

104 | Al-Humazah

Ayah 1 Woe to every scorner and mocker	Wayl: 2 interpretations	1: the highest form of regret 2: the name of the lowest valley in jahannam
	Humaza Lumaza	Two types of belittlement Humaza: through facial expressions/body language, behind a person's back Lumaza: to the person's face and using the tongue The root cause of both kinds of mockery is arrogance and a sense of superiority.
Ayah 2 Who collects wealth and continuously counts it	Jama'a: collects Addada: counts Maalahu: his wealth	Referring to an unhealthy obsession with wealth. Provides insight into the previous ayah: their arrogance comes from their wealth. Maalahu repeated in the next ayah (see next row for tafsir)
Ayah 3 He thinks that his wealth will make him immortal	Akhladah: Eternity/Continuous Maalahu: his wealth	Revealing the psychological state of this person. They falsely believe their hoarded wealth is a) owned by them b) going to help them after death Maalahu ("his wealth") is brought in the singular to diminish its value, and repeated to emphasize lack of ownership The truth about their wealth a) It belongs to Allah b) It has no capacity to help them in the afterlife, where the currency is deeds.

Ayah 4-5 No! He will surely be thrown into the Crusher. And what can make you know what the crusher is?	Layum Badhanna: something worthless being thrown away Hutama: a description of jahannam, specifically its unimaginable force that crushes and burns flesh	Analogy: meat scraps being thrown into a garbage disposal. Carries the strong connotation of worthlessness. Al hutama is brought in the definite to give it strength Ayah 5 presents the rhetorical question: nothing can make them realize their wrongs while they are in this state of arrogance/obsession.
Ayah 6 It is the fire of Allah, eternally fueled	Naarullahi: The Fire of Allah	A rare example of Allah attributing something to himself, which should strike fear into us. Serves the purpose of showing that it is the greatest and most intense form of the thing to exist.
Ayah 7 Which mounts directed at the hearts	Af'idah: from fuad, the innermost part of the heart which carries true feelings	Psychological punishment. Their sins originated from their innermost hearts, so that is also where the punishments will be directed.

		Symbolizes how every corrupt desire/ ego driven feeling will be "burned away"
Ayah 8-9 Indeed, Hellfire will be closed down upon them In extended columns	Mu'sadah: Caged/Closed down Amadin mumadada: extended columns	Jahannam will be like an animal cage with never ending pillars made of fire/iron. It will be so dramatically inescapable that they will feel an extreme sense of regret. It will be both physically and psychologically torturous.

103 | Al-Asr

Ayah 1 By time	Asr: time, with the connotation of squeezing 2 interpretations	1: The final portion of the day, which the Arabs used to hurry to finish their tasks in. 2: The elevated reward of serving Allah between Asr and Maghrib (double reward for half the time compared to previous nations) Allah swears by Asr to remind us that our time is almost over, and to prioritize him before it is too late. Useful mental image: selling ice
Ayah 2 Indeed, mankind is in loss	Al Insaan: Mankind Khusr: Loss/Ruin	Al-insaan is brought in the definite to refer to mankind as a whole as opposed to just one person. This ayah reorients the believer to the correct perception of khusr. Loss is not measured by the metrics of dunya (wealth, success etc) but by what will benefit or harm us in the akhira.
Ayah 3 Except for those who have believed and done righteous deeds and advised each other to truth and	Iman: Belief Amal: Action Tawasaw: mutual encouragement Haqq: Truth	There are 4 qualities of people who escape loss: 1) Faith 2) Action 3) Concerned for others in truth 4) Concerned for others in perseverance advised each other to patience	Sabr: Perseverance	Tawasaw is a heartfelt counsel. Advice must be rooted in sincerity and love for each other. The focus of that advice: truth and perseverance.

	Ghazali's 3 conditions for genuine advice	Love: Wanting good for the other person. Experience: Wisdom or understanding before advising. Taqwa: Rooted in sincerity and consciousness of Allah

102 | At-Takathur

Ayah 1
Competition in worldly increase diverts you

Lahu:
Diversion/Distracti
on Lahu is any distraction from priority (even if the distraction is permissible).

At-takathur:
Competition/Rivalr
y in accumulation

Takathur is about rivalry in worldly accumulation.

Full meaning: striving for things in dunya will distract us from our true priority: akhirah.
Anything dunya related is inappropriate if it does not involve striving for Allah.

5 stages of distraction from Surah Hadid

1. La'ib: Play
2. Lahu: Amusement
3. Zeenah: Beautification
4. Tafakhur: Boasting
5. Takathur: Rivalry in accumulation

Ayah 2
Until you visit the graveyards

Makabir:
Graveyards

2 interpretations

1: The sunnah of visiting graves is the best way to remind us of our true priority in life.

2: The obsessive rivalry will continue until death, when it's too late (the grave is considered a "visit" because the final abode is not there)

Ayah 3-4 No! You are going to know. Then no! You are going to know	Kalla x2: No! Sawfa Ta'lamun: You are going to know	A warning that once a person dies, they can no longer deny the truth and will realize their worldly competition was worthless. Repetition and use of kalla/thumma add sternness to the warning.
Ayah 5 No! If you only knew with knowledge of certainty	Ilmal Yaqeen: Knowledge of certainty	Ilm is referring to knowledge of the unseen and akhirah. "If only knowledge of my existence was enough to fix your behavior" A warning to believers: live with certainty in the existence of an afterlife.
	3 stages of yaqeen	1. Ilm (knowledge) al yaqeen 2. Aynal (eye) yaqeen 3. Haqqal (truth) yaqeen The highest form of yaqeen in Allah is when ilm is treated like haqq. "As if Jannah and Jahannam are in front of them" A sign of belief/disbelief is how much a person needs to know/see/experience the unseen to be certain.

Ayah 6 You will surely see the hellfire	Jahim: from juhm,	Referring to the fiery stare of a lion when he is about to pounce on his prey
Ayah 7 Then you will surely see it with the eye of certainty	Aynal Yaqeen: Eye of certainty	The evidence they were always looking for in life will only come after death. In the grave they will see the truth but it will be too late. This ayah shows the irony of the disbelievers always asking to see proof.
Ayah 8 Then you will surely be asked that Day about pleasure	Na'eem: from ni'mah, meaning blessings	People will be asked about every blessing that brought ease into their life on the Day of Judgment, and they will not be able to answer.

101 | Al-Qariah

Ayah 1-3 What is the Striking Calamity?. And what can make you know what is the Striking Calamity?	Al-Qariah: from qara'a meaning to strike/knock; describes the sound when striking two objects	On the DOJ, when the order of the universe is disrupted and the Earth suddenly stops spinning, it will cause a terrifying noise. Al Qariah refers to that sound.
Ayah 4 It is the Day when people will be like moths, dispersed	Farashil Mabthuth: Dispersed moths/locusts	People will be physically and intellectually unstable on the DOJ, moving without purpose, like insects drawn aimlessly to light.
Ayah 5 And the mountains will be like wool, fluffed up	Ihnil: wool of different colors Manfush: a fine/thin kind of wool (fluffed)	The mountains will become like fine and weightless, flying dust, demonstrating Allah's power.
Ayah 6 Then as for one whose scales are heavy [with good deeds]	Thakulat: heavy Mawazin: scales	Refers to having heavy (high quality) good deeds. A single heavy deed is worth more than many light ones.
	How to attain Thakulat (weight in deeds)	Mandatory: Imaan (faith in Allah alone) Qabul (acceptance of the sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ) Attaining Weight: Quality WITH quantity (example of sahaba) Sincerity Consistency (istiqama)

Ayah 7 He will be in a pleasant life	Ayshatin: a life without worries Radhia: a state of contentment	True/never ending contentment which can only be found in Jannah. Cannot be found in dunya because contentment in dunya is fleeting and imperfect.
Ayah 8 But as for one whose scales are light	Khaffat: Light scales	Means good deeds were not accepted by Allah, regardless of how many were performed.
Ayah 9 His refuge will be an abyss	Ummuhu: refuge/mother Hawiya: jahannam	Ummuhu literally means mother but figuratively means refuge. Hawiya is a name for Jahannam. Like a child running to their mother for comfort, the one whose scales are light will run into jahannam. This is because the DOJ will be so overwhelming for them that they will actually choose to run into the fire to escape it. Other interpretation: ironic statement mocking the person who kept looking for comfort in dunya and failed to do good deeds that would benefit them on the DOJ
Ayah 10-11	Naarun Hamiya: Intensely hot fire	Describes a constant and current type of fire, that is at its hottest.

And what can make you know what that is? It is a Fire, intensely hot

Where your tolerance will never increase, and your suffering will consistently be at its peak

100 | Al-Adiyat

Ayah 1 By the racing horses	Adiyat: Racing horses	Allah swears by the horse due to their defining qualities.
	3 core qualities of a horse	The believer should be like the racing horse in the following ways 1: Fast 2: Unworried about harming the self 3: Focused
	Additional qualities	Obedience Loyalty Difficult to distract
Ayah 2 And the producers of sparks [when] striking	Muriyati: Sparks Qadaha: striking	Referring to horses that are running with such intention that sparks are coming from their hooves. The description is analogous to how a believer should always be moving with purpose and intention.
Ayah 3 And the chargers at dawn	Mughirati: the chargers (horses), root word meaning change Subuha: at dawn 2 interpretations	1: Believers who want to create change must attack in the morning, and make sure they are beginning their day with Allah. 2: Believers must take advantage of their youth and devote their younger years to the deen.

Ayah 4 Stirring up thereby, dust	Athara: creating impact Naqaa: dust that would not have risen without force	Like the dust that gets stirred up in a battle. The words are in plural to continue the establish the setting of unity/the ummah working together.
Ayah 5 Arriving thereby in the center collectively	Wasatna: Penetrating the center Jam'a: Unity	1: Believers should tackle disbelief at its nucleus 2: Believers should always act together; unity is necessary for impact.
Ayah 6 Indeed, mankind is ungrateful to his Lord	Lakanud: from kanada meaning separating, dissociating	The human is prone to counting their calamities and forgetting Allah's blessings quickly. Also refers to the habit of dissociating from others when things are good.
Ayah 7 And indeed, he is to that a witness	Shaheed: hyperbole, witness with the connotation of continuity	The human being is a witness against himself on the DOJ and is self aware (that he misused Allah's favors) "Man is the biggest proof against himself."
Ayah 8 And indeed he is severe in love of wealth	Hubbi: love Khair: Wealth Shadeed: Severe	Khair is mentioned instead of maal to a) refer to different kinds of blessings (talent/skills/wealth/children)

		b) show the disbelievers mental state (under the false impression that wealth is the greatest good) Shadeed is either referring to the love itself being severe OR to the consequent stinginess being severe.
Ayah 9 But does he not know that when the contents of the graves are scattered	Butira: pulled out Quboor: graves	Continuing the relationship between death and wealth. Two interpretations: a) We will be pulled out of the earth and brought forward on the DOJ b) those who were killed out of greed will be brought back.
Ayah 10 And that within the breasts is obtained	Hussila: attained/peel away/reveal Sudoor: heart/chest	On the Day of Judgment, the reality of the heart and its secrets will be judged.
Ayah 11 Indeed, their Lord with them, that Day, is [fully] acquainted	Al-khabir: a more powerful expression of Allah's knowledge	Reminder to the disbeliever who may have thought to himself that no one will ever find out about the crimes committed. Allah is fully aware of their inner and outer deeds.

99 | Zalzalah

Ayah 1 When the earth is shaken with its final shaking	Zala: slip	Repetition/use of the mafool muthlaq creates the meaning of destructive shaking. Refers to how the shifting of the universe will lead to an extreme shaking on the DOJ.
Ayah 2 And the earth discharges its burdens	Athqal: Heavy/burdens	Two creation which Allah describes as weighted: a) human beings b) jinn Interpretation: Humans are like a burden on the earth and it will "discharge" us on the DOJ
Ayah 3 And man says, "What is [wrong] with it?"	Malaha: an expression of disbelief	Analogy: Like a person who takes a short nap and wakes up the next day and wonders what happened
Ayah 4 That Day, it will report its news	Tuhaddithu akhbaraha: reports its news	The Earth will be commanded to speak and testify as a witness for or against people concerning their deeds.
Ayah 5 Because your lord has commanded	Awhalaha: inspire (like wahi)	Things will be given a voice and inanimate things from the earth will speak, specifically by command from Allah.

Ayah 6 That Day, the people will depart separated [into categories] to be shown [the result of] their deeds	Yasdurunnas: gathering in the middle/center Ashtatan: Groups/categories Yuraw aamalahum: See their deeds	The DOJ is a day that people will gather. They sort themselves into groups, and the kinds of people they are with will be a reflection of the kind of deeds they committed while in dunya.
Ayah 7-8 So whoever does an atom's weight of good will see it, And whoever does an atom's weight of evil will see it	Yara: to see Dharratin: dust particles	You will see your deeds physically manifested Even the smallest of deeds will be accounted for.
	Wa vs fa: fa is used for immediacy	Fa is used for those with good deeds whereas wa is used for those with evil deeds. The ones who did well will want to see their deeds, the ones who did not won't rush to see them.

98 | Al-Bayyinah

Ayah 1

لَمْ يَكُنِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ
وَالْمُشْرِكِينَ مُنْفَكِّينَ حَتَّى تَأْتِيَهُمُ الْبَيِّنَةُ

Those who disbelieved among the People of the Scripture and the polytheists were not to be parted [from misbelief] until there came to them clear evidence.

Ahlul kitab: people of the book
Mushrik: polytheists

Munfakkeena: imprisoned/not to be parted

Bayyinah: clear evidence/speech

The bayyinah here is referring to the Quran.

It is so powerful that it has the capacity to break people away from their firmly rooted beliefs.

The Quran's greatest purpose is guidance.

Ayah 2

رَسُولٌ مِّنَ اللَّهِ يَتْلُو صُحُفًا مُّطَهَّرَةً
A Messenger from Allah, reciting purified scriptures

Rasoolum minallahi: messenger from Allah

Yatlu: reciting

Suhufam mutahhara: purified scriptures

The Prophet ﷺ himself is a bayyinah.

Appreciation of the Quran is held in recitation, and follow-up with action.

فِيهَا كُتِبَ قِيمَةٌ
Within which are correct laws

Kutubun: laws
Qaiyimah: 2 meanings

a) The Quran can make a person's life upright.
b) The quran does not have inconsistencies, is not extreme, and is a very upright book. None of it needs to be fixed, changed, or re-evaluated.

وَمَا تَفَرَّقَ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْكِتَابَ إِلَّا مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا جَاءَهُمُ الْبَيِّنَةُ

Nor did those who were given the Scripture become

Those who were given the scripture differed amongst themselves after the Prophet ﷺ had come to them and made the divided until after there had come to them clear evidence		message clear - the message which was supposed to unite them

Ayah 5 وَمَا أُمِرُوا إِلَّا لِيَعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ مُخْلِصِينَ لَهُ الدِّينَ حُنَفَاءَ وَيُقِيمُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَيُؤْتُوا الزَّكَاةَ وَذَلِكَ دِينُ الْقَيِّمَةِ And they were not commanded except to worship Allah, [being] sincere to Him in religion, inclining to truth, and to establish prayer and to give zakah. And that is the correct religion	Mukhlis: the sincere Hunafa: the one inclined to truth Deenul qaiyimah: an upright religion	There are two key factors for uprightness in religion a) sincerity (which is reflected in a person's adhab/ettiquette and tadeem/reverance) b) oneness of Allah as the reference
Ayah 6 إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ وَالْمُشْرِكِينَ فِي نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا أُولَئِكَ هُمْ شَرُّ الْبَرِيَّةِ Indeed, they who disbelieved among the People of the Scripture and the polytheists will be in the fire of Hell, abiding eternally therein. Those are the worst of creations	Nari jahannam: fire of hell Sharrul baria: worst of all creations	The ahlul kitab/mushrik who still disbelieve after receiving the clear evidence are the worst of all creations.
Ayah 7 إِنَّ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ أُولَئِكَ هُمْ خَيْرُ الْبَرِيَّةِ ۝٧ Indeed, they who have believed and done righteous deeds - those are the best of creatures	Amanu: faith Amilu: action Khairul bariya: best of creations	The opposite of the previous ayah. Those who believe and act righteously are the best of creation.

جَزَاؤُهُمْ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ جَنَّاتٌ عَدْنٌ تَجْرِي مِنْ
تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا أَبَدًا رَضِيَ اللَّهُ
عَنْهُمْ وَرَضُوا عَنْهُ ذَلِكَ لِمَنْ خَشِيَ رَبَّهُ

Their reward with Allah will be gardens of perpetual residence beneath which rivers flow, wherein they will abide forever, Allah being pleased with them and they with Him. That is for whoever has feared his Lord.

Khalideena fiha
abadah: perpetually
therein forever

Jazaahum indha
rabbihim: residence near Allah

Khashiya: a type of fear rooted in love

Khashiya shows that Allah's pleasure and reward is achieved by fearing to displease Him.

The reward for jannah is emphasized as being eternal through the use of both khalideena
(perpetual) and abadah
(forever).

The greatest reward for a believer is actually the pleasure of Allah.
Particularly, the privilege of seeing and being near Allah that will be given to some in Jannah.

97 | Al-Qadr

Ayah 1-2

Indeed, We sent the Qur'an down during the Night of Decree. And what can make you know what the night of laylatul Qadr is?

Qadr: 3 meanings

1: To be precise in measurement. Allah's precision in everything is perfect, nothing is off in time, blessings, hardships or any other measure.

2: Ability and power. Allah is Al-Qadir. He is the most Powerful/Capable. Connected to precision, because true capability is in precision.

3: Appreciation. A more distant meaning, can be interpreted as our deeds are being more appreciated.

Laylat Al Qadr: The night of power

2 possibilities

1: The night in which the Quran was descended to the lower heavens for the first time, in Ramadan.

2: The night which comes every year in which Allah accepts duas and gives the decree of the following year to the angels.

	Hikma of laylat al qadr being uncertain	We do not know when laylat al qadr is and we should treat every night as if it was Laylat UI Qadr. The date is hidden for a reason: to provide motivation and prevent people from becoming complacent.
Ayah 3 The Night of Decree is better than a thousand months.	Khayrum min: better than al fishahr: 1000 months	The night holds immense reward: good deeds performed on that one night are worth more than 1000 months.
Ayah 4 The angels and the Spirit descend therein by permission of their Lord for every matter	Malaika: the angels Ruh: Jibreel bi-idhni rabbihim: by the permission of their lord	Usually duas have to pass "checkpoints" in the heavens, but through the angels you can bypass them. Allah gives them permission to descend and receive our duas without any barriers.
Ayah 5 Peace it is until the emergence of dawn	Salamun: Peace 3 meanings	1: peace in all matters 2: peace from shaytan 3: greetings from the angels to the believers/worshippers

96 | Al-Alaq

Background/Context	Key concept: Wahi is a rahma Key details	Surah Alaq contains the first revelation ever made to the Prophet ﷺ. The revelation of the Quran was beginning of one of Allah's greatest mercies to the Prophet ﷺ, sahaba, and the entirety of mankind. Ayah 1-5 were revealed to the Prophet ﷺ in the Cave of Hira, where he was squeezed by Jibreel 3 times. The name of this surah (alaq) refers to it being the ummah's first step in their relationship with Allah.
Ayah 1-2 Recite in the name of your Lord who Created man from a clinging substance	Iqra bismi rabbika: Recite in the name of your lord. (3 meanings) Khalaaq: created from a clot/clinging substance	The ultimate purpose of recitation is to get to know Allah. The 3 meanings 1: Mention Allah's name for all matters 2: Recitation is for the purpose of pleasing Allah 3: Recitation is only possible with Allah's help.

Ayah 3 Recite, and your Lord is the most Generous	Al-akram: The most generous	Despite the repetition of Iqra, which might feel overwhelming, Allah is reminding us that your lord is the most generous so he will open up your heart to read.
Ayah 4 Who taught by the pen	Bil qalam: by the pen	The pen was 1/4 of Allah's first creations. The possibilities according to Ibn Kathir: The pen, water, the arsh, and Jibreel.
Ayah 5 Taught man that which he knew not	Allama: taught Ma lam ya lam: that which he did not know	The first honor of the human being is that Allah is his teacher and that we learn directly from his words. + Any knowledge we attain in dunya is ultimately from him.
Ayah 6-7 But indeed man transgress because he sees himself self-sufficient	Kalla: No! Astaghna: Self-sufficient	The assumption that we don't need Allah is a transgression on him (shows that we are ungrateful)
Ayah 8 Indeed to your lord is the return		The opinion of Ibn Abbas is that this ayah is a source of comfort because a) you can continue to make tawbah until your last breath. b) a believer looks forward to their return to Allah

Ayah 9-10 Have you seen the one who forbids a servant when he prays	3 people	1: Abu Jahal (primarily) 2: Walid ibn Al Mughira 3: Abu Lahab Referring to their assaults on the Prophet ﷺ whenever he prayed near the Kaaba.
Ayah 11-12 Have you seen if he is upon guidance or enjoins righteousness?		Talking to the disbelievers, asking if they even gave the Prophet ﷺ's message a chance.
Ayah 13-14 Have you seen if he denies and turns away, doesn't he know Allah sees?		Talking to the believers, about Abu Jahal
Ayah 15-16 No! If he does not desist, We will surely drag him by the forelock. A lying, sinning forelock	Nasiya: the forehead/frontal lobe Kaadiba: lying Khatiya: sinning	The forehead is a) part of the brain that makes decisions b) a sign of honor. This person will be dishonored on the DOJ when they are dragged by their forehead, the same one which lied and sinned despite knowing the truth. The person's own mind beautified their actions for them.

Ayah 17-18 Then let him call his associates. We will call the angels of hell.	Nadiya: followers/associates Zabaniya: angels of jahannam	These ayah were revealed after Abu Jahal made a comment about having lots of followers. This is a rhetorical response showing that calling upon followers will not help when Allah calls the angels of hell.
Ayah 19 No! Do not obey him. But prostrate and draw near to Allah SAJDAH AYAH	La yuti'hu: Do not obey him Wasjud waqtarib: Prostrate and draw near	Do not let anything stop you from praying. Significance of the sujood: a) reassuring the Prophet ﷺ that he can pray where he wishes and Allah will protect him b) Opinion that Ibn Abbas sujood is in itself closeness to Allah c) Sujood should be done with the intention of gaining nearness to Allah
	Ghazali on the intended benefits of salah	1: Comfort 2: Pushing away harm 3: Access to Allah's treasures

95 | At-Tin

Ayah 1 By the fig and the olive	Wat tin: Fig Wa zaytoon: Olive 2 interpretations of the oath	Allah is taking an oath by the fig and olive because a) they are very unique in nature and have beneficial qualities, similar to human beings b) Fruits enjoyed by the Prophet's ﷺ
Ayah 2 And by Mount Sinai	Thoori sineen: Mount Sinai	Mt. Sinai was a) brought from Jannah b) where Musa AS received revelation c) loved by Allah and the Prophet ﷺ
Ayah 3 And [by] this secure city [Makkah]	Balad-il ameen: Secure city	Referring to Makkah. Affirms the opinion that Allah is taking oaths by thing the Prophet ﷺ loves. The Prophet ﷺ had a deep love for Makkah and the Kaaba.
Ayah 4 We have certainly created man in the best of stature	Ahsani taqweem: Best of stature (2 ways)	Allah has created human beings in a superior fashion. 1: physically 2: internally This perfection is a testament to Allah's greatness as the creator, not for the purpose of human arrogance.

Ayah 5 Then We return him to the lowest of the low	Asfala saafileen: Lowest of the low	Humans have the capacity to fall lower than animals if they fail to fulfill their purposes: a) Ibadah b) Ilm/Dawah Failing this purpose results in a loss of status in the eyes of Allah.
Ayah 6 Except for those who believe and do righteous deeds, for they will have a reward uninterrupted	Amanoo: Faith Amilu: Action saalihaati: Righteous Ghayru mamnun: uninterrupted reward	Human beings have the potential to gain the uninterrupted reward of jannah by acting faith and doing righteous deeds. Analogy: Live the deen like an ambassador of it not like a tourist.
Ayah 7 So what yet causes you to deny the Recompense?	Bid deen: The Recompense/Judgment	A rhetorical question challenging those who deny the DOJ despite the clear evidence of Allah's creation and power.
Ayah 8 Is not Allah the most just of judges?	Ahkamil haakimeen: Most just of judges	Allah is just: he will take a believer's best performance of a deed and apply that reward to their other deeds.

94 | Ash-Sharh

Ayah 1 Did We not expand for you, [O Muhammad], your breast?	Nashrah: Expansion Sadr: Chest/Heart 3 interpretations	3 possible meanings for how Allah “expanded” the Prophet ﷺ’s chest: 1: Giving him confidence in Allah and the religion of islam 2: Giving him a “big heart” which is tolerant and forgiving toward others 3: Giving him the capacity to handle the burden of prophethood
Ayah 2–3 And We removed from you your burden which had weighed upon your back	Wizr: Burden/Grief Anqada Dhaharak: Weighed upon your back 2 interpretations	1: The burden of people rejecting his message, which Allah relieved him of by reassuring him that guidance only happens by Allah’s will (though the duty is to spread the message remains) 2: The burden of sins. The Prophet ﷺ is sinless. Generally, righteous people feel the weight of their sins. They can remedy it through tawba
Ayah 4 And raised high for you your repute	Dhikrak: Remembrance/Praise	Allah elevated the Prophet ﷺ’s name in the following ways: a) his name is mentioned alongside Allahs (in salah, adhan, quran etc.)

		b) his Ummah are honored simply for following him c) his remembrance (his sunnah, his praise, etc.)
Ayah 5–6 For indeed, with hardship [will be] ease. Indeed, with hardship [will be] ease	Usr: Hardship Yusr: Ease	Repetition here is to show that patterns of difficulties and ease can differ from person to person/across various stages of life. See Surah Duha for more
Ayah 7 So when you have finished [your duties], then stand up [for worship]	Faraghta: Finishing communal duties Nasab: Struggle/Strive	Working for the community must be balanced with a strong spiritual connection. Spending time with Allah in private worship allows the believer to gain the strength they need to face life's challenges.
Ayah 8 And to your Lord direct [your] longing	Raghba: Longing/Desire	A believer should develop a deep longing for Allah, finding the highest comfort in worship.
	How to cultivate raghba	1: maarifatullah (learning about Allah's attributes) 2: speaking about him 3: engaging in acts of worship

Questions

93 | Ad-Duha

	Context	This surah was revealed after a fatrah (pause in revelation) during which the Prophet ﷺ wondered if he had displeased Allah or if Allah had abandoned him.
Ayah 1 By the morning brightness	Wad duha: An oath by the morning brightness, which is reassuring and comforting to look at 2 interpretations	1: Refers to revelation, which is a source of light. Now that it has come the Prophet ﷺ has comfort in his life again. 2: (Imam Suyuti's opinion) Refers to the brightness of the Prophet ﷺ's face. Taking oaths on the Prophet ﷺ's features is a sign of Allah's love.
Ayah 2 And by the night when it covers with darkness	Wal layl: Night when it covers 2 interpretations	1: Hardship will take up the majority of life, just like darkness takes the majority of the day 2: Refers to the darkness of the Prophet ﷺ's hair. Continuing the idea of lovingly swearing by the Prophet ﷺ's features. 3: The light of wahi will seem minimal compared to the darkness of ignorance

		"Allah is telling us that difficulty is long, but I am still your lord even when things are not going right"
Ayah 3 Your Lord has not taken leave of you, O Muhammad, nor has He detested you	Wada'a: a loving type of farewell	The Prophet ﷺ's main cause of discomfort was the gap he perceived between him and Allah. This ayah is assuring him that he has not been abandoned.
	Lessons for believers from Ayah 3	1: Be cautious about leaving the Prophet ﷺ's sunnah. Allah uses the most loving word for a farewell he did not give. As believers we should never feel comfortable leaving our connection to the Prophet ﷺ 2: Taking example from the Prophet ﷺ and having istihdar of Allah. We should turn to Allah for the ultimate comfort. 3: Never think Allah's love is lost. Often when we experience trials we think that Allah does not love us. However, all blessings and trials are a show of love and we are always within his blessings and mercy.

Ayah 4 And the Hereafter is better for you than the first life	Aakhiratu: Hereafter OR tomorrow Khair: good, better	1: (akhira meaning tomorrow) Relief is to come soon 2: (akhira meaning jannah) true relief is in Jannah Lessons: 1: The timing of our relief is not in control. While tomorrow might not be easier, Jannah definitely will be. 2: Strive to be better every day in dunya so that you can see the reward in akhira.
Ayah 5 And your Lord is going to give you, and you will be satisfied	Sawfa: a type of giving that occurs after due time Y'uteeka Fattarda: you will be satisfied, fa for immediacy 2 interpretations	1: Allah will give you jannah in due to time 2: Allah will continuously give, until you are pleased Things Allah gave the Prophet ﷺ Fath of Mecca A high station on the DOJ ultimate satisfaction for the Shafaa (intercession) of his Ummah his ultimate satisfaction from hadith
Ayah 6 Did he not find you an orphan and give you refuge?	Yajidka: find Yateem: orphan Aawaa: refuge	The Prophet ﷺ received a home despite his seemingly impossible status as an orphan infant.

Ayah 7 And He found you lost and guided you	Dhaalan: Lost Hada: Guided	The Prophet ﷺ had Allah's guidance despite all of the false religions around him.
Ayah 8 And He found you poor and made you self-sufficient	Aghnaa: from istighna, meaning self-sufficiency	Reminding the Prophet ﷺ that he has been relieved of the burden of society and given the privilege of contentment. For believers it is a reminder to live with the lens of istighna (contentment) and not faqr (always in need of something)
Ayah 9 So as for the orphan, do not oppress him	Yateema: orphan Taqhar: oppress	Lessons: 1: Do not be calculated with how you treat others 2: Spend time with those who have less
Ayah 10 And as for the petitioner, do not repel him	Saa-ila: petitioner Tanhar: repel	The adhab of responding to someone who needs something from us is that we do not embarrass them. Less important is what we give than how we give it.
Ayah 11 But as for the favor of your Lord, report it	Ni'mati: blessings Fa Haddith: speak about it	The purpose of blessings a) remember Allah's favors to us b) use them to benefit others Allah loves to see his blessings recognized, used, and spoken about.

Summary: This surah shows us the balance between comfort and hardship, and reminds us that Allah is always with us. We should reflect on his favors upon us and let them be a reminder that he is always with us. We should also reflect our gratitude in our actions by taking care of those who need it and utilizing his blessings

Answers

What are 3 interpretations for duha/layl?

- 1: Representing comfort and hardship
- 2: Representing the Prophet ﷺ's face and hair
- 3: Representing the light of wahi and the darkness of ignorance

What lessons can a person draw from مَا وَدَّعَكَ رَبُّكَ وَمَا قَلَىٰ ?

- 1: Follow the sunnah. This ayah indicates that abandoning the Prophet ﷺ is unthinkable (waddaka - farewell to a beloved, qala - meaning intense hate, but has no attached pronoun).
- 2: Turn to Allah for comfort. Using the example of the Prophet ﷺ who always had firm confidence in Allah's support and care.
- 3: Remember that Allah is always with us. Even in difficult times.

What are the nuances of وَلَاسَوْفَ as it appears in Surah Duha? What can we interpret from it?

The word means "soon" and it carries the nuance of "in due time" and positive anticipation/rewards. The word implies that something good is coming but that it is still a little far away. We can interpret from it that while relief is guaranteed it might not come in this life.

What did the Prophet ﷺ consider "فَتَرَضَىٰ" to be?

Fatarda: ultimate satisfaction. Allah granted the Prophet ﷺ a few satisfactions: Fath of Mecca, maqam mahmud (the highest station on the DOJ), and the right to shafaa (intercession) on behalf of his ummah on the DOJ. The Prophet ﷺ's greatest satisfaction will be from seeing his ummah entering jannah, according to hadith.
