room right now, you won't be able to see the difference in their aspirations
 - The direction of our tanafus needs to change.
 - Competition is an amazing quality in the right places. People with the quality of competition do great things for the deen.
 - It is the nature of humans that they are motivated by competition.
 - The value of those who chase for Jannah is incomparable.
 - A time will come where you will have no one to compete with and you are competing with yourself from yesterday.
- Reminder to Students: Never compete with your community.
 - You are competing with previous generations not with your peers
 - The sahaba should be our goal.

Ayah 27-28

Wa mizaajuhoo min Tasneem.'Ainaiy yashrabu bihal muqarraboona

27. And its mixture is of Tasneem, 28. A spring from which those near [to Allah] drink.

- Tasneem
 - Meaning a river in Jannah
 - The rivers name is Tasneem and it mixes with the wine
 - Root word sinam, meaning the hump of a camel
 - It will be called that because it is elevated
 - Only the people very close to Allah will be able to drink from this river
 - The river Tasneem will be one of the only rivers that is flowing above and not below.

- It flows in the air, like water fountains.
 - It will flow east to west at eye level
- Mizaajuhoo
 - Meaning mixing
- Muqarraboon
 - Meaning those who are near to Allah
 - Ask yourself if you are from the mutanafisoon
 - 3 categories
 - Ashab ul yameen
 - Muqarraboon
 - Be amongst those who just strive to do good.

Ayah 29-32

Ayah 29-32

Date Covered: 12/10 @ 1130

English Translation

29. Indeed, those who committed crimes used to laugh at those who believed.

30. And when they passed by them, they would exchange derisive glances.

31. And when they returned to their people, they would return jesting.

32. And when they saw them, they would say, "Indeed, those are truly Lost."

Ayah 29

Innal lazeena ajramoo kaanoo minal lazeena aamanoo yadhakoon

Indeed, those who committed crimes used to laugh at those who believed.

- Innal latheena ajram
- Ajram
 - Criminals
 - Juroom is to commit a major crime
- Yadhakoon
 - Meaning laughing
 - Today's laughter is different from the past. People used to have to pass by people to laugh at them.
- This mocking conversation of theirs is a continuous challenge of our imaan
 - Even Nuh AS, when he built his ship, people would laugh at him
 - "We will laugh at you the same way you laugh at us today"
- Modern Parallel
 - Trump's criticism of Somalis in Minnesota. The criticism and scrutiny that they get is not given to any other group, this kind of attack always falls on muslims.
 - Their hatred is spilling out, but what's deeper is worse.
 - And at times we might face this kind of discrimination is faced by muslims from other muslims, especially those who are allied with oppressors

Ayah 30

Wa iza marroo bihim yataghaamazoon

And when they passed by them, they would exchange derisive glances.

- Ghamaza
 - To make fun of someone with a look
 - Literally meaning to move something down (used literally in hadith as well)
 - Referring to glances of belittlement
- Example in seerah
 - Ali RA would receive such looks from the munafiqeen
- Current society
 - We experience this all the time, especially muslim women
 - People are jahil. It's not always malicious but its part of our responsibility to remove it,
 - Story: Sheikh was in a store recently and a veteran asked him where he's from. He messed with him a little, said he was adopted lol
- Undoing intentional ignorance
 - It's a deeply rooted issue of intentional ignorance
 - The ones who are not rooted are a little more accommodating
 - It's important to undo that ignorance with our etiquette
- Solution: Go out of our comfort zone and win them over
 - Sheikh mentions his neighbor has a trump flag and is far-right, but still cleans his driveway
 - His whole neighborhood is non-muslim. Important to build relationships.
 - Story: Tree fell, just a few feet away from the house. Called his neighbor, who is always cutting wood. Asked him to cut the tree.
- Lesson: Our akhlaq can win them over
 - People have been won over, time and time again.
 - Our akhlaq can guide people.
 - At the bare minimum, even if it doesn't work, we should try our best.
 - We have to go above and beyond to work against their perceived inconveniences and ignorance
- Gaining acknowledgment through being the best
 - Why do non-muslims acknowledge muslim athletes? They're simply the best at what they do.
 - Example of Khabib who refuses to do sponsorships with companies whose values are not muslims
 - Lots of people cannot withstand the climate however.

- Story: Sheikh was praying when someone walked by making gun sounds.
- It's not acceptable and its scary, but the best way to beat them is through akhlaq
- Inviting non muslims home is a big form of dawah

Ayah 31

Wa izan qalabooo ilaaa ahlihimun qalaboo fakiheen

And when they returned to their people, they would return jesting.

- Faqiheen
 - Meaning arrogant, proud
 - Sometimes you can just look at peoples faces and see their ignorance

Ayah 32

Wa iza ra awhum qaalooo inna haaa'ulaaa'i ladaaal loon

And when they saw them, they would say, "Indeed, those are truly Lost."

- Ladaal loon
 - They look at muslims and think that we are lost
 - Far from reality, which is that muslims brought so many key developments in society
- Story: One time a man said to Sheikh. You arab, go back to Afghanistan
 - Roots of colonization in their ignorance
- Book Rec: The Economical Hitman
 - Speaks about different countries and their economical wars
 - Even muslim countries, indulge in financial oppression and warfare
- Returning jests
 - This country is far from perfect
 - Point back to the issues of this country

But they had not been sent as guardians over them

Ayah 33-36

Date Covered: 12/10 @ 1210

English Translation

33. But they had not been sent as guardians over them.

34. So Today those who believed are laughing at the disbelievers,

35. On adorned couches, observing.

36. Have the disbelievers [not] been rewarded [this Day] for what they used to do?

Ayah 33-34

Wa maaa ursiloo 'alaihim haafizeen

Fal yawmal lazeena amanoo minal kuffaari yadhakoon

- Allah is saying I never made these evil people the custodians of your affairs. Who cares what they says
- Fil yawm
- Even non-practicing muslims make mockery of the practicing ones
 - Sheikh in grand blank. Someone made a sarcastic comment at him. Trying to say that the Sheikh is disconnected from reality. What is the skin color of the women in jannah, trying to make a joke. Then the sheikh retreats. The sheikh is very humble.
 - Sheikh Abdullah wished he had been asked, he would not have given such a nice answer.
 - Even muslims joke, and that is more hurtful.
- Different cultures which have been impacted by secularism
 - Will make comments towards young girls who start becoming more practicing.
 - Not acceptable, and should be intervened.
 - With relatives you might have a different approach.
- Prophetic approach
 - Not always gentle, contrary to popular belief
 - There are layers to how you can respond. The Prophet ﷺ wasn't always soft and gentle, he was tough when he needed to be
 - Majority of the time you should respond to jahil (ignorance) with salam (peace) but you cannot always do that

- The middle east has generally not been colonized to the same respect as the subcontinent
 - They have maintained much of their cultural influence
 - Depends on who colonized and when, and it affected their perception towards religion so deeply
 - Their perception towards religion has become twisted
 - It wasn't always like this.
 - Old madrasa's had strict criterias: to the extent that they even had to be attractive. Or maybe chosen by the king. Or maybe a certain height. It was a scrutinous procedure to be chosen to be a scholar.
- Secular world views islam as a hindrance
 - Financial hindrance: the sin of riba. The forbiddance of interest
 - Social hindrance: strict social ideals
 - Sheikh mentions he used to ignore it but now that he has the knowledge he dismantles it quickly
- Niqabi sister wondering why other muslims are criticizing her niqab
 - Some come from a lack of understanding.
 - They perceive it as a risk, or they might be prompting to find out if there's been careful thought behind the decision
 - One community cannot represent all of islam
 - Advice to sisters: don't be selective about wearing niqab
- Inconsistency in the behavior of muslims
 - Everyone has experienced the awkwardness of having to explain why they are more disciplined than other muslims
 - One sheikh walks around with a mug in one hand and a book in another

Ayah 35-36

'Alal araaa'iki yanzuroon. Hal suwwibal kuffaaru maa kaanoo yaf'aloona

On adorned couches, observing. 36. Have the disbelievers [not] been rewarded [this Day] for what they used to do?

- Ma kaanu yafaloon
 - What they used to do
 - Referring to the mockery, looks etc.

Ayah 1- 6

Ayah 1-6

Date Covered: 12/15 @ 1215

Ayah 1

Izas samaaa'un shaqqat

- Other ayah
 - In another surah, with fattara
 - Fattara in that ayah means to create, but in order to create something you need to get rid of something.
 - Fattara is the stem that comes ripping through the ground
- Shaqqat
 - By contrast is very disruptive, dismantling
 - Can be described as crashing
 - Used here as splitting
- Interpretation: The DOJ is near

Wa azinat li Rabbihaa wa huqqat

- Adhina
 - Means to give permission or to listens/obey
 - The sky is listening to its lord
- The heavens obey the commands of Allah, and split apart
- Wa huqqat
 - Meaning rightfully so
 - It listens as it should
 - Rather it has no choice but to listen
- Ayah in Quran
 - When Allah created the heavens and the earth he commanded them to come to him and prostrate. They responded, we come to you obedient.
 - So now when commanded to break, they break just as they should.
- Hadiths using huqqat
 - The Prophet ﷺ said How can I be at rest? The angel of the trumpet is holding it waiting for Allah's command and when Allah orders it will blow.
 - There is not a space of 4 fingers except that an angel is prostrating to Allah there
 - The sky has so many angels prostrating to Allah, that it has a right to crack

Wa izal ardu muddat

- Muddat
 - Meaning made flat
 - Previous surahs mention

Wa alqat maa feehaa wa takhallat

- Alaqat
 - Meaning to take out
 - The earth will take out the dead
 - Everything will come out
- Wa thakallat
 - Meaning to be completed
 - Khalla means to finish something
 - When the earth cleans everything out of its self, and things that were hidden come out.

Wa azinat li Rabbihaa wa huqqat

- Repeating huqqat
 - The earth is also just doing as it should. To stretch and take out everything that was in it

Ayah 6

Yaaa ayyuhal insaanu innaka kaadihun ilaa Rabbika kad han famulaaqeeh

- All of the previous ayat lead to this one
- This whole 5 verses give the intention of this one
- Ya ayyuhal insaan
 - Oh human
 - A warning call
- Kaadihun
 - From kadhaha
 - Means to go through pain and hardship
 - You go through your whole life in some pain
 - You will continuously be in trouble, in layers
- Famulaaqeeha
 - Until you meet you lord
- Significance of this ayah

- A long time ago, Sheikh gave a khutbah just on this ayah.
- Hardships of life begin at birth and never stop.
- This life is a life of hardship. It is a test.
- Tests were not meant to be easy.
- Hadith about hardships
 - The Prophet ﷺ was once in the desert. He drew a few lines and talked about how a person has their life and hardships at each line.
 - Then death comes, and his dreams reach beyond his lifespan.
 - Says, people are never going to escape hardships
- Lesson: There is a solution to every hardship.
 - You have to seek it
 - Hadith: There is no sickness except that Allah sent a dawa
 - Even if it is an emotional sickness
 - Allah requires you to struggle with any difficulty
- Solutions to hardship
 - Have Allah by your side
 - Seek help
 - Make dua
 - Move around: sometimes we limit ourselves physically. Don't want to travel at all.
 - Make efforts
- Never losing hope
 - Yaqub told his sons to keep looking for Yusuf, never lose hope in Allah
 - How can we lose hope when there's Allah?
 - We cannot live in misery. We have to keep trying and ask Allah for help
 - Have imaan and trust in Allah. Everyone is going through some type of misery.
- Not having Allah makes it difficult
 - The process of pain is very different for a muslim
 - Non muslims don't know how to cope. Muslims know that everything is with the wisdom of Allah
- Sometimes people wonder, am I ever gonna catch a break? But we don't dictate it.
- Reacting properly
 - The greatest sabr is in the initial news of the tragedy
 - Do you immediately assume the best of Allah?
 - If you don't, even the smallest problems will feel huge
- Having Allah on your side is not sudden
 - You have to develop the habit and relationship regularly

Hadith: The Prophet ﷺ with Sahaba at the Well

- Narration
 - The Prophet was sitting in a garden with his feet in a pond to cool down
 - Abu Musa woke up that day wanting to spend the whole day with him. Found him.
 - The Prophet ﷺ told him to stand security.
 - Abu Bakr came. The Prophet ﷺ said tell him he's going to Jannah
 - Then Umar. Told the same.
 - Uthman. Told the same, but that he would go through lots of turmoil. He said may Allah make it easy.
- Lesson: Any service is an honor.
 - Abu Musa could've taken offense
 - Any part of our body used for Allah is an honor.
 - When Uthman lost his eye, said to his other eye it should be jealous of the other eye because it was lost in the path of Allah
- Lesson; Need Allah's help
 - His response was may allah make it easy
- Lesson: Even sahaba went through difficulty
 - Muhaddith translate their seats as their position of their graves
 - Uthman's death was very difficult

Attitudes towards Death and Pain

- Death is a raha for a believer
 - We will have this pain until we meet Allah
- Pain is a reward for a believer
 - Any believer that has sabr gets reward
 - The rule of pain is that you can't complain
 - Everyone says they have sabr but they're also always complaining
 - Not allowed to do shaqwa
- Only permissible shaqwa is regarding your own weakness
 - Have to continuously seek help from Allah
- Do not think of this world as the ultimate joy.
 - The Prophet ﷺ said to Fatima, I will not go through anymore pain after this
 - Success in the eyes of Allah is the ultimate joy
- Accepting tests but not asking for them

- Quote: If Allah gave me everything and I was healthy that would be more painful to me than being tested.
- But that does not mean we should ask for tests. We should always ask for afiyah.
- We are weak. Great pious people failed tests.
- A lot of muslims go through hardships and turn to drugs. People do not know how to handle tests.
- Everyone has different coping mechanisms
 - Even Yaqub went blind from his grief.
 - The Prophet ﷺ did not cry much for his children, he cried more at the deaths of sahaba
 - It doesn't end, you just learn how to cope
- The tone of this ayah
 - Not a warning or comfort, just fact
 - A fact for both muslims and non muslims
 - Insaan in general. Everyone is addressed in this ayah
 - After death a persons lack of awareness toward Allah will compound
- Have shukr before hardships even occur
 - If your car crashes. Having shukr before the car crashes has more reward than sabr after losing it.
 - Must be in a state of shukr
 - Cannot just be turning to Allah when we need him
- Showing shukr
 - The shukr of Daud AS. Every moment in his home had someone in worship. He would fast every other day.
 - The Prophet ﷺ was fast on Mondays out of shukr for the day he was born. That is shukr.
 - Live up to your gratitude
- When you're not grateful enough is when Allah either takes them away so you learn your lesson, or allows you to indulge in it and it becomes your path to jahannam.
 - Indulging does not mean allah is happy with you
 - Allah loves shukr
- Shukr is not easy, but there is nothing better than being both blessed and grateful.
 - Have to do more than just say alhamdulillah
 - Have to express it in deeds
 - Give in charity

- Story: Sheikhs FIL gave him sadaqa. Sheikh said it wasn't enough, he could give more. Pushed him to give more.
 - Give based on your blessings.
 - Giving is a form of shukr.
- When people ask when is this gonna end
- Story: When their brother passed away, a sister reached out
 - She could not recover. Had lots of issues (dads mental health, brother not well, mom cancer) Asked is Allah punishing us? Now my sister got married and just drowned. Her henna was still fresh. I put it on myself. Then she asked him, how are you dealing with it?
- Don't put more salt in the wounds of life after it already has difficulties
 - Life for a woman is difficult. Be soft on your daughters.
 - When things are good is not when you talk about difficult things
 - Have some emotional intelligence
 - Don't ruin good moments
 - You don't know how long you are with your family
 - Don't make your moments with them ugly.
 - Keep beautiful moments beautiful
 - TS 1306
- You didn't get through difficulties on your own
 - None of us got through anything by ourselves
 - All things took Allah's help
 - Your lord that took care of yesterday will take care of you tomorrow
 - You are not the pilot of your life. Allah is the pilot. Your job is to do your best.
- You've never heard a no in your life. Allah gives you a no and your entitlement comes out.
 - Have to actively undo our senses of entitlement
 - Things go Allah way, not yours
 - Nos from Allah need to be taken with grace
 - Even the Prophet ﷺ faces nos
 - Sabr is not giving up

4 Qualities of a Good Friend 1316

1. Honest. Never lies and never accuses you of lying
2. Will keep a secret
3. Can ask them for any favor (moral and financial) and you won't feel judged
4. Bring you closer to Allah: akhirah is there central base

Ayah 7-15

Ayah 7-15

Date Covered: 12/17 @ 1200, TS 1230 Khabib!!!

- Recap: Until you meet Allah or you receive your book of deeds

Ayah 7-8

Fa ammaa man ootiya kitaabahoo biyameenih. Fasawfa yuhaasab hisaabany yaseeraa

- Hasaba
 - Means to audit, account
 - Imagine the scrutiny a person will go through on the DOJ
 - Basri says account only for good action and punishment only for sin
 - You earned money? Will be asked about how you earned it and where you spent it.
 - Might not be haram to buy water but you will still be asked about it
- Hisaab of halal
 - Time
 - Salah: prayed or missed? Who did you pray for? How well did you pray?
 - The hisaab is of good deeds
- It will be made easy
 - Aisha made dua for an easy account. She asked what it was and the Prophet ﷺ said to Aisha, Allah looks at the book of deeds of a person and says you pass. Anyone that Allah opens one page, have the best day of your life prepared to be presented to him.
 - Allah doesn't scrutinize every little line
- Analogy: Customs. Sometimes they don't ask you anything, just let you in. American? Go ahead.
 - Its a anxiety inducing process. Allah could hold us and scrutinize us if he wanted to.
 - Did we fulfill all the rights of what was given to us?
 - Allah wont ask to investigate, he already knows
 - The best hisaab is an easy one and we will only get it due to his rahma
- The anger on the DOJ
 - Imagine an impulsive and explosive anger. That is not Allah
 - Allah will say to us I have been watching and listening
 - The Prophet ﷺ will present one book of deeds first: Abu Bakr's
- Traits of jahnanam
 - Jahannam will be enraged. Each chain will have 70,000 angels to drag

- Like a pot
- The smell and noise of it is enough to kill us
- It has eyes
- Our best options: easy hisaab or no hisaab
- Having our best day prepared
 - So that you can show that one page
 - Forget one day, can we even present one hour?
 - Or one act of ibadah?
 - Allah knows all of our intentions, none of our acts of ibadah are perfect

Hadith: Those who enter Jananh without hisaab

Hadith: They don't believe in superstitions, they don't seek cure from other than Allah, and they rely on Allah alone. Then a man asked to be amongst them, and the Prophet ﷺ says you are amongst them. Then another sahabi also asked for the same. Uqasha took the place of Jannah before you.

- Why did the Prophet ﷺ not make dua for Uqasha and not the other man?
 - It needs to be earned.
 - It was something that was already on Uqasha's mind. He was already thinking about it.
 - Whatever is on your mind is going to be your prayer. You can't fake these moments. They have to be wired in you. You have to be present minded.
- With every 70,000 there will be another, and then another
 - That adds up to 4.9 Billion people
- Another narration mentions cautery
 - Uthman Ibn Madhun. The Prophet ﷺ did cautery on him and he died
 - Jews accused him of killing his companion
 - However shifa is in the hands of Allah
 - Narration mentioning cautery is referring to how healing is only through Allah, treatments have no guarantee
- Bonus: Shaheed
 - Has no hisaab in akhirah but does in the grave

Ayah 9

Wa yanqalibu ilaaa ahlihee masroora

- Masroora
 - If you obey Allah in this world you will go back happy
- Allah will not speak to kuffar on the DOJ
- Allah knows every single act, big or small and its all documented

Ayah 10

Wa ammaa man ootiya kitaabahoo waraaa'a zahrih

- Why back and not left hand
 - Surah Haqqa mentions the left hand
 - The people given in the left hand will refuse to look at it
 - They will put their left hand behind their back
 - Allah will force it into their hand
 - The physical look of the book is question
 - Left hand behind the back
 - Some scholars say they will be given in the left while other are forced in their back

Ayah 11-13

Fasawfa yad'oo thubooraa. Wa yaslaa sa'eeraa. Innahoo kaana fee ahlihee masroora

- And they will cry and scream and run around shouting destruction.
- Sala yasree
 - Means to burn
 - Mentioned in the Quran, they will burn in saeer (hell)
- Why? Because of two things
 - One: Never concerned about akhirah. Laughing, joking, arrogant in dunya. Never struggled to worship Allah. Nothing was important to them except enjoying in dunya. The exam of life was a joke for them

Not Taking Accountability Lightly

- A believer is always under some kind of pressure of obedience to Allah
 - We just sat down, it's Asr time
 - Non muslims don't feel a sense of concern.
 - We, however, get up out of our seats to pray
 - They will go back home arrogant

- Dunya is a prison for a muslim
 - We have the accountability of serving Allah on us at all times
 - We should have marks of fatigue from serving Allah
- Irony: Muslims can enjoy this world better than non muslims and still get Jannah
 - One day Hasan sat, looking like a prince. And someone came to him saying shouldn't dunya be a prison why are you enjoying the world?
 - He replied the world is still comparatively a prison
- In these blessings there's still accountability.
 - The more blessings the more accountable we are for them
 - Story: Khabib sat for an interview and music is playing and they try to get him to dance. Not doing it.
 - Live in this world with no concern for it.
- The pious person is always concerned about failing
 - They are striving but still worried
 - A believer should be worried about every single moment
 - As if every salah has a grade
 - Missing salahs, like missing mandatory assignments for a class
- Responding to blessings: Example of Sahaba
 - Battle of Yarmuk: 14 years after the Prophet ﷺ died, they conquer Persia. The promise was made 20 years prior.
 - The resulting rizq: If sahaba worked 200 years straight they would have never reached that much wealth that came with the spoils of conquering Persia
 - However Allah gave them dunya and akhirah, but when treasures of dunya came they kicked them.
 - Umar dispersed the wealth to poor the following warning. Was encouraged by Abdurrahman to save same. Umar said, Shaytan put that on your tongue.
 - When Abu Huraira wiped his nose with a silk handkerchief, he recalled when he was so poor he seized.
- Need for reshifting in muslims
 - A lot muslims have started to think wealth means Allah is pleased with you
 - Not the islamic approach, rather a christian one

Ayah 14-15

Innahoo zanna an lany yahoor. Balaaa inna Rabbahoo kaana bihee baseeraa

- Hawr
 - Meaning a returning calamity
 - They thought this returning to Allah would never happen
- However there lord was watching this whole time

Ayah 16-21

Ayah 16-21

Date Covered: 1/5/26 @ 1147

English Translation

- 16. So I swear by the twilight glow
- 17. And [by] the night and what it envelops
- 18. And [by] the moon when it becomes full
- 19. [That] you will surely experience state after state.
- 20. So what is [the matter] with them [that] they do not believe,
- 21. And when the Qur'an is recited to them, they do not prostrate [to Allah]?

Ayah 16

فَلَا أُقْسِمُ بِالشَّفَقِ

Falaaa uqsimu bishshafaq

So I swear by the twilight glow

- Shafaq
 - The redness of night
 - Like the end of maghrib
 - The last light of the day
- Allah is taking an oath by the redness of the sky
 - Almost like Allah is giving an analogy
 - Comparative expression of how the day is coming to an end
- Allah is implying the end of life
 - Time is over

Ayah 17

وَاللَّيْلِ وَمَا وَسَقَ

Wallaili wa maa wasaq

And [by] the night and what it envelops

- Wal layl
 - Allah is swearing by the night
 - The night which envelops the whole sky
- Wasaq

- Enveloping darkness
- Allah is swearing by that swift and complete change that occurs

Ayah 18

Walqamari izat tasaq

And [by] the moon when it becomes full

- Ittasaqa
 - When the moon becomes full
- What naturally follows is the moon becoming smaller
- Allah is swearing by transitioning events to show that nothing is permanent
 - 3 oaths
 - Last oart of the day
 - Night as it gets dark
 - Moon as it changes

Ayah 19

وَالْقَمَرِ إِذَا اتَّسَقَ

Latarkabunna tabaqan 'an tabaq

[That] you will surely experience state after state.

- Tabaq
 - Can mean sky or stages
 - Also appears in Surah Mulk
- Allah is saying to us, you will also experience different states
 - Every human will go through different stages
 - Allah speaks to the Prophet ﷺ and tells him he will go through various conditions
- Allah might be speaking to the Prophet ﷺ to tell him he might be travelling the stages
- Tafsir Qurtubi
 - 8 possible meanings
 - Could be literal or spiritual
 - The human being is always changing spiritually and physically
 - Like how they started as a clot then age and die
 - Or how they change from rich to poor
 - Or how their difficulties and test change
 - Or it refers to the punishments they will receive
 - Or specifically to the Prophet ﷺ

Ayah 20-21 (SAJDA)

﴿فَمَا لَهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ. وَإِذَا قُرِئَ عَلَيْهِمُ الْقُرْآنُ لَا يَسْجُدُونَ﴾

Famaa lahum laa yu'minoon. Wa iza quri'a 'alaihimul Quraanu laa yasjudoon.

So what is [the matter] with them [that] they do not believe, 21. And when the Qur'an is recited to them, they do not prostrate [to Allah]?

- So why do they not believe?
 - Allah is asking rhetorically
- People might ask what are the proofs of their being a creator?
 - The changing of events
 - The weakness of the body
 - The ambitions of the human and their inability to execute despite them
- After all these signs, how do they not see is the question
- Obligatory to make sajda
 - Must make sajda after reciting or hearing this ayat
 - Can be done later does not need to be done immediately
 - If recited in sajda must be recited immediately
- The purpose of sajda
 - To humble us
 - Allah is not interested in a physical sajda
 - What's more important is to humble yourself mentally and emotionally
- Humility of Umar RA
 - His greatest asset was his humility
- Everyone is here to prove to Allah not to others

Ayah 22-25

Ayah 22-25

Date Covered: 1/5 1205

English Translation

22. But those who have disbelieved deny,
23. And Allah is most knowing of what they keep within themselves.
24. So give them tidings of a painful punishment,
25. Except for those who believe and do righteous deeds. For them is a reward uninterrupted

Ayah 22-23

بَلِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا يُكَذِّبُونَ. وَاللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا يُوعُونَ

Balil lazeena kafaroo yukazziboon. Wallaahu a'lamu bima yoo'oon

22. But those who have disbelieved deny, 23. And Allah is most knowing of what they keep within themselves.

- Yu'oon
 - Meaning to hide
 - Allah knows what they are hiding

Ayah 24

فَبَشِّرْهُمْ بِعَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ

Fabashshirhum bi'azaabin aleem

24. So give them tidings of a painful punishment,

- Adhabin aleem
 - Very common word
 - When combined adheem it means severe, more physical
 - With aleem means very painful, physical and emotional
 - Adhab muhin is a purely emotional kind of punishment
- Why aleem
 - Denying the Peropphet is painful
 - So here allah uses aleem
 - When people would torture the Prophet ﷺ allah would the word aleem to describe their punishment

Ayah 25

إِلَّا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ لَهُمْ أَجْرٌ غَيْرُ مَمْنُونٍ

Illal lazeena aamanoo wa 'amilus saalihaati lahum ajrun ghairu mamnoon

25. Except for those who believe and do righteous deeds. For them is a reward uninterrupted

- Mamnoon
 - means cutoff, like dust that goes up and fades away
- Ghayr mamnoon
 - Meaning the reward will not be cutoff, it will continue

Summary

- Allah starts and ends the surahs by oaths
- The overarching message is of the person going through different stages
- Difficulties exist for a reason
 - You learn lessons which you can only learn through experiencing trials
 - If you always get what you want you become arrogant
 - That feeling of entitlement can destroy a person
 - They also become blinded to their mistakes
- If conditions can't change you what can?
 - Conditions are created to change a person
 - Sometimes Allah interrupts blessing in order to reorient a person
- Who are these arrogant people
 - Those who do not care for others anymore
 - Allah speaks about this further in Surah Hadid
- Remember to be rooted in humility and in the teachings of the Prophet ﷺ
- Question: Why is there a fa for immediacy in the reward sometimes and not here?
 - Answer: When it comes to reward. Like going to a resort, you don't go to the room right away. You enjoy the lobby a little. Going in is itself a paradise, there's a little delay because it's an enjoyable process. There's joy in the suspense.

85 | Surah Al Buruj

85 | Surah Al Buruj

Number of Ayahs: 22

Themes and Subject Matter:

The people of the trench
Punishment of those who torture the Muslims
Reward for the believers
The might of Allah
The story of Firaun and Thamud
The nature of the Quran

Background and Context

- First surah to move away from talking about Qiyama
- Now talking about ahlul kitab
 - These were the JudeoChristians
 - Among the few people to follow the true religions of Isa AS
- This surah is about these people and how they were tortured
 - 300 years later the followers of Paul completely ruined the creed
 - Same with Constantine and the Roman Empire
 - They were tortured simply for believing in the truth
- Surah Yasin, story of Habbib Najjar
 - Various points in the Quran where Allah brings the story of non prophets

Ayah 1-9

Ayah 1-9

Date Covered: 1/12 @

English Translation

1. By the sky containing great stars
2. And [by] the promised Day
3. And [by] the witness and what is witnessed,
4. Cursed were the companions of the trench
5. [Containing] the fire full of fuel,
6. When they were sitting near it
7. And they, to what they were doing against the believers, were witnesses.
8. And they resented them not except because they believed in Allah, the Exalted in Might, the Praiseworthy,
9. To whom belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth. And Allah, over all things, is Witness.

Ayah 1

Wassamaaa'i zaatil burooj

- Wassama
 - Allah swears by the sky
- Dhaat
 - Meaning to possess
- Burooj
 - Meaning stars, planets
 - Burooj has to do with height
 - Referring to how the sky is towering
- Various opinions
 - Opinion 2: kusoor. meaning palace/towers
 - Opinion 3: sky is full of beauty
 - Opinion 4: manzil. The sky always has a direction and is in movement. The stages of the star and our exposure to them.
- Most common interpretation
 - That the sky is a possessor of all of these qualities. The stars are these large suspended bodies that are beautiful, moving, and bringing us light
- Allah is taking an oath by this creation

Ayah 2

Wal yawmil maw'ood

- Mawood
 - Meaning the promised day
 - Allah is not just promising by the DOJ but by the events that happen on it

Ayah 3

Wa shaahidinw wa mashhood

- Shahid
 - Meaning the witness
 - Early scholars say it is referring to jumuah
 - Shahid is time itself
- Mashood
 - Meaning the one being witnessed
 - Early scholars say it is referring to Arafah
 - Mashood is us, the one being witness
- Interpretation: Every single day/time itself is witnessing us
 - "There is not a day that goes by except that something say I am a new creation and I am watching all of your activities, do all the best that you can and I will be witness."
 - Every single day is a witness
 - Allah is swearing by time itself
- Interpretation: The Prophet ﷺ, the angels, and all of creations witnesses of us
 - Allah says that even Adam is a witness against us
 - Allah is swearing by all of the possible witnesses
 - Other people will also be witnesses against us
 - We can also be witnesses against ourselves
- Being mindful of all things as possible witnesses
 - Imagine Allah's karam for a person who sees all things as potential witnesses
 - Being good to others is also about being mindful that allahs takes everyone's testimony

Ayah 4

Qutila as haabul ukhdood

- Qutila
 - Means cursed
 - Anywhere qatala is used in the passive it means cursed
- Ashabul ukhdood
 - Referring to the people of the trenches
- Ukhdoon
 - Meaning trenches
 - Plural is akhadeed
 - From khad meaning cheek
 - The reason why the cheek is khad is because it is where the tears roll, and when water needs to pass a trench is dug
 - Makhadda meaning pillow is where you rest your cheek
- There is poet that says when the tears fall onto the cheeks, you realize who is crying and who is fake crying

Ayah 5-6

Annaari zaatil waqood. Iz hum 'alaihaa qu'ood.

Hadith

There was a king before you and he had a magician. He said to the king, I want you to send me someone who is smart who can learn my arts. The young boy chosen would see a monk on his path, calling to monotheism (the rahib was a judeochristian). The magician would ask him where did you go? And then he would get beat. And the boy would complain to the monk and the monk advised him to tell either party that the other was keeping him late.

As time went by, one day he was walking and the whole city was stopped in the middle of the road. They saw a massive animal. That day the boy said I want to know the truth. Grabbed a rock and said if the teachings of the monk are more beloved to you ? kill this animal. The animal was killed, and the monk says "Today you have surpassed me in spirituality. But if your matter reaches the public you will be tested. And if you will be tested, do not tell anyone I taught you"

This boy was later able to cure people from all kinds of people. One of the people who used to sit with the king who became blind sought out this boy with lots of gifts. The boy responded I do not want the gifts and I am not the one who grants shifaa but Allah. The man then became a believer and returned to the king. The king asked, and he said “My lord”. The king said “You have a lord besides me?” and the man said “My lord and your lord is Allah” then he was tortured and the boy was brought to the king.

The king interrogates. I heard you have been curing all kinds of illnesses with magic. The boy says it is not me but Allah. Then the king starts punishing him, forces him to reveal who the teacher is. Then they bring the rahib, and cut his head in front of the boy. He demands the boy leave his religion, and decides to make a story out of him. Take him to a mountain and throw him off of it. “The boy makes the dua Oh Allah take care of them regarding me in your own way.” They all fall off the mountain caused by a mountainslide, while he survives. He returns to the king. Says Allah took care of them.

Then the boy is taken to the ocean, they all drown and he survives and returns to the king. Same thing said. Then the boy says what do you plan to do? If you want to kill me I will tell you how. Gather everyone in a colosseum and place me on a plank. Take an arrow from my quiver and tell the person shooting me to say Bismillahi ? And if you do it the way I tell you it is possible you might be able to kill me. The king follows and it works. The moment the boy passed the whole city said Amanna bi rabbil gulam. Then the king instructed that trenches be dug and they be lit with fire. Anyone who refused to leave the religion was thrown into the fire, and like this the whole city was burned alive.

Eventually they came across a mother who had a baby, and the mother hesitated. The baby then spoke and said “Oh my mother be patient for verily you are on the truth”

- Context
 - These were the people of Najran
 - Happened between Isa and the Prophet ﷺ's prophethoods.
 - They had a culture of doing sihr on people
 - Originally from Yemen
 - Occurred under Persian rulership
- How we know it was Persia
 - The king opposed the religion because he wanted to marry his sister
 - This was a Persian practice
 - They were also very big on magic/sihr
- Opinions on the animal
 - Some say it was a large snake

- Lesson: Imaan makes it difficult to be harmed
- Lesson: Unshakeable faith in front of oppressors can transform perspectives
 - The people of Najran all became followers
- It is narrated that the baby was discovered in the time of Umar and his hand was the same
- Some scholars say this story occurred multiple times
 - Turkey
 - Najran, Yemen under the rule of Persian Bukhthi Nasar
 - Sham: if it happened there it was
- Lesson: The Prophet ﷺ said the biggest jihad is to speak truth in front of an oppressor.
 - Similar tortures happened to sahaba
 - Bilal, Khubaib, Aasim ibn Thabit

Ayah 7

Wa hum 'alaa maa yaf'aloona bilmu 'mineena shuhood

- Shudood
 - The ones witnessing
 - Referring to the people who watch such oppressions take place and do nothing about it
 - They are equally as bad as the oppressors themselves
- Example of Khubaib
 - Who was tortured and killed
 - See seerah bi' maunah notes
- Example of Saeed ibn Amr
 - Asked not to be made a leader by Umar
 - Knew it was a big test
 - He was sent to Kuffa, complaints were made against him, one of which was that he would faint all the time
 - First was that he was busy in the morning, absent one day in the month, not available at night, and he faints
 - Umar made dua dont make my intuition of this man fail me
 - Day for the people night for allah and i faint because i saw Khubaib when he died
- Lesson: Cannot be passive spectators
 - Must speak up about any kind of injustice
 - Do we cry for them?

- Do we let ourselves feel anything? Do we act in any capacity?
- Sheikh mentions that he makes his children watch the fundraiser ads
- What is the state of our imaan if we're skipping the images of our ummah suffering to get to entertainment?
- Should not be discriminate in our concern either

Ayah 8

Wa maa naqamoo minhum illaaa aiyu'minoo billaahil 'azeezil Hameed

- Naqamoo
 - Those torturing
 - Referring to the kings and there people
 - Or could be recited nuqimoo in qiraat warsh where it would refer to the muslims
 - Brought in the plural to show that the king was supported by his army and allies
 - Modern example: Israel may be the oppressor, but they have allies
- Minhum
 - Referring to the muslims were tortured
- Illaa aiyuminuu
 - Meaning consistently believed
- Al Aziz and Al Hamid
 - Why these adjectives?
 - This class has a lot to do with Allah's siffat
 - Everything about the quran is intriguing
- Al Aziz
 - Meaning the exalted in might, powerful
 - Someone who is capable and no one can overwhelm him
 - No one can deter or defend against
- Lesson: Do not forget Allah's might
 - When faced against oppressors it is easy to forget Allah's might
 - Allah is reminding that there belief is in allah who is the almighty
 - Though Allah might not be visibly exercising his might
 - There is wisdom behind it
 - Reminder: do not ever question the might of Allah
 - Even in the eye of torture the might of allah is not lost
 - Decades of muslims being tortured have gone by, but does that mean we should lose the ability to glorify Allah?
 - To recognize Allah's might through difficulty is piety

- Allah is also speaking to the non-muslims: “I am powerful enough to destroy you”
 - We see this fight as a one dimensional one
 - The other rounds of this fight are in akhira
 - Allah is most definitely going to punish the oppressors
 - We are hasty and impulsive to seeing relief
 - Allah might is not far, its only the first round
 - What makes the person think they can extinguish Allah’s name
 - Cannot silence the voices that praise Allah
- Asbab of the success of muslims
 - Should not take away the importance muslims becoming better
 - Muslims need to have good armies
 - Need to have unity
 - If you are always complacent how will you be ready for when Allah does exercise his power
 - Allah has protected the kaaba, has brought divine justice on previous peoples
 - Allah gives results based on the asbab/means of dunya and sometimes when you have the means but not the tie to Allah it fails
 - Allah will eventually send his victory, but the wind of khandaq was not sent on the first day
 - Understand what loss is in Allah’s court, why cycles of oppression take as long as they do

Ayah 9

Allazee lahoo mulkus samaawaati wal ard; wallaahu 'alaa kulli shai 'in Shaheed

- Allathee lahu mulk
 - Allah is the owner of all this land that these leaders think they own
- Shaheed
 - Allah is upon everything a witness
 - Everything has been documented
- Allahs documentation and witness is a comfort for a believer
 - Shows us that there will be an account

Ayah 10-11

Ayah 10-11

Date Covered: 1/14 @ 1150 ~~

English Translation

10. Indeed, those who have tortured the believing men and believing women and then have not repented will have the punishment of Hell, and they will have the punishment of the Burning Fire.

11. Indeed, those who have believed and done righteous deeds will have gardens beneath which rivers flow. That is the great attainment.

Ayah 10

Innal lazeena fatanul mu'mineena wal mu'minaati summa lam yatooboo falahum 'azaabu Jahannama wa lahum 'azaabul hareeq

Indeed, those who have tortured the believing men and believing women and then have not repented will have the punishment of Hell, and they will have the punishment of the Burning Fire.

- Muminoona and mumineena
- Fatana
 - Root word fitna
 - Fatana meaning oven
 - Fattan meaning the person who smiths (like a goldsmith)
 - The word is used in various ways
 - Not always used for the negative
 - Also used in the dua the Prophet ﷺ taught Umm Salama "Save me from the deceiving"
 - So it can mean distractions
 - The Prophet ﷺ also said: '
- Interpretation: Allah will test us and cleanse us through various trials like a fattan (goldsmith)
 - All kinds of things will be tests of your life
 - Family will be a test
 - Health will be a test
 - Evil eye is a test
 - Allah says "We have tested people before you"
 - Blessings are a test
- Torture is merely one test
 - Allah put them through the fitna of torture

- Sahaba say the test of torture was passed but the test of success was more difficult
- The Prophet ﷺ's defined fitnas
 - Wealth
 - Women/lust/desire
- His sister came to him asking why women fitna?
 - He said: Join me on making dua that you become ugly lol
 - Allah made you beautiful for a reason
- Protecting ourselves from fitna
 - We know they exist
 - Analogy: If we didn't know we were carrying health issues it would make sense to not protect ourselves. But if we know won't we treat it?
 - Men know their fitna, should take measures to protect themselves
 - Same for women
- Blessings are a test too
 - You start making money, that becomes a fitna
 - You become a doctor and all the possible options become a fitna
- Small choices have a large impact
 - Analogy: Fitnas are like train tracks. 1cm off can change the trajectory of your life
- Sometimes less is more
 - Times when death is better than fitna
 - And times when wealth is a bigger poverty than wealth
 - Pious people would do private acts and the moment their deeds became aware they asked to be taken back to Allah
 - We should not desire publicity, publicity is one of the biggest fitnas
- Story: Sheikh talking about his viral video on instagram
 - TS 1222
 - Viral video from seerah intensive where he says trump and netanyahu are shaytan
 - He checked and saw 13 comments
 - Saw someone say something, responded with evidence, commented next time, study and get a life, 100s of comments, 1.9m views
- Yatoobu
 - Allah is telling them in the middle that they still have the option of repentance
- Falahum
 - Every fa in the Quran has its own meaning

Ayah 11

Innal lazeena aamanoo wa 'amilus saalihaati lahum Jannaatun tajree min tahtihal anhaar; zaalikal fawzul kabeer

Indeed, those who have believed and done righteous deeds will have gardens beneath which rivers flow. That is the great attainment.

- - Verily the hold of your lord is strong
 - Most of the time Allah gives people something called muhla meaning respite
 - They oppressors are mentioned in the next surah
 - Firaun in Surah Naziat, the oppressors will be given time
 - Some of the rulers in the middle east in this world Allah gives them punishment
 - Allah will use another source of batil to destroy batil
 - Allah says I will take batil against batil, there meaning skull
 - Allah pits oppressors against each other

 Ayah 12-16

Ayah 12-16

Date Covered: 1/28 @ 1145, MISSING 1230 AFTER LAPTOP DIED

Ayah 12

إِنَّ بَطْشَ رَبِّكَ لَشَدِيدٌ

Inna batsha Rabbika lashadeed

Truly strong is the Grip (and Power) of thy Lord.

- Verily the hold of your lord is strong
 - Most of the time Allah gives people something called muhla meaning respite
- Lesson: Wronging people guarantees punishment
 - They oppressors are mentioned in the next surah
 - Firaun in Surah Naziat, the oppressors will be given time
 - Some of the rulers in the middle east in this world Allah gives them punishment
 - Allah will use another source of batil to destroy batil
 - Allah says I will take batil against batil, there meaning skull
 - Allah pits oppressors against each other
- Analogy: slowing down after being caught speeding
 - Not going to help you anymore
 - Imagine a life

And He is the Oft-Forgiving, Full of Loving-Kindness,
Lord of the Throne of Glory,
Doer (without let) of all that He intends.

Ayah 13

إِنَّهُ هُوَ يُبْدِي وَيُعِيدُ

Innahoo Huwa yubdi'u wa yu'eed

It is He Who creates from the very beginning, and He can restore (life).

- Yubiduu wa yueed
 - In this ayah allah is now saying that he is the one that revives
 - Which means that Allah is a constant creator, he is also Al Khallaq
 - When they go to Jahannam it will feel like they are dying but they will be continuously destroyed and recreated

- Opinion of Ibn Abbas: the punishment and Allahs wisdom
 - Then, the question begs. Allah is not giving respite now because he is incapable of delivering it.
 - Rather it is because Allah is All wise. Either there is wisdom in his choice or it has benefit. And it cannot be questioned.
 - Ibn Abbas say jahannam will burn them and eat them until all that is left of them is fat. And when they are burnt, Allah revives them
- Maslaha (benefit)
 - Discomfort with this principle
 - A non muslim might find this hard to deal with
 - Everything has a benefit

Benefits of Maslahah

1. Difficulties point out personal weaknesses
 - However some challenges will make 0 sense
 - Modern examples: Gaza, Syria
 - Allah could wake up the oppressors one morning and guide them
 - But the sunnah of Allah is not that hardships are avoided
 - The previous nations, Musa, Isa, are all examples
 - In seerah. Badr and Uhud, the majority of the muslim army were Ansaris
 - The sunnah of Allah is to build up a people through trials
 - "Something is cooking in Allah's plans"
- 2.

Number of Ayahs: 17

Themes and Subject Matter

- The origin of man

- Events of the Day of Judgement

- The nature of the Quran

- The plotting of the disbelievers

Context

Surah Buruj, Allah talked about how the disbelievers are going to be treated. Here Allah has the answer to how long the people are going to be tortured.

Ayah 1-4

Ayah 1-4

Date Covered: 2/2 @ 1130

English Translation

- 1.By the sky and the night comer
2.And what can make you know what is the night corner?
3.It is the piercing star
4.There is no soul but that is had over or a protector

Ayah 1

وَالسَّمَاءِ وَالطَّارِقِ

Wassamaaaa'i wattaariq

By the heaven and the nightly star!

- Allah takes oath by the sky and a star named Tariq
- Sama
 - Comes from samu, meaning something high
 - Some say ism also comes from this, ism meaning name and names are meant to recognize people
 - Sama is height, Allah is swearing by the highest object we can see
- Tariq
 - This star is translated as the night comer
 - Tariq is debated
 - The Quran itself tells us what it is Different Interpretations of Tariq

- 1: A shooting star
 - In Surah Safa Allah talks about the shooting stars
 - Which are thrown at the heads of shayateen
- 2: A star that is very visible at night and moves around
 - Someone who knocks on your door in the middle of the night
 - Taraqtu is used for knocking at night. Also used for "knocking on the door of allah at night"
 - It can be for good or bad news
 - Someone who needs something at night is called a tariq
- The Prophet ﷺ made dua that he is protected from someone knocking on his door at night with bad news

- We should wish for someone to come knocking with good news

Ayah 2

وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا الطَّارِقُ

Wa maaa adraaka mattaariq

- Sufyan At Thawri says, whenever Allah says wa ma adraaka, allah follows up with an explanation. When Allah uses it in the mudhare, the explanation follows (for madhi it does not)

Ayah 3

النَّجْمُ الثَّاقِبُ

Annajmus saaqib

- Meaning, it is a shooting star
 - Referring to the weapon against shayateen and jinn
 - The skies have different layers which protects
 - It's a miracle that everything orbits in a structure
- The miracle of the protection of the skies
 - All of the bodies which govern and protect the skies (then angels) will stop on the DOJ
 - These events are detailed in Surah Naba

Ayah 4

إِنْ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ لَّمَّا عَلَيْهَا حَافِظٌ

In kullu nafsil lammaa 'alaihaa haafiz

- In kullu nafsil a
 - Meaning there is no human that is without protection
- Interpretation #1: The angels protection
 - Referring to the angels protecting the humans
 - Whether we see them or not there are always angels
 - The believers do not only have angels protecting their health and wealth, but also their piety
 - Some say there are 24 angels constantly around us
 - They say to themselves, if these human beings were left to themselves for even a blink of an eye, Shaytan would take over

- The more adhkar you read, the more angels surround you
- There is an energy of protection constantly around certain people
- Practical advice: morning and evening adkhars
 - Must be careful about doing our adkhars to keep a full day of protection
 - Just like there are contagious diseases, there are also contagious whispers of shaytan
 - The whispers of Shaytan are always present
- Being mindful of the risk of Shaytan
 - Adam AS had no distractions but Shaytan, manages to find ways to distract you
 - You could be in front of the house of Allah and still become distracted
 - We should be extra vigilant to draw closer to Allah and be extra sensitive to Shaytans influences
- Lesson: Do not leave yourself away from the protection of Allah and angels for even the blink of an eye
 - It's like leaving a child alone with something risky
 - That is tarfata ayn. For even the blink of an eye
 - We would be worse than a child, Shaytan would destroy our hearts
- Interpretation #2: referring to intelligence
 - Some scholars say it is the protection of someone's sanity
 - Kurtubi says it is aql.
 - When someone does something wrong the first thing a person says is, were you not using your brain?
- Defining intelligence
 - Who is the most intelligent?
 - The one who is aware of their afterlife
 - The one who has discipline
 - It is not available to everyone, some people are very wise while others are hasty
- Benefits of being a little impulsive
 - Some people don't think through things and sometimes that is good thing
 - For example, when it comes to generosity, They are impulsively ready for akhirah lol
 - Before Badr, Saad ibn Mu'ad responding to the Prophet ﷺ. The moment you say something we are there.
 - There's no calculations there, they don't have to think about it

- Risks of being impulsive
 - A person whose heart is not rooted in the right things will be impulsive towards haram
 - Sheikh mentions one of his sons is very impulsive while the other is very calculative
 - Sometimes it's better not to be impulsive.
 - One time people came to the Prophet ﷺ, and the sahabi came running. One of them came late after showering and getting prepared. The Prophet ﷺ said he had two qualities Allah loves. One of them is that you are not hasty. Are these qualities that I nurtured or was it my nature? The Prophet ﷺ said you were born with it.
- Dua: May Allah protect our sanity and mental/spiritual health
 - There are so many reasons why our sanity can spiral
 - If somebody is not functional, it is painful

Ayah 5-10

Ayah 5-7

Date Covered: 2/2 @

Ayah 5

Fal yanzuril insaanu mimma khuliq

- Allah is saying, so let the man observe his own creation
- How is insaan used?
 - It is a derogatory way of referring to the human
 - Specifically in the context of arrogance

Ayah 6- 7

Khuliqa mim maaa'in daafiq. Yakhruju mim bainissulbi wat taraaa'ib

- Created from a fluid ejected
- Yakhruju mim bainissulbi
 - Meaning, And the fluid emerged from between the rib bone and the back bone
 - For the purpose of reproduction
- Taraaib
 - The woman's fluid is produced in their chest
 - Could mean the chest because of the milk that is produced

Ayah 8

Innahoo 'alaa raj'ihee laqaadir

- Verily he is capable of bringing them back to him
 - It's actually easier for Allah to bring something back to life after creating it
- In the Quran
 - In Surah Rum, Allah details the phases of Allah's creation
 - In another ayah, "it is Allah who created you then gave you death and will resurrect you... what is easier? He is Al Aziz and Al Hakim"
 - "And when he does this, it will be the day that they are put on trial, to test all the things that were hidden, as if the chests were exposed"
 - 30:40 It is Allah Who created you, then gives you provisions, then will cause you to die, and then will bring you back to life. Can any of your associate-gods do any of this? Glorified and Exalted is He above what they associate with Him `in worship`!

Ayah 9

Yawma tublas saraaa'ir

- Allah's interrogation and cover
 - Allah says, I used to hide you in dunya, I will also hide you on the DOJ
 - The "epstein files" will be exposed
- Is it necessary to forgive people?
 - Saad ibn Abi Waqas was sent to the people of Kuffa who complained about him
 - He did not forgive the man. He made dua that Allah give him a long miserable life, poverty and fitan.
 - People think pious people are obliged to forgive them

Ayah 10

Famaa lahoo min quwwatinw wa laa naasir

- Quwwa
 - Meaning physical strength
- Nussir
 - Meaning strategic strength

Ayah 11-17

Ayah 11-17

Date Covered: 2/4 @ 1140

English Translation

11. By the sky which returns [rain]
12. And [by] the earth which cracks open,
13. Indeed, the Qur'an is a decisive statement,
14. And it is not amusement.
15. They were certainly devising [evil] plans.
16. But I am planning a plan.
17. So allow time for the disbelievers. Leave them awhile

Ayah 11

وَالسَّمَاءِ ذَاتِ الرَّجْعِ

Wassamaaa'i zaatir raj'

By the sky which returns [rain]

- Rajaa
 - Means something that goes and comes
 - So Allah is swearing by the returning sky
 - Referring to rain water metaphorically
- Interpretation: rain
 - What is the difficulty in Allah will bring people back to life when all other things in the world similarly cycle?
 - We see water return to the sky over and over
 - We also see the earth cycle through seasons (plants dying and coming back)
- Context
 - Arabs used to believe the skys carried the oceans
 - Some truth to this because clouds do weigh several tons
- Interpretation: the sun and the moon
 - Same greater metaphorical interpretation

Ayah 12

وَالْأَرْضِ ذَاتِ الصَّدْعِ

Wal ardi zaatis sad'

And [by] the earth which cracks open,

- Sada
 - Meaning headache
 - Why? Because it feels like your head is going to burst
 - Translated here as cracks
- Interpretation: the earth
 - Is Allah calling the earth a headache? No
 - Referring to how the earth has cracks to produce vegetation
- Significance
 - Some mufassirin refer to the sky like a father and the earth like a mother, they each have their own blessings
 - Allah swears by them to show how guaranteed it is for our secrets to be exposed

Ayah 13

إِنَّهُ لَقَوْلٌ فَصْلٌ

Innahoo laqawlun fasl

Indeed, the Qur'an is a decisive statement,

- Fasl
 - Here it is translated as decisive
- Contexts where fasl is used
 - In arabic the joints of the body are called fasl
 - Allah calls the DOJ yawm al fasl
 - Can also mean class, because people are categorized into classes
 - Also used in the Quran to describe the final verdict
- The Quran being fasl
 - Has no discrepancy or ambiguity to it
 - Is organized and categorized
 - If Allah says something there is no going back on it
 - Allah being the commander is the decisive factor

Ayah 14

وَمَا هُوَ بِالْهَزْلِ

Wa maa huwa bil hazl

And it is not amusement.

- Hazl

- Meaning joke, amusement
- Allah is clarifying that this is not that
- Everything Allah warns us about and promises us is not a joke
- No command of Allah is a joke
 - Nothing is a play, and nothing about islam is to be taken lightly
 - The world may be amusement, but the akhira is real deal
- Hadith
 - The narrator asked Ali, are people arguing in the masjid? Ali shared that The Prophet ﷺ said there will come a time of trials. He asked him, how to get out. The way to get out of these trials is the book of Allah.
- Lesson: Not using Quran as a form of entertainment
 - The objective of the Quran is to believe in it and act upon it
 - It is not a source of entertainment or background noise
 - The Quran is therapy, shifaa etc. but it is ultimately a verdict
- Lesson: Quran in the right frame of mind
 - Sometimes its not right to teach tafsir to the wrong audience
 - A lot of times people are not able to digest the laws of Quran because they are not ready yet
 - A person who is not prepared for the commandments of the Quran, and could potentially deny it, is at risk for kufr
 - Ex: command of riba, hijab in the wrong contexts
 - Need to know when the soil is soft enough for the seed to be planted
 - Faith is something you plant after lots of work
 - Even the Prophet ﷺ took lots of time to build foundations

Ayah 15-16

إِنَّهُمْ يَكِيدُونَ كَيْدًا. وَأَكِيدُ كَيْدًا

Innahum yakeedoona kaidaa. Wa akeedu kaidaa

15. They were certainly devising [evil] plans. 16. But I am planning a plan.

- Kaida
 - Kaada/yakidu means to come in a negative way
 - Planning something nefarious or msichievous
 - There is nothing good in it
 - Allah is not using this word because he is evil but because that is what these people deserve
- Interpretation: Sarcastic/royal way of returning their arrogance
 - Allah is saying, you plot against me, I plot against you

- You reach a point where evil minds can only recognize evil verbiage
- This verbiage appears in the Quran to set the tone
- Other ayah of the Quran, don't be like those people who forgot Allah and then forgot themselves
 - If a person doesn't know Allah they also lose themselves
 - The identity of the slave of Allah is inseparable

Ayah 17

فَمَهْلُ الْكَافِرِينَ أَمْهَلُهُمْ رُوَيْدًا

Famahhilil kaafireena amhilhum ruwaidaa

So allow time for the disbelievers. Leave them awhile

- Amhala
 - Meaning to give time
 - This is discussed in seerah
- Ruaydah
 - Meaning some time
 - There is a connotation of softness
 - It's a reassuring kind of command to leave them alone
- Interpretation; Allah is telling the Prophet ﷺ, it's not that significant
 - Don't allow them to realize you are feeling disturbed
 - The whole world is so insignificant
 - Hadith: if the dunya was equivalent to the wing of a mosquito a kaffir would not get a drop of water
 - Hadith: the dunya is like a person who dips their finger into the ocean and has remaining moisture
- Quality of disbelievers: being occupied with instant gratification and pleasures of dunya
 - For instant gratification you did all of this
 - When the non muslim wakes up, Allah will ask them
 - Analogy: the animal whose owner fattens it up before butchering it
 - That is what Allah is doing to these people in dunya
- Akhira is a source of accountability
 - Statement of Umar RA
 - If it was not for akhira you would not see what you see
 - Meaning if it was not for an akhira people would be killing each other
- Hadith: rejecting dunya
 - Another time he asked the Prophet ﷺ about his straw mat bed, which had left marks on his body, and his pillow was made up branches and leaves of a date palm tree. Umar RA started crying and asked the Prophet ﷺ, the Persians and Romans live luxuriously. The Prophet ﷺ looked back at him and said, Have we not understood this? Allah has given them this world.

- Enjoy the world but don't be impressed by it
- The only time you should care about leaving an impression is if its part of your occupation
- Narration of Khabbab
 - Motivations of violence in dunya
 - Greed, capitalism etc
 - Islam fixed these diseases in a society
- Interpretion: Ruwaydha in dunya
 - Ruwaydha, referring to the accountability of akhirah, is not limited to it
 - Destruction of oppressors can happen with some time in dunya too

Surah Summary

- Allah takes several oaths
- Concludes on the tone of decisiveness
- Affirms the disbelievers will be returned their plot
- Sheikh mentions he thinks the middle of the surah is the focus

Ayah 1-5

Ayah 1-5

Date Covered: 2/11 @ 1140

English Translation

1. Exalt the name of your Lord, the Most High,
2. Who created and proportioned
3. And who destined and [then] guided
4. And who brings out the pasture
5. And [then] makes it black stubble.

Ayah 1

سَبِّحْ اسْمَ رَبِّكَ الْأَعْلَى

Sabbihisma Rabbikal A'laa

Exalt the name of your Lord, the Most High,

- Subhana
 - Meaning to swim
 - Linguistically meaning to float, and stay above
 - Here it means to be free from any deficiencies (tanzi)
- Relevance of the command of subhana
 - Allah is saying to the Prophet ﷺ, praise him using subhana
 - Multiple surahs start this way, called musabihat
 - This is one of the only times where it appears as an amr (command)
 - See below under headline
- Other surahs of mutasabihat
 - Surah Hadid
 - Many surahs in juz 28
 - Surah As Saf, Al Jumuah, etc.
- The concept of tanzi
 - Meaning absolute dissociation from flaws
 - Allah has tanzi pertaining to two things
 - Bi dhatihi: the oneness of Allah
 - Bi siffatihi: the attributes of Allah
 - Tanzi is being free from doubts in either of these thing
 - Taqaddus is respecting something so much that you do not see any flaws
- Saying subhanallah with tanzi in Allah's siffat
 - People sometimes get conflicted in his qualities
 - Example: Allah being both giving and restraining
 - There is perfection in all of what he does

- Hisma
 - Ism, meaning name
 - Glorify Allah using his names
- Anything besides the mention and praise of Allah is useless
 - Hadith: The dunya is cursed and everything in it is cursed except the remembrance of Allah
 - In front of Allah all conversations are useless
- The barakah is within mention of Allah
 - When you put Allah's name into something it changes
- Allah has two main names
 - Allah
 - Ar Rahman
- Allah has two main types of siffat
 - Jamali: beauty
 - Jalali: might
- Explaining further
 - Al Wadud for example comes under jamal
 - Al Malik, Al Quddus, Al Matin are all under jalal
 - All other names are a sub branch of these two names

Saying Subhanallah

- How do you understand the word subhanallah
 - By having a perfect understanding of his traits
 - The way that Allah uses it in the Quran is always in defence of his oneness
 - And in the perfection of all of what he does
- Analogy: an artist
 - The picture of our life is like a work of art
 - Allah has constructed our lives and existences more masterfully than artists with their art pieces
 - When we look back at our lives and see the perfection and beauty, that is when we say subhanallah
 - Its like saying about the artist, how great is he?
 - Allah is subhanallah, when you say it, it means he is the perfect designer
 - Subhanallah is said to remove any form of skepticism towards Allah's ability
- Position of our body when we recite subhana
 - Its awkward for a reason
 - Shows our imperfect nature, where Allah is always perfect
- Saying subhanallah to remove doubt

- Other appearances of subhana in the Quran: How did the Prophet ﷺ travel from Mecca to Al Aqsa in one night? They would naturally find that unbelievable, except the pious. So Allah says to the doubtful person, subhana
- Every time subhana is used it has an independent meaning
- In Surah Maryam, it is used to show that it is impossible for Allah to have a child

Ayah 2

الَّذِي خَلَقَ فَسَوَّىٰ

Allazee khalaqa fasawwaa

And what can make you know what is the night corner?

Who created and proportioned

- Khalaqa
 - Meaning the one who created
- Fasawa
 - Meaning balancing, proportioning
- Interpretation: Now Allah is elaborating on his siffat which make him deserving of praise
 - What's being said is: Who is being praised and why>
 - Allah is elaborating now on who exactly he is
 - The first qualities he mentions is creation and proportion
- Interpretation: Everything Allah has created is perfectly balanced
 - That is fasawa: everything is proportionate
 - Humans try to create things but how many of them do things perfectly?
 - Allah on the other hand has made everything in the universe perfectly
 - The ocean, living beings, etc.
 - Humans can't even manage a swimming pool perfectly
- We are the ones responsible for causing corruption to Allah's perfect creation
 - The earth, the ocean etc.
 - Allah made it reasonably perfect

Ayah 3

وَالَّذِي قَدَّرَ فَهَدَىٰ

Wallazee qaddara fahadaa

It is the piercing star

And who destined and [then] guided

- Qaddara
 - Meaning destiny
 - Taqdeel: Allah has perfectly measured decrees and destiny

- Fahadaa
 - Meaning guided
 - Even the trees are guided to do the right thing
 - Everything has been pre-programmed to do the right things
 - Ex: the animal eating what it is supposed to eat. The herbivore eating plants and the carnivore eating animals
 - The hidaya of the clouds is to provide shade and give rain
- The only two creations which are not forced upon guidance are humans and jinns

Ayah 4-5

وَالَّذِي أَخْرَجَ الْمَرْعَىٰ. فَجَعَلَهُ غُثَاءً أَحْوَىٰ

Wallazeeee akhrajal mar'aa. Faja'alahoo ghusaaa'an ahwaa

There is no soul but that is had over or a protector. And who brings out the pasture. And [then] makes it black stubble.

- Mar'aa
 - Is all the greenery which animals (and humans) eat
- Ghutha
 - The dirt that gathers at the end of a stream after it rains
 - Ghutha is everything dried
 - Scholars also say it is dried vegetables that are crushed
- Relevant hadith using ghutha
 - Nations will attack this ummah and surround it like the way people attack a platter of food
 - The sahaba asked, will we be few? The Prophet ﷺ responded no you will be many but you will be ghutha
 - Like the dried remains and leftovers of the pastures... meaning worthless. Or like the foam of the sea
 - And allah will take the respect for muslims out of the hearts of non muslims
 - Then he said because of wahan. Sahaba asked What is wahan? He answered Love for this dunya and a dislike for the akhira.
- When our decisions become based on hubb for the dunya our value as an ummah starts to diminish
 - You start doing things just for the money or just for the accolades
 - You cannot chase after the dunya
 - The sahaba, despite conquering the whole world, did not live lavishly
- Ahwa
 - Meaning dark, from Hawa
 - Referring to things of dark color, brown
 - Hence why Hawwa was named that, she was darker skinned
 - When a skin tone is mixed with brownish tan color

- Referring here to the final stages of vegetation
- Allah is the one who brings back fresh crops

Ayah 6-8

Ayah 6-8

Date Covered: 4/1 @ 1204, 4/6 @ 0920

Ayah 6

Sanuqri'uka falaa tansaaa

- Now turning the conversation to the Prophet ﷺ
 - The noon indicating we
- Except what Allah ﷻ wants to be forgotten or removed
 - Everything taught to the Prophet ﷺ by Allah ﷻ would go directly into his memory
 - Some scholars say that if Allah ﷻ wanted him to forget something, he would
- Shaytan is the root of forgetfulness
 - Most of the nisan we have is from Shaytan
- The other opinion is that forgetfulness is referring to abrogation
 - Those ayat which are not supposed to be remembered
- Memorization
 - Not all people who memorize the Quran are smart and not all smart people memorize the Quran
 - Allah ﷻ made the Quran easy to memorize
 - However, retention is hard, and there is accountability for forgetting
 - The idea is not crude memorization but retention
- Someone asked Bukhari what is good for memory
 - He said continuous repetition
 - He had photographic memory, and had many things memorized
- The art of memorization is in 3 standards
 - Repetition
 - Relation
 - Action
- Over time more skills other than memory may be required, but no skill replaces good memory
 - The Prophet ﷺ would recite multiple juz in one salah
 - He would also recite the entire quran every Ramadan
- Taqrar of that which we want to memorize
 - Actually reading it out loud
 - Like telling someone a joke and a story over and over until they are memorized
- How do you memorize ahkam and sunnah? By acting on it
 - When you are acting its harder for you to forget
 - Like a surgeon who does it so many times
 - That's also why people who are blind have such great memory

- Ali's suggestion
 - Miswak
 - Siyam - studying with a full stomach clouds your brain
 - Looking at things which are naturally impure - atmosphere has a natural effect on a person's memory
- The cognitive dissonance of action and memory is very prevalent in our society
 - The mind, heart and hearing need to be present
- The memory of sahaba
 - It was a quality of munafiq to not remember anything that the Prophet ﷺ said
 - By contrast the sahaba cherished and valued everything the Prophet ﷺ said because it was a euphoric experience
- The brain is a muscle, train it to be sensitive to information
 - Its also something you have to protect
- What kills memory?
 - Sins
 - Depression
 - Stress
 - The Prophet ﷺ sought refuge from these things
- Scholars say, real knowledge is whatever you have memorized
 - A scholar needs to know their notes
 - Should not be relying on resources all the time
 - Something thats deep in your heart is knowledge, otherwise you don't actually know it
 - Everything you write in your life, you should make an attempt to memorize at some point
- Knowledge is not given to people who sin
 - Allah ﷻ takes knowledge away from those who have bad habits
 - Non muslims have good memory too, but their ability to memorize religious texts is low
 - Allah ﷻ also does not allow the noor of ilm to enter their hearts
- Story: Of Alahat Al Kashmiri
 - He asked to borrow a hand written book on Hanafi fiqh
 - He went back to India, re-wrote it and corrected it, and then sent it back
- One of the best times to memorize is after fajr
 - Safahat min sabr, talks about the best time to study
 - P. 172 pdf TS 4/1 @ 1232
 - Sheikh says he memorized this when he was a kid
 - "And to collect things/notes is the early morning, and to write things is the midday when you are tired, and the night is for research and conversation"

- And again, he says the morning is for memorizing. 20-30 minutes right after waking up
- The person who does qaylula is the most productive
- While some say the memorization of night is better than the memorization of day. And that anyone who wants to benefit from memory has to sacrifice some of their sleep at night
- A person who needs pearls has to dive into the ocean
- "And staying hungry is better than eating a lot, and the higher floor and a quiet place is better, a place far away from distractions"
- It is not good to sit in a place where there are too many flowers and nature and people, because it refrains the heart from being free, though sometimes it's good for the mind
- And the more languages you know the more intellectual you are
- And if you look at young people without paper and ink pots, and never attending the lectures of scholars or learning from them, stay away from them because they are useless. They have taken their talent and made it into stupidity
- The noise of the pen on paper is more delightful to me than the noise of a drum or a woman that I love/ is attractive, and more enjoyable than a girl hitting a daf is the sound of dust wiping off of paper as I turn pages
- Imam Shafii says I love knowledge, like how a mother looks for their lost child
- Mindless scrolling on the phone destroys the mind
 - People spending time on socials don't remember anything
- Dhukan, Mulk, Sajdah, Yasin
 - 7 thursdays for better memory
- Waking up early
 - The Prophet ﷺ never slept in
 - The secular world has this figured out
 - Waking up for tahajjud is enough to make you successful

Ayah 7

Illaa maa shaaa'al laah; innahoo ya'lamul jahra wa maa yakhfaa

- Jahra
 - Meaning
 - Allah ﷻ knows everything
 - He is watching all
 - Allah ﷻ knows whether you read quietly or not
 - Showing his knowledge of both the quiet and the public
- Yakhfaa
 - Meaning

Ayah 8

Wa nu-yassiruka lilyusraa

- And he will make easy for you the easy
 - What does it mean to ease someone toward eases?
- Al yussraa
 - Allah ﷻ is calling the deen easy
 - Ease here is referring to the deen
 - Some people think yusraa is referring to jannah
- Interpretation: Allah ﷻ is going to make the actions of jannah easy for you
 - Taysir, something becoming easy, is the biggest gift of Allah ﷻ
 - The ability to worship Allah ﷻ without difficulty
 - Everything that has been easy for you is your destiny
- Ease is an ishara
 - From Allah ﷻ, of his riddha (pleasure)
 - If there are many obstacles to something its a sign
 - Hence why istakhara we ask for something that's good for us to be made easy
- Sometimes in doing good, there is juhud (struggle)
 - You cannot use ease as a scapegoat to avoid doing good
 - Because that is Shaytan's tactic
- Allah ﷻ has already made things easy for you
 - Deen is only difficult if you don't practice
- Savoring the spaces of deen
 - Some of the best feelings you'll have in life are the ones you are having right now
 - "So whenever you go in the gardens, breathe their air"
 - For a believer who does this, things become easy
- Ibadah will naturally require some effort
 - It is not always going to be objectively easy
 - But in perspective it will start to feel easy
 - Sheikh Abdullah slept with his son in the library for a whole year
 - There's no such thing as pure ease
 - Rather, it is that Allah ﷻ accepts from us and helps us
- Yusra is also jannah
 - Allah ﷻ is saying in this ayah that he will make reading the Quran easy for you
 - It's not going to be easy for convert or for a non-arab, but Allah ﷻ has the ability to make facilitate

- The law of difficulty in anything is that you are not alone, Allah ﷻ is with you. And company is enough to make things feel easier
 - You never lose the nearness, company of Allah ﷻ except if you commit oppression
 - When Allah ﷻ is with you the “cave” doesn’t change, its still dark and cold, but you are at peace because you know Allah ﷻ is with you
 - Allah ﷻ’s sakina is capable of making difficulties feel easy

Ayah 9-13

Ayah 9-13

Date Covered: 4/6 @ 0920

Ayah 9

Fazakkir in nafa'atizzikraa

- Fadhakkir
 - Meaning remind
- Interpretation
 - Even if it doesn't help you have to remind
 - The burden of them changing goes in
- We are drunk in the love for dunya things
 - How do you remind a heart that is drunk/
- In one meaning of this, it means "if it helps"

Ayah 10

Sa yazzakkaru maiyakhshaa

- The one who is wretched will avoid it
 - Deen is between fear and hope
- Sometimes you have to remind people over and over again
 - Their hearts are like land that need to be softened
 - Whereas other hearts are like palm trees that grew from discarded date seeds
- There is no dhikr greater than the speech of Allah ﷻ
 - And there is no greater blessing than understanding the Quran and becoming closer to it

Ayah 11

Wa yatajannabuhul ashqaa

Ayah 12

Allazee yaslan Naaral kubraa

- Kubra
 - Meaning the greatest fire
 - Different from naar of sughra is finite, where as in akhira it is a never ending punishment
 -

Ayah 13

Summa laa yamootu feehaa wa laa yahyaa

- Sometimes punishments are not physical but psychological
-

Ayah 14-19

Ayah 14-19

Date Covered: 4/6 @ 1024

Ayah 14

Qad aflaha man tazakkaa

- Its like taking a short break from talking about jahannam to talk about the people of jannah, just to return
- Tazakka
 - Related word tazkiya

Ayah 15

Wa zakaras ma Rabbihee fasallaa

Ayah 16

Bal tu'siroonal hayaatad dunyaa

- The preference of dunya is the root cause of the person not understanding akhira
-

Ayah 17

Wal Aakhiratu khairunw wa abqaa

Ayah 18

Inna haazaa lafis suhu fil oolaa

- Allah ﷻ is saying that this has been in all of the previous scriptures

Ayah 19

Suhufi Ibraaheema wa Moosaa

- Difference between a book and a scripture
 - Musa AS was given a torah
 - Ibrahim was given a scripture but because he did not have a following

This is a surah to recite on all occasions, like Eid and friday khutbah. Sunnah to recite these surahs at jummah

The Prophet ﷺ received this surah when he received the part of salah in which we go into sujood

Also a sunnah to recite surah Ala in witr. Ala, kafirun, and ikhlas

Understanding why Allah ﷻ punishes people with jahannam

He is not just adil when he rewards but also when he punishes

We don't know the final states of anybody

Everyone with basic intellect has to seek the truth is obligated

88 | Surah Al Ghashiya

Ayah 1-7

Ayah 1-7

Date Covered: 4/15 @ 1150

- Surah Ghashiya and Ala
 - Are recited on Jumma and Eid
 - To remind people of the DOJ

Ayah 1

Hal ataaka hadeesul ghaashiyah

- Hal
 - Starts with a istifhaam
 - A question
- Ghashiya
 - Allah ﷻ has called the DOJ Al Ghashiya
 - Meaning to be overwhelmed, to be covered
 - Used for covering of the face
- Hadith
 - Meaning report
 - Not naba for news
 - Or khabr for information
 - Hadith means conversation
- Have you received the report/news of something really terrifying

Ayah 2

Wujoohuny yawma 'izin khashi'ah

- Wujuu
 - From wajj meaning face
 - Can also mean clarity
 - The face is the place of emotional expressions
 -
- Yawm
 - Referring to the DOJ
- Khashiya
 - Meaning to be afraid
 - Such a fear that you are humbled
 - That is the state of the face on the DOJ
- Allah ﷻ is telling the Prophet ﷺ to warn the people
 - The news is specified
 - It is the news regarding faces

- Allah ﷻ describes the success and failure of a person just by their facial reactions
 - Righteous people vs failures
 - Ex: how people can tell how well someone did on an exam by looking at their face.
 - Expressions can give a lot of information away
 - The reason why Allah ﷻ talks about the face is to let us know the state of their akhirah
- Words used in the quran for faces
 - Na'im: is a fresh, well rested and happy expression
 - Nadhira: using a dhaw, meaning a lush face, full of blood and blossoming. In that ayah about facing/seeing allah
 - Basira: depressed and darkened
 - Fakira: as if struck by a disaster that made them poor
 - Musfira:
- Faces can color into success or failure even before the DOJ
 - Immediately after death
 - Or even in life, the noor can show
 - Dua: May allah ﷻ grant us faces of noor
- The face is also how you recognize people
 - Ayah about recognizing people by their faces
 - People will come on the DOJ
 - People that were humble here wont have to be there
- Allah ﷻ is emphasizing their faces more than their actions
 - But their bad actions are the reason for their expressions

Ayah 3

'Aamilatun naasibah

- Aamila
 - Meaning to work hard, and exhaust the self
 - People work hard and get no reward
 - Someone that works hard but still goes to hell
- Naasibah
 - Meaning tiredness, fatigue
- Interpretation 1: The monks working hard in dunya only to still go to hell
 - Ex: monks, living very very simply
 - They live like zahids and think they're going to go to paradise
 - Umar RA once walked by a monk, and started crying. Said they work so hard for something they believe in and then go to hell
- Interpretation: Referring to the catholics/christians
 - Like the pastors and nuns who don't get married

- Are enjoying neither world
- Interpretation 3: (preferred) people who come thinking they did a lot of good deeds but it was all to waste because their intentions were wrong
 - Opinion of ibn Taymiyyah
 - If on the DOJ we come and we were better off doing nothing
- Interpretation 4: Doing something with the right intention, but the wrong way
 - Ex: Hudayfa saw someone praying salah wrong. The guy said 40 years. Hudayfa said, you have not prayed 1 salah in 40 years and if you died praying like this you would not have died on the religion of Muhammad
 - Ex: Someone fasting but eating suhoor as the athaan is being called
 - Ex: shias, they have many of the same practices but also not. Their verification process is fundamentally wrong
- Lesson: Verifying the validity of what we are doing
 - There's so many things we do, assuming we will be rewarded
 - We should ask to make sure we are doing things right
 - Acting on our own, outside the boundaries of Quran, sunnah, and the actions of the salaf without any valid basis
 - Do not follow random opinions
 - Even people on the correct creeds can end up down the wrong paths
 - Ex: blue eye symbol, muslims who believe in it not realizing its shirk
 - People get lost in these philosophies
- Aamilatun nasibah that is based in jahl
 - Exhausting yourself while in a state of ignorance
 - Story: Village in PK. Group doing dawah in the desert, walking 60-80 miles. Reach a place made up of gypsies. Has apple orchards, seasonal area. People working there are like slaves. They were muslim but could not say la illaha illalla muhammadun rasulallah
 - A lot of ignorance is present in society
 - Important to teach people
- Another reason for ignorance is arrogance
 - Common problem on our side of the world
 - People become arrogant because they think they know everything
 - Or that are asking creedal question for the purpose of pride
 - Where the religion is not good enough for them
 - Either you can educate them
 - Or you draw them in through success
 - Ex: Khalid bin Walid
- Third reason for ignorance

Ayah 4

Taslaa naaran haamiyah

- Hamiya
 - Meaning boiling hot fire

Ayah 5

Tusqaa min 'aynin aaniyah

- Aynin aaniya
 - A boiling hot river to drink from
 - Aan in arabic means now
 - Here its brought in the feminine as a siffa to aynin, the river
- When water would get to the temperature of boiling, arabs would call it aan
 - Meaning it has reached the point
 - But people would also use it to say “come here now”
 - Like saying “now the fire has become hot”
 - It has become a synonym for hot water
- Boiling springs
 - Can you imagine a spring that boils you?

Ayah 6

Laisa lahum ta'aamun illaa min daree'

- Taam
 - Meaning food
- The food of jahannam is from a tree called Shajara Az Zaquum
 - The tree looks like the head of shaytan
 - One of the things we do know, is that when we look at an abandoned and dead tree it can look scary
 - The head of this tree, though we dont know what shaytan looks like, we can imagine
 - In removing the Prophet ﷺ's sihr, the well water was the color of henna. The magic had an effect on the quality of the water
- The wording/terminology is extremely tough
 - This food and water will boil the person insides
 - In other parts of the quran, the heat of the bowl of blood an pus presented for them to eat will make their lip fall off

Ayah 7

Laa yusminu wa laa yughnee min joo'

- Joo

- Meaning hunger
- Usually food should nourish you or at least alleviate your hunger
- Allah ﷻ is saying both properties of food do not exist in jahannam
- In jahannam they will never experience satiation

Ayah 8-16

Ayah 8-16

Date Covered: 4/20 @ 1200

- In most places that Allah ﷻ talks about jahannam, he also talks about jannah
 - His mercy is far greater than his wrath

Ayah 8

Wujoohuny yawma 'izin naa'imah

- Naim
 - Meaning something soft
 - Related to ni'mah meaning blessed
 - These faces will be expressing joy

Ayah 9

Lisa'yihaa raadiyah

- Sa'aa/yasaa
 - Meaning to strive
- On the DOJ everyone will see their efforts
 - They will be pleased when they do
 - Analogy: a farmer who has been taking care of their plants for a long time and finally see it blossom
 - Allah ﷻ shows the rewards of every sacrifice made
 - You won't even remember what happened in life, but you will be rewarded
 - The people of bala/hardship will receive their rewards
- As long as an act is for the sake of Allah ﷻ, none of it is wasted

Ayah 10

Fee jannatin 'aaliyah

- Jannatin aliyah
 - An elevated garden
 - Ex: homes on top of hills, which are far from the noise of other places
- People try to make this dunya their paradise
 - Even if you make it perfect for yourself
 - You still have to get sick, worry about the environment, etc.
 - Still have to worry about the people around you
 - Even the wealthiest people cannot avoid the struggles of this world
- Side bar: Aging in a godless society is depressing but for the believer it is rewarding

- Allah ﷻ does not like to punish the person with gray hairs
- Even as you age, the more you struggle to worship the more reward
- The verses of paradise
 - Ayah: you will keep looking, over and over
 - Hadith: A man came asking about this ayah, thinking only the Prophet ﷺ will be able to see. The Prophet ﷺ responded. your eyes will see just exactly what I see. The man screamed and passed away

Ayah 11

Laa tasma'u feehaa laaghiyah

- Laaghiya
 - Meaning speech that is inappropriate, unnecessary, and unsuitable
- The feeling of quiet
 - If you asked a woman who has lost everything, one of the things she might ask for is just a quiet place
 - The whole feeling of jannah is salam/peace
 - Nobody will be saying anything negative, and there are no ill feelings against anyone
 - Speech in jannah will be nothing but kindness, softness, gentleness
 - You will be moving through jannah, being complimented by people
- Jannah will have absolute protection and beautiful sounds
 - People pay a lot of money for quiet and safety in dunya
 - They want to be around beautiful sounds, like the ocean etc.
 - Imagine the high levels of jannah with the sound of soft rivers flowing

Ayah 12

Feehaa 'aynun jaariyah

- The drinks of jannah
 - Milk: the most "healthy" drink
 - Wine: the most pleasurable drink
- The value of milk in the time of the Prophet ﷺ
 - It was a precious and luxurious drink
 - And it was important to them
- Side topic: Milk representing knowledge in dreams
 - Milk in dreams only represents good
 - It represents an abundance of knowledge
- Story
 - The Prophet ﷺ was sitting and was brought a bowl of milk
 - On his right, a young boy and on his left the chiefs

- The Prophet ﷺ drank then asked the kid, is it okay to give to the elders first?
- The young boy said: Wallahi I would not give up my share that you drank from to anyone else
- So he gave it to the young boy, and it was Abdullah ibn Abbas
- Types of rivers
 - By order of necessity
 - Rivers of water, milk then honey
 - Why do we need rivers of honey?
 - Honey is a shifaa in dunya but in jannah its just a flex

Ayah 13

Feehaa sururum marfoo'ah

- Suroorum
 - Meaning couches
- Marfooah
 - Meaning raised
- The couches/recliners of jannah
 - Will be raised
 - Will be facing each other
 - People will be sitting down on opposites and talk to each other, and reminisce on what Allah ﷻ forgave them for

Ayah 14

Wa akwaabum mawdoo'ah

- Akwaab
 - Meaning empty cups
 - Difference from katz, which is a fulfilled cup
- These are beautifully decorated and shining cups
 - Both filled and unfilled cups are brought in good contexts
 - When the empty cup is brought it means that you have your choice of drink

Ayah 15

Wa namaariqu masfoofah

- Masfoofah
 - From saffa meaning lined, assorted

Ayah 16

Wa zaraabiyyu mabthoothah

- Mabsoosah
 - Meaning assorted in abundance
- Other words
 - Mabsoota: meaning assorted
 - Mabthootha: meaning assorted in abundance
- Dhalikal fawzul mubeen
 - Allah ﷻ describes jannah as the highest station
- Hadith
 - Usama bin Zaid narrates
 - The Prophet ﷺ said. Is there anyone ready to roll their sleeves for paradise? In paradise theres no problems, it is nothing but noor and beautiful fragrance, and beautiful palaces, and rivers flowing, and ripe fruit, and beautiful wives, and a place for peace, and fruits, dishes, palaces elevated with beauty
 - The sahaba respond, we are all ready to lace up so say inshallah
- Hadith
 - The structure of jannah
 - Varying gold and silver bricks, held together by musk
 - And the landscape is pearls and rubies
 - That doesn't lose value, and the extra "landscaping" will be the difference of more or less dhikr
 - And the dirt will be saffron
 - Whoever enters jannah will live forever, without losing their youth
- Hadith
 - Everything in this world, compared to Jannah is nothing
 - The small part of the finger which is wet from the ocean is dunya, and the ocean is jannah
- Preparing ourselves for jannah
 - The believer lives life and enjoys dunya
 - But they never forget their final goal
 - Everything else is a "pre-req"
- Some people like to align their dunya before they align their akhira
 - Sahaba aligned their akhira at the expense of dunya
 - Sheikh Yusuf Kandawi, wrote Hayatus Sahaba
 - If they worked for 10 years consecutively they would not have gotten what they did from the ghanima of the Roman and Persian conquest
 - Umar emptied the whole of bayt al maal

Ayah 17-20

Ayah 17-20

Date Covered: 4/22 @ 1200

- Immediate audience is kuffar
 - When talking about jannah the audience switches to the believers
 - Now listing Allah's creations

Ayah 17

Do they not look at the Camels, how they are made?-

Afalaa yanzuroona ilalibili kaifa khuliqat

- Allah ﷻ is bringing the signs in the dunya after the discussion on jannah and jahannam
 - The signs are undeniable
 - Ex: the anatomy of the camel
 - Allah ﷻ's qudra is visible in his creations
- Allah ﷻ is speaking to people at their level
 - The first audience of the Quran is the Arabs
 - And this one of the greatest kinds of emotional intelligence, the skill of being able to talk to people at their level
- There is nothing more amazing than the perfection of Allah ﷻ's creation
 - All human creations are merely an attempt to mimic Allahs
- The nature of the camel
 - Despite the camel itself being an amazing creation, it is subjugated to humans
 - They get abused, they carry loads on their backs
 - Camels can carry double/triple their own weight
 - The neck of the camel is also unique
 - Its nickname is Safinatul Barr, the ship of the desert
 - It has the ability to be hungry and thirsty for a month
 - It eats any dry grass without being particular
- Hadith: A man came asking if there are horses in jannah, and the Prophet ﷺ responded that they would be given a horse with wings
- More about the camel
 - Its eyes, nose, hump and ears, all of it seems customed designed
 - Analogy: an F1 car, uniquely designed for functionality
 - The eyes of the camel are like visors, perfectly designed for the desert
 - The hooves are in such a way that allows them to walk the desert very smoothly and resist its heat
 - Their movement in the desert is very easy
- Khuliqat

- Meaning created
- Allah ﷻ is saying in this ayah, study the camel
- Specifically by how Allah ﷻ created it
- Significance of the camel to arab culture
 - They would not be able to conduct business without them
- Everything about the camel is pure
 - It is all blessed
 - The Prophet ﷺ ate a lot of camel meat
 - Even the camels urine had medicinal benefits (story from seerah)

Ayah 18

And at the Sky, how it is raised high?-

Wa ilas samaaa'i kaifa rufi'at

- Allah ﷻ talks about the sky in the Quran a lot
 - Could spend a long time just studying cosmetology, you would find Allah ﷻ in it
 - The sky is continuously expanding, and new galaxies are being created at every moment
 - Everything in the world calls towards the oneness of Allah ﷻ
- Allah ﷻ is calling to the kuffar, do you not see the sky?
 - They should be wondering, who made this?
 - Only Allah ﷻ could have made it

Ayah 19

And at the Mountains, how they are fixed firm?-

Wa ilal jibaali kaifa nusibat

- Jibaal
 - Mecca was surrounded by mountains
 - Allah ﷻ doesn't point to the oceans, is more focused on what the Arabs can see
-

Ayah 20

And at the Earth, how it is spread out?

Wa ilal ardi kaifa sutihat

- Sutihat
 - Meaning flat, spread out
- Hadith: the bedouin man asking the Prophet ﷺ

- We were prevented from asking unnecessary question so we would wait for a bedouin to come and ask
- One day, a man came and asked the Prophet ﷺ a messenger came to us
- Who created the sky? Who created these mountains? The one who created them, is it true he sent you? Is it true we have to pray? Is it true we have to pay zakat and do hajj? I swear by the one who sent you with the truth I will not increase in doing anything extra...
- He became muslim
- It is good to ponder Allah ﷻ's creation
 - To recognize and enjoy Allah ﷻ
 - Allah ﷻ says, look at the water
 - Everything that Allah ﷻ asks us to study, study
 - Even our own bodies
 - If you want to learn about someone, usually you study them
 - But Allah ﷻ is telling us to study ourselves
 - Allah ﷻ will ask us on the DOJ, did you not have enough time to think about why you are here?
- Poem
 - A poet said, he asked his doctor one day why he was aging, had a lot of gray hairs
 - Doctor says its mucus and gave him a medication, and he responds I think youre wrong my stress is the reason
 - I have ink and time has ink, but the coloring of the ink is different
 - My ink is black on white, and times ink is white on black
- A person can be so aware of Allah ﷻ and still disobey him
 - Like a child being disobedient in front of their parent
 - Fudayl ibn Al Ayad says theres only 2 scenarios where a person is willingly disobedient
 - Someone came to him saying, advise me in helping me control my eyes. If you disobeyed Allah ﷻ while you thought god was not watching, youre a disbeliever. And if you did it while you knew Allah ﷻ was watching, you were arrogant
 - Ayah: Remind them, verily you are the one who reminds

Ayah 21- 26

Ayah 21- 26

Date Covered: 4/22 @ 1234

Ayah 21

Fazakkir innama anta Muzakkir

- How to remind people of Allah ﷻ
 - Surah Ghashiya is the blueprint
 - Jannah, jahannam, and the signs of Allah's greatness
 - Sometimes when the Prophet ﷺ would want to remind people he would get overwhelmed

Ayah 22

Lasta 'alaihim bimusaitir

- Bimusaytir
 - can also be recited with a seen
 - Saytara means to overwhelm
- The Prophet ﷺ became overwhelmed in his dawah
 - Many verses were specifically revealed for the sake of comforting the Prophet ﷺ
 - Ex: Surah Ala
 - One of those primary ways was telling the Prophet ﷺ that he is only a reminder

Ayah 23

Illaa man tawallaa wa kafar

- Kafar
 - Disbelief

Ayah 24

Fa yu'azzibuhul laahul 'azaabal akbar

- Allah ﷻ will punish them and hold them accountable for every single wrong
 - The non muslims were stressing the Prophet ﷺ out
 - Allah ﷻ is reminding that he is the one who holds people accountable

Ayah 25

Innaa ilainaaa iyaabahum

- Allah ﷻ is reminding the human, indeed to us is the return

Ayah 26

Summa inna 'alainaa hisaabahum

89 | Surah Fajr

89 | Surah Fajr

Date Covered: 5/4 @ 1205 MISSED LAPTOP DIED, 5/6 @ 1206, 5/11 @ 1304

- Surahs fajr starts with 5 oaths
 - Fajr
 - Night
 - Odd and even

Ayah 1

Wal-Fajr

- The question after every oath is actually what comes after it
 - The jawab of the qasam is to follow
- Al fajr
 - Meaning for something erupt, to detach from something
 - Also appeared in Infitaar and Burooj
 - Like moving darkness out and bringing light carries a lot of movement
- Fajr is the earliest morning
 - The beginning part of the day
 - Ibn Abbas says it is the whole day (like how asr represents time)
 - Most scholars say fajr is also the morning of Arafah

Ayah 2

Wa layaalin 'ashr

- Layalin ashhr
 - The 10 nights
 - Referring to the nights of dhul hijjah
- Yawmal arafah, yawman nahr
 - The night of Arafah (the 9th) entering the 10 is actually considered a day
 - Ex: if someone was delayed getting to arafah, and at maghrib the people have already left, they can still go to arafah (rulings wise)

In i

Ayah 3

Wash shaf'i wal watr

Ayah 4

Ayah 6

Alam tara kaifa fa'ala rabbuka bi'aad

Have you not seen how your lord acted with the people of Aad

- Bi-aad/ the People of Aad
 - They are also called adilil bil ulaa
 - There are 2 qawms of Aad
 - The remainder of them were the people of Thamud
 - The other is a people for Iram, known as the Amalika
 - The Amalika: A people of giants, had many evil practices
 - Both have in common the fact that they had many evil practices
- Theories
 - Some say the people of Aad were from Alexandria
 - They were very big people, around 70 arms lengths
 - They asked, who is stronger than us. Some of the strongest of human creation to live
 - They settled in Yemen
- Lesson: avoiding places of divine punishment
 - They would carve their homes in mountains
 - Battle of Tabuk, the Prophet ﷺ told them to move quickly in places of adhaab, and don't even drink from the water of those places
 - Ex: don't swim in the dead sea
- Allah ﷻ's punishment of them
 - The story is told in detail in Surah Al Haqqah
 - ? were punished with the scream ? of jibreel
 - And the people of Aad were destroyed by winds (presumed to be tornadoes)
 - The tornado stayed in that area for 8 days and 7 nights
 - Nakhla: a palm tree. they were uprooted

- Sheikh says it is fascinating because all the current superpowers think they cant be defeated
- Side bar: the elegance of a date palm tree
 - The life of the tree is in the head of it
 - The Prophet ﷺ said everything about is beautiful
 - Its wood, and its fruits, etc.
- Lesson: every people/nation can be defeated by Allah ﷻ
 - Despite all of these nations possessing as many advanced weapons as they do
 - Imagine what happens to a nation that says “Who is stronger than us?”
 - The answer is in the punishment of Aad
 - Allah ﷻ destroys the dhalim, even if they are muslim
 - This is the pattern with many great nations

Ayah 7

Iramaa zaatil 'imaad

Ayah 8

Allatee lam yukhlaq misluhaa fil bilaad

Ayah 9

Wa samoodal lazeena jaabus sakhra bil waad

- Jaabu
 - Means to cut something
 - Hence why pockets are called jayb because they're vulnerable to being cut and stolen from
- Allah ﷻ is saying that they used to carve homes
 - They built of 1,700 cities/communities
 - All of these homes were built out of mountain rocks

Ayah 10

Wa fir'awna zil awtaad

- The Firaun of Musa
 - All kings of Egypt are called pharoahs

- However Yusuf's is called malik, showing the historical accuracy, he was originally from sham ? and had a softer spot from him
- The Firaun that raised Musa is the same Firaun that
- Firauns
 - He would take nails and peg them in peoples hands
 - Says And to his wife? He nailed 4 nails into her hands and felt end crushed her. And he put her near death
 -

Ayah 11

Allazeena taghaw fil bilaad

- Thagaw
 - Corruption

Ayah 12

Fa aksaroo feehal fasaad

Ayah 13

Fasabba 'alaihim Rabbuka sawta 'azaab

- Sawt
 - Meaning whip
 - Allah ﷻ has many forms of punishment
 - This is just one type
 - Shows how small and insignificant they are

Ayah 14

Inna Rabbaka labil mirsaad

- Mirsaad
 - Ism dharf makan
 - A place from where Allah ﷻ is watching everything

Ayah 15

Fa ammal insaanu iza mab talaahu Rabbuhoo fa akramahoo wa na' 'amahoo fa yaqoolu Rabbeee akraman

- Insaan
 - Missed
- Akramanee
 - Allah ﷻ honored me
 - Mutakallim dhameer attached
 - This psychology is not a non muslim ideology, but a muslim one
- Regarding muslims who think like this
 - Allah ﷻ talks about it in Surah Kahf too, the person in the garden
 - We don't seek wealth because ourselves, but to serve the deen
 - "Good wealth in the hands of a righteous person is great"
 - Wrong impression that wealth means piety
- If a person does not have money and does not have god consciousness, they will do everything to attain wealth and that harms society
 - Ex: celebrity life
 - In the eyes of Allah ﷻ being rich or being poor is not a criteria
 - Allah ﷻ does not look at peoples wealth
 - Everyone in their grave is the same
- Some of the people closest to Allah ﷻ are ones who don't keep anything
 - These people have it all, and they give away everything
 - Dr. Hussain Sattar, did a huge gathering for his wife's hifz, and said he'll go all out for Quran
- Constantly wanting to "keep up" in dunya is not a quality of a believer
- Story:
 - 1k people private suhoor
 - Millionaires there, guy wants to take sheikh
 - Tells him that their families are all in a mess

Ayah 16

Wa ammaaa iza mabtalaahu faqadara 'alaihi rizqahoo fa yaqulu rabbeee ahaanan

- Ibtalaa
 - To be tested, trialled
- Tests are both good and bad
 - A test isn't in being poor, rather every situation in life is a test
 - Allah ﷻ says

Ayah 17

Kalla bal laa tukrimooo nal yateem

- Kalla
 - Emphatic no
 - True richness is in taking care of the poor
- If you're only making dua for dunya, the quran criticizes that
 - Our duas are messed up
 - A lot of people on make dua for things in this life
 - They love islam but deep down there is materialism in their hearts
- Sometimes, Allah ﷻ punishes people with a lack of contentment
 - The endless desire for dunya leads to an inevitable depression
 - Richness is in contentment
 - There's nothing wrong with loving dunya, but it needs to tie back
- Story of Imam Abu Hanifa
 - One afternoon, while Imam Abu Hanifah was teaching his students, a messenger rushed in and reported that a ship carrying his merchandise had sunk, resulting in a massive financial loss.
 - He said alhamdulillah twice and his students asked why
 - The First Alhamdulillah: he paused, looked into his heart, and finding it void of sorrow or complaint, said "Alhamdulillah" (All praise is for Allah).
 - The Second Alhamdulillah: Shortly after, the messenger returned to say there had been a mistake—the ship was safe and the goods were secured. The Imam paused again, checked his heart, found it free of excessive joy or attachment to wealth, and said "Alhamdulillah" again
- Virtues of Faqr
 - can lead you to kufr too
 - But holds many virtues
 - All the Prophets were poor
 - The poor people enter jannah before the rich
 - The prophet ﷺ will stand with the poor on the DOJ
 - The Prophet ﷺ made dua for the rizq of his family to be limited (quut: meaning just enough for the day)
- Duas of dunya: everything halal, you have to have an answer for why
 - What is your intention for wanting it?
 - What are you going to do if you get it?
 - Are you doing it for Allah's sake

Ayah 18
