

Fatiha

[1]

- Siffah Mushabah meanings
 - فعيل: shows eternal state, shows connection to the Mafool
 - فعالان: shows temporary state, with an exaggeration
 - فعّال: repetition
 - فاعول: intrinsic quality
- براعة الاستهلال
 - Balagha rule that shows The excellence of an opening
 - Sets the tone for the rest of the Quran by how excellent the opening of it is

[3]

- ر: gives the meaning of repetition, even the way it sounds—Wants to roll but doesn't
- ق: Has the meaning of stability and firmness -
 - قلب: Firmly in your chest.
 - قبر: Firmly planted in your grave

[4]

- أل Different types of
 - استغراق: Many
 - الكمال: The highest form, Ex: The BEST Muslim
 - جنس: includes all types
 - عهد: Specific
 - الذكرى: Mentioned already previously. Ex: I saw a man... then the man.
 - الذهني: The thing is understood.
 - الحضورى: The thing is physically present. Ex: open the door.. (obviously seekers classroom door and not the door in muneer or in yr 2)
- مصارع Verbs:
 - typically show continuity
- إياكم/ إياهم:
 - used as a place holder

[6]

- مستقيم

- Scale 10 doesn't always have to mean seeking; can mean an exaggeration
- The most straight path

[7]

- Word غير typically will be a siffah to the word after it

Baqara

[4]

- ضمير فصل
 - The هم here standing alone, it is its own muftada
 - Gives exclusivity or قصر
 - Emphasis.....

[9]

- إن + ما كافة Harf; إنما
 - Makes it حصر and إن no longer has an effect

[10]

- The Different types of ب
 - The ب of السببية: shows the cause
 - The ب of التعدية: makes word transitive
 - The ب of العوض: shows when there's an exchange
- Masdariyya: ما and ان
 - Only comes after present tense verbs and translates the word after as the masdar version of it

[12]

- Harff of تنبيه, Alerting
 - ألا
- Harff الاستدراك
 - Word لكن in this ayat
 - Used as a retraction or rather
-

[20] [71]

- إثباتها نفى، ونفيها إثبات
- "Its affirmation implies negation, and its negation implies affirmation."

- The word يكاد

It did happen = لا يكاد -

Didnt happen = كاد -

[22]

- The word جعل will always have 2 Mafool bihi

[24]

- الجملة الاعتراضية
 - Interjection; like “by the way, you won’t”

[25]

- The ما of Nakira
 - Like كلما
 - Something
- فعل مجهول
 - Benefit: puts the focus on action or the recipient of the action
- من
 - Shows a portion, minimizes the thing after it
- الإطلاق المطلق
 - When a word is left open ended and can be used in an unrestricted way
 - This context “مطهرة” doesn’t specify what its purified from [26]

- when ما and إلا come together
 - Act like they don’t exist, treat it like a Mafool

[27] and [66]

- Masdar Mimi مصدر ميمي
 - Word موعظة and مثاقفه
 - Verbal noun where verb starts with م
 - Scale of dharf

[28]

- “و” حالية comes before a past tense verb
 - Add قد
- ثم
 - Can show delay in time or in status or severity

[29]

- الالتفات
 - Balagha rule of when the pronouns suddenly switch
- الاستئناف
 - A starting و
 - Shown in the beginning of a sentence

[30]

- إسم فاعل
 - Can have Mafool bihi when it gives the meaning of a verb

[32]

- Rule for قال
 - When conversation is a continuous back and forth, the standard rule is that a و will not be added. Unless there's a pause in the conversation
 -

[35]

- نداء Harf
 - مفرد
 - Ex: يا ادمُ
 - مركب / Idaffa
 - Ex: اَبُ، اَبا، اَبِ

- الامتنان
 - Balagha rule, used to show favor of something or emphasize a blessing
 - In this verse “رَغْدًا”

[37]

- When تاب comes with harff jarr على
 - Means to accept repentance

[40]

- The word فارهيون
 - The ن has a kasra here because the ي is dropped
 - Why? Having the ي still there would put attention on the Mafool bihi, when ي is dropped, Mafool bihi no longer important
 - Attention moves to the فعل

[41]

- the. ن of wiqayah
 - Used to help pronounce ي(me)
 - Typically shown with a فعل امر

[46]

- why ملاقوا is used as a noun instead of verb
 - To show permanence

[49]

- Rule for المؤنث سماعي
 - You're not always bound to using feminine pronouns
 - Ex in this ayat: نفس
 - Keep masculine when indicating to masculine or gender neutral

[58]

- word after قال can have its own irab
- Letter س shows future and closeness

[60]

- Scale 7
 - Shows ease
- How the word صبر can change with different Harff Jars
 - مع
 - Stay
 - له
 - Patience for something
 - علنه
 - To tolerate
 - ب
 - Patience through something

[62]

- استطراد
 - A balagha rule that shows a break in the passage,

[63]

- For قبل and بعد
 - Needs to be متعلق to a dropped verb

- However من بعد in this context is used for الابتداء: connection to event that happened immediately
- For Ex: بعد can be anytime between 10-4
- But من بعد would be like 10:01

[79]

- Any time حرف جار comes before a verb
 - There will typically be a dropped ان masdariyya

[80]

- بلا w/ أم
 - Translate as rather or maybe
 - A negation with the affirmation being the next word

[82]

- لا nafi
 - Can be in the meaning of nahi in some instances

[86]

- Dropping مفعول
 - Done for generality

[87]

- اضافة الموصوف الصفة
 - When something looks like Idafa but is actually a mawsoof siffa
 - In this ayat for example: بروح القدس

[90]

- افعال الذم
 - Verbs of scolding
 - Ex: بئسما “evil is”
 -
- افعال المدح
 - Verbs of praising
 - Ex: نعم “how excellent”

[100]

- Different uses of بل
 - إضراب For
 - Turning attention

- أبطالي For
 - Negation
- Both cancelation and negation used together to make the statement before it false
 - انتقالي For
- Transition; moves the convo somewhere else
- How it's being used in this specific ayat
- Translate almost like “ forget about this, worry about the next topic”

[105]

- من التبعض
 - Partial min, translate as some of or a portion of [109]

- لو تمنى
 - Not used as a conditional statement, but to express a “wish”
 - For example in this Ayat “Many people of the scripture wish they could turn you back to disbelief”

[111]

- إسم الفعل
 - Word that's a noun but gives the meaning of a verb or vice versa
 - Ex: هيات and هاتوا

[116]

- تنوين العوض
 - Reason for why كل has a tanween dhamma
 - Compensates for a dropped mudhaf ilayh
- Using إن instead of إذا
 - Less likely for it to happen

[124]

- تقديم الامتنان
 - In balagha; when a blessing or favor is emphasized before giving a reminder or a command
 - Here in this ayat, allah mentions the favors/ blessings bestowed upon Ibrahim (as)

[128]

- حرف نداء

- Certain حرف نداء used for different reasons, some used for calling someone closer or farther
- Less letters=closer
- The shortest حرف نداء to use is simply using a ء
- Even closer, dropping the حرف نداء all together

[129]

- من الابتداء
 - Means to originate
 - In this ayat “ a messenger from them”

[131]

- إذ
 - ظرف, and always needs to be mutalaq to something

[137]

- إن as a شرط
 - Shows less importance
- من الاستفهام
 - Used as a negation
 - Questioning not to actually answer but to deny

[142]

- تعريض
 - A subtle indication to something
 - like how allah says in this ayat, he guides who he wills to a straight path
 - Ex: walking in a room where someone’s wearing the color blue, a color that you hate, and instead of saying “I hate blue” saying “I like those who wear green”

[143]

- إن مخففة
 - Translates as indeed similar to إِنَّ
 - However it’s ism is always dropped

[145]

- اخبار
 - Balagha rule where information is given as a prohibition
 - Ex: in this ayat, and you will not be a follower of their qibla
- إذا

- Harff of jawab,
- Defined as “in that case”

[150]

- Dropping ي and using kasra instead
 - In this ayat اخشوني or ayat 52: تكفرون
 - Think of it like a lowercase me with emphasis on the actual fear or disbelief and less emphasis on the me.

[184]

- Scale 4 إفعال
 - Can have the meaning of removing something

[189]

- أسلوب الحكيم
 - The style of the wise
 - Ex: someone asks a question and completely ignoring the question and redirecting to a different topic that's more important

[194]

- Using harff jarr ك
 - Shows similarity in one single quality (implies less similarity)